Chapter 211: Brain Budding Genius

The next day, Qin Yu stepped into Lixin's office 5 minutes before 8 o'clock.

"Hello, sir, who are you looking for?" The two front desks stood up, their eyes shining slightly.

Isn't this guy too handsome?

Taking a closer look, Zhang Qiqi widened her eyes in surprise, pointed at him and said, "Shao Qin."

The colleague next door asked blankly: "What Qin Shao?"

Zhang Qiqi pressed her finger on her mouth and said, 'It's broken and it's broken, how come I forget that I'm still at work?'

Qin Yu also recognized Zhang Qiqi, and his 90-point figure was quite impressive.

Although I would meet her here by accident, Qin Yu didn't care too much, "Well, is Hong Zhong here?"

Zhang Qiqi and He Na were dumbfounded when Qin Yu called out the name of "General Manager Hong"!

Who is this person?

When he came up, he just called Mr. Hong's name without a word. Is it so arrogant?

"Shao Qin."

Hong Zhongcai, who was preparing to convene a meeting, happened to see Qin Yu at the front desk.

Three steps and two steps to his side, Hong Zhongcai looked at the two front desks seriously: "Ah, let me introduce you. This is the boss of our company, Qin Shao, remember it clearly."

Zhang Qiqi's inner surprise was that a wave of unresolved waves rose again, and her eyes dully followed He Na and called out "Qin Shao," and she was in a daze.

After Qin Yu and Hong Zhong walked far away, people still stood in the same place stupidly.

"Hey, Kiki, are you okay?"

There is a fierce gossip fire in He Na's eyes, and she especially wants to know what is the relationship between Zhang Qiqi and the boss.

The appearance of the two before, obviously not the first time they met.

But Zhang Qiqi was embarrassed again, as if she didn't want to meet him here.

So... the first time the two met was embarrassing?

Or do people who shouldn't show up appear in places that shouldn't show up?

Then the person who shouldn't show up is naturally only Zhang Qiqi.

Where it shouldn't appear... Lixin Investment.

So, what did she do before? ? ?

Seeing the gossip and excitement in her eyes, Zhang Qiqi gradually realized, "I met Qin Shao in a bar before, but I didn't expect him to be Lixin's boss."

He Na clapped her hands and jumped up, "I knew you were in the hotel...wait, bar?"

He Na is stupid, why is it different from what she imagined?

Look at Zhang Qiqi's cold and sarcasm smile again.

He Na smiled awkwardly, pulling a chair to sit down and said: "Oh~ Mr. Hong explained that I haven't finished what I did. Really, I will be scolded in a while."

...

Walking to the meeting room side by side, Qin Yu asked casually: "Who hired the front desk?"

Hong Zhongcai responded: "It's me, Qin Shao, do you think there is a problem?"

Qin Yu asked back: "Is it a normal application?"

Hong Zhongcai understood his subtext and said sternly: "Yes, the resume is still in the company mailbox, you can read it at any time."

Since it is a normal recruitment, there is no problem!

Doing part-time jobs at night does not hinder normal work during the day.

As long as Zhang Qiqi does her receptionist work during working hours.

Qin Yu would not discriminate against her because she occasionally worked as a part-time 'accompanying wine'.

Living in this highly competitive, efficient and cruel era, no one has the word 'easy' in his life.

She didn't do anything wrong, how could Qin Yu trouble her?

Looking at the worried Hong Zhongcai, Qin Yu smiled and said: "It's okay, I think the little girl is pretty good."

Only then did Hong Zhongcai's heart land again, "Qin Shao is satisfied."

As we approached the meeting room, everyone was trotting inside.

Seeing Qin Yu and Hong Zhongcai, they rushed into the conference room while bowing their heads in greeting.

When Qin Yu walked into the meeting room, everyone was already there.

"We are meeting now to discuss the company's first investment...Silver futures."

Without any useless or long-winded greetings, Qin Yu knew straightforwardly: "From now on, with your family, relatives, girlfriends and all those who keep in touch frequently."

"Call them and tell them that you will lose contact with the outside world in the next 15 days."

"Don't worry, if there is an emergency, the company phone can be connected at any time..."

Qin Yu's requirements are not harsh or rare requirements for financial traders.

Before fighting a battle, the confidentiality of information is the top priority.

It must also be guarded carefully.

Because of a momentary negligence, leaking information caused huge losses, or even direct bankruptcy.

It is not a rare exception in the financial industry. This kind of thing is repeated almost every once in a while.

Therefore, everyone present can understand Qin Yu's request.

In 15 minutes, everyone has informed their family, relatives and friends or those who have been in contact for a long time.

I will be short-lived in the next fifteen days, so I call the company landline if there is an emergency.

Seeing everyone put down their phones, Qin Yu opened the office door and shouted at the end of the corridor: "Zhang Qiqi."

'What's the name of the other girl here, forget it, let's say hello later.'

"Here... Ah yes." Zhang Qiqi hurriedly walked out of the front desk.

"Get a basket here."

When Zhang Qiqi came to the conference room with the basket, all the phones had been turned off and put on the table.

"Take all these away and send it over when I get back to the office."

Perceiving the tense atmosphere in the conference room, Zhang Qiqi was only shocked.

Holding a basket in one hand, every time he walks to a person and takes away the other person's mobile phone.

She would first nod and smile at the other person, as if saying, 'It's none of my business, the boss asked me to do it.'

After turning around and returning to Qin Yu, Zhang Qiqi clutched the basket with both hands and said: "Qin...Boss, put it away."

clatter!

Qin Yu put his mobile phone inside, "Get out!"

The door of the meeting room was closed, and the tense atmosphere was eliminated by the refreshing air.

Zhang Qiqi slapped her hand in front of her, and murmured, "What are you going to do? It scares me to death."

Thinking of what the boss had just ordered, her expression was a little weird.

Why do you have to wait for him to return to the office before sending it over? Is he suggesting something to himself?

Have you been subjected to the unspoken rules of the workplace?

If this is the case, should I accept it or resist...accept it!

"It seems that there is no choice, so please accept it happily."

Zhang Qiqi murmured to herself as she walked forward, and her joyful smile did not seem to be forced.

...

In the conference room, Zhang Qili looked at Qin Yu with a tangled face.

This shouldn't be the case, why suddenly we have to start with silver futures.

Listen to the boss, this time I will invest a 10-figure amount of money to do it.

For the futures market, this money cannot even be splashed with water, and it is completely transparent.

But for Zhang Qili, it was an unimaginable amount of money.

What if something goes wrong?

Will the boss find his own trouble and be responsible for himself?

What he said was really true, that report was only used to show him the analysis data...

Hearing that the boss had already started assigning tasks, Zhang Qili couldn't wait any longer.

He was about to stand up while pinching the chair with both hands, but was held down by someone.

Looking at Hong Zhongcai with wide-eyed eyes, the other party just shook his head firmly and then turned his gaze to Qin Yu again.

"That's the situation. I will personally direct this operation, and everyone will follow the command line."

"No matter what order I give, just do it!"

"I don't want anyone to be clever or disobey my orders, understand?"

Hearing what Qin Yu said, Zhang Qili's tight body suddenly relaxed.

It seems that this time he was not borrowed to carry the scapegoat, 'this is good, this is good...'

...

The door of the meeting room did not reopen until noon, and Zhang Qiqi, who was in a daze, leaned forward and looked inside.

Qin Yu, who was the first to walk out of the meeting room, waved to her, "Bring things here."

Zhang Qiqi grabbed the basket trot and followed.

At the corner at the end of the corridor, Qin Yu's office has the best light.

After closing the door, Zhang Qiqi put the basket on the table, twitching the broken hair in her ear with a weird expression.

"Wait for you and who, except the front desk and my office landline, and recently, no one is allowed to enter or exit the trader's room... Is there any delicious takeaway nearby?"

Qin Yu leaned on the chair, his eyes closed silently, saying, "Activate the silver futures prediction card." '

Lines of self immediately appeared in front of him.

After reading all the information, before hearing Zhang Qiqi's response, Qin Yu opened his eyes in surprise.

Zhang Qiqi was sitting on the corner of the desk with her back bridge, her right hand propped on the desk, her body leaning forward, her neckline drooping to reveal a touch of scenery.

Eyes facing each other, fluttering long hair with amorous feelings, a pair of electric eyes blinking and blinking to release a signal of temptation!

Chapter 212: What is it like to pick up money?

Seeing those big eyes that kept flashing, Qin Yu asked blankly: "What are you doing?"

"Huh?" Zhang Qiqi is stupid, what am I doing?

I do not know! ! !

Quickly jumped off the table and smoothed the skirt with her hand, Zhang Qiqi said incoherently: "Boss, that...I'm uncomfortable, I was a little dizzy just now, yes, a little dizzy."

"Is it ok now?"

"Okay, very good... I know that takeaway, I will write it down now."

Zhang Qiqi wanted to run away after she finished speaking, but she couldn't wait to disappear where she was.

My cheeks are red and hot like an iron, 'it's over, I've never been so embarrassed since I was a child. '

"Wait."

Qin Yu stopped her and said, "You don't need to show me the takeaway. A fast food with two meats and two vegetarian foods will taste the same."

"You go out and count your appetites. Starting today, three meals a day must be delivered on time."

This is a special period, and letting them "lost contact" in the company for fifteen days is not a good thing.

The habit of eating or not is not within Qin Yu's consideration, as long as the nutrition of three meals a day can keep up.

I want to eat well, and the bonus will be given when the action is over.

You can eat whatever you want with your own money.

Just now, the money of Li Xiao and others has been credited to the company's account.

Now that everything is ready, it's time for a big fight.

...

bell.

Two food deliverymen and errands were waiting at the door, carrying takeaways, drinks and two boxes of yogurt.

He opened the door to let them put things by the wall, He Na watched the other person leave, and the electronic security door was locked again.

"You said, what are they doing in there, boss?"

He Na looked to the other side of the corridor, where the trader's room was.

Since five days ago, the boss took everyone in, and he had barely come out after eating and going to the toilet.

The phone has become the company's 'prohibited goods.' Even when the two of them go to the company every day, they have to turn off the phone and hand it in until they get off work.

This can be boring to He Na, sitting at the front desk all day in a daze.

On the contrary, Zhang Qiqi has changed a lot in the past two days. She brings the book with her every day, and she looks pretty good when she reads it carefully.

"Technical Analysis of Futures Market", once again looked at the name on the book cover, He Na felt that she should be able to remember this time.

Put the bookmark and close the book, Zhang Qiqi's temperament is a little more calm than before, and she chuckles: "Sister He, let's not worry about it."

"Isn't Mr. Hong talking anymore, as long as you do your job well and wait to receive the bonus."

He Na curled her lips silently, "Do you really believe it? The two of us are the reception desk, what bonus can we get?"

"Even if it does, it's only two or three hundred yuan, which is not enough to buy lipstick!"

After hearing her talk more and more, Zhang Qiqi stopped persuading, "I'll tell them to eat."

Coming to the door of the trading room, Zhang Qiqi raised her hand and knocked on the door lightly.

From where she was, no sound in the room could be heard.

This office seems to be specially soundproofed, which is quite mysterious anyway.

The door opened a gap, Hong Zhongcai, with panda eyes stuck out his head and asked, "What's the matter?"

Zhang Qiqi responded with a smile: "Mr. Hong, lunch has arrived."

"I know, I'll come later."

The door closed again, and Zhang Qiqi returned to her place without any surprise.

Take out a lunch from the fast food box and ate with He Na talking and laughing.

"Boss, judging from the current volatility, we don't have enough margin to ensure safety..."

Zhang Qili's voice sounded a bit agitated, but was soon suppressed by another voice.

"Okay, do as I said, and eat now."

Qin Yu stopped him from continuing, and quickly walked past the front desk and disappeared to the other end of the corridor.

Zhang Qiqi and He Na stared at each other when they got up to greet each other, and their eyes showed signs of helplessness.

Here again?

This is the first few times that Mr. Zhang has been so excited, and Zhang Qiqi is too lazy to count.

Thinking that Qin Yugang didn't take the box lunch, Zhang Qiqi quickly took a copy and said, "I'll take it to the boss."

Looking at her back, He Na curled her lips and vomited: "Cut, it's so diligent."

"Old Zhang, just say a few words. You haven't seen the boss's judgment these days."

"But the data is there, I can't treat it as invisible."

"Then does it follow your data?"

"This... unscientific!"

Hearing the conversation between Zhang Qili and Hong Zhongcai before, He Na re-settled with her eyes turning.

Judging from the news heard these days, the company must have a big move.

Moreover, the boss's judgment is correct.

If you can get some inside information from someone and operate it, wouldn't it make a lot of money?

Thinking of the box lunch in front of me, it doesn't fragrant!

Unwilling to look around a few times, I found that everyone went back to their offices to rest.

He Na took two boxes of lunch, put all her clothes on, and came to Hong Zhongcai's office.

Keng Keng!

"Come in."

Pushing the door and entering, He Na smiled and said, "Mr. Hong, Mr. Zhang, this is lunch."

Hong Zhongcai casually pointed: "Thank you, you can put it on the table."

"Okay, then I'll go out first."

Putting down the box lunch, He Na, who walked out of the office and closed the door, did not leave, just stood at the door and listened inward.

"Qin Shao said the price will rise again, Lao Hong, do you really believe it?"

"Why don't you believe it, won't it rise again this morning?"

"But this is very abnormal, the whole market is abnormal, haven't you noticed it?"

"That is to look at it from your perspective. You only see price fluctuations, but you don't see the whole picture."

"Did you see it?"

"...No, but the boss must be able to see it."

"Okay, just pretend to be confused! If something goes wrong, you don't need to take it back."

"Hey, Lao Zhang, what you said is wrong, how do you call it a back-up, the boss personally directs it, can it still push the responsibility on you."

"Why not? I did the report on the silver market."

He Na was listening attentively, when something suddenly slapped her shoulder.

"Ah!" He quickly covered her mouth, looking back at Zhang Qiqi, He Na pulled her back to the front desk.

"I'm just a little curious, Kiki, don't you say anything more?"

Seeing her pleasing smile, Zhang Qiqi responded with a complicated mood: "Sister He Na, are you doing this bad?"

He Na nodded in agreement: "I know, I know."

"Actually, I just want to make some extra money. I don't mean anything else. If you want to rely on dead wages, what can you expect in this life!"

"But you..."

"Okay, okay, I promise there will never be another time, okay?"

Seeing Zhang Qiqi nodded reluctantly, He Na happily hugged her and said: "Ah~ you are so kind, I will invite you to dinner tonight, and after that, let's go to the bar to have a good time."

...

November 1, ten days later.

Seeing He Na in the lobby, her face looked particularly ruddy and shiny, "Sister He Na, early."

Seeing Zhang Qiqi, He Na responded enthusiastically: "Morning, Qiqi."

"Sister He Na, your face is getting better and better, is there any secret?"

In the elevator, Zhang Qiqi asked curiously.

"It's just happiness. If a woman is in a good mood, her skin will naturally heal."

He Na stood in front of her with her hand and smiled in a flashy smile. She was in a very good mood these days.

Since hearing the conversation between Zhang Qili and Hong Zhongcai that day, He Na's mind has become active.

The next day, I tentatively bought 20,000 pieces of silver, intending to try the water.

When she got off work at night, she found that she had made more than two thousand.

This made He Na happy, and what Zhang Qili said to Hong Zhongcai was indeed true.

In the next few days, He Na voted more and more.

Not only did he invest all his savings, he even borrowed an online loan to invest in it.

To date, she has invested 500,000 in it and made more than 60,000.

Earning more than 60,000 in four days, what could be more happier than this?

In short, He Na couldn't think of it, but she didn't have any worries in her heart, it was fake!

So, she had to find a chance to listen to something.

It's just that she didn't have any chance at the end of the day, Zhang Qiqi seemed to be nailed to her position, and she didn't move.

When it was about to get off work, He Na was anxious like an ant on a hot pot.

But she mobilized many relatives and friends to invest money, if something happened.

"Old Zhang, let me tell you..."

"Shhh, don't say it here."

When the door suddenly opened, Hong Zhongcai took Zhang Qili and walked quickly to the toilet.

They only have a 10-minute break, and they all have to run to go to the toilet...

"Kiki, my stomach hurts suddenly and I need to go to the toilet. Watch it here."

He Na suddenly clutched her belly, and ran towards the toilet after taking a few sheets of paper. Zhang Qiqi didn't even shout from behind.

Looking at the direction of her disappearance, Zhang Qiqi's face changed and she could only sigh helplessly.

Chapter 213: 200% of the income

In the following days, Zhang Qiqi almost stopped communicating with He Na privately again.

No matter where she went, she didn't care what she did!

This is also convenient for He Na's actions, she is about to fall into trouble now.

8 days, 8 days earned 200,000.

In her life, He Na has never been like this, and she feels that making money is as easy as Bai Jian.

Seeing that the 15-day deadline the boss said, there is still the last day left.

He Na began to worry about gains and losses, wondering if she should let go now.

So that the moment when I came to the company and put down my phone.

He Na has a throbbing feeling of missing something, 'it's okay, it's not that there is one day, and there's no time to buy it at night!'

After comforting herself, He Na started her long and boring day.

Throughout the morning, her heart was beating wildly.

Until the door of the trading room was suddenly opened, the colleagues walked out of the office happily and chatted with each other.

"Haha, I said that the boss is a genius, Lao Zhang, this time Lixin will become famous in the first battle."

Hong Zhongcai excitedly hugged Zhang Qili's shoulders, shaking vigorously back and forth.

Zhang Qili was even more drunk, his whole face blushing was about to be ripe, "Our boss is more than a genius, it is just... enchanting!"

"If I hadn't seen it with my own eyes, I would tell you, I wouldn't have guessed how the transaction would be like this if I killed it."

Seeing the performance of the two, He Na also became happy.

"Mr. Hong, Mr. Zhang, what's the good thing, let's talk about it!"

The two looked at each other and laughed one after another: "Okay, I'm not afraid to tell you this meeting, it's over."

"It's over?" He Na's heart jerked fiercely.

What is the end? Isn't there another day?

Zhang Qili didn't see her reaction, and said to himself: "Silver fell sharply. This time the company has made a lot of money. Just wait to receive the red envelope!"

He Na screamed and shouted: "Fell?"

Panicked, as if he heard that the sky had fallen.

"Yeah! I fell, what's the matter?" Hong Zhong looked at her unexpectedly, his expression a little unhappy.

This person was recruited by her, and she thought it was pretty good, but she suddenly became unsteady.

He Na stood silly on the spot, and then ran to the office abruptly.

Cell phone, her cell phone was still locked in the cabinet and left.

Seeing her run away like this, Hong Zhong looked angry and said, "What's the matter with this person?"

Zhang Qiqi stood up and said: "Mr. Hong... Sister He Na seems to have heard something and made some investment by herself!"

"She." Hong Zhongcai pointed in the direction He Na disappeared, "Eavesdropping? Does Qin Shao know?"

Zhang Qiqi nodded silently.

The day after that happened, she hesitated and chose to tell Qin Yu.

And assured him that He Na didn't mean it.

Qin Yu also promised her that if only this time, nothing happened.

Moreover, Zhang Qiqi only knew at that time that a camera was installed on the front door of the company.

In other words, he saw He Na's movements clearly.

It was also that day that Qin Yu personally told her: "If you don't report this to me, you will definitely be among the people who will leave."

Now, Zhang Qiqi doesn't know if she will leave.

But she knew He Na would definitely leave, and...

Judging from her panic-stricken performance just now, I am afraid that the investment has also fallen into a slump!

In the office, He Na was already sitting on the ground foolishly.

The phone "ringing" in his hand rang endlessly.

When the ringtone stopped again, 52 missed calls were displayed on the flashing screen.

...

"Everyone performed very well this time, except for one person."

In the conference room, Qin Yu looked at He Na, who was standing in the back row and bowed her head silently and said: "He Na, you are fired. Please go to the company to go through the resignation procedures tomorrow, and the salary will be settled in person."

Standing in place, He Na shook her body, and walked out of the office without saying anything, her back indescribably bleak.

Zhang Qiqi's eyes flashed with unbearableness, and there was a clapping sound in her ears.

After everyone refocused on themselves, Qin Yu said with a smile: "The final settlement will come out tomorrow. Please vacate your pockets at that time, otherwise I am afraid that the bonus will be too much.

"Thank Shao Qin."

The employees at the scene burst into laughter, and Zhang Qiqi was no exception.

I believe that after get off work today, everyone will be full of curiosity, 'how many red envelopes will there be tomorrow?'

...

At Hotel W, Qin Yu opened the door and walked into the room, holding the fireworks 'bang bang'.

The colored paper fell like snowflakes, and then a figure suddenly rushed up to hug him.

Reaching out and pressing Xu Hao's face, pushing him aside, Qin Yu joked: "Go away, I'm not interested in men."

"Brother Yu, brother, my brother."

Xu Hao turned back and leaned forward, looking at him eagerly and asking, "Quickly talk about it, how much did you make?"

When I received a call from Qin Yu earlier, I only heard him say that he made a profit.

But the exact amount of money earned is still unknown.

These days, the three of Li Xiao squatted in the hotel every day, observing international futures day and night.

But they didn't have a clue as to what Qin Yu was playing with.

Today, I think that the oil has risen, and I think this is true.

Tomorrow, the gold will fall, and it will feel like gold again.

Looking at the rise in silver the day after tomorrow, it feels like it too.

Rubber, soybeans, copper, iron, precious metals...

Seeing what looks like, the three of them are almost nervous, so they give up and continue to guess!

Yang Chengjun also showed a rare smile on his face: "I don't know if the money earned this time is enough to buy a Pagani."

Qin Yu looked back at him in surprise: "Brother Jun, who are you looking down on?"

Li Xiao and Yang Chengjun looked at each other, and both saw the excitement hidden in each other's eyes.

"If a Pagani is enough, you have to form a team if you don't talk about it."

When he walked to the sofa and threw his body into the soft sofa, Qin Yu calmly said: "The final income is still being calculated, but it is at least 200%. You..."

"Ah~~" Xu Hao screamed before he could finish.

"Fuck, don't~ ah~ fuck~"

Being pressed at the bottom like a stack of Arhats, Qin Yu's desire to die is all there.

Don't find two beautiful young ladies to treat him, and even come back to this one?

This is especially grace and revenge.

right?

Right!

...

After half an hour, there was an extra massage bed in the hotel room.

Qin Yu lay on it, standing on the left and right with a young lady with 82+ appearance, giving him a caring massage.

Xu Hao squatted beside the massage table and smiled diligently: "Brother Yu, how is it? Is it comfortable?"

"Well, it's okay."

Qin Yu opened his eyes amusedly, "Okay, your money can't run away. You will return to the same way after the settlement tomorrow."

"Brother Yu, I'm convinced by the sound of Brother Yu."

Li Xiao sat on the sofa next door, shook the whiskey in his hand, and took a sip.

If you don't do this, you can't suppress the surging emotions in your heart.

But Yang Chengjun was very calm, sitting alone in the living room muttering, "a Pagani, a Ferrari, a Bugatti, an Aston Martin, a Koenigsegg..."

After all the calculations, it seems that the money still cannot be spent.

Yang Chengjun muttered with a tangled expression: "Or, buy more Ferraris?"

Looking at Yang Chengjun who was already crazy outside, Qin Yu asked Li Xiao and Xu Hao about their plans.

"How do you plan to spend this money?"

He knows what Yang Chengjun's family said, that he earned all the money. As for Li Xiao and Xu Hao, they don't know.

Hearing him mention this, Li Xiao said naturally: "I can get half of it, but I haven't thought about how to use it."

The money came too fast, and the previous plan was obviously not enough.

When Xu Hao heard this, he hung his head weakly and muttered: "Everyone earns more than me, I can only get one-third."

He has a lot of ideas, but his wallet is not strong.

Qin Yu motioned to the two masseurs to leave first, sat up and said, "Let me say, this money is best used to investXu Hao's eyes lit up: "Brother Yu, you have a new plan. I will definitely vote all. "

"If it is not enough, I will mortgage the house and car, and find someone to borrow some more."

It's not that Xu Hao is crazy, but Qin Yu's achievements are too dazzling.

These two investments were short-term operations, but the rate of return was so high that they couldn't even think of it.

Xu Hao would be really stupid if he had the opportunity to seize it without knowing it.

Li Xiao nodded in agreement and said, "If you still have a plan, we must follow it."

"There is no plan for the time being." Qin Yu dispelled their whimsy. Without insider information, Qin Yu would not invest in the futures market no matter how much money he has.

The risk value is too high, even if you add up all the funds, this body is in front of the national players, which is just a little bigger ant.

With a light touch, even the scum is not left. The investment he said is another matter.

Chapter 214: The pattern is smaller

In this operation, Lixin invested a total of 700 million yuan.

Self-owned funds are 200 million Xia Yuan, and Li Xiao, Xu Hao, Yang Chengjun, Liu Xing, and Han Hu each have 100 million.

It adds up to 700 million.

The revenue is more than 2.1 billion...

In the final settlement, after deducting various handling fees, the total income is more than 20 billion yuan.

In this transaction, Fong's credit is to be paid according to the rules.

The agency fee of 2.5% and the profit margin of 15% are no less.

Naturally, everyone has no opinion on this point, even if all expenses and taxes are eliminated.

The investment income this time was magical enough, and it was enough to brag about for a lifetime.

The agency fee is 12.5 million yuan.

The profit margin is 15%, totaling more than 200 million yuan.

In the end, the five people each received about 240 million in principal and interest, with a net yield of 140%.

Fourteen days before and after, 140 million was earned.

If anyone still feels unsatisfied...let him come!

Lixin made a lot of money this time. After subtracting the principal, including handling fees and margins, the income was more than 600 million.

This is net income!

But this is not the one who earns the most. In Barrow, the old Joe who remotely controls the flamingo of the corrupt country is the one who earns the most.

The last time the New Zealand currency happened, the Flamingo received extra attention.

At the same time, investors also protested against Lao Qiao. They put the money here to stabilize income, not a return on high-risk investments like Newtcoin.

In fact, these people feel that they are getting less due to the benefits of the flamingo.

This time, Old Joe simply didn't take them to play.

With his own funds of 260 million US dollars, he entered quietly, and Jin Yi left at night.

Total revenue... more than 600 million US dollars.

Qin Yu didn't plan to take this money back, and put it on Flamingo's side to continue operations.

In the future, his industry will definitely go abroad.

Compared with the money needed at that time, the current income can only be regarded as a fraction of a fraction.

What's more, if you transfer money to the country, you will have to lose hundreds of millions of dollars.

He doesn't need that much money, does he turn back and lie on the book to give it for nothing?

...

Sitting in the office and dialing Li Xiao's number again, Qin Yu finally asked his opinion.

"In the future, the battery factory will be at least 100 billion yuan. The impact of this investment will definitely not need me to say more."

"Brother Yu, you don't need to say... I'm hacked for this money!"

Li Xiao on the other end of the phone gritted his teeth and said: "I'll take care of it at home, you just need to transfer the principal back."

Li Xiao made up his mind this time and wanted to fight for himself.

In the past, he could not see the opportunity, and he could only let it go.

Now the chance is finally presented before him. If he doesn't grasp it firmly, Li Xiao's life will be...

They all live on dogs!

Qin Yu asked with a smile, "What did other people say?"

Regardless of Li Xiao, it may seem difficult to do, but in fact, it only needs to make the Li family realize the future potential of Kuafu.

It doesn't matter to those in power in the family who hold this asset.

What's more, the personal relationship between Li Xiao and Qin Yu can better protect family interests.

How to choose between the pros and cons, the old foxes are like a mirror in their hearts, and the door is clear!

At most it is a reprimand, to behave.

What to do in the end or what to do!

As long as Li Xiao doesn't get into trouble and knows to share some of his interests with his family, then his future days will only become more and more nourishing.

"The soldier is okay, and there is no need to pay back the principal. All the shares are replaced and transferred to his personal name.

"Mouse is like me here, ready to resist a wave, for fear that his two brothers will make trouble."

Qin Yu thought for a while, and said, "If the mouse does not have any personal shares, the Xu family's shares will be reduced by 5%, and I will choose another one."

At this time, if Brother Yu doesn't stand up to support Xu Hao, why will he let the other party speak for himself at home in the future?

Li Xiao responded with a smile: "With your sentence, there should be no problem with the mouse."

After a few brief words, the two hung up.

Qin Yu brought in an accountant and asked her to return the original principal amount transferred in before.

The money from Liu Xing and Han Hu was even used for the profit.

After a while, Qin Yu received a call from the two.

In addition to thank you or thank you, and also said that there is such a good opportunity next time, be sure to inform them.

Judging from the tone of the two, they don't know anything about the battery factory.

That's good, you don't have to make trouble in person.

Even if you know it in the future, things are a foregone conclusion, and naturally there won't be too many problems!

After all the things to be handled were arranged, Qin Yu called all the staff of the company to a meeting in the conference room.

On the road, he just ran into He Na who came to do the procedures. The other party didn't say anything, and walked past him quickly with her head down.

'It's right to have grievances. Qin Yu opened the door disapprovingly and walked into the meeting room.

"Everyone, I believe you have heard some news."

Qin Yu held the desk with both hands, and said with a smile at the corner of his mouth: "I said before you came, as long as the company makes money, it won't treat everyone badly, as long as you are with me."

"Old Hong, Old Zhang."

Hearing Qin Yu's call, the two straightened their backs immediately, and replied with a powerful voice, "Here." '

Reaching out and pressing down, Qin Yu said amused: "Don't be so nervous, it's not about letting you go to the battlefield."

"You two managers, each of 500,000 yuan, when the finance takes the money, I will explain everything."

500000? Damn it!

Hong Zhongcai and Zhang Qili's eyes were red with joy, and their tears almost didn't come out.

"President Hong, Mr. Zhang, why are you crying?"

Zhang Qiqi looked at the two jokingly. Before and after the run these days, she worked hard to serve everyone, and she became acquainted with the employees of the company.

Hong Zhongcai wiped his eyes with his hand, and said with a smile: "Go, what the little girl is talking about, there is wind...Does the wind eye know?"

Zhang Qili didn't hold it back, his hands kept wiping his eyes.

He worked hard and worked as a horse for so many years, and finally let him get it out.

Qin Shao is not talking about it, drawing cakes out of thin air, he really does what he says.

At this moment, facing such a good boss, Zhang Qili was willing to sell his life to him.

"Don't get excited, let Mr. Zhang calm down first, let's talk about your bonus first."

Qin Yu turned his attention to the five traders, not selling anything, "200,000, everyone."

"Ah~~ Long live Qin Shao."

Several people were jumping and jumping, embracing and shouting excitedly, their voices spreading far away.

Qin Yu just watched with a smile, allowing them to vent their inner excitement.

At the same time, his gaze also turned to the last remaining person in the conference room, Zhang Qiqi.

Zhang Qiqi was nervous and looking forward to being watched by Qin Yu.

500000!

200 thousand! !

They are all people involved in the plan. They run errands back and forth, answer calls, order meals, and deliver meals.

How much can I get?

Zhang Qiqi went high and guessed, 10,000? Or 20,000?

If this is to let Zhang Qili know what she thinks in her heart, she will definitely have to make fun of her, "You think too little of Qin Shao's pattern." '

Just when Zhang Qiqi was thinking about it, Qin Yu said again: "It was originally! I planned to give each person at the front desk a bonus of 50,000 yuan as encouragement."

50000?

Zhang Qiqi was so excited that she almost didn't call out, but she reacted immediately, there was a 'Originally!'

So, He Na's matter still involves herself, and Qin Shao wants to deduct part of the bonus?

With inexplicable loss in her heart, Zhang Qiqi's smile suddenly became reluctant.

"I believe everyone also knows what happened in the middle. This kind of behavior of borrowing chickens to lay eggs is strictly prohibited. To be more serious, it has already constituted a crime!"

"I don't want to see the same thing happen again, and at the same time..."

After the severe criticism and warning, Qin Yu spoke softly and said to Zhang Qiqi: "Zhang Qiqi has performed very well from beginning to end, and has the courage to expose employees who violated the regulations."

Qin Yu raised his hands, stretched out ten fingers and laughed: "Therefore, I decided to double the reward for her, the bonus...100,000 yuan."

Zhang Qiqi blinked her big eyes blankly, until she heard the prompt from the colleague beside her, she could not believe that what she was hearing was true.

100,000 Within a month of joining the company, I got 100,000 in bonuses.

"Long live Qin Shao, Qin Shao is great, Qin Shao..."

Zhang Qiqi has no idea what to say, full of satisfaction and pride.

It made her realize what kind of achievement it is to make money with her own hands.

The self-confidence exuded from the inside out instantly dispelled the inner anxiety and hesitation.

Zhang Qiqi saw a bright future for the first time, and it was there, waiting for herself to walk towards it.

Da Da Da~

The rapid sound of high heels knocking on the floor hurriedly passed by, and everyone looked out the door, only to see a figure running away embarrassed.

It was He Na who came to go through the resignation procedures. At this time, no one knew the regret in her heart.

Because... I'm making money!

Chapter 215: Family dinner

Lu Qing came to the company again and found that only Zhang Qiqi was left at the front desk, "Where is He Na?"

Zhang Qiqi pointed inward: "The lady boss should ask the boss."

Lu Qing pointed at her, smiled and walked to Qin Yu's office.

Knocked on the door, Lu Qing opened the door and asked teasingly: "Boss, are you finished?"

Qin Yu put down the information in his hand and smiled: "I'm just waiting for you, where are you going?"

Picking up their jackets, the two left the company together.

Looking at the back of the two, Zhang Qiqi was greatly envious for a while.

Then I thought about it. Isn't it a normal operation to be together?

When I think about my 100,000 yuan bonus, I feel balanced inexplicably, 'now it's important to make good money. When I can afford a house, I will consider other things.'

Zhang Qiqi set herself a goal in her heart to buy a house in three years.

She can't take care of the rest now.

Besides...

Looking at Qin Yu every day, Zhang Qiqi can't help but use him as a standard for comparison.

This standard line is a little bit higher for the majority of boys.

...

With the big G still in the company, Qin Yu drove Lv Qing's 911 towards home.

Reunion this evening, the two families have agreed to have a meal at home.

Lu Qing is now accustomed to this situation.

Although she was a little shy occasionally, Liang Chuyu was really kind to her.

It was so good that Lu Qing felt that it was more comfortable in Nanhu than at home!

During the day, she is the only one in the family.

When Liang Chuyu came back in the evening, she took her to eat all kinds of delicious food.

As long as she likes to eat, Liang Chuyu will prepare enough every day.

Even the newly hired aunt in the family said: "Madam is really concerned about Miss Lu. I have never seen such a good mother-in-law."

Seeing Lu Qing's raised mouth, Qin Yu grabbed her hand and asked, "What happy things do you think of again?"

Lu Qing responded instinctively: "Mom~ah, Aunt Liang bought me a new perfume. Does it smell good?"

Seeing her a little nervous and cute, Qin Yu teased: "Don't call her Aunt Liang, just call her mom."

Lu Qing glared at him with anger and anger, and said, "Besides, I'm going to bite you."

Qin Yu raised his eyebrows, "How to bite, do you bite separately?"

Lu Qing slapped him on the shoulder and said angrily: "Bad guy."

I couldn't help but laugh out after I followed myself, don't I like his badness!

"Oh, it hurts!"

Qin Yu covered his shoulder with his hand, and said with a painful face: "No, it hurts too much. If no one blows, blows, bites, I'm afraid it won't be better."

Lu Qing's cheeks are reddish and spit out: "It's still on the street, there are cameras everywhere, don't mess around!"

She was really afraid that Qin Yu would mess around with herself and become popular on the Internet, but Lu Qing was not prepared.

Hearing what she said, Qin Yu stepped on the accelerator's right foot and couldn't help but heavier, "I think it's still early, let's hurry up, it should be late."

"Ah, did you understand what I said, I mean don't mess around..."

"I know, I know, go home and mess around!"

"Hey, Qin Yu, you..."

After the clamor, 911 drove through the gate and parked firmly in the underground garage.

Close the electric door and turn off the sensor light.

The mechanical beast lying in the dark, swaying forward and backward as if lurking...

...

Parked the car at the corner of the main entrance, Lu Guohui and He Hong walked into the main hall, "Chu Yu, Qingqing, are you all back?"

Aunt Qiao hurried out when she heard the voice, "Mr. Lu, Miss He is here. Mr. just called and said that there was a traffic jam on the road."

He Hong handed the things in his hand to Aunt Qiao, and said, "Then we will wait here, and you will put things away."

"Didn't Qin Yu and Lu Qing come back?" Lu Guohui was a little curious. Didn't he call to say that he had already set off?

"cough!"

Aunt Qiao cleared her throat and pointed to the elevator leading to the garage, "It seems to have arrived half an hour ago."

The old father's kind eyes suddenly sharpened, and his waist straightened up.

Then, the frustrated ball suddenly slackened and walked towards the sofa feebly.

He had to take his time. These two young men cherish their bodies too little.

You have to find a chance to talk about her!

...

After half an hour, everyone arrived.

The food was also ready, Qin Yu and Lu Qing helped Aunt Qiao put things on the table.

The delicious dishes made Liang Chuyu feel good, "Aunt Qiao, your meal is so good."

Aunt Joe just smiled, then turned around and went back to the kitchen.

He Hong laughed when she heard her say that: "When I recommended it to you, you said no."

Liang Chuyu retorted: "It's not that I'm not used to...I've been here all my life."

He Hong recommended to her at first, saying that it was when there was an aunt at home.

Liang Chuyu refused without even thinking about it.

What kind of aunt do you want from an ordinary family like yourself?

In the end, Lu Qing persuaded her that an aunt was cooking and cleaning at home.

When they come back from work, they don't have to work hard to cook, clean, or just take a few bites alive. It's always a good thing.

Occasionally come to eat dinner by yourself without worrying about no one at home.

In this way, Liang Chuyu agreed to let her aunt try.

This try is really fragrant!

When I get home after a busy day, I feel like I am eating hot food, so I don't want to be too happy.

Listening to the short talk between the two parents, Qin Yu just immersed himself in eating.

From time to time, picking vegetables for Lu Qing is his only action.

But after a while, he found that Youdao had been staring at him.

Looking up, Lu Guohui came with a wine, "Xiaoyu, we must have a drink."

Can Qin Yu say nothing but Feng Pei?

Of course it can't!

"Uncle Lu, I respect you."

Standing upright, Qin Yu raised his head and went to work.

Lu Guohui 'Zi Zi' snorted, and didn't wait for him to sit down, "Come on, let's have another drink."

Qin Yu was taken aback, asked Lu Qing to pour the wine on himself, and continued to accompany him.

By the time the third cup was reached, he probably knew that he was being watched.

what's the situation?

Lao Lu went to Miami to have a little sister in the past two days, and saw himself and Talisa?

Qin Yu was a little puzzled, so he changed his mind to why it shouldn't!

If Lao Lu saw him, he wouldn't have to throw him back on the spot.

What else could it be, I was fine with Lu Qing.

One cup after another, Old Comrade Lu got himself drunk.

Put one hand on Qin Yu's shoulder and hold an empty wine glass in the other.

The wine in it had long been spilled by him. During the period, He Hong and Lu Qing wanted to say something, but Dad Qin stopped them.

"Let them say by themselves, let's eat." Qin Han directly sold it to his son.

This kid, he doesn't see anyone every day.

Just taking this opportunity to let Old Lu talk about him, let his floating heart reclaim it.

As a human being, no matter how capable you are, you must put your heart on the ground and be steady!

If you float in the sky and don't know where you are going, sooner or later, something will happen!

"You, your kid, have the ability."

Lu Guohui, with blurred eyes, gave a thumbs up, "Compared to, when he was younger than your Uncle Lu, he was, stronger, much stronger, but..."

belch!

After a full hiccup, Lu Guohui smiled naively, and looked at He Hong like a child, "Wife, am I right?"

He Hongqi doesn't come out, right, right, right!

What did you say? talk!

"Eh, by the way, I haven't said yet!"

Lu Guohui was stared at by his wife, and his mind became sober, "But no matter how capable you are, you have to remember that Uncle Lu is just this, a girl, you must treat her well, know, know or not."

Qin Yu kept smiling as usual, and holding Lu Guohui, who was unable to sit still, turned his head to Lu Qing and said, "I must be very good to Qingqing, and you can rest assured, Uncle Lu."

...

Lu Guohui, who was full of food and drink, naturally couldn't go back.

Qin Yu helped him to settle in the guest room amid his nagging sound.

I was dragged by him and talked for more than half an hour This was considered to escape from the 'devil's claw.'

Seeing that the child was sweating on his head, He Hong said distressedly: "Xiaoyu, your Uncle Lu is like this. After drinking, he doesn't have a right line. Everyone wants to nag."

Qin Yu wiped the sweat on his head and responded: "It's okay, Auntie, I can understand how Uncle Lu is feeling."

The two husbands and wives have been a darling girl in this life, and suddenly they grow up and are thrown away by others.

Saying "rest assured" is that really relieved?

Certainly not!

This is to change Qin Yu, if you change to someone who doesn't know the basics.

Old Lu Fei had to put up eighteen battles for the test before he could get started, go to the table, and call himself uncle.

In other words, Lu Qing is also the little cabbage that his old Lu holds in his palm for 20 years.

How can you let you say that the arch will go away?

Chapter 216: 800 million net worth is in your hands

Hearing Qin Yu said this, He Hong looked at him with satisfaction, and the more he looked, the more pleasing he became.

The eyes of the mother-in-law looking at her son-in-law made Qin Yu a little unnatural, and she whispered softly: "Auntie, you should go in and see your uncle. He is really drinking too much.

He Hong's face sank, "An elder, you don't know if you drink in front of a younger generation..."

He walked into the room babblingly, and the silent door closed quietly.

In the room, He Hong turned on the light and looked at the man lying on the bed.

Lu Guohui, who died drunk with snoring, narrowed his eyes slightly.

Seeing that it was He Hong who was standing, he sat up cleverly, "My wife, how am I doing?"

Just taking advantage of the red face, smiled like a flower and said: "Awesome!"

...

Both adults are here, and Qin Yu and Lu Qing urged the 'choice' to divide the room.

In the middle of the night, Qin Yu was feeling sleepy.

Suddenly he noticed something beside him, and got into the bed arch by arch.

Before he opened his eyes, the familiar smell and posture let him know that Lu Qing was right.

Reassuringly stretched out his arms to hug her, Qin Yu fell asleep again.

When I woke up, there was no one beside me.

I touched the bed with my hand, it was a little warm, and it seemed to have just left.

"Xiaoyu, get up for dinner."

Liang Chuyu knocked on the door and opened the door when he heard his son say "in".

Seeing that he was alone on the bed, Liang Chuyu smiled satisfied, "Get up and eat, I'll call Qingqing."

Qin Yu, who was wearing a T-shirt, got out of bed and said, "Mom, let me go!"

"Alright, then I will go down first, you two hurry up."

Liang Chuyu said and clicked on him with his hand, as if implying, 'Don't make a bad idea, come down quickly.'

Before arriving at Lu Qing's house, Qin Yu pulled the handle and found that the door was unlocked, and pushed the door directly in.

Wearing loose cotton home clothes, Lu Qing lay on the bed like a crooked "big" character.

Throwing down on the bed, head to head, Qin Yu touched her back bridge backhand and said, "Get up quickly."

"Hmm~~"

He hummed his body sideways, hugged his shoulders with his hands, and clamped his legs with his feet up and down.

Lu Qing's expression became happy, and she tucked her head between his neck with a sweet smile and continued to sleep soundly.

Qin Yu kept this action helplessly, and realized that she had really fallen asleep after five minutes.

Had to get up and hugged her.

"Ah, no, my quilt, I want to sleep."

With a vague grunt, Qin Yu had taken him into the bathroom.

With a scream 5 seconds later, Lu Qing was completely awake.

...

Eating breakfast at the table, Lu Qing was still thinking about what happened just now.

This bad guy wanted to hit her rear axle with a pole, which was really necrotic.

Although this kind of thing is normal in foreign countries, she often listens to foreigners and classmates talking about the process with ease.

Including preliminary preparation, process and feeling...

But she is not ready to meet, besides, she hasn't made much preparation yet!

Seeing that her daughter was absent-minded, He Hong curiously asked, "Qingqing, what's wrong, are you uncomfortable?"

Lu Qing shook his head and said, "No, I was thinking about school."

Liang Chuyu answered, "If you feel uncomfortable, you should say it as soon as possible and let Xiaoyu take you to the hospital."

Lu Qing explained with a smile: "Auntie, there is really no discomfort."

However, the hospital can consider going there. Which department should I go to for the preparation work?

...

No one understood Lu Qing's careful thinking, and Qin Yu didn't even know that his temporary joke would develop a different posture.

After stabilizing the company and letting Hong Zhongcai conduct some relatively stable short-term transactions.

Qin Yu booked a ticket for the next morning, and it was time to go back.

This time he was out for half a month, but the instructor didn't urge him on the WeChat account.

Presumably this has a lot to do with his award and cooperation with the firm.

Hong Zhongcai, Zhang Qili, and Qin Yu used them very well.

If possible, he hopes that the two can jump to his side and work for him wholeheartedly.

However, it is inappropriate to mention this matter now.

After the matter at the battery factory is resolved, we will consider the issue of their stay.

During Qin Yu's absence, can the two take care of their work?

Even if he gave Hong Zhongcai and Zhang Qili the test.

Lu Qing, who came back from get out of class, helped him pack his clothes in the bedroom, like a little wife posted by an individual.

Liang Chuyu and Qin Han are not coming back tonight, they are going on business trips.

This time I left for half a month, and the Nanhu Manor was left to Lu Qing to live in, and by the way to look after the house.

Folding the last T-shirt and carrying it into the suitcase, Lu Qing did not feel sad.

To be honest, the rhythm of Qin Yu returning to the abandoned capital can be regarded as frequent.

Except for not being able to meet at any time, she hardly felt the hardships of long-distance relationships that others said.

Instead, I look forward to it every time, what kind of surprise he will give himself when we meet again!

Qin Yu thought for a while and said, "It may not take a few days."

Seeing that she was a little puzzled, Qin Yu told her about building a factory in the abandoned city.

Lu Qing said immediately: "Then, do I need my father's help in this piece of land?"

Qin Yu touched her face and smiled: "Someone will solve it. There are more people involved in this matter, and it will be very troublesome."

What he said was from his heart. If possible, Qin Yu didn't mind starting from scratch by himself and slowly taking shape from scratch.

But reality does not allow him to do so, neither in the domestic or international environment.

It's okay to start from scratch to reach millions or tens of millions.

But I want to be bigger and stronger, enter the capital field, and fight with predators.

If anyone tells you that they are "made from scratch", hetui~

Just vomit on your face!

Isn't it true that the poisonous chicken soup is not dead?

The brainwashing has been extinguished, and there is no such bullying.

Seeing that he didn't want to mention more, Lu Qing didn't ask too much, "It's okay, if one day you can't make it, I will support you!"

Two big eyes flickered at him, Lu Qing smiled like a child.

If there is such a day, she will let Qin Yu accompany her every day, watching movies, shopping, eating, playing games, and making herself happy.

Then in the evening, at night... lie down on the big bed in the room together, study hard, study hard.

Exchange the knowledge they have learned and nurture the fruits of success.

Hehehe...

Lu Qing thought so, tears involuntarily spilled from the corners of her mouth.

Reaching out to wipe the crystal clear corners of her mouth, Qin Yu teased: "What are you thinking about! You are drooling now."

Lu Qing shyly stuffed his head into his arms and said, "No, no, it's obviously tears."

While drilling, Lu Qing suddenly found that his nose seemed to be bounced by something hard.

Oops!

Before Lu Qing had time to run, the horse's tail was suppressed by a big hand.

"Bad guy, let go, woo..."

...Slap, happiness is gone...

The next day, Lu Qing specially asked for leave to take him to the airport.

When I drove, my mouth opened wide, "You didn't sleep last night, okay?"

With Chunshui in his eyes, Lu Qing said sarcastically: "I did not sleep well, some people are not clear about it?"

Qin Yu made a haha, took out the company's card and handed it to her, "When I am away, you, the chief financial officer, will have to do a good job of supervision. This is all our net worth."

Lu Qing took the card and turned around and looked at it. In the earnest bag, he felt so happy.

He just gave all his wealth to himself.

This trust asks which woman would be unmoved and unhappy?

Lu Qing deliberately said jokingly: "How much money is there, if there is too little, I won't make it!"

Qin Yu responded with a natural expression: "Not a lot."

Lu Qing smiled.

"It's just over eight billion."

Lu Qing smiled... frozen!

How much is it?

When she confirmed that Qin Yu was not joking, Kari really had more than 800 million.

Lu Qing people are stupid.

"No I can't control... Let auntie do it, or I will find someone from my father's company to do it."

The weight of this responsibility far exceeds Lu Qing's estimation and tolerance.

Qin Yu held her weak boneless hand and said softly: "It's okay, the company's business is handled by someone who takes care of it. You only need to record and manage every tension and expenditure, and someone else will do the rest."

Lu Qing was a little more relieved, no longer panicking like before, but still a little worried, "How do I know what are normal expenses and income."

"You can. The company has two accountants who will help you. Don't forget that you are a top student in the management department."

Qin Yu's full trust and comfort helped Lu Qing regain her confidence.

She was only shocked by the sudden change. At this time, she calmed down and she became more confident and stubborn.

Since Qin Yu trusts her so much, then he has any reason to question himself.

Did she learn for so long just to shrink back when the opportunity came?

Chapter 217: I'll take HNA from now on, it's useless to persuade anyone

When boarding the plane, Qin Yu said habitually: "Hello, please have a glass of orange juice."

He is used to it now, drinking a glass of orange juice after registration, taking a nap with a blindfold and waiting for landing.

"Okay, sir, please wait a moment!"

The gentle tone gave people an immersive intimacy, and Qin Yu couldn't help but look up.

But only saw a back figure walking towards the workplace.

Just the temperament exuded from the back makes people's eyes bright.

Slim and slender.

The legs inside the shredded pork are straight and slender, and their heads should be at least 170 cm tall.

Look again... there really is a flashing red dot on the map.

Is he on a Hainan Airlines plane today?

Qin Yu's spirit came all at once!

After flying for so long, he finally met 90+ flight attendants today.

From now on, Brother Yu will sit on HNA, it's useless to persuade anyone!

【It takes a short time and the day is high. From then on, the king does not come early. 】

"Sir, what do you need?" A voice suddenly appeared in his ear.

Qin Yu thought it was Xing Lu who came back, and looked up and found that it was not.

The badge says Zhuang Yuan, and looking at the freshness of 78 points, his appetite is instantly diminished.

"No need."

Indifferently rejecting the other's initiative and courtesy, Qin Yu leaned on the seat and looked out the window.

"Sir, the juice you want." The sweet voice sounded again.

Looking back, Qin Yu felt astonished, and he deserved to be 95↑.

Take the juice from the other party, "Thank you."

Xing Lu smiled sweetly: "You are welcome, can I help you?"

"Yes, my phone seems to be missing, can you use your phone to dial for me?"

Qin Yu looked down in confusion, as if he really couldn't find the phone.

Xing Lu was taken aback for a moment, and then realized that she had been molested.

"Sorry, sir, the plane is about to take off, please look for it carefully."

Brother Yu was surprised that the other party's favorability value didn't move at all.

Since the sunlight value reached 87 or more, this was the first time anyone was unmoved.

interesting!

Qin Yu stopped Xing Lu who was about to turn around and leave, "Then please help me find it."

As a service industry, shouldn't it provide customers with the services they deserve at this time?

A hint of help flashed between Xing Lu's eyebrows and turned around and pointed to the phone on the armrest and said, "Sir, isn't your phone right here."

Qin Yu nodded and responded: "Yes, it's here, but what I'm looking for is another mobile phone!"

Hearing what he said, Xing Lu could only help him find it.

But I couldn't find it anyway.

Qin Yu would feel strange if he really found it!

There is another phone with a ghost, and he only has such a phone.

Will do it again.

Seeing the plane was about to leave, Xing Lu had to say: "Sir, what is your number?"

After reporting the number, Xing Lu waited after dialing.

Buzzing~

The phone on the armrest vibrated slightly, and Qin Yu picked it up and took a look, "Well, I found it, thank you."

"..." Xing Luyuan widened her eyes wide.

How could there be such a person who lied without changing his face.

At this time, Zhuang Yuan happened to pass by, "Xing Lu, what's the matter?"

"He..." Xing Lu took a deep breath to keep herself calm. "This gentleman said that he lost his mobile phone. Let me find it for him."

The manor who heard it looked at Qin Yu with concern, "Excuse me, sir, did you find your mobile phone? Why don't I find it for you."

Qin Yu's expression was different from the previous one, and he responded with a cold face: "I have found it."

Take out the blindfold while talking, put it on, lean back and close your eyes for a sleep sleep!

Zhuang Yuan bit her lower lip discouragedly, and she could see the black starry sky on the opponent's wrist.

He forced his breath back into his stomach and pulled Xing Lu back to the flight attendant position.

Fasten the seat belt, Xing Lu pretended to ask casually: "Why, that guest is important?"

The manor scorned his lips, but when he raised his head, he was already smiling, "Did you not see the watch on his wrist? Patek Philippe's new generation watch king, 6002G, from a suite in Hudu."

Xing Lu's expression changed unnaturally, "So what, what does it have to do with us."

The manor retorted: "Of course it doesn't matter now, but if you can catch him, it won't matter."

Xing Lu didn't think so, "But people may not be worthy of us flight attendants. How can such a man lack women around him? Besides, even if he does get it, the property may not be distributed to you."

The manor sneered 'cut', "It depends on your own ability, and you can talk about it if you can."

If the words are not too speculative, they are not the same people, the topic becomes unpleasant, and naturally they won't say anything more.

However, Xing Lu's mind flashed through Qin Yu's deception from time to time.

In fact, he seems to be really handsome.

It is a pity that Xing Lu has a prejudice against handsome men in her heart, and thinks that men who are too handsome are unreliable.

just.....

Why do you always feel that he is very familiar and inexplicably feel at ease?

Feeling the looming prying gaze, Qin Yu secretly smiled in the false sleepy sleep.

As a 'miracle believer,' even just a 'shallow believer.'

Nor can it escape the influence of [Miracle Propagator].

Time was spent peacefully in Xing Lu's cranky thinking and Qin Yu's false sleep.

When the plane landed on the runway and taxied forward, the moment Qin Yu took off his blindfold and opened his eyes, it was exactly in line with Xing Lu's eyes looking at him.

She straightened her body quickly, Xing Lu turned her head away with a slight hot cheek, and said, 'how come he was seen by him so I wouldn't misunderstand anything, right?'

When the plane was stable and Qin Yu was about to disembark.

Xing Lu suddenly said: "I was checking the safety of passengers just now, don't get me wrong!"

Qin Yu asked in astonishment: "Have I misunderstood something?"

Xing Lu said embarrassedly: "It's fine if you don't misunderstand, please go slowly."

As soon as he walked out of the airport gate, Qin Yu saw the three * coming to pick him up.

The initial impression of Li Xiao's stability and maturity has been almost destroyed by his own hands.

After receiving the luggage from Qin Yu, Li Xiao smiled and asked, "Brother Yu, how do you want to make arrangements tonight?"

Xu Hao pushed his sunglasses to the top of his head and screamed: "Eating, sauna, massage, all in one package."

Seeing the new car parked on the side of the road, Qin Yu asked curiously: "First, who bought it?"

Qin Yu naturally knew the famous Pagani Fengshen.

The top big toys in the supercar club, even if they are both super sports car owners, they will be envious.

The engine can output 730 horsepower, 1020 Nm, and it only takes 2.8 seconds to 100 meters.

The concept of this data is that even if the rear tire of the 355 is used, it is still unable to grasp the ground.

(There is a slot here that I want to vomit, but I didn't hold back!)

The price is extremely beautiful, landing 30 million.

Li Xiao enviously touched the carbon fiber on the car body: "Whose can it be besides the soldier?"

Yang Chengjun went home and talked to the old man about setting up the factory, and it was not a day before the castrated version of the drawing was handed over to his old man.

This Pagani Fengshen stopped in front of the house.

The old man was very bold when he gave the car keys, "I'll give you this car. Who has an opinion let him come to me."

Naturally speaking, he should be heard by others, after all, the old man is generous to others.

The former owner of this car counted, Yang Chengjun had to call his brother-in-law.

But who makes the old man happy!

He really didn't want to take advantage of others, besides, the old man paid for this car.

"Brother Yu, here you are."

Yang Chengjun threw the key to Qin Yu and motioned for him to drive.

Qin Yu looked at the iron-like key in his hand and joked: "You are not afraid that I will touch it for you."

"Just touch it, I don't feel distressed if it breaks, as long as it's okay."

Yang Chengjun cares about such a car?

It must be fake to say that you don't care about it. But if you want to say how much you care, that's actually the case.

As the only seedling of the Yang family, he is very light in his heart.

Compared with a Pagani Fengshen, the relationship with Qin Yu is the most important thing.

Maybe one day, with his shareholder spirit, the old Cheng family will be able to return to Shangdu, which will make those people fall short of their eyes.

Seeing Xing Lu walking out of the airport, Qin Yu opened the door and sat on it, "Soldier, borrow your car for a use."

With a light blow on the accelerator, Qin Yu parked the car in front of Xing Lu under the gaze of Li Xiao's trio.

Then the two of them didn't know what they said, and Xing Lu pulled the co-pilot away and sat on it.

Qin Yu stretched out his hand in the car window and shouted, "Brother Hao, I will leave the luggage to you."

Before the words were over, Pagani Fengshen flew forward, leaving a beautiful arc at the corner and disappearing.

Chapter 218: Do you laugh at me?

'Ding.'

'A miracle believer is detected, the task is triggered: the first glance.'

'Task content: Impress the opponent and deepen the memory.'

'Task reward: sunshine value +1.'

3 minutes, Pagani Fengshen stopped in front of the hotel.

Qin Yu looked at Xing Lu, the co-pilot, and said, "2 minutes and 51 seconds."

Xing Lu glanced at the watch on her wrist, wanted to deny and responded with some guilty conscience: "You succeeded."

Opening the door and getting off the car, Qin Yu waved to her and smiled: "So you lost, remember to notify me next time."

Seeing that he was about to leave, Xing Lu quickly asked: "Oh, my luggage?"

Pagani Fengshen drove forward, and Qin Yu's voice accompanied the sound of the wind: "Someone will send it."

The car disappeared, and Xing Luchi, who was standing there, laughed out loud, "How come there is such a naive person?"

The terminal is normally a 10-minute drive from the hotel.

The two previously bet that Qin Yu could send her to the hotel within 3 minutes.

If he wins, Xing Lu will tell him his flight schedule in the future.

Lost...

I seem to have forgotten to mention this, so where are my luggage?

Buzzing~

The yellow bull stopped in front of him, and Li Xiao pointed to the co-pilot's luggage and said helplessly: "Beauty, your luggage."

...

On the Bund 18, GinzaOnodera serrano.

The place was arranged by Xu Hao. Today, the three of them will take turns to sit in the village. Li Xiao and Yang Chengjun arrange baths and bars respectively.

However, Qin Yu refused while eating, "I have to go home to accompany my girlfriend, and you will continue to wave."

Li Xiao said jokingly: "Brother Yu, do you have a lot of girlfriends?"

Qin Yu raised her eyebrows triumphantly: "Just say it if you are envious, I'll teach you!"

Xu Hao heard the spirit, "Brother Yu, teach me and teach me, I can do it."

Looking at his hometown, Qin Yu couldn't bear to look straight away, "You have a bad foundation, you can't save it!"

Dressed up like this, the girl was too late to hide.

teach?

It's impossible.

After the joke, Yang Chengjun mentioned the land issue, "Who will do it?"

Xu Hao reluctantly said that he had come, and he had just been hit by Qin Yu, which made him more determined to leave Hudu.

Before he took off his body, he had no face to stay in Hudu again.

"Leave this to me, the old man in the family has already been looking for someone to evaluate!"

All three of the drawings have been given to the family, and the Lao Yang family moved the fastest.

The old man took the drawings to the Manufacturing Department of the Ministry of War for review. The efficiency of soldiers has always been extremely fast.

The other two have also heard the news, but they still have to let their own people check to be at ease.

After all, this is a tens of billions of big projects.

Each of them has to invest more than one billion yuan in real money. How can they be unsafe?

Qin Yu picked up Yiguan Sushi and put it in his mouth, "Brother, don't you embarrass you at home?"

Li Xiao smiled bitterly and shook his head, "How could it not? I just handed in the drawing, and someone jumped out."

None of his brothers are fuel-efficient lamps. Fortunately, Li Xiao has Xu Hao and Yang Chengjun's support.

There is also Qin Yu's guarantee that the shareholding ratio will be reduced when the substitution is made.

This allowed Li Xiao to withstand the pressure of the family, so as not to be picked off peaches.

Yang Chengjun showed a sneer, "Brother, your third child has called me."

Li Xiao was a little surprised, but he felt it should be, "What does he want to do, so you don't want to interfere?"

"Not only don't intervene, but also think about it."

Qin Yu said unexpectedly: "One pot, is this even me?"

Yang Chengjun nodded and said affirmatively: "It must be counted, Yu brother, you are the core of technology."

Qin Yu glanced at Li Xiao amusedly, "Look at your brother, you are all from the old Li family, and they have a bigger appetite than you."

Li Xiao nodded sarcastically and said: "Yes, my third brother has had a big appetite since he was a child, but his brain and teeth are not good, and he always can't figure out what can be eaten and what can't be eaten."

Qin Yu joked: "Then you have to enlighten and enlighten, or you may have a broken tooth, and your face may not look good."

Although facing these rich and powerful families, his small arms and legs are a little soft.

But not everyone can come up and take a bite.

When the mountains and rivers are exhausted, Qin Yu has a big deal to upload the drawings and make a contribution!

Brother Yu really wanted to see who would dare to do business with the court.

Lao Li family, old Cheng family, all had to stand up straight and beaten.

This year he is only 19 years old. At this point, as long as there is a system, Brother Yu is still afraid that he won't have a chance to stand up?

In another 20 years, all of them will have to stand in front of themselves and be beaten obediently.

Brother Yu has to say: "You are so special, please laugh to the Lord!"

Yang Chengjun brought the topic back with a silly smile, "When I heard him say that, I almost didn't spit on him, who do I look down on?"

What do those people think of him, dumbfounded?

Think a little bit of profit can make him betray his friends?

How can this... get the price!

There is no tens of billions of billions, this traitor is not good in front of him!

Hearing his mocking tone, Li Xiao responded with a big smile: "Haha, if he can really make tens of billions or hundreds of billions, you can just sell it and divide the money back into three."

Xu Hao was not happy to hear that, "Brother, you are right to score four points."

Li Xiao glanced at him faintly and said: "Sorry, we are not familiar with each other when talking about money!"

Thumbs up~

Xu Hao sullen his head and drink, which is too realistic.

Once the land approval is approved, the funds will be in place.

With tens of billions of investment, Qin Yu invested in technology.

Therefore, his 40% of the shares, that is, 4 billion, must be filled by the other five companies.

Lixin, Li family, Xu family, Yang family, and a potential old Cheng family, each subscribed for 800 million yuan.

Specifically how they are allocated and arranged.

Qin Yu didn't ask anything, as long as the money was in place.

Lao Li's family is under the greatest financial pressure, and not only has to subscribe for his share.

If the old Cheng family speaks...

Although the possibility is unlikely, if he really speaks, Lao Li's family will have to share their share.

These money all add up to 3.6 billion, which is a huge sum of money for everyone.

Lao Li's family can't get it out. Assets are assets, and current funds are funds.

Don't confuse the two at any time!

With assets exceeding 100 million yuan, it is normal not to have 10 million in cash.

Hearing Li Xiao's bitterness, Xu Hao endured and endured, and finally couldn't hold back.

"Brother, don't pretend to be poor. Anyway, there is Jiang Hongsheng. Our family is really poor."

Hearing him mention Jiang Hongsheng, Qin Yu came and got interested: "Why, have a relationship with Jiang Hongsheng a lot?"

Li Xiao waved his hand and smiled: "There is not much friendship, at most it is just borrowing money to turn around."

The relationship between the two families is very complicated, and the stories in it are endless for three days and three nights.

In short, the old man of the Li family is still there, with enough face and wide connections.

Even if the family can't get the money, as long as the father is still there, there is a way to deal with it.

After speaking, Li Xiao angered Xu Hao, "You are really poor, dare to say that your family is poor, when I am stupid?"

Yang Chengjun glanced at the two faintly, and said silently, "Who dares to be poorer than me?"

Looking at the 30 million Pagani Fengshen downstairs through the window, this is ridiculous!

"You go on, I'll go home with my girlfriend first."

Qin Yu, who was full and drunk, was ready to withdraw first, and then really vomited after hearing it.

I've never seen such a brazen man when I grow up!

Xu Hao got up and asked, "Brother Yu, when will the money be in place?"

Without looking back, Qin Yu said, 'The sooner the better,' Qin Yu slammed the door.

...

Driving the familiar GTS, Qin Yu still likes the comfort it brings.

Driving into the underground garage of the Oriental Royal Garden, Qin Yu found that both parking spaces were occupied.

He knows the dream girl fan Rolls-Royce Phantom, but who is the BMW mini next door?

Qin Yu guessed that Lan Yue had a friend who came, so he parked the car horizontally in front of the two cars and planned to move the car into the parking space after someone left. Take the elevator upstairs, fingerprint verification!

drop.

Lan Yue, who was eating fruit in the living room, glanced back, and immediately jumped up from the sofa.

A few steps on the sofa jumped to the floor and rushed into his arms barefoot.

The soft body slammed into his arms, like a ball of soft cotton candy.

Close the door, hold her back to the living room, and see the TV series being broadcast, Qin Yu asked: "Chasing the drama?"

"Ok."

The lazy cat shrank in her arms and stopped moving from a more comfortable angle.

Instead, Qin Yu asked curiously: "You are the only one, who owns the mini parked in the parking space?"

Hearing his question, Lazy Cat's happy expression immediately tangled, "I don't know, it has been stopped for several days."

Chapter 219: Wool, scallop is right

Is it okay after stopping for many days?

It seemed that he was still a habitual offender, and Qin Yu put it aside, planning to take Lan Yue to go shopping first.

In the basement, I found that the floating ash on the car was a bit thick, "How many days have you not driven?"

Lan Yue said shyly: "A few days... it's the reason for the grayness!"

All the ugly excuses come out, it's okay.

Fen Lao drove out and parked the big Pa in the parking space. Qin Yu planned to see it later when he came back.

If the mini hasn't left by then, find someone to send it off!

First drove Fen Lao to wash a car, and then went straight to Hengde Square on West Jinling Road.

Skillfully parked the car on the side of the road, Qin Yu and Lan Yue planned to stroll around casually.

"Mr. Qin." Someone behind him stopped him.

Looking back, the wooden manager in a suit and leather shoes was walking quickly from the door of the Hublot store.

Holding Qin Yu's hand, Manager Mu looked at Fan Lao on the side of the road: "Shao Qin, I thought I was wrong, this pink phantom is absolutely stunning."

Qin Yu smiled faintly, "I haven't seen you some time, is business in the store okay?"

Manager Mu smiled heartily: "It's good, but without Qin Shao's care...the new store has arrived, should Qin Shao take a look?"

'Ding.'

'Trigger mission: Thousand dollars.'

'Task content: Buy a watch with a value of more than 5 million and make Muyu complete this month's targets, and feel the miracle.'

'Task Reward: Only a 10% discount is required for this purchase, with a watch of the same price.'

Buy one discount + buy one get one free, Qin Yu understands the meaning of task rewards well.

What's there to hesitate about, "Go and see."

However, the name of Manager Mu is a bit deep...

Muyu?

Is there a devout person in the family?

Pulling Lanyue into the store, the counter inside was full of young people coming to look at his watch.

As the brand and design capture the hearts of today's young people, Hublot has been doing better and better in recent years.

The dial is designed with strong mechanical sense and the shell is made of fusion of various new materials.

It can be said to play a new height in color, material and style, otherwise it would not be called 'Xiao Miller.'

With the addition of self-produced movements, the brand's confidence and public recognition are different from the past.

Big market, bright colors, young, sporty and fashionable.

It can be said that Hublot has truly captured the hearts of trendies, and it is not surprising that it can succeed.

Ignoring ordinary customers who were curious and wait-and-see, Manager Mu first led the two into the VIP room.

When the two of them were seated, Manager Mu smiled and asked: "Qin Shao, is champagne okay?"

Qin Yu nodded and said: "I don't want it anymore, I will have to drive later."

Seeing the Patek Philippe exposed on his wrist, Manager Mu's eyes flashed with surprise.

Then I became nervous, "This is Patek Philippe's new watch king, 6002G black starry sky."

"Yes." Manager Mu struggled with the affirmative answer from the other party.

As an insider in the industry, Manager Mu is more aware of the rarity and value of this watch.

If Qin Yu was invited into the store before, he was confident about the watches he recommended.

Now, Manager Mu is a little hesitant.

Whether Qin Yu, who already owns 6002G, can see the new model he recommends is not yet known.

"Qin Shao is really tasteful, have you spent a lot of thought on this watch?"

"Ok."

Qin Yu snorted unpredictably without explaining.

In fact, there is no such thing as any thoughts.

It's just a Patek Philippe 60002, the watch king. No one really thinks it will be difficult to buy it, right?

Champagne was offered and Manager Mu personally took the watch with white gloves.

The watches that Qin Yu showed were all locked in the safe in the store.

No one can get it out except him.

Moreover, the two most precious collection series are also ready to be moved out.

Otherwise, the cards in the Hengde Hublot store today will be unsustainable.

Watching Lanyue sip the champagne frequently, Qin Yu smiled and asked, "Is the champagne good?"

Lan Yue nodded cutely, "It's delicious, better than soda!"

The cabinet sister standing next to her tried her best to keep smiling, looking like a wax man in a wax museum.

If the manager knew that he had thousands of bottles of champagne, he would get a rating of 'better than soda'.

I don't know if I will be so angry that he vomits blood on the spot!

However, she soon learned.

Seeing Manager Mu's return, Qin Yu said on the spot: "Mr. Mu, my girlfriend likes to drink champagne, I also buy some brand, lest she always drink soda."

Hearing what he said, Manager Mu agreed with a smile: "I'll fill you two bottles later, it's worthless!"

At this time, the sister of the cabinet had already rolled her eyes when she heard it, and the world of the rich...I was not worthy.

Manager Mu put down the two long strip watch boxes, even with the protection of the boxes, his movements are particularly light.

First open...

Flash, the light reflected by the diamond is just like a spotlight, which is particularly dazzling.

Qin Yu squinted his eyes and turned away, and saw that Lan Yue had already beamed his eyes, staring straight at the box full of diamond watches.

"Hublot BIGBANG series model, 18K white gold with diamonds, diamond weight 30.55 carats."

"This is also the BIGBANG series model, 18K white gold, full diamond bezel."

"The next one is... These watches are all designed with hollow tourbillons and equipped with Hublot's self-produced automatic movement..." After the introduction, Manager Mu opened the box next to it.

The gorgeous rose gold full diamond watch also shines, just a bit less dazzling, a bit more feminine and restrained.

"Handed down rose gold full of diamonds..."

The next few models are all full diamonds, but the dial and style are slightly different.

"Qin Yu, do you think this one looks good?"

Lan Yue was completely clinging to it, and didn't feel nervous at all.

Pointing to this and touching that from time to time, turning around to ask Qin Yu's opinion.

No matter which model she refers to, Qin Yu's answer is only two words: "It's okay."

Seeing that Qin Yu remained unmoved, Mr. Mu said, 'It's worthy of being broad and young...Fortunately, there are two finale.'

The cabinet sister who followed behind winked, and soon the other party returned with two separate watch boxes.

In front of Qin Yu, Manager Mu asked Miss Gui to open the two watch boxes.

Two full white diamonds of the same style, with one red and one blue hour markers, appear in front of you.

Qin Yu's indifferent expression finally changed, and Manager Mu was relieved.

He earned these rare full-diamond series after struggling his life this month, for which he issued a military order to the headquarters.

If he can't complete the performance before the end of the year, and if there are any new rare products in the future, he will not want to compete with stores in other regions.

"The 10th Anniversary High Jewelry Collection, white diamonds and rubies, white diamonds and sapphires."

"Let me introduce sapphire first: the dial is a standard 45mm diameter, inlaid with 492 white square diamonds, weighing about 32.70 carats."

"66 square sapphires, weighing about 2.17 carats, sapphire mirror on the back, reflective coating on the inside and outside."

"The dial is hollowed out and made of white gold. The dial is set with 50 white square diamonds, weighing 0.88 carats, and the hour markers are inlaid with 12 sapphires, weighing 0.93 carats."

"Rhodium-plated fluorescent coating hands, matte black alligator leather lining strap, surface is natural rubber, designed with quick replacement function."

"Platinum folding clasp, set with 33 white square diamonds, weighing approximately 3.70 carats."

Seeing Qin Yu started directly, Manager Mu wanted to pick it up with a heartbeat, and then held back.

He piled up a stiff smile, and then pointed at the white diamonds and rubies beside him.

The same 45mm diameter, white gold material, 492 white square diamonds, weighs 0.72 carats more than sapphires.

66 square rubies, weighing about 2.12 carats, the same sapphire mirror on the back, reflective coating on the inside and outside.

The 50 white square diamonds on the dial are the same as the 12 square rubies.

The buckle is set with 33 white square diamonds and weighs 3.70 carats.

"The HUB1242 movement is an automatic flyback movement independently developed and manufactured by Hublot. The column wheel dual clutch is set on the watch side, the calendar is displayed, and the window at 3 o'clock."

Manager Mu took a breath and said the last sentence: "The power reserve is 70 hours and the water resistance is 28 meters. What do you think?"

The last few words are the most important thing in the introduction.

how do you feel?

Qin Yu felt that it was the same thing, but couldn't the folded wool buckle?

That must be done!

I picked up the ruby model and brought it directly to Lan Yue, "How do you feel?"

Touch her wrist with the right wrist of her watch. Two watches are next to the watch, one red and one basket.

Hell if you don't have a heartbeat.

"Like Lan Yue smiles sweetly, and she will take it off if she is happy.

If you like it, it doesn't mean you have to buy it.

She likes so many things.

such as...

such as.....

Oops, there are a lot of them anyway, do you have to buy it?

Qin Yu held down the action of picking up the watch, and reached out to take out the card from the bag, "Swipe the card, both are needed."

Lan Yue's expression is probably like this.

Manager Mu's expression is like this, "Qin Shao wait a minute, I will go to bill you now."

Chapter 220: Go home and raise pigs!

Seeing Manager Mu leaving with the card, Lan Yue quickly asked in a low voice, "Aren't you asking about the price?"

Qin Yu shook his head and said: "Money is not important, it matters whether you like it or not."

Lazy cats have wide-eyed eyes, and their values are hit by dimensionality reduction.

It turns out that you can buy things like this...

Muyu has already returned with the price list and POS machine. "Qin Shao, the unit price of the two watches is the same. The total price of the two watches is 11.248,000 yuan."

"Swipe your card!"

After receiving Qin Yu's instructions, Muyu swiped the card in Muyu's hand gently.

Qin Yu, please enter the password, drop!

'Ding, congratulations to the host for completing the task, Muyu's miracle belief value is +1, and he becomes a shallow believer.'

'Task rewards are being issued: Actual consumption amount this time: 562,400 yuan.'

Who said that in addition to Patek Philippe, the preservation rate of other watches is not high?

What, what I said...

Oh, that's all right!

Since I just bought the "Couple Watch," I naturally want to wear it.

Let Muyu install his 6002G watch king, "Qin Shao, this is our Patek Philippe automatic watch box, and there are some small gifts, I will put it together for you."

"Ms. Lu's favorite champagne also contains two bottles."

"If you like to drink in the future, call me and I will be responsible for the delivery."

Looking at the auto-turning watch box that the other party installed, Qin Yu suddenly wanted to laugh.

Last time at Patek Philippe, the manager Lu Hao gave himself a Patek Philippe turntable box to hold the Hublot MP-05.

This time at Hublot, Muyu gave him a Hublot revolving watch box for him to install the Patek Philippe 6002G.

Are these two poisonous?

Graduated from the same college, taught by a master?

Muyu personally carried the things, and put them on the car for the two of them.

Then, they watched the two walk into the mall.

Looked at Fan Lao next to him, and then at the direction where they disappeared.

Muyu frowned and called one of the salesmen from the store, "You are here to stare and wait when Shao Qin comes back."

There are nearly 10 million Patek Philippe 6002G in the car, although the law and order of Hudu is quite good.

But if you encounter someone who doesn't open your eyes, you have to put some eye drops on him, which will spoil Qin Shao's good mood.

Isn't it a waste of the relationship that I have worked so hard to maintain.

From now on, when I walked to the door of my store, I remembered, "The car was smashed and the watch was stolen."'

Or other bad things, you must not slip away from the floor.

...

In the mall, Qin Yu and Lan Yue holding hands are the most beautiful combination in the audience.

Especially when the hand is thrown away, the all-diamond jewel watch appears on the wrist.

It is simply a mobile ATM.

A pair of little sisters said enviously: "This couple's watch is too beautiful! Check it out quickly, how much is it."

The little sister next to her had already checked it out and turned her phone towards her unloved.

Looking at the above prices, the Starbucks in the hands of the two of them no longer fragrant!

More than five million pairs of watches, this is too proud, right?

After buying two cups of milk caps, drinking and watching as they walked, the two finally stopped in front of Gucci's house.

Seeing Lan Yue's eyes fixed on the old shoes in the shop window, Qin Yu directly took her into the store.

What's the point to see at the door, "Your old daddy shoes, come in one pair of all styles and colors."

Lan Yue smiled sweetly and reported his shoe size.

She is now in the process of shaping new values, and her concept of money is almost blurred.

More than five million watches are worn on the wrist.

All styles shouldn't cost much, right?

The salesman nodded and replied with a smile: "Okay, please wait a moment."

If this is another person, the salesman might have to reward him with two big eyes.

All styles, all colors, should you buy green onions at the vegetable market?

But the shiny diamond watches in the hands of the two let the salesman take all the thoughts and emotions back.

Hublot Big Bang, 10th Anniversary High Jewelry Watch.

White diamonds and rubies, white diamonds and sapphires, each sells for more than 5 million.

This bit of information didn't even need to think, and it immediately popped out of my mind.

As a luxury store sales, you must have a detailed understanding of the brand and various products of the mall.

In this way, sales can intuitively determine the purchasing power of customers in the first time.

If you don't even have this professionalism, what luxury products are you selling?

Go home and raise pigs!

In fact, this is nothing. Everyone wants to have a good meal, and everyone wants to receive customers with strong purchasing power.

Besides, entering the store now, as long as it is not unreasonable.

The most is that the cabinet sister let you see for yourself, go shopping by yourself, and not be so enthusiastic about selling.

Cry and sneer, shake his face, it may have been a few years ago.

Nowadays, children with cerebral palsy like this are rare, and it is not easy to meet them.

Especially in the top shopping malls and brands, it almost never happens.

If you really want to run into disgusting people, just complain.

After understanding the dual-channel complaints of shopping malls and brands, we will teach people on the spot!

The salesman returned with a box full of his arms, followed by two colleagues.

"We are on sale in our store, and 14 of your shoe sizes are available."

"In addition, I took a few small white shoes, you can try them if you need them."

The salesman knelt on one knee on the soft carpet and enthusiastically helped Lanyue try his shoes.

Lazy cat was shocked by the enthusiasm of the other party. He waited for the first pair of shoes to react and said, 'no need to do this, I can do it myself.'

"It doesn't matter, this is the service we should do."

The sales are particularly enthusiastic, and there is no opportunity for lazy cats to refuse at all.

The little girl was so dizzy and blushing.

Whenever the salesman asked her whether it was appropriate, they basically nodded in seconds.

People have served like this, how can they be good?

At the end of the trial of all the styles, the salesman asked: "Miss, which pair do you think you need to pack?"

With these words, Qin Yu decided to buy them all.

He must be upset with enthusiasm.

After the trial, you can still ask the customer's opinion. This attitude must be bought.

Shoes are always to be worn, so put them there and replace them.

Besides, it's not very expensive!

Gucci's shoes are only in the form of seven or eight thousand, and few of them are in the early nine thousand.

The total price of the 17 pairs of shoes is just over 140,000, which is less than 150,000.

Swipe your card decisively and leave.

I took the two salesmen and put the shoes on the car. I saw Hublot's sales and thanked each other after learning about Muye's arrangement.

After digging out his body, Qin Yu found that he had no cash.

Lan Yue quietly stuffed 200 quick cash from under his arm into his hand, raised his head and smiled cutely.

"Keep this, drink tea!"

Putting the money into the other party's pocket, Qin Yu let him go.

This money must be given because the other party is not obliged to do so.

Looking back, Gucci's salesman is looking enviously at the girly pink Rolls-Royce Phantom.

"Miss Lu, your boyfriend really loves you, it's so enviable!"

Lan Yue's eyes were narrowed into crescent moons, and her smiling little tiger teeth were exposed.

Put the shoes into the trunk and the size is good, and the two salesmen smiled and said goodbye, "We will not disturb you. Gucci will always welcome you."

Seeing that Qin Yu seems to be going around, Lazy Cat squatted on the ground and said, "I don't want to go anymore, I'm so tired!"

Looking at the lazy cat who is acting like a baby, Qin Yu can only hold her in his arms and ask, "Then what do you want to do next?"

Lazy Cat raised his hand in great spirit and shouted: "Watching a movie and eating!"

...

In the cinema, Qin Yu saw Li Wanxing who hadn't seen each other for a long time.

Lazy cat called her to come, saying that she wanted to take Li Wanxing to relax.

She looked a little haggard, with a few bloodshot eyes in her pupils, and she knew she hadn't rested well.

Li Wanxing's eyes began to doze off as she slumped in a high-back chair relaxedly all over.

Lan Yue touched her distressedly, "Sister Wanxing, why don't you sleep with me?"

Li Wanxing was clever, opening her eyes wide and reluctantly smiled: "I'm fine, just a little tired."

Qin Yu retorted, "Aren't you a little tired, you're very tired... How many days have you not had a good rest?"

Li Wanxing opened her mouth and said, "It seems that I haven't slept well since that day."

Qin Yu was surprised: "Isn't it already solved, the money is not enough?"

Li Wanxing shook her head with a weird face, and then nodded again ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ makes people confused!

"Is it enough or not?"

"Originally it was enough, but now it's not enough."

Listening to what she said intermittently, Qin Yu couldn't figure out what was going on.

The movie is about to begin, Li Wanxing waved his hand jokingly: "Oh, just leave it alone, I'll watch and deal with it. The movie opens, don't talk."

The movie was inexplicably watched. All three of them had problems in their minds and hardly watched the plot.

When the lights came on, I sighed in my heart, 'I can finally leave.'

Li Wanxing doesn't have the thought of watching a movie, she just wants to run out and breathe.

As for Qin Yu and Lazy Cat, they were completely influenced by her.

Do you know it, half talking will be fatal.

Curiosity killed the cat, have you never heard of it?
