Chapter 3581

The Glorian Order

Gloria had managed to level up after devouring the spiritual ley lines of the two major deviant clans.

However, she did not set off to seek vengeance right away. Instead, she headed to Corpse Pit first.

Bone Grandmaster had gathered all the members of the Glorian Order there as per Gloria's instruction.

Countless people filled Corpse Pit, and there was no end in sight.

Gloria floated above the pit. A black ball of energy surrounded her, making her appear as if she was a deity descended from the heavens.

Bone Grandmaster and Xylas were the first to kneel and greet her.

"Welcome, Lord Gloria."

The others threw themselves onto the floor as the two greeted Gloria.

"Lord Gloria, we wish to be under your brilliant reign and be part of the unified world order for generations to come," they said in reverence.

Gloria slowly descended from the skies as she released the spiritual energy in her body.

A formidable aura and energy exuded from her body and spread into the air.

Her followers shook as they came into contact with her spiritual energy. The storm of energy made it difficult for them to breathe.

“You should feel honored because your spiritual bones and I have become one, shouldn’t you?” Gloria smirked.

Honored?

The Top Ten glared at her with exasperation.

Who would feel honored under such circumstances?

“Now that I’ve established the Glorian Order, you should witness how I dominate the world!” Gloria said, her smile widening.

A great sense of satisfaction overwhelmed her when she saw rage and despair written all over the Top Ten’s faces.

Despite how high and mighty you used to be, you’ve become my prisoners in the end!

The Top Ten gritted their teeth in anger, but they couldn’t do anything.

Considering Gloria’s current prowess, the Top Ten would be defeated instantly even if they joined forces at the peak of their powers.

Why Is She So Powerful

Soon, the Glorian Order's followers arrived from different places and waited for the next instruction.

Early in the morning, Gloria personally led her army to attack Yartran.

Due to the irreconcilable difference in might, the Glorian Order penetrated Yartran at lightning speed and soon arrived at its base.

The fighting outside Yartran's base lasted not more than fifteen minutes.

Meanwhile, Yartran received information from its spies as soon as the war started.

Initially, Yartran's council members expected their forces outside the base to withstand the Glorian Order's attack for some time.

Hence, they were shocked upon knowing the Glorian Order had defeated their forces in such a short time.

Left with no choice, the leader of Yartran ordered the launching of the country's defense system.
In the next instant, the ground shook, and an invisible energy shield surrounded the entire Yartran.

The terrifying energy spread across the land and filled the hearts of everyone in Yartran.

Despite being surrounded by the supposedly impregnable shield, the people of Yartran were overwhelmed by the horrifying energy and started gasping for air.

It was as though their bodies were about to be torn apart by the obsidian energy.

“Danger! Danger! Danger!”

The central control panel of Yartran’s energy shield kept sounding warnings.

The device could calculate the extent of the threat to the energy shield based on the amount of energy outside.

Hence, the system automatically launched its most powerful defense system and continued to thicken the shield.

At the same time, it was connected to one end of the super-spiritual ley line and kept absorbing energy frantically. In the end, the energy transformed into the outer layer of the shield.

Bang!

With an earth-shattering explosion, the energy shield also shook intensely.

Waves of energy spread across the land of Yartran as soon as the swordlike obsidian energy landed on the shield.

Where Is The Minister

News about the Glorian Order destroying Yartran with the blitzkrieg tactic traveled to every corner of the world quickly.

When Levi received the news that the mysterious woman had shattered Yartran's energy shield, he couldn't help but feel dumbfounded.

Understandably, Gloria's feat attracted his attention.

After all, he had to use almost all of his strength to break the shield in the past.

Even though Levi had elevated his power recently, he thought the mysterious woman's power couldn't be underestimated.

"I might be the only one who can be her opponent!"

Levi massaged his head as it started to hurt.

He couldn't stay by the side of his family and friends all day.

If the mysterious force attacked his base, the mysterious woman only had to stall him to let Xylas and other elites slaughter his men.

Furthermore, compared to Yartran's energy shield, the base's defensive formation was much weaker.

The Spiritual Ley Line Of Yartran

While everyone felt an increasing sense of danger, even the Acting Minister's confidence was shaken.
Miles away, a massacre ensued after Gloria conquered Yartran.

Xylas, the remaining descendant of the two deviant clans, fully displayed his merciless nature in the massacre.

There were many members in Yartran's base. More than half were slaughtered, while the remaining members gave up and stopped resisting.

The remaining dozens of council members were also captured.

At that moment, they kneeled and begged for Gloria's mercy.

In exchange for their lives, they were willing to give Gloria the top secret of Yartran—the location of the super-spiritual ley line that Yartran depended on for survival.

Although Gloria was excited about it, she pretended to be nonchalant. "The information is not enough to buy all of your lives."

Gloria quickly headed toward the super-spiritual ley line, for she couldn't wait to absorb its energy.

"How much progress will I make once I finish absorbing this spiritual ley line?"

After Gloria finished murmuring to herself, she swiftly wielded her devouring technique.

What happened next stupefied her—the process abruptly halted after she absorbed just a little spiritual energy.

Have I reached my limit? Can I not elevate my power anymore?

Gloria couldn't help but feel disappointed.

Even though she knew she was already invincible even without the additional spiritual energy, her greed was endless.

She still desired to achieve more, although she was now in a class of her own.

“What a waste if I can't devour such an enormous spiritual ley line!”

Gloria refused to give up and frantically looked for ways to devour the spiritual ley line.

Assault On The Base

Phew! Levi let out an extended exhalation.

It looks as if the mysterious woman's ability to attain progression through devouring may have peaked.

"This means that it isn't the end of the road for us just yet."

With that in view, his confidence had received another considerable boost.

"In any case, you have to continue to stay vigilant, Mr. Garrison. Word has it that this faction is currently amassing its forces. It's highly possible that they might be planning to hit your base directly."

When the agents from Black Hawk checked in with updates again, Levi expressed certitude that his defensive schemes were already at an optimum state.

Thus, he was not too concerned about that.

Should the worst come to bear, I can still send my family, friends, and apprentices down to seek refuge in the safety of the underground defensive base.

Following that, Levi got in touch with the Ecclesiastic Order to establish lines of communication, and he was explicit in stressing the importance of the immediate sharing of any intel pertaining to the mysterious woman.

That voice could not have been more familiar to the masses present.

Xylas Geurin!

To them, that meant that that sadistic monster had returned.

Everyone was gripped by sheer panic.

With the lightning-quick sacking of Yartran from a few days ago still fresh on their minds, they would not have been as fearful had Levi been around presiding over things.

Could it be merely coincidental that Xylas should show up the second Levi left? No, that's impossible! There has to be a spy among us.

That line of thinking only served to compound the unease that many of them felt inside.

"Just stay calm, everyone, and follow me down to the underground defensive base."

The Azure Dragon quintet took the lead to migrate the group as Levi had instructed earlier.

Should they be attacked by powerful enemies while Levi was away, they were to avoid needless confrontation by swiftly relocating to the defensive base instead.

But how would Xylas know that if it wasn’t Floyd who told him? This doesn’t make sense!

Boom! A deafening noise echoed throughout the area as the defensive formation in the underground base suddenly collapsed.

Due to the secretive nature of the underground base, those on the outside had no way of pinpointing its exact location.

As such, Levi didn’t bother to set up a particularly strong defensive formation.

“You guys are nothing but a bunch of weaklings! You can’t hide from me!” Xylas shouted as he led the charge with dozens of Fatalis Warriors following closely behind.

“I’ll handle Xylas. Be careful when you’re fighting the others!” Forlevia said bravely before joining the battle.

Being the strongest member of the group, it was only natural for her to take Xylas on.

To send anyone else after him would be no different from sending them to their death.

Therefore, having Forlevia fight Xylas was the only way to minimize unnecessary casualties.
