The Big Escape

The Top Ten were in one team, Sonja and the other two were in another team, and Eusof was on his own.

In the middle of the dark night, a figure dashed through the forest rapidly.

Multiple dark figures were hot on his tail. However, due to the significant difference in power, the distance between both parties increased.

The person who was frantically running away in the front was Eusof.

He was the one who regained the most power in the underground prison.

As a result, he decided to go solo so he would not be dragged down by the others.

However, immediately after he escaped Corpse Pit, the members of the Glorian Order discovered his tracks and pursued him relentlessly.

Naturally, Eusof wanted to eliminate these people first before escaping.

Yet, after two attempts, he was shocked to discover that the more he killed, the more members of the Glorian Order appeared.

It was obvious that they had already received relevant intel and had launched a massive operation to search for the escapees.

Having reached that conclusion, Eusof stopped fighting with those pursuing him.

Using The Remedial Ley Line

Countless members of the Glorian Order were now conducting a blanket search.

Eusof and the Top Ten could only anticipate the worst at this point.

They wouldn't be able to fight their way back to the Ecclesiastic Order even in their best forms, let alone their current state.

Having reached their limit, the Top Ten didn't know how to get help.

Furthermore, the Ecclesiastic Order seemed to only be maintaining a defensive stance and had no intention of retaliating.

It was clear that the Glorian Order now had a firm grip on the former—a grip so strong that the oppression continued even when Eusof was on the verge of utter despair.

Hence, returning to the Ecclesiastic Order would only hasten its annihilation now.

With obstacles in front of and behind them, he and the Top Ten could only find another way out.

The problem was that they had already lost almost every hope.

Sonja and the others were more fortunate to have completely given up on returning to the Ecclesiastic Order.

Instead, they had made a beeline toward Levi's base and didn't face much resistance.

Levi's lips curled upward as he no longer felt the remedial ley line's power trying to fight him. It looks like I've taken care of the dragon. Now I can use the ley line's power as much as I want.

Channeling some basic techniques, he then formed a large burst of energy and began to absorb the remedial ley line's powers, feeling it flow throughout his body.

"Huh?"

After metamorphosing for a while, Levi suddenly realized something notable about the remedial ley line.

The energy it contained felt a lot milder than that of the previous two super-spiritual ley lines, but this current one seemed to have some nourishing effects on his body, vessels, and even spirit.

Levi's basic metamorphosis technique differed from Gloria's devourer energy, but both involved converting external energy for one's own consumption, which could then result in some strain on the user.

Surprisingly, though, the remedial ley line seemed to be nurturing Levi's body, thus causing many energy strains to disappear.

On top of that, it also enhanced his energy to a certain extent.

"My perceptive energy will be on a whole new level with this remedial ley line," Levi muttered to himself, smiling.

The Top Ten Members Are Caught

Countless of shadows remained hidden inside a dark forest.

Those shadows belonged to the Top Ten members, who had grown extremely weary.

Ever since learning that the Ecclesiastic Order was being heavily guarded, they knew the road there would be a tough one and could only conceal themselves in the forest.

Now, they planned to wait for the slightest opening before infiltrating the Ecclesiastic Order.

Their bodies and minds had long grown weary after days of being persecuted, and all the firm beliefs and willpower they had spent years cultivating were practically gone.

“We can’t keep going on like this. We’ll be caught once daylight comes,” Ryvonne murmured.

Davin sighed. “There are too many members of the Glorian Order out there. We’d only die if we try to fight our way through.”

The other members shook their heads, no longer having the confidence they once had.

“If we’re going to die, either way, we may as well die trying. There’s a chance that a couple of us would make it and tell the Ecclesiastic Order what’s going on.”

“Maybe Master Thundera would avenge us too.”

Missed Out One Thing

“I don’t—” Ryvonne was also kicked away before she could finish. Gloria turned to the remaining members, only to receive the same answer.

Her gaze darkened. She could somewhat feel that apart from them genuinely wanting to die, they really didn’t seem to know where the other prisoners had escaped to.

The eyes couldn’t lie, after all. “Just kill me, Gloria.” “I don’t want to live anymore either. Take my life already.”

“You’re just a b*tch who’s made this far thanks to a man, Gloria.”

“So what if you’re now the leader of the Glorian Order? You’re still a lowly, despicable excuse for a human being.”

The Top Ten members began shouting at her, some even hurling insults.

All they wanted was to die.

They didn’t want to continue being locked up in that underground facility where they would never see the light.

Gloria might be speeding ahead, but she was panicking inwardly.

How did I ignore the fact that Sonja might look for Levi? That’s pretty significant!

Getting Levi’s help would give them the same effect as spreading the news back in the Ecclesiastic Order.

Trepidation filled Gloria when she recalled that Bone Grandmaster was tasked to search outside Levi’s base.

He might be strong, but he was obviously no match for fighters as capable as Levi and Forlevia.

Once Sonja got in touch with the elites of Levi's base, Bone Grandmaster would be in trouble. It would be hard for him to escape from the base.

After Levi discovered the stuff that the Glorian Order and Gloria did, it was a matter of time before the Ecclesiastic Order and the Minister, Thundera, learned about her actions.

"Levi isn't scary at all. However, the consequences would be dire if he were to collaborate with Master Thundera," Gloria muttered to herself.

She got so terrified that her back was drenched in a cold sweat.

Initially, she didn't have to be this afraid. Alas, Yartran's spiritual ley line had been destroyed.

Prove My Innocence

Gloria told him, "Lately, I've been trying to avoid the Glorian Order's pursuit. I've also been investigating the mysterious female leader of the Glorian Order. Perhaps you don't know about this, but the female leader knows the Ecclesiastic Order and me well. I suspect she used to be one of us. Otherwise, she wouldn't get to make up so much fake evidence to frame me."

Floyd remained silent as Gloria tried to explain. She grew increasingly nervous at his silence. Finally, she decided to go all out and play her trump card. "Actually, I know where they are. If I'm related to the Glorian Order, will I let them go to the base? I didn't say anything as I was afraid you'd misunderstand me and ignore me."

She burst into tears and pretended that she didn't reveal anything for the sake of their relationship.

Floyd relented and quickly comforted her, "Gloria, don't cry. I wasn't suspecting you."

He thought over the matter and found Gloria's words convincing.

If she's the mysterious leader who had caught Sonja and the other two, why didn't she kill them straight away? That would be for the best. That way, there would be no loose ends. Why did she allow them to escape? Besides, Master, Azure Dragon, and the rest discussed it. The female leader is extremely meticulous. She wouldn't have made that stupid a mistake. If Gloria were the female leader, why would she tell me everything? She'll merely attract suspicion this way. The female leader should be trying her best to track Sonja and the rest down instead of leaking the news. Gloria is honest with me, so she's not the female leader. I should trust her.

Having made up his mind, Floyd promised, "Gloria, don't worry. I shall make my rounds now. If they dare to frame you, I shall make them pay."
