Chapter 421: Who doesn't want to get ahead?

When she saw the lazy cat, she was completely thin.

The puffed cheeks have now become deep corners.

In the eyes of foreign media, that is one sentence: advanced.

"I don't think I can learn this dance." Qin Yu immediately became unhappy, and it didn't matter if he didn't learn any broken dance.

Lazy Cat lowered his head pitifully, shook his hand gently, and whispered: "Don't be angry, just lose a little bit, really only a little bit."

"Look at me, I'm in good health!" Lazy cat got up and made a tiptoe motion, fearing that she would not believe it, and then turned a few times.

The cautious expression made Qin Yu want to get angry, but in the end he forced it back.

This girl, she really wants to get angry, and in the end it will only be her who is embarrassed and sad.

"Come here." Beckoned to the lazy cat, hugged her into the center of her arms and rubbed her head painfully.

Tired eyes drooped naturally, and a smile appeared at the corners of his mouth.

Unconsciously, people just fell asleep like this.

Qin Yu just sat on the side of the bed, holding her motionless.

I slept for six hours. When the lazy cat opened his eyes again, the dull cheeks reappeared.

"Why did I fall asleep?" Lazy cat stretched out comfortably and looked up at his watch.

"Ah~" The man jumped out of Qin Yu's arms, and the lazy cat watched his stiff movements and said worriedly: "Why don't you call me? Is there anything wrong?"

Qin Yu shook his almost unconscious arm, "It's okay, it's just your two or two flesh, I..." He was about to get up, but his strong numbness made his thighs reluctant to do so.

咚, people just sat back straight again.

"Hiss~ numb." Qin Yu gritted his teeth and took a breath. The tingling and twitching feeling of two thighs was uncomfortable.

Lazy Cat was so scared that tears almost came out, helping him to knead, and helping him to lie down.

"It's not broken, just wait a while." Qin Yu softly comforted her as she wiped away her tears with her fingers.

Hearing his comfort, Lazy Cat was anxious and ashamed.

The one who can't move is Qin Yu, and this will actually require him to comfort him.

"Don't move, I'll squeeze it for you." Help Qin Yu take off his shoes and put his legs on the bed.

Qin Yu knelt down on the edge of the bed, kneading his thighs repeatedly with slender fingers.

up and down, up and down...

was a little uncomfortable at first, soreness and numbness.

However, as the blood refills and circulates, it quickly becomes more comfortable.

Watching the lazy cat knelt there, kneading hard with his small hands, from time to time wipe the sweat from his forehead with the back of his hand.

Qin Yu grabbed her wrist, looked at her questioning gaze and said: "Don't pinch, it's better to...do a solo dance for me..."

Lazy Cat understood what he meant, "Hmm..." spanned his left leg and sat gently on him.

.....

I stayed here for half a month.

During this period, Qin Yu didn't do anything else, so he accompanied the lazy cat to eat and drink every day.

The skinny cheeks regained their flesh color, and their spirits were several times better than when they first met.

There is Qin Yu, every day she takes her to eat, eat, eat...

Anyone can gain weight, so lazy cats are not easy to get fat, they exercise a lot every day, and they deliberately control their energy intake.

Otherwise, she would have become a fat pig.

"You are so cool, stay with her for half a month, and leave everything else to be done by others." In the small courtyard, the teapot was steaming on a red brick stove.

Qin Yu and Ye Jinlan are sitting opposite each other, holding delicate tea cups in their hands.

The tea cups are filled with white hair tips, which are picked before the Ming Dynasty, and cost 660,000 per kilogram.

Ye Jinlan bought this tea from the old man. She is not someone who understands tea and loves tea, and she doesn't have that way to buy it.

"This tea is good." Qin Yu took a sip of the tea and changed the subject.

Ye Jinlan didn't care about it, knowing that he would not answer: "I like to drink. Grandpa still has four or two, so I will pack two or two and take it away for you."

"Three or two! Just give it away, one or two is just right for one person." Qin Yu said that he wanted to be as easy as his own thing.

Ye Jinlan looked at him amusedly, and said: "You're really welcome!"

"Is it useful to be polite?" Qin Yu replied, "How is Ye Lao's body?"

Ye Jinlan's smile on her face narrowed, and she said solemnly, "Thanks to your medicine, it's a sigh of relief."

This is what the old man said himself, and it was also the doctor's judgment.

The old man's body did not recover, but the development of the disease was stopped.

Although I have recovered a lot of energy, there is no basis for it, and the doctor dare not give a judgment easily.

In short, as long as you can maintain the current state, you can live for a few more years!

"Qin Yu, your medicine..." Ye Jinlan doesn't ask if it doesn't work, grandpa only has enough medicine to take a few more times.

No one can tell what is going on until the medicine is finished.

Qin Yu just shook her head, watching her feel down and worried, "If there is any, I will send it over as soon as possible."

"Thank you." Ye Jinlan's gratitude is from the heart.

"By the way, how did that matter go?" Qin Yu didn't just come to drink tea today, but took a few tea leaves to give away.

It has become a fact that the upper hand wants to completely rectify the network chaos.

In the past half month alone, more than 130 companies, institutions and platforms have been interviewed.

This time, it was not just a mouthful, and ordered rectification within a time limit, but the rectification was not completed after the deadline.

are all off the shelves, there is no emotion to talk about!

Whether it is fighting teeth or other platforms that have engaged in lottery activities in the past six months, they are all included in the list.

Fighting tooth family has a great cause, and it has been the most affected.

Like the big anchors included in the list this time, there are eight...

Don't feel less, these are big anchors with millions of fans.

Anyone who takes out a hand to switch to a small platform can be a brother or a sister.

right now.....

In the future, I still keep my eyes open, and I have some money in my hand, and switch to a small business as soon as possible.

back to the front desk, come back to this kind of dream, this life is not to think about it.

Otherwise, it's better to keep the side ball less, and one accidentally hits the muzzle.

Snap, no more~

"The people who signed the contract with the platform are discussing the termination of the contract, and some of them want compensation."

"Compensation? They did something wrong and want compensation?" Qin Yu smiled incredulously, "Since you want compensation, let the company's lawyers have a good talk with them."

"The platform drained traffic for them, promoted, and has done so much and now they are blocked, how is this loss calculated?"

Hearing Qin Yu's words, Ye Jinlan hesitated and asked, "Will this be bad for the reputation of the platform."

"What do you want a good reputation, do capitalists have a good reputation?" Qin Yu retorted: "Besides, I really want to be bitten by them. After opening this hole, what should I do in the future?"

"The platform has some money to pay for compensation...not to mention that there will be no compensation, that is, there will be no compensation for humanitarian reasons. Let the lawyers talk to them directly."

Originally, Qin Yu didn't intend to take a bite from them. Everyone was good to get together, and the account numbers were blocked. After that, the money was cut off, leaving them with some wealth to do business and livelihood.

It may be that money has come too easily over the years, and I am unwilling to just return to the ordinary like this.

actually wanted to bite a piece of meat from the platform before leaving...

Is this a platform? The bite was Brother Yu's meat, he could bear it, and gave you a face?

"Then do that?" Ye Jinlan was still a little bit undecided, she felt that she should use a softer method to solve it.

After all, this loss is not small for Douya.

The following small anchors are good to say that the anchors with eight million fans are completely cool. The follow-up still needs someone to be able to top it. If the word of mouth is lost, the watching anchors will be chilled, which is not good for the follow-up development. .

"You are wrong. Even if someone has an opinion on this matter, they will think that the anchors are greedy."

"Besides, if there is no space above, how can the people below take the position?"

"As long as the platform comes up with a new support policy to give those watching anchors a hope, they can replace it...Who doesn't want to do it?"

Qin Yu put the tea cup on the old wooden table and asked with a smile: "Will anyone not be tempted by the chance of making a million a month?"

"Those people will only beat human heads into dog heads to fight for this opportunity."

"As long as the fight is still a matter of live broadcast, there are so many Ma Tsai who want to get ahead."

Don't forget, there is a loss in this fight.

But other small platforms are not much better. Before, they could use the lottery to earn money and support.

Now, I'm afraid it will be hard to survive.

The next round will be a new round of shuffle, no matter who is dead or alive, they can't shake the status of fighting teeth.

Listening to his quack-like rhetoric, Ye Jinlan pursed his lips and chuckled: "How can you compare it to you, Dou Ya is a serious company."

"I didn't say that it was not serious, it was just a bit crooked."

Qin Yu said with emotion, "However, no one has done anything dirty these days. It is so clean that it is spotless and not far from death."

Chapter 422: Time, this is not there

'Ding!'

'Congratulations to the host for tasting the world's tea, moaning without illness, and triggering rewards.'

'Reward 1: Miracle Kidney Power.'

'Reward 2: Drinking Critical Strike Cashback Card 2*, spend 100,000 yuan or more, get 1~100 times the crit cashback.'

'Reward 3: Title Advanced Card.'

The rewards obtained this time, one or two can only be said to be better than nothing.

is reward three, the title advanced card makes Yu brother overjoyed.

He was worried about not having enough time. He didn't expect that he would solve it with a cup of tea.

'Use the title advance card for [Time Planner].'

'Are you sure?'

'Confirm.'

The words "Time Planner" on the panel faded and disappeared, and finally a brand new word appeared.

【Time Management Master】, has a deep sense of time management, and divides time into fragments.

Seeing the introduction, Qin Yu smiled satisfied.

"What's wrong?" Seeing his expression, Ye Jinlan asked curiously.

"Think of something interesting." Qin Yu said casually.

Seeing that he didn't mean to explain, Ye Jinlan couldn't continue to ask: "That's what Douya Entertainment will do... Kuafu will be able to go into production in a few months. Someone has come to you?"

The last time Bai Ze came to the door has already made Ye Jinlan very angry.

This line should belong to the Ye family, but the other party's identity is special, even she can only be upset.

Nowadays, Qin Yu has entered the eyes of some people.

Ye family wants to maintain this friendship with each other, they have to work hard.

The last time I saw Grandpa, he also hinted that he had to bother.

even deliberately or unintentionally pointed out whether the marriage between himself and him can be turned into a false reality.

Ye Jinlan was ashamed and embarrassed, but at the same time, there was a trace of heartbeat.

With Qin Yu's achievements today, it is enough for anyone to take a high look.

Besides, he has already entered the eye above.

At a young age, the future is promising!

No matter how you look at it, it is a proper diamond potential stock.

It's just that there should always be a process in emotional matters.

Besides, this kind of thing shouldn't let girls take the initiative...

If Ye Jinlan knew, she wasn't the first to think so.

I don't know how you feel?

"You're talking about Bai Ze... he hasn't looked for me again, have the shares of the Ye family been kept?"

As soon as the voice fell, Qin Yu's voice changed: "Forget it, you big people should worry about solving this kind of thing by yourself, so you don't need to tell me."

He didn't really want to be the Ye Family's son-in-law, why bother!

No matter who owns the shares, it seems that they are in the hands of the Ye Family. This tiger skin is still available for the time being.

As for the newly acquired kidney power, she has to find another opportunity to give her.

Ye Lao hasn't had an accident yet, he is the key to stabilizing the situation.

Once Ye Lao is in trouble, Ye Jinlan will be overwhelmed, and the Ye family will fall into internal and external troubles again.

The stability and good situation that Qin Yu wanted was all ruined...

Directly approached the boss, Qin Yu had thought about this too.

However, that is the last resort.

can get out of trouble as soon as possible without getting involved in trouble.

With or without Yejiazhong, the price paid is the same, but the risks are different.

Besides, it was Bai Ze's cold, rigid look.

Dealing with him, there is comfortable sitting face to face with Ye Jinlan and drinking tea.

There are beauties who don't need to, find a man to eat with yourself...

呸呸 right drink, is there something wrong with it?

"I'm really not curious about Bai Ze's identity." Ye Jinlan felt that he was a normal person and should be curious.

"There must be curiosity." Qin Yu answered very happy, but he also knew it.

The more you know about something, the more you get stuck in it, and you can't help yourself.

On the contrary, it would be better to know how to be a prodigal son, how unrestrained and unrestrained.

"You understand what you want." Ye Jinlan's eyes flickered, and he agreed with him a little more.

Seeing her put on an expression of "You are awesome", Qin Yu put down the teacup and got up and left, "There's something else, see you later!"

"Don't stay to eat together?"

"...No, I have to pick up my girlfriend from get off work."

"Hehe~" In the ironic mockery, Qin Yu's figure disappeared outside the narrow wooden door.

Looking at the direction in which he disappeared, Ye Jinlan sighed, feeling a bit resentful in his heart.

Is this man really indifferent to himself?

Still, he is caring about his identity and doesn't want to be in it?

"Oh, even I want to get away, why should the other party enter the game and get into this muddy water." After dispelling all the thoughts in his mind, Ye Jinlan decided to focus more on work.

I just hope that Grandpa's medicine will not be cut off.

'Qin Yu...'

.....

.....

"Qin Yu."

"Remember to visit me often." In front of the airport, the lazy cat reluctantly took his hand and refused to let go.

The time in Shangdu is undoubtedly happy, but the parting will come after all.

"I will come to see you during the holiday...remember to take care of yourself."

Qin Yu felt that she had to put some pressure on her, and gave her an injection to warn her: "Next time I see you weakened, I will go and talk to your group leader in person."

threatened the lazy cat with 'quit the group', but she was embarrassed.

But now Qin Yu has made it clear that he is going to trouble with the group leader, Lazy Cat panicked and nodded again and again: "I know, I must have a good meal."

Seeing what she obviously wrote down, Qin Yu rubbed her head with satisfaction.

The sky and the earth are big, and the dry rice is the biggest.

What's more glorious than being a cook?

quit food, all died, and talked about the pursuit of a fart, dream...

Checked in the gate, turned around and waved at the lazy cat, "Be careful on the way back, and go."

Lazy Cat also nodded and waved, and said silently, "Miss you..."

Waiting for his figure to disappear, Lazy Cat then hung his head weakly and walked out.

The previous joy and energy seemed to be withdrawn instantly with Qin Yu's departure.

In the VIP waiting room, Qin Yu was lying on the massage chair and turned on the phone to watch the live broadcast.

The time management of small anchors has made significant progress. In the case of shooting programs during the day, they can also make time for live broadcasts at night.

through the live broadcast, further promote the popularization of local scenery and food.

Although the live broadcast is not long, you can still see the fatigue on her face.

I really don't know why these women have to fight like this!

Lazy cat is like this, and the little anchor who is willing to be a salted fish is like this now.

There is also Jiang Xiaoshan, who is busy all day long and disappears.

Li Wanxing...

I can't see anyone all day long, and I don't know what I'm doing.

Wen Yaxuan alone is not worried about work at all.

Every day I write essays, read books in the library, and then go home on time to report.

Dry rice! !

During this time, Teacher Shen was quite empty, and even Wen Yaxuan was fed fat.

In other words, Mr. Shen's cooking skills are getting better and better.

Every time I go to Cengfan, Qin Yu has to eat 10%, Wen Yaxuan...about 12%.

I can't walk after eating, but can't it be twelve percent?

Recently, the two golden flowers have never contacted Qin Yu, which made him a little curious.

Because the business is too stable, you don't need to worry about it, so you are a little bit negligent about yourself, a big customer?

Still say What are the obstacles at home?

However, it is impossible for Brother Yu to speak actively.

The posture must be correct, so that when they look back, they think how important they are, and they may make any unreasonable demands.

It's been a long time since I contacted 'Juying', and I don't know how her brand is doing.

On the trade union side, Qin Yu hasn't asked questions for a long time, and all the affairs are left to He Sheng.

The bonus hasn't been divided yet, and Qin Yu didn't really like that little profit.

The union was first established to find a support for small anchors.

Now, it seems that the trade union is relying on her for development, which is a bit turning the cart before the horse.

Brother Yu didn't expect this. Who could have guessed that the little anchor would become popular so quickly, and he suddenly became a major shareholder of Douya Entertainment.

Had I known this, Brother Yu wouldn't have set up a trade union.

However, it was through the trade union that I knew He Sheng.

and Jiang Feier...

Although she was good at advocating last time, Brother Yu was a little unhappy.

But after all, I have brought myself happiness, which is quite interesting.

In the future, the trade union can serve as a platform for communication, and it may be useful when it is available.

It is human nature to love to play, so don't underestimate the big brother on the platform.

Anything that can be mixed in the platform and can stand the test of time, there must be a skill in reality.

Chapter 423: Open the way

June, mid-term.

Sunny, breeze...

It was another beautiful sun with a gentle wind, and when he looked up at the sky, Qin Yu put down his hand on his eyebrows.

In front of him, the dilapidated factory gate has been demolished.

was replaced with a brand new stainless steel automatic door, and the signs hung by red cloth on both sides were exposed to everyone's sight when Xu Hao grabbed the corner of the red cloth and pulled hard.

Kaka~

On-site leaders and company executives took a group photo, and the people below were responsible for applauding.

"Okay, applause."

"The leader said so well, applaud."

"Well said, we must have such a hard-working spirit, applaud..."

Looking at the bald middle-aged man with his palms red and his smile still bright, Qin Yu sincerely admires him.

No wonder the other party can be the director of the office, this flattering effort... not easy!

"Dear leaders, the workers have officially started work, let's go to the production line to see." Xu Hao greeted the leaders to go to the factory.

Li Xiao and others found an excuse to get out, winking frequently at Qin Yu in the crowd.

Separated from the crowd, a few people walked towards the administration building.

The administration building of Kuafu is nothing compared to other companies.

is a small two-story building. The first floor is the administrative office, and the second floor is the meeting room and reception room.

However, behind the administration building, there is a five-story building with all glass facades and a strange shape that looks like an electric kettle. It looks particularly conspicuous.

That is the experimental base of Kuafu. Two teams led by Cui Geng and Jing Yuan have officially settled in.

Continue the 'progress competition,' which has never ended since it started, it's a joy to chase me after you!

Qin Yu and others are happy to see that this kind of competition exists, as long as it is healthy competition.

is the best motivation for them.

was born in sorrow and died in happiness.

In the center of the scientific research base hall, there is an irregular quadrilateral boulder pier.

These eight characters are engraved on both sides of the stone.

One side is black and the other is red, always reminding people who enter and exit.

Never lose progress, be content with pleasure.

I really want to have fun, I don't know whether I'm going to die, but his position here is 'dead'.

Please, take your seat, go!

A set of processes is very professional, and it is sent away directly...

The man walked into the administration building, and Li Xiao turned around with his hands behind his back, and his face was drooped.

"Brother Yu, you can't cheat brothers again and again!" Entertaining these officials is the most troublesome.

All kinds of entertainment, the arrangement is the same, there is no need to be less.

The county magistrate is not as good as being in charge. People are deliberately identifying their own identity, but after all, the identity is there, you always have to give enough face.

Talk to these officials every day, talking about the world.

Li Xiao almost can't speak serious words.

Also, these old guys are too dirty to play and look disgusting.

Li Xiao hasn't gone out to do good deeds for two days in a row, and when he saw a woman dressed up as a coquettish girl, he felt like he was right in his heart.

"Next time I will get it directly from Jane. Give the benefits in place and let them arrange it by themselves."

Qin Yu frowned, but didn't force it: "However, don't worry about this kind of thing. There are still good women in this world."

"Forget it." Li Xiao shook his head, and said: "I'm still going to engage in my online dating in a down-to-earth manner!"

"You haven't seen each other yet?" Qin Yu asked in surprise.

Li Xiao grinned and said: "You don't understand this! Brother Yu, this is a sentiment...you understand the sentiment?"

"What I want is this dim sense of distance, the feelings are getting closer, and the mystery has to be maintained!"

"Wait someday to meet... The depressed feelings suddenly broke out, hehe..."

Li Xiao felt that when the day came, he would definitely have to fight three hundred rounds first.

Seeing his bright eyes and bright expression, Qin Yu prayed silently for him in his heart.

must be 98, or 298.

啧啧.....

In the second half of his life, I am afraid that there will be no more love.

"Brother, haven't you asked where your girl is?" Qin Yu asked curiously.

"Hudu, it's local." Li Xiao inquired clearly.

Qin Yu was surprised: "Can you hold back this?"

Li Xiao smiled triumphantly, shook his head and said: "You don't understand, you don't understand."

Seeing his leisurely and contented look, Yang Chengjun behind him was full of disgust: "It's cheap."

"You are single, you know what a fart!" Li Xiao retorted sarcastically.

"I have countless women..."

"You are a deal."

"I sing song every night..."

"That's a deal."

"I have no sleep all night..."

"Deal."

"I... your uncle's."

Yang Chengjun can't go on. Since the last time he played the game, Li Xiao has been holding on to this point.

used "mother-fetal single" to beat him every day, and Yang Chengjun almost shut himself up.

Take good care of all the officials and send people away with satisfaction.

Xu Hao dragged his exhausted body back, "These officials, nothing else can do, eat, drink and have fun, hey..."

"These people are just eating and drinking, can you be unclear?" Li Xiao said.

This is what the China Merchants Division does. I can't even figure out the doorway. How do I do it?

"Talk about business, how can the workers adapt to it?" Qin Yu asked.

Today is the first start, although all have been trained.

You can change the environment, there must be some places where you don't take advantage, Xu Hao still has to stare.

"There is old Hu staring at it!" Xu Hao smiled triumphantly: "Brother Yu, this old Hu is a talent."

went directly to the job and found out all the doors in the factory.

Work started this morning, and I walked back and forth in the workshop a few times.

Some miscellaneous, big and small problems, let him find out with a pair of eyes.

I didn't learn some skills, but I learned a lot about sneaking and slipping.

was also given a point by him to understand whether he was not serious or not. What he said was nothing more than a meaning: I want to be clever under the eyes of Lao Tzu, and I am a little tender...

In a few words, they bluffed the workers.

The key person is really capable, and he always comes up with an idea every time, and he can't accept it!

Then I talked about shipping and handover, and learned that Hu Guangquan had arranged everything properly.

Qin Yu feels that this factory director is worth the job!

Expensive is a bit more expensive, but everything is graded.

500 yuan and 2,000 yuan, can it be the same?

Judging from Hu Guangquan's performance, it must be the top card in 2000+ venues.

Increase the price without losing!

"Boss, I'm looking for you!" The Northwest local evil, whoever mentions it, arrived, and Hu Guangquan rushed in.

looked up, huh~

Where are the bosses? Eat and drink, have fun...

Cough, I took the wrong book.

"Shao Qin, Shao Li, Shao Yang..." After greeted the three of them, Hu Guangquan smiled and said to Xu Hao: "Boss, I want to tell you something."

Xu Hao glanced at him and said, "Then talk about it, let's listen together, or I have to repeat it again after you finish."

Since Xu Hao has said so, Hu Guangquan naturally has nothing to shirk: "Um... our car can't get in."

"???" Several people looked at each other a few times, their faces were all bewildered.

This road was repaired by the Yamen, two-way four-lane, just a few days after opening, it will not work?

The bean curd dregs project does not carry this, and tens of billions of projects are not taken seriously...

Finally, Qin Yu asked, "What's the situation?"

Hu Guangquan made it clear now It's not that the road is not good, someone blocked the way.

It was a nearby villager who was blocking the road, saying that this road took up land in their village.

It's okay to think about it, a car is 5 yuan, just give it money, don't think about it if you don't give it.

"A few village women * a roadblock with a branch in their hands, and when they swung toward the middle of the road, they took a pony and sat behind the roadblock...no the driver dared to move."

Who would dare to move, in case it accidentally hangs, there will be dozens or millions of them.

This person can't get up.

"Have you reported the crime?" Li Xiao frowned.

This kind of thing clearly shows that it is blackmail. How could the land requisitioned in the yamen and roads be related to the village?

is really related to the village, so the formalities must have already been approved.

Still, the interests of the villagers have been occupied.

So unwilling to stand up and make trouble?

"No matter what the situation is, it's better to leave it to the Yamen, we are not good to come forward." After Qin Yu said, he looked at Hu Guangquan: "Director Hu, you can follow up on what happened."

"...If there is any trouble, I can't solve it again." To solve the problem, you must first figure out what is going on.

went up and overwhelmed people, but fell behind.

In these years, the media's eyes are omnipresent, and there are not one or two second generations who have been pitted.

The netizen opened his mouth and ran where the wind was blowing.

Take a look first, take a look and talk about it.

Chapter 424: Immortals don't change

"This road is in our village. It doesn't work for anyone to come here. Either pay or don't even think about going there."

In front of the crude roadblock tied with branches, the village woman sat on the pony sack, yelling brutally: "You want to pass through my village for nothing, your baby is still very powerful, this is the village of Di Road, who It doesn't work anymore!"

"This is obviously a road built by the Yamen, how come it became your village?"

"Yamen? What's wrong with the Yamen?" The village woman frowned, and stood up with her arms around her: "The Yamen was opened by your house. You say it seems like..."

The person who was sent by Director Hu to negotiate was a college student who had just graduated, and how could he be the opponent of the violent village women.

After two or three sentences, his face flushed, and he couldn't speak.

In the end, he could only go back dingy, "Shrew, shrew..."

Seeing the baby trembling with anger, Hu Guangquan patted him on the shoulder and said with a smile: "It won't work for a village woman, the young man... is still too tender."

Hu Guangquan walked outside the factory with his hands behind his back, shaking step by step.

The college students were still irritated before, and after a while, they thought that the factory manager was definitely going to find a place for themselves.

his eyes lit up and he ran out of the factory door.

When he waited in front of the roadblock, he stared and saw that the person was stupid.

I saw Hu Guangquan sitting on a small horse, chatting happily with the village women who had been blocking the road.

"...It doesn't seem like you say it, it's not easy for us."

didn't know what was said, the village woman would confide her own difficulties with amorous feelings.

Looking at Hu Guangquan again, he showed a deeply emotional expression, nodding and frowning from time to time, and nodding lightly from time to time.

is like every word spoken by the village woman, which affects his heart.

"Big girl, look like this..." Hu Guangquan pointed to the car that was stopped outside: "Let's let the car in and load the goods first. I will sit here and talk to you slowly about other issues."

"When the goods are loaded, they can't get out if they can't agree. Besides, I'm here with you, not afraid, right?" Hu Guangquan asked with a smile.

"What are you afraid of, you are not afraid of anything!"

The village woman shouted violently, and then glanced at the crowd who was watching the excitement: "Look, see, see, what's so beautiful, what's the matter with Xiandi?"

"Okay, for the sake of your brother's face, the goose will let the car pass first." A few village women stepped aside, and the truck was finally able to enter the factory.

Waiting for the bus to go over here, the village woman put the roadblock back again.

was about to sit down, and saw a fast-catching car coming at the end of the road, "Well you shameless..."

As soon as she saw this, the smile on the village woman's face instantly became cold and harsh, and she stretched out her hands to scratch Hu Guangquan's face.

The man fell backwards, his right leg was just kicking on the opponent's ankle.

咚 · 咚~

The two fell to the ground in tandem, and the village woman immediately patted the ground and howled like a pig: "Oh, murder, murder in the factory... The rich is the Lord, the people do not have human rights..."

Limbs slapped on the ground indiscriminately, and the village woman shed two tears with her closed eyes, her face was full of grief, as if she had suffered a great grievance.

can wait for the yamen to stop the car, but she is not the first to look at.

"Quickly, let's see what's wrong with the people." After getting out of the car, the catcher quickly rushed to Hu Guangquan's side.

Seeing this scene, the village woman shouted louder, "Oh, the life of the rich is fate, the poor..."

"Don't yell. I fainted without seeing anyone. Get emergency first aid." The village woman was startled by the quick catch.

did not react until afterwards, the other party was talking about Hu Guangquan.

people, dizzy?

No, he just sat on the pony sack and lay down when he fell backwards. How much can he fall?

Instead, he lay straight on the ground and fell a lot.

If it weren't for the thick skin, it would have been painful now.

"What the * is going on with you, whoever called the police, come out who can talk." One arrester looked at Hu Guangquan quickly, and the other came forward and shouted.

The village woman who had blocked the road shrank her body and turned her head away.

Seeing that no one was speaking, the university stood up angrily: "Catch the adults, they are the ones who block the road, rob, and beat people. Director Hu is like this."

"What are you talking nonsense, bastard, who hit someone, who hit someone?" The village woman who fell to the ground jumped up and pointed at him and asked.

Click.

Wrists backwards, and both hands are handcuffed, "Take it home first, and you guys..."

.....

.....

The farce that happened at the door, Xu Hao and others knew about it after the people from the Yamen left.

"Let's go and see Lao Hu." Xu Hao's face turned black on the spot when he learned that his factory manager was in a coma.

TMD, I encountered such a thing as soon as I opened the door.

I didn't intend to cause trouble, but I thought it could be solved.

Do you have to find something for yourself, do you die?

There was a wicked fire in my heart. Several people were about to go out. Hu Guangquan's assistant came in with the phone: "Qin Shao, Li Shao..."

"Come on, say something quickly." Xu Hao waved and interrupted, letting him speak straight.

The other party smiled sadly, clutching the microphone and said: "The call from Director Hu is okay, saying that you don't have to go."

"Where is Lao Hu?" Li Xiao frowned tightly and reached out for a call: "I'll tell him..."

The two briefly said a few words, not knowing what Hu Guangquan said over there.

Li Xiao's expression has become a little weird, it is very hard to want to endure not to laugh directly!

waited and hung up and asked the assistant to go out.

Li Xiao just laughed and cursed: "This old Hu, scared me."

Hu Guangquan 'fainted' directly, that was intentional.

Now the person is in the hospital, lying in bed waiting for various examinations.

Who would ask him if there was anything wrong, he said it was okay.

asked him where it hurts, he said... a headache!

It's the same if anyone asks, it's just a headache.

How the pain is, I can't explain it, like a needle stick, and it's like someone is hitting the brain with a small hammer.

哇哇, 哇哇... it hurts!

"The village woman went to the hospital and wanted to pretend to be sick. She said that her arm hurts, her leg hurts, and her stomach hurts again..."

"But the doctor had seen it, and she didn't even scratch her skin. She learned how to call her a headache again."

"Then what?" Qin Yu asked with a smile.

"Ha, Lao Hu has been on guard for a long time!" Li Xiao laughed: "From the beginning of the conversation, people were secretly videotaped by the side, and the process was all recorded."

When fell, he kicked his leg 'instinctively' forward and kicked the village woman.

The man was lying on the ground with his head up, and he didn't even wipe his chin. He was very professional.

As for Lao Hu, his head is directly knocked on the ground from the video.

No one would dare to tell if there was anything wrong.

"Old nonsense, let him take care of this matter. She is a rural woman who wants to squander two dollars." Li Xiao's words are full of satisfaction with Hu Guangquan.

This person, dug right!

Xu Hao's luck and vision are good this time, and it really made him pick up a treasure.

"Hey, I said he's okay!" Xu Hao wouldn't be too proud of it.

Kuafu Technology to this day, but it's all because he was busy before and after he was busy, and it is said that he is the first one...

"If you raise your nostrils again, it will go up to the sky. I will be a host tonight to celebrate your work." Qin Yu said amusedly.

"Vegetarian?" Xu Hao immediately said with a serious face: "I am a married woman now, only vegetarian."

"Okay, I'll arrange it for you." Holding his arms around his shoulders, several people walked out side by side.

Now, it's Xu Hao's turn to struggle.

What does it mean to arrange vegetarian food for yourself, then do they eat meat or vegetarian?

Or else, tonight will be the first tonight, open a meat?

No, no, in case Xia Ke knows, this girl can amputate herself in the middle of the night.

The kind with broken lower limbs...

Eat first, Qin Yu chose a firewood iron pot stew at the foot of Qinchuan Mountain.

The two-story building built by the farmer is just beside the road leading to the Qinchuan Mountains. The environment is a bit crude. The cement paste earthen stove, with small pieces of white porcelain on the surface, which is very clean. .

No one is particular about it, as long as it tastes good.

When came, there was no one in the store, so the old couple greeted them to sit down.

"Five catties of spare ribs and stick a few rolls." There was no menu in the store, so Qin Yu just opened his mouth and ordered.

Under the introduction of the proprietress, he chose a few side dishes in the pot.

Then, I just ate cold dishes and waited for the pot.

Take a big iron pot on the earthen stove, pour water into it, the over-watered ribs, and all kinds of aniseed.

Then, the lady boss came over with a bowl of raw noodles.

Knead the noodles into a ball, stretch it out, and roll it out to form a flower roll.

Snap, stick to the edge of the pot.

Waiting for the side of the pot to be covered with flower rolls, the boss closed the wooden pot lid that was nailed up with the two plates.

Gululu~

After 15 minutes, the aroma wafting out of the pot already made one's index finger move.

waited a full 45 minutes, waiting for the proprietress to uncover the pot, watching the thick soup tumbling inside, the cooked ribs and the side dishes added halfway.

There is also the Hanamaki steamed bun with the broth on the side of the pot, slurping...

"Wait, eat!" Qin Yu took the lead in grabbing a Hanamaki, biting off half of it in two bites.

Hanamaki full of broth, eaten alone is already fragrant, and another piece of pork ribs full of gravy.

Just this meal, don't change it to a god!

Chapter 425: What does it feel like to be drunk?

A meal in a rural farmhouse iron pot stews the mouthful of Li Xiao's three big and small people from Hudu.

The dozen or so Hanamakis on the side of the pot were swept away.

swallowed the last bite of Hanamaki, Li Xiao walked back, and his stomach immediately bulged: "Nothing..."

Hearing his voice, Xu Hao, who had been lying down a long time ago, rolled his eyes: "No, you come back, let me come!"

"...animal!" Yang Chengjun touched the waist of his trousers, which was about to burst, and quietly untied his belt.

If he doesn't untie it, he will be out of breath.

"How about, this meal is not in vain?" Qin Yu rubbed his stomach with a smile.

80% full, barely made a living, and had to accompany Lu Qing at night.

According to her habit, the snack street can't run, so she will have some supper at that time.

"Value, true value!" Xu Hao gave his thumbs up, turned his head with difficulty, and praised the boss and his wife: "Uncle, aunty, it's so delicious."

Two mouthfuls are just smirking, saying, 'that's good if it's delicious, it's good if it's delicious.'

After resting for half an hour, a few people got up to check out and planned to leave.

"A total of 285, just give 280." The boss came over with the list.

Xu Hao, who was about to pay the bill, was stunned. This...is too cheap?

I counted 500 yuan regardless, and stuffed it directly into the boss's arms. Xu Hao walked out of the shop yelling, "Come again next time."

Yang Chengjun standing on the side of the road is looking around: "This place is good, what can I do?"

"Farm house music, play cards, sing and sing, eat some peasant food... fishing is also available."

After hearing Qin Yu's introduction, the three of them lost interest.

I am used to the colorfulness of big cities, this project sounds boring.

Fishing here?

Can there be incense fishing in bars and nightclubs?

"Go..." Qin Yu was too lazy to talk to Xu Hao.

He is clamoring to be vegetarian every day, but it is his flower...

However, he is a bit worse than Han Hu. What he is best at is to visit the young woman's bedroom that is left alone.

No other meaning, just want to see the decoration style.

is good at studying, life is just this hobby...

However, Brother Yu felt that he was walking too much at night and took the jujube pills.

Just before getting in the car, Qin Yu said, "Vegan tonight, my girlfriend is coming."

When he had just eaten, Lu Qing sent him a WeChat message, saying that he ended early today.

Qin Yu has already agreed, and the arrangements are made for the evening, and this will not be easy to refuse.

The important thing is that today is a good day, Kuafu Technology officially started.

It's a matter of emotion and reason, it's time to celebrate.

Especially to treat Xu Hao well. During this time, he was a father and a mother again.

Every day and night, people are tired and thin.

The secret of his new trick is more radiant and brighter, and his skin is tighter...

"Brother Yu, this is Zheng Gong's sister-in-law?" On the way back, Li Xiao wanted to inquire about the ranking.

Who is big and who is small, you can't tell on the face, but you have to know it in your heart?

"What's from the side palace...I treat them equally." Qin Yu replied calmly.

Li Xiao: Good fellow, direct good fellow.

This wave is really a waste of school!

No wonder the colorful flags of Brother Yu are fluttering, standing and not falling down.

Look at this consciousness, this thought...

He~tui.

spent two hours back in the city, the hour hand was already pointing to 10 o'clock.

The front of Miami is a bit deserted, this meeting has already begun to lively, and everyone who should go in is in.

There are a lot of cars parked on the roadside, and Qin Yu has been looking for him for a long time.

In the end, there was really no move. He put his foot on the road crocks, half of the body was on the sidewalk, leaving a * to occupy a small area on the side of the road.

looked down, and didn't stand in the way, a few people walked into the store together.

The deck has already been booked. For this meeting, Lu Qing and Jiang Jiahui are sitting alone.

There are still people talking, "Beauty, you only see two of you, why don't you set up a stage together?"

"Wait." Lu Qing refused coldly.

At first, she could still keep smiling, but no matter how good her personality is, she can't stand up to people who come and talk to each other.

one by one oily noodles, I don't know how many low-quality perfumes were sprayed on them.

It seems like I want to soak myself in the perfume hole. I don't know if I have a dark illness. I spray so much to cover the smell.

"Beauty, don't be so indifferent when you come out to play!" The other party wanted to say something unwillingly, so the shoulder was held down.

Looking back, fucking, the enemy of life!

squeezed the opponent's shoulder and gently pushed, and let the way out, Qin Yu smiled and said, "Here's someone."

"I'm sorry." The other party gave a grumpy smile and flashed.

Whether it's Qin Yu, Li Xiao, Xu Hao, or Yang Chengjun, it's not easy to look at how they dress up.

There is also that indifferent attitude, like walking around in his living room.

Come out to play, the trick has to be brightened.

This group made it clear that they are not easy to provoke, there is no need to ask for trouble...

Before the * was against the sofa, Xiaojie ran over, "Brothers, here, let me send someone a fruit plate to quench our thirst!"

Turning on the microphone, Xiaojie sent someone to bring up the prepared fruit plate.

Never mentioning money, he invited this fruit plate.

What is coming? This is called coming...

A fruit plate is worth a few dollars. The big brothers are having fun, and the commission from consumption is enough for him to order a fruit plate for a month.

But some people just don't understand this truth.

"What to drink?" Qin Yu had already introduced to both parties, sitting next to Lu Qing, domineeringly put his arms around her waist, and embraced her in his arms.

You don't have to look at it, you can feel that there are many eyes outside frequently sweeping Lü Qing.

To beauties like her to the bar is naturally the most eye-catching target.

By doing this, Qin Yu is declaring sovereignty, this woman has the master.

Enjoying Qin Yu's dominance, Lu Qing happily ordered a bottle of Champagne King: "I and Huihui and this are all right."

"Okay..." After talking to Xiaojie, Qin Yu put down the list.

"Mouse, I'll leave the rest to you. Today you are the protagonist and I will only pay the bill."

"What is so happy about?" When Xu Hao's selection of wine, Lu Qing asked in surprise.

"Kuafu officially started production, and the money invested has finally fallen back." Qin Yu joked.

Lv Qing murmured in distress: "I'm all done, congratulations."

"Thank you..."

As the two talked, Xu Hao also ordered a drink.

I didn't have the Ace of Spades today, I was vegetarian, and I didn't hook up with girls. Who would I show you the show?

A total of five bottles of XO are on the table like this.

It seems that tonight, the mouse is going to make life and death...

Qin Yu smiled and asked: "Why, I haven't learned the lesson before?"

I haven't been drunk for a long time, Brother Yu almost forgot what it feels like to be drunk.

He hoped that someone would be able to stand up and make him bigger.

It's a pity, none of them are useful!

Xu Hao raised his neck and said unconvinced: "Brother Yu, I'm really not convinced... Since we met, I haven't seen you drink too much, and I still don't believe it."

"Today, just today... Dare to take the wheel fight?" Xu Hao's tone was arrogant, but there was a 'heart-hearted' in his tone. '

It seems that he still knows how much he drinks.

"Okay, give you a chance." Brother Yu pointed to the cup and said, "Who will come first."

Xu Hao didn't say a word. Look at Li Xiao left.

The other party turned his head to the dance floor, his body twisted to the rhythm of the music.

Look right at Yang Chengjun.

He was looking into the deck next door, as if there were some rare treasures in it that were attracting him.

"...I'll come first." Unable to rely on the left and right, Xu Hao could only grit his teeth.

The idea is from him, how can it be done without taking the lead!

"Okay, Brother Hao is domineering!" Li Xiao gave him a thumbs up.

Yang Chengjun raised his mouth and raised his hands to applaud him, "Brother Hao is great."

"..." Me? Shouldn't believe these two bitches, Xu Hao cursed inwardly.

But no matter what, he will have to bite the bullet first.

It's not just because 'vegetarian' is too monotonous, so it's fun to liven up the atmosphere.

The few people are also really curious about how deep Brother Yu is drinking.

No matter how much he drank at a small gathering, I never saw him drunk in the end.

I'm not even drunk, as if what I drank before was not wine, but water.

Xu Hao just wants to see him drunk once, is his appearance particularly funny after being drunk?

Not everyone has said, the more stable the old city is on weekdays, the most noisy when drunk...

Thinking of the scene of Yu brother playing crazy after being drunk, the hesitation in Xu Hao's heart disappeared instantly.

Isn't just drinking and vomiting?

It's not the first time, it's done...

Chapter 426: TVB dare to act like this

Drunk, Xu Hao has experienced a lot.

Forget Sapo's shame, I don't remember when I'm drunk anyway!

As long as I am not embarrassed, it is others who are embarrassed...

But I never expected that this shameful scene was recorded, MMPA~

In the projector, a drunk Xu Hao was lying on the curb at the entrance of the bar, squinting, and shouting at the mobile phone in his hand, "Coco, I just want to marry you, no one should persuade me..."

"Coco, hehe...I miss you, hiccup..."

"Xia Ke, I love you... I will rely on you for the rest of my life..."

"Xia Ke, Xia Ke... Xia Ke... I'll be called Wang Wang..."

Xu Hao covered his face with his hands and died on the spot!

"Brother Hao Niubi!" Qin Yu gave a thumbs up with admiration on his face.

What is this called, this is called drunken truth.

The true feelings and intentions have been carved into the bones, maybe Xia is not moved?

No, people will already be on the plane and will land in two hours.

He said that he was going to find Xu Hao to settle the account, but awoke her in the middle of the night, and he dragged her to talk for three hours.

Everyone is doing their best...

But no one can understand where she came to settle the accounts, it is clear that she came with tons of dog food on her back.

"Nothing." Li Xiao's clenched fist slammed on the table, and everyone was startled with a choke.

"It's okay. I'll go back first. I have to meet her." Li Xiao couldn't help it.

Being fed dog food every day, I will get used to it any longer.

Unconsciously enjoy it, become a licking dog without knowing it.

No, no, you have to go quickly!

"It happened to be together, where's Brother Jun?" Qin Yu looked at Yang Chengjun, and he also had to go back to Shanghai for a trip.

There will be a holiday in a few days, but Che Xuan specifically explained.

Let him show his face before the holiday, some face projects still have to be covered up.

With such a small request, Brother Yu is naturally satisfied.

My class director's card must be given...

"I'll be with the mouse." Yang Chengjun replied with a slightly unnatural expression.

The girl I met that day...want to see her again...

Xu Hao heard him say that, thinking that Yang Chengjun really wanted to accompany him.

He slapped him on the shoulder and said with a smile: "Brother Jun is still interesting. I will count the expenses for these two days."

"Yeah." Yang Chengjun nodded absently.

"By the way, several mobile phone vendors have come to see if there is any possibility of cooperation." Xu Hao mentioned the matter suddenly.

Battery technology can be used not only in the automotive field, but many mobile phone vendors are looking for it.

Want to see if there is any possibility of cooperation, Kuafu's technology has already attracted the attention of the industry.

Even if there is no opportunity for cooperation now, who can be sure that there will not be any in the future?

However, they are all domestic brands, and foreign countries and joint ventures still look down upon Kuafu's small plate.

To be precise, they did not believe even a word of the data and news published by Kuafu.

False, all false...

Those companies that believe in Kuafu are either fools or trustees. When the time is up, all the disguise and scams will be dismantled.

"Don't worry about the rumors, the companies that came to contact... leave a contact information first."

Whether they can cooperate or not depends on Cui Geng and Jingyuan's.

Qin Yu only knows the existing technology and wants him to expand research and development.

For one thing, he couldn't settle down, and secondly, he didn't have that ability.

Ultimately, whether Kuafu battery packs can be extended to multiple fields depends on the capabilities of these professionals.

He had high hopes for Jing Yuan, but every time the other party came to him.

It was the time when Brother Yu had the most headache.

Fortunately, every time she replenishes her brain, she feels stubborn not to admit defeat.

It avoids a lot of embarrassment!

...

...

At Xitong University, seeing Lu Qing running out panting, Qin Yu helped him wipe the sweat from his forehead.

"Whhhhhhhh...why are you leaving suddenly." Lu Qing panted heavily.

She also thought that Qin Yu would not go back to Hudu before the holiday. The days and nights during this period made her forget that Qin Yu was still attending school in Hudu.

"It's going to be a holiday, so I have to go back to school to show up. Otherwise, the class supervisor should have an opinion." Qin Yu said with a smile.

"Oh!" Lu Qing nodded and asked, "When will I be back?"

"It's going to be delayed for a few days, you have to go to the office to do something!"

Brother Yu is busier than staying on holiday, so the time must be arranged.

Say goodbye to Lu Qing and promise her to go out together on holiday.

Qin Yu and Li Xiao returned to Hudu in the afternoon and landed here.

Li Xiao grabbed the phone and started to contact each other, "What do you say if she disagrees?"

"..." Looking at Li Xiao, who was suffering from gains and losses, Brother Yu suddenly wanted to wake him up twice.

Fortunately, the opposite party responded quickly and agreed.

The two had an appointment for dinner, and it was near Jiankang Road. Li Xiao stopped him from leaving, "You have to help me."

"Brother Yu, I'm up and down in my heart, you have to give me pressure!" When the matter came, Li Xiao persuaded.

What if the opponent is 300 tons?

"Don't you believe that she is... the girl?" Qin Yu rolled his eyes.

This person can't escape the fragrance!

"Brother Yu, this is related to the true love of my brothers. This is the first time I want to seriously talk about love." Li Xiao said very sincerely.

Brother Yu only believed that he believed him, he was really not playing ambiguous poisoning.

Ask, just for love!

"Okay, I'll go and see for you first."

Qin Yu agreed to help him lead the battle, but after seeing it, his friend did not arrive, so he came first to occupy the seat.

It's just that people are in the ICU, and there is no destiny.

"Reliable!" Li Xiao flicked his thumb up, showing his front teeth with a smile.

...

...

Nanjing Road, MIA's new bar and restaurant.

The open-air new-style environment layout of the store, the dim and ambiguous lighting, and the young and trendy music.

There is also the gimmick of the Michelin chef, which is naturally sought after by young people.

Sitting in the stone-carving deck by the flower garden, Qin Yu looked at the seat next door.

Li Xiao is wearing a jacket and wearing a hat with his back facing him.

Wait a moment, just watch him act in secret.

...

...

Through the glass, Lu Yao had already seen Qin Yu.

There is only satisfaction and surprise in my heart, "The current online dating brother, is the quality so high?"

"Yaoyao, I'll go up and try it for you first." The girlfriend who was pulled by Luyao next to her said that she was about to move forward.

Before a step was taken, the person was pulled back, "No need to try, I will do it myself."

What else is there to try, what if it fails?

"Hello, I am Lu Yao Zhi Ma Li."

Qingling with affectionate gentleness, Brother Yu looked up.

Lu Yao, with a face value of 88↑, a figure of 90↑, freshness: 89-.

You can signal to the little brother, "Hello, I am a friend who has seen people's hearts for a long time..."

"Huh?" Lu Yao was silly.

What, the male * is not him?

Lu Yao feels a little uncomfortable, but he doesn't feel like gaffe.

Reluctantly smiled and sat down, "Then, what about the others?"

"I went to the bathroom... I was a little nervous. When Qin Yu sat down, he glanced at the next door, and the jacket man was gone.

"That's it!" Lu Yao's face still couldn't hide his loss, but he had to comfort himself, "friend of the male god, isn't it bad?" '

With this expectation, Qin Yu saw the shiny hair and shiny little brother coming back.

"Here is someone, brother." Qin Yu raised his hand to say hello.

Lu Yao also looked back, and instantly...

Qin Yu saw that the faces of the two became extremely exciting, first red, then green and then red, steaming white.

The exaggerated picture is broken.

"Li Xiao?"

"Lu Yao...Sister?"

"puff!!!"

Inside the stone-carved deck, the air was quiet and terrible, and only the handsome foreign boy was introducing the dishes in the store.

The embarrassment in the air is about to solidify into a solid...

I've been dating online for nearly four months, but are my cousins?

Good fellow, Brother Yu called the good fellow directly.

This is almost catching up with TVB, the classic plot reappears, if there is another mean elder, it will be perfect.

"Ah it's okay." Qin Yu interrupted the introduction of the foreign brother, saying that he did not need service.

After the other party left, Qin Yu also stood up, "Brother, talk slowly by yourself, I will wait for you outside."

Nodding silently, Li Xiao just wanted to jump out of the wall with a somersault.

But even if he could run away, he couldn't solve the problem!

He raised his head and glanced at Lu Yao, thinking of the love words the two had said...

Those familiar names, Xiao Tiantian, pig head, pig pig, little fool, fool...

vomit.....

Opening the door with a smile at the corner of his mouth, a girl suddenly appeared in front of him, "Handsome guy, what's going on inside?"

Seeing the direction the other party was pointing, Qin Yu thoughtfully said: "Are you here with Lu Yao?"

The girl nodded, stretched out her hand and smiled and said, "Get to know, Shen Lingyu."

Chapter 427: In the name of sister...

"Puff~" Shen Lingyu's milk tea sprayed all over the place, his eyes widened and smiled: "Cousin?"

The two of them were sitting in the waiting area outside, ordering two drinks and talking while drinking.

"Well, it seems that I haven't seen him in a few years." Qin Yu rubbed his forehead and said to his heart, 'what is this.'

Brother, this will...

I'm afraid I can't wait to die on the spot, right?

"I'll just go find her way first." Shen Lingyu muttered softly, looking at him with raised eyelids.

If it weren't for him to be a 'Little Pig,' Lu Yao wouldn't go in directly.

Thinking of the two nicknames now turned into a confrontation between siblings, Shen Lingyu couldn't help laughing.

"Cough~" The little brother appeared behind him, followed by Lu Yao.

"Brother Yu, introduce, Lu Yao...my cousin." Li Xiao still feels full of shame when she mentions it now.

"Hello, Qin Yu." Qin Yu took the initiative to avoid Li Xiao's second death.

"Lu Yao." With a gentle smile, the incident was revealed.

Li Xiao's online dating announced his death, but Qin Yu met two new friends.

"So, you all came to Hudu to find a job from above?" Qin Yu was a little curious.

Don't wait to leave it on, why bother to go to Hudu to work?

Aunt Hudu gave her daughter a blind date and heard from the north: that can't work, the north can't.

Young man: It's from Shangdu.

Auntie: Shangdu, Shangdu is fine, young man leave a number!

From this alone, we can see how the Shangdu ranks as the center of politics and power compared to Hudu.

How hard it is to be drifting, and vice versa, how happy it is!

"I want to come out on my own, in Shangdu...my parents' friends are everywhere." Lu Yao said distressedly.

If this distress were changed to a year ago, Brother Yu might have left the table and left.

Master Fanxue, who is disgusting?

But now he can understand the distress of Bai Fumei like Lu Yao, everything is covered by his family background.

If you don't do it well, it's a laughing stock.

A good job means a good family background and a good background, so I can do it!

In short, no matter what you do, it has nothing to do with your own efforts in the end.

Aristocratic children, work hard? ? ?

In the eyes of ordinary people, these two words are born with them.

"Why don't you come to Hudu to say hello to me in advance?" Li Xiao's tone was somewhat resentful.

If you say hello in advance, you won't be able to avoid embarrassment.

"I told your parents, have you never been home?" Lu Yao glanced at him, and said to his heart, 'you are so embarrassed to blame me, you just look out for your sister every day.'

"..." The two looked at each other in silence, and then quickly looked away.

"This is called fate. If it weren't like that, I might not have had the chance to meet the two beauties." Qin Yu smiled and interjected: "I'm going to be a host tonight. Please have a good meal."

"Call Wanxing too." Li Xiao specifically mentioned something as if thinking of something.

"Of course I want to." Qin Yu originally planned to call Wan Xing to come with him.

In addition, there is Yan Xue, if you have time, you can come together.

It depends on how Li Wanxing arranged to make her communicate with Yan Xue well.

...

...

Call Li Wanxing, she will happen to be in Yan Xue's office.

The two were discussing what to eat together in the evening, and it would be nice to have someone treat them.

"The place is booked, let's go first?" Qin Yu looked at Li Xiao, then his cousin...

"I'll call a car." Finally, when he had a chance to slip away, Li Xiao tapped his mobile phone and walked out.

"Puff~" After he left, Shen Lingyu, who was holding back so hard, couldn't help it anymore, and the whole smile fell on the chair.

"Don't laugh." Lu Yao patted her angrily, but his eyes turned to Qin Yu frequently.

Seeing this picture of a good sister, Shen Lingyu asked openly: "Handsome guy, do you have a girlfriend?"

"What do you think?" Qin Yu pointed to himself, clearly saying, 'Can someone like me be alone?'

Shen Lingyu was right when he thought about it, and his impression of him was more of a 'smelly fart' label.

This man is not modest at all, he is very confident about his appearance!

If Brother Yu wants to know that she thinks so, he will definitely say: If you are handsome, you have to admit it. Excessive modesty is a pretense.

"Wanxing...isn't it your girlfriend?" Lu Yao thought of the way Li Xiao just mentioned Li Wanxing deliberately just now, clearly implying something.

"Yes." Qin Yu smiled and nodded, seeing Li Xiao already beckoning outside, and said, "The car is here."

...

...

After changing the restaurant, the embarrassing atmosphere that was about to stagnate was finally relieved with the addition of the newcomers.

Seeing Lu Yao, Li Wanxing didn't recognize it.

It was only after Qin Yu's reminder that he barely found the shadow of his cousin.

"Cousin, you have changed so much." Li Wanxing looked back at Li Xiao, "Brother, don't you say, cousin is nothing like before."

"Ah... the change is a bit big." Li Xiao lowered his head to drink tea, and replied casually.

Lu Yao smiled and said, "The nose has been fine-tuned and four wisdom teeth have been pulled out. The changes are a bit big."

How to become beautiful? Four wisdom teeth were pulled out.

...This is a master!

The two held hands and talked about the past with their bodies close to each other.

Qin Yu talked to Yan Xue about work, and the work arrangements during the holidays were relatively free.

Because he must be flying around most of the time, Yan Xue can take the work home to do it.

By the way, you can accompany Li Wanxing so that she will not feel lonely!

The two of them now live on the side of Luheng Mountain Residence, saying that they want to help the lazy cat stare at this asset.

In fact, the two did not want to make Qin Yu spend.

Since following him, he has never mentioned the previous 10 million.

Qin Yu also confiscated the money Yan Xue forwarded to him from the WeChat account.

When she asked, Qin Yu pointed out directly, "The rest will be given to your household."

More than six million households, when do they have to use it?

In this case, how can Yan Xue be embarrassed to accept other gifts from Qin Yu?

Li Wanxing also had the same thoughts, and the last two combined.

So I moved to Luheng Mountain Residence, not only to avoid Qin Yu's use of the house as an excuse, but also to help the lazy cat look at the house for rent.

Kill two birds with one stone...

When Qin Yu knew, both of them had moved in.

Naturally, this matter will not stop.

Apart from living a little far away, there is nothing wrong with the rest.

"You start your own company?" Shen Lingyu smiled gently: "I didn't overhear on purpose."

"It's not a shameful thing." Qin Yu responded: "Yes, I opened a small company."

Zheng worry has no topic, and the self-embarrassed Li Xiao comes to the spirit: "Small companies with tens of billions of dollars, just play around."

"???" Shen Lingyu blinked her beautiful big eyes, filled with question marks.

This is... just kidding!

"Don't listen to him nonsense, the tens of billions are also someone else's... there is his share in it. I am a wage earner, and this is the real boss."

Qin Yu pointed the finger at Li Xiao and bluntly said that he was a part-time worker in front of the stage.

With this shameless remark, Li Xiao almost vomited.

Part-time job?

If the part-time job is like him, Li Xiao will also go to work, and what a negative second generation is doing.

Seeing that the two of them were hurting each other endlessly, Shen Lingyu pretended to be angry and said: "Man's mouth, huh..."

After speaking, he pulled Yan Xue and said, "Sister, what do you do?"

Yan Xue glanced at Qin Yu and found that he had nothing to say, and then responded: "I'm just a little secretary, running errands for the boss and giving away things!"

"Oh." Shen Lingyu nodded, and began to ask Qin Yu about the situation.

'I'm for the sake of my sisters. If you are a potential stock, you have to fight for anything!'

There is no shortage of handsome guys, and there are many people with families and backgrounds.

But he is really capable, capable, and attractive, as handsome as him.

There are really few people around, so if you come across good resources, why don't you have to try it?

Shen Lingyu felt embarrassed that the sisters were in love with her, so she took the initiative to speak.

As a sister, you have to help her make suggestions.

Yan Xue didn't hide it, UU reading www.uukanshu.com. As long as com does not involve the specific details of the work, it is all knowing.

She is just a little secretary, she has no name and no distinction, and she doesn't need to worry about competitions and other issues.

Besides, the boss didn't say that a little secret of his own can be the master?

Maybe, the boss just wants to fish by himself.

Speaking of Shen Lingyu, the more I listened, the more surprised I was!

Started from scratch, founded a company, and galloped into the capital market.

Breakthroughs and reforms in battery energy technology, relying on their own efforts to unite the descendants of Shangdu and Hudu.

To jointly build the physical industry, there is also the ups and downs of lithography machines that have been spread in the past few months.

That company actually belongs to him...

The unreal sense of illusion made Shen Lingyu wonder whether he had a hearing loss in advance?

Chapter 428: Brother came to make up the ticket

"It's not as exaggerated as she said, it's also a coincidence!"

Qin Yu pointed to the dishes on the table and said, "The dishes are ready, let's move the chopsticks first."

"Come and come, don't be polite!" Li Xiao also greeted his cousin and relatives, as long as he doesn't mention 'online dating,' he can talk about everything.

Who will be in the future? Let's talk about the reliable online dating, the little brother first gave him a head mallet silence!

During the meal, Shen Lingyu still chased Yan Xue and asked non-stop.

It was Lu Yao himself, no longer turning his gaze to Qin Yu.

Knowing that he is the boyfriend of his cousin, Lu Yao's previous careful thought has been pinched in the bottom of my heart.

"Wanxing, how did you meet?" However, she was still quite interested in the acquaintance of the two.

And that girl named Yan Xue, did Wan Xing really not notice the look in her eyes when she looked at Qin Yu?

Some things are not understood, so naturally they have no right to speak.

However, after a meal, she felt that she didn't think much.

"Cousin, do you have a place to live now?" Walking out of the restaurant, Li Wanxing got a little closer to this cousin who hadn't seen him for a long time.

"I rented a house with Lingyu, near the company!" Lu Yao responded with a smile.

"Why don't you go to my place to stay tonight? Let's talk all night." Li Wanxing sent out an invitation, completely forgetting Qin Yu's existence.

'Don't, you live together, what am I eating today? Qin Yu was very anxious, but he couldn't speak straight.

I haven't seen each other for many years. Is it wrong for the sisters to want to talk long-term?

"Listen to you." Hearing Shen Lingyu's words, Lu Yao readily agreed to her invitation.

When the two of them walked forward hand in hand, Li Wanxing who saw Qin Yu finally thought of him.

"Cousin, wait for me." Running to his side, Li Wanxing graciously shook his arm: "Master, I am so excited to see my cousin, will you not be angry?"

"Yeah!" Qin Yu snorted with a sullen face.

"Don't be angry, just tonight, okay with you tomorrow?" Li Wanxing acted spoiled.

There are not many scenes where I can see her acting like a baby, Qin Yu deliberately collapsed before turning to smile: "Okay, knowing you have something to say, I will go back to the bedroom to sleep tonight!

"I know that the big master is the best." After kissing his face, Li Wanxing ran back to his cousin and walked to the parking lot with her talking and laughing.

"This car is so beautiful." Seeing Li Wanxing's car, Lu Yao liked to say: "Why didn't I expect to buy a mini!"

"If you want, I will take you back to buy it." After getting in the car, Li Wanxing lowered the window, waved goodbye to Qin Yu first, and then slowly left.

Li Xiao, who had been waiting, watched the car go away, no one took care of him.

"How do I feel that you are their own person... I just came to make up the number?" Li Xiao sighed with emotion. It is too difficult to live in this world of faces.

This is true for the negative second generation like him, and the difficulties of ordinary people can be imagined!

The goddess is a high creature, even if it is contaminated by darkness.

The avatar licking the dog may not be able to lick it.

Even if she licked her life, the Dark Goddess still felt that she was tainted.

Are you angry?

"Okay, don't sigh, this kind of thing has something to do with you?" Qin Yu waved his hand without looking back, "Go, I'll contact you when I go to Shangdu in a few days."

I took a taxi back to Seaview One, the anchor and Wang Hong were not there.

The two of them were busy expanding their business during this time, selling goods everywhere live, and by the way promoted the second part of "Xia Guo on the Bite of the Tongue" in preparation for the third part.

Taking the car key, Qin Yu turned and went out.

When he was about to leave, the ghost and goddess felt that he should visit Sha Man's house.

drop!

When the door opened, Qin Yu saw that the lady's slippers were gone.

It seems she is at home...

This woman didn't even say a word when she came back.

Went around in the living room and saw no one.

When I came to the bedroom, no one was there.

Then there is only one place...

When he came to the studio at the end, Qin Yu saw Sha Man's back holding a paintbrush as soon as the door opened.

Quietly closing the door, Qin Yu returned to the kitchen.

Open the refrigerator, except for all kinds of mineral water, there are only fruits.

Looking at the stove again, it was obvious that it hadn't been moved for a long time.

"Yes, let's order takeaway!" The woman was fascinated when she created, and forgot everything when she was fascinated.

Eat some fruit every day and drink water to live.

Don't think it's easy to raise, a bottle of water is 399 yuan, and a bunch of grapes are several thousand yuan.

I heard Shaman said that this kind of grape is called Roman ruby, and the best quality can be bought at auction houses.

What she bought was just a common variety with a single weight of 20 grams and a sugar content of over 18%.

What I said to Brother Yu was stunned, and what I had eaten in the first 18 years was all defective products?

After ordering two takeaways, Qin Yu was sitting in the living room playing with her mobile phone.

Based on his knowledge of Sha Man, she usually drinks a bottle of water in 4 hours, and she doesn't know when the last time she drank water.

Having nothing to do, Qin Yu opened the Douya platform that he hadn't boarded for a long time.

First, I went to look at the little anchor's room, this will be in a resting state.

Turning to the game area, Qin Yu clicked directly into Tianye's anchor room.

"Welcome to my hurting brother, how come my eldest brother is free today, do you want to play two?" Tianye saw the special effect prompt of wind, rain and night hurting people for the first time.

Wind and rain hurts people: 'Just look around, you're busy with you.'

After finishing talking, he hit 20 super fire, which brought the rhythm to the field.

"My eldest brother is the atmosphere, look, there are 20 super hot, thank me for hurting eldest brother."

"When will big brother come to Yaodu, I will invite big brother to dinner."

Fans are crazy about him. Big brother is missing you a meal?

Without arranging a few daylight, would you be ashamed to invite elder brother to dinner?

"I don't dare to do this, how could I arrange for my eldest brother..." Tian Ye smiled and changed the subject.

He still heard a little about something in the union.

Jiang Feier was like that, let the eldest brother catch him, where he arranged it.

Seeing him so witty, Qin Yu brushed another 10 shots and exited the room.

Skip to the dance area, the cover recommendation is the love fog lemon.

Click to see, this woman is dancing...

Compared with the professionalism of Lazy Cat, Li Shuangmeng's dance can be said to be a mess.

But she also has her own specialties, with a frown and a smile, the enchanting and charming green silk fluttering.

The fascinating look in the eyes, the air radiating from the inside out...

MD, absolutely!

No matter how many times I watched it, this woman gave people a poisoned sense of sight.

When I saw her, I just thought, press and hold... punch!

The stormy nights hurt people and present the Super Rocket with the Deep Love Fog Lemon, come and watch~

...

The stormy night will give you a gift of Super Rocket X10, Come and watch~

...

The stormy night will give you a gift of the Super Rocket X100, Come and watch~

Directly hit 100 shots, the popularity of the live broadcast room rose by a million in an instant, but the stormy night hurts the big brother but disappeared.

"Thank you for hurting brother, brother is great!" Li Shuangmeng said charmingly, leaning over the computer while pressing her neckline with her hand.

'666, this sound is awesome!'

'Fuck, brother is here to make up the ticket?'

"The truth is upstairs, I really want to be a big brother..."

'Envy!'

Seeing the fans' comments, Li Shuangmeng didn't explain the meaning at all.

Instead, I bluntly said that I have the opportunity to find my eldest brother for dinner, and thank my eldest brother for his support...

What are these fans for, can Li Shuangmeng be unclear about it?

I am not afraid that you are an LSP, I am afraid that you are a poor man!

If you want to be a big brother, brush up the gift first...

As for why the appointment is not available, UU Reading www.uukanshu.com must be that you don't have enough money!

Take a look at the big brother, the pocket money that you give will have to be over 100 shots. If you can do it, you will be on it!

As for the real appointment, it is impossible.

At least Li Shuangmeng didn't plan to let her go.

Is it full once, or it can be full every time.

Li Shuangmeng understood it in her heart!

Besides, where can you find someone who is handsome, has a figure, and has a lot of money, like the big brother?

You are smart if you don't let go of it!

Ding~

In the barrage of fans ridiculing and envy, Li Shuangmeng clicked to open the WeChat account.

Seeing the time and room number on it, the sulky cut song backed away, and her enchanting posture writhed again with the beat.

Chapter 429: Miracle 3 ensemble

The king died in Sheji.

When Brother Yu came out of the hotel room with his waist, he had a deep understanding of this.

After going crazy with Sha Man for a day, Brother Yu was driven out by the painter who found his inspiration.

Co-author himself is a tool for finding 'inspiration'.

However, this is what Yu brother likes.

Turning around and drove to the hotel, the kidney scrapping machine came.

All night, Brother Yu felt that his waist was about to explode, and Li Shuangmeng stopped shouting tired.

Two he has done this.

Three thousand beauties in the harem...can they not die?

Take out the 'kidney power' from his pocket, Qin Yu muttered, "It seems that this medicine, I have to respect it first!"

Originally I wanted to keep them all for Ye Lao, now...

Father, sorry, my waist can't stand it anymore!

Deducted a pill and threw it into his mouth, Qin Yu swallowed it directly.

In an instant, the waist no longer hurts.

Not only is it not painful, but there is a steady flow of strength spreading throughout the body.

'Ding!'

'Congratulations to the host for being tempered in medicine and actual combat, and obtaining designated rewards.'

'Reward: [Iron Kidney] Owners will have a steady stream of energy and plenty of energy!'

Good guy, Brother Yu who is planning to order room service to deliver meals.

Point your toes, turn around and go back to the room.

Squeaky~

At noon of the day, Qin Yu hugged Li Shuangmeng, who was in a soft ball.

Looking at the prompts that only you can see in front of me, I said in my heart, 'this is all right?'

'Ding!'

'Congratulations to the host for developing a shallow believer, with an experience value of 10,000 rewards, trigger rewards!'

'Today's miracle light blooms, super double...'

'Reward: Miracle Kidney Power Formula.'

Strange things were mixed in, and the formula was directly typed out.

Looking at Li Shuangmeng's original belief value of 0 points, it soared to 15 points.

To be honest, Brother Yu himself was dumbfounded!

Get [Iron Kidney], turn around and return to the room.

Li Shuangmeng went from initial trance, to ignorance, to cooperation and fear...

The longer the time, the faster the belief value will rise...

This woman, I am afraid that something is wrong!

However, he never expected to be able to dry out the formula.

This is a good thing and a bad thing.

Many people are staring at Ye Lao, wanting to know what is pulling him back from the hands of the king.

The reason why I haven't bothered to come to the door so far, I don't need to ask to know that Ye Lao is pressing down.

This is related to his life and death, if anyone is against Ye Lao on this.

That's endless dying!

Take the initiative to provoke a tiger who is dying and sees hope?

Wipe your neck by yourself, it's easier to die, and it won't hurt other people.

'Ding!'

'Congratulations to the host for successfully challenging the Kidney Retire Machine, making it overflow, and triggering random rewards!'

'Reward: Seiko CNC system drawings.'

[Reminder: This CNC system combines multi-brand technology, and it has higher risks when used, please handle it with caution!]

[Iron Kidney], the miracle kidney power formula, and another CNC system drawing.

Is this a trio of miracles?

It's been a long time since I've experienced the pleasure of being rewarded, Yu Ge's mood is instantly bright.

[Iron Kidney] If he guessed right, there should be a qualitative change in quantity.

The changes caused by taking too many drugs, if this is to be given to Ye Lao...

Will the old man rejuvenate his sixth spring? ? ?

Kidney power formula is a surprise!

After accumulating the light of miracle for several months, I finally didn't shame myself.

The last 'numerical control system', isn't it a bit cute?

However, Brother Yu was a little uncomfortable with the following prompt.

Higher risk. Wasn't this situation directly erased by the system before?

Gouzi, you really have changed.

No longer as caring as before...

For the control system of machine tool processing, Qin Yu clicked on the mobile phone and began to shrink relevant information.

After half an hour, Qin Yu roughly understood the level of the domestic machine tool industry.

Simply put, it is the wholesale market.

The low-end market ranks first in the world, and the high-end market...

Like the little guy in sage time, he is soft and weak.

Qin Yu thought about how to use this thing, feeling that he shouldn't put it in his own hands.

First of all, he has no time and energy to invest in basic industries.

Furthermore, since the system prompts him that the risk is higher, it means that it will definitely bring potential hidden dangers.

Therefore, it is better to use it in exchange for benefits.

Machine tools are the mother of industry.

The machine tool is the cornerstone and cradle of the entire industrial system. At the core of the industrial chain, it is a symbol that determines the level of industrial development and comprehensive competitiveness of a country and region.

The information loaded into his mind made Qin Yu understand that the advanced level of the 'precision CNC system' in his hands is at least 20 years more advanced than the entire field today.

It can be said that with it, it will occupy a high-end leadership position in the existing market in one fell swoop.

It can even change the industry chain and re-enact industry rules!

As far as the CNC industry is concerned, it is no less powerful than a nuclear weapon...

Qin Yu muttered to himself, and then laughed: "Should this thing be given to Ye Jinlan or Bai Ze...what else should I replace with it?"

The happiness of a prostitute lies in that he is the beneficiary.

If you change to being baited, then the happiness will naturally be gone.

Had it not been for the system prompting "the risk is too high," Brother Yu wouldn't mind interbanking again.

But now that you have decided not to use it yourself, you have to maximize its benefits.

What is what I need most now...

Public offering license?

It is dispensable for Brother Yu and Lixin, and he has no plans to go to the market to cut the money from the leaks.

Aviation license, set up an airline?

"It seems a bit too much trouble." Qin Yu thought for a while and then gave no.

With ready-made airlines, wouldn't it be fragrant to invest in it?

To build a new company from scratch, it takes time and effort, not to mention those old companies that have not yet worked, so why bother?

Therefore, he seems to have no shortage of demand now, which is a bit embarrassing!

"Otherwise, a promise?"

Qin Yu finished speaking and shook his head: "Promise that this thing is just as unreliable as the goddess's leggings."

As long as you give enough, what kind of underpants can't be worn?

"What are you talking about?" Li Shuangmeng asked in a daze.

Even she can't stand up to the night + morning session!

"It's okay, let's go to sleep!" The body slid down, and Brother Yu also planned to sleep again.

The spirit head is pretty good, but you should sleep or you have to sleep!

Only when you have enough sleep can you get up and work hard day and night, isn't it?

...

...

Eyes opened, closed, opened again!

It was already the next morning, day and night, worthy of the name.

As for the kidney scrapping machine, it is carried at full capacity, and it will be scrapped if it continues to play.

Asking the front desk to bring the washed clothes up, Brother Yu took a shower.

Putting on clean clothes, she left another note for Li Shuangmeng.

Close the door, drove out of the hotel and headed straight to the school.

"Class guide, are you busy?" Looking at the probe, Qin Yu passed the two Huazi he was holding in his hand.

Che Xuan glanced, put his palm on it and squeezed it, and the two Huazi were put away.

profession!

"When can you go to class for a few days?" It's a personal relationship when you receive the gift, and you still have to say what you should say.

Che Xuan didn't mean to trouble him, you Qin Da Shaogui has a lot of personnel.

There are people up there, so we dare not trouble you!

But do you occasionally show up in professional courses to give you a sense of presence?

This semester is about to pass. Except for Che Xuan, the other teachers only hear Qin Yu by his name and don't see him.

Now his name is widely spread in the Department of Finance!

"Class guide, just help me take care of it!"

Qin Yu stood behind him and smiled and squeezed his shoulders: "My little business has just opened recently, and I'm so busy that I don't touch the ground. I really don't have time..."

Che Xuan rolled his eyes when he heard it said no.

Small business, is the standard of 'small business' already so high these years?

However, Qin Yu also assured him that he would definitely not add obstacles to his scores.

I don't dare to say the full score, but I still have a little confidence in passing the test.

The class is not very much, but if he has time, Brother Yu will read the book and learn by himself.

After reading and comprehension through notes, I have a good understanding of the knowledge in the book.

I don't dare to be top-notch, but it's okay to stay in the mix.

In other words, it is necessary to save some face for the stubborn scholars, isn't it?

"This is what you said, the score must be up to the standard." Che Xuan seemed to be waiting for him, watching him want a certain guarantee.

"No problem, absolutely up to the standard!" Qin Yu answered the thief refreshedly.

Chapter 430: Set a small goal for Shen Dong and buy one

After playing with the class guide for an hour, the sky will blow up.

Qin Yu just got out of the office and took out his humming mobile phone and glanced at it.

It's the kidney scrapping machine... Well, Li Shuangmeng woke up.

"Boss, I love you so much, thank you for your reward, Boss!" Sao Li's sulky voice made the people's hearts itchy.

For Li Shuangmeng to do this, he naturally saw the receipt reminder in his mobile phone.

2 million, if Yu Ge's life is known to people.

I must scold him: Raise the price of the leather, don't Bilian.

However, this Qian Yu brother gave him a good mood, and all three rewards were of great value.

If there is no point to express this, it violates Yu Ge's principle of lavish work!

As for what Li Shuangmeng thinks, it is natural that the boss is extremely satisfied with her service and rewarded...

With a huge sum of two million yuan, Li Shuangmeng plans to use it for real estate speculation!

Go back to the coastal cities to see if there are suitable houses and policies.

The payment is naturally a mortgage, which will be paid after 20 years...

After waiting for a year or two, the price will be paid off and cashed out, and it will repeat itself again and again!

Little days... I suddenly became happy!

Pressing the talk button, Li Shuangmeng kept kissing her '*'.

This would mean that Qin Yu was not there, or she would have to put everything on the ground and not be empty.

"* ..."

"Oh~ my mother." Shen Dong tilted his head back with disgust, wishing to be as far away from the phone as possible.

This voice... numb!

"Brother Yu." Yan Er looked at him blankly, the barbell in his hand was not fragrant.

"I want to find a place by myself, I have an appointment at night." Brother Yu is really out of time, there is a line in the back!

Hearing what he said, both Shen Dong and Yan Er became uninterested: "Forget it, I have to check the accounts at night!"

"How about you? Xiaobai hasn't come back yet?" Qin Yu looked at Yan Er, remembering that he said Xia Bai would only go for half a year last time.

Yan Er shook his head, and said with a gloomy expression: "She said she wants to stay there."

This.....

Looking at Yan Er's expression, the relationship between the two is probably not very good recently.

"This kind of thing, just want to start." Qin Yu patted him on the shoulder and said: "Graduation is the season of breaking up, old tradition!"

"...I plan to go to Yaodu to develop." Yan Er looked at him uncertainly, as if to get his support: "What do you think?"

How about it, naturally it's all the same.

Although I haven't inquired about the situation of his family, I still want to come to the relationship in my hometown.

Whether staying in Hudu or going to Yaodu, he can only rely on himself.

Of course, compared with ordinary people, Yan Second Hand must have more resources.

However, is it a bit too early to say these?

It's three years before he graduates. What's the point of saying this now, "You will think about it when you are about to graduate."

Qin Yu was not afraid of his impulsiveness, he had to be aggressive when he was young!

Happy, sad, laughed, and cried.

There is regret, nostalgia, remembrance, and pain. This is called youth...

He just felt that there was no point in making decisions now, a human being such a complicated creature.

The brain twitching is just an idea. When he graduates...maybe Xia Bai will be thrown out of the sky long ago.

What are you talking about going to Yaodu for her!

"Yes." Yan Er smiled dumbly and continued to play with his dumbbells.

"By the way, I have something to tell you." Qin Yu suddenly thought of what Yan Er mentioned last time that he had the opportunity to make money with him.

But I agreed. This time I just asked them if they had any ideas: "I have an investment project with an annual return of 15%. Are you interested?"

"How many shots?" Yan Er's eyes were clearly interested.

"200,000." Qin Yu gave a quota that is not high or low, and if it is lower, it is meaningless.

It was natural that Yan Er took out the money, mainly to take care of Shen Dong.

Based on what he knew, Shen Dong should be able to get the money.

However, it is up to him whether he wants to vote or not.

After all, his current express station business is doing well, and it is normal if he wants to keep the money to expand his business.

"I voted for 2 million." Yan Er invested his family's assets, leaving only tens of thousands of pocket money for himself.

Yan Er's idea is very simple. Now when I get in the car, I might be able to take part in the business afterwards.

As for the problem of losing money, Yan Er naturally thought of it.

However, even if the two million were lost, it would be a little bit cautious to him.

It's not a pain, provided that the money is really lost.

At this point, Yan Er is still sure. For his own money, he will not...

If you really read it wrong, you can buy a lesson for two million and see one person clearly.

Expensive is a bit more expensive, but also worth it!

In his heart, he regards Qin Yu as a brother, and this love is not comparable to two million.

For Yan Er's refreshment, Qin Yu just smiled and nodded.

Just understand the trust of the other party in the heart, there is no need to say it, then the feeling will change!

Shen Dong fell into thinking, his expression a little embarrassed.

"Dongzi, it's all up to you whether to vote or not, don't feel embarrassed!" Qin Yu said with a smile.

Shen Dong looked at him embarrassedly: "Brother Yu, I just took the money to buy a house in my hometown."

Shen Dong told his parents about making money, and the second old man felt that it was not safe for him to take so much money alone.

The colorful city is full of temptations.

If you have money, you can't learn badly?

So, he gave Shen Dong an idea to use the money he earned to buy a house in his hometown.

Buying a few more houses for him will firstly give him the motivation to continue to make money, and secondly, it will also save him money for the future.

For ordinary people these years, there is really no investment project that is more practical than buying a house.

As long as you don't buy the unfinished product, you can make a profit without losing it!

In the past two years, my hometown has developed well, and housing prices have also doubled several times!

It looks like it will rise later. At this time, buying a guarantee will not lose money. In the future, he will have a business problem.

With these houses in existence, it is a choice for emergency realization or stability to survive, isn't it?

After Shen Dong said his parents' thoughts, Qin Yu felt quite good.

The old couple are not only saving a family for their son, but also leaving a way for him.

Just like your own mother, don't you think about saving money in your hands at first, saving it to yourself for emergency or marrying a wife in the future?

Later, I also discovered that the little money I saved was not enough for my son.

Only then did you gradually accept reality.

This doesn't... Lao Qin now knows to find him to fight the autumn wind.

"Uncles and aunts are very thoughtful. They work hard and buy more suites to make them happy."

Seeing that he was serious, Shen Dong breathed a sigh of relief, and no longer worried that Qin Yu thought he did not believe him.

"I also planned to buy a few more apartments in my hometown, and whether to return after graduation, at least it is an asset."

Shen Dong said expectantly, "I don't know how many houses can I save when I graduate?"

"This kind of thing, of course, the more the better, I think there are at least two or three buildings!" Qin Yu said with a serious face, breaking his fingers.

Shen Dong opened his mouth and smiled bitterly: "Brother Yu, you can really value me."

Yan Er put down the dumbbells, "You kid is a little confident, OK, people's small goal is 100 million."

"You also set a small goal first, buy it a building in your hometown!"

"Being a man must have dreams, otherwise, what is the difference with salted fish?"

Yan Er's chicken soup received a warm response from Shen Dong, and his * was almost piled on Yan Er's face without seeing him.

To really make a hundred million, he still worked hard.

Lying at home to eat rebate, how fragrant!

To resolve the possible misunderstanding, Qin Yu asked Yan Er to turn around and punch the money in the card. The person was already outside the bedroom.

I stopped by and glanced at Shen Wanqian, no one was in the office.

It must be a bit busy before the holiday.

Qin Yu put the two Huazi in the cabinet, leaving him a walk away.

Out of the school gate Palameira went straight to Xiangyaju House!

Yalan wants to invite him to drink, and also wants to ask about investment.

Jiang Hongsheng couldn't wait, and couldn't afford to wait.

He wanted to solve the problem of the investors behind it as soon as possible and remove the "capital" hat from Lu Heng's head.

It's not uncommon to see him in this situation in China!

It seems to be a domestic enterprise, but you only need to check the shares.
