

Pinnacle 471

Chapter 471: Non-existent rollover

W Hotel, 25th floor, stunning suite.

110 square meters of large space, novel colors and layout.

An eggshell bathtub is placed in the center of the oversized triangular bathroom.

At this moment, Ye Jinlan was lying in a milk bath sprinkled with rose petals, feeling a moment of tranquility.

Squeak~

The bathroom door was suddenly pushed open from the outside, and Ye Jinlan looked back.

Qin Yu walked in with breakfast, smiled and said, "Would you like some red wine?"

"No, I don't have the habit of drinking in the morning." Ye Jinlan's body slid down, allowing floating rose petals to cover his snow-white skin.

Although a lot of things happened last night, she still doesn't have the special habit of exposing the fruit body to the sight of men.

"Try it." Putting breakfast on the mobile round table, Qin Yu pulled the table to the bathtub.

"It can only be said that this is worthy of an Internet celebrity hotel..." Qin Yu's subtext is, 'It's getting more and more disappointing, and it's fancy and incomprehensible.'

The quality of the ingredients in the restaurant is great, but there is still much room for improvement in terms of cooking methods and tastes!

"Your request is too high. This is a hotel, not a Michelin restaurant." Ye Jinlan responded with a chuckle.

"As an iconic five-star hotel, shouldn't its restaurant be built as a prominent point of the brand?"

Qin Yu's rhetoric left her speechless. This should be something the hotel operator should worry about.

Ye Jinlan's silence brought the topic to an end.

As a result, the weird and embarrassing atmosphere became more and more intense, which made people think again and again.

The picture of last night flickered frequently in Ye Jinlan's mind.

It is here, in the dark night, under the light of the outer layer of the hotel.

Leaning on both sides to the end, the transparent French windows are covered with water stains and mist...

The high-pitched singing and presumptuous movements made Ye Jinlan suspect that it was not what really happened to him.

It's a dreamland of memory confusion, or another self.

"...You were thinking about last night." Before Qin Yu finished speaking, Ye Jinlan suddenly stretched out his hand to cover his mouth.

However, she seems to have forgotten her current situation.

The moment the body came out of the water, the beautiful scenery was sparkling...

Studies have shown that the more law-abiding people behave in life.

There is another side of madness in private, which is the channel and way for her to vent the dark side of her heart.

Qin Yu felt that he seemed to have drawn out the dark side of Ye Jinlan.

And, let her substitute it into the continuous surging movement of the muscles of the whole body.

The kind that goes all out...

As a result, Qin Yu was able to experience a brand-new sports experience of 'crime and indulgence and moral confrontation'.

To describe it as 'stimulus' is not enough to express its comprehensiveness.

...

In the hotel restaurant, Ye Jinlan, who looks dignified and virtuous, shows everyone's demeanor in every move.

Thinking of her other side again, the fun brought by this contrast and cuteness made Brother Yu a little intoxicated.

Yes, he knew he had cracked it.

But in life, many times and many things are out of control.

Just like what happened last night...

Don't ask, the question is that Ye Jinlan's boldness is beyond imagination.

Watching her cut the bread into the size of French fries, putting only one in her mouth each time.

Chewing gently, Yu Ge thought, 'Her small mouth is more capable of carrying goods than it looks.'

After breakfast, Ye Jinlan said that he would return to the capital in the afternoon.

"Don't wait anymore?" Qin Yu looked at her, trying to bring the topic to their current complicated relationship.

Ye Jinlan was keenly aware of the topic he wanted to open.

Therefore, she resolutely interrupted the upcoming conversation: "There are still many things waiting for me in Shanghai, I must hurry back as soon as possible..."

"By the way, what happened last night was no big deal, everyone is an adult, just normal needs."

Ye Jinlan didn't know why she said that. Maybe it was Qin Yu's resistance to her, worried that this incident would alienate the relationship between the two parties.

Or she was afraid to admit that she had developed feelings for him.

The strong, uncontrollable, and uncontrollable attraction made her want to get close.

Ye Jinlan speeds up his eating, trying to cover up his embarrassment and nervousness.

Then, the warm palm grabbed her slender wrist.

At the same time, it also prevented her from slightly crazy eating behavior, the kind of mechanical action that kept sending food into her mouth was not what she should have.

"Here you are." Take off the napkin with the neckline and put it next to her mouth.

Ye Jinlan, with bulging cheeks stuffed with food, shook his head, trying to chew but found that he couldn't do it at all.

"Do you want me to get up and walk to your side to attract other people's attention?" Qin Yu leaned forward, making a gesture to stand up.

Ye Jinlan's head shook faster than before, and he took the initiative to end up with the napkin in his hand.

Putting his head sideways under the dining table, he spit out the stuffed food in his mouth.

When she raised her head again, the contents of her mouth had been emptied, and the moist lip glaze was wiped messy.

"You know what I want to say." Qin Yu lowered his head and continued to eat his own food, and said calmly: "When you are ready, let's talk about it."

"Okay." Ye Jinlan quickly agreed.

As long as we don't mention what happened last night now, other questions are easy to talk about.

The initiative from the beginning to the end, which can even be called a forced push process, made her ashamed to say.

So, don't say anything is the best now.

Not long after staying in the room with Ye Jinlan, Qin Yu drove her to the airport.

"I'm going in first." Ye Jinlan's movements appeared hurried and panicked without kissing goodbye.

Those who ran at small steps wanted to rush into the terminal building, but their body was suddenly pulled backwards by an irresistible force.

...

...

After 10 minutes, looking at regaining self-confidence, he walked briskly and disappeared from the back of the terminal building.

Qin Yu wiped off the red lipstick on his lips with his thumb, saying, 'Woman, it's really difficult!'

If he just let Ye Jinlan leave just now, maybe this would be the last time they saw each other.

Fortunately, Brother Yu is never soft when he should take the initiative.

Recalling the softness between his lips and teeth, Qin Yu returned to the car with a dumb smile.

However, he did not notice the temporary berth not far away, and he had a pair of eyes to record everything that happened.

Leaning weakly on the seat, Song Yuqiao couldn't recall, but she had to recall the scenes that had happened before.

His smile, the overbearing and tenderness when he took the initiative to pull the girl into his arms and kiss, and the pride when he left...

Song Yuqiao can be sure that he is not mistaken, and that is him.

Therefore, my guess is correct, "Sure enough, if it is him, how could it be single."

Song Yuqiao's heart was full of complicated emotions, and she was relieved in vain, confirming the joy of guessing.

Or do you see your 'boyfriend' making love to another woman, hurt and sad enough to cry?

It doesn't seem to be...

It's more calm, so calm that I feel surprised.

Accepting this fact so peacefully in my heart is simply outrageous!

"Am I crazy?" Song Yuqiao patted her face with her hand, trying to cheer herself up.

Keng Keng!

The sudden knocking sound made Song Yuqiao startled.

When she looked sideways, she realized that it was the airport traffic policeman who reminded herself to leave the scene immediately, and that she had stopped for overtime.

Starting the car, Song Yuqiao drove slowly towards the road where he came.

...

...

"...What do you want for dinner... Seafood noodles, you do, really?" Song Yuqiao, who was talking on the phone, responded in surprise.

"Okay, then I will buy the ingredients now and wait for you." Hanging up the phone, the bright smile on his face gradually faded.

Looking at herself in the mirror, Song Yuqiao felt a little strange.

What happened to me, once I heard his voice, it was like being hit by a demon.

Obviously saw the scene of him making affection with other women.

Hearing the news he was about to come, there was only joy and excitement and can't wait.

Shame, anger, anger...

No, UU reading www.uukānshu.com has none, not even a trace of anger!

"Just as if nothing happened, talk about a vigorous love and hobby." Song Yuqiao standing in front of the mirror said to herself.

Go back to the room and change into an apricot polka dot pleated dress.

Song Yuqiao, who walked out of the room, happily left home with a smile from the heart, carrying her bag on her back.

Before Qin Yu came, she went to the seafood market and supermarket to bring all the ingredients back.

'The seafood noodles he made personally must be very delicious. "The elevator door opened, and Song Yuqiao's face filled with happiness, staring at the passers-by in the elevator.

Chapter 472: Location

"How does it taste below me?"

"It's delicious, it's salty...just a bit hot!"

Listening to the less serious conversation, Song Yuqiao thought for a while and said, "Can you reorganize the language to make the conversation sound more serious?"

"Why?" Qin Yu looked at her, you want to teach me how to do things?

It's too tiring to be a decent person, with pretentious performances and hypocritical remarks, you must show your glamorous side at all times.

This made Qin Yu think of the believers with fanatical faces and hands raised under the blazing sun!

Ah, the sun...

Shaking his head to drive away the scrambled images in his mind, Qin Yu got rid of the noodles in the bowl.

Of course, it also includes the delicious soup. Put down the bowl and smash your mouth: "Perfect."

"I'm here to wash the dishes." Song Yuqiao undertakes the job of cleaning after meals. "Is your work finished?"

"In fact, it's busier than before!" Qin Yu replied, flipping through the magazine on the sofa.

Pharmaceutical factories, various procedures, and expenditures.

The 'Ninth Generation Aeronautical Communication Base Station and Air Base Station Practical Manual of Yuanguang Communication Technology.'

In his envisioned location for the miracle headquarters, these projects are all going on at the same time.

Tomorrow he will meet with the people in the old city renovation office to discuss the land bid for the headquarters.

Qin Yu hasn't figured out the specific location yet, so he can only make a decision after seeing the planning drawings.

"It sounds like these things take a long time." Song Yuqiao took off his apron and sat beside him.

The upper body naturally leaned into his arms and swayed left and right to find a comfortable angle. Only then did he close his eyes satisfied and stop moving.

"It's going to be a long time, maybe it won't be in time for the school season." Qin Yu smiled jokingly.

In this way, we must miss the important moment of welcoming young and beautiful school girls.

It's too...

Nice!

Brother Yu can touch Song Yuqiao's balance ball and swear: Lixin's beauty standard score is ridiculously low.

He doesn't think that in this new year, girls' overall score can be improved.

Or a stunning goddess-level freshman suddenly appeared.

Half a year ago, Qin Yu was on the school intranet forum and saw a post that would exist in every school.

Goddess Ranking...School Flower Selection...The most beautiful **** in your heart...

In short, no matter what it is called!

Qin Yu's expressions were the same after opening, covering his face with one hand, shaking his head without saying a word.

Worrying appearance!

At the same time, it also made him feel worried and suspicious about the students who selected these lists...

How much beating and temptation do you have to get out of the campus and enter the society after such an aesthetic? ?

"Do you think everyone is the same as you?" Song Yuqiao opened his eyes, and gave him a horizontal eyebrow.

Although she accepts the facts, it does not mean that she has no small emotions!

"You are right, not everyone can be me." Qin Yu shamelessly took her words as compliments.

It is really difficult to find a few good young people like him.

Song Yuqiao's little spit in his heart was too lazy to say it again.

However, when he was arrogant...it was quite cute.

"Do you know that you look cute at this time?" Song Yuqiao touched his cheek with his hand. "When my students are praised, they will do the same..."

"Teacher Song, are you going to teach me now?" Qin Yu handed over the magazine in her hand, waiting expectantly.

"Cough..." After clearing his throat, Song Yuqiao rolled the magazine in his hand into a tube and tapped it in his palm as a ruler.

"Student Qin Yu, why don't you go to class well!"

"Because teacher, you are so beautiful."

"How can you say that, I'm a teacher..."

"Teacher, I want to learn extracurricular knowledge and understand the detailed structure of the human body."

"...Okay, come, let's see here first...here..."

One earnestly teaches and the other earnestly learns.

Time passed quietly in the time of serious study, and useful knowledge increased.

...

...

Old City Reconstruction Office.

Office of the general manager.

Qin Yu and Xu Hao sat at a large long table, opposite to a thin middle-aged man with a high hairline and heavy eyes.

He looks very gentle, with collapsed cheeks and thin body, which perfectly interprets what is weak and can't help but wind!

He speaks very quietly, and he coughs heavily from time to time.

But it is such a guy who seems to have a short life, who is responsible for this important old city renovation project.

"Director Zhang, the information about the company has been handed in." Xu Hao acts as a bridge of communication.

"Of course, the review is over, cough cough..." Zhang Xiao lowered his head and covered his mouth with his hand, and then smiled apologetically: "Sorry, my health has not been well."

"It doesn't matter, Director Zhang has worked hard." Xu Hao said politely.

"We welcome your company's decision...If you have any needs, you can communicate with me in time. I have already seen the place you chose."

Zhang Xiao's expression was distressed: "However, there are many people who are interested in that land, and many of them have strong competitors."

"Director Zhang, we are different from other companies." Qin Yu interjected: "Although Miracle has not yet been established, it is an advanced and innovative company.

In the future, we will bring a steady stream of jobs and innovative technologies to the abandoned city. Naturally, it will attract a lot of attention and topics, and the cooperation between the two parties is mutually beneficial. "

Although the miracle has not yet been established, he is just a small businessman.

But this does not mean that he will put himself on an unequal position, my lord... the times have changed!

"President Qin, you have to believe that the yamen are inclined and let you do it. But we have to maintain fairness and justice..." There is no need to listen to the rest of the nonsense.

The other party is not suggesting anything, wanting something good or the like.

Rather, it was a vague expression that some of the bidders this time made them equally embarrassed.

If you want to take this piece of land, it depends on the abilities of both of you.

Walking out of the office, Qin Yu looked at Xu Hao first: "What news do you have?"

Xu Hao was doing it in the early stage. If there is a strong competitor, he should have received the news.

Xu Hao thoughtfully said: "There is news that Sanpointe wants to increase investment in the northwest, but it has always been just a rumor.

You know, Brother Yu, this news has been passed on for more than a day or two. Is it true this time? "

"Check it out." Qin Yu responded.

As the world's largest financial giant, it affects the direction and development of a country.

Any of its actions will be magnified to the extreme under the microscope.

If it has really reached the point of actual action, it is unreasonable to cover up the sound of the wind.

At present, many of the three-pointed stars' investments in Xia Guo have been shut down and withdrawn.

But it does not mean that the three-pointed star will withdraw from the Xia State market.

In fact, when investing 200 billion yuan to build a flash memory production plant in the waste capital, some old factories have been closed one after another.

The closure of the factory by Sanpointing is multifaceted, not only due to the pressure of international competition.

There are also multiple factors such as the ageing of the factory, the chaotic management, the obsolescence of equipment that cannot keep up with the development of technology, and the labor salary and policies.

Compared with the areas currently closed by the Three-pointed Star, the Northwest is more attractive in terms of per capita wages, policy preference and development potential.

If this were not the case, Sanpointing would not invest 200 billion yuan to build a new flash memory plant.

It now appears that the other party really wants to increase investment in the Northwest.

It's just that, I don't know which item the other party will put here, the panel, mobile phone and parts, or the PC?

"Collision with the three-pointed star?" Xu Hao's expression was very weird, and it would be the same for anyone who changes to his current position.

That's a three-pointed star, not a cat or a dog!

"Who said that we need to be upright with them? We are not going to round up the entire area." Looking at the plan in front of him, Qin Yu smiled and pointed out: "Don't you think this piece of land is suitable for building a factory?"

Seeing the location where his finger was passing, Xu Hao said in surprise: "This is a large piece of land, at least 40 or 50 hectares, we can't use it..."

As he spoke, Xu Hao reacted, "You mean to change the target of the three-pointed star."

"Why not?" Qin Yu asked Xu Hao was speechless. Indeed, why not?

How can I convince the three-pointed star, who will do it, and why does the other party have to do what he says.

The next day, seeing Zhang Xiao again, Qin Yu told the other party his thoughts.

"I think this land is more suitable for the scale of the three-pointed star. Judging from the other party's previous choices, they like to put R&D and production together, and emphasize comprehensiveness!"

"Compared to the previous piece of land, this place is obviously more suitable for the other party's choice." Qin Yu's finger pressed **** the map.

Chapter 473: New choice

crazy?

This was Zhang Xiao's first reaction and the only thing he could think of in his mind.

Why should the three-pointed star listen to him, or listen to himself?

Just a suggestion that can make the other party change his mind and choose a piece of land that has never been considered before?

Simply outrageous!

But he can't say that in person.

In any case, Qin Yu is a native of the waste capital.

It has great potential, and several technological breakthroughs are shocking.

After seeing the other side with these materials, Zhang Xiao studied it again for half a night.

For him, you can only win over and appease!

Judging from the current situation, the other party has a deep local complex.

Otherwise, he would not open the company to his hometown while he was going to school in Hudu.

As long as a friendly relationship can be maintained, perhaps in the future Feidu will incubate a multinational giant enterprise.

Thinking of this beautiful scene, Zhang Xiao's bladder began to swell!

"Mr. Qin, I will convey your suggestion to that side, but... I don't think I hope it will be very big.

After all, for such a big matter, the other party did not make a decision in one or two days. It is impossible to make the other party change his mind temporarily! "

Zhang Xiao was just talking about the matter, he didn't believe that the other party would not know such a simple truth.

"...Thanks to Director Zhang for his help!" Qin Yu's expression looked a little lost, "The possibility is really slim... What if a miracle chooses this land?"

Seeing that he was pointing at the previous landmark, Zhang Xiaoren was stupid again.

what's the situation?

How did Zhang Xiao feel that he was like a fool, being played with by someone?

"The miracle wants this piece of land... Let me see, 51 hectares, I want to know its unit price."

Qin Yu, who had to "introduce" this piece of land to the three-pointed star before, suddenly wanted to eat this piece of land by himself.

51 hectares, 765 acres, equivalent to 480 basketball courts.

Can he use such a large space?

"Mr. Qin, the yamen don't want to see the land being vacant. This old city reconstruction is intended to change the overall appearance and introduce more capital to drive economic development. We have requirements for time."

Zhang Xiao suspected that he was going to take this piece of land to raise grass.

Use part of it, and block the rest with a wall, and put it there to wait for the appreciation.

Waiting for a few years to resell and sell it several times more easily.

This is nothing new, it is happening every day even more outrageous than this.

It's just that the situation is different this time.

You know, in front of the door outside, there are three big characters of "national level" written on it.

If you want to be tricky in this matter, it's not like looking for death...

In 3 years, the overall project must be completed in accordance with the requirements of the signed contract. No one will want to try the consequences of a breach of contract.

"Director Zhang, wait a minute, we have to talk." Xu Hao pulled Qin Yu aside, "Brother Yu, don't be impulsive."

"I'm not impulsive..." Qin Yu couldn't laugh or cry, he knew Xu Hao was worried that he was being stimulated.

To make an impulsive decision for a time, I have to fight for my breath in this matter.

The fact is that he just gave up the previous excessive plan, intending to achieve it in one step.

On the facade of the headquarters, business cooperation, research and development, sales, all these businesses are integrated...

Qin Yu didn't worry that the place would be vacant and desolate!

On the contrary, there are some doubts whether the space will be insufficient at that time, causing the building to be overcrowded.

Qin Yu naturally knew that this kind of thing was impossible at all when he proposed to change land for Sanpointing.

His real goal is to take this land himself!

But it must show a kind of grievance of 'as a last resort'.

A crying child has milk to eat, even after he shows his true intentions, any normal person can figure out his true purpose.

But so what, sometimes things just need to look at the surface is enough.

Qin Yu was trying to integrate all of his businesses, but happened to run into the giant "three-pointed star," and had no choice but to change his goal.

As a maiden's family, the "abandoned capital yamen" will give certain compensation and preferential treatment. Is this normal?

"Uh..." The sudden turn made Zhang Xiao unable to answer for a while.

Besides, he can't control such a big matter alone.

"In this way, you will come again tomorrow. I need to have a meeting to discuss this matter."

"Okay, then I will trouble Director Zhang."

Leaving the city to change the office, Xu Hao looked at him and asked, "Brother Yu, have you already thought about it before."

At this time, he finally remembered. Just a few days ago, Qin Yu drove around the land and drove around.

Now think about it, he has decided since then that he wants to buy that piece of land, right?

Therefore, this was not an impulse for a while, and Xu Hao, who came to a conclusion, became relaxed.

"I was thinking about waiting for a few more years. Since it just happened to be in time, it was nothing more than spending more money." Qin Yu has already made a budget.

According to the land area he has selected now, the headquarters building, research, production, and a series of welfare and additional buildings, including greening, etc...

Calculating the overall construction cost, tens of billions can't stop it!

'Finally I can spend money lavishly. Brother Yu was a little excited in his heart.

He seemed to have seen the day when the system was upgraded to LV10, and he was a little excited when he thought about it!

But before that, he had to use up his 'technological stocks foresight card' to double Lixin's assets and provide sufficient financial support for his follow-up plans.

"It's time to find something for Lao Zhang." Qin Yu rubbed his chin and decided to go back to the company first.

...

...

Lixin Investment.

Chief Analyst's Office.

Sitting behind the desk, Zhang Qili was staring at the screen in front of him, drinking the double-strength coffee in his hand.

When there is no action, it does not mean that he can be idle.

We still have to stare at the curve every day, do market analysis, record, and look for investment opportunities.

Occasionally, I have to cooperate with the traders to do simulation training to keep the whole team in the best condition.

It was the busiest time, and it was no easier than the real 'fight'.

The only difference is that Zhang Qili will not be scared by the 'simulation' and want to run away.

But he will still be nervous. Fortunately, this season's simulation training has ended, and he can enjoy his 'work time.'

Just record, analyze, and submit the data.

This kind of rhythm is Zhang Qili's most accustomed and familiar working environment.

Keng Keng!

Zhang Qili, who was staring at the screen, said without looking up, "Come in."

Squeak~

The door was opened, Zhang Qili waited for someone to speak, but his thoughts were all on the curve of the screen.

He writes and draws in his hand, and in a short while, he completely forgot the incident of "someone coming in".

Until the final summary last night, Zhang Qili put down the pen and leaned back...

"Ah~" Seeing the shadow on his side, Zhang Qili was so frightened that he kicked his legs and the chair fell straight back.

Grabbing the back of the chair, Qin Yu looked at him with a smile and said, "Old Zhang, do data analysis!"

"Yes, Mr. Qin is good." Zhang Qili wiped the cold sweat from his forehead and looked at him with a smile on his face like a fox, and found that things were not that simple.

There was a bad premonition in his heart, as if a haze dispelled his original good mood.

"Haha, Mr. Qin, why do you have time to come. That...have you eaten, I have someone to pour you a drink?" Zhang Qili said and stood up.

But the shoulder was held by a powerful hand, "I just came to see, it's okay, you are busy with you."

"Then I have someone prepare some snacks?" Zhang Qili still felt something was wrong.

"No, I'm leaving now." Qin Yu shook his wrist, glanced at the time and said, "I have an appointment in the afternoon, no trouble."

Hearing that he was leaving soon Zhang Qili was about to mention the heart of his throat, and he dropped a bit.

So...it should be fine, right?

"Okay, don't be so nervous, you continue to be busy, I will go first." Qin Yu patted his shoulder, straightening up as if he was about to leave.

Zhang Qili was completely relieved now, "Then I will give it to you!"

"No." Qin Yu stared at the screen, and said, "Taipower and MediaTek, do you have concerns too?"

"Ah... yes, just take a look." Zhang Qili smiled relaxedly.

"Well, that's OK, send me an analysis report the day after tomorrow, let me go, Old Zhang..."

"Okay, President Qin walks slowly..."

When Qin Yu's figure disappeared outside the door, the door lock closed automatically.

Old Zhang's nerves twitched suddenly, 'what happened just now? Taipower? MediaTek? I am...'

Chapter 474: Chopin 210k

After many days, Qin Yu saw the mothers again.

is not in the parent-child activity center, but in a high-class private cafe.

Today is a parent activity day, which is intended to strengthen the connection between parents.

Actually, it's more like an upper-class communication meeting.

For them, any excuse can be used as a reason for 'communication'.

"Xiaoyu? Xiaoyu is here, why haven't I seen you all this time?"

"Yes, something is wrong at home."

"Xiao Yu, he looks handsome again."

"Sister Li can really talk."

"Xiaoyu..."

"Sister Xu." Qin Yu said hello, while walking towards Xu Yaqing.

Among all the mothers, Qin Yu has the best relationship with her and is the most familiar.

Naturally, I also want to sit next to someone I know at a party. Xu Yaqing's choice is none other than Xu Yaqing.

As for what 32F, it has nothing to do with it!

Really...

Xu Yaqing's figure is tall and charming, so it won't stand out any time you look at it!

If you change to a shorter, slightly plump woman, someone would have long been seen through her chest...

Four liang dials a thousand catties...Four liang...

What is he thinking about? ? ?

"Xiaoyu...Would you like to drink tea?" Xu Yaqing has been holding tea for a long time, but his eyes have been in a state of distraction.

"Thank you!" Qin Yu took the teacup and asked curiously at the mothers who were all together, "What are they doing?"

"Wait." Xu Yaqing responded.

Qin Yu raised his eyebrows unexpectedly, who is such a big name?

Don't underestimate these mothers, in the abandoned city, they are a huge network of relationships.

And, it works, it has a lot of energy...

This point is clear to everyone present, so they are also proud.

Who can make these proud ladies stand at the door willingly and wait?

"It's not a human being." When Qin Yu's expression became more weird, Xu Yaqing also noticed her sick sentence and teased: "They are waiting for the one who sent a piece of jewelry, Chopin."

"Chopin, that Swiss watch and jewelry brand?" Qin Yu was surprised.

"Yes, a 99-year-old Chopard diamond watch will be exhibited here today...maybe there may be sales." Xu Yaqing's tone is obviously not sure.

Because this watch is too expensive, not as expensive as usual!

Chopin 210k, a perfect masterpiece from top master craftsmen.

said that it is a watch, it is more appropriate to describe it as an artwork.

The whole watch is surrounded by 201 carats of colored diamonds, like a flower that never fades.

"Should such works not be collected?"

How can such a unique artwork be reduced to promotion on such a private occasion?

"It's not a promotion, there is one of them, which is not a big luxury consumer." Xu Yaqing gave him a sullen look, and said angrily: "You really don't know if you are in the blessing!"

"So I fell into a rich woman's nest?" Qin Yu shook his head jokingly.

Xu Yaqing smiled proudly: "What do you think?"

"But this rich lady has a master...worry!" Qin Yu held his forehead with one hand, and shook his head sadly.

Xu Yaqing's cheeks flushed, and she noticed the desire in his eyes. She murmured in my heart: This enemy...

Just when she was flustered secretly and didn't know what to do, an exclamation came from the door: "It's so beautiful!"

A business man in a suit and leather shoes with a tough and stern expression, walking slowly, pushing the mobile cart.

There is a glass cover on the car, inside it is a rotating Chopin 210k.

The brilliant colors attract everyone's attention, and they can't help but move with the movement of the car.

"It's beautiful!" Xu Yaqing murmured beside her.

A pair of clear eyes, reflecting the colorful diamond light.

She was completely attracted by this 'priceless treasure', and the whole body and soul were drawn into it.

Its temptation is indeed very strong, but from Qin Yu's point of view, it is more like an art built with value.'

The colored diamonds that stick together are already invaluable.

The small dial in the middle is about to be ignored, completely reduced to a foil.

It is not so much a jewelry watch as it is a collection.

Qin Yu believes that even if someone buys it, it will only show off as an honor.

It doesn't matter whether it's a table or not!

"How much is this watch?" Qin Yu asked Xu Yaqing, who was already dazzled.

She just said that this watch is expensive, but she didn't say the specific number.

"200000000."

"Wow~"

is indeed a number that is enough to make people sigh, 200 million, a piece of 210 grams of colored diamonds...

Ok!

Look at the transparent, red, blue, and yellow diamonds that are larger than dove eggs.

This figure does not seem to be unacceptable.

"Pretty is beautiful, but it's too expensive."

"Which one of you buys?"

"Just take a look, who will buy it?"

"This is the only chance, and I may not see it again in the future."

"...Who doesn't want to buy it!"

Sister Luo was the last speaker, and her husband is the boss of a listed group.

Among all the mothers, they can be regarded as rich and powerful, but even she can only sigh at this diamond watch that makes women crazy.

more than 2 billion...

Not to mention that there is not so much money, but it can be really obtained.

The first thing I did after I went back was to contact a lawyer to draft a divorce agreement.

By the way, you have to find a better reason. It's better to have domestic violence, abusive tendencies, etc.

Otherwise, she may only be able to wear a small inner lining and go out of the house!

The employee of the jeweler on the cart looked serious, as if he could not hear the turbulent discussion around him.

This is the basic professionalism. All he has to do is protect the company's property and show it in front of these ladies by the way.

But, why is there an extra man in a good 'Lady's Game'?

parked the exhibits in the center of the circle, and the handsome brown man stood by like a pillar, allowing the ladies to visit and admire.

Ruowu's touch behind him made him smile.

Maybe, he can try one person and two rides tonight...

Click~

The sound of taking pictures in his ear made him devote his energy to work again.

When I discovered that the young man was taking a photo with his mobile phone, his heart was inexplicably proud and disdainful.

'Today's photo gave him the capital to brag about again! Thinking of women's madness about diamonds, he thought he should find an opportunity to take a few more photos.

Next time I go to the bar, I can brag with those ignorant women...

At this time, Qin Yu, who was immersed in typing, didn't know that he had become a rival in the eyes of the brown fur.

Even if he knew it, he would only think that the other party was threatened by his own appearance.

Although he looks good, he is just a little bit close to himself.

But the gap is the gap, and one point difference is a huge difference.

As a 90-point super handsome ratio, and some blessings.

The appearance is probably as handsome as Xiao Lizi's peak...

Qin Yu: "Show you a good baby!"

Lv Qing: "What... Don't mess around, I'm in the living room."

Qin Yu: "What are you thinking? Woman..."

Qin Yu: "Picture X2."

Qin Yu: "Do you like it?"

Lv Qing: "...You are at the jewelry exhibition, where are you, I will look for you now."

Although she did not answer positively, her eagerness has already expressed her attitude.

Looking at the mothers around, Qin Yu thought it was better to be alone.

Qin Yu: "Private exhibition."

Lv Qing: ""

Qin Yu: "I'll see you at night Lv Qing: "Remember to take a few more photos. I want you from all angles. X6"

After the chat with Lu Qing, Qin Yu pointed to the watch in the cover and asked: "Sir, its price."

"What?" The palm wool pillar was stunned.

"I said, its price...net price!" Qin Yu knew that it was expensive, but let alone 200 million.

This price is just a gimmick, and it is also the most luxurious favorite trick.

Even in the auction house, privately, it is full of all kinds of transactions.

10 million lots, the actual transaction price may be only a few million.

As long as the seller can be satisfied, nothing is impossible.

As for the goods that are rumored to be sold at sky-high prices, most of the real transaction prices are much lower than advertised.

"Sorry, sir... Are you saying that you intend to buy this 210k?" The other party's eyes widened, as if looking at an alien visitor.

Qin Yu got up and came to the glass cover, and said calmly: "Your reading comprehension is okay, now you can tell me the answer."

"...Wait a minute, I need to contact my supervisor." Pillar can't solve this problem.

He is a tool man in charge of carts, and he is not even qualified to ship this watch.

The four fat-eared bodyguards and the supervisor who are resting are the ones, not to mention the big business involving tens of millions of dollars.

"Please hurry up, I'm in a hurry!"

seated again, Qin Yu opened his cuffs to reveal the black starry sky he was wearing, tapping his fingers lightly on the dial, like a quick drum reminding him that time is precious.

the 'pillar' contacted the supervisor, Qin Yu just turned on the phone screen.

searched for information about Chopin 210k on the Internet, and quickly looked through it.

In fact, there is not much information, most of which are gimmicks based on price.

However, this is enough.

There is only one reason why Qin Yu bought it, 'ding!'

'Trigger random missions.'

'When you see a unique artwork that is accumulated with wealth and public opinion, you decide to take it as your own.'

[Hint: Although it is only a poor quality product with no artistic value, it is still collectible due to human superficial values]

Task rewards: Bouncing bouncing bombs, a big draw for the pachinko machine.

[Reminder: The reward has been issued, is it a draw? ]

Mission penalty: Miracle blooms...Unknown reward +1.

If this mission reward wasn't the long-awaited pachinko lottery, Qin Yu would definitely give up directly.

Unknown reward +1, it sounds very tempting!

Unfortunately, he can't give up in the big pachinko lottery. He can only wait for the next time to figure out what the 'unknown reward is.'

When Qin Yu raised his head again, he found that the mothers around him were looking at him with weird eyes.

"What's wrong, sisters, is there something wrong with me?"

Qin Yu reached out and touched his face, it didn't bloom!

"Xiao Yu, you can... I didn't see that you, a little guy, turned out to be a big guy!"

Qin Yu smiled shyly when she heard Sister Li's teasing.

How come this sister always likes to tell the truth!

"The big ones, everyone is still friends." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

Sister Li's eyes lit up and she was overjoyed and said: "This is what you said, I can confirm you, brother."

said that the person was already sitting on the armrest of Qin Yu's sofa, and when he lifted his arm forward, he hooked his neck into his arms.

'Despite! The mothers glared collectively.

raised her head triumphantly, sister Li arrogantly stretched out her other hand and pressed his face tightly in her arms.

Brother Yu finally experienced the happiness of Little Pumpkin, suffocating, tolerant...

The milk is scented, it seems that Sister Li has brought the white rabbit toffee!

Finally broke free of her embrace, Qin Yu rubbed his palm on his cheek.

is a little wet! !

Seeing Sister Li's arrogant attitude, Xu Yaqing's expression changed, and her heart was full of dissatisfaction.

Women, especially beautiful women with capital.

is full of arrogance.

Obviously, among these people, only he has the closest relationship with him. This will tell you that they have strong capital.

just put it up and put it close, shameless... that way.

呸!

Xu Yaqing became more and more angry, and said: "Xiaoyu, can you take me home later?"

"Huh...huh?" Qin Yu turned around in surprise, "Sister Xu, where is your driver?"

"The driver asked for leave today for something, why, let your big boss send me off?" Xu Yaqing asked pretending to be angrily.

try{mad1('gad2');}catch(ex){} Seeing her charming eyes, enchanting posture, and every move of a lady.

Brother Yu calmly wiped the corners of his mouth with the back of his hand: "Why, I must help Sister Xu if there is something."

As long as it does not violate the "Three Non-Principles," everything is easy to discuss!

Who made Brother Yu a helpful and promising young man, nothing else, just a kind heart.

Xu is aware of Qin Yu's kindness, and her mothers also want to ask him for help.

But before they had time, someone interrupted their plan.

Dressed in an old fashioned style, with meticulous hair care, a man with gold-rimmed glasses walked in.

"Sir, this is George... Let's talk in another place." Director George showed a formulaic smile and invited Qin Yu to go to the VIP room to talk in detail.

"Okay." Before getting up and leaving, Qin Yu asked Xu Yaqing to wait for herself, and sent her where she wanted to go when she was done.

Seeing him leave with Director George, Sister Li's expression gradually cooled: "Yaqing, why did I see your driver waiting outside?"

"Oh?" Xu Yaqing picked up the phone with a calm expression, and put it down again after a few random taps, "Sister Li must have read it wrong. This hasn't just sent me a message saying that the person has arrived home."

"..." Sister Li clearly saw that she had sent a message to the driver just now, saying that she had something to let him go first.

Shameless Sao Fox!

"Yaqing, it's better to be cautious about some things, but don't forget that you have a husband."

"Hehe, Sister Li should talk to herself... Besides, should you deal with it?"

Xu Yaqing nodded towards her chest. Sister Li looked down and hurriedly pulled her shawl down.

With a cold snort, Sister Li hurriedly ran to the bathroom when she noticed that the humidity on her chest had increased!

...

...

VIP room.

is actually a small corner at the corner of the corridor next door, Qin Yu and George seated one after another.

On the diamond-shaped table in front of the two of them, there is the 'artwork that I saw earlier.'

"Mr. Qin, please forgive me for the presumption..."

"It doesn't matter, let's go directly to the topic." Qin Yu smiled and said: "As I said before, time is limited and precious."

"Okay, do you really want to buy this unparalleled one..."

"and many more."

Seeing the fanatical expression on George's face and instantly entering the role of 'speaker', Qin Yu interrupted his progress on the spot.

"I said, go directly to the topic!" Qin Yu looked at him blankly: "Give me a number."

"..." The emotions and high-pitched passion brewing in my heart were suddenly interrupted, and it felt like being forced to feed **** when I was about to climax.

still choking...

lowered his head with an embarrassed expression. It took George a long time before he finally calmed down.

"Mr. Qin, then I will not waste your precious time. The company's price is 200 million Xia coins. The biggest discount I can make is 9.6% off."

Before the words fell, Qin Yu stood up with his hands on his knees, and walked out with a gesture.

"Wait, please listen to me to finish." Seeing him so decisive, George's heart trembled, 'this young man is not easy to fool!'

try{mad1('gad2');}catch(ex){} "Although my rights are insufficient, if you are really sincere, I can ask the headquarters on the spot."

George must confirm that this young man is really capable of buying this Chopin 210k.

Otherwise, the higher-ups who have been teased will only use him as an inflator, and Qin Yu will not lose the slightest loss.

"Wait." Qin Yu dialed Shen Chuxia's number.

It didn't take long for someone to hold the fax they just received before George.

Seeing the proof of assets above was just the tip of the iceberg, and it moved George.

'S attitude towards Qin Yu is even more respectful.

When wealth reaches a certain level, it is often accompanied by huge rights.

"Mr. Qin, please wait!" George took the phone and went out.

He did not make Qin Yu wait too long, and soon a neutral price appeared in his ears.

One hundred and sixty million, claiming 198 million to the outside world.

This is a very lucky number for Xia Guoren, and the inflated price also helps Qin Yu change hands.

Although he has no intention of this, it does not prevent him from giving higher value to the 'collectible'.

The transaction process is very simple. Qin Yu puts the money into the account of the other company.

After checking the account, he took away the goods that already belonged to him. UU reading www.uukanshu.com

George suggested holding a small ceremony for him, and invited reporters to come and take pictures by the way.

Qin Yu rejected all these.

is just buying a gift for your own woman. Is it necessary for such a big fanfare?

People packed it beautifully, and Qin Yu returned to the cafe with a gift box larger than a briefcase and exquisite material.

The mothers are all there, no one left.

When he appeared, all his eyes were cast on the gift box he was holding.

"So, did you really buy it?" Xu Yaqing closed her mouth in shock.

198 million, my God!

Who has such a good life, is able to get this gift worth more than 100 million yuan.

Xu Yaqing envy from the heart, even jealous...

'S self-confessed advantage was defeated to nothing in front of Qin Yu!

Young, handsome, rich and billions.

The more important thing is to be willing. Can you buy hundreds of millions of watches as gifts. Will you be stingy in other aspects?

Xu Yaqing can say with certainty that no woman can withstand this intention, let alone refuse the gift in his hand.

If he gave this gift to herself, Xu Yaqing suspected that she would take the initiative to pull him to roll the sheets.

No, it's not a doubt!

is that she would really do it, without hesitation...

Now, immediately, immediately...

Chapter 476: Target locked, sixty-six billion...

seems very low-key when it merges with traffic.

Qin Yu, who was holding the steering wheel in both hands, looked a little nervous, and the road ahead was a bit congested.

Every time the traffic starts again, Qin Yu's movements have to be half a beat slower.

Until the car turned into the fork of the road leading to Nanqu Villa, his expression suddenly relaxed.

buzzing~

Desert yellow modified Wrangler staggered past, the driver accidentally glanced into the car and blinked in surprise.

The co-pilot seemed to have a person lying down and fell asleep, and the driver's expression was a bit more weird and envy...

Parked the car at the gate of the villa, and Xu Yaqing, who was asleep, stretched out and sat up: "Are you there?"

"Well, let's get one!" Qin Yu took the gum and placed it in front of her.

Pour two pills and put them in the mouth to chew slowly, Xu Yaqing sorted out the folds of the neckline: "See you next time."

"See you at the event." Qin Yu smiled back.

Watching her walk through the gate, her enchanting posture disappeared from sight, and Qin Yu set out again.

Saying that Sister Xu's mouth is really amazing.

Even if it's 'sleeping,' I can murmur endlessly in my mouth.

This is not a good habit. Perhaps it is because of this that her husband will stay permanently in Africa.

This was mentioned by Xu Yaqing herself, as if doing so can explain something...

The fun activities are over. Qin Yu now has to go to the company first.

"Old Zhang? Where's the old Zhang person?" Qin Yu asked Zhang Qiqi at the front desk.

"I don't know, I didn't see Mr. Zhang here today." Zhang Qiqi looked around, and said in a low voice: "Zhang always looks very nervous these two days, it seems that the pressure is very high."

"Well, that's right." In this era, what kind of social animal is there without a little pressure?

Although Qin Yu does not think he has a tendency to squeeze employees, except for Zhang Qili...

If Lixin Investment is compared to a farm, then Zhang Qili must be the laziest mule in it.

You have to whip him forward to bring effective income!

"Old Zhang, where are you?" He dialed Zhang Qili's number. This time he was not scared to run away.

"Boss, I'm Wanwan."

"Wanwan?"

"Yes, I'm investigating some information about Taiwan Power and MediaTek, and I need to come here in person."

"...Then wait until you come back." Since the other person is not there, the action time can only be postponed.

"Wait, boss. In fact, my investigation has ended, and all the information has been sent back to the office. Find my secretary Niji..."

"When did you have a secretary?" Qin Yu was surprised, he didn't know so.

"Three months ago." Zhang Qili said.

.....

.....

Blond and blue eyes, height at least 175cm, big butt, in line with the standards of good health.

Ok!

These are not the key, the files in her hand are.

Although Qin Yu was a little worried, would Lao Zhang accidentally kill him.

But this is his personal business, as long as he does not let these problems affect his normal work, Qin Yu will not bother.

In view of his own 'good' character, he has no position to accuse Zhang Qili of being secretive.

try{mad1('\gad2\');}catch(ex){ As for why he hired a blonde and big **** secretary, Lao Zhang's reasoning was 'in line with international standards. '

How can people refuse such a tall reason?

"Thank you... Niji, right?" Qin Yu took the file from her.

"Yes, Boss." Niji, with one hand on his hips, blinked at him in a seductive S shape.

She is discharging herself...

Regrettably, regardless of her looks or figure, she is not Yu brother's food.

Looking down at the file, Qin Yu said calmly: "If you want to continue to work at Lixin, put away your **** behavior..."

I don't mind what happens to you and Zhang, but I hope it's only him in this company, understand?

"Yes, BOSS." Niji's Daxia language is good.

Maybe when she first studied, she was able to catch Kaizi better.

But the way of learning during exercise is obviously more conducive to strengthening memory.

From the freshness of her 65↓, we can see that this kind of 'learning course' is very frequent.

at least once very frequently...

For Golden Retriever, loyalty is a 'unfamiliar' word.

You can't ask for a golden retriever to obey the 'morality that doesn't exist in life, education, or nation.'

At least, there is no problem with her health!

It seems that her teaching curriculum is progressing cautiously, and she has a high standard for the selection of 'teacher'.

Advanced! ! !

This makes Qin Yu associate, Natalie...

Whether it's the V-Vendetta team or the Tudor dynasty... He has a better understanding of sexual interest.

It's just that, all of this takes time, at least to fix the immediate problem first!

Based on the analysis data provided by Lao Zhang and the information from his personal investigation, Qin Yu finally made up his mind.

Taipower, it will be the goal this time!

He doesn't know what happened to Taipower, but he can tell from the information provided by Lao Zhang.

They are slowing down the construction investment in the 3nm factory, and they are doing it very concealed.

Two possibilities...

There is a problem with the capital chain, and the technology encounters a problem.

But in the latest quarterly bulletin of Taipower, there is no information about this.

If his guess is true, it means that someone is lying to investors.

This is a very serious problem for a listed company, especially a giant like Taipower!

'Use technology stocks foresight card, target: Taipower Manufacturing Co., Ltd.'

'Are you sure?'

'Confirm.'

Rows of text and numeric messages appeared in front of her eyes.

Pupils are dilated, Qin Yu is observing the information that appears in front of him...

No, there is nothing unusual.

Taipower's share price is very strong, and there will be no major fluctuations in the next fifteen days.

But, just when Qin Yu picked up the phone and decided to release some news.

The curve in front of him suddenly fell precipitously, which also made him more certain of his guess.

"Jin Lan, I need your help..." With a smug smile on the corner of his mouth, Qin Yu began to get in touch with investors.

At the same time, the 50 billion credit line provided by C&D Bank for him is also time to come out.

try{mad1(\gad2\');}catch(ex){ .....
.....

Seeing Qu Hye again, the other party's expression looked very nervous.

Qin Yu suddenly wants to use all the funds, and all the funds in the Lixin account must be transferred away. This news keeps him awake all night.

"Qin Shao, did Lixin have any big moves?" Qu He wanted to learn some useful information from him.

It's a pity, how could Qin Yu mention it to anyone casually at this time.

Not to mention him, even investors who are raising funds and want to join this feast are asking three questions.

Including Ye Jinlan...

Of course, she knows more than others.

After all, Qin Yu's plan requires the power of public opinion that she can use.

News about Taipower's financial report fraud, the reduction of research and development funding, and the delay of capital investment in the 3nm factory are quietly spreading on the Internet.

Qin Yu can't prove the information is true, but someone will prove it for him.

The curve change of the 'foresight card' in the next fifteen days clearly confirms this.

Investors will prove to him what Teclast is hiding.

The enemies of Taiwan Power and Citigroup will tear a hole for his actions.

What Qin Yu has to do is to join the gluttonous feast at the moment when the "kou" is torn apart.

50 billion credit line, 10 billion out of the more than 17 billion owned by Lixin.

Ye Jinlan, Li Xiao, Xu Hao and Yang Chengjun, each with a 1 billion investment quota.

Lu Guohui, Jiang Hongsheng, Liu Xing and Han Hu each have an investment of 500 million yuan, totaling 66 billion yuan.

This money is a surprisingly large amount anywhere .

At the same time, it also means that Qin Yu cannot make any mistakes.

Fortunately, this 'risk' never exists.

After being clearly rejected by Qin Yu, Qu He left in embarrassment, but left Shen Chuxia and Xu Yue.

Today's Xu Yue was particularly proactive and kept pouring wine and food for him.

"Shao Qin, do you have any action..." Half of his body was squeezed into Qin Yu's arms, and Xu Yue said charmingly and coquettishly: "If there is any chance, let me make some pocket money."

"People's salary is not comparable to that of President Shen. You can't be so partial and give her all the benefits." Xu Yue glanced at Shen Chuxia next door complainingly, and didn't hide her desires at all.

It's a pity, she found the wrong time this time!

"You can go back now." Qin Yu let go of her arm and said with a cold expression: "All subsequent contacts will be made by Chu Xia."

"Shao Qin, did they do something wrong?" Xu Yue was still pretending to be pitiful.

Qin Yu looked at her coldly, "You didn't do anything wrong, you just made a choice."

Since she is so loyal to her career, she should focus on her work.

Does she really think she believes in some excuse for 'making some pocket money'? Believe that she's not inquiring about Qu He? ? ?

If this is the case, then she is not only insulting Qin Yu, but also herself.

Otherwise, it can only prove that she is a foolish fool.

Then she should stay far away...stupid, but contagious!

Chapter 477: Hades-class working machine

This is the production process used by Teclast's 3nm research and development. According to the information released by Teclast at the beginning of the year, this technology is quite mature.

For this reason, the market generally believes that the future will be the world of FinFET.

The so-called GAAFET production process of the three-pointed star will be like a mirror image, and FinFET will take up more market share.

The gap between the two companies will become wider and wider. There is still a long way to go for Sanpointing to compete with Taiwan Power in the wafer field.

But the fact is that Taipower's 3nm manufacturing plant is cutting funds and suspending progress.

Three-pointed star will invest in the construction of a second overseas wafer foundry in the abandoned city...

Although its production technology is limited to 7nm, in the future, when the construction of the plant is completed, 5nm orders may be added.

But from this we can see that the actual situation of the two companies is not as speculated by the outside world.

There is another message, which came back from the bald eagle.

is actually the news that Talitha brought to him...

Three-pointed star's wafer plant in Austin, Texas, Bald Eagle, will introduce the most advanced 3nm technology and put it into the most advanced foundry production line.

Three years ago, in 2020, this factory has decided to expand the area by 40%.

According to the latest news, the expansion of the factory will be completed by the end of the year at the latest.

By then, this factory will be able to produce wafers with 7nm, 5nm and 3nm processes.

will also become one of the most advanced wafer manufacturing plants in the world, comparable to the local core plants.

No matter from which aspect, the performance of the three-pointed star seems to have enough confidence and confidence in its own 3nm technology.

Look at Taipower...

The inconsistent behavior makes it show its timidity!

.....

.....

Abandoned capital, international airport.

Qin Yu lowered the window and shouted to Zhang Qili who was walking out of the terminal, "Old Zhang, here..."

"Shao Qin... why did you come to pick me up? I can take a taxi back by myself." Zhang Qili threw the bag into the back row and got into the co-pilot.

"Everyone else is already in place, I happen to be free!" Qin Yu asked about his gains from this trip.

Wanwan's industrial system and technological advancement left a deep impression on him.

But the severity of its impact by the Bald Eagle Industry is also shocking.

"Shao Qin, you can say so..." Zhang Qili said solemnly: "Leaving the Bald Eagle, the crooked industrial system will collapse overnight!"

"I think they should have thought of this day long ago." Qin Yu responded casually.

"The ordinary people and businessmen who are bent around are still inwardly."

"You mean ordinary people, I believe it!" Qin Yu raised the corner of his mouth with a sarcasm smile: "As for the business people, they just see new business opportunities."

The rise of the inland is unstoppable, and a new era is coming.

It has become an impossible luxury to rely on the bald eagle to conquer the global market.

They just follow the trend, for their own benefit and the future.

From the perspective of a businessman, there is nothing wrong with doing so.

Everyone just wants to make more money and maintain a decent life. What can be wrong?

Therefore, Qin Yu wants to engage in a wave of Taiwan Power now without any pressure.

And, now it's not just him, many people are eyeing Taipower.

even including the Citi behind it...

The news circulating on the Internet has worked. The truth is the truth because of its authenticity.

Therefore, after a series of investigations, Taipower's stock price has begun to fluctuate.

sent him to the company, and the two walked into the trading room together.

"President Qin...President Qin..." Everyone greeted him.

"Don't worry about me, busy with you." Qin Yu came to Jiang Luo's side: "How is it?"

"Everything is normal. It seems that Taipower will be unable to withstand the pressure and has announced it to the public." Jiang Luo tapped the message on the printed paper with his hand: "In addition, our old friend wants to talk to you."

Jade Smith, an old friend and partner of Lixin!

Potential enemies in the future, perhaps from now on, their apparent intimacy can no longer be maintained.

"I will call him back, after the action is over!"

Qin Yu obviously didn't plan to call him back now, it would only cause extra troubles and increase worry.

After the whole operation is over, contact my dear Mr. Jared again to see what he wants.

"I think he has insomnia recently." Jiang Luo joked and joked.

.....

.....

Whether Jade Smith will have insomnia, this is not what Qin Yu cares about.

Currently, he only cares about one.

The rewards displayed on the pachinko machine that is blurry in front of you are astonishing!

Brass, silver, and gold colors' ? ? 'no change.

But the rewards in the card slot are not what Qin Yu can expect...

It should be said that it is one of the rewards.

'HK-035 space mining machine. 'That is a machine a bit like a helicopter.

It's just that the propeller is missing on the top, and there are a few more ejectors on the bottom and tail...

If Qin Yu understands correctly, is it an aircraft capable of space exploration?

Why is this thing mixed into a lot of materials, this is curious.

But after careful observation, Qin Yu probably understood.

Because of the mineral materials that appear in other card slots, none of them are familiar to him.

First of all, Qin Yu is not a mineralogist, let alone a materials scientist.

But he has one of the greatest inventions of mankind, the Internet.

After searching the Internet, Qin Yu didn't find the material in the card slot...anything.

The only thing that is the same is the previous label: special alloy.

These four words can be seen everywhere, but the number behind did not find any related links.

try{mad1(\gad2\');}catch(ex){} Okay!

This lucky draw may cause some conflicts in the materials industry.

"If you are lucky enough to get that mining machine, things will be a big deal." Qin Yu muttered to himself, confirming the start of the lottery.

Dangdang...

The marbles bounced up and down in the machine, and Qin Yu's eyes only followed it.

Until the marbles fall into the brass color" ? ? 'among.

'Congratulations to the host for winning the Brass Mystery Prize. '

Brassy " ? ? 'Started to flicker crazily and the lights kept beeping.

The flashing picture is frozen on a peculiar 'machine tool', 'Congratulations to the host for winning the Hades-class automated work machine, which is a parallel world product.'

'It is designed as a fool-like operation mode, and can work autonomously by inputting drawings and instructions.'

'The technology contained in this product is far beyond the times...information coverage...cognitive distortion...open memory barriers. Anyone who comes into contact with this product will have cognitive barriers to known information and blurred memory after leaving.'

'In order to further protect the host's safety, the product manufacturer [disguise] is being selected...'

'Target selection: Jing Yuan.'

'memory coverage...memory distortion...knowledge placement...'

...Fuck!

Qin Yu really doesn't know how to express his inner shock. In short, it's...fuck!

At the same time, the last piece of information also appeared in front of us The Hades-class automated work machine has been released. The location: Kuafu Technology R&D Laboratory, Warehouse No. 4.'

Turning off the system prompt, Qin Yu strode out of the meteor.

Just when he found out Jing Yuan's number and was about to call it, the phone rang.

Caller: Jing Yuan.

.....

.....

Half an hour later, Qin Yu appeared at the Kuafu Technology Factory, R&D laboratory.

Qin Yu was sitting in his office, and Jing Yuan was sitting across the table.

At this time, she was in an extremely excited state, telling Qin Yu the epoch-making product she had created by accident.

"Mr. Qin, this technology will completely change the industrial system. We no longer need to divide into lathes, planers, boring machines, grinders...

As long as there is one of them, all the problems will be solved by replacing parts, setting up the system, inputting drawings and instructions. "

Seeing Jing Yuan's apparently abnormal performance, Qin Yu asked carefully when she stopped narrating, "Do you remember... how did you make it?"

"Of course it's because..." Jing Yuan's expression solidified, and her tone became stumbling: "Because...because..."

She is like a robot with a system that has suddenly jammed, her eyes rolling into chaos.

This process lasted about ten seconds, and her expression returned to normal again, continuing to talk about her great discoveries and products.

The question Qin Yu asked her before has been forgotten by her.

As if nothing happened...

Chapter 478: Candidate

The emergence of the Pluto-class industrial host machine has solved the problem of Kuafu and Godson's subsequent expansion of production!

As the creator of the 'miracle', Jing Yuan deserves a reward!

One million in cash, a daily car.

Choose within 300,000, even if it exceeds a little, it doesn't matter.

Her answer was: "Karoka, affordable...Anyway, it's just a means of transportation!"

Jing Yuan has no pursuit in this aspect. In her opinion, there are only two standards for a good car.

A good one is not easy to break!

Two economical and applicable!

She doesn't want to buy an exquisite toy back. She often needs to consider whether it is durable.

"I'll let someone do it... By the way, do you have any suitable candidates to be a secretary?" Qin Yu recently planned to hire a secretary for herself.

There are more and more affairs in the abandoned city, and it is a waste of time to always do it yourself.

He needs a professional secretary with a broad enough knowledge level, multiple professional skills, and certain experience in management.

If you just need a vase, nothing to do... Secretary!

He will not ask Jingyuan for advice and candidates...

"Uh, secretary?" Jing Yuan's eyes were with a certain ambiguity and contempt.

Seeing her performance, Qin Yu can only say that people have misunderstood the secretary too deeply.

Everything has two sides, and the secretary is the same.

After explaining her request, the ambiguity in Jing Yuan's eyes gradually disappeared.

Such a high standard requirement is just to find a secretary?

"The salary package is 20,000 to 50,000 yuan, and there are all the necessary benefits. There is no need to worry about this." Qin Yu joked: "The only thing to worry about is that she is not worthy of this salary!"

"He or she?" Jing Yuan rolled her eyes rare.

She has always respected Qin Yu. This is the first time she has been rude and abnormal.

It seems that Jing Yuan, who has devoted himself to research, has also heard a little about the romantic deeds of her boss.

She has been in the laboratory, but it does not mean that she has not communicated with the outside world.

The cafeteria here is public. When eating, not only researchers, but also workers, administration and management will appear.

Therefore, Jing Yuan also learned from their gossip about the great achievements of her boss!

"Either she or she can!" Qin Yu cleverly used the charm of language.

As a young and promising man, he naturally does not want to be surrounded by a man.

Even if it is just a work relationship, the opposite **** will bring more sensory appreciation and pleasure.

As for whether there will be super friendship, you can rest assured!

So far, he has done a good job of managing his own "Xiaotou"...

Ye Jinlan can only be regarded as an accident. Whoever is suddenly pounced on by a 90-point beauty, bites his weakness!

It is difficult for him to do more resistance... no matter who it is!

Other than that, there seems to be no exception.

Yan Xue is not a 'formal worker,' a temporary worker...all you know!

"Are there any suitable candidates?" Qin Yu just asked casually, this matter is not urgent, and he does not want to waste too much time on this.

Jing Yuan's expression was tangled, as if she was considering whether to recommend him or not!

After pondering for a moment, they decided to give each other a chance, not myself, but Qin Yu and her friends.

"I know a suitable candidate. She has just returned to China and is currently in a gap. It is up to you to get her to agree."

Jing Yuan only gave him a number and name, and he was in abandoned capital.

Because she has just returned to China and has not been looking for a job, she is in the resting stage, so she can make appointments anytime.

Watson, sounds like a man.

"I hope it's not a lady's boss!" Qin Yu ridiculed himself and dialed the number.

The fact is that the voice on the other side of the phone is very nice.

Soft, delicate and polite!

Just by listening to the voice, it is hard to imagine that she is a foreign student who has just returned from the Bald Eagle.

Rebellious, unassuming, and yearning for freedom!

The free breath of "Never want to control me"...

None of these can be seen in her, but rather quiet and elegant.

Light blue T-shirt, white jeans, long hair fluttering.

The sense of sight of the academic goddess is oncoming...

"Hello, Watson?"

"Yes, it's me."

Watson got up and smiled, and Qin Yu's unpretentious attitude changed her first impression of her.

Quiet and elegant, this kind of personality is not suitable for managers.

The position is the secretary, but in many cases the other party needs to represent him, and a tough attitude is necessary.

How can a weak, introverted person be tough?

"Yuanyuan told me, do you want to find a secretary?" Watson spoke first, and looked at him with curious questions.

Very handsome, no, I should say handsome!

Simply handsome is not enough to describe him. The hair is messy and broken, and it is very clean.

Tall, at least 185cm, tall and tall!

Judging from the tightness of the shoulders when sitting down, there should be regular exercise.

Donkey brand T-shirt, Gucci cropped trousers, the price is less than 20,000.

Armani's latest spring sports shoes, 60,000 yuan.

Watches, the king of Patek Philippe, tens of millions...

So, this is a top rich second generation?

Jing Yuan only said that she wanted to introduce her to a job with top remuneration. She said she was a secretary, and her authority was more like a vice president...

In addition, Watson didn't know more about her than Qin Yu knew about her.

"Yes, I am mainly responsible for communication with several companies under my name, looking at documents, making phone calls... occasionally there will be some commercial activities!"

"Can I ask a few?" Watson asked.

"There are currently four companies involved in the fields of finance, energy, semiconductors and medicine.

Soon I will set up the parent company of the group to integrate the business..."

To clarify the current situation of several companies, Watson's brain is obviously not enough.

"Wait, you mean you established all of these in less than a year?"

After thinking about it, Qin Yu responded: "To be exact, it is 11 months."

"..." Watson didn't know what to say about it, but she realized it was an opportunity.

"I want to know the specific salary!" Listening to her saying this, you know that she has agreed in her heart.

Just joined the company with a monthly salary of 20,000 yuan, five insurances and one housing fund, and a year-end bonus!

"Where is the work place?" Watson said.

"It's here." Qin Yu was referring to the abandoned city.

"...When will you start?"

After Watson expressed his willingness to join, Qin Yu had to remind her that he had not yet understood her information.

"Sorry, I forgot I haven't introduced myself..."

Graduated from the Wharton School of Business, and interned on Wall Street for half a year after graduation, and participated in two small business mergers and acquisitions.

He understands four languages and has a master's degree in psychology and sociology.

???

Why are such talents willing to be secretaries?

Brother Yu has always been very confident, but still doesn't feel that he is relying on the achievements he has now.

It is possible for a beauty student like Watson with a three-degree doctoral and master's degree to condescend to be his own personal secretary.

"Of course, my goal is not just a secretary. From what you said, your company does not currently have a stable management.

To put it bluntly, it's a start-up team, and it's not even formal. I think this is an opportunity! "

"What opportunity?" Qin Yu asked back.

"President, the parent company of your planned group needs a helm with professional knowledge and capabilities."

Watson's introverted arrogance and self-confidence were fully displayed on her smiling face at this time.

Qin Yu looked at her with interest: "You think you can."

"Yes, no one is more suitable than me." Watson said as expected: "Of course, this will have to wait for you to see my ability to work."

"If you can find a better candidate after the company is established, I don't mind continuing to serve as a secretary."

Watson admitted that he was a little conceited, UU reading www. uukanshu.com but she has the ability and capital to be arrogant.

She didn't think Qin Yu could find someone more suitable than herself.

Even if you find it, it doesn't matter. You have to know that in Xia Guo's workplace culture, sometimes the secretary has more power than the president...

Fox fake tiger prestige, five-rank official in front of the prime minister.

These allusions tell us that sometimes what you do is not important, but it is important to talents.

And Watson... is very optimistic about Qin Yu's future.

After hearing that his company has Kuafu, Loongson, and Lixin Investment, this optimism has become a firm belief!

Watson is not unfamiliar with this name that has been frequently searched for in the past year.

In fact, Qin Yu's appearance was definitely a surprise to her!

Who would have thought that what a friend would introduce for herself was the target she was considering and ready to take the initiative to contact.

Chapter 479: Get off the horse

"Qiqi, this is Watson, my secretary, you first take her to go through the entry formalities!"

After talking about the details, Qin Yu took Watson straight to Lixin, and neither of them was a mess.

"Okay, here..." Zhang Qiqi's mentality is very righteous.

Since being enlightened by Qin Yu last time, she has understood her position.

Zhang Qili, the company's top data analyst, should not provoke either.

Hong Zhongcai, the chief butler of the company, if you want to gain a foothold in Lixin and do everything with less effort, it is best to be kind to him.

The good news is that Hong Zhong is a good old man.

He rarely smiles at anyone when he loses his temper.

However, this kind of person is likely to be the most dangerous.

As for the others, there is nothing to pay special attention to.

Except for Zhang Qiqi who just mentioned the 'financial director,' that's the boss of the company.

If possible, Watson doesn't want to have any communication with her!

However, she had to take the knife at this point.

It was too unprofessional from Watson's point of view to let his girlfriend be the financial director.

"BOSS, I want to talk to you... alone." Watson instantly changed his role from a returning elite to a full-time secretary.

Special reminder: qualified...

Whether it is appearance, figure, academic qualifications, or knowledge related to levels and abilities, they are all professional.

"Qiqi, let us be alone." When Zhang Qiqi was asked to go out, the other party closed the door with a wink.

"BOSS, I will be yours from now on, so I have to make some professional suggestions." Watson sat across the office.

Qin Yu looked at her amused, "But you are just a secretary, and your duty is not to give opinions!"

"My goal is more than that, have you forgotten it?" Watson retorted with a smile: "I said before I came here."

"Well, if you have any comments, I will listen to you!" Qin Yu dialed his earlobe, indicating that he was listening.

"Chief Financial Officer!" Watson did not detour, and pointed out the drawbacks of this appointment.

You must know that feelings are the most uncontrollable in the world. Let a woman who has emotional entanglements with her own the financial power of the company.

No matter from which point of view, Watson would not recommend him to do so.

"You don't trust outsiders to do it. I agree with this point. Money is touching. If you don't take precautions, it is difficult to guarantee that someone can resist the temptation of tens or tens of billions!

But you shouldn't give all rights to one person, especially a woman who has feelings with you. "

"She can be supervised, but the specific financial expenditure should be left to others."

"For example?" Qin Yu said.

"Professional accounting team." Watson said with a serious face: "Lixin's achievements are outstanding. I have heard about this before coming."

"But..." Watson glanced at him with a weird expression, and stopped talking.

"If there is anything you can say directly." Qin Yu is naturally a person who can listen to suggestions.

As for those who can't listen, it's fine to solve those who made 'suggestion'.

"But the management structure of the entire company seems to me like a small workshop on the street, chaos, Hao Wu rules and regulations.

It's just that the boss gives you an order, and whoever belongs to this job. If the person is not there, whoever is there will do it..."

Seeing that the boss's face was a little gloomy, Watson stopped, wondering if he had just come up, and his words were a bit heavy.

You should wait for a while before you point out these problems.

She felt a little regretful in her heart, but she was still too young and was too sloppy in doing things.

However, she didn't worry that Qin Yu would fire herself.

If he really did that, Watson would only feel that he had misunderstood his potential and future.

Qin Yu didn't know what her inner Xiao Jiujiu suggested to her.

There is no feeling of shame in my heart, but the joy of 'picking up treasure'.

The stalls are getting bigger and bigger, and Qin Yu is now the time to be thirsty for talents.

Just being a Lixin and Kuafu has forced him to spare precious time to travel back and forth in various official duties.

If it waits for the three companies of Loongson, Yuanguang and Miracle Pharmaceuticals, all of them will be officially put into operation.

Doesn't he have to be as busy as a top, he can't keep up with his foot on the hot wheel!

But his mind will naturally not be revealed easily.

As soon as Watson joined the company, he directly pointed out all the shortcomings of the company, and his tone was even more proud.

This problem can't be used to her, want new officials to take office three fires? ? ?

It's better for you to hold back the fire by yourself, and talk about this issue when you can really take office.

Now, you are just a little secret.

"Wa Sen..." Staring at Hua Sen who was a little worried, Qin Yu said calmly: "You should do your own job first. I want to arrange the schedule for the next week. You can ask Qiqi for help."

"Okay, boss." Watson stood up immediately, no longer as easy as before.

Maybe she didn't even realize that when facing Qin Yu alone, she was under tremendous pressure in her heart.

In fact, she was afraid of the boss who was a few years younger than herself! !

Chapter 480: Big enough, enough flash is enough

Five days later, Lixin invested.

Zhang Qiqi pressed the switch and opened the electronic door: "Hello Director Lu."

"Hello, Director." An Xue smiled and nodded in greeting.

"Hello." Lu Qing raised his hand and smiled and asked, "Is President Qin there?"

When in front of other employees, she will be commensurate with her position.

"Yes, he is having a meeting in the conference room." Zhang Qiqi pointed towards the conference room, and then said: "Should I take you to his office first?"

"No need, I can find it myself." Lu Qing motioned to her to be busy with her, turned and walked towards the end of the corridor.

Zhang Qiqi's expression was a little weird, and she whispered: "You said the lady boss would behave when she saw her?"

An Xue touched her with her foot and frowned, "Sister Qiqi, it's better not to talk about this kind of gossip."

"...Also, let's not say it." Zhang Qiqi quickly ended the topic and sat down again and looked at the book in her hand.

She has become a little addicted to reading recently, and the ocean of knowledge turned out to be so interesting.

These case studies, every change affects her heart, lifelike, like personal experience.

Full of excitement!

...

...

CEO's office.

Across the door, Lu Qing stopped and looked at the secretary who didn't exist a week ago.

The black hair is jet black and shiny, and the skin is firm and delicate.

Peach blossom eyes, willow eyebrows...

This combination is simply a combination that women love and hate the most!

Love it for growing on yourself, hate it for growing on others...especially women.

Sexy tall nose, smiling lips.

'Damn it. Just seeing this face, Lu Qing has already found several places from above that he needs to be vigilant.

This is a charming woman, and she is now her boyfriend's secretary!

"Director Lu, Director?" Seeing that Lu Qing had been staring at him in a daze, Watson's expression was full of doubts.

It's like saying, 'what is she looking at, is there anything wrong?'

In fact, the pride in her heart is about to overflow her body.

Being able to be regarded as a threat by a good woman, Watson has reasons to be proud.

Yes, she saw threats in Lu Qing's eyes.

"Yeah!" Lu Qinghuangshen replied: "It's okay, keep busy with you."

Without waiting for Watson to respond, people have already walked into the office.

Sitting in the position that belonged to Qin Yu, her eyes were still locked on Hua Sen.

Until Qin Yu walked into the office with a smile and kindly greeted Watson...

"When did you arrive, why didn't you let me know?"

Seeing Lu Qing, Qin Yu was a little surprised, but his behavior was normal.

He knew that outside his door, right now, there was a beautiful secretary who could make any woman feel threatened.

He also knew that Lu Qing had countless questions, even questions!

But he would never take the initiative to touch this topic, not at all.

Because he was only working, there was only one reason for looking for Watson, and he valued her ability.

The rest... ask is professional!

"I just happened to be passing by, come up and have a look." Lu Qing's tone hesitated.

She was hesitating if she wanted to ask Qin Yu what was going on with Watson outside.

But this reason is not easy to find, so she chooses the euphemistic way: "When did you think of looking for a secretary?"

"Last week!" Qin Yu said with a normal expression: "There are more and more work, and I can't be too busy alone. Just when someone recommended a suitable candidate to me, I went to meet."

"Then it will be?" Lu Qing asked curiously.

"Yes, I didn't expect it either." Qin Yu pointed out with a pen hand, and smiled: "Graduated from Wharton School of Business, he participated in two small mergers and acquisitions during his internship on Wall Street."

Finding her expression with a look of disapproval, Qin Yu continued: "Don't underestimate it, the main market value involved in these two small cases is as high as tens of billions, but the problem is not that complicated!"

"She also has a master's degree in psychology and social economics." Qin Yu specifically emphasized 'social economics.'

What is social economics, it's very simple!

Every day in front of the computer, thinking about how to turn consumers' money into their own boss's money, and how to stimulate them to consume their own products, is the social economist.

Their only job is to stimulate consumers' sex, and come up with various ways to ensure this.

Big promotions, memberships, all kinds of bundled consumption, and early consumption ideas are all made by these people.

What they think in their heads every day is how to make everyone spend money, spend money, spend money...

However, it is precisely because of this group of people that people can enjoy the pleasure of taking advantage when they spend money.

Although they don't know it, it is this kind of pleasure that makes consumption addictive and empties their wallets unknowingly.

In fact, even knowing it seems to be nothing.

In this age where the rhythm of life is like rock drums, who can refuse happiness?

"She is really beautiful." Lu Qing stared at Qin Yu in a weird tone, wanting to see any of his reactions.

"Yes, it's quite beautiful. It can be said that beauty and talent coexist." Qin Yu didn't deny it at all, but gave higher praise.

Seeing him so calm, Lu Qing forced himself to let go of his worries.

Yes, Lu Qing did not believe that he was really disinterested in Watson, so he was able to act so calmly.

But Qin Yu's performance prevented her from asking any more questions.

Otherwise, the problem will become that she is making troubles unreasonably.

Sometimes Lu Qing would think, if Qin Yu is not as good as he is now.

But she quickly put the idea behind her.

Because, if he is not like this, like a firefly under the night, attracting many eyes.

Maybe I will not love him wholeheartedly like I am now!

"By the way, you said you need an accessory to match your evening dress." Qin Yu lowered his head and took out a brand new gift box from the cabinet.

"It's that black evening dress, right?" Qin Yu pushed the gift box towards him.

"Thank you." Lu Qing happily took out the gift box from the bag, and curiously asked, "What's inside?"

"For your gift, I know that I am busy sometimes and forget many holidays." Qin Yu pointed to the box she was opening: "So, take this as compensation."

Lu Qing said jokingly: "In this case, a gift is not enough to make up for, unless it is unique."

"Yes, it is unique." When Qin Yu finished speaking, Lu Qing just opened the lid of the gift box.

Then, she couldn't look away from the glittering colored diamonds.

"It's so beautiful." Lu Qing murmured obsessively and stretched out his hand, wanting to touch the priceless Chopin 210k in the box.

She moved so carefully, when she was about to touch her, she suddenly retracted her hand.

It's like being afraid that if you are not careful, you will damage this small "Golden Mountain." '

Although it is not clear about its actual value, Lu Qing can guess that its price must be scary.

"Tell me, how much did you spend on this?" Lu Qing stuck his face in front of the diamond watch, wanting to observe this priceless piece of art from every angle.

It doesn't matter whether the art is artistic or not, as long as the diamond is big enough and dazzling enough, the dazzling blind one can't be better.

And the diamond on the 'watch' in front of you can blind anyone's eyes.

"One hundred and ninety-eight million, if you are concerned for these two days... wait, what are you going to do..."

"Don't be here..."

"hiss..."

Brother Yu now only wants to give his own office, UU reading www.uukanshu.com according to a fully automated system.

Do women understand that as long as they bite the key, all resistance will turn into impulse? ? ?

...

...

The soundproofing effect of the office is not very good. After hearing the sound of splashing behind, Watson, as a qualified secretary, knew what to do.

Get out of the compartment, close the outermost door, and lock the door with the key, making sure that it can only be opened from the inside.

Watson decided to take a short vacation and go to the pantry for a cup of coffee!

Maybe, I can hear some new gossip anecdotes.

10 minutes should be enough for them to solve the problem...
