Chapter 771: Life is alive, but ask for a clear conscience

"Speaking of this, have you ever been in contact with the opposite * in the game?" Zhang Yue's expression suddenly became mysterious.

Seeing his sneaky look, Qin Yu remembered Zhang Yue's famous scene again.

Waved, "Change another batch!"

"No." Zhang Fang and Liang Guiqi shook their heads at the same time.

Seeing the two people answered so decisively, Zhang Yue shook his head with a sense of excitement.

"Brother, what are your developments, talk about it!" At this moment, Cui Jun is not sleepy anymore.

I pestered Zhang Yue to ask what exactly happened to him in the game.

Seeing someone supporting him, Zhang Yue went downhill with a donkey and raised his head triumphantly and said, "I almost got married in the game. Who can think of it?"

"Fuck, are you so embarrassed?" Liang Guiqi was shocked and opened his mouth.

Snapped!

With a heavy note on the back of the head, the happy little uncle made a calm face and grinned: "Who are you talking to, do you understand the rules?"

Liang Guiqi rubbed the aching back of his head and sat down without saying a word.

He was still quite scared of his brother-in-law.

His face sank, and the boy's detached character would have to shut down obediently.

Seeing that he didn't say anything, a few men yelled for him to drink again, "For those of you who are celebrating the New Year, what else will you say after the New Year? Drink and drink!"

After yelling, my little uncle mumbled again, "Nothing big or small," which was considered to have wiped out the matter.

Only Liang Guiqi was there with her head down, tears shining in her aggrieved eyes.

He didn't have that kind of strong character, he was just cheerful and outgoing.

This was a momentary error in the New Year, which made Lao Tzu take a kick, feeling uneasy in his heart.

"Okay, take your tears away, what a big person." Qin Yu threw the towel beside him.

"In the future, you will be divided into occasions, and you will also be handing you rules."

Liang Guiqi wiped the tears that were about to well out of the corner of his eyes, and muttered unconvincedly: "He can only say that, others say it won't work, and I'm not a kid anymore."

"Then you are a child when you are in front of him." Zhang Fang stretched out his hand and rubbed his head.

Let Liang Guiqi, who felt embarrassed, hide, "Sister, I am not a little pumpkin."

"What's wrong with Little Pumpkin?" Zhang Fang pointed at him and said with a smile, "Much more cute than you."

"Cut, when I was a kid, I designated it to be cuter than him." Liang Guiqi said unconvinced.

"Who said that you were not as cute as him when you were a kid, don't forget that I took you with you." Zhang Fang retorted.

She is 8 years older than Qin Yu and 10 years older than Liang Guiqi, and she took them one by one when she was a child.

"Eh eh." Zhang Yue raised his hand and waved, and interrupted: "Do you want to listen to it?"

Thinking of what he just said, he almost got married in the game, everyone nodded in unison: "Say quickly."

It stands to reason that when I first entered the game, I went to the wilderness to pick up * just like everyone else.

Good luck can directly join a mature team. Bad luck is nothing more than waiting for a while and dying several times.

But he was good. He just rushed into the wilderness by himself because he was not afraid of death as a player.

"At the time, I felt that it was not as cost-effective as the team that came by myself. Whatever I picked up was my own, so why should I give it to others.

Anyway, I can't die anyway, just try a few more times, be careful and it's over. "

What Zhang Yue said was right, and many lone rangers did have the same choices as him.

Moreover, there are really good mixes.

With his own good luck and strength, he raised a small organization and lived a lively life.

It's just that the Church of Miracle Science was all destroyed some time ago.

The immortal ones are now living under the jurisdiction of the Church of Miracle Science.

The team can continue to survive, but it must follow the church's rules and the benefits must be turned in 2/10.

Compared with the overlord-level forces in other regions, the proportion of the demands of the Church of Miracle Science is quite benevolent.

Correspondingly, anyone who wants to be greedy for ink even this 2/10.

Will be destroyed by thunder means, even players are no exception.

When entering the game before, Qin Yu accidentally heard that someone was forming a group to guard the birthplace (resurrection point).

We must squat those unruly "celestial ones" inside, let them know the fate of provoke the church.

The cruel tone really made the listener cry and the listener sad!

This is too...

Huh?

The property of the Church of Miracle Science = own property.

Therefore, pitting the church = pitting yourself.

...Good job!

At that time, Brother Yu encouraged them as the chairman, "Don't be kind to them because of the identity of the beloved.

It is to let them know that the authority of the Church of Miracle Science cannot be violated, until he kneels and begs for mercy to make up for the loss! "

How much this loss is, it must be calculated in terms of time.

Bank interest rates do not depend on the length of time, the longer the delay, the higher the interest rate.

If you exceed the limit of patience, you can't know about lost work expenses, mental damage expenses, and late payment fees?

Of course, you can also choose not to play.

Brother Yu really doesn't worry about no one in "Ghost", anyone who has really experienced this game world.

Only then will I understand how deadly its temptation to humans is.

It can be said that being there is equivalent to having a second life.

Even in the eyes of many people, "The Scary Demon" is the real world they should exist in.

Reality has become no longer important!

This situation has caused some worries among traffic scientists.

What addictiveness, harm to reality, etc.

The messy remarks have long been arguing on the Internet.

However, with the acquiescence of the imperial court, Marvel Network Technology has not suffered any interruption so far.

On the contrary, it is a green light all the way, what you want, what you want, full support!

The key point here is partly because of the miracle company, but the bigger factor is that the court has received tangible benefits.

There are 23 technologies that have been documented by Beasts alone.

All of these were extracted by the imperial court from "The Scary Demon" and put into research.

Closer to home, Zhang Yue went to the wilderness alone.

But at that time, "Ghost" was not perfect, and there were no maps and other services.

He was alone and soon lost his way.

Before finding a suitable ruin, he was the first to encounter a group of small inferior monsters.

A new white board encountered a group of inferior monsters.

The consequence is naturally to be killed in seconds!

But at this moment, a group of people dressed like beggars suddenly appeared, rushing away the inferior monsters and saving him.

When it was a safe place, Zhang Yue wanted to thank him, only to realize that the leader of the other party was a woman.

Five big and three thick, the waist is as good as three ordinary people...

In the words of Zhang Yue: "At that time, I thought I saw Maitreya Buddha."

In short, it is such a woman who is inexplicably attracted to him.

"The blessed one who dares to venture out alone, you are the first one. I like a man with a kind."

The other party just declared sovereignty over Zhang Yue, and logically brought him by his side.

Although he was a little reluctant at first, Zhang Yue soon discovered that the team led by the opponent was very strong.

Not only can safely pass through the wilderness, find the ruins in stock.

And it has the ability to fight against inferior monsters and even kill...

They also have several mobile bases, which are mobile base vehicles made up of trash picked up.

Therefore, Zhang Yue joined the team with such "reluctance".

Became the fiancé of the leader of the "Buddha Maitreya"!

When I heard this, Brother Yu had already given a thumbs up.

He didn't want it either, but his thumb didn't listen to him at all, and it bounced out.

Before the brain circuit can react, do it in advance!

Zhang Fang nodded frequently, looking at his brother with a weird expression.

She suddenly discovered that she didn't seem to understand the virtues of her brother before.

It turns out that he is still a man who can bend and stretch.

Cui Jun was full of admiration, and said, "Brother, it's really a real man."

According to him, the woman must have at least three to five hundred catties.

This can also yield. What else can he say except for a big man?

"Eh eh eh, don't look at me that way, I didn't do anything." Seeing that everyone's eyes were wrong, Zhang Yue quickly waved his hands to explain.

"I just went around with their team, and finally found a chance to leave." Zhang Yue summed up his game experience in a simple tone.

Now he has joined a small adventurous group, where he serves as an assaulter.

Who made him use cold weapons, and he was not afraid of death.

However, the advantage of this is that more supplies can be allocated each time.

The small team that Zhang Yue joined all distributes materials according to their contributions.

If you take a lot of risks and contribute more, you will naturally take more.

Except for some black-eating teams, UU reading www.uukanshu.com can only admit to being unlucky when encountering such a situation.

Because anyone who dared to pit the "favored of heaven" was either powerful, or disappeared after grabbing a vote.

The wilderness is so big, wanting to find a dozen people in today's environment is tantamount to finding a needle in a haystack.

Let alone a player, it is not easy for a large organization like the Church of Marvel Science.

"Finally! What happened to the team?" Zhang Fang was a little curious about the Maitreya Buddha.

"People took you to upgrade, gave you weapons, and took care of your safety. You just slipped like this. Isn't it not very authentic?"

Zhang Yue was not happy to hear that, "I earned it with my own life. How many times the team encountered danger, but I took the initiative to expose and lead away."

"Then this is an equivalent exchange. The other party takes care of my brother, and my brother pays it with his life, but it's all paid off." Cui Jun stood by Zhang Yue.

"Gui Qi, what do you think?" Zhang Fang looked at Liang Guiqi.

"I think everything is good, the game is good! Whatever you do so seriously, of course, is the first to profit." Liang Guiqi shrugged casually.

Afterwards, Zhang Fang looked at Qin Yu and asked if he had a point: "What about you! Xiaoyu, I also feel that NPC doesn't matter, as long as he is good for it?"

This is how it sounds like a detective.

So what did Zhang Fang find?

This is also possible. Among the siblings, she is the eldest, and she has been a bully since she was a child.

Although he is a bit careless in character, he looks like a boy.

But the meticulousness and sixth sense that girls should have, there is nothing less...

"It doesn't matter what I think, what matters is what I think." Qin Yu responded with a smile: "Life is alive, but I have a clear conscience!"

Chapter 772: That snow, soft and white

Although there were some small episodes, Qin Yu brought the topic to the point of having a clear conscience.

The family gathering ended successfully, and the overall atmosphere was joyous and impressive.

Before leaving, Qin Yu promised to give Zhang Fang brothers and sisters and Liang Guiqi a game pod.

After learning about its price, I originally yelled, "Plaything is disheartening, what's so fun about the game..."

"There are so many things in the house that I can't put down your rubbish" Liang Chuhong changed his words on the spot: "Since it was given by Xiaoyu, it must be included."

"Identity information has been bound." Qin Yu finished, closing the door and backing to wave goodbye.

This was for Zhang Fang and Zhang Yue, as well as the aunt.

As for what it means, they have their brothers and sisters to explain.

If there is no such digression...

Qin Yu suspected that he would be able to see the news of two brand new game pods on the second-hand trading network when he looked back.

When sending Auntie and Cui Jun, Qin Yu didn't send anything, but just said: "What brother said counts!"

As long as he can get an ideal result this time, he will stop in front of his house the next day.

Whether it can be opened depends on the meaning of the aunt and the uncle.

Brother Yu is responsible for providing the prizes, and the right to use it depends on the guardian.

In addition, he has to wait for the holiday to get his driver's license test!

When the car left, Qin Yu held the little pumpkin and walked home with Master Mother.

Liang Chuyu suddenly asked, "Do you really plan to buy him a car?"

"What you promised can't be said without faith." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

"I think you have considered this matter carefully. He doesn't even have a driver's license.

Besides being admitted to college, it is impossible to let him drive to school.

Every day I'm driving and playing handsome, falling in love, so I don't want to study. "

This result has plummeted, and you will be kind enough to do bad things by then.

Qin Yu understood the subtext of Master Mother, frowned, and said that it was really possible!

If he was admitted to Hudu, he would still be able to keep an eye on it.

If you go to other places, you have a little money and a supercar.

He is also a good boy who has no face and has never seen Huahua World. This is not a typical fat sheep.

Just waiting for the colorful world outside to dye him colorfully.

"Why don't you cash it in directly and save it for him as a venture fund?"

As soon as Qin Yu's mind turned, he had an idea in his heart.

Set up a regular period, or directly make a personal fund, and save it for him.

When he graduated from university, did he want to buy a car, buy a house, or start a business.

It's up to him to decide, and then he should mature and have his own ideas.

"This is good." Liang Chuyu nodded in recognition, then turned to ask: "What about Gui Qi?"

Qin Yu said: "His camera is not cheap. This is an agreement with them in advance."

Liang Chuyu knows this is the truth, but there are some things that can't be done only by reason.

"Then you'd better not let other people know." After taking the sleepy little pumpkin, the two also went to the living room.

Snoring, snoring~

Comrade Qin was already asleep on the sofa, snoring loudly.

"I'll take him to the room." Qin Yu shook his head amusedly, rolled up his sleeves and was ready to get started.

"No need to."

Liang Chuyu cast his eyes lightly and said, "Just let him sleep here, the sofa is soft and comfortable!"

I looked at Old Comrade Qin who was snoring like thunder, and then at the cold-faced Master Mother.

Brother Yu decided to retreat first, don't be accidentally hurt again, slipped away...

Back in the room, Brother Yu lay comfortably on the bed and took out the phone, ready to brush the notes.

Suddenly remembered today, a bit addictive!

Slide your finger on the back, the screen unlocks the bright light, and the differential minute is 99+

When I opened it, it was all kinds of messages sent by Miss Sister.

Some just ignore it, some can't help but return.

Like the four fairies, stars, Yueyue, Xuanxuan, Shanshan...

Even the prince Lu Qing, this can't be ignored.

Ye Jinlan, Yan Xue, Sha Man, Talisa, Ye Zhiqiu, Song Yuqiao, Jia Jingsi, and Dr. Zhu Ying.

Zhou Xue, Ya Lan, Rice, Jin Xi, Anadi, Song Tie...

Wait, Sister Yalan?

Click on the message: "Qin Yu, happy new year... brother, happy new year."

"When will you take Tongtong to play? Tongtong misses you." Ya Lan.

Hearing Tongtong's voice, my grandfather showed his aunt's smile.

I looked at the time, 21:13.

Qin Yu presses the voice button: "Brother will go back in a few days, and I will find Tongtong, okay?"

call out!

Sent successfully.

Qin Yu continued to decline, and soon saw news of his cousin.

Zhang Fang: "Thank you, Xiaoyu."

I just sent it over, and it seems that things are left behind.

Qin Yu returned with a smiling face, and the new news of Yalan came in again.

"Xiaoyu, it's me, Tongtong is already asleep." Ya Lan.

Qin Yu thought about it, and clicked the video send button: beep, beep...

Ya Lan, who was working overtime in the living room to fetch files, suddenly appeared panicked.

Looking down at the thin silk pajamas, he got up and wanted to find a coat to put on.

But before he stood up, he sat down again.

After straightening the neckline and making the clothes fit, Yalan pressed the answer button.

The picture is presented, and Yalan's familiar face appears in the lens: "Xiaoyu."

"Sister Yalan, why haven't you rested yet?" Qin Yu asked with a mobile phone with one hand resting on the back of his head.

"Are you rushing to work, are you at home?" Yalan said.

"Yes, in my room." The camera flipped and scanned the room roughly.

Alone, in the room.

Coming to this conclusion, Yalan zoomed out the camera lens of the phone that had been standing in front of him.

Lean over and jam the phone on the three-dimensional bracket.

Opposite Qin Yu was introducing the voice of his room, and stopped suddenly!

The air-conditioning cold air pouring into the neckline made Yalan realize what was happening.

In fact, this is exactly the effect she wants to create subjectively.

But on the surface, Yalan sat back on the ground like she didn't know anything, and asked curiously: "What's the matter?"

"Gudong, it's okay." Qin Yu was serious.

Turning the conversation, he suddenly said: "It's a big winter, and I don't see snow outside. I remember that when I was a child, when the New Year came, the snowflakes kept falling.

When I opened the door in the morning, the outside was covered with white flowers, which could be buried in my knees.

The children can jump in and roll, grabbing with their hands, the snow is soft and soft, and it is quite springy when it is pinched into a snowball. "

"Yeah." Yalan inadvertently lifted the scattered hair sideburns, her neck turned burgundy red.

Why did this air conditioner suddenly become hot? 24 degrees is not cool at all.

"The air conditioner seems to be broken, I'll turn it down." Ya Lan stood up slowly while supporting the coffee table with her hands.

Qin Yu remembered the scene of building a snowman when he was a child and rubbing his head.

It's big, round, and white, and the needle doesn't poke!

Find the remote control and directly adjust the temperature in the living room to 18 degrees. Then Yalan feels cool again.

This bad ruffian really didn't feel at ease with himself.

Thinking of his previous metaphor, Yalan's mouth showed a touch of joy that she hadn't even noticed.

Returning to the coffee table, sitting cross-legged, Yalan straightened her back and lifted Tongtong with him.

The little guy clamored to find his brother whenever he was free, and wanted to go to the playground with him.

Last time I asked if my brother had forgotten him.

"How come, I have been too busy these days." He was really busy in the past six months.

It's not a discount at all. Not only did I just brush the notes, I found a lot of new faces.

I'm waiting for my eldest brother to claim it, so I love it very much.

Half a year ago, this game is tired of it!

And the copywriting recently, how can I say...

If you ask for the address, you won't come. If you are single, don't you dare?

Where do you put your face to make people so embarrassed?

Brother Yu decided to speak out for the male compatriots of Everbright. Tomorrow, I will choose a few and come to teach her to be good!

Otherwise, she thought that the guns came through the screen...

"What are you thinking?" Ya Lan was a little angry when Qin Yu was distracted.

I'm like this... this way...

How can he be distracted?

Looking down, Yalan raised her head again, as if she was saying: "Look, do you think I am fierce?"

⊙V⊙

So fierce~

Brother Yu moved the screen closer, and wanted to look more carefully.

Across the camera, Yalan's breathing became hot and hot...

Ringling~

At this moment, the call came in suddenly.

Take a look, Doctor's.

"I have to answer the phone, and I will go to Shanghai in a few days. I will find you... and Tongtong." Qin Yu stumbled and finally did not forget the master.

Go to Sister Yalan, it must be to play with Tongtong.

Otherwise, what could be the reason?

Warm-hearted elder brother, what can be wicked?

"Okay, I... let Tongtong wait for you." Yalan gasped and hung up the video quickly.

When the screen bounced back to the chat box, he took a strong breath, raising his hand and fanning his face.

The corner of his mouth raised a smile of joy from the heart.

"Hey, Doctor!" He got on the phone, and couldn't hear the loud voices on the other side.

After waiting for a while, the voice gradually faded away before Qin Yu heard the doctor's voice.

The two of them just finished playing at the bar, ready to go for a supper!

Ask him if he is busy at home if he wants to have two drinks together.

"Is there a girl?" Qin Yu said that he had gotten out of bed and went out. UU Read www.uukanshu.com followed up and said: "Forget it, your younger sister can't look down on it!"

"Brother Yu, don't bring such a disgusting person." The doctor scolded with a smile: "We ordinary people, the vision is not that high..."

"Your vision is purely a matter of vision, brother seriously doubts your aesthetics!" He opened the door a crack to see that there was no movement outside.

Presumably parents are already asleep, Qin Yu closed the door, asked for the address and hung up.

Then he rubbed his hands and feet and opened the door again.

Since it was going to drink and the family was asleep, Qin Yu didn't drive.

Stopped a taxi and asked the other person to take it to the agreed barbecue place.

When he arrived, Gao Bo and Tang He were eating edamame and peanuts, and they were talking and chatting while waiting!

"Brother Yu, this~" Tang He who saw him stood up and waved.

Qin Yu grabbed the stool and sent it between his legs, looking around before his buttocks touched the stool, "Where's my sister?"

"Sister, what kind of girl, just three of us brothers, drinking, drinking, and talking." Gao He grinned and scolded: "Brother Yu, are you on your mind?"

"I was brutalized just now, it's a bit hot!"

Qin Yu fanned the wind with her hand, and the moment she lowered her head, she silently said sorry to Xiaoyu, "I'm wronged my child."

Seeing that there was a good cold beer on the table, I grabbed a bottle of "Gudongdong" and dried it first.

Seeing that the two looked at him with surprise, Qin Yu put down the empty wine bottle and smiled: "Thirsty, moisturize your throat!"

"Yeah." Gao Bo nodded, tilted his head and said to Gao He: "It's still that way, everyone has learned what they are."

"there is..."

"Ahhh~~~"

A harsh scream came from the side of the street, arousing the curiosity of the two passers-by, neatly turning their heads and looking in the direction of the sound.

Chapter 776 Ex-boyfriend

"Ah~ah~~" The heart-piercing cry was a deep fear.

A girl is being caught by a man's neck, pushing frantically into a white car.

The fierce action and momentum, it looks like there is a different hatred of Dai Tian!

Oh roar~

In broad daylight, kidnapping on the street?

No, it seems it's late at night...

Gao Bo slammed the table to his feet and ran over in stride.

Qin Yu and Gao He followed closely, and more young diners flocked to them.

"What are you doing? Let it go!" A group of menacing men stunned the fierce man on the spot.

Retracted the girl's hand, and didn't let it go.

Wearing a white skirt, the girl who looked gentle and quiet took the opportunity to escape from the control of the man, hiding behind Qin Yu with a face full of horror.

This is purely an instinctive reaction, and everyone on the scene is shirtless and blushing with thick necks.

Only Qin Yu, who is wearing a jacket, looks like Gu Jing not waved, like a good person.

The man in the northwest is already rough!

The weather has turned hot in the past two days. When I drink at night, my whole body becomes more sultry, and I open my * when I drink.

is normal!

Even in such a dangerous situation, appearance is an advantage that cannot be ignored.

Handsome=Good people=Enthusiastic=No problem!

"What do you do?" Everyone's attention is still on the man who was going to tie people before.

Naked to the upper body, jumped out of the car to tie the girl to the car.

The scared girl's shoes are all flying, and the crying makeup is spent...

Long brother is now under the overpass to fill the soles of the shoes, buddy, why are you so arrogant?

"My boyfriend, who are you!" the man yelled sternly.

"I'm so on the road to see the uneven passerby." The man with two big arms stood forward and looked at each other fiercely.

Gao Bo also took two steps forward, looked back at the girl and asked, "Is he your boyfriend?"

"No, ex-boyfriend, woo...I have broken up with him, but he is unwilling, willing to... threaten me..."

The girl was crying, she looked at the man with a look of fear, and quickly retracted her head behind Qin Yu.

This.....

Gao Bo is depressed, he takes care of the matter by himself, and he is the first to jump out.

When the girl escaped, she stretched out her hand, which is considered to be saved by herself.

How did Brother Yu get the benefits?

Is there anything wrong with this world...

"Did the girl say it?" wondering, Gao Bo spilled his anger on his ex-boyfriend.

"She said that she would divide the points. Lao Tzu paid so much for her. Why is she, Lao Tzu..." The man shook his arms and pointed at the girl unwillingly.

Gao Bo raised his hand and pressed it down for him: "Don't point me, there is something to say... If she is sorry for you, call the police and file a lawsuit.

It's not difficult if we don't expose her and let her die, since the media is so developed now?

Can't just come up and push people into the car. You are kidnapping, you are going to jail, understand? "

"She dare..."

The ex-boyfriend is like a girl who is going to eat. He didn't dare to resist himself, let alone sue him for kidnapping.

This arrogant face makes Gao Bo look very unhappy.

Slapped his head with a palm, and slapped several slaps on the head, taking pictures of the child back and forth again and again, still saying: "Dare you dare, dare you?"

I'm reasoning with you here, you're scornful with me!

Five big and three thick, the tendon on his arm is thicker than his ex-boyfriend's thigh, Gao Bo, his face sinking full of deterrence.

Don't talk about the bamboo-stick chicks like her ex-boyfriend, you have to weigh the gap between the strengths of the two sides when you change to a reckless man.

After slashing, he took pictures of his ex-boyfriend leaning on the car and didn't dare to scream. Gao Bo turned around and asked, "Why did you break up with him?"

"He, he is violent, and I broke up if I couldn't stand it."

With the support of so many passers-by, and seeing her ex-boyfriend being treated with violence, the girl's emotions are much more stable.

I heard her say that this is not the first time. After the breakup, the boy threatened and harassed her many times.

tried to force her to take her many times, but she escaped in time!

"Are you fierce?" Gao Bo looked back at his ex-boyfriend with a sneer.

The buzzing ex-boyfriend will learn to shut up, give the girl a fierce look, and open the car door to get into the car and leave.

Gao Bo stopped him, "Did you let you go?"

"What do you want to do? Believe me or not?" The ex-boyfriend counseled, still refusing to admit defeat.

These words amused all the citizens present who are righteous and brave!

"Report, report now, come, and give you the phone." Gao Bo put the phone in his hand and pressed the one-key distress button.

Just press the dial key to connect to the patrol room.

"Report, do you want me to report for you?" Gao Bo pointed his finger on the opponent's chest, acting like a villain.

If you don't know, you think it's the evil lesser who is bullying others.

Fortunately, there are enough people around, and you can figure out the situation with a few new sentences.

Look at the girl, then look at the ex-boyfriend...

Immediately choose to stand on the side of justice with a clear-cut stand.

"Qin, someone is shooting." A Qilin's voice suddenly came into my mind.

"Isn't it normal?" Qin Yu didn't take it seriously. Someone must be filming such a big disturbance.

The brave young people around to help, aren't they also making short videos?

Entertainment until you die, don't panic in case of trouble, take a video and post it on Moments, platforms, Weibo, We-media...

Basic exercise, don't 6!

"According to the analysis of the micro-expression theory, I think the other party is not normal!"
Qilin.

As the voice appeared, Qin Yu's sight switched to a third party.

It should be a passerby on the outside, who was sloshing in with his last stubborn footsteps.

Unfortunately, not enough altitude is not enough.

didn't notice at all, his camera was always facing the "passerby." in the crowd in front of him.

Yin's wretched smile, his eyes shone with excitement.

After Kirin zoomed in on the screen of the other party's mobile phone, we could see that Qin Yu was perfectly summarized in the lens.

sometimes nodded, sometimes smiled slyly, just by looking at it, I knew it was not a good thing.

"Kirin, eliminate hidden dangers." Caution is not a big mistake, Qin Yu decided to take a firm hand.

"Understand." Kylin.

is a passerby who is shooting a blockbuster and thinking about how he will be rewarded for it.

Only heard the "cracking" electric current from the phone, and the screen was instantly dark.

Then, an unpleasant burnt smell came.

"Fuck." After hurriedly throwing away the smoking mobile phone in his hand, Passerby jumped back two steps in shock and bumped into the girl behind him.

"Oh, what are you doing, do you have long eyes?" the girl who was stepped on yelled angrily.

"Mobile phone, the phone is smoking." Passerby A pointed to the smoking phone on the ground and continued to back up.

"Fuck, what kind of phone is this going to explode, right?" The girl looked down and stretched out her hand to pull her boyfriend.

It can be a die, but it touches two hands.

Looking back, the girlfriend was pulling her boyfriend and staring at her with embarrassment.

was looking at her boyfriend, shook off their hands in a panic, and looked up as if she didn't know anything.

"You two, when is it special, I # ¥ * & % (#) A good show will be staged again.

The excitement inside and out, and finally ended with the arrival of the police and the family of the "kidnapped" girl!

Although I don't know what the other party said, in the end the two sides chose to reconcile.

After apologizing very unconvincing, the ex-boyfriend had to drive away.

Looking at the expression on his face, it is clear that there is no regret at all!

Gao Bo suddenly walked out of the crowd and shouted at the girl: "Wait."

Seeing him running next to the girl and asking her to input something on her phone, the ex-boyfriend also stopped to see what happened.

"This is my phone number. If you have any trouble, please feel free to call me." Gao Bo said, glancing at his boyfriend with disdain from the corner of his eyes.

"Just like him, let me take ten shots!"

Gaobo's remarks made Capture a little embarrassed, but when nothing happened, he turned his head and looked away.

made it clear that he was saying "Go on, if you can say something, just say a little bit more. As long as you don't take action, I can't hear anything."

"There is still me." Another boy jumped out.

The shirtless shirt has been put on a red jersey, and I can't recognize which one is which in this dress.

There were so many brilliant men just now, who knows which one it is!

"You remember when I called, 15388..."

"Sister."

The fierce eldest brother directly started by himself, took the phone and counted the number and said: "Next time you find a man, you must keep your eyes open. Some people look at people like dogs, but they are actually beasts."

"Domestic violence?"

When Big Brother Flower Arm came out, the eyes of his ex-boyfriend began to dodge from side to side, "I like violent men, let's try next time?"

Snapped!

As soon as he slammed the door, his ex-boyfriend fled in embarrassment under the glare of everyone.

is just the hatred in her eyes when she looked at the girl before she left, which was remembered by Qin Yu, who had been paying attention.

"Okay, it's okay, and they are separated." Watch the parties leave and the mediation is over. The arrests will let everyone leave the scene and don't gather again.

The girl bowed to everyone with tears in her eyes and thanked everyone: "Thank you, thank you everyone, thank you..."

The girl's parents also bowed to everyone, saying "Thank you, thank you everyone, you are all good people."

The crowd gradually dispersed, and the girl who was still in shock was also walking towards the home, accompanied by her family.

"Quick catch, wait." Qin Yu stopped the two police catchers, and didn't know what he said.

After that, he made a few phone calls and asked Capture to answer again.

After finishing all this, the two nodded to Qin Yu and chased in the direction where the girl left.

"Brother Yu, what's the situation?" Gao Bo asked a little puzzled.

Qin Yu shook his head and said, "I hope I think more."

"Walk around, go back for a drink, said that I came to drink, and I haven't seen a drink until now, I..."

Boom, boom!

The violent impact sound came from the intersection where the girl had left the direction, screaming everywhere, and a flying screw flew through the air in front.

Without saying a word, Qin Yu rushed to the intersection where the impact was.

Behind, Gao Bo and Tang He looked at each other, and they both saw the shock in each other's eyes, and then rushed to follow them.

When you come to the intersection, the first thing you see is the police car parked in the middle of the road.

Looking at Qian, the white car of the ex-boyfriend has turned over in the middle of the road.

There are obvious impact and depression marks on the right side door, and the beams and pillars inside are exposed.

Looking to the side of the road, the girl, father and mother were standing on the sidewalk with all faces sluggish.

His expression was full of palpitations and fear, and his body was trembling slightly.

is obviously frightened!!!

Chapter 777 Children's Books...

15 minutes later, the catcher came to control the scene.

The ex-boyfriend who was pulled out of the white car was already wearing silver iron handcuffs.

"This kid is dead." The arrest, who had just come out of the scrapped police car, clutched his head and said to Qin Yu.

"Intentional attempted murder, he will never come out again in this life."

Thinking of the previous experience, I can't help but feel scared.

If he hadn't reacted fast enough, he noticed that the white car was accelerating straight against the crosswalk.

In the instinctive response of saving people, he made him kick the floor oil and knocked the white car away.

This will at least be a major criminal case involving three deaths and N injuries.

Not only the whole place must be alarmed, but even the people above have to focus on this matter.

Personally supervise and focus on!

Boss's boss's boss's boss, also has to be criticized...

At that time, what kind of fruit can the people below them, especially the two of them on the scene?

It's different now, not only there are no accidents.

Instead, it relies on clues provided by "enthusiastic citizens" and its own judgment of form and rich experience.

Stopped a tragedy in time and saved a family.

and avoiding the shock from top to bottom, this year's organization is not mentioned, I am sorry for his courage to decisively step on the accelerator.

"Dong Qin, thank you for reminding me." The arrester who went to bandage the wound is back soon. First of all, I thank Qin Yu.

If it were not for his insistence and revealing his identity, the two of them would have to take such a trip.

Today's tragedy must happen under their noses.

Losing a job at that time is a trivial matter. The whole family lives because of one's negligence.

Gone!

This irreparable guilt and apology will probably torture them for a lifetime.

"Don't thank me, you are the one who saved this family. It is you who should be thanked."

Qin Yu asked about the other party's injury again, and when he learned that there was nothing wrong, he decisively left.

Flick your clothes away, and hide your merits and fame deeply!

It's just that, not long after I left, the pleasant prompt sound echoed in my mind.

"Ding!"

"The host's kindness won the most sincere gratitude from the heart, and the unnamed noble style deeply moved the other party and triggered random rewards!"

"Special Card: Tomorrow and tomorrow, there are so many tomorrows."

Tip 3: This product comes with a tube of (regenerating ointment). If you suffer a skin injury, please apply it externally to achieve the therapeutic effect.

Controllable nuclear fusion engine design drawing. When I saw this reward, Brother Yu was very excited.

The following product details and tips make him unhappy.

Children's books...for children aged 3~6...

Inferior, backward, ignorant...

You are behind, you are inferior, you are stupid, your whole family is #* (R#)$

No matter where the producer of this product comes from, how advanced and powerful the civilization is.

Its owner must be an arrogant bastard.

Forget it, no breath, no breath!

With this blueprint, the possibility of independently building the "Falcon-class battleship" has increased by a few cents.

What, can't understand?

... Doesn't it have audio and video for 3~6 year olds?

Face?

What is a face, compared with this technology, is like a rag that can be thrown away.

Thinking of this, Qin Yu's mood improved again.

Finish the "controllable nuclear fusion engine" to build a powerful space fleet in the lunar ecosystem.

Used to protect one's own space food basket from being stolen by other hegemonic robbers.

This is normal for a farmer who likes to grow vegetables, right?

Return to the barbecue stall, the owner is already closing.

The sky was almost bright when I watched, and I couldn't stand it anymore.

"This way, boss." Qin Yu took out a thousand yuan and put it on the table: "You will get everything, and we will pack three more cases of wine, okay?"

Looking at the thousand yuan on the table, the boss agreed without a word.

The glasses that could not be opened before suddenly became like a copper bell, piercing and shining with golden light...

40 minutes, all skewers and cold dishes are done.

Packed and packed, the three of them each carried a box of wine in their arms, carrying a few dishes in their hands, and walked towards the opposite hotel leisurely.

"Open, entertainment room." Now all mahjong rooms are banned, and hotels are not allowed to bring this.

The three of them couldn't play anymore, so I decided to find an entertainment room.

Playing games, singing K, drinking and drinking, brothers shouting and venting together is also quite good.

The registration is over, take the room card and hold things, all the way to the room.

Open the door and take a look, it's O!

"Buns, make the dishes ready, I'll turn them on for us." Qin Yu put down the dishes and wine, and stepped forward to mash the karaoke machine.

Gao Bo has stepped on his right foot with his left foot and his left foot with his right foot, throwing his shoes away.

It doesn't count when you are done, the lights are turned on, the air conditioner is used for the bottom, and then the jacket is taken off.

Fun!

Tang He was not idle here either. He arranged the dishes and took off his clothes.

When Qin Yu turned around, the two shirtless men sat on the sofa.

One person, one bottle, blow it up!

"Add me one." Reaching out and grabbing, the tens of thousands of pieces of tops flew directly.

Throwing off his shoes and jumped on the sofa, and sat down cross-legged. The buns had already brought the brewed wine to hand.

"Come on, do one first."

boom!

Grumbling, killing half a bottle in one breath, "Ah~~"

sighed refreshingly, Qin Yu drew his hair with his hand: "Happy."

Since graduating from high school, everyone has separated.

I've never been so happy again...

"Brother Yu, order a song, let's have a warm atmosphere of dance music." Gao Bo pointed to the TV and said.

"Okay, give us CheapThrills~comeoncomeon~"

"Comeoncomeon, Turntheon~" Gao Bo patted his legs.

"Comeoncomeon, Turntheon~" Tang He followed and repeated the previous sentence.

Qin Yu followed: "comeoncomeon, Turntheon~"

"comeoncomeon, comeoncomeon..."

Just such a lyric, the three of them sang alternately and repeatedly, the more they sang, the more vigorous they sang, and they jumped off the sofa.

No one went looking for slippers, wriggling barefoot on the ground, and pouring beer into his mouth vigorously.

"Hahaha~" Qin Yu raised his hands and cheered, "Hahaha~"

"Cool, haha!" Tang He shouted presumptuously, where there is still the shyness and introversion that used to be in front of outsiders.

This is their boy moment, crazy, right.

"Where is the song?" Tired of singing, several people slumped on the sofa and asked while drinking beer.

"Where's the song?" Qin Yu was also puzzled, and when he looked back, he didn't press the play button.

Co-worked for a long time, but the song didn't start!

"Hahaha..." After a brazen laughter, the three of them sat cross-legged and began to play routine.

Fun facts in school, life, feelings, bad things.

In short, nothing can't be said!

Tang He and Xu Ya's relationship is very stable. He has never thought about anything except occasionally going to the bar to play.

Gao Bo and Ai Rui are even more gluey, and the girl is desperate for him.

Use the copy on the note to say: The girl who is full of eyes only with him, here comes.

"How is the work done on Mount Tai?" Qin Yu asked with a smile, "Last time I heard that you are now in charge of more than 300 vehicles?"

Tang He, who was sandwiching peanuts, raised his eyebrows and smiled in surprise: "Doctor, that's okay!"

"Hey, it's okay."

Dr. smiled modestly, and said: "One month, let's see the benefits! There is 20,000 to 30,000..."

"Fuck, ten thousand households are still not satisfied." Tang He punched him as he said, his eyes were full of blessings for his happiness.

There is no jealousy among the three of them.

I didn't have this kind of consciousness at all, I couldn't think of it...

Brother has developed, Tang He is only happy for him, just like he was happy for Qin Yu at the beginning.

But, does the doctor have to arrange a game this time, hehehe...

Chapter 778 The Apollo is lifted off, the Apollo is gone

The arrangement must be arranged, the doctors have already prepared the tickets.

This was agreed by a few brothers.

Whoever posted, you must ask the brothers to be crazy.

Last time Brother Yu had arranged it, and now it's Gao Bo's turn.

As for Tang He, he is still in a struggling state, "It's so difficult to open up wasteland."

mentioned his current "professional," buns are full of bulges.

He is now a man who follows the iron eagle fiercely, and his life there is not bad, at least he can get relatively fair.

Absolutely fair...

Or let's talk about the sun, when will the fire be turned off...

"Iron Eagle Meng is searching for a large city ruin recently, and there are all kinds of monsters in it, many of which have never been seen before.

So far, I haven't even finished searching for one-tenth of the periphery. The rhythm of the day is, go online, die, go offline..."

"Go online, die, go offline..."

"online..."

Gao Bo rushed to say: "Dead, offline, I see, say something else."

This repeater is very smart. It is really in the AI era, and the technology is different.

"That's what happened anyway!" Tang He rolled his eyes and moved forward in a low voice.

"However, online transactions are really amazing. I think someone has made hundreds of thousands of selling waste products."

Gao Bo was surprised: "Really."

The two looked at Qin Yu at the same time. No one should know better than him, right?

"I really don't know this, it's all private transactions by players." Qin Yu drank and laughed.

He has a sub-system to supervise and record transactions.

But I haven't paid much attention to the details of specific transactions.

Mainly focus on whether there are any good things worth buying in the commodities being traded.

As for selling a few dollars, Brother Yu really doesn't care!

"I wish the buns will open as soon as possible and earn one million a year." Gao Bo said, holding the bottle.

"Yes, one million a year." Qin Yu also raised the bottle.

boom.

Holdly touched, Tang He happily waved his hand: "Wait until I earn one million in the year, I will arrange it for all my brothers."

...

...

Three boxes of wine, one bottle left!

Gao Bo and Tang He drank too much unexpectedly. When Qin Yu left in the morning, they were still unable to get up in bed.

Thigh and calf to sleep soundly together.

Seeing this scene, Brother Yu chose not to disturb and left quietly.

A true warrior, dare to fencing head-on.

If you only like to play with sticks like Brother Yu, let's slip away as soon as possible!

"Boss." On the big G, He Wu handed him the breakfast he had brought on the road.

Xu Meixin with elegant makeup was sitting in the co-pilot.

"Have you eaten?" Qin Yu asked after taking the bag and taking a mouthful of the leek box.

"Eat." Xu Meixin didn't finish her words, and she made a "grunt" protest in her stomach.

Xu Meixin tilted her head to the side of the car window, her face flushed unnaturally.

"It's not the first day to go to work with me."

Giving her another leek box, Qin Yu inhaled soy milk and said: "There is only one milk, so you won't be the same."

Xu Meixin nodded, biting into the leek box.

This thing has a big smell and has a ventilation effect.

Xu Meixin took two bites and felt that her stomach was not so hungry, so she put the rest away.

Use mouthwash first, and then take a picture in the mirror to make sure there is no residue on it.

Xu Meixin took out another chewing gum and put it into her mouth to chew, and it stopped...

"NASA has announced to the public that it is confirmed that it is today?" After swallowing the last bite, Qin Yu asked casually.

"Yes, in another...two hours and eighteen minutes, it will be the launch time of the Helios."

Xu Meixin turned on the tablet, clicked a few times and handed it to Qin Yu: "Now the Internet is noisy and the Centennial Party is very active."

"This is the true strength of the Bald Eagle, spectacular."

"Where are those no-brainers, jump, why don't you jump?"

"Speaking of Xia Guoni's batch? Why didn't you see your rocket lift off, my bald eagle loaded it!"

"I am the first to emigrate the bald eagle if I have money. This is really powerful."

"The only overlord empire, finally revealing his hidden fangs, I really want to be a bald eagle..."

After reading a few casually, Qin Yu closed the tablet, returned it to Xu Meixin and shook his head.

"I've been kneeling for a long time, I really treat myself as a slave. If you leave people alone, you have to be a dog... Isn't it cheap?"

Brother Yu has never seen such a mean person. How did the bones grow?

The late stage of osteoporosis is hopeless.

"Everyone's doubts are very high, mainly because so far, we have not done anything."

Xu Meixin looked at Qin Yu sideways, as if to hear some good news from him.

Now everyone is taking a breath.

Want to see a smooth first contact with the appearance race, but also hope that the bald eagle can make a big somersault.

Especially contradictory!

In fact, in Shangdu Xiaohonglou at this moment, there is also a group of people who are waiting and arguing nervously.

They know part of the inside story, but they don't worry about contact or not.

The main reason is that the bald eagle is afraid of taking the vegetable garden, so it is spotless in the aerospace field.

Opening a cross-age gap with other countries, once again forming a new aviation hegemony.

In this way, the forbearance and hard work of the court over the years has become a joke.

For the radicals among them, it is time to land before the bald eagle.

Even if it is as Bai Ze speculated, you can send someone to help him guard the basket.

Avoid the basket accidentally falling into the hands of the bald eagle.

It's just that no matter how you argue, it's now a foregone conclusion.

Passed unanimously, and we can't keep up with this trip!

I only hope that the development of things will not be as bad as they think.

...

...

Bald Eagle, NASA Global Command Center.

Oh State launch base, the brand-new Helios complete the final inspection.

"Preparation for ignition...Ignition countdown, 10, 9, 8, 1..."

"Ignition."

"Power propulsion is normal!"

"The first stage rocket separation is normal...the second stage ignition is normal..."

"The three-stage rocket is separated, the separation is normal..."

Wow!

Deafening applause sounded in the room, and the commander-in-chief also showed a full smile on his face.

"Well, please take your place, the real test has just begun."

Everyone returned to their seats, still with excited and proud smiles on their faces.

After many years, they finally return to the moon again.

Just...

When everyone thinks of the base behind the moon, while everyone is excited and excited, there are still people who feel worried.

If it is a smooth contact, then everything is easy to say.

But if things develop to the bad side, how should they...including humans on earth respond?

40 hours later, Helios entered the lunar orbit and began to adjust its position.

After another 4 hours, they were finally able to see the "alien base on the ground" with the naked eye.

The pole that resembles the launching port of a space-based weapon makes everyone's heart tight.

"Everyone is ready, we are about to land in 2 hours." The captain issued a final command to everyone.

Next, they will adjust the coordinates and land at a predetermined safe place.

Then proceed from the ground to the "alien base," which initiated the first abnormal contact in human history.

It's just that, before they had time to act, the top of their heads suddenly became dark.

Then there was a fierce shaking, "Houston, we have lost control of the spacecraft, there is something outside."

"Oh, my God, what is that?"

"Damn, we were hijacked by aliens, I want to go home..."

"The Marines are ready... Damn, shall we use this to fight the aliens?"

"I hope that when someone comes to us, they can find something to bury!"

"F-K, something has come in, sir..."

The ground command center lost the communication signal to Helios, "How long will our satellites reach the sky above the base?"

"5 hours and 21 minutes, but now that they have already started, I doubt whether the satellites can appear again."

"No matter what method is used, I have to know what is happening on it." The commander hammered down the table severely.

Next, he also needs to report to the president on the progress of the plan.

He already thought of what he could say, the Helios lifted into the sky...The Helios was gone...

Abandoned capital, in the office.

Qin Yu is playing games on his laptop, and under the huge Eagle Falcon battleship is a white floating object that looks weak and helpless.

At this time, it is being controlled by the two mechanical arms by the life number on the right, dragging it towards the ground without resistance.

Originally, Brother Yu wanted to set off fireworks for everyone to have fun.

It was later discovered that the supplies on board were quite valuable.

There are free labor and various experts, including aerospace and weapons experts.

This is a bit reluctant.

Talents are more important than materials and money.

The Marines were thrown directly into the mines to mine, what kind of human rights Ma Run wanted in the fifth class.

Scientists were sent to Base 2 to conduct technical research under the supervision of Kirin.

Brainwashing these guys, it couldn't be easier.

As long as you provide them with technology that is enough to ignite the eyeballs and still explode in their minds.

So, for whatever purpose.

They will all work hard for you before they achieve results.

By the way, let the [creators] observe and learn from them.

This is the most important...

Why is Base No. 2 because it was originally prepared for them.

After learning about the Apollo project, Qin Yu asked [the creator] to develop and build the No. 2 ecosystem.

A research site that is completely separated from the main ecosystem and can be turned into a cage when necessary.

This is to prevent someone from making a moth, UU reading www. The explanation of uukanshu.com to scientists is naturally for the safety of experiments.

As for the mine, the requirements are more stringent.

Who knows if these guys will come up with any tricks, the machine's rigid instructions are flawed.

If they seize the opportunity, make something unexpected.

Qin Yu is unwilling to accept and bear any loss.

So Qin Yu issued a new order to the [Creator], and any communication was strictly prohibited.

Only allow observation and learning.

Once any prohibited behavior is triggered, there is only one way to punish: death.

Kylin's energy is mainly in the scientific research of the No. 2 ecosystem, it is impossible to stare at a group of coolies every day.

What kind of misunderstanding, explanation, no need.

If you are not allowed to do it, you have to do it, and that is the mentality of temptation.

This way, just kill it directly.

Chapter 779

Deadly silent, for several weeks.

The bald eagle's response was strange and quiet. The previous vigorous Sun God plan declared abortion.

gone~~

The spacecraft is gone, so are the satellites.

The huge team formed for this has suddenly turned into * that no one cares about.

No one knows what to do.

No one knows what happens on the back of the moon.

Except for Qin Yu, who was sitting in the Waldorf Astoria at this time, drinking tea and tasting tea.

"Are you going to keep watching like this?" Sitting opposite him, the moldy man with sunglasses cocked his legs, and looked at the miracle boy with interest.

He looks very young and looks...

Handsome!

The first time he saw him, the mold reminded of the little plum when he appeared in Titanic.

Although his current appearance is still resistant to fights, the greasy fat makes it difficult to accept mildew.

In comparison, the miracle kid in front of him is tougher.

The calf exposed to the air is tight and firm, as is the arm.

Especially his exposed half of Hiroshi's biceps, giving a visual impact.

I will feel very safe to be held in my arms by such a pair of arms.

"The monster will not open to overseas for the time being. This is the company's strategic decision."
Qin Yu responded again.

"..." Mildew was a little angry, why is he so stubborn, like an old man.

Does it not fragrant to make money?

"Fragrant! Just like customers have the right to choose whether to buy a certain product, the product also has the same right to choose.

We chose to abandon the North American market, I think there is nothing wrong with this! "

Qin Yu's answer is very simple, we chose to abandon North America, but not to play with you.

诶, what can you do?

"Yes..." Momo opened her mouth, wrapped her hands together, and leaned forward and said, "I want to play."

...

This pitiful tone and expression are much more lethal than her previous reasoning.

But, if it doesn't work, it doesn't work.

Don't think that Brother Yu will be swayed by female sex, he should always eat, drink and drink.

The promise is not promised!

Icing, bring it to you.

Cannonball, go back to you.

诶, just for fun...

"You can stay in Hudu, I think fans will be very welcome." Qin Yu said with a smile.

"It's impossible." Momo didn't speak, and the assistant beside him was anxious.

At the same time, she looked at the mold frequently, for fear that she would really agree.

In the eyes of the assistant, she has become a crazy internet addicted teenager, poisoned by the game.

"Milky, your foundation is in North America, and all your careers are also in North America. Don't be impulsive." The little assistant said softly.

Qin Yu smiled and said casually: "Xia Guo has the world's largest market, and you have many fans in Xia Guo.

Actually, now is a good opportunity to start again..."

After being sold by Big Machine and being stabbed in the back by her old boss, her career development fell into a predicament.

The re-recording of the album is still in trouble. My own * is unwilling to reach a settlement with the new owner, dissing each other every day.

disturbed the whole world, but in fact, there was a big reason for her.

Mild is a strong and cheerful personality, with great inner potential.

But after encountering the incident, she was always sensitive to madness and didn't know how to control her emotions and thoughts.

To put it bluntly, it is not mature enough.

The earliest black material was because she pretended to be "weak and innocent", and was finally dismantled, causing a reversal of the situation.

Otherwise, where are the years of black material and entanglement.

Career will definitely be able to take another step.

This time, it was obviously sold by his own boss.

Don't diss him, instead, you have to catch the buyer very much, causing the wind and rain to cause tearing.

Nowadays, many people are tired of watching this tearing and feel tired!

'S support for her also began to change her attitude, which is one of the important reasons for her to come to Hudu.

Because according to the industry rules of the Bald Eagle, the buyer did nothing wrong.

He just offered a higher price and bought the goods he wanted...

To blame, you should also blame your own boss for forgetting righteousness, and selling the copyright to the higher price regardless of the feelings.

Rather than using the logic of "I want to buy, others can't bid" to look at this matter.

"Don't listen to him, start over, do you know how difficult it is? The language here is not mainly English."

The little assistant glared at him angrily, clearly hostile towards Qin Yu.

He is condoning mold and ruining his career.

With today's achievements and fans, how much effort has she put into this step.

If you say overthrow, you will overthrow, and you will start over again.

If you want to regain the status and honor of today, you know how much effort and effort it takes.

How many opportunities and good luck should it contain?

Good luck will not always patronize the same person, and the mildew can have today, and her good luck has been exhausted.

Good luck, the assistant is skeptical.

"You can consider it, don't rush to answer." Qin Yu said, picking up the helmet on the table, and said: "However, there is something we need to talk about first."

Invite Momo to be a "Goddess," adding a new goddess seal to VR devices.

Goddess Seal is a joke among players for having a "Goddess Watermark" device.

The official acquiescence of this title, so more and more people are calling it.

"Appears on the product like this?" Mould pointed to the rice on the helmet, playing with the taste: "How much can I get?"

This is quite an endorsement, and it must not be done in vain.

The relationship between them is not so good, but they are just friends.

Looking at the fact that he invented such a fun game, Mildew can give him an internal discount.

"Aren't we friends? Talking about money will hurt feelings?" Qin Yu asked with a surprised expression.

"???" Mildew looked dazed.

The little assistants are stupid...

F-, such a shameless person, this is not the first time she has seen such a shameless person.

can be as shameless as him, and he can show it with confidence.

The first person in the world.

"You shouldn't be called a miracle kid, * capitalist." Mildew grinned and cursed.

Qin Yu shrugged helplessly and said: "I am not a capitalist, but a newcomer who has worked hard to start a business."

"Oh, god, you really should come down and have a look." The mildew patted his head and raised his head.

Qin Yu spread his hands and said, "Sorry, this is not under the control of Jesus."

"Ok!"

Sighed helplessly, stood up and said: "For our friendship... the price should be negotiated by the people below."

The little assistant's expression was reversed at 360 degrees. He thought he had to give up on the impulse, but he wanted to talk to himself.

This is great, she will let the other party know that she has won the job by virtue of her strength.

Hum, she must negotiate a good price for mildew.

It's so good that those guys in North America know that even on the other side of the ocean, her commercial value cannot be ignored.

You short-sighted idiots, you will regret your choice today.

"It seems that this is the only way to go." Qin Yu nodded and looked at Xu Meixin who was beside him: "Then Secretary Xu, you have worked hard."

"Don't worry, boss, I will make you satisfied." Xu Meixin pushed the frame, and the human and animal smiled harmlessly to the assistant.

I do, I can have the illusion of life.

In the first half hour of the conversation between the assistant and Xu Meixin, it is over!

Seeing all the data that the other party took out, the current commercial value of the mold, the various black materials and tears that have been caused since the copyright of the record was sold.

Support rate survey after the incident, its personal business value analysis, personality report, recognition of top brands and personal image score.

Popular survey report...

Damn, how could this kind of thing appear here, shouldn't it be locked in a safe?

The little assistant was bruised and swollen by Xu Meixin's data offensive.

It can be seen from the polls that the public still maintains a high degree of recognition for Momo's works.

But her personal image and recognition has plummeted.

Since the tearing time began, her support has dropped by 12% since its development.

There are even many incidents of fans turning black, slandering her on the Internet.

The media broke the news about her inconsistent behavior and hypocritical mask, which disappointed the public one step closer.

"But her influence is still the best in North America."

"You also said that it is in North America. This is Xia Guo. We don't need her influence in China."

"It is because of the local foundation that it has the current international influence. Don't Xia Guo's fans know her that way?"

"Yes, the local support rate has dropped by 12%."

"..."

The little assistant is furious, can you always hold onto this point?

Shall we change the topic?

You have fallen, passers-by are gone, and the approval rate has dropped by 12%.

On this one, no matter how sophisticated the assistant is, there is no way to deny it.

So that at the end, she almost made Xu Meixin cry.

If you don't take you like this, grab a little braid and let it go.

Can we change the subject, woووو...

Waiting for Qin Yu and Momo to drink two glasses at the bar, and felt that when the time was almost back, the assistant had already put on the pain mask.

"Boss." With a satisfied smile in Xu Meixin's eyes, she proudly handed the first draft to him.

Seeing the price and the treaty above, Qin Yu glanced at Xu Meixin.

Unexpectedly, she is still a good negotiator, and it seems that she will have to find opportunities to give her a better job.

Otherwise, wouldn't this ability be wasted?

"What?" I was also surprised when I was watching the treaty.

turned his head to the assistant, and his eyes were full of doubts: "This is the strength you are talking about.

No problem...It's done...I'll leave it to you, right? ? ? ? "

Mu Mo is now very suspicious, if one day I don't pay attention, will I let my assistant sell it directly.

The two had to open a bottle of champagne to celebrate, and happily waiting to count the money with the contract.

"So?" Seeing the expression of Momo's unlovable expression, Qin Yu put down the contract and waited for her to express her opinion.

Sign or not, it's just a matter of her sentence.

Actually, Qin Yu didn't want her to sign. The price and treaty of this contract are for a superstar like Momo.

It's a bit insulting!

Therefore, he will directly put down the contract, which is regarded as a step down for the other party.

Unexpectedly, the other party opened the purse, took out the pen, and wrote the artistic signature on it.

"Now, our friendship is one step closer, Qin, you have to help me figure out a way to fix it..."

Momo put down the pen, patted the helmet on the table, and blinked slyly.

Chapter 780 You must hug your mother to protect her!

Any problem can be solved.

As long as the money is in place, everything is OK.

The words are rough but not rough!

To connect the helmet, it is actually very simple, just let the unicorn be a mark.

The server is not really in the abandoned city, but has been held on the neck by Qin Yu.

The reason why the overseas connection cannot be connected is because Qin Yu asked Kirin to block the signal.

Limit the signal source within the territory of Xia Country, and it will not work if it exceeds 1cm.

As for the export equipment, crossing the coordinate will trigger an alarm.

Kylin will lock the "alarm device", and naturally it will not be able to connect to the server anymore.

Although there are hundreds of technologies involved, including precise geographic positioning, device code tracking, encryption and so on.

But the principle and process of operation are actually very simple...

Qin Yu now admires herself very much and chose to upgrade Kylin instead of other messy things.

As witty as me.....(^_*)☆

"I can only say sorry for this, it is impossible to open a route for you, that would be too costly."

Qin Yu shook his head, expressing his helplessness and apologies to Mo Yu with a face full of regret.

"You." He folded his legs musty and sat on the sofa with a pair of bulingbuling eyes looking straight at him.

I see, I see, I stare at you to death.

Brother Yu held his hands together, got up and left, alas, I won't play with you anymore.

"Qin, is there really no way?" Mo Yu jumped down and said pitifully, holding his hand.

"There is really no way, why don't you consider my suggestion." With a smile, Qin Yu left again.

Leave only mildew and mildew in place to think about whether it is really staying in Xia Guo to develop.

Think of it normally, it's not reliable!

Yes, if you think in the opposite direction, it seems a bit interesting...

"Boss, where do you go next?" He Wu asked, sitting in the poison cab.

"Go home." Qin Yu brushed the notes, with no intention of going to school at all.

He used to go through a cutscene and report something.

Now he doesn't even bother to show his face, Huazi asked Yan Er to help him.

When Shen Wanqian received something, he sent him a message on WeChat:.....

Six points, representing the helplessness and suffering in his heart.

Who has brought such a student, this is my own student, this is my uncle!

But what can Old Shen do? The bosses of his boss's bosses all serve as uncles.

Do you have any comments!

Furthermore, the balconies of the Huazi and Maotai that Xiao Qin gave to him are full.

This mind, I can't lead...

Back to Seaview One, the anchor and Wang Hong are preparing to go out.

"Going to shoot again?" Qin Yu picked up and glanced at the two men holding large bags and small bags in their arms, all of which were all dressed cheongsams.

This set of purple carvings is good, it's buckled!

"Well, it's just the beginning of the year, it's time to be busy..." The little anchor kissed him on his cheek, naughty and raised his feet on the back bridge.

Snapped!

Proficient cooperation made Wang Hong roll his eyes. These two are absolutely amazing!

"Okay, forgive you, I will take you out to sea when I finish this time." Qin Yu smiled and watched the two go out.

As soon as the door was closed, Qin Yu opened the note.

Hunting moment, turn it on.

诶, this is not bad...

This seems to be good too, let's take a look first.

...Something!

This is also... Fuck, what the hell!

Half an hour later, Yu Ge picked out the list of going to sea.

Zuo Yi, Zhou Jie, Mengna, A Zhai, find another live singer, Dai Dai.

This game is basically perfect.

The weather has just cleared up, and the women around him are busy again. Brother Yu is ready to play wild and set up a round to get out of the waves.

During preparation, you can just go to accompany Yalan...

Play with Tongtong what she loves to do without delay!

The master of time management is so precise and unmistakable, one minute can't be delayed.

Contact first!

Leave a message in the background, and leave the letter and WeChat account to the other party, indicating that there is cooperation and want to talk.

Qin Yu turned off the notes and called Sister Yalan: "Hey, Sister Yalan, I'm back..."

Shancheng, just after taking photos of today's costume, Mengna sat on a long chair while drinking water and turning on her phone.

Notes, there are hundreds of messages in the background!

70% are licking dogs, 28% are Pu's self-confidence, she wants to cover her for tens of thousands of dollars a month.

It's ridiculous, is she the one who lacks those tens of thousands of dollars?

Of the remaining 2%, 1.9% are big brothers, fake cooperation.

When you say you want to cooperate with yourself, it's actually a drunkard who doesn't want to drink.

It's just that the requests made are ridiculous.

After seeing the reality of the rich, Mengna just wanted to laugh.

But my heart is terrible cold!

The fairy tales of princesses and princes belong only to princesses and princes.

The last 0.1% is for business and cooperation.

Select all the true and false collaborations. After taking a screenshot, Mengna turns off the phone to confirm that the shooting is OK.

Take a taxi with the assistant and return to the hotel.

The next step is the screening work. The assistant is responsible for calling her list of screenshots to communicate cooperation matters.

In basically 30 seconds, they can tell whether this person really wants to cooperate or if there is another plan!

As time goes by, the phone list becomes less and less.

During , there were also a few refreshing words. If you want to have a meal with Mona, and meet, you are willing to give a high price of 100,000.

If she had just entered this business, when there was no fire, she might be tempted.

Now... I won't give you any farts.

"Sister, these two are left." The assistant flipped through the last two screenshots on the screen and said.

"Let's play, let's go down to dinner when we are done." Mengna said weakly.

This call is not tired, but the heart is tired enough.

The longer you mix in this line, the more you understand the meaning of the phrase "It's both human and dog pretending".

beep, beep~

The call was delayed and no one answered, the assistant shook his head, and was about to put down the phone, it was connected!

"Hey, who?"

"This is Mengna, I am her assistant, you leave a message in the background....."

Fifteen seconds later, the assistant hung up the phone decisively and said angrily: "What stuff...Do you know who I am? As long as she stays with me, there will be more resources in the future, Barabara..."

The assistant followed the other party's yin and yang tone, and his face was nauseous and retched.

"Okay, there is one more, hurry up." Mengna lying on the bed patted the strange assistant, and she couldn't help laughing.

This little assistant is always so strange.

With her, I feel happy any time...

"Sister, this is a WeChat account, and the other party did not leave a phone call." The assistant said, adding the letter and WeChat account.

Seconds passed~

Hey, kind of sincere.

"Where are you, I am Miss Menna's assistant?" The assistant sent a message, wait and wait, wait and wait.

just didn't wait to reply, "The application just now passed in seconds, why don't you stop talking now, what about playing people?"

"Maybe something is going on, I'm going to eat first, I'm hungry." Menna sat up, rubbed her belly and said with a smile.

"Okay, then give him another chance."

Shanghai crossing, Qin Yu holding Tongtong in the amusement park to fly a plane.

Spread his hands, let Tongtong lie on it, spread his arms like an airplane wing, and ran forward with him fast.

"Oh~oh~ Fly, haha..." Along the way, the happy laughter never stopped.

Yalan followed behind, taking a few steps from time to time to keep up.

Looking at the two of them having fun, the intimate trust and Qin Yu's care for the child are ready...

For some reason, there is a bit of bitterness in the smile!

Why do you want to meet him at this time? If it is earlier...

"Mom, mom, hurry up, I'm going to do a drifting boat with my brother." Not far away, Tongtong urged Yalan with excitement.

"Hey, here it is." With a gentle smile, Ya Lan picked up the kettle and speeded up to catch up.

Forget it, don't think so much, as long as Tongtong is happy...

I am also happy, that's good.

"Mom will do it with you too, okay?" Ya Lan asked softly, squatting beside her son, holding a kettle for him to drink.

"Okay, okay, so my brother can hug his mother to protect her, and my mother hugs me." Tongtong pointed at Qin Yu, Ya Lan and herself, clapping happily.

Hugging...

There was an unnatural blush on her cheeks, and Ya Lan, who put away the kettle, followed without saying a word.

When I came to the entrance of Jiliuyong, there was only a small couple in front.

It just so happened that they could sit down at the same time, and Qin Yu waited patiently with Tongtong in his arms.

5 minutes later, the staff signaled that it was time to enter.

Put on disposable swimsuits. The young couple in front has already chosen the first row and sat on the cruise ship.

"Let's sit down and finish." The most exciting thing is the front row and the back row. Since you come to experience it, you will naturally have fun playing.

Moreover, there are just three people in the back row.

Choose a good location, and as soon as she sits down, Tongtong in Qin Yu's arms drills towards her mother.

Qin Yu thought he wanted to stick to his mother.

For children, who is more trustworthy and trustworthy than their mother.

Unfortunately, Brother Yu seems to have made a mistake.

"Mom, mom hug me." Tongtong took Yalan's hands sitting in the middle, and asked him to hold himself.

then looked back at Qin Yu, and said solemnly: "Brother, brother, you should hug your mother, and you must protect her!"

The childlike voice made the young couple and the staff in front of them stare.

Brother...Mom...Hold...

It's so complicated and chaotic, is it all so exciting in the city?

Especially after noticing Yalan's appearance and temperament, the little brother in front almost brought himself into it.

Suddenly tugged his ears, and the small hands that rotated 180 degrees saved his wrong thoughts.

Let him sit down, change his evil and return to righteousness, and re-enter the light of the right way is about to open. "The staff member prompted.

At this time, Tongtong was still looking back and found that Qin Yu and Yalan did not do what he said.

immediately shouted: "Brother, hug, hug, it's about to start."

The child's noise and the strange eyes around made Yalan feel ashamed.

But an impulsive courage rose in his heart.

Leaning back slightly on his side, half of his body pressed against Qin Yu's shoulder, and then reached out and grabbed back.

Put his hand on his waist and clasp it tightly.

After doing this, Yalan suppressed the growing nervousness in her heart, and said to Tongtong calmly, "Okay, there will be no danger now."

Tongtong nodded happily and turned to look forward.

Neither of them noticed the triumphant little expression under the raincoat and hat.

Hey, so I will have a father soon.

Great! ! !
