

When She Stops Playing Nice by Hale Saxon

Chapter 161

Chapter 161

Cole had already died because the back of his head had hit a rock..

“Gina, Mom didn’t mean to disobey you and not wait for you. He threatened me. If I didn’t go with him, he would randomly shoot passersby. I can’t let innocent people be implicated... I’m sorry. Mommy can’t accompany you anymore. I have to go be with your uncle and brother, Mommy is very happy. Gina, you have to be happy for me too, okay?” Ruby forced a smile on her face. She could no longer hold on and closed her eyes forever.

Gina knelt at the side. She only felt that her world had collapsed while she was filled with pain. It was just like when she saw the couple’s entire family being destroyed. When she saw their corpses, she felt a turbid breath accumulating in her heart. It could not go up or down.

Before she lost consciousness, she heard Gabriel shouting her name anxiously, “Gina!”

The ambulance arrived.

Olivia ran like crazy. She was afraid that Gina and the others would catch up and get her. The phone in her pocket kept vibrating. She did not dare to take it out and look at it until she reached the street. She could not run anymore. She was sweating profusely and sat on the ground weakly. However, she still held the contract tightly in her arms.

Olivia took a deep breath and finally took out her phone. She saw that the screen was filled with messages. They were all notifications that someone had transferred money to her account.

Olivia was stunned. When she saw the last message informing her that her account balance was a billion dollars, she froze. It was unbelievable. She pinched herself hard. After confirming that her account did have a billion, she laughed out loud on the street. “I don’t have nothing, I don’t have nothing!”

She no longer needed the Miller family or that idiot Ethan’s protection. From now on, she was a billionaire. Olivia felt that she had finally made a comeback.

She remembered that Cole had said that he left behind a legacy and wondered if this was it.

She thought, “Did Cole use Ruby to threaten Gina and give me a billion dollars?”

Olivia felt a little speechless. However, no matter what, she had received the money. She would definitely not have to worry about food and clothing for the rest of her life. Moreover, she got to spend Gina’s money.

No matter how rich Gina was, a billion dollars was not a small sum.

Olivia was extremely proud. “Gina, you’ve fought with me for so long, but you still lost. You lost to me for a billion dollars. Gina, I won!”

After receiving the money, Olivia happily went to spend it.

At night, Olivia was leisurely fooling around at the Night Bar when she suddenly heard Ethan’s furious voice. He went forward and grabbed Olivia’s hair. “Olivia, you fg bh. How can you say that you didn’t take my money and squander it? Are you fg courting death?”

If his friends had not told him that they had seen Olivia, he would have been kept in the dark. His friends even teased him and said that his ex-fiancée was still the same. She was out spending money again, making Ethan so angry

Before Olivia could react, she felt her scalp go numb due to the grab. She screamed and struggled crazily, trying to break free from Ethan’s grip.

However, his grip was too strong, Olivia reacted quickly and stepped on Ethan’s foot. Ethan only let go in pain.

When Olivia saw that her hairstyle had been messed up by him, she became even more furious. She picked up the bottle and wanted to smash it go Ethan’s head.

Ethan was in disbelief. He thought, This bh actually wants to attack me. Is she crazy?’

He grabbed Olivia’s wrist. “How dare you hit me?”

Olivia spat at him and said, "I can afford to compensate even if I c i p l e you!"

Ethan sneered. He found it strange that this homeless orphan woman had suddenly become so unyielding. He could not be bothered to talk nonsense with her. "D a m n it, give me the money. If I lose a cent, I won't let you off. I'll kill you!"

Olivia forcefully shook off Ethan's hand and sneered, "Who the fk is spending your money? I'm spending my own money. I don't care about your 201 thousand dollars at all. Do you really think that you can buy Gina's life with that amount?"

Ethangaid sarcastically. "Didn't you say that you can think of a way to take her life?"

"Yes! I had an idea. She almost died. Unfortunately, the person I sent also died," Olivia said calmly.

Ethan was confused. "What do you mean you sent someone? You hired someone... to kill Gina?"

Olivia showed Ethan the news

"There was a vicious murder in the unfinished building in the eastern suburbs. Two people died and two were injured. One of them was a wanted criminal. He and the victim, Mrs. Parker, fell off the building and died on the spot. Miss Miller and Mr. Jackson were hospitalized for treatment. Their life is not in danger for the time being."

Ethan did not understand and was instantly furious. "Olivia, do you f think I'm easy to fool? You want to brush it off with a random piece of news?"

Olivia said unhurriedly, "I asked Cole to kill Gina, but Gina was not easy to deal with. I could only grasp her weakness first and kidnap her godmother. However, I still failed. I couldn't kill Gina because your Uncle Gabriel helped her. He is injured because of her. Your family probably knows about it now. If you don't believe me, ask your family."

Ethan was skeptical. He took out his phone and found that half an hour ago, his mother actually called him. However, half an hour ago, he had just received a call from his friends. He was so angry that he rushed over to Olivia and did not pay much attention to his mother's call. Now, he called back. "Hello, Mom, did something happen at home when you called me?"

A b b ie Jackson sounded a little anxious. "Why didn't you answer my call? Where are you? Hurry up and come to the hospital. Uncle Gabriel is injured. Hurry up and come over to visit. You can't possibly not show your concern for him."

Ethan was shocked. He thought, 'Was the news really talking about Uncle Gabriel and Gina?'

Ethan was stunned. "Okay, Mom. I'll be there soon."

Ethan looked back and sat back on the sofa with a smug look on his face. "You really did this? You arranged for... an assassin to kill Gina?"

Ethan did not know that L u c a s 's real name was Cole Yale. He thought that he was just an assassin hired by Olivia.

He swallowed his saliva. "Did you do it covertly enough? Will you be investigated? Don't implicate me!"

Olivia rolled her eyes. She thought, "Look at how cowardly he is. He was the one who wanted to partner with me, and now he is afraid that he will be implicated: Search the Find novel.net website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Chapter 162

"Cole is dead. There's no evidence," Olivia said leisurely as she ran her fingers through her hair.

She did not care about Cole's death.

Ethan came to his senses and thought, "That is true. Looking at Olivia's fearless appearance, she probably did not leave any evidence. I can rest assured.

He asked, "How much did you pay for the hitman?"

Olivia deliberately made it vague. "I didn't spend your money. You don't have to worry. Also, I've returned the money to you. From now on, we don't owe each other anything!"

The phone in Ethan's hand vibrated. He opened it and found that Olivia had actually transferred 20 thousand dollars back to him,

"Where did you get the money?" Only then did Ethan realize that Olivia was dressed in branded clothes. She was even more imposing than when she was still with the Miller family.

He suddenly speculated maliciously, "Olivia, your money was not earned through legal ways, right? Cole is not the assassin you hired at all, right? He is your dn bootlicker, right? Impressive. I really underestimated you before. I thought you were a bh who only knew how to cheat on others. I didn't expect you to find a bootlicker who would work for you."

Olivia was furious. Ethan's words disgusted her. "Ethan, you just can't say anything good. You can't bear to see me live well. What does my money have to do with you? If you continue to spout nonsense, I'll turn myself in at the police station and say that you conspired with me to murder Gina..."

Before Olivia could finish her sentence, Ethan rushed forward and covered Olivia's mouth. He looked left and right, afraid that someone would hear their conversation under the dealening music. "Are you crazy? Why are you shouting?"

Olivia glared at him and wanted him to let go of her.

Ethan let go with a cold expression. "Alright, I was careless with my words just now. I'll apologize to you. I'm sorry!"

Olivia spat in disdain. She did not need Ethan's hypocritical apology. She just wanted Ethan to get lost and disappear from her sight. He was an eyesore for her and had ruined her good mood.

It was indeed time for Ethan to leave. "Olivia, Gina isn't dead yet. Can we continue working together?"

After Ethan heard from Olivia that Gabriel was actually injured because of Gina, he felt that Gabriel was crazy. At the same time, he was also very afraid that Gabriel would really marry Gina one day and make her become his aunt. Then he would never have a day of peace in the Jackson family.

He remembered how vengeful Gina was. He had indeed helped Olivia mock and bully Gina in the past. He had also slandered her a little. However, Gina had tricked 400 thousand dollars out of him at the entrance of the Night Bar. He felt that they should have been even.

However, she still embarrassed him at his engagement banquet in front of all the powerful and famous people in Norwood,

In any case, he would never allow Gina who had embarrassed him to marry into the Jackson family. He would not be at ease until Gina died. However, if Gina did not die, it would still be good if she could leave Gabriel.

Ethan could feel how much Gabriel loved Gina by the look on his face. He felt that it was impossible for Gabriel to give up on Gina.

In fact, Olivia's desire to take Gina's life was not as strong now. She was now a billionaire, and all she wanted to do was to enjoy her life. However, at the same time, she was also worried that Gina would find a way to get the money back. Although she had a gift contract that was very beneficial to her, she was still worried. After all, Gina still had Gabriel.

Olivia looked at Ethan in disdain and was a little smug. "Ethan, I don't need you anymore. As you can see, I'm very rich now." S~earch the FindNovel.net website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Chapter 162

May

Ethan asked, "How rich are you?"

No matter how rich she was, Ethan didn't think that Olivia would be as rich as Gabriel, who was the richest man in the world.

Ethan suddenly remembered that when he looked at the list last night, Gabriel was actually overtaken by the second place. Now, he was the second richest.

Of course, Olivia would not tell Ethan how much money she had now. However, she could not help but want to show off. "With my current money, I can buy this place."

Ethan smiled. "Keep bragging."

This was Gabriel's bar. Even if she wanted to buy it, he would want to sell it.

Olivia-rolled her eyes at him.

The two of them parted on bad terms.

At Prover Hospital.

Gabriel lay on the hospital bed. He had a headache just now, so he could only take a nap. When he woke up, he realized that there were many people in the ward.

“Gabriel, you’re finally awake. You scared me to death. Does your wound still hurt?”
Ae was the first to ask,

Neil Jackson was also there. He sat by the bed. His originally serious expression softened a lot when he saw Gabriel wake up. “How are you feeling?”

Gabriel could not care less about his family’s condolences. “Where’s Gina? How is she?”

Ae was speechless. She was about to explode from anger after realizing the first thing Gabriel did after he woke up was to check on Gina. She wondered what Gina did to Gabriel to make him so obsessed with her. He took a pullet for Gina, so Gina was unharmed. However, Gabriel didn’t even care about himself and was already concerned about Gina.

Unfortunately, although Gabriel was her brother-in-law, it was really not her turn to criticize him.

At this moment, Harry Jackson said, “Gabriel, you’d better take care of yourself! Your wound wasn’t treated in time and became inflamed. You had a high fever and fainted in the ambulance. Fortunately, you were treated in time. Otherwise, your life would be in danger! As for Gina, she’s just unconscious. She’s fine!”

Although Harry said it nicely, he couldn’t wait for the wound to get infected and take Gabriel’s life away.

A b e agreed. “Harry is right. Gabriel, your injury is more concerning!”

Gabriel ignored them and looked at David Gray. David hurriedly said, “Mr. Jackson, Miss Miller is fine, but the doctor said that she had suffered a huge blow m e n t a l l y. She needs to have therapy, or she might have m e n t a l diseases later, Miss Miller is still unconscious. The doctor said that it was good to let Miss Miller rest for a while. She’s too tense now. If she’s awake, it’ll be even more exhausting for her body.”

Gabriel nodded to indicate that he understood.

He looked at Neil Jackson, who was sitting by the bed, and said, “Dad, I’m sorry for making you worry.”

Nellsighed, He had Gabriel very late in his life, and Gabriel turned out to be the best one out of all of his children. After knowing that Gabriel had been shot, he was very concerned. Moreover, his son’s body was already very weak, Neil recalled that many famous doctors had told him that Gabriel would die of on failure when he was 30 years old.

When he thought of this, he felt suffocated. Especially since they had searched for so long but still couldn't find Dr. Genevieve.

Chapter 163

Neil sighed. "It's good that you're fine. Take care of your body for the time being. Put the company's matters aside and let David take care of it for you!"

Ethan pushed the door open and entered. "Everyone's here. I'm sorry I'm late. Uncle Gabriel, are you badly hurt?"

Gabriel shook his head.

Ethan looked relieved. "That's good, that's good!"

Harry interrupted, "Gabriel will be fine after resting for a period of time with his injured arm. However, I'm afraid he won't have time to take care of the company's matters during this period of time. Neil, why don't we let Ethan temporarily manage Jackson Group for a period of time? It can also be considered as letting Ethan learn how to manage the company. The Jackson family has produced such an outstanding businessman like Gabriel. We have to have more members like him. Don't you think so?"

Ae did not expect Harry to suggest such a thing. She was simply overjoyed. "Thank you for thinking highly of Ethan. To be honest, Ethan often talks about Gabriel when he's at home. Gabriel is his idol and his role model. If Gabriel can give Ethan a chance to learn, that would be great!"

Ae quickly gave Ethan a look, signaling him to seize this opportunity. Ethan was intrigued. He looked at Gabriel expectantly and said, "Uncle Gabriel, I will definitely cherish this opportunity to learn."

Everyone's gaze fell on Gabriel. Even Neil said, "Do as you see fit."

Gabriel glanced at Ethan. Ethan looked expectant and nervous. Gabriel said indifferently, "He's inexperienced. It's too rash to give him the position of CEO, If you really want to learn, enter Jackson Group and start from the bottom."

What Gabriel meant was that he did not intend to let Ethan manage Jackson Group.

He was not biased against Ethan. Instead, what he said was the truth.

Ethan's expression was stiff and awkward after realizing that Gabriel did not show him any respect/

He smiled stiffly and helped himself out. "Uncle Gabriel is right. I'm inexperienced and not suitable for management!"

Abble looked disappointed and did not say anything

Harry secretly smirked.

There was a brief awkward silence in the ward. The door was pushed open again and the pale-faced Gina walked in.

"Gina Gabriel's eyes lit up.

Everyone's gaze fell on Gina. Neil stood up to welcome him. "Gina, why are you here?

Nell knew that Gina's godmother had perished together with Cole. Even though Gina was not physically injured, she must have suffered a huge m e n t a l blow. Neil felt sorry for Gina.

"Neil, I'm fine." Gina saw that Gabriel wanted to get up to welcome her and quickly stopped him "Le still." Gabriel lay down obediently.

For a moment, everyone in the ward had different expressions

A b b i e Jackson rolled her eyes.

However, because Neil and Gabriel were on her side, she could only endure her dissatisfaction with Gina.

Chapter 163

Harry looked at Gina with a cold smile. Others did not dare to criticize Gina, but he did.

Miss Miller, Gabriel has never suffered such a serious injury since he was young. After he got to know you, he took a bullet for you. How do you plan to repay this favor?"

Gabriel frowned. "I'm not helping Gina because I want something in return."

Harry interrupted, "But everyone should know to be grateful for other's kindness, right? Miss Miller, tell me, am I right?"

Gina's expression was cold. Although she did not meet Harry often, he deliberately made things difficult for her whenever they met.

Previously, she had treated Neil at Prover Hospital. Harry, who had brought an Internationally renowned doctor, Ibrahim Rosario, had failed to do so. She wondered if Harry had a grudge against her at that time. Gina felt that things were not that simple.

"I'll repay you." Gina thought for a moment, "From now on, anyone from the Jackson family who stays in Prover Hospital for treatment or physical examination will not have to pay a dime."

Prover Hospital's medical resources were top-notch internationally. The Jackson family was a big family, In the future, anyone from their family who had any problems could come to Prover Hospital for free. This repayment could be said to be very sincere.

However, Harry scoffed. "Miss Miller's return seems very impressive at first glance, but everyone in our family pays a lot of attention to our health. We might not even get sick once a year. Do you want us to get sick more often?"

Gabriel couldn't take it anymore. "Harry, are you using my injury to negotiate a deal?"

Harry was a little embarrassed, "I didn't mean that."

Gabriel retorted, "Then why did you maliciously guess what Gina meant?"

Ethan glanced at Gabriel's expression. She was cold and gloomy. It was obvious that she was angry. He was glad that he did not scold Gina just now. Only Harry dared to be so straightforward.

Harry's face darkened as he quibbled, "I was just guessing"

"You can't be rude even if you're guessing." Neil said.

Harry had nothing else to say and only snorted coldly since Neil had spoken.

The atmosphere in the ward became heavy. Gina frowned. She did not want to ruin the harmonious atmosphere of their family, even if it was only superficial harmony, "Then, Mr. Neil, what kind of repayment do you want me to give? Please tell me."

Harry sneered. "Gabriel, Neil, you heard her. She asked me to say it!"

Harry cleared his throat and continued, "If Gabriel wasn't lucky and the bullet didn't hit his arm but other vital parts, wouldn't Gabriel's life be in danger? Moreover, he protected you without hesitation. I think it's not too much to ask you for some of Prover Hospital shares, right?"

The annual profit of Prover Hospital was second only to the Jackson Group. Harry's request was quite bold.

Neil said, "Harry, you're already so old, why are you still spouting nonsense?"

Gabriel's expression turned ugly. "Harry, aren't you going too far?"

Harry became completely angry. "She was the one that asked me to give my request. Miss Miller hasn't said anything yet. Why are you guys so nervous?!"

“Gina, you accepted it?” Abble could not believe it.

“Yes,” Gina said calmly.

Abble thought, ‘How could she accept it?!

pt it? It was 600 million dollars! If it was a small amount, I would shut up. After all, Gabriel is rich. However, 600 million dollars is a lot of money.’

A b b i e said sarcastically, “It’s quite impressive that you can accept a gift worth 600 million dollars so calmly.”

Gabriel’s face darkened. “Gina has given me something in return, Also, Harry, how did you know that I went to Eldoria to buy a diamond mine? Why didn’t I realize before that you were so concerned about my private life?”

Harry felt a little guilty. “I have a friend who saw you at the auction!”

He changed the topic and said, “So, what gift did Miss Miller return? I’m quite curious. What kind of gift can compare to the diamond mine that was bought for 600 million dollars.”

Gina replied in a neither servile nor overbearing manner, “I gifted Gabriel with the medicinal herb I planted.”

Harry was stunned for a moment before he laughed mockingly. “Miss Miller, are you joking with me? What medicinal herb is worth 600 million dollars? Could it be some miracle plant that can revive a person?”

“That’s enough, Harry. Don’t go too far.” Gabriel did not get angry at him because Harry was his elder, but at this moment, Gabriel’s patience had reached its limit. “Gina’s medicinal herbs are usually provided solely to the Treasure Fund in Oriata City. They are very expensive. It’s not up to you to decide if it’s worth it”

Harry was completely humiliated. His face darkened and he snorted coldly. “Alright. I’ll stop before I go too far! I just don’t want you to be deceived by others and not be rewarded for your efforts. Now, it seems like I’m being a busybody. Fil leave, alright?”

Harry turned around and strode away.

Neil did not stop him. Instead, he said to the others, “All of you, get out.”

A b b i e looked at Gina with disdain and turned to leave.

Only the three of them were left in the ward.

Neil looked at Gina with heartache. “Gina, I know about your godmother’s death. My condolences...”

Gina had already tried her best to control her emotions. In order to visit Gabriel, she tried her best to appear calm, but after hearing Neil’s words, her eyes could not help but turn red.

Thank you for your concern.” Her voice was filled with uncontrollable b s.

After spending some time together with Gina, both Neil and Gabriel knew that Gina was an extremely calm and disciplined girl. In this situation, she was devastated. Neil had also heard from David that although Gina was not injured, she fainted on the spot.

“Gina, from now on, we are your family,” Neil held Gina’s hand and said, “Don’t worry, I have no intention of forcing you to be with Gabriel. I like you from the bottom of my heart. Even if you can’t be his wife, you can still be my ger. You can even treat Gabriel as your brother!”

Gabriel panicked, “Dad, what are you talking about?”

Gabriel laughed helplessly. "Dad, you don't have to worry about that. I've been treating her very well."

Gina nodded in agreement. "Neil Gabriel.... He's very good to me."

"That's good, that's good. It's only right that he treats you well." Neil originally wanted to ask Gina how she was going to handle her godmother's funeral. However, he thought that Gina definitely could not accept Ruby's death yet. It was better to talk about this matter in a few days.

Gina asked about Gabriel's injuries. "The medicinal herb I gave you can be put to use now."

Gabriel was deep in thought. "Didn't you say that we should use it when our lives are in danger? I feel good now. Why don't we keep it for now?"

Actually, he didn't want to use it because it was something that Gina had gifted him.

Gina said, "Your wound has been infected. There will be hidden dangers. Now is the best time to use it. Don't wait. After taking it, I'll plant it again and send another one to you."

"Gina, the Spirit Orchid is very difficult to grow, right?" Gabriel asked, "You were going to keep it for yourself, right?"

Gina was a little surprised. "How did you know?"

Gabriel smiled. "Because I know you."

The reason why she only gave him one stalk was not because Gina was stingy, but because it was scarce.

After Gina told him that the Spirit Orchid was so useful, Gabriel felt that this was how things should be.

Gina was stunned and changed the topic. She was really not in the mood to flirt with Gabriel now. "After I'm done with the matters at hand, I'll find a suitable piece of medicine land to plant it again. It can't wait any longer. I'm also in a hurry to make the potion for Neil." At Prover Hospital's door.

"600 million dollars is too much! Gabriel is so... Ae clutched her chest and did not say the second half of the sentence because the money was ultimately Gabriel's.

Ethan walked beside Ae with an ugly expression. He could not forget that in the ward, Gabriel refused to let him manage Jackson Group and let him start from the bottom.

He was infuriated.

"That st Gina definitely can't enter the Jackson family. Perhaps Gina had asked Gabriel for the diamond mine. You, Gabriel must have lost his mind

Abbi e patted Ethan's shoulder hard. "Son, you have to think of a way to stop Gina from marrying into the family! What if Gina has even more outrageous requests after that? What if the Gabriel emptied out all our assets?"

Ethan was annoyed. "What can I do?!"

He is just putting it nicely by saying that I don’t have experience, However, if Gabriel actually wants to help me grow, he can have David mentor me while I manage the company!” Ethan vented all the dissatisfaction in his heart in one breath.

Abbie was stunned. She did not expect her son to be so resentful “Lower your voice. We haven’t gone far. This is the hospital of Gina.”

Ethan snorted coldly and did not say anything else.

“Are you discouraged just like that?” Harry’s voice sounded.

Ethan lowered his head and snorted. “Harry, I’m not discouraged, I just feel that Gabriel looks down on me.”

Harry’s eyes flickered. “Anyone with a discerning eye can see that Gabriel doesn’t like you. He is young and promising. It’s normal for him to be a little arrogant. However, it’s surprising your grandfather actually didn’t say a word for you.”

Ethan was greatly encouraged. “Thank you for your trust, Harry. I will definitely make a name for myself!”

Harry patted Ethan’s shoulder. “It’s the best that you have this intention.”

“I will have my own company. One day, I will surpass Gabriel!” Ethan said ambitiously.

Harry was stunned. “No. You should enter Jackson Group and try to take over the position of CEO. Just now in the ward, I had a lot to say. It was not convenient for me to say it. As a shareholder, even if you start from the bottom, I will think of a way to give you a chance to advance quickly!

Ethan was stunned. He didn’t expect Harry to think so highly of him. He was touched. “Alright, since you have said so, I will definitely not let you down!”

“Alright!” Harry smiled until his eyes curved into crescents. He thought, A good show is going to take place!”

Two days later, in the VIP ward.

After the private doctor finished examining Gabriel, he said, “Mr. Jackson, your body is fine now. Moreover, your falling organs are showing signs of recovery!”

Gabriel and David looked at each other. David was happy for Gabriel from the bottom of his heart. After the private doctor finished his checkup, he left. David said happily, “Miss Miller’s medicinal herb is too amazing. Mr. Jackson, does that mean we don’t have to find Dr, Genevieve? That’s great!

Gabriel smiled, but his expression immediately became serious again. “Tomorrow is Ruby’s funeral, Gina said to keep everything simple and try to keep low profile. She wants to accompany Ruby on her last journey alone. I’m a little worried about her.”

The next day, in the quiet cemetery, Gina stood in front of the tombstone. Her tears fell silently. She touched the photo on the tombstone and sobbed, “Mom, although Cole is dead, from the clues, I can tell he’s only a nobody in the criminal organization, I’ll find the mastermind hiding in the dark and fulfill the wish of your husband and son to eliminate those scumbags.”

Gina tried her best to calm down. She was used to controlling her emotions and would not show her emotions clearly. However, at this moment, she could not calm down.

Footsteps sounded behind her, but Gina did not pay much attention to it. She only turned around to take a look when the person walked up to her. It was

Ella handed Gina a piece of tissue. “Gina, wipe your tears.”

Gina ignored her. She did not kick Ella out because she did not want to argue with her in front of Ruby’s grave.

Ella held a bouquet of flowers in her hand and placed it in front of Ruby’s grave. “Ruby, although we’ve never met, you’ve adopted Gina for a period of time. The Miller family is forever in debt to you! I hope you’ll rest in peace.”

Gina looked at Ella coldly. She did not stop her because Ella should indeed thank Ruby for helping her fulfill her duty as a mother.

Ella said, “Gina, don’t be too sad...”

“How did you find this place?” Gina asked.

“L” Ella felt a little guilty. Her gaze was unfocused and she did not know how to answer.

*I told her you were here.” Gina frowned and saw Olivia. Olivia was dressed in branded clothes and looked very carefree.

“You?” Gina narrowed her eyes slightly, and her gaze became sharp again.

“Yeah, I heard that you would be here,” Olivia said proudly.

Gina’s face turned cold. She originally planned to ignore Olivia, but in the next second, Olivia started acting again. “Gina, I’m really sorry that I am dressed so brightly today. I’m more or less disrespecting the deceased this way. I’m sorry.”

Gina looked up with coldness in her eyes.

Olivia was instantly terrified. She subconsciously took two steps back, afraid that Gina would go forward and hit her. She swallowed her saliva and said to Ella, “I still have something on. I’ll take my leave first.”

Gina realized that Olivia had come with Ella.

Gina shouted, “Stop right there,”

Olivia wanted to leave, but Gina’s domineering tone made her subconsciously stop in her tracks. She hugged her bag in fear and stopped pretending. “Gina, what are you trying to do? Do you want to hit me in broad daylight? Let me tell you, if you dare to touch a single strand of my hair, I’ll scream!”

Olivia was extremely afraid and revealed her sobbing voice. “Gina, let me tell you, if you dare to hit me today, you will definitely regret it!”

Gina could not be bothered to talk nonsense with her. She pulled Olivia hard and threw her away.

Olivia staggered a few steps forward and knelt in front of Ruby's tombstone. She knelt down without any precautions. Olivia's knee came into contact with the ground, causing her to grimace in pain.

When Ella saw this, her heart subconsciously ached. She instinctively wanted to help Olivia up, but she instantly came back to her senses and stopped what she was doing. She chose to watch from the side.

However, Gina saw her body movements. She thought, "What a lovely pair of mother and daughter!"

Gina smirked sarcastically. "Why aren't you helping her up?"

Ella was a little uneasy. "She's such an adult. Can't she stand up? Besides, she has nothing to do with our family anymore. She's just a stranger!"

Hearing Ella's heartless words, Olivia felt bitterly sad. After all, she had been Ella's daughter for more than 20 years. She really treated Ella as her mother. Unfortunately, they had already fallen out.

If she had not said that she could bring Ella to look for Gina and provide Ella with opportunities to express goodwill to Gina, Ella would not have bothered with her at all.

Gina sneered. Olivia wanted to stand up, but Gina pressed down on Olivia's head and forced her to kneel. "Kneel properly! Since you came uninvited, pay your respects to my mother. Repent and apologize at her grave."

Olivia was stunned. "Why should I apologize? The person who killed her was Cole, not me!"

"You're Cole's daughter. You enjoy the benefits he obtained through dirty means while not needing to compensate for the sins he committed. I cannot let you do that!" After Gina finished speaking, she forcefully pressed Olivia's head to the ground.

Olivia's forehead hit the ground heavily, making her dizzy from the pain. "It hurts, it hurts. Gina, are you crazy?"

Gina ignored what Olivia said and repeated her actions. She kept making Olivia's head hit the ground hard.

Olivia could clearly feel that her forehead was already swollen. It was so painful, but Gina did not weaken her grip at all. Olivia said, "Help, it hurts. I'm dying. Gina, stop!"

Olivia hoped that Ella could stop her. Unfortunately, Ella chose to turn a blind eye.

The current Ella would definitely not choose to help an adopted daughter who was not related to her by blood and offend her biological daughter.

Olivia had no choice but to follow Gina's request. "I repent!! apologize Miss Miller, please let me do this by myself. Please!"

Gina let go of her hand and stood up straight. She looked down at Olivia. Olivia did not dare to slack off and hit her head on the ground seriously. "I'm sorry, Ruby, but your death has nothing to do with me, Cole has already gone to hell. You can take revenge on him. I'm innocent, but I still apologize to you on behalf of my father, who has never taken on the responsibility of raising me for a day. I'm sorry! I hope you can rest in peace!"

Olivia looked up in fear. "Is that enough?"

"Get lost, Gina said coldly.

Olivia felt as if she had been pardoned. She wanted to run away immediately, but after taking a few steps, she walked back to Gina's side arrogantly, She angrily squeezed out a provocative smile and said in a voice that could only be heard between them, "Gina, I almost forget to thank you. Gina turned to look at Ella. "Aren't you leaving?"

Ella stammered, "Gina, I want to talk to you about your request. You wanted Jason to quit his career and compensate for the loss of Prover Hospital before treating James's legs. We have talked to him about it. Jason said he would compensate, however, he cannot quit his career. Do you think you can compromise...

“Not a chance.” Gina directly refused. “I’ve already said that both conditions are indispensable. Since you can’t do it, go through the application process like everyone else.”

Gina had never blocked James Miller’s path to Prover Hospital’s treatment. Even though there had been much unhappiness between them in the past, Gina had never thought of making things difficult for a patient. As a doctor, she had a professional attitude and ethic.

Ella still wanted to plead for leniency. “Gina, I’m begging you. Please be lenient. If Jason leaves the industry, what will happen to him in the future? How can he continue living? James’s legs can’t wait to be treated. If the application process drags on for too long, I’m afraid Prover Hospital won’t be able to treat him. He will really become a cripple...”

Gina said coldly, “What you said has nothing to do with me.”

Ella’s face turned pale as she knelt down. “Gina, I’m begging you. We were in the wrong in the past. We deserve to die. I am sorry!” Ella bowed. “I don’t want anything else from you. I just want you to arrange for James to be hospitalized. I promise that I won’t disturb you in the future! I know that you don’t want to see me!”

Gina said coldly, “You can’t bargain with me, Mrs. Miller.”

The words pierced Ella’s heart. She regretted it and blamed herself for being blind and loving her adopted daughter wrongly. She mistreated her biological daughter. It was a sin to let her biological daughter not have a home in the past. After her biological daughter returned, she still mistreated her. However, it was too late for regrets.

Gina left without looking back. Ella shed tears of regret and cried bitterly.

Walking out of the cemetery, Gina found a group of reporters waiting outside the cemetery.

She was still in a daze when the group of reporters suddenly surrounded her. “Miss Miller, are you the family of the victim, Ruby Parker? We want to interview you. What was the exact situation at the crime scene at that time? And why did the murderer Cole Yalle target Ruby? The report revealed that Cole killed Ruby because he wanted to take revenge on society and attacked indiscriminately. However, there are rumors that it was an emotional dispute. May I ask you which is the truth?”

Gina did not expect to encounter such a scene when she walked out. She looked up at the crowd and saw Olivia hiding behind a tree.

Olivia smiled evilly at Gina and turned to leave.

These reporters were hired by Olivia to deliberately annoy Gina.

Gina said coldly, "Move aside."

However, the reporters acted as if they did not hear Gina's words and continued to surround Gina.

"If you don't want to lose your job, disappear from my sight immediately," Gina looked up and saw Gabriel's figure. When the reporters saw Gabriel coming, they instantly scattered. "Gina, I'm sorry, I asked David Gray to follow you secretly. I didn't want to disturb you here, but David Gray told me that Ella and Olivia came looking for you..."

Gina asked, "So you think something bad will happen and want to help me out?"

Gabriel nodded, "Yeah."

Gina said, "Actually, I can handle it alone."

Gabriel was a little nervous. He was worried that Gina would be unhappy because of this. He apologized again, "I'm sorry, I'm just worried..." He couldn't bear to see her suffer at all.

Gina stepped forward and gently pressed her fingertips against Gabriel's lips. "Why are you apologizing? I said that can deal with it alone, but I'm very happy that you came to help me. Gabriel, you let me know that there are still people who care about me in this world."

Gabriel was stunned. He could not help but hug Gina. "Gina, it's good that you understand my intentions."

Gina snuggled into his arms for the first time. "Gabriel, give me some more time. I'm not deliberately putting you off. It's just that I still have something to do. I can't be in a

Of course, Gabriel could understand Gina. She had just lost an important family member. She was surely not in the mood to date. "Gina, I'm willing to wait for you no matter how long it takes. Next time, can you bring me along to pay respects to Ruby?"

Gina said, "Okay."

Miller Group.

In the CEO's office, Noah was bothered by something. Ever since he lost Dale Group's support and the subsequent new products, Miller Jewels had already gone downhill. If this continued, he would not be able to turn the situation around and the brand would not be far from bankruptcy.

The secretary suddenly knocked on the door. "Mr. Miller, Miss Miller is here..."

Before the secretary finished speaking, Olivia swaggered into the office. Noah realized that Olivia was dressed in Quaria's newest style.

He thought, "When did she become so rich?"

Olivia took off her sunglasses unhurriedly. "Mr. Miller, how have you been?" 20

Noah felt inexplicably guilty. "What's the matter?"

Olivia sneered. "Nothing much. I'm just in a good mood. I happened to pass by. I see that Miller Jewels is not doing well recently right?"

Noah could tell that she was being sarcastic. They had already fallen out twice, so he stopped pretending. "Olivia, if you're here to mock me, get lost.

Olivia pulled a long face. "Noah, do you really think you're someone important because I was calling you Mr. Miller.? Look at Miller Jewels. You've managed it so well that it's about to be destroyed on your hands. If Dad finds out that you've ruined his life's work, he'll probably come looking for you. from underground!"

“Olivia, are you even qualified to mention him? Your biological father killed the father who raised you for more than 20 years!” Noah roared, “Get lost! Don’t make me to slap you!”

Olivia was furious. “I won’t get lost. Noah, If you don’t want Miller Jewels to go bankrupt, be polite to me!”

Woah said disdainfully, “Why? Don’t tell me you still have a way to make Miller Jewels return to its former glory. Olivia, stop pretending. I know who you Can your lousy design really make Miller Group have another famous product like the Wish collection? Moreover, the real author of the Wish collection is Gina.”

Olivia flew into a rage out of humiliation. “Gina? Things are really different now. You actually called her Gina so intimately. When you scolded her back then, it was as unpleasant as it could be. Money really makes the world go round. Noah, how dare you use Gina to belittle me? You were the one who helped me put my name on her work!”

She had a balance of 200 million dollars.

Noah was stunned.

Olivia did not put all the money in one card.

She put away her phone and was a little proud. Although the money did not come from a respectable source, as long as it was in her account, it would be her money. He raised his hand to retaliate. Olivia did not dodge. In fact, she was even more arrogant as she pressed her face against Noah's hand. "Noah, I dare you to hit me. But you have to know that if you slap me, you will have no way out. Can you afford this slap?"

Noah stopped what he was doing and tried to calm down. He gritted his teeth and said, "Are you really willing to invest in Miller Jewels?"

Olivia said, "Of course, but I have conditions."

Noah asked, "What is it?"

Olivia said, "I want twenty percent of the shares. Also, the Miller family has to announce that you will resume your relationship with me. I also want the position of design director of Miller Jewels."

Noah's face darkened, "Olivia, aren't you being too greedy?"

At this moment, Noah was a little speechless, but he was still in a difficult position. "Isn't it a little difficult for our family to announce that we're going to restore our relationship with you? After all, Cole's killing of my biological father had a huge impact. If the outside world finds out that our family will choose to restore our family relationship with you... The impact on Miller Jewels is not small. You don't want the Miller Jewels you just invested in to still close down because of poor management, right? Then wouldn't your 200 million dollars be wasted?"

Chapter 168

Olivia thought, "It is fine as long as Gina knows about this! Not only do I want to become a shareholder of Miller Jewels like Gina, but I also want to control the lifeline of Miller Jewels and let Miller Jewels regain its glory under my control. So what if Gina is a judge in the league tournament and the dean of Prover Hospital? I can also have my own career. In the past, it was just that I did not have the chance to show off my skills.

Seeing that Olivia had given in, Noah heaved a sigh of relief. He even felt that Olivia was much easier to talk to than Gina. Noah thought, 'Is this because Olivia has been with us for over twenty years? Sometimes, having blood ties is still not enough!' He then said, "I'll have the contract drawn up."

At night, the Miller family.

"You want Olivia to move back? Are you crazy?" Ella could not sit still anymore. She looked at Noah in disbelief and recalled the affair between Noah and Olivia.

She immediately flew into a rage. "If you're bewitched by her, then get out of the Miller family with her, I don't have a shameless son like you! You want the fake sister back. What about your real sister?"

If Gina found out that they had recovered their relationship with Olivia, they would never be able to recover their relationship with Gina forever.

At this point, Ella could finally tell which was more important.

Noah had already suffered a lot of scolding recently. He felt uncomfortable and subconsciously raised his voice. "Mom, Olivia gave Miller Jewels 200 million dollars. She signed the contract without hesitation. Gina took twenty percent of the shares and is a shareholder of Miller Jewels. However, has she ever cared about Miller Jewels? Mom, when Miller Jewels is on the brink of death, we have to weigh our options, right?"

This time, it was Ella's turn to be speechless.

After a while, Ella asked, "Where did she get her money from? Could it be from an illegal source?"

Noah coughed and said tactfully, "She probably found a rich... boyfriend."

Ella understood. She could not say anything since Olivia was the one who saved Miller Jewels.

Noah let Olivia, who was waiting at the door, into the house.

She appeared in front of them with her luggage.

Olivia said with a faint smile, "Mom, I'm home."

Ella's expression was a little stiff "Welcome"

Olivia said, "Mom, apologize to me."

Ella was stunned. "What?"

Olivia said, "Last time when I told you that I had a relationship with Noah that transcended that of siblings, you hit me and said that I was shameless and seduced Noah."

Ella was speechless. After a moment of silence, he said, "I'm sorry."

Olivia smiled happily. Seeing that Ella did not deny the way she addressed her, she went forward and hugged Ella. "Mom, I forgive you, From now on, you're still my beloved mother. All the mistakes I made in the past were because I was afraid that Gina would snat

"Yes..." For some reason, Ella felt a sense of fear when she heard her former sweet daughter speak to her so gently again.

la was going home. He said to Olivia awkwardly. "Welcome home, Jason walked out of the room, Noah had already said in the family group chat that Olivia Oli v ia."

"Yeah." Olivia seemed a little cold.

In order to make his presence known, Jason spoke on behalf of Olivia, "Mom, why must we become a family with Gina, who is not close to us and holds grudges against us? Gina is amazing. She's the director of Prover Hospital, but what's the use? She refused to treat James. This was an insignificant favor to ask. She could have done it in a heartbeat. She even wants me to quit my career in order to do so. Unlike Olivia, who knew that Miller Jewels was in trouble and immediately invested 200 million dollars. It turns out that she is the one who truly cares about us."

Ella was unknowingly persuaded. It was hard not to have a good impression of Olivia again since Olivia was willing to spend two hundred million dollars for them.

Olivia smiled smugly. She thought, 'Gina, if you know that I have returned to the Miller family by using your money, you will be furious!'

She pretended to be surprised and said, "Jason, Gina actually asked you to quit your career?"

"That's right! Moreover, she seems to know the higher-ups of Star Entertainment Company. I think that even if I don't quit, someone as petty as Gina will definitely cause trouble for me in the future. However, I won't let Gina have her way!" Jason said angrily.

Olivia said understandingly, "Since she knows the higher-ups of Star Entertainment Company, I'll invest in that company and become the executive to protect your career."

Jason was shocked and touched. "Are you serious?"

Olivia said, "Of course, Jason. In the end, we're family, right? I'll pretend that I've forgotten about the past. From now on, we'll still be a loving family, okay?"

Jason said, "Good! Olivia, in my heart, you're my only sister. Gina is nothing! Oh right, I'll delete the debut song that she wrote for me and remove it from my works. I don't care about the lousy song she gave me. Even without the song she wrote for me, I can still become a top celebrity!"

"I think so too," Olivia agreed.

During their conversation, the Miller family's atmosphere fell into a strange harmony.

Gina lay on the bed and looked at the message from Michael Clark expressionlessly. [Gina, Olivia took out 200 million dollars to invest in Miller Jewels, and... and returned to the Miller family. The Miller family must be stupid. How can they accept her? A bunch of lunatics and idiots.]

Gina wasn't surprised that Olivia had returned to the Miller family. In other words, she wouldn't be surprised if the Miller family members did anything stupid ever again.

Michael: [Gina, as long as you give the order, I will get the money back. No matter what how.]

Gina: [There's no hurry. Let her mess around for a few more days]

As the saying goes, the higher you climb, the worse you fall.

The effect she wanted was for Olivia to be consigned to eternal damnation. Now was not the time yet.

Chapter 169

The next day, at Star Entertainment Company

Olivia entered the reception room and said impatiently, "Tell your boss to hurry up. I'm in a hurry."

She still had to go shopping.

The secretary was a little speechless. She thought, Withough this woman said that she was here to invest, Isn't she a little too rude...!

Footsteps sounded. Olivia looked up and was surprised to see that it was Gina.

The secretary greeted, "Miss Miller."

Olivia was stunned. "Gina? Why are you here?"

She thought. "Could it be she is one of the executives of Star Entertainment Company? Is she a shareholder or the CEO?"

Olivia's heart was in her throat.

"You. You're not the boss of Star Entertainment Company, are you?" Olivia asked tentatively.

Gina was expressionless. "No."

Olivia heaved a sigh of relief and thought, 'How can Gina have so many hidden identities? so't the position of a judge and director of Prover Hospital enough for her?'

"Did you come because you knew I was coming?" Olivia guessed.

"Yes" Gina sat on the sofa.

Olivia sneered. "You don't want me to invest in Star Entertainment Company?"

Gina did not say anything and tacitly agreed.

Olivia said disdainfully, "Since you're not the boss of Star Entertainment Company, it's useless even if you don't want to, right?"

Aria Torres walked into the reception room. Some time ago, she had officially become the CEO of Star Entertainment Company

When Olivia saw Aria, she remembered that she was the first place in the National Higher Education Design League Contest and was Gina's friend.

Olivia stood up with a fake smile. "Hello, Miss Torres."

Aria ignored Olivia

Olivia was extremely embarrassed. She gritted her teeth and said, "Miss Torres, is this how this company treats guests?"

Aria finally looked at Olivia. "Miss Miller, please leave. Star Entertainment Company does not accept or need your investment."

Olivia was furious. "Miss Torres, I know you're Gina's friend, but I really want to invest in Star Entertainment Company. Are you really going to reject a full 200 million dollar investment?"

Aria was unperturbed. "Yes."

Olivia was trembling with anger.

She was indignant and could not understand why Gina could have a friend who would be so determined to side with her.

All she had were fake friends.

$300 million dollars! I'll invest 300 million dollars!" Oliver gritted her teeth.

"Miss Miller, please leave," Aria said mercilessly.

Olivia felt a sense of defeat. She snorted coldly. "Miss Torres, you've really broadened my horizons!"

horizons!"

Aria retorted, "I just don't want your money. Besides, the assets you have can't be considered your money at all, right?"

Olivia was shocked. She looked at Gina and immediately felt a little guilty. However, on second thought, since the two of them were good friends, it was normal for Gina to tell Aria what happened that day.

Olivia thought, "Did Gina also tell Aria that Cole was my biological father and had been the butler of the Miller family for more than ten years... Perhaps the two of them are making fun of me behind my back?"

The more Olivia thought about it, the angrier she became. She clenched her fists and her hatred for Gina increased.

Olivia tried her best to calm down and said provocatively, "Gina, I know you must be unwilling that your money was transferred to my account, but you signed a gift contract. That's my money now. Don't even think about getting it back!"

Gina was amused by Olivia's words. "You think too highly of yourself"

There was no need for Gina to use complicated methods to deal with Olivia,

"I will make you return it to me willingly," Gina added.

"Really? I want to see how capable you are to make me return it willingly! If you don't make me return it willingly, I will despise you!" Olivia said evilly.

It seems like you

Olivia gulped nervously.

She couldn't out-talk Gina. She picked up her bag, snorted, and got up to leave. She had been too carefree recently. Now, she had to feel a sense of crisis. She still had more than 600 million dollars in her account. Now, she had to think of a way to transfer the remaining money overseas so that Gina wouldn't be able to recover this money no matter what.

Aker Oliva left. Gina said to Aria, "Thank you."

Gina found Aria's overly realistic reaction cute. She smiled and said, "Okay, I understand."

Aria held Gina's hand and said, "Gina, we're good friends. I'm doing you a small favor. No, I'm not even saying that I'm helping you. Why are you trying to make it up to me?"

Gina was a little dazed. "I'm used to it... I've never made friends before."

It was because she was too busy. Michael might count as her friend, but Gina felt that they should be more like superior and subordinate.

Gina had always felt that owing favors was a very troublesome matter. She hated owing favors the most, so she did everything herself. As time passed, she felt that she might not need anyone's help at all, and she had indeed done it

But now, someone was helping her simply because they wanted to. This made Gina feel happy.

Aria was stunned. She did not expect Gina to say that. She came back to her senses. "I know that outstanding people are lonely. An outstanding person like you must be even more lonely! But in the future, I will be by your side. Gina, being able to be good friends with you is the happiest thing in my life!"

She was too lucky that her idol was her good friend.

Gina smiled. "Me too."

The phone rang. Gina said to Aria, "I have to take this call."

Aria said, "Okay!"

"Gina, Olivia seems to want to move her assets overseas. She's looking for someone to operate." Ever since he helped Gina hack into Olivia's social media accounts and investigated what Lily Allen had on Olivia, Michael could easily know Olivia's movements. He would be the first to notice anything

"Alright, I understand." After hanging up the phone, Gina was ready to leave. It was time for her to take back the money that belonged to her, "I still have something on. I'll get going. See you next time." Gina waved at Olivia.

Aria nodded. "Okay!"

When Gina saw Lily again, she looked even more haggard than before, but there was also a hint of numbness. After seeing Gina, she appeared very calm.

After she sat down, she suddenly sneered and said with a self-deprecating smile, "You're the only one who's visited me this entire time. Even my own mother hasn't been here. She must think that I'm embarrassing." Search the FindNovel.net website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

A hint of sadness appeared on Lily's indifferent face. Her eyes turned red, but soon, she suppressed her sadness. "Gina, if you still want to persuade me to retract my confession, I advise you to give up. I won't..."

"It's not that your mother doesn't want to come and see you. It's that she can't" Gina interrupted Lily.

Lily was stunned and suddenly panicked. "What do you mean, Gina? Tell me clearly, did you do something to my mother? What I did to you in the past was very overboard, but my mother is innocent. I beg you, don't take revenge on my mother. Just take revenge on me!"

didn't do anything to Mrs. Allen," Gina said indifferently.

Chapter 170

“Really?” Lily was still in disbelief.

80%

Gina did not waste any time. “After you went to prison, Mrs. Allen was worried and accidentally fell, causing intracranial hemorrhage. She was treated in the hospital for a long time.”

“How did you know?” Lily asked.

Gina answered, “Because... I met her once,”

That day, as usual, Gina accompanied Ruby to the market to buy groceries. They bumped into Keira Allan, who had just left the hospital, and Keira suddenly fainted. Gina went forward to take her pulse and found that there was a blood clot in her skull that had not been completely cleared. However, at that time, Keira had already been discharged, Gina immediately decided to send Keira to Prover Hospital.

“Prover Hospital?” After Lily was imprisoned, she could not find out anything about the outside world. She did not know that the Gina in front of her, the village girl she had once looked down on, was the director of Prover Hospital. All she knew was that Prover Hospital’s treatments were very expensive.

“My mom can’t afford Prover Hospital’s medical bills,” Lily said worriedly.

“You don’t have to worry about that.” Gina had already instructed that Keira would not be charged for treatment.

Lily looked at Gina in surprise and stammered, “You... Did you pay for my mother’s medical bills?”

Gina did not answer. She did not want to explain too much to Lily

Lily could not believe it. She struggled for a long time. “Thank... thank you. Gina, but it’s a pity that I can’t repay you. No matter what your motives are for helping my mother, I won’t choose to retract my confession and accuse Olivia of being the culprit behind those things, because... because...”

Gina said. “Because you b borrowed money from her. Because she has your nude photo in her hand, right?”

Lily suddenly looked up. She suddenly felt that the Gina in front of her was a little unfamiliar. She used to think that Gina was just a slightly good-looking and quiet village girl who liked to pretend to be noble. Now, it seemed that the temperament on Gina was cold.

Gina was a little mysterious. Lily didn't know why Gina knew about the nude photos.

"There are no more nude photos of you on her phone and computer. I deleted them." Gina went straight to the point.

"You... you deleted them?" Lily could not believe it. "Gina, don't... don't lie to me."

Gina was frowning. Even now, Lily still felt that she might be lying to her.

Gina simply threw out a bombshell. "Lily, you would rather believe what Olivia promised you that as long as you return the money on time and listen to her instructions obediently, your nude photos will be safely stored in her phone and folder instead of refusing to believe what I said, right? Then let me tell you. She had shared your photo with others a long time ago. It's just that it didn't spread far enough for you to discover it."

Lily's face paled in disbelief.

Gina took out Olivia's chat history on certain apps and showed it to Lily. When Olivia was lonely, she would often chat with men on such apps. In order not to expose her true identity, Olivia used Lily's name and sent Lily's photo.

The moment she saw the unsightly chat history, Lily felt as if her world had collapsed. She broke down and said, "She clearly promised me that she wouldn't post them. She promised me!"

Gina did not sympathize with Olivia's former servant at all. "Lily, you're really pitifully stupid."
