

46 CHAPTER 46

Aella's pov 1

A young omega had come to lead us down to the dinning hall, where presumably other park members will be waiting.

Come to think of it, Crux had said Xander was his beta, what happened to beta Andrew?

The hall quietened when we, it was a large setting, with a long table in between and pack members I had never seen sitting on it looking at us curiously.

I didn't blame them, I was mostly hidden for half my life, the stares and hushed whispers followed us as the omega led us further in, head bowed.

"That's enough, I'll take it from here" I heard Lilith's nauseating fake voice, I rolled my eyes, of course she had to make an entrance.

"Alpha Eros, hope you loved your room" she said with fake sweetness.

I cringed at the tone, my eyes darkening at the thought that she may have set her sights on my mate.

"I'll rip her to shreds if she dares" Ava growled

"Chill, you'll give me a migraine if you keep that up" I snapped.

Eros paid no heed to her, instead he took my hands and walked ahead, towards where Celeste and Kaden stood.

I couldn't see Lilith's face, but no doubt she was burning red with humiliation, "fuck I love mate. He's so cool" Ava swooned

"Silly wolf, you just love that he put her in her place" I shook my head.

"I genuinely love my mate too, I mean, look at that ass" she purred.

"Okay, that's your cue. Good bye" I shut out her horny ass.

"Aels, you look so pretty" Celeste gaped as we got to them, hugging me while Eros and Kaden engaged in a conversation.

"Thank you, Eros picked the clothes out" I giggled

"And I'm already regretting it, I'm already feeling tempted to pluck out all the eyes staring at you" Eros mind linked me

"Oh please. I'm yours, they can look all the want at what they can never have" I replied.

"Good point baby girl, remind me to give you a well deserved reward" he wiggled his brows suggestively.

"Pervert" my cheeks burned

"Alpha Eros, I've been searching for you" Lilith's annoyingly high pitched voice echoed again

"That bitch is getting on my nerves" Celeste muttered, downing the wine she held.

"Tell me about it" I replied

She approached Eros directly, ignoring me, "Alpha, this place is for the lower ranked wolves, let me take you to somewhere meant for someone of your status" she purred, practically trying to lean into him, Eros dodged her but I'd had it.

"That's it" I cursed.

Grabbing a fistful of her hair, I dragged her backwards, away from Eros, "Fucking stay away from my mate or you'll have me to answer to, is that clear"

"How dare you, let go of me" she struggled against my hold, but I wasn't that weak wolfless beta anymore.

I smirked, tightening my grip on her, "I asked a question bitch, is that clear?"

She whimpered and nodded

I smirked, "when I ask a question, I expect a response, I won't ask again, is that clear?"

"Yes" she whimpered.

"Good. Now fucking scram before I do something I'll regret" I released my grip on her Hatred burned in her eyes as she glared at me, I rolled my eyes, heading back to my eyes.

Celeste was literally clapping, "that was just bad ass"

"Go Luna" Kaden raised his thumbs

"Drama queen" I shook my head

Eros pecked me as I got closer, I glared at him, "don't touch me"

"What? What did I do?" He was taken aback.

"Let me take you to somewhere worthy of your status" I imitated Lilith's fake voice, rolling my eyes.

"My eyes are up here, Alpha" calling him Alpha tasted like venom in my lips.

"Off course, You look beautiful Luna Aella" he muttered

"Aella, isn't that the name of the illegitimate daughter of the disgraced beta?"

"Disgraced Beta?" My ears perked.

Crux shot them a glare, their voices quietened, "ignore my pack members for wagging their tongues carelessly, please have a seat" Crux gestured to his right hand side.

Eros stood, eyes locked on him, like he was waiting for something, the look on crux face tightened, "Alpha Eros, is there a problem?"

"You don't expect me to sit beneath you" Eros raised his brow.

"Of course not" Crux gritted out

"I'm loving this version of mate" Ava giggled

"Me too" I smiled

Crux stood and sat at the same spot he had originally pointed for Eros.

"Who is he?"

"How dare he"

Kaden stifled a giggle, Celeste chuckled, not bothering to hide her amusement.

"She came to me" Eros grumbled, looking wronged.

"And you couldn't push her away"

"Why should I? When I have my super woman with me. Besides I didn't let her touch me" he coaxed

"What if I wasn't here?"

"She would have been lucky to walk away with her arms intact, Come on love, don't be mad at me. He pouted

"No kisses for you today" I rolled my eyes and walked away

"Not fair" he grumbled, following behind with Kaden and Celeste who couldn't hide their smiles.

We approached the high table where Crux, Xander his so called beta, and some other wolves sat. Strange, I can't see Beta Andrew's anywhere.

"Alpha Eros, welcome" Crux greeted, his eyes twitched as they fell on me "Luna" I nodded briefly, his eyes scanned my body, like they were searching for something Whispers rose from the table.

Ignoring them, Eros pulled out the chair,
"sit love"

"How dare you" Xander stood forcefully from his sit

"Do you have a problem with how I treat
my mate?" Eros voice came out calmly, his aura slowly seeping out, I could see that familiar shade of red just beneath the surface of his mismatched ones.

The table froze, too afraid to even breath,
like they could feel the danger lurking, close by.

"No..no..no Alpha" Xander stuttered out

"Wimp" Kaden said, Celeste giggled

"Good." Eros nodded, holding my arm and helping me to sit, before pulling out a different chair and sitting beside me.

Kaden and Celeste took their seats.

"I love how they're stewing in anger and yet they can't do anything about it" Ava chuckled

I looked up to find several eyes shooting
daggers at me, I glared right back at them, Ava's ice blue pupil's showing through my eyes.

They whimpered, lowering their gazes.
