Pursuing My Ex-Wife Is not Easy chapter 2926—In the photo, Anne's face looked bruised. She was tied to the chair with a rough, thick hemp rope, and she looked to be in a dark and humid basement. There was rusted iron and moss from the corner of the photo.

There was a message along with the photo.

[Keep quiet about this. If you and Joshua do not attend the wedding now, Anne will die.]

Luna's heart nearly leaped out of her chest the moment she saw the photo.

'Anne... Who kidnapped her?!' She bit her lip.

Subconsciously, she glanced at Joshua, who was on his phone not too far away from her. Her heart clenched.

Her hunch was right. Anne was in trouble! Joshua was acting weird for the entire time because of this!

Luna took a deep breath and replied to the message.

[Who are you? Why did you kidnap Anne? Where are you? I'm going there!]

Since the stranger made the request for her and Joshua to attend the wedding, she was sure the people who kidnapped Anne were trying to force Joshua to show up at the wedding.

[If you want Joshua to attend the wedding, you should take me-not Anne!]

Anne did nothing wrong. The only thing she did wrong was having Luna as her friend, the friend who kept finding herself in trouble!

Soon enough, she got a reply.

[Didn't you read my message? What I want is for you and Joshua to attend the wedding together. Don't try any tricks. If you dare to inform the police, say anything to anyone else, or do not follow my instructions, I'll kill her immediately!]

Luna's heart raced when she saw the terrible words. She grabbed her phone tightly and replied, [I'll attend the wedding immediately. Don't act rashly!]

No wonder Anne had been quiet and no one could get through to John! She finally understood why Joshua refused to let her go to look for Anne. He tried hard to stall time by asking her to doll up and went to the shop to choose an evening gown for the wedding.

It was because Anne was kidnapped! She believed Joshua did all of those because he knew about the kidnapping all along. He hid it from her because he was afraid she would do something hasty.

With those thoughts in her mind, she bit her lip. 'I'm pretty sure Joshua has a plan. I should follow his plan and not cause more trouble for him.'

Thus, she suppressed the uneasiness in her heart and pretended nothing happened while walking toward Joshua. "Joshua? We should go in now."

At that moment, Joshua was talking on the phone with Rosalyn about Luna's current condition.

He stiffened when he heard Luna's voice and quickly hung up. "Are you ready?"

"Yeah." Luna curled her lips and forced a smile while lifting her evening gown. "The wedding is about to start. We should go in."

Joshua put away his phone and took a deep breath. "Then, you have to get ready. This wedding is unlike the ones we attended before."

Luna nodded and responded, "I know."

They needed to deal with two dangerous people tonight, which were Adrian and Jacqueline, as well as coming up with a plan to save Anne!

Joshua was slightly relieved to see Luna was in a better condition. He grabbed her hand and walked into the wedding venue together.

"Joshua Lynch!"

"Joshua Lynch is here!"

"Oh my god! He's really here. I thought he wasn't going to show up..."

As soon as they entered the venue, they were surrounded.

"Mr. Lynch, your father said you were the one who instigated him to borrow money from us. Can you please clear the air and tell us if you were the one who borrowed money from us?"
