Pursuing My Ex-Wife Is not Easy chapter 2927—Luna was so shocked that she could not find any words when the people surrounded her and Joshua.

Before they arrived, Joshua had told her Adrian had secretly used his name to borrow a lot of money when they were not in Banyan City.

Yet, Luna did not think that nearly 80% of the guests who attended the wedding were people to whom Adrian owed money. Those who lent money to Adrian were almost everyone from the upper class from Banyan City!

The shocked Luna stared at the scene and grabbed Joshua's hand tightly.

Joshua looked at the people who surrounded them indifferently and said, "Are all of you here to attend Adrian and Jacqueline's wedding or here to collect your debt?"

It brought silence to the wedding.

Not long later, a female shouted out from the crowd, "What's wrong with that? Why can we attend the wedding and also collect our debt at the same time?"

The others quickly adhered to her.

"That's right! We're here to attend the wedding and also collect our money. Is that wrong?"

"Yeah! A dutiful son is obliged to pay his father's debts. And when Adrian came to borrow from us, he used your name!"

"If you won't settle this today, Adrian isn't going to get married!"

Despite the noisiness, Joshua curled his lips into a smile. "Everyone, I'll give all of you an explanation regarding that. But..."

He looked up at Adrian, who was standing on the stage in his suit, as well as at Jacqueline in her white wedding dress. "Today is Adrian and Jacqueline's day. It's not right for me to steal the limelight away from them. We're here to attend their wedding."

The people around him were stunned. Although they were reluctant, they dispersed.

"Mr. Lynch, I hope you're a man of your word!"

"We've recorded you mentioning you'll give us an explanation!"

"If you run from this, we'll lodge a police report!"

Luna furrowed her brow after hearing those. She knew it was normal for people to be selfish especially when money did not fall from the sky, but she remembered the upper-class people in Banyan City were mostly decent. It was odd how everyone was in a hurry and anxious to threaten Joshua to pay back the money Adrian owed.

'What is going on?' she thought.

"Adrian and Jacqueline are engaged with a newly established loan shark company in the city," said Joshua, as though reading her mind, lowering his voice so only both of them could hear what he said. " During this period, everyone who tried to collect their debts from Adrian was either beaten or harmed in another way. They hold grudges against him, yet they didn't go against Adrian because they thought I have powerful influence here and that I'd be able to pay."

Luna instantly understood after that. 'No wonder everyone is going after Joshua as soon as we step inside here. I guess if Joshua isn't going to help Adrian, those people are going to tear Adrian into pieces at his own wedding! But...'

She was still worried about Anne. All she wanted was to get this wedding over and save Anne with Joshua.

She frowned and asked softly, "What are you going to do?"

These people were here to make Adrian pay. Would it not be better to tell these people Joshua was not going to help Adrian and let these people settle it with Adrian themselves?
