Chapter 6: How Do You Like The Surprise?

Then, the two began their routine cultivation. After they were done, it was already half past seven.

They took a shower in the restroom of the training grounds and changed their clothes before returning home.

In the living room, Lu Wen was sitting on the couch watching the news on a holographic screen while Fu Shuya was busying about in the kitchen.

Although they were busy at work, the two liked spending time with their children. This was beneficial to their children's growth. Meaning, Fu Shuya would cook breakfast if she had the time.

"Ze, come over." When Lu Wen saw Lu Ze and Lu Li come back, he put down the computer in his hand and called them.

Lu Ze felt a little confused but still walked over. He studied his dad carefully. This old handsome man definitely had quite some girls chasing after him back in the Earth era. There was some authority between his eyebrows, which is probably due to being in power for a long time?

But when he looked at Lu Ze and Lu Li, he hid his authority. There was only maturity, gentleness and deep intimacy.

This made Lu Ze feel quite complicated. After all, the original Lu Ze already died. Whether it was Lu Li or Lu Wen, they all looked at him with deep intimacy. This made him not know what to do.

But since he inherited this body, he would protect this family.

"What's wrong, Dad?" Lu Ze smiled as he sat down.

Lu Wen was dazed. Dad? Didn't this kid always call him father?

"... Is your brain eaten by brain devouring bugs?"

He asked the same thing Lu Li asked. Lu Ze's mouth spasmed. Like father like daughter. Their mind was joined up!

Lu Li smiled. "I feel so as well. Dad, why don't we go to the hospital and cut open his brain and see?"

Shit! Lu Li do you know that when you speak scary things with a smile, it's really terrifying?

Lu Ze chose to move away from Lu Li silently. Then he smiled and said, "I just felt that the life before was too tiring. Choosing a different way to live might be better."

Hearing this, Lu Wen felt dazed and glanced at Lu Ze a bit longer before showing a smile. "The most important thing is that you guys are happy."

In reality, Lu Wen didn't want Lu Ze to be a martial maniac too. No matter how invincible you were, what's the point of solitude at the pinnacle?

This was why Lu Wen still liked to spend more time with his family despite having great societal status.

"It's your 18th birthday today. There's good and bad news. Which one do you want to hear first?" Lu Wen's handsome old face smirked.

Lu Ze was surprised. Today was his birthday? He completely forgot about it, but his dad was playing such games. He was a bit speechless. "Let's hear the bad news."

"Cough cough, Ze, on a dark windy night, your mom and I were..."

"Stop! Get to the point Dad! It's not easy for your son to live up to this age." Lu Ze said helplessly. He had zero tolerance for Lu Wen every time he did this.

Lu Li on the other side silently raised her fist against tyranny.

She was single too.

"Cough, kids these days don't really understand romance." Lu Wen shook his head.
"Then I'll get to the point. You're not our child."

Lu Ze: ???

Lu Li: !!!

"And the good news is that there's a second grandpa who wants me to inherit 100 billion worth of fortune. It's a private planet. Don't worry Dad, I will take you to prosperity." Lu Ze smiled.

Oh my god, he made such a joke on his birthday. What was his dad?

“Which second grandpa?” Lu Wen looked dazedly at Lu Ze. “You already knew you weren’t our child? And the wealthy second grandpa came to you before?”

Lu Ze was surprised, and his smile gradually receded seeing Lu Wen’s grim expression.

Their eyes met. Lu Ze’s mouth spasmed. “Dad, are you being serious?”

Lu Wen nodded and answered, “Yes.”

Lu Ze felt very complicated. He just transmigrated and encountered a happy family. This family had great parents and a cute sister. Yet on the second day, his dad told him he wasn’t their son. Although he transmigrated, the fusion of memory made him feel he experienced this life. His heart couldn’t take this sudden news.

What bullshit drama was this?

Seeing the atmosphere was a bit awkward, Lu Li looked worriedly at Lu Ze. The gentle smile on her face was gone.

Lu Ze took a deep breath and smiled awkwardly. “Da... cough, what’s the good news?”

Was it a bit too shameless to keep calling him Dad? Lu Ze couldn’t say it in the end.

Lu Wen’s eyes flashed and smiled “The good news is that look at our Li. Isn’t she pretty? Isn’t she sexy? Even if you chase her I won’t break your legs. What do you think? How do you like this surprise? Do you feel you’ve earned it?”

Lu Ze: !!!

Lu Li: ???

Lu Ze turned his head to look at Lu Li’s extremely exquisite face and that extremely dominant figure. He thought for a moment. This seemed... to be good news?

Suddenly, Lu Li smiled gently at him. Lu Ze was immediately shaken up. He didn’t know if this was good news anymore.

“Of course, you can still call me Dad. If you’re willing, we’ll always be a family of four.” Lu Wen saw that Lu Ze’s face wasn’t that stiff, and he spoke with a smile.

As for chasing Lu Li, what a joke. His daughter was that cute, whoever chased her would have his legs broken!! No matter who it was!

If it was Lu Ze, then he would break one. If it was other people, he would break three!

Lu Ze looked up at Lu Wen's loving look and rubbed his stale face. He smiled "I thought Dad wanted to cut our relationship and that's why he said it. I was thinking about how I could keep staying. That really scared me."

"If he dares to sever ties with you, I will immediately sever ties with him." A dominant voice transmitted from the kitchen.

Fu Shuya was standing at the kitchen door. She looked gently at Lu Ze as she smiled. Clearly, she heard what was just said.

"Mom..." Lu Ze smiled and called.

"Hmm?" Fu Shuya raised a brow and looked dangerously at Lu Ze.

Lu Ze froze slightly and immediately praised "Oh, young and beautiful mother. Your beauty is magnificent like the stars. Your temperament is soft and generous like the milky way. The words of this world can't describe your greatness."

Chapter 7: Don't These People Go Cultivate?

Translator: Dragon Boat Translation Editor: Dragon Boat Translation

"Disgusting! I look down on you!" Lu Li said as she quirked her lips.

Even Fu Shuya was embarrassed by Lu Ze's compliments. She froze slightly and looked strangely at Lu Ze. "Good son, is your brain eaten by a brain devouring bug?"

"Pssch..."

Lu Li was looking down as her shoulders were shaking.

Lu Ze's mouth spasmed. He smiled helplessly. The third time, all three of them said the same thing!

He smiled and said, "No way, I'm just praising how glorious and unparalleled mother is."

Fu Shuya clearly really liked this and nodded happily. "Good boy, if you can get Li, I won't disagree. This way, this family of four will be symmetric."

Lu Ze felt a sharp gaze from his side and his mouth spasmed. He could only smile awkwardly.

He couldn't take this dark-hearted woman anymore.

At this moment, Lu Wen sighed. "We found you at Xishui Forest outside the city. It is a pity that there were no clues left about you. Otherwise, we can give it to you, and you might be able to find your parents."

Lu Ze heard this and fell silent for a while and said with a smile, "Although I'm grateful that they gave me life, the only parents I have are you guys."

In his past life, his parents were divorced and had their own families. He seemed to be the extra. When he grew up, he grew distanced from them. He didn't expect that this identity was even worse. He was abandoned on birth.

Although dad and mom weren't his biological parents, Lu Ze had never seen such good parents. To him, they were his biological parents.

Lu Wen and Fu Shuya glanced at each other with a complicated look. Eventually, Fu Shuya smiled "Alright, today's your 18th birthday. You're going to be an adult. What present do you want? I'll prepare it for you!"

Lu Wen smirked, "How about preparing a beautiful young girl for you... Aiya!"

Before Lu Wen even finished, he was slapped by Fu Shuya unable to get up from the couch.

Lu Ze who was interested a bit saw Fu Shuya's expressionless face and immediately shook his head. Mother was too powerful.

He couldn't mess with her!

"Never mind, I'll prepare it for you," Fu Shuya said as she felt Lu Wen was unreliable.

Lu Ze could only nod in agreement.

"Eat breakfast."

After breakfast, the chauffeur of Lu Ze and Lu Li sent them to school, Chang Yang City's No. 1 Middle School.

This was the best middle school in Chang Yang City. The students inside all have middle or above talent. Lu Ze's talent was at the bottom of the group while Lu Li's talent was at the top of the school.

This dark-hearted woman was quite strong.

Lu Ze gasped and glanced to the side, smiling at Lu Li.

As soon as she got off, she caught the eyes of the students there.

In the school, she was a moral and capable, academic and sporty all-rounder student. She was the obedient girl to teachers and the perfect child to other parents.

Her act had never been seen through. Her soft smile made countless ignorant girls call her "Master Sister" and countless guys fall for her.

Lu Ze was the legendary useless big brother.

He wasn't that bad. He was just ordinary, but compared to Lu Li, he was clearly bad.

Seeing the two get off the car, the students murmured amongst themselves.

"Master Sister is gentle just as usual today. However, that person is ruining the scene. He blocked me from seeing my master sister."

"Ahh, I want to replace that person standing next to Master Sister. Why is that person still alive?"

Bystander A asked curiously, "What are you doing?"

Bystander B said seriously with hands closed, "Me? I'm cursing that person will never be able to get an erection his entire life! The gentle goddess should not have men next to her!"

Bystander A: "Wait, that's not right!"

Bystander B: "What? You don't think so? I'll tell you, you will get beaten to death if you think so!"

Bystander A: "No, I'm saying you should bite open your middle finger. That would work better. Look."

Bystander A then bit open his middle finger and looked ferociously at Lu Ze before closing his eyes in pious prayer.

Bystander B looked as though she had learned something and bit her middle finger open too and closed her eyes.

...

Lu Ze was speechless. Couldn't you guys talk quieter?!

Everyone practiced martial arts. Who's hearing wasn't good?

He really wanted to beat someone up!!

Didn't these people cultivate??

These were a bunch of idiots. This reminded Lu Ze of crazy fans during the Earth era. Times have changed, but there were still such crazy fans.

Was Lu Li too invincible or were these people too young?

These young people should go cultivate!

Of course, those with aspirations already went to cultivate. Those left here are all ordinary talented people. Lu Ze was one of them before too.

At most, he just worked harder.

Lu Li smiled as she walked past the crowd, and the crowd parted automatically. Lu Ze followed and walked over. Everything was good except being stared at with all sorts of killing intent.

But Lu Ze didn't really care how people looked.

He was a third-year student while Lu Li was still a second-year. The two weren't in the same class. After separating from Lu Li, Lu Ze went to his own class.

As soon as he sat down, Li Erhou who was on the same desk as him came up. He was dark and skinny. He seemed malnourished, but his shimmering eyes had some light.

Li Erhou still didn't know why his parents gave him such a name. He thought about it, and the only possibility was that he was the son of his parents' enemies. That's why they got back at him like this.

TL note: Erhou means second monkey.

It was because of this name that he looked like a little monkey but wasn't as cute as a little monkey.

Every time he thought of this possibility, his face would look bad. He would start talking about this to Lu Ze. This used to make the past Lu Ze go crazy.

So when Li Erhou came close, Lu Ze subconsciously made a defensive stance. When this guy opened his mouth, it was more damaging than Tang Sanzang of Da Hua Xi You movie.

This kid is this terrifying!

Li Erhou didn't mind Lu Ze's reaction and smiled, "Ze, the graduation trial ground has been confirmed."

"Where is it?" Lu Ze felt relaxed seeing that Li Erhou didn't rant and asked curiously.

"Nan Feng planet."

"It's not on Lan Jiang planet?" Lu Ze's eyes narrowed. Previously, the graduation ground has always been on Lan Jiang planet.

"It's said that this time, it's a joint graduation trial of all the middle schools on the three planets of Lun Te system. It's fighting and understanding each other. It will begin from our generation and probably happen every generation after us."

Lu Ze heard this and realized the reform in education. This often happened in China during the Earth Era.

Thinking about things, he spent three years in high school without air conditioning but as soon as they left, they install air conditioning in the classrooms...

Previously, they learned high-level math at their university but as soon as they left, they began to teach data analysis...

All in all, there's a lot of hardship, but I won't say it.

However, Lu Ze didn't expect it would be a big scene like this...

Chapter 8: Such Evil Intention!

Translator: Dragon Boat Translation Editor: Dragon Boat Translation

Lan Jiang planet was in the Lun Te Solar System, which was bigger than the Solar System. The star here was called Lun Te. It had 33 planets revolving around it, and four of them were planets with life.

This included Lan Jiang, Hei Yan, Jing Ping which had people living on it. There was another small planet filled with ferocious beasts and that was Nan Feng.

There was no huge ocean on Nan Feng. However, salt and freshwater lakes were scattered across the surface. The rest of the area was land.

The planet wasn't big and was only half the size of Earth. All sorts of ferocious beasts lived on it. It was quite a nice hunting ground. Many martial artists of Lan Jiang, Hei Yan, and Jing Ping would go there to hunt beasts to sell.

This time, all the middle school students were having their graduation trial on this planet. Clearly, it was a major event of Lun Te system. After all, those people who stand out from this trial might be able to get into the best academy of the human race, Federal University.

This would be the honor of the entire Lun Te system. Everyone would be watching this.

For Lu Ze, if he could still go and hunt at that strange grassy plain, he would work hard. Otherwise, with his talent, he might as well get washed and sleep.

However, after he died in the plain last night, he couldn't get in again no matter which way he tried. He studied that small space in his mind but yielded no results.

Eventually, he had to think of it as a small benefit of transmigrating.

Soon, he began class. If you focused on martial arts, the high school didn't have high requirements for your literary classes. Lu Ze's past life who was a martial maniac chose martial arts class.

The morning was literacy class and the afternoon was martial arts practice. On the huge training grounds, all third-year students were focused on martial arts.

After all, there was just one month before graduation. All martial arts cultivator liked to compete.

"Ze, let's practice?" Li Erhou was keen.

"Sure," Lu Ze smiled and nodded. His martial arts skills needed the battle to improve.

He was only beating rabbits last night and almost died on a one vs one match. If this was a game, he pretty much got killed by a jungle monster at level 1?

His mindset was going to collapse!

The two set up their pose. Li Erhou smiled and dashed over. He looked like a monkey and he was agile like a monkey. His basic movement technique almost reached the level of "experienced".

Martial arts technique mastery was divided into beginner, familiar, experienced, completion and perfection.

Most students' foundational movement technique only just reached familiar. His movement technique in the morning before he fought Lu Li was this level. Lu Li was a year younger than him but her mastery reached experienced.

Perhaps after fusing souls, his mental power changed. Lu Ze's martial arts talent improved a lot. Otherwise, he wouldn't have reached experienced mastery after receiving a beating.

Almost experienced mastery foundational movement technique was Li Erhou's pride. He thought this was making up for his looks. After all, most students weren't as good as him in terms of movement technique. This included Lu Ze.

However, Lu Ze was no longer the past Lu Ze anymore.

He looked at Li Erhou's punch that reached for his chest. He dodged it casually while shaking his arm. His punch landed on Li Erhou's chest striking him back a few steps.

Li Erhou rubbed his chest in pain and then looked at Lu Ze in shock. "Shit, Lu Ze, did you eat some pills? How could you dodge that?"

Li Erhou's cultivation level was also level four. However, ordinary level four couldn't beat him due to this movement technique.

Lu Ze cracked a smile. "I can't help it. I have a prodigy sister helping me with cultivation. My improvement is fast."

Lu Ze wasn't going to tell Li Erhou his increase in cultivation level.

Li Erhou heard this, and his eyes were green with envy. He gritted his teeth and raised his middle finger and said, "Animal! Go die! Hurry up and explode on the spot!"

Lu Ze smiled and asked, "Do you still want to continue?"

Li Erhou gritted his teeth. "Continue!"

Lu Ze's eyes lit up as he nodded. He had been taking a beating and his movement technique increased, but his fist technique hadn't improved at all. After all, he couldn't even counter-attack.

This time, he could practice his fist art.

Lu Ze and Li Erhou's fist technique were about the same. They just reached familiar mastery. They were trading blows when Lu Ze controlled his movement technique and used his elbows and fists to attack.

But soon, Lu Ze's fist technique flowed better and better. His punches grew more and more powerful. Gradually, Li Erhou couldn't keep up with Lu Ze's pace. He was hit by Lu Ze's cannon punch on the chest and fell to the ground.

"Are you okay?" Lu Ze asked.

“I’m fine.” Li Erhou began to doubt life. This progress was too fast. This was unfair.

He even felt his confidence was defeated.

“Ze, you ate pills indeed.”

Lu Ze looked at Li Erhou’s annoyed face and patted his shoulder in comfort.

To be honest, he really didn’t know what to say. His martial talent was even better than Lu Li now. She used more and more force beating him in the morning because she got jealous.

“Do you want more?” Lu Ze asked.

He could feel that the way he punched changed in this battle. His mental power seemed to have gotten stronger. He subconsciously found the best way to exert force for him. That was why he improved so fast.

After all, martial arts techniques focused on how the body exerted force.

“No, never again. You definitely want to beat me to death and inherit my ant flower. Such an evil intention. I’m telling you, no way!” Li Erhou shook his head.

Lu Ze’s mouth spasmed. So the ant flower is still there? Hmm, the old Magic artefact must be very happy.

But since Li Erhou didn’t want to fight, Lu Ze could only cultivate himself and try to improve.

His fist technique hadn’t reached the level of experienced yet, but it was much better than before. With how his movement technique and cultivation level improved too, Lu Ze felt he could beat ten of himself from yesterday.

This improvement was too quick.

He seemed to have fallen in love with cultivation. This feeling of constantly getting stronger was mesmerizing.

The martial arts stopped at 4:30 pm. That was the end of the school day. People arranged the remaining time themselves. The homework was much less than in the Earth era.

One had to say this was perfect!

Lu Ze thought about his 10 kg school bag in his past life. His eyes were slightly wet now.

Chapter 9: This Is the Right Way to Open, Right?

After class, Lu Ze went straight to the building of the second year.

"Li, I really like you. Can we give each other a chance to know each other?"

As soon as he came to Lu Li's classroom, Lu Ze heard a familiar soft voice.

A golden-haired handsome youth was standing at the classroom door with a smile. He spoke gently. Clearly, he was educated.

This person was called Shen Feiyang. He was the son of the mayor of Chang Yang city. He was in the same year level as Lu Li. If Lu Li was the female idol of the school, then Shen Feiyang was the male idol of the school.

His family was exceptional. He was handsome and gentle. His cultivation talent was not much weaker than Lu Li. He was a level seven martial artist too. In the eyes of students at the school, he and Lu Li were a perfect match.

Shen Feiyang fell in love with Lu Li the first day he went to school. He had been chasing her for two years since. He never even looked at other girls who liked him.

Even Lu Ze approved of him. He was such a good man. Lu Ze was just a little bit better than him.

Lu Li smiled softly as usual "Sorry, Shen Feiyang. I don't plan to have a relationship in middle school. You don't need to waste time on me."

Shen Feiyang was clearly used to Lu Li's rejection and smiled helplessly. He looked at her softly and said, "I won't give up. If you don't want a relationship during middle school, I'll wait till we are in university for you. If you don't want a relationship while we are in university, I will wait for you for the rest of my life."

"Oh my god!!!"

Shen Feiyang's expression made the nearby girls scream. Their faces were red. Who knew what they were thinking inside their brains.

Lu Li smiled and said nothing. She turned around and saw Lu Ze. Her mouth spasmed. This guy was enjoying the show? He didn't even help her get out of this situation!

Her smile grew softer as she walked to Lu Ze. "Brother, let's go."

At this moment, Shen Feiyang looked at Lu Ze and smiled helplessly “Brother Ze, help me persuade Li. I promise to give her happiness.”

Lu Ze was dazed, why was this brought to him?

Looking at Shen Feiyang’s hopeful eyes, Lu Ze smiled. “Li can decide for herself. She’s a grown-up now. If you really want to chase her, then do it yourself.”

By the way. They didn’t seem to be real brothers and sisters. Should he try chasing her too?

Cough. As a transmigrator, if he still needed to chase girls then he would lose the face of all those qian beis. He must not think like this!

It should be saints and demons girls coming to him. Goddess and immortal goddesses wanting to sleep with him!

He should look coldly at Lu Li and say, “Sit down, move.”

That’s the right way?

Shen Feiyang smiled awkwardly and patted his head. “Brother Ze you’re right. Look at me, I’m too desperate. I will keep trying! I won’t disturb you guys.”

Then, he left elegantly.

Seeing Lu Ze look at Shen Feiyang leave, Lu Li smiled, “He’s long gone. If you like him then go chase him! I believe there is true love for homosexuals. Shen Feiyang might be a good choice.”

Lu Ze’s face went green. He looked strangely at Lu Li and said, “You dirty-minded girl! I just feel it’s not natural.”

After all, once you transmigrate, you should encounter the antagonist. Why did he encounter such an excellent man? Shen Feiyang was almost as excellent as him.

“What’s not natural?” Lu Li asked in confusion.

“Nothing. I’m wondering why someone can like an evil-minded person such as you for this long. This isn’t natural!”

Lu Li smiled and stared at Lu Ze. “How about we spar every morning from now on? Otherwise, I’ll tell dad that you wanted to put me in 18 positions.”

???

Lu Ze looked at the gently smiling Lu Li and his heart went cold. He said drily, "... You're so evil!"

Lu Li's smile was unwavering. "Brother you misunderstood Li. Li is trying to help brother improve. This is for your benefit."

Then she turned to leave. "Let's go home. Today is brother's birthday. Don't put on a bitter face."

Seeing her tall figure and waving long, black hair leave, Lu Ze's mouth spasmed. He followed on lifelessly.

He was no match for Lu Li now. Living every day like this would be unbearable.

She's really a little torturous monster.

When they got home, Lu Wen and Fu Shuya had prepared the birthday cake. The birthday was simple; the family of four celebrated it together. However, Lu Ze still felt it was very warm.

After making the wish and blowing out the candle, Fu Shuya gave an exquisitely wrapped gift box to Lu Ze and said, "Good son! This is your present from your dad and me."

Lu Ze smiled and took it. He opened the box. Inside was a dark black ring. The ring had some strange patterns on it that looked beautiful.

"This is... storage ring?" Lu Ze's eyes narrowed.

Pocket dimension equipment was very expensive. Even his family would need to spend a lot of money to buy such a ring.

Lu Ze smiled and said, "Thank you, honorable Mother, I will use it well. Oh yea, and Dad too."

Lu Wen's face went dark. "Punk, am I only secondary??"

Fu Shuya smiled gently and touched Lu Ze's head. Her eyes were a bit complicated. "This is your adulthood birthday. Good boy, you've grown up..."

As a mother, Fu Shuya was prideful and complicated seeing her son finally mature. Soon, Lu Ze would have his own family. She would miss him.

Indeed, it's better to let Ze and Li marry. Fu Shuya thought.

Li was admiring the scene on the side. She didn't have a storage ring, but because it was Lu Ze's adulthood birthday, Lu Li felt this gift was right.

"Lu Ze, this is my present." Lu Li saw Lu Ze carefully put the ring on and threw over a USB disk.

"What is this?" Lu Ze asked in confusion.

Nan Fang planet ferocious beast guide. I heard your graduation will be at Nan Feng planet. I'm worried you might be eaten so I found friends to get you some information." Lu Li smiled.

"Shen Feiyang?" Lu Ze raised a brow.

"A girl." Lu Li glanced at Lu Ze.

"Oh." Lu Ze nodded and couldn't resist roaring, "Don't use the pretense that I would be eaten!!"

"Then use the pretense that you will die? After all, your power is that weak." Lu Li smiled.

"..." Lu Ze took the USB and didn't plan to talk to Lu Li. Otherwise, he would die from anger.

At the same time, he thought that when his power surpassed Lu Li, he would show her what's good.

Chapter 10: Finally Know How I Died Yesterday

Translator: Dragon Boat Translation Editor: Dragon Boat Translation

Fu Shuya looked at their interaction and smiled. "You two are really close."

Seeing this, she felt assured.

Lu Ze cut the cake with his head looking down. He felt his mother seemed to have some misunderstanding about being close.

The cake was made with spirit fruits. It was beneficial to cultivation. After eating the cake, Lu Ze and Lu Li were sent back to their room for cultivation.

Lu Ze especially, his graduation trial was almost here. Lu Wen and Fu Shuya hoped he would get a good result.

The graduation trial concerned the resource allocation for one month before the final exam. You might even get a guaranteed spot. It should be taken seriously.

Going back to this room, Lu Ze sat on his bed and started to digest the spirit power brought by the spirit fruit and refined his body. There was no faint red orb so his skin refinement stopped. He could only continue refining his bones.

Soon, the sky dimmed and insect chirping interrupted the silent night sky. Lu Ze's room was pitch black. His eyes were tightly shut as he was immersed in cultivation.

Suddenly, Lu Ze felt a shock in his brain, and his consciousness sunk into darkness.

When he recovered consciousness again, the insect chirping was gone. What came instead was the fresh smell of grass brushing into his face.

Lu Ze's heart beat fast, and he opened his eyes.

When he saw the familiar grass plain he almost jumped in excitement.

He could come back in again, indeed!!

Since he could come back in, then the small orbs, hehe~

Lu Ze's lips raised up. The green light flashed across his eyes as he searched the surrounding.

Little rabbit, where are you guys at?

But Lu Ze didn't let his guard down. After all, there were unknown dangers here. He still didn't know how he died last night.

Soon, Lu Ze saw a huge grey rabbit eating grass ahead.

It was a bit smaller than the huge white rabbit yesterday but was still nearly 80 cm tall.

Lu Ze came to a 30-meter range of the rabbit, and the rabbit raised its ears in vigilance.

When its red eyes saw Lu Ze, it bared its sharp teeth from its triangular mouth.

Lu Ze's mouth spasmed. Every time he saw a cute rabbit bare its sharp fangs, it felt unnatural.

But he wasn't the same person yesterday. He looked calmly as the rabbit charged over. Lu Ze's eyes went cold. When the grey rabbit reached him, he shifted and at the same time, struck a heavy punch on the rabbit's neck.

Crack!

There was a crisp sound and the grey rabbit kept falling forward a few meters and kicked its legs a few times before becoming still.

One second kill!

Lu Ze raised his lips. He was much stronger than yesterday.

Soon, the grey rabbit's body turned to dust and left behind a faint red orb.

Lu Ze was surprised. There were two yesterday. Today, there was only one?

He compared the mass of the two rabbits. Do the stronger ones have more light orbs upon dying?

He would just need to kill a few more to know.

Lu Ze didn't think about it anymore and picked up the light orb. The light orb disappeared in his hand, probably going to that small dimension again.

Then, Lu Ze started searching again. Soon, he found two more rabbits.

The black one was about the same size as the huge white one yesterday. There was another grey one who looked liked a twin of the one he just killed.

Seeing Lu Ze, the two rabbits charged over with red eyes as though they saw beautiful female rabbits.

Lu Ze dashed and charged up with red eyes too.

They were little orbs!

He dodged the claws of the two rabbits. Lu Ze punched the grey rabbit to death and then focused on the black rabbit.

The black rabbit had a stronger defense than the grey one and was also faster. However, Lu Ze was not the same as yesterday. He struck five punches on the neck and the black rabbit spasmed as it fell to the ground.

Three red orbs harvested!

An hour later, Lu Ze sat panting in the grass. He was an experienced rabbit hunter now.

In that hour, he killed two super huge white rabbits that were larger than yesterday's. He then killed 6 huge rabbits and 13 small rabbits. He was cruel and merciless!

Too cruel!

Including the 3 orbs he got from the start, he collected 35 orbs in total.

This was amazing!

Lu Ze never stopped smiling. The laborer was the most honorable indeed!

Seeing all these little orbs, it should be enough to bring his skin, flesh, tendon and bone refinement to perfection right?

At that time, Lu Li, hehe~ naughty little sister. Big brother will teach you a lesson.

At this moment, Lu Ze's smile froze. His eyes were wide open as he stared into the grass ten meters ahead in disbelief. Sweat was coming down his forehead.

The height of the grass was different. Some were just at his knees; some were more than two meters high. Lu Ze would disappear if he went in.

In the bush around 1.6m tall, there was a pair of eyes inside the grass??

Lu Ze felt his eyes were blurry. He blinked but found that the eyes disappeared. Then, the grass seemed to be moving slowly.

When it moved out of that patch of grass, Lu Ze finally saw what it was.

It was a huge green wolf that was 1.5m tall. Its fur was a pure green color that was very similar to the grass. It looked smooth and thin. It was definitely a top-level fur. There was clearly no wind blowing but it was still wobbling.

Its eyes were green too. Only the white ring of his eyes was of a different color.

Lu Ze sat on the ground and looked at the huge wolf. The wolf also looked at Lu Ze.

Their eyes met and they were both dazed.

This wasn't scientific. This was a tiger right? How could there be such a huge wolf?!

But its color was really good.

The wolf's green eyes shot out a frosty light. It also seemed a little careful as if he had never seen such a living being before.

Moments later, it opened its mouth showing its frosty fangs and roared at Lu Ze.

Lu Ze: ???

There was a 1.5m tall huge wolf roaring at him. It looked super ferocious. What should I do?

Should I bark back?

Should I act dead?

Just when Lu Ze was thinking about this, the huge wolf seemed to be getting impatient. It shot out a half-transparent chi blade thing that sliced across the air making screeching sounds. Before Lu Ze could react, it sliced mercilessly on his chest.

His entire chest seemed to have been cut open like paper.

Huge amounts of blood came out that he seemed like a human fountain.

Ah~ I finally know how I died yesterday...

These were his final thoughts before his consciousness sank into darkness.
