Chapter 105: Holy Crap

"Hey, girl, where are you taking us? Your Fatty Bro is very busy!"

Fatty originally didn't want to bother with Zhou Hanyu, but unable to resist the little girl's persistent dragging, he had to come along with her.

As for Zhuge Wushuang and Mu Qingcheng, they didn't want to stay around Yang Yan either.

The little girl happened to come and find them, so they just went along with her.

"Just follow me! Oh, by the way, you and Yang Yan have a good relationship, right?"

Zhou Hanyu asked.

"Of course, you should see who we are, we're pretty tight with the head."

Fatty said proudly.

"As long as you have a good relationship! Come, take a look and tell me, where did he catch this from? Take me to catch a few more like this later."

Zhou Hanyun said excitedly.

"What is it? A little animal? No problem, just call out for your Fatty Bro a few times, and I promise to catch as many as you want."

Fatty said with a face full of bravado.

Soon, the three of them followed Zhou Hanyu to her room.

Just before going out to eat, Zhou Hanyu was afraid others might see it, so she had already prepared a big bowl of milk for Nine Treasures, then closed the doors and windows before going out to eat.

Zhou Hanyu pushed open the door and pointed to Nine Treasures, who was napping in the corner, and said:

"Fatty Bro, it's that! Help me catch a few more, would you? That annoying Yang Yan wouldn't even tell me where he got it from! It's so frustrating."

"Hell!"

"Hell!"

"Hell!"

Fatty, Zhuge Wushuang, and Mu Qingcheng almost exclaimed simultaneously and then exchanged a series of puzzled looks.

"This, this, this... It's the head's? Where... where did he get it from?"

Fatty looked at Nine Treasures, who was already awake after their exclamations, having a bit of trouble speaking.

"Where did that guy get this little white tiger from? What an international joke! He's crazy! Absolutely crazy!"

As soon as Zhuge Wushuang saw Nine Treasures, she sobered up instantly.

"This is indeed exaggerated! This is a juvenile white tiger. But even so, it's still too shocking. Everyone who has dealt with that person knows, if anyone dares to keep a white tiger as a pet like this, ha, ha, who can endure that gentleman's anger?"

Even Mu Qingcheng, who usually didn't like talking, couldn't help but shout exaggeratedly.

"Don't forget, the head is on the same level as that gentleman, who fears who! But this is really exaggerated. Even if that gentleman may not defeat the head, is the head not afraid of trouble? If that gentleman throws a tantrum, the entire Hidden World would tremble thrice!"

Fatty said, looking distressed.

"This is too big a matter, we need to go talk to Moonlight. If for any other reason, it's easier to say, but if Moonlight caught it, then things will get lively. If it results in a fight between the Four Emperors at the top of the Hidden World pyramid, the Ice and Snow Emperor with the Snow White Tiger against Dark Night Emperor Moonlight Yang Yan... ha! The thought itself is thrilling."

After Zhuge Wushuang finished speaking, she turned and left.

Fatty and Mu Qingcheng followed closely behind.

As for the little white tiger, they didn't even want to touch it, wanting to stay as far away as possible.

The Four Emperors going to war, it's indeed too big a deal.

Even with Moonlight Yang Yan taking the lead, they absolutely don't want anything to do with it.

"Hmph! So stingy, none of them would tell me. Fine, don't tell me, just spouting nonsense, is it really that exaggerated? Do they think I'm a three-year-old child? All of them talking nonsense! It's just a little white tiger, nothing extraordinary. Poor Nine Treasures, it will have to be a lonely tiger in the future."

Zhou Hanyu pouted and complained, lovingly holding Nine Treasures in her arms and playing with it.

As Zhuge Wushuang and the others arrived at Yang Yan's place, Zhou Hanyun had already gone to arrange accommodations for the guests.

Those who were left had relatively good relations, although the numbers exceeded her expectations a little.

Fortunately, everyone seemed to be very agreeable and not picky, which reduced the difficulty of arrangements significantly.

Xu Changda had already left, having not spoken during the incidents at the banquet because he didn't believe that the dignified Moonlight couldn't handle such a small matter.

The result showed he was right; Yang Yan not only handled it but did so perfectly.

It wasn't just about fifty billion in cash; it also demonstrated his strength from another perspective.

Li Zheng and the others had also left, even canceling their subsequent plans because a few Europeans accompanying them had objected.

When they saw the three cards, they realized this opponent today was beyond imagination, and they didn't want to cross paths without a proper investigation.

Although the Li Family is a prestigious family in Huaxia, taking out fifty billion in cash is no easy feat.

Thus, they invited these foreign consortium agents to come along.

The follow-up operations were actually all in these people's hands.

However, Yang Yan's unexpected entry made them completely drop the idea.

No matter how furious Li Zheng was, and no matter how much Li Lishan bit his tongue, they absolutely did not want to proceed with the next plan.

Xu and Zhang stayed behind though.

Zhang, named Zhang Wei, is the largest building material wholesaler in the East Sea.

He wanted to discuss many things personally with Zhou Hanyun.

After all, the Zhou Family now has Yang Yan's fifty billion in loans, which will cause a major impact on the market.

He must quickly reach a consensus with the Zhou Group before others catch wind of the news.

Even if he has to give up some profits, he looks forward to future cooperation with the Zhou Group.

Because Yang Yan's loan not only means fifty billion but also represents that with his support, the Zhou Family need not worry about funding or connections.

As a successful businessman, missing such a business opportunity would be laughable.

As for Xu, he's one of the top antique wine collectors domestically.

He has always longed to acquire a bottle of "Wine King" to truly earn his reputation as Wine King.

Therefore, he really wanted a chance to negotiate with Master Zhou, whether through purchase or exchanging with his collections; he was determined to get it.

"Boss, what's up with that little white tiger?"

As soon as they saw Yang Yan, Fatty couldn't wait to ask.

"Moonlight, what's going on?"

As if fearing Fatty's words weren't enough, Zhuge Wushuang couldn't help but ask.

Only Mu Qingcheng quietly looked at him, silently waiting for an answer.

"Don't be so agitated, here's what happened..."

Yang Yan didn't intend to hide anything from them, so he simply explained everything about encountering Nine Treasures clearly.

Including the matter of the seal.

"Hell! Scared me to death. If it's like that, then there's no problem. I thought we were going to fight with that guy! If we did fight, things would get really lively. Maybe we could even start a world war!"

Fatty patted his chest, looking extremely relieved.
