Chapter 129: Su Ye Is Kidnapped

"You figured it out? I always thought I hid it well, but it turns out you saw through it so easily. See, you're pretty sharp too!"

Yang Yan shamelessly said.

"Take me!"

Suddenly, Wuyan said to Yang Yan.

"Huh, what?"

Yang Yan asked.

It wasn't that he didn't hear what Wuyan said, he just wasn't prepared.

Or more accurately, from the beginning, he wasn't after this.

"Yang Yan, take me!"

Wuyan looked into Yang Yan's eyes and continued to say seriously.

"Are you sure?"

Yang Yan asked.

"Yeah, I'm sure."

Wuyan gently nodded, her tone was very certain.

"Actually, you don't have to mind it, this shouldn't be a transaction!"

Yang Yan shook his head.

"No, I truly like you. From that day at the police station when you looked at me like that, I liked you. But I didn't know how to say it, I..."

Before Wuyan could finish, Yang Yan had already kissed her red lips.

He held her like this, as if he wanted to melt her into his body.

She also held him tightly, allowing her clothes to be removed piece by piece.

A night of passion, intense and fiery.

In the morning, as the sunlight streamed in, Yang Yan stretched comfortably.

Glancing at Wuyan sleeping soundly beside him, Yang Yan smiled slightly.

Then he reached out, gently pulling her into his arms.

"Hmm!"

Wuyan let out a soft moan, then, like a kitten, found a comfortable spot and continued to sleep peacefully.

Quietly, Yang Yan got up and went to the kitchen to make breakfast.

During the days Wuyan stayed here, the refrigerator was full, so making breakfast was no problem.

Wuyan stretched her hand out to feel beside her, and when she didn't find Yang Yan, she opened her eyes abruptly.

As she just sat up, she felt a sharp pain in a certain part of her body.

"Hmm!"

Wuyan instinctively frowned, letting out a soft groan.

"You're awake?"

Yang Yan happened to walk out of the kitchen with a plate.

When Wuyan saw Yang Yan, she remembered last night's events, her face instantly turned red.

"What time is it?"

She asked softly.

"It's still early, just past six, not even seven yet. Since you're awake, have something to eat first! I've already cooked Auntie's porridge, I'll help you deliver it later. You can rest at home today!"

Yang Yan said.

Wuyan reluctantly got up, then glanced at the red stain on the sheets, carefully tidying them up.

Slowly, Wuyan walked over to the dining table, picked up a spoon, and started eating bit by bit.

"I have to go over later, otherwise I won't be at ease."

Her voice was still very soft.

"You can't even walk properly, how can you go over? If your mom sees it, she'll definitely know."

Yang Yan said with a smile.

"It's all your fault, how could you not be a bit gentle, tormenting me all night."

Wuyan said coquettishly.

Remembering last night's madness, her face flushed warmly again.

"Hahaha! My fault, my fault. It was my first time too, no experience! Next time, next time I won't."

Yang Yan laughed awkwardly.

In the end, Wuyan still went out with Yang Yan.

Since she insisted on going, Yang Yan had no choice.

From a girl to a woman, Wuyan seemed to exude infinite charm with every little move.

Along the way, it naturally attracted numerous fiery gazes, making Yang Yan beside her constantly glowering at others with a killing look.

Wuyan held onto Yang Yan's arm as they walked to the parking area together.

Unexpectedly, Yang Yan offered to drive.

The speed wasn't fast, but it was very steady.

Wuyan, after being tormented by Yang Yan all night, dozed off a bit in the car.

Arriving at the hospital, just as Yang Yan was about to wake up Wuyan to go up together, the phone suddenly rang.

It only rang twice before it was abruptly hung up.

Yang Yan picked it up to see, it was Su Ye calling.

He couldn't help but frown.

Since Su Ye couldn't talk, she usually only sent texts, never called.

"Is there something? If there is, you go ahead!"

Wuyan quickly glanced at Yang Yan, sensing something was off about his expression, she quickly said.

"Okay! I'll go check, call you later."

Yang Yan was truly worried about Su Ye, he kissed Wuyan on the forehead and said.

Yang Yan left quickly but didn't drive.

He found a secluded spot and leaped into the air.

He knew very well that if it weren't something particularly urgent, Su Ye would never call him.

As he leapt between buildings, Yang Yan anxiously redialed Su Ye's phone.

Su Ye's phone was already turned off, and couldn't be reached at all.

Yang Yan felt increasingly anxious inside.

Su Ye must have gotten into some trouble!

And it's something she couldn't handle on her own.

Yang Yan moved swiftly, reaching the Yang Family Noodle Shop within a few minutes.

"What's the matter? What happened? Where is Su Ye? Where is she!"

Seeing the chaos in the Yang Family Noodle Shop, Yang Yan grabbed Li Wei, who was wiping blood off his forehead, and asked:

"The boss was taken away by his brother, I don't know what's going on either, a guy came today claiming to be the boss's brother's creditor, came straight in demanding money from the boss. The boss didn't pay, later on a group of people came, bringing the boss's brother along."

"The boss's brother said something to the boss, which the boss didn't agree to, then they smashed the place and forcefully took the boss away. We couldn't stop them, several people were injured."

Yang Yan narrowed his eyes and asked in a deep voice:

"Which direction did they go in? What car were they in? Do you remember the license plate?"

Li Wei immediately said:

"A blue car without a license plate, don't know what kind of car it is, they headed towards the school, it's been almost half an hour."

"Half an hour? So when she called me, she was already in the car."

After Yang Yan said that, he took out his phone and dialed a number.

On the other end, a man's excited voice immediately came:

"Hey! Yan, you finally remembered me! Where are you? Let's go have a meal!"

"We'll talk about eating later, I have urgent business with you! A friend of mine was kidnapped, right from the Yang Family Noodle Shop near the school. Li Zhen, help me check the surveillance, see which way they went."

Yang Yan said.

Upon hearing Yang Yan had a friend kidnapped, Li Zhen shuddered, quickly agreed to take action, then hung up to start working.

Yang Yan immediately called Fatty and Xiaocao.

He instructed Fatty to come track the car right away, and Xiaocao to hack into nearby stores' and banks' cameras to find the car's exact location.

Unknowingly, about another twenty minutes passed.

With so many cars around and being in a busy area, Fatty had a hard time tracking it.

It's not like last time at the Ring City Overpass, many methods couldn't be used here.

Yang Yan's brows were tightly furrowed, forming a river character.

It's been almost an hour since Su Ye was taken away, his growing anger was becoming hard to suppress.

He took out his phone and dialed an unfamiliar number.
