Chapter 186: Stay Out of This—I Can Handle Them on My Own

In just an instant, only the beautiful auctioneer from before remained unscathed.

It wasn't because Yang Yan spared her, but because this beautiful auctioneer reacted the fastest and handled the situation well.

The moment the first scream sounded, she quickly placed the "Thousand Black Magic" on the ground like lightning.

In an instant, a stone pillar barrier rose from the ground, surrounding her within.

Her heart was now filled with fear, and her originally fair face was now completely bloodless.

She had never faced an opponent with such speed before.

Unlike those Spatial Ability Users, who relied on teleportation; once you figured out the pattern, there was always a trace to follow, and you could find a flaw.

However, Yang Yan's pure speed was so fast it was invisible, and even if you could track his trajectory, there was no way to make an effective prediction against his attack.

Although Black Heaven's heart was bleeding, he paid no attention to the lives of his subordinates.

He coldly watched as his men fell one by one, then placed his hands on the ground. A black rune of unknown origin appeared in his hand and slowly sank into the ground.

"Ha!"

Black Heaven shouted loudly, and Yang Yan, who was trying to cut down the last beautiful auctioneer, felt his body suddenly pause.

The next moment, his body became incredibly heavy, naturally slowing down his speed.

Yang Yan simply stopped and turned his head to look at Black Heaven, whose hands were still on the ground, and said warmly:

"Gravity? No, it's not gravity, it's gravitational pull..."

"What are you all standing there for? Attack, kill him! I can't hold on for long."

Black Heaven almost roared, his already ugly face becoming even more ferocious and twisted, like a crazed demon.

Gu Liang suddenly charged at Yang Yan, the Bone-Carving Knife in his hand transforming into a bolt of lightning, swinging fiercely at Yang Yan's neck.

Yang Yan was about to jump back to avoid the attack, but Black Heaven's gravitational pull was still binding him, and his feet had somehow become frozen.

"Snow Lady, is it?"

Yang Yan coldly said as he glanced in the Snow Lady's direction, while raising the long knife in his hand, blocking Gu Liang's attack without even looking.

Just as Yang Yan raised the knife to block Gu Liang's attack, a golden light shot towards him.

At this moment, at this angle, Yang Yan had no way to dodge it.

With a loud boom, the golden light accurately hit Yang Yan.

The one who shot the golden light was the Faceless Man.

Dust rose up from where Yang Yan was struck by the golden light.

Gu Liang leaped out of the dust, looking in astonishment towards the direction where the dust rose, as if he had seen something extraordinary.

"How is it? Was he taken down?"

Black Heaven asked nervously.

"Run! Run quickly!"

Gu Liang suddenly shouted, then abruptly turned and ran backwards.

Whoosh!

A blood-red light shot out from the dust, targeting the Faceless Man who had just shot the golden light.

Again, a loud bang, as if hit by a large-caliber shell, the area where Black Heaven and the other three had stood turned into a pit at least five meters deep.

Gu Liang, still in shock, returned to stand beside the three once more, casting a horrified glance at the pit on the ground, a look of endless fear on his face.

Not only him, but the other three were the same.

If Gu Liang had spoken a moment later, or if any one of the three had acted a moment slower, not even a trace would have been left of them.

"Show your true skills! Otherwise, we'll all have to stay here today. Troubles with the Hidden World Arbitration Council can be dealt with later, now there's no time to worry about it."

Black Heaven said through clenched teeth.

Those from the Hidden World, when fighting in the present world, always hold back to some extent.

Because if everyone fought without restraint, the present world would soon be destroyed.

Thus, it would be of no benefit to the Hidden World.

Especially for those of them at the S-class level, entering the present world would often mean placing a seal upon themselves, to avoid accidentally destroying the present world.

As for the Hidden World Arbitration Council, it was organized by many major forces within the Hidden World to prevent anyone from breaking the rules.

If you broke the rules, even your tomb grass would be three feet tall.

The three listened to Black Heaven's words, then exchanged glances and quickly reached an agreement.

Black Heaven tore the necklace from his neck and threw it aside.

Snow Lady took off her earrings and placed them into the pouch at her waist.

As for the Faceless Man, he removed his hat and put it into his pocket.

Gu Liang's approach was the bloodiest; he inserted his thumb and forefinger into his right side waist and yanked out one of his ribs.

After the four completed these actions, their momentum began to rise rapidly, becoming stronger and stronger...

"Are you four crazy? Unleashing S-class power in the present world, will the Arbitration Council just let that slide? Do you want to destroy this place?"

The Tiger King exclaimed in astonishment.

"Relax! With these tricks of theirs, they can't demolish this place. You, stay out of this, stand aside; I'll handle them myself."

Seeing the other side had fully unleashed their seals, excitement gleamed in Yang Yan's eyes.

And in his hands, Asura glowed ever more brightly, trembling faintly.

"We didn't want to be pushed to this point, either. We are determined to get the Longevity Fruit, even if the Arbitration Council comes looking for trouble later, we will just have to find a faction to join."

Gu Liang said coldly.

Snow Lady and the Faceless Man also smiled bitterly.

They had always been lone wolves, accustomed to living unfettered, doing what they liked.

After this incident, the Arbitration Council would surely come knocking.

If they didn't want to die, they would have to find a major Hidden World force to join and seek shelter.

Though they would lose some freedom, at least their lives would be secured.

"Go all out! Don't let a single one escape. This guy seems to be even more formidable than we imagined."

Black Heaven said darkly, fixing his gaze on Yang Yan.

The target was originally only Yang Yan, but if they could take down the Tiger King of Huaxia as well, it would make things much easier for him in Myanmar in the future.

The black rune emitted an entrancing aura, flowing like water in Black Heaven's palm.

Then, it slowly transformed into a cold black light.

The black light grew denser, as if it intended to engulf everything around it.

Eventually, it turned into a small black hole.

"Ha!"

With Black Heaven's angry shout, the true battle officially commenced.

The sky grew ever darker, and though it had cleared up after the rain, a mass of dark clouds covered it once again.

Despite it being broad daylight, it became as dim as dusk.

Soon, hail the size of fingernails fell wildly from the sky.

The small black hole in Black Heaven's hand continued to devour everything around it, and as time passed, its gravitational pull grew stronger, becoming increasingly pronounced.

Having removed his hat, the Faceless Man finally revealed his true face before the others.

He truly had no facial features.

His head was like a bare meatball, it looked incredibly eerie.

However, unlike the black light emanating from Black Heaven's hand, the Faceless Man's head was emitting golden light.

Like a scorching bulb, exceptionally dazzling.
