Chapter 192: The First Killing Array, Named Immortal Slayer

"This shouldn't be! Such a huge body, and now the bloodstains have dried?"

Yang Yan frowned, thought for a moment, and continued as if talking to himself:

"It's not a fire ability, otherwise, with water countering fire, this dragon could have escaped even if it couldn't win, especially on Dian Lake."

Frost Heaven nodded in agreement:

"Yeah! I'm puzzled too, not sure how the opponent did it. This dragon isn't weak; it's at least S-class. And it's in its own territory, so even facing SS-class, it shouldn't be that easily killed."

At this point, Frost Heaven sighed deeply:

"It's a pity Fu Changjian isn't around, or he would definitely know what method the opponent used."

Yang Yan didn't comment, immediately instructing:

"Isolate this area, then freeze time, keeping it in its current state, and notify Fu Changjian to get here as soon as possible."

"Also, don't forget to inform the others and have them come back regardless of what they're doing. I have some tasks for you all."

Hearing Yang Yan's instructions, Shuangtian's eyes lit up immediately and said quickly:

"Okay, understood."

As soon as he finished speaking, his legs left the ground, and he slowly flew up.

When he reached about thirty meters above the ground, a white light suddenly flashed in his hand, dazzling and radiant.

In an instant, millions of white ice pillars roared down, isolating the area completely.

"Should we notify the Eight Divisions?"

After finishing everything, Frost Heaven couldn't help but ask Yang Yan.

"Inform them. Things have been unstable lately, and activities in the Hidden World are increasing. Clearly, someone is pushing these events in the dark. If they maintain their previous attitude, they won't be able to stop anything in the future."

Yang Yan said calmly.

"Got it. You mentioned a task you want us to do? What is it?"

Frost Heaven asked again.

"The dragon beneath East Sea City has gone missing. Juechen and Xiaocao are investigating, but they have no leads yet. Recently, I encountered a sealed White Tiger, and someone managed to deceive the Heavenly Dao with a fake contract and even tricked a snake onto the path of the Ancient Cyan Dragon."

Hearing this, Frost Heaven, who typically remained composed, widened his eyes.

Yang Yan chuckled slightly and continued:

"I've acquired two more weapons: one is the Black Gold Slaughter City and the other is Spirit Wings, plus a gem called Mountain of Light. Which one do you want to take on?"

Frost Heaven furrowed his brows, thought for a while, and then said to Yang Yan:

"These are all troublesome issues! But how did Black Gold Slaughter City and Spirit Wings appear together? And what's with the White Tiger?"

Yang Yan smiled bitterly and said in a deep voice:

"You might not believe it, but I stumbled upon these situations. However, none of them are minor. The White Tiger matters can wait a bit, but the missing dragon in East Sea City is urgent."

As Yang Yan spoke, he glanced at the dragon's body not far away.

The implication was clear.

After a pause, he continued:

"The other two matters aren't the most critical either. Let's wait for Fu Changjian to handle this place. Right now, I need you to help me with something and take Jing Hong with you."

When Yang Yan mentioned having him and Jing Hong handle a matter, Frost Heaven, already surprised, became even more astonished.

In the Hidden World, their group is one of the smallest but definitely a force to be reckoned with.

The core group consists of just over ten people, yet each has unique talents that cannot be ignored.

With Yang Yan at the helm, each of them is titled.

The so-called Ten Swords may sound like subordinates of Moonlight, but those in the know understand each of the Ten Swords is powerful enough to establish their own force.

But this group of people has come together because of Yang Yan.

Especially the top three among the Ten Swords, each is nearly a legendary figure in the Hidden World.

"What task do you want Jing Hong and me to handle?"

Frost Heaven quickly adjusted his emotions and asked in a deep voice.

No wonder he appeared so cautious; there's never been a case where two of the top three "Ten Swords" members teamed up for an action.

Seeing Frost Heaven's eager look, Yang Yan chuckled lightly and said something even more shocking:

"Originally, I wanted all three of you to go for safety, but we can't ignore the situation here, so it's down to you and Jing Hong."

Indeed, the more Yang Yan talked like this, the more shocked Frost Heaven's eyes became.

"King, stop beating around the bush, just tell us, what's going on?"

Frost Heaven urged impatiently.

"Someone wants to resurrect a god in Huaxia."

Yang Yan said softly.

Although Frost Heaven was mentally prepared, he still swayed upon hearing this.

Still, he only furrowed his brow, didn't speak, and merely looked at Yang Yan, waiting for him to continue.

"Have you heard of Vishnu?"

Yang Yan asked.

"Yeah! Heard of him, a Guardian God. What's up? Someone wants to bring him back?"

Frost Heaven asked suspiciously.

"Yes! Some lunatic wants to revive him first and then kill him. The location is within Huaxia, and they plan to use Huaxia's premier killing array."

Yang Yan said with a cold smile, with a hint of mockery.

"Holy shit!"

Frost Heaven couldn't help but swear.

"To seize his Divine Format?"

"Probably!" Yang Yan nodded, analyzing, "Since they have the capability to slay a god, even if they intend to use the killing array, their power must be substantial."

"But for now, we have limited information and don't know who the opponent is. Regarding the specific time, if everything goes as expected, it should be at the start of next year. If I'm not mistaken, it should be February 2nd."

After Yang Yan finished speaking, Frost Heaven suddenly looked up, staring into his eyes, and murmured:

"February 2nd, Dragon Raising Day?"

Yang Yan nodded:

"Yes! We don't know if this incident is related to the dragon's disappearance. I hope these are all coincidences, but who knows? In any case, we must act."

After finishing, Yang Yan took a cigarette from Frost Heaven, lit it, and took a puff.

"I'll contact Jing Hong first. This matter is quite significant. If we are to investigate, we must look for Huaxia's first killing array, the Immortal Slaying Array."

After thinking for a moment, Frost Heaven immediately voiced his thoughts.

"Ah, the Immortal Slaying Array, Huaxia's top killing array since ancient times. During the God Sealing Period, countless gods and immortals fell within it. Although it was later destroyed, it still holds its position as Huaxia's premier killing array."

Yang Yan took another deep drag on his cigarette, looked up at the sky, exhaled a smoke ring, and said leisurely.
