Chapter 193: Is It Because I Haven't Killed Enough People?

After finishing a cigarette, he finally turned to Frost Heaven and said:

"Let's leave it at that! We'll wait for Fu Changjian to handle the matters here. You go get in touch with Jing Hong, and the two of you investigate what those idiots are really up to."

"Since there are no leads, it's better to start with the Immortal Slaying Array. I'll wait for your news. Also, if you contact or see Ruyan, tell her to come back too!"

Hearing that Yang Yan wanted Gongsun Ruyan to return as well, Frost Heaven's expression turned a bit odd.

Noticing Yang Yan's slight frown, he immediately grinned and said:

"I did run into Gongsun Ruyan not too long ago. She entered a Secret Realm with a Qiongqi and an old vampire. I'm afraid they won't be coming out anytime soon."

"Besides, she's with San Qian, so don't worry! Nothing will happen to her."

Upon hearing the name San Qian, Yang Yan frowned and asked:

"Uh... how did San Qian end up with her?"

"Who knows?" Frost Heaven shrugged and suddenly laughed, "You can ask them yourself when they come back! Alright, I'm off. I don't even know where that guy Jing Hong is right now. Time is tight, so I'll start investigating while I get in touch with him. Wait for our news."

Frost Heaven said this, got up, dusted himself off, and prepared to leave.

"Be safe." Yang Yan couldn't help but remind him, "I can't leave Huaxia right now, so if there's something you can't handle, contact me in time. Don't take risks. I just eliminated four S-rank guys in the Southern Border, and the Arbitration Council might cause trouble."

"Although normally they should come directly to me, the real culprit, it's always better to be cautious. I suspect there's a behind-the-scenes manipulator driving everything."

Frost Heaven shook his head helplessly and said with a bitter smile:

"Ah! Following you is never boring! You were the one who killed them, and they dare to come to me with trouble? If they come, and I don't knock them down, my name might as well be written backward."

At the end, Frost Heaven's aura faintly erupted, exuding an unrivaled dominance.

"Hey! They're from the Hidden World Arbitration Council, at least show some respect, alright? If someone does come to give you trouble, be gentle. Don't go all out every time."

Yang Yan said helplessly.

The people under him were all lawless types.

If those from the Arbitration Committee came directly to him, that would be fine, and they could talk things out.

But if they really went to find the others, it would be unreasonable.

Knowing their ways, giving them a thrashing would be the least of it; they might even end up losing their lives.

"Hehe! Don't worry, we've been with you long enough to know better. By the way, I heard you're entangled with a few beauties these days?"

Frost Heaven suddenly said with interest in gossip.

"There's no such thing! I'm just honestly dating, alright? I'm a normal person. You think everyone is like you bunch of weirdos, just knowing how to fight all day long."

Yang Yan rolled his eyes at Frost Heaven and said earnestly.

"Tch!" Frost Heaven flicked Yang Yan a middle finger, grumbling, "You're the biggest weirdo! Whatever, I'm leaving. It's going to be busy days ahead."

Frost Heaven turned, waved his hand, his form suddenly twisted, and then disappeared without a trace.

Yang Yan looked in the direction where Frost Heaven disappeared with a hint of meaningful cold smile, then his expression turned completely cold.

"I remember I said, no one from the Hidden World should mess around in Huaxia. It seems nobody takes my Moonlight words seriously! Is it because I haven't killed enough yet?"

After Frost Heaven vanished, Yang Yan returned to the real world.

He thought for a moment, since he was already near Dian Lake, he called Zhou Hanyun and went straight to find them.

As a major tourist province of Huaxia, Cainan has utilized every bit that suits tourism.

Like this ethnic village by Dian Lake is just a commercial street, really.

Huaxia is a multi-ethnic country, with as many as fifty-six ethnic groups.

And Cainan is the province with the most ethnic groups in the whole of Huaxia.

Yet, having stayed in the Southern Border for a while, Yang Yan knew that the commercial streets near these tourist spots really had nothing worth exploring. To truly understand local customs, you must go to where they live and see for yourself.

However, no one apparently told Zhou Hanyun about this, as she was having a great time with Cai'Er here.

Recently, Zhou Hanyun's shopping desire had been greatly unleashed.

One could say, shopping had become a norm.

Whenever she got the chance, she couldn't help but buy something.

There Cai'Er was wearing an outfit of some unknown ethnicity, looking extremely cute.

"Didn't you say you wanted to rest for a while? Why are you here again?"

Zhou Hanyun looked at Yang Yan, puzzled.

"I have some things to do, just happened to be nearby, so I came to find you. Was Cai'Er behaving today? What did she eat?"

Yang Yan asked, turning to Cai'Er with a smile.

Knowing Yang Yan was deliberately changing the subject again, but seeing him play with Cai'Er, Zhou Hanyun opened her mouth but finally swallowed her doubts.

"Cai'Er was very good today!"

Cai'Er said sweetly.

"Exactly, when isn't our Cai'Er good?"

Zhou Hanyun seized the opportunity to tease Yang Yan.

Seeing her protective look, Yang Yan of course wouldn't argue, hurriedly said:

"Yes, yes, I was wrong. Our Cai'Er is always good."

Yang Yan said, then lifted Cai'Er and put her on his shoulders.

"Wow! So high, Daddy, so high!"

Cai'Er shouted excitedly.

"Is it fun? How about I carry you like this while we walk around?"

Yang Yan asked with a smile.

"It's fun, it's fun!"

Cai'Er waved her hands and feet joyfully.

Luckily it was Yang Yan, if it were a normal person, the little girl would probably fall right to the ground.

"Slow down, be careful not to drop Cai'Er."

Zhou Hanyun quickly reminded.

"Don't worry, she definitely won't fall. Let's go!"

Yang Yan reassured Zhou Hanyun and ran forward with Cai'Er.

Zhou Hanyun smiled watching them fool around, her beautiful eyes reflecting the gleam of happiness.

"Wow! An elephant, Daddy is that an elephant?"

Cai'Er pointed to an elephant used for photoshoots at the tourist spot.

"Uh-huh! Cai'Er is so smart, that is an elephant! Do you want to go take a look?"

Yang Yan praised Cai'Er first, then asked with a smile.

"Yes! I've always wanted to touch an elephant."

Cai'Er nodded enthusiastically, her eyes shining as she looked at the elephant.

Although she and that Old Mountain Demon had stayed a considerable time in Spring City, because he was afraid of Cai'Er's identity being discovered, he rarely took Cai'Er out.

So, many things the little girl usually recognizes through TV.

This is why, during recent outings, Cai'Er would be exceptionally excited.
