Chapter 59: So What If I Am?

"Hey, hey! Officer, don't be nervous, really don't be nervous. It wouldn't be fun if the gun accidentally went off. Look, I don't have anything in my hands. As for the cuffs, maybe you just didn't secure them well!"

"The guy on the floor really has nothing to do with me! This beautiful lady beside me can testify, he accidentally bumped into the corner of the table himself. I was just concerned about him and came over to see if I could help."

"Oh, by the way, you definitely want to ask why my foot is on his crotch. You may not believe it, but this was purely an accident. When a person gets anxious, sometimes they step in the wrong place."

Yang Yan said with a cheeky grin, as if he completely ignored the black hole of the gun barrel in front of him.

"I'll say it again: put your hands on your head, then move your foot away, and slowly squat against the wall. Otherwise, I will really fire."

Officer Wang said through clenched teeth.

He could definitely tell that Yang Yan was lying with his eyes wide open.

The most infuriating thing was that this guy completely treated him like a fool and wasn't afraid that he would actually fire the gun.

"Shoot? Haha! Remember to unlock the safety first. But it's too late now; the time it takes for you to unlock the safety is enough for me to snatch your gun and blow a hole in your head!"

Seemingly bluffed by Yang Yan's words, Officer Wang instinctively stepped back, his hand gripping the gun was trembling slightly.

"What, you know how to be afraid now? Too late! When your director wanted to label us as robbers earlier, weren't you afraid then? Or do you think this idiot is not to be messed with, but I am?"

Yang Yan released his foot from Zhang Jianxing's crotch and step by step approached Officer Wang, questioning him harshly.

At this moment, Officer Wang was already scared stiff.

His whole body sagged against the interrogation room wall, trembling violently, his gun nearly slipping from his hand.

"You can keep pointing the gun at me if you want, the authority granted to you is to catch criminals and maintain public order, not to show off in front of law-abiding citizens like us!"

"I'll warn you one last time, if you don't want trouble, you'd better put down the gun and talk to me properly. I'll pretend like this never happened today, otherwise, you'll bear the consequences."

Just as Officer Wang hesitated about whether to put away his gun, a familiar voice suddenly sounded from behind him.

"I'd like to see what consequences you'll bear! Jianxing, are you alright? Are you okay?"

Unbeknownst to anyone, Vice Director Li was already standing by the door.

Unfortunately, no matter how he called, Zhang Jianxing, who was lying on the ground, showed no response.

Vice Director Li's face darkened, and he furiously scolded the two subordinates beside him:

"What are you staring at? Arrest this thug immediately."

Given the director's order, the officers certainly didn't dare to disobey and immediately took action.

But unexpectedly, Yang Yan wasn't afraid at all, raised an eyebrow, and sneered:

"Oh wow! You really are pushing your luck. Today, let me see who dares to touch even a hair on us."

Wang Xue hurriedly said from the side:

"It was Zhang Jianxing who tried to assault me, Yang Yan only fought back in self-defense. Also, why are you accusing us of being robbers? Is it right for you to recklessly assign blame like this?"

Vice Director Li frowned and sternly said:

"I don't care about your past crimes, but now, attacking a police officer, attempting to snatch a gun, and intentionally harming others, I can't ignore it."

"Hmph! These charges alone are enough to put you behind bars for life. Kid, I don't care who you are, but you're not walking out of this police station today."

"Interesting! Seems like you think you have us cornered."

Yang Yan squinted his eyes and said contemptuously.

"And what if I do?" Vice Director Li sneered.

"I don't care what connections you have today, but what you've done is enough to land you in prison for life. This is a police station, not a place for you to run wild!"

"Damn it, stop standing there like fools, hurry up and cuff him and get a confession from him. Dare to act lawlessly in the police station, such people must be severely punished."

With that, Vice Director Li immediately went to support the still unconscious Zhang Jianxing.

He knew very well what Zhang Jianxing's background was, who in the East Sea dares to offend the Zhang Family?

As for Yang Yan, he couldn't care less about who he was.

No matter how significant his background, with the Zhang Family's young master in front, both the Li Family and the Zhang Family would find a way to resolve it.

On the other side, a group of police officers swarmed forward, the charges were already pinned, leaving them no hesitation as they rushed to impress the director.

Yang Yan squinted his eyes, lifted his foot and kicked one away.

Clearly on purpose, his large frame slammed directly into the oncoming crowd.

The situation unfolded so suddenly, and with such close proximity and little space, the group of officers descended into chaos.

"Stop! Everyone stop! What are you doing? Are you planning a rebellion?!"

At some unknown time, a man with three four-pointed stars on his shoulder angrily reprimanded.

Upon hearing this voice, the previously energized officers immediately froze and instinctively glanced at Vice Director Li across from them.

Vice Director Li frowned and then said sternly:

"Director Yang, this thug attacked police officers in the interrogation room, attempted to snatch a gun, and maliciously harmed others. It's simple to just arrest him now."

Unexpectedly, Director Yang glanced deeply at Zhang Jianxing and sneered:

"Do you really think I don't know what's going on? It was a small personal dispute to begin with, just needed some proper mediation, and now you've mixed in and turned it into a big mess!"

"This unconscious guy is Zhang Jianxing, right? Li Gang, this is a police station, not the Li Family, nor the Zhang Family. Here, the law decides, not you, Li Gang."

Director Yang became increasingly angry, and by the end, he was nearly roaring.

"Yang Jianguo, you'd better think carefully before you speak. Otherwise, some people might take you down in no time."

Li Gang directly tore off his facade and threatened viciously.

"Fine, fine, fine! I'd like to see what kind of trouble you, Li Gang, can stir up today. Why are you all standing there, bring these people to the meeting room, including Vice Director Li!"

"We have to get to the bottom of this today, we won't wrong a good person, nor let a bad one go. Now, Zhang, hurry and notify the others to come over and get to the bottom of this in front of everyone."

Yang Jianguo was clearly infuriated by Li Gang, speaking sternly.
