Chapter 60: Nobody Will Think You're Mute If You Stay Quiet

"Oh my! Look at that! Unexpected, huh! Didn't expect this Vice Director Li to have such a temper! Daring to blatantly lie in front of his superior, accusing us? Has he eaten the heart of a bear, the courage of a leopard? Or does he have strong enough backing to act recklessly?"

Yang Yan said with a smile, looking like he was wishing for chaos.

Wang Xue glanced at Yang Yan, still in his nonchalant manner, feeling a surge of anger within her.

Even though she knew Yang Yan had extraordinary skills and was closely connected to the Zhou Family, given the situation, she was still somewhat worried.

"You should be more mindful! Just because you hit Zhang the B*tch, we're in this situation. Now, they've confiscated our phones, we can't even call for help, what should we do!"

"Don't worry today! From what I see, Director Yang is upright and will definitely give us justice."

Yang Yan spoke confidently.

Wang Xue opened her mouth but finally swallowed her words, choosing not to say more.

Yang Jianguo and Li Gang were normally a bit at odds, but hadn't outright clashed.

The reason the conflict erupted today was entirely because Li Gang was too concerned about Zhang Jianxing.

Looking at it, the way Li Gang handled the situation was indeed putting himself in a difficult position.

Now that Zhang Jianxing was beaten up like this, both the Zhang Family and the Li Family would definitely hold someone accountable.

Li Gang, being a smart person, definitely didn't want the blame from both families to fall on him.

So, he had to find a scapegoat.

Without a doubt, his superior became the best choice.

If he could leverage the strength of both families to take down the opponent, it would turn a bad situation into a good one, and Li Gang wouldn't miss such a chance.

Just now, during a brief moment, he had already instructed his trusted aide to notify Zhang Zhijian.

If the Zhang Family gets involved, it's bound to be bad news for Yang Jianguo.

Moreover, for face-saving, even if the Li Family looks down on this son-in-law, they would definitely intervene.

Soon, everyone gathered in the conference room.

Anyway, things had reached this point, no need to worry about bad influence anymore.

But such an incident involving a brawl in the interrogation room alarming the entire police station was still a first.

According to Officer Wang's previous explanation, it seemed true that Yang Yan behaved as Vice Director Li described—attacking after being advised, assaulting police, and attempting to seize a weapon.

However, why he ended up in the police station in the first place had become selectively forgotten.

Since Yang Yan did indeed get physical, and Zhang Jianxing was still unconscious, he couldn't refute and could only angrily watch Li Gang talk nonstop.

Many of the people below didn't really understand the specifics, coupled with their psychological inclination towards the versatile, manipulative Vice Director Li, they all looked at Yang Yan with hostility.

"What exactly happened?"

Xia Bing returned without notice and asked with a suspicious look upon seeing the situation.

Officer Zhang, who was fully aware of the details and reported them to Director Yang, hurriedly told Xia Bing the complete story.

Xia Bing got enraged instantly, without any regard for Li Gang's face, slammed the table, and sternly said:

"Vice Director Li, such arrogance! A small case I was handling, and you turned it into this mess, upping the ante. Are you crazy?"

"I handled this case from start to finish before handing it over to Zhang due to other cases. Their issue was nothing more than two people getting into a scuffle over an argument. How on earth did it get labeled as a robbery?"

Li Gang evidently feared Xia Bing's status, gritted his teeth, and with an awkward smile, earnestly said:

"Xia, I know you're capable, but you're still young and not clear of many things. This time, don't get involved."

At this moment, a man in a suit, carrying a briefcase, walked directly into the conference room and said sternly:

"The country has laws, families have rules. Since someone attempted to assault police and maliciously harmed others, you cannot shield the criminal!"

As he spoke, he walked straight to Li Gang and shook hands with him:

"Hello, are you Director Li? I'm the lawyer sent by President Zhang. My name is Wang. Regarding our Young Master's unjust treatment and malicious beating, I hope you can provide us an answer."

"Lawyer Wang, you... you're finally here. Boo hoo! I was beaten terribly by that guy, terribly..."

On the side, Zhang Jianxing, who had long recovered, had been continuing to play dead.

Seeing Lawyer Wang swagger in, he immediately jumped up and cried with a tearful grievance.

"Tsk tsk! Are you Young Master Zhang? I always thought you were just an overconfident idiot, didn't expect you to be a master of acting. Haha! This is getting more and more interesting!"

Yang Yan couldn't help but laugh.

"If you don't speak, no one would mistake you for a mute!"

Wang Xue's worried expression couldn't help but curse.

But Yang Yan still maintained his carefree demeanor, even provocatively looked across at the furious Zhang Jianxing, ready to swallow him whole.

"Why aren't you worried at all? If they succeed in framing you, you'll have to go to jail."

Wang Xue said anxiously, tears glistening in her bloodshot eyes.

"Ah! Don't worry! This won't involve you," Yang Yan quickly said, "If worse comes to worst, I'll confess everything by myself! Besides, look at Zhang Jianxing, even if he's still up to something, this guy still has lustful intentions, the way he looks at you, it's as if he wants to strip you naked."

"Could it be this guy really wants to die a romantic rogue? At this crucial point, he's still so audacious! Alas! It's indeed like the old saying, 'beauty leads to disaster.' Even if this pervert is really finished, he would still want to pack you up, at least satisfy his eye candy."

Wang Xue glared angrily at Yang Yan who was eyeing her up and down, furious and scolded:

"You're such a bastard; people are worried sick for you and you still have the heart to joke?"

"Wronged, I'm not joking. I can see very clearly what's inside that guy's heart. Look at the way he looks at you, isn't it just like me?"

Yang Yan said, glanced intensely at Wang Xue's proud bosom.

Now, Wang Xue was completely speechless.

Of course, she knew Yang Yan's little habit.

This guy always liked to glance indiscriminately at women, along with his habitual sweet-talking.

And sometimes, he's reckless.

But when you really pointed it out, he could always put on a serious face, and would never admit.

"Can't be bothered!"

Wang Xue said angrily, turning her head away from him.
