Chapter 62: You Promised to Satisfy Me

"Who am I? Sorry, but a bug like you doesn't deserve to know!"

Looking at the guy in front of him, who was clearly scared but still pretending to be tough, Yang Yan couldn't help but sneer.

Before Zhang Jianxing could say more, Yang's gaze had already shifted to the conference room door.

"Alright, let's pause the bragging game for now. Old Lion, I know you're here. If you don't handle this, I'll have no choice but to continue the game and take care of the flies myself."

"Trust me, although the process might be a bit violent, maybe even a little bloody, there won't be any consequences. I have great confidence in my people; they will surely satisfy me."

Sure enough, just as he finished speaking, the closed conference room door suddenly burst into pieces with a loud bang.

The next moment, several people in special uniforms stormed in.

The leader immediately asked:

"Who's in charge here?"

"I'm the director here, may I ask who you are?"

Yang Jianguo frowned as he asked.

He noticed they were wearing combat gear, but the arm patches bore a lion emblem.

He couldn't figure out what unit they were from.

"Illegally storming a state office, who are you? Who gave you the guts?"

Li Gang was somewhat stunned by Yang Yan's earlier words.

However, he knew very well his current predicament.

There was no doubt that Yang Yan would never let him go.

He had to make a final struggle, unwilling to bow down and suffer.

"We are members of the Ministry of State Security, here's our ID. Hold on a bit, you'll receive formal notification soon."

The first man to speak took out an ID and said in a solemn voice.

"Ministry of State Security? I don't care who you are, this is the East Sea City Public Security Bureau's Criminal Investigation Team. We are in a meeting. I don't care who you are, if there's anything, please leave immediately, or face the consequences."

Although Li Gang was terrified, he spoke with a brave but hollow tone.

This matter must not involve the Ministry of State Security, otherwise, even if the Zhang Family and Li Family wanted to intervene, it might not be enough.

So, no matter what, he had to endure the pressure and make the final stand.

"Has anyone told you that your barking is really fierce? Why would I need a guy of your rank yapping when I'm doing something?"

Another aggressive man was not so accommodating and yelled angrily at Li Gang.

"What did you say? Dare to repeat that!"

Li Gang also got fired up from the confrontation.

Dead or alive!

Anyway, he would inevitably offend someone, so he might as well go all out.

"Haha! Can't believe there's an idiot like you. Who knows how you got to be a deputy director? Looks like your connections are truly strong! I just wonder which big figure's downfall will be because of you."

Hearing this, Li Gang's expression flickered with uncertainty.

He couldn't determine the true background of these people in front of him.

Just looking at them, it seemed they weren't afraid of who was behind him at all.

"Enough, stop bickering, let's get down to business."

As soon as the leading man finished speaking, both Yang Jianguo and Li Gang's personal phones rang simultaneously.

After answering the call, Yang Jianguo couldn't help but sigh with relief, even with a hint of delight.

But Li Gang turned pale and was in a trance state.

To the point that when his phone slipped from his hand and hit the ground with a thud, he didn't react at all.

"Alright, I believe you two have already received the notification. Although I don't know who called you, we can proceed with the business now. We're not asking for your cooperation, just that you don't interfere."

After finishing, the leading man turned to Yang Yan and said:

"Mr. Yang, I apologize for startling you and this young lady. We will handle this situation and ensure you get a satisfactory result. You and Miss Wang can leave now."

"My surname is Jiang, first name Hai. I will be at your service for quite some time. If you have any minor issues like today, feel free to call me directly. Please bear with us. I beg you!"

As Jiang Hai finished speaking, he handed over a plain white business card.

It only had a phone number on it, nothing else, not even his name.

Yang Yan didn't refuse, took a glance at it, and then slipped it into his pocket.

Although it seemed a bit impolite, Jiang Hai didn't mind and continued:

"In these coming days, someone from above will formally reach out to you. If you have any requests, just let me know. I'll do my best to handle them for you."

Yang Yan smiled lightly:

"It seems the old saying is true, what is meant to come will come, you can't avoid it. I thought you would contact me sooner, but it was delayed until now. This shows your efficiency isn't very high!"

Jiang Hai smiled sheepishly and carefully explained:

"After all, meeting with you requires a more formal occasion. Otherwise, it's indeed difficult for us, and we hope you understand."

"Alright, alright, let's leave it at that! No need for more formalities, everyone knows what's going on. You do your job, and we won't interrupt. But remember your promise, or I will still intervene."

Yang Yan said while giving Zhang Jianxing and Li Gang a meaningful look.

"Haha..."

The two thought he would say something, but Yang Yan merely let out a slightly exaggerated laugh, took the still-dazed Wang Xue by the arm, and turned to leave.

"Director Li..."

Watching Yang Yan and Wang Xue leave boldly, Officer Wang hesitated.

He now also realized the seriousness of the issue but didn't know what to do and instinctively looked towards Li Gang.

Although the other officers knew Yang Yan's background was beyond imagination, they were equally puzzled.

What kind of background could it be, that made the two directors give up any thoughts of involvement after taking calls?

Even though these men revealed their Ministry of State Security identity, Deputy Director Li Gang still tried to fight a bit.

Who exactly is Yang Yan?

As for Zhang Jianxing and Lawyer Wang, they were utterly bewildered at this moment.

What the hell is going on?

Especially Lawyer Wang, he now fully believed the nonsense Yang Yan spouted earlier was actually true.

He felt he was truly wronged.

Though in the legal profession, one might inevitably side with the wrongs.

But he never imagined one day he'd face such horrifying trouble for standing up for his client.

He initially believed with the Zhang Family's influence, he could be unstoppable in the East Sea domain.

Now it seems even the Zhang Family might not save themselves, let alone people like them.
