Chapter 88: You're Too Old to Be Wielding a Knife

Judging by appearances, this guy is no more than twenty years old, probably a small-time delinquent around here.

Still not mixing well, the kind that can't make it to the big leagues.

Just look at his hairstyle and you can tell.

All sorts of colors, going for that wash-and-blow style.

Even delinquents these days are ranked in tiers.

Those who truly make it big, who would get into such flashy looks?

Yang Yan didn't speak, just continued eating Su Ye's lovingly made beef noodles.

Su Ye seemed not to have heard at all, just quietly watching Yang Yan eat the noodles she cooked.

"Dammit! Boss, boss! Where the hell is everyone? Dead or what?"

The young guy with the flamboyant style clearly felt ignored and his pride hurt, pounding the table as he continued shouting:

"Is this place not wanting to keep running?"

"Yelling like a ghost! Eat if you want, otherwise get lost. What kind of thing do you think you are, daring to ask the boss to cook you noodles?"

A staff member finally couldn't take it anymore, walked over directly, and said fiercely.

The colleagues who knew his background not only didn't think of stopping him but instead watched with eager expressions.

His name is Li Wei, a former delinquent from society, and had made a bit of a name for himself.

However, when roaming the underworld, it's hard not to take a hit.

If you go out causing trouble, you eventually have to pay up.

Once his opponent brought a group to trap him in an alley, beating him nearly to death.

Su Ye, who was passing by, saved him, took him to the hospital, and looked after him for a while until he recovered.

He simply turned over a new leaf, staying at the "Yang Family Noodle Shop" to start again.

When Su Ye is not around, the entire shop is managed by him, with a monthly income in the thousands.

His family saw him reforming and hurriedly introduced a girlfriend for him.

Although he kept a bit of a thought for Su Ye in his heart, Li Wei knew Su Ye was waiting for someone, so he kept this love hidden deep inside.

His girlfriend is now also learning skills at "Yang Family Noodle Shop," and it's said they are going to get married by the end of the year.

Though his temper has improved a lot, anything concerning Su Ye, his temper isn't so good.

In his view, Su Ye is not only his savior but also like a goddess.

The guy who eats without paying is just whatever. Although it annoys him, since he's the person the boss is waiting for, endure it and let it go.

But if someone dares to cause trouble here, they're courting death.

"Oh! What's this, not happy to hear me scold you? I'm scolding you because I think highly of you! Believe it or not, I'll have this damn noodle shop shut down."

The young man who looked like a delinquent, seeing Li Wei's fierce posture, not only didn't flinch but instead shouted arrogantly.

Li Wei snorted coldly, walked right over, grabbed the young man's neck, and pulled him out.

At the doorway, he was directly thrown out.

Li Wei's girlfriend saw him still wanting to make a move, hurriedly came out to deter him.

Such people, just driving them away is enough, no need to stir up trouble.

Li Wei actually didn't want to fight right at the noodle shop entrance, so he cursed fiercely:

"Scram! Don't let me see you again. Otherwise, I'll beat you every time I see you!"

"Just wait, just you wait!"

The young man threw down some tough words and then ran off like a shot.

Though the incident in the shop was handled quickly, it did somewhat affect the mood of the diners.

Su Ye gave Li Wei a look, and Li Wei understood immediately and loudly announced:

"Sincerely apologize for the incident just now affecting everyone's mood. Now add a small steak to each table, as a token of our consideration."

"Haha! No problem, no problem."

"The boss is generous!"

"These youngsters, every single one unruly and arrogant. They should be taught a good lesson by their parents!"

...

Those who come here to eat are often regular customers.

One reason is the taste is genuinely good, also the price is fair, and the portions are generous.

The boss here is very generous, and the service quality is excellent.

That's why almost every day the business at Yang Family Noodle Shop is exceptionally good.

Yang Yan ate quickly, finishing everything clean in no time, not even leaving the soup.

He dropped his chopsticks, let out a contented burp, leaned back in his chair, and praised:

"Burp! So full! Your cooking skills are really good; I could eat like this forever without getting bored."

Su Ye heard Yang Yan say he's willing to eat forever, her body trembled slightly, and her face suddenly blushed.

She stood up, carefully tidying Yang Yan's bowls and chopsticks, her eyes filled with happiness.

These tasks were supposed to be done by the staff, but anything involving Yang Yan, Su Ye handled personally.

"This is the place! Damn, they tried to hit me just now."

A familiar voice shouted from outside the door.

Everyone looked toward the voice, wasn't it the delinquent youth Li Wei threw out earlier!

This guy actually returned, and he brought along a large group of delinquents around the same age to make trouble.

"Damn!"

Li Wei was also hot-headed; seeing Yang Yan earlier put him in a bad mood, and now seeing the guy he warned bringing people to the door, he exploded instantly.

He went outside with a kitchen knife in hand.

"What do you want to do?"

Li Wei stood alone at the entrance, squinting his eyes coldly and said.

"Weren't you tough just now? Weren't you gonna hit me? Now come hit me then! I'm standing here for you to hit."

The delinquent who had been thrown out earlier stood smugly opposite Li Wei, hands on hips, arrogantly saying.

"Where to hit?"

Li Wei facing these small-time delinquents seemed not to put them in his eyes at all, walked straight to that guy and asked.

"Come on, come on! Hit here, hit here!"

The young guy with the flamboyant style tapped his forehead:

"Hit right here, make sure you hit accurately."

With so many brothers behind him, he didn't believe Li Wei would dare to hit him.

Li Wei gave a cold sneer, raised his hand, and punched the flamboyant young guy in the forehead.

Ah!

The flamboyant young guy cried out in pain, spun around in a daze, staggering and falling to the ground.

He hadn't expected Li Wei would really hit him, leaving him a bit stunned.

The others saw their companion punched to the ground and were taken aback, then moved to jump Li Wei.

Inside the shop, Su Ye signaled Yang Yan to help out and resolve the matter.

Yang Yan smiled, nodded, then stood up and headed to the shop entrance.

He certainly knew Su Ye's little thoughts.

Since the Yang Family Noodle Shop was actually opened by her for him, if he didn't step up now, who would?

Moreover, he'd promised to protect her.

When else but now should he step up?

"Just consider it post-meal exercise."

Yang Yan casually said, then used two fingers to catch the kitchen knife in Li Wei's hand.

Li Wei was just about to go and hack, suddenly shocked, hearing Yang Yan's voice in his ear.

"Such a grown person, and still using knives. For this bunch of punks, hacking them would mean going to jail, is it worth it? All of them together probably don't earn as much as you do in a month, not worth it at all!"

Li Wei saw it was Yang Yan and bit his lip, finally stayed silent.
