

Powerhouse 68

Chapter 68: There Are Good Things Below

While a group of fangirls were frantically searching for Lin Mo, Lin Mo had actually left the sports center long ago.

Lin Mo wasn't too fond of this kind of feeling, the sensation of being excessively worshipped.

It was now around 5:00pm, and Lin Mo prepared to return to the villa complex.

In the taxi, Lin Mo received a phone call from Lu Haotian.

"Mr. Lin..."

The voice of Lu Haotian was extremely respectful.

"Speak if you have something to say," Lin Mo said indifferently.

"Well, this is the situation. The item you asked me to keep an eye out for, we've got a lead," Lu Haotian hurriedly explained.

Lin Mo then remembered. Because the Mist Formation was missing one last important item, after the auction ended, Lin Mo had sent a text message to Lu Haotian, asking for his help in the matter.

Previously, Lin Mo had not told Lu Haotian to search for this one item, simply because it was the hardest to find.

So, they collected the simpler items first.

"Mr. Lin, it's hard to explain everything on the phone. How about I come and pick you up?" Lu Haotian said with respectful laughter.

"No need, just tell me the address, I'll come over now."

Once Lu Haotian finished giving the address, Lin Mo directed the cab driver there.

Qingyuan Club was a very upscale private club in Lin City.

As he approached the entrance, he was stopped by two burly men:

"Stop!"

"Please present your membership card!"

Lin Mo glanced at the two men indifferently and said in a cool voice, "I'm here to see Lu Haotian."

"What?"

The two burly men were stunned, exchanging a look, then immediately their expressions darkened.

"Kid, you dare to call our Lord of Heaven by his name?"

"Do you want to die?"

Glaring fiercely at Lin Mo, they clenched their fists, ready to strike.

However, just at that moment, a particularly respectful voice rang out, "Mr. Lin, have you arrived?"

The two burly men were taken aback and saw Lu Haotian walking towards them, their eyes full of immense respect for the aloof young man.

The two burly men were not fools, and they quickly understood the situation, immediately dropping to their knees in fear:

"Mr. Lin, spare our lives! We, blind fools, failed to recognize you as Mr. Lin..."

"We almost offended Mr. Lin; our crime is unforgivable!"

Snap!

The next second, Long San, standing behind Lu Haotian, delivered two fierce slaps to their faces, "Now get out of here!"

Shivering, the two men quickly fled the area, their hearts filled with shock. If they had actually dared to lay a hand on the cold young man, they would probably be disabled by now.

"Mr. Lin, please..." Lu Haotian gestured for Lin Mo to enter, speaking very politely.

"There's no need; let us talk out here," Lin Mo said indifferently.

"Okay!"

Lu Haotian nodded his head and then smilingly said:

"Mr. Lin, the item you asked us to keep an eye out for, we've found some information."

"Continue," Lin Mo prompted.

"On Sunset Mountain, there's said to be a hidden mountain range, and Mr. Lin, the item you're searching for is in one of the ranges on Sunset Mountain."

"Sunset Mountain?"

Lin Mo's eyes lifted slightly as he looked towards Lu Haotian, inquiring, "Have you been to this place?"

Lu Haotian was momentarily stunned, but he quickly regained his composure and said respectfully, "I've been there once. How about I personally escort Mr. Lin this time?"

"Very well, we shall set off immediately," Lin Mo replied indifferently. With Lu Haotian leading the way, they would save a lot of time.

Soon, Lu Haotian, Long San, and Lin Mo set out together for Sunset Mountain.

After driving for about three hours, Lu Haotian asked Long San to stop the car.

"Lord of Heaven! Is this what you called Sunset Mountain?"

Gazing at the mountain range before them, which resembled an ancient forest, Long San couldn't help but exclaim in awe.

"Yes, this is Sunset Mountain."

Lu Haotian nodded his head and then, turning to Lin Mo, he asked respectfully, "So, Mr. Lin, should we enter Sunset Mountain now?"

"Mm," Lin Mo responded dispassionately.

Lu Haotian then took the lead, walking towards the mountain.

After entering Sunset Mountain and walking for about half an hour, Lin Mo suddenly stopped: "Wait!"

"What's wrong?" Both Lu Haotian and Long San were puzzled, casting surprised glances at Lin Mo.

"We're in danger."

Lin Mo spoke calmly.

Lu Haotian and Long San were even more confused.

However, in the next moment, both of their pupils shrank in shock.

Both looked at Lin Mo with admiration, "Mr. Lin, you truly are a divine being to have foreseen this."

But soon, Long San's face turned pale with terror, "Mr. Lin, what... what kind of monstrous creature is this?"

Ahead, there were six or seven beasts roughly two to three meters tall, with extremely sharp fangs and a crimson bloody drool dripping from their mouths, looking horribly fearsome.

"Blood Abnormal Wolves," Lin Mo explained indifferently.

"Blood Abnormal Wolves?" Long San and Lu Haotian were unfamiliar with these creatures, but could tell that the Blood Abnormal Wolves in front of them were very terrifying and ferocious.

Long San's complexion turned grave, a trace of fear in his voice, "Mr. Lin, we're not going to die here, are we?"

Lin Mo, with a hand casually tucked into his pocket and showing no fear, spoke indifferently, "No need to fret. Just stand behind me."

The eyes of the Blood Abnormal Wolves looked sinister and what was most frightening was their bloodied, gaping jaws. Even from a distance, a pungent, oppressive stench of blood was detectable.

In the next second, the six or seven Blood Abnormal Wolves became fiercely aggressive and, in the blink of an eye, charged towards Lin Mo and the others.

From east, south, west, north, left, right, front, and back, they attacked Lin Mo all at once.

Seeing this, Long San and Lu Haotian clenched their fists, their hearts filled with tension and concern.

To think that so many Blood Abnormal Wolves were attacking Lin Mo all at once!

"Scram!"

Lin Mo's eyes suddenly turned cold, and as a glint of chill flashed, his foot shot out like a whirlwind.

Thump!

A dull sound resonated, and in an instant, the first Blood Abnormal Wolf to reach Lin Mo was violently hurled away.

It then smashed into a large tree, shattering the trunk!

Not only that, the wolf's corpse was torn to pieces, a gruesome sight indeed!

Witnessing this, Long San and Lu Haotian were utterly astonished.

With just one kick, he had turned a Blood Abnormal Wolf into a pile of broken bones and flesh. This level of power was simply terrifying!

Not just the two of them, but the remaining Blood Abnormal Wolves that had planned to attack Lin Mo were so frightened that they turned and fled.

"Mr. Lin, truly a godly figure!" Lu Haotian and Long San admired Lin Mo immensely.

But Lin Mo seemed not to hear their praises and walked towards a huge rock ahead on his own.

Seeing this, both Long San and Lu Haotian were greatly perplexed and quickly followed, "Mr. Lin, what are you doing?"

"Underneath this rock, there's something valuable."

Lin Mo spoke indifferently again and then his finger struck the rock, which was seven to eight meters thick and weighed thousands of pounds, like lightning.