26: Luna

I don't know why I feel the need to introduce Selene to my two girlfriends but the second we arrived at Amanda's, I know why. They are going to love her just like I do. They clicked like long lost friends while Selene basked in the attention.

"I thought she was going to be a bitch." Edie whispered into my ear as we stared at Amanda and Selene cooking in the kitchen while we chop the veggies.

"She isn't. Why did I stay back to befriend her? Had it been any other person, I don't think I would have extended my friendship. She is a sweetheart, trust me. Wait until she gets more comfortable." I shrug at her, the cucumber in my hand shortening.

"I still wouldn't take it lightly if I were you. I have both Lucas and Liam in a tight leash though the females here are trying to get beneath my skin." She rolled her eyes.

Her mates Lucas and Liam happen to join the kingdom just few months back after their pack was attacked by vampires and Crew urged them to join us here until it is restored. Now that they have found their mate, they won't be moving anywhere.

The reason why we didn't go to her home actually because they are there. They still live with their parents because of the whole moving back to our kingdom so she didn't mind. Edie is glowing with the dual attention she is getting letting me wonder they are taking good care of her.

Edie exudes a radiant glow, her blonde hair cascading in waves that catch the light, creating an ethereal halo around her. She was the hottest girl back in highschool. Everyone wanted to be around her but we grew up together and stuck together.

Her brown eyes, deep and alluring, hold a magnetic charm that draws attention with each gaze. With a model's body, every contour seems sculpted to perfection, showcasing a blend of elegance and sensuality.

Confidence exudes from her every move, accentuating her poised demeanor and adding an extra layer of allure to her presence. Edie's beauty, marked by a blend of sophistication and a hint of playfulness, creates a striking visual impact that captivates those fortunate enough to witness her.

In every aspect, she embodies a unique combination of grace, sexiness, and the confidence of a true model. She models in both the human and werewolf world. We are also thriving to become like them, have our own stylists and whatnot.

"Well, I don't mind. She is not here to steal Crew away from me and I know he has got his eyes on me only." I shrug back, keeping the bowl filled with nicely cut cucumber aside.

"Whatcha two talking about?" Amanda asked from the stove, spatula in one hand and the other propped to her hip.

"Oh, just the basics. Was telling her how Liam and Lucas took care of me last night." Edie grinned then licked her lips for emphasis making both Amanda and me grimace.

26: Luna

Selene on the other hand blushed. Ever since she heard about the girl having two mates, she looks unsettled in that shy innocent way of hers. She keeps watching Edie from the corner of her eyes as if expecting her to do something ridiculous.

"You are shameless, do you know that?" Amanda asked, turning back to the stove and shaking her head at our best friend.

"I know but you girls are so boring. I mean, why are you grimacing? Having two mates is awesome, trust me." She grinned at us, taking a small piece of cucumber and sending it down her throat.

We finished dinner in no time and ate to our hearts content while watching the movie. It is meant to be a sleepover but the girls are drunk halfway through the meal leaving only Selene and I sober. She glanced down at my unconscious friends with a small smile.

"Handful huh?" I tilt my head, seeing her red lips curve further to a full blown smile.

"They are nice and quite...outgoing." Ah, that is another word for it but I know she wanted to say shameless.

"I think they have ruined the night. Let's tuck them in bed and leave." I say standing up from the floor and carrying Amanda in my arms like she weighed nothing. She could do the same to me.

26: Luna

After successfully tucking her in her room, I went back for Edie and did the same in the guest bedroom. I kept a trash can by the side of the bed just in case they want to throw up when they wake up. Selene smiled at me.

"You are so kind." She said in a small voice as we held hands and traipse out of the house to stroll back to the castle.

"Am I? I do try my best." I shrug my shoulders. It is all thanks to my father and mother for bringing me up this way though.

"Yeah." She has more to say so I squeeze her hand urging her to say more. I don't like her keeping things to herself even though I'm sure it's because she never really had friends for most of her life.

"I cannot think of any female who will readily like and befriend her mate's baby mama. I'm not saying it in any kind of way but...this is huge." She said softly, trying not to offend me.

"I know right. What Edie was wondering through..." I trail off, my eyes fixated on the darkness ahead of us. "But I feel a connection to you, Selene. To you and the baby. I feel like there is no need for me to be jealous so I am not. My wolf isn't threatened by you either, which is the only good sign I need."

She turns to look at me, really stares me in the eyes while stopping our feet from moving. Her eyes shone brightly, amber coloured eyes pierce back at me letting me know she has let her wolf out so I did the same. Annabelle has been wanting to talk to Selene's wolf for a while. I don't know why.

"Bond. Connection. Love. Baby." Was the words that echoed through my mind as the two wolves talked while blocking us. The hell.

I tried to fight back my place but Annabelle wasn't having it. She is not done talking to Selene's wolf until a moment later when she retreated looking so pleased with herself while leaving me confused as hell. What was that all about?

The conversation between wolves...

"I think the Moon Goddess wants to give your female another mate." Annabelle excitedly said to Kira whose eyes are shining with mirth and joy at meeting a new friend.

"Really? Second chance mate? I have been suspecting that for a while already but you telling me solidified it all." Kira grinned, eyes widening further.

"Yeah? She deserves it." Annabelle says softly.

"She does. More than anyone I know. But I also have another feeling." Kira wiggled her brow, trailing off and waiting for Annabelle to catch up which she did.

"I really hope so. We are going to be such a bad ass mates." She grinned moving closer to fist bump Kira with the use of Selene and Luna who are oblivious.

"I know right! We gonna have so much fun. And let me tell you a secret... Selene is actually a Lycan." Kira said with a giggle. She loves that she is a Lycan too.

"Oh, I know that. Don't you think I can see your form inside her eyes? Can't you see my beautiful brown fur?" Annabelle wiggled her brows making Kira blush.

"Gotta go. Hope we do this again soon." Kira waved a tentative goodbye before moving back so her female could lead again.

I blinked and Selene did the same thing then we smiled. We have no idea what they just spoke about but it isn't a bad thing since our wolves are quite pleased with themselves.

"That was weird. She has never done that to me." Selene said with a wondrous smile on her lips matching my own I'm sure.

"Same here. Aren't they just bunch of weirdos?" I grin, tucking her arm between mine as we skipped towards the palace where I could see several guards on patrol.

"They are."

"Why don't you go and rest? I'll see you in the morning tomorrow and we can visit my mom if you want to." I say to Selene as we stood outside her room.

"Sure." She looks hesitant but then she leaned in and hugged me before entering her room leaving me entranced.

What the f**k is going on with me?

26: Luna

I probably need to get laid which is what I did. I hunted Crew down and force him to take advantage of my tipsy self. This cannot be happening. How could I be having such weird feelings towards another female when I have my hot mate here?
