

57: Crew

"I don't believe even the mightiest armies could thwart my fervor to claim you in this very moment, my dearest Sunny," I declared, my voice carrying an intensity that echoed through the room.

Selene's eyes widened at the pure unadulterated lust in my eyes. Wicked. Devilish. Hot. Feverish. Those are amongst the few words that could be used to describe me right this moment but I don't care. I only care about one thing, Selene.

The thought of not remembering the day she conceived our son always made me angry. I would love nothing than to remember how she felt that day. How she must have clung to me when she came. How angelic she would look cumming.

I need her more than I need my next breath right now. I want to feel her tightening around my member. I haven't spoken to Luna about this and it is spontaneous but I wouldn't want it any other way.

I was with Adrian when he started crying nonstop and I told her through the mind-link. She immediately walked into my room and started feeding him and things escalated from just staring at her to wanting to be part of the party.

It is about f*****g darn time that I lost myself in her body. I need her dammit. We have been having interruptions one way or the other but now, nothing could stand in our way. I will make sure of that.

"But Adrian is there on the bed?" She asked, biting on her lower lip innocently, blinking those doe like eyes at me.

My c**k is already solid hard in my sweatpants. I don't want to be with anyone else but my new mate. It feels like I have been waiting my whole life for this moment. It feels different. I have been anticipating this moment.

"He is asleep and he won't wake up anytime soon or are you going to scream loud." I teased with a grin watching her blush from her hair to the tip of her feet.

I brought her closer to me on the couch then I slowly started removing her clothes while she watched me with rapt attention. I can see her throat bobbing up and down with nerves but the excitement in her eyes was palpable. She wanted this as much as I do.

When she was down to nothing, I did the same to the only article of clothing closing me, my sweatpants. I have lost the shirt along the way. Eager to be balls deep inside her tight little p***y.

I kissed her like my next meal, like the only source of water in a desert and she took it all with her own bold strokes. If I hadn't known better, I would have thought she has been kissing men one place to the other. But I knew I was the only man she has ever kissed, I can't help teasing her though.

"You haven't had any other c**k in this p***y huh?" I whisper into her mouth, my fingers touching her soaked cunt.

She moaned, her eyes rolling back inside her head while her lips parted. She is enjoying this and that is what I want. Selene is going to be ruined for all other men out there. If she hadn't been.

"No." She breathed out a gasp when I s*****d her p***y for taking too long to reply.

"Good because you are mine only. No one else will ever have this p***y, hmm?" I murmured against her lips and saw the shock register on her face at my crude words.

"That is only fair." She teased in a murmur and it turned into moans when I slam my fingers hard inside her cunt.

I pull them out just as I feel her clench harder. No way is she coming on my hand, not now. Bending her at the waist, I use my other hand to bring up my angry d**k. Raging and ready to get soaked.

The head purple with an intense need to f**k like

I've been wanting to do all night. Since I saw her walking down at my border looking lost. And then when I saw how she was breastfeeding our son like it was the most natural thing in the world.

It was torture knowing she was bare underneath her shirts and I couldn't touch her.

She's going to get it rough and hard. Pleasure with pain. And one thing I have learned about Selene these past few days, she wants it all. It doesn't matter where and how, she wants me deep inside her. Perfect match for me, really.

Luna always wanted it hard too but I have a feeling that Selene is going to be the perfect match for me. That glint of want in her eyes is the most intense I have ever seen my entire life. It matches mine right now if not more vivid.

I step between her thighs and spread them wider with my legs, her sexy painted toes glinting in the dark. She still has her hands keeping herself open, even though I can sense her nervousness beneath her false bravado.

Tonight, she wants to be owned. It is written all over her face. This time around, she will get f****d. I'm sure I was gentle the first time but right now, there is no other choice.

"Soft or hard, baby?" I ask as I deepen my lips to hers hoping to catch her answer inside my mouth.

"All you've got." She breathed out.

Our sighs of pleasure are mutual when I dip my c**k between her wet folds, lubricating my shaft with her juices. The purple crown presses against her clit and I slap it with my tip, making her moan loudly.

"f**k, Sunny. So f*****g wet." I trace her up and down with my shaft, loving the way her p**y opens like flower petals when I move my c**k against her p**y lips. "So soft." I push just the head in her cunt. "And tight."

Her walls clench around me and I lick my lips as I stare at where we're joined. Her pink p***y slightly opened from my penetration, succumbing to the size. The sight of her like this forever imprinted in my head. I won't forget this.

"Crew, Crew... Please, please put it in." She begs, her voice muffled with groans of pleasure as she called my name like a prsyer.

Pulling out, I aim the head against her tiny opening and push. Her body resists and my jaw clenches as I fight the urge to shove to the hilt. I replace her hands with mine and pull apart her lips so I can stare vividly as I slowly but relentlessly thrust inside.

"Goddess, just like that." She breathed out, her eyes fluttering close with sheer bliss.

"Yeah? You like it rough, huh?" I say through gritted teeth as she clenched onto me like a glove.

She couldn't say anything, only nodded her head and I took full charge.
