Chapter 112: The Demonification of the Python, The Fearless Junior Sister

Lin Chen looked at the purple silhouette and thought about what she was going to do next, his expression changed drastically, disregarding his own safety. He slapped a Swiftess Talisman and a Defense Talisman onto himself and quickly headed towards the purple silhouette using his movement technique.

"How could Elder Sister Xu be in the Mire Dragon Marsh Secret Realm?"

"She's going to pick Dragon Whisker Polygonum!? Not good..."

The purple silhouette was none other than Lin Chen's senior sister, Xu Lianyu.

It seemed that Xu Lianyu did not heed the advice of Yang Yuemin and Xu Ma'an, suppressing her cultivation and still entering the Mire Dragon Marsh Secret Realm.

"This damnable Flood Dragon Snake, to actually possess a King-Level Bloodline and the ability to demonify, relying on these guys is probably not enough to defeat it."

At this moment, Xu Lianyu's face was filled with anger as she rapidly headed towards the location of the Dragon Whisker Polygonum using her movement technique.

Beside Xu Lianyu was a little girl dressed in a pink skirt who looked even younger than Xu Lianyu.

At this time, the girl and Xu Lianyu were both running towards the Dragon Whisker Polygonum's location, and behind them were several disciples from the Jade Cauldron Sect, seemingly sharing the same intention as Xu Lianyu, wanting to pick the Dragon Whisker Polygonum.

However, not all of those people aimed for the Dragon Whisker Polygonum; some had the goal of protecting Xu Lianyu, to prevent her from getting hurt.

Turns out, these were all Xu Lianyu's suitors, for whom Xu Lianyu was the goddess in their hearts; no matter what the goddess did, they would always accompany her.

Xu Lianyu was utterly speechless toward these fellows and had advised them countless times not to follow behind her. They were of no use except to make matters worse for her.

After all, they were far too weak for Xu Lianyu to even spare a glance.

Just then, the Flood Dragon Snake was chasing the crowd, but upon seeing Xu Lianyu and others going to pick the Dragon Whisker Polygonum, it immediately let out a hoarse roar and with a flick of its snake tail, charged towards Xu Lianyu and the others.

After demonification, the Flood Dragon Snake's speed was incredibly fast, and Xu Lianyu could not reach the side of the Dragon Whisker Polygonum before it caught up to her.

"Xu Lianyu, have you lost your mind? Turn around and run, why are you still trying to pick it?"

The little girl in pink saw the Flood Dragon Snake closing in from behind and quickly reminded Xu Lianyu.

"No, the Dragon Whisker Polygonum must be picked; only it can save the life of our master."

Xu Lianyu was well aware that the Flood Dragon Snake had already closed in, but with the Dragon Whisker Polygonum within reach, she couldn't give up.

So Xu Lianyu clenched her teeth, gathered all her spiritual power in her legs to increase her speed, instead of forming a spiritual power shield to defend against the upcoming attack.

"You've really gone mad."

The girl in pink scolded angrily and immediately used her spiritual power to keep up with Xu Lianyu's pace.

Boom—

However, just as Xu Lianyu was about to pick the Dragon Whisker Polygonum, the Flood Dragon Snake's tail came crashing down.

"Am I still one step too slow?"

Xu Lianyu, seeing the black shadow getting closer and closer, felt an overwhelming sense of despair.

But at that moment, a dark figure suddenly appeared before her, picking her up at great speed and quickly escaping towards the distance.

As Xu Lianyu, how could she tolerate being held in someone's arms, even if it was to save her life at this moment, she was ready to lash out in anger at the person holding her, but when she saw the familiar face, she froze in surprise.

"Junior Brother Lin Chen, how did you end up in Dragon Pond? This place is so dangerous; are you disregarding your own life?"

Xu Lianyu opened her mouth and immediately gave Lin Chen a scolding lesson, fulfilling her duties as a qualified Elder Sister.

Upon hearing this, Lin Chen felt an internal wave of speechlessness.

If it hadn't been for his rescue, Xu Lianyu would probably have died under the tail of the Flood Dragon Snake just moments ago, and yet she had the nerve to lecture him.

However, Lin Chen didn't argue back. In the past six months, he had learned his lesson, never to talk back to his Elder Sister, or things would only get more troublesome than they were now.

Lin Chen quickly dashed toward the periphery of Dragon Pond using his movement technique.

The Flood Dragon Snake was in the throes of demonification at the moment; no one could match it, and they could only wait for the effects of the demonification to wear off before devising a plan to harvest the Dragon Whisker Polygonum.

After Lin Chen escaped with Xu Lianyu in his arms, the Flood Dragon Snake didn't give relentless chase because, around the Dragon Whisker Polygonum, there were some disciples who risked their lives, trying to harvest the valuable herb with dreams of soaring to the skies.

However, as they coincidentally encountered the returning Flood Dragon Snake, their luck wasn't as good as Lin Chen and Xu Lianyu's. They were directly swallowed whole by the Flood Dragon Snake, with not even bones remaining.

"Let go of me! Why did you take me away? I was just about to harvest the Dragon Whisker Polygonum."

Having reached the periphery, Lin Chen stopped running when he saw that the Flood Dragon Snake wasn't pursuing them. Xu Lianyu pushed him away and resumed her "Elder Sister's education."

"I... I was just worried about you, Elder Sister."

Lin Chen didn't dare to argue back, instead he expressed the worry in his heart.

Upon hearing this, Xu Lianyu's heart softened immediately.

"Sigh, fine, as you said, let's wait until the demonification of the Flood Dragon Snake passes before we attempt to harvest it. It just underwent demonification, so it will definitely be weak for a while, and that will be our opportunity."

"By the way, how did you manage to move so quickly just now?"

Over the past six months, Xu Lianyu rarely stayed on the mountain, and on the occasions she met Lin Chen, she would give him a 'Jade Bird Peak' style verbal admonishing, then hand him some elixirs to urge him to diligently practice his cultivation. She had no knowledge of Lin Chen's alchemy and talisman making skills.

"I used a Swift Talisman Inscription to increase my speed."

Lin Chen replied truthfully.

"A Swiftness Talisman? An ordinary one couldn't possibly allow for that kind of speed. Where did you get that Swiftness Talisman from?"

Xu Lianyu looked at Lin Chen with full curiosity.

Upon hearing this, Lin Chen didn't plan to hide the truth from Xu Lianyu. Despite her sometimes being overly talkative and too inclined to manage his affairs, she genuinely cared for him. More than once, he saw the likeness of the maid Xiaoyu in her, and he had long since come to regard Xu Lianyu as family.

The Swiftness Talisman that Lin Chen had used was the best quality one he had refined among his talismans. It had already reached the level of a Supreme Grade Second Grade Talisman Inscription. Therefore, the speed he demonstrated was something one might expect from an Earth Melding Realm martial artist.

"Well done, Elder Sister Xu, running off so fast, leaving me behind in Dragon Pond without a care, right?"

Just as Lin Chen was about to tell Xu Lianyu that he made the talismans himself, a scolding voice came from afar.

The girl in pink also used a strange movement technique to escape from the Dragon Pond, but at that moment, she looked extremely disheveled.

"Hehe, sorry, I just subconsciously thought you were stronger because of your cultivation, not realizing you had suppressed your cultivation just like me!"
