Chapter 153: The Winning Position Begins to Show, Huang Liang Who Disobeys Orders

Swoosh, swoosh—

Lin Chen's aura suddenly intensified, and his speed increased dramatically as he too attacked Zhao Ye.

"Damn it, you tricked me!"

At this moment, Zhao Ye was filled with regret. He never imagined Lin Chen could actually pull out an elixir and a Talisman Inscription to fight with him. Was it worth using so many resources?

Do elixirs and Talisman Inscriptions not cost money? What he didn't know was that Lin Chen had enough Talisman Inscriptions and elixirs to exhaust not just one Zhao Ye, but ten of him.

Zhao Ye's countenance was extremely ugly; gritting his teeth, his spear collided once more with the long sword in Lin Chen's hand. Lin Chen's Spiritual Power had indeed returned to its peak, and the powerful rebounding force pushed Zhao Ye back again.

Crack!

The second spear in Zhao Ye's hand snapped. He had three spears in total, all his favorites, collected over many years. As a spear master, his spears were practically his lifeline.

And now, two of his three spears had been destroyed by Lin Chen.

Zhao Ye's three spears were all Mid-Grade Spirit Level, and the fact that Lin Chen's sword could cut through his spears meant it had to be of a higher grade.

"Pfft!"

A mouthful of fresh blood spat out once more, and Zhao Ye began to retreat in his heart. Continuing the fight, he feared his life might be lost here.

At this moment, he utterly loathed Lin Chen—not only for losing face in front of all the disciples of the Black Cloud Sect but also for making him face a threat to his own life.

Swoosh, swoosh—

Seeing Zhao Ye unable to overcome Lin Chen, the disciples of the Black Cloud Sect leaped into action, hoping to come to Zhao Ye's aid.

However, the disciples of the Jade Cauldron Sect were no pushovers; they soared up and blocked the Black Cloud Sect Disciples.

Zhao Ye, noticing this, grew even more grave. Something felt off.

Originally, the disciples of the Black Cloud Sect had always been stronger than those of the Jade Cauldron Sect. Zhao Ye, leading his followers, had guarded this location for so long, providing Li Chu and Mu Qingxue and others a quiet environment to use secret techniques for Refining Yin Sha Puppets. Countless waves of Jade Cauldron Sect disciples came to stop them, but all had been wiped out by Zhao Ye.

But now, he noticed that the thirty-some disciples of the Jade Cauldron Sect were completely overpowering those from the Black Cloud Sect, crushing them in what looked like a one-sided battle.

"What on earth is going on?"

Frowning deeply, Zhao Ye closely observed why the Jade Cauldron Sect disciples were so formidable, only to be shocked to find that the thirty-some disciples had orderly positions, seemingly forming some kind of formation.

"A Killing Formation, it's a Killing Formation! You actually have mastery of a Killing Formation; how is this possible? When did Jade Cauldron Sect disciples learn the Killing Formation? There was nothing about this in our intelligence."

Zhao Ye's complexion drastically changed, his fists clenched tightly, as he finally understood what made this group of Jade Cauldron Sect disciples different from before.

"There's nothing impossible. You've slain countless of our Jade Cauldron Sect disciples. Today, you shall pay your debts."

"Kill!"

Lin Chen bellowed, soaring toward Zhao Ye to strike him down.

With Lin Chen leading the way, the other disciples of the Jade Cauldron Sect were filled with fighting spirit. Under the enhancement of the Sword Rain Meteor Formation, their strength greatly increased, and they completely suppressed the Black Cloud Sect.

And with Wang Yilin and Xu Lianyu, two powerful Witches, leading the charge, the Black Cloud Sect was utterly crushed and massacred.

Before long, with countless dead or injured and without the will to fight, they all started to retreat.

On the Jade Cauldron Sect's side, not a single disciple was harmed or killed.

At this moment, Huang Liang felt incredibly triumphant. They had been beaten to a sorry state by the Black Cloud Sect previously, but now they had finally avenged that disgrace.

"Don't get distracted. Let's join forces to eliminate Zhao Ye first; he's an unpredictable element."

Given the advantage the Jade Cauldron Sect held, many of Huang Liang's followers were already loudly proclaiming their victory. However, Lin Chen was still slightly furrowing his brows.

The last thing you want on the battlefield is complacency. Right now, the outcome was not yet decided; they merely had an advantage, and they couldn't afford to be careless.

Though they had overcome the Black Cloud Sect disciples on the periphery, there were still the inner ranks and the powerful Zhao Ye to deal with. Zhao Ye had merely lost his will to fight for the moment. If truly cornered, there was no telling what kind of combat power he might unleash in a desperate attempt to take everyone down with him.

Hence, they couldn't afford to give him that chance. Quickly eliminating him was essential to prevent any unforeseen incidents.

"Kill!"

After hearing Lin Chen's words, the crowd stopped chasing the other fleeing disciples and instead concentrated their attack on Zhao Ye.

With Zhao Ye's death, the rest would naturally be unable to escape.

However, Huang Liang and those following him disregarded Lin Chen's commands. Although they had the upper hand in this fight, Huang Liang was extremely unsatisfied with Lin Chen's conspicuous performance.

Huang Liang felt that he should be the one receiving all the attention. How could all the glory go to Lin Chen while he became a mere side character? Thus, he blatantly disregarded Lin Chen's words and continued to lead the Jade Cauldron Sect disciples who followed him to pursue and kill the fleeing Black Cloud Sect disciples.

Unbeknownst to them, Huang Liang led his men deep into the inner ranks.

"Damn it, what's that guy doing? Nevermind, let's just proceed. Don't let him mess up our formation."

Lin Chen, seeing that Huang Liang refused to follow orders, was quite annoyed. Huang Liang's actions could potentially disrupt their formation or even turn the tide of battle against them.

Regarding Huang Liang's recklessness in rushing into the inner ranks, Lin Chen chose not to call out a warning.

Since the guy wasn't following orders and was doing things that could endanger the group, Lin Chen didn't consider him an ally anymore. Whether he lived or died, Lin Chen didn't care.

Lin Chen knew he had to seize the opportunity to kill Zhao Ye—that was the urgent priority.

At that moment, Zhao Ye and the other Black Cloud Sect disciples were fleeing like mad into the inner part of the canyon, with Lin Chen and the others locking their gaze firmly on Zhao Ye, while Huang Liang led his group into the inner ranks.

Just as Lin Chen was about to catch up with Zhao Ye, Zhao Ye suddenly bellowed.

"Now is the time. Use the Yin Sha Qi!"
