

Primordial 154

Chapter 154: Yin Sha Puppet

"Not good, come back quickly!"

Upon hearing Zhao Ye's words, Lin Chen's expression changed, as he called out to the team led by Huang Liang.

They could see Huang Liang's group deep within the inner area, where colossal Yin Sha Puppets stood before them. Surrounding the puppets were many Black Cloud Sect Disciples performing secret techniques to refine the Yin Sha Puppets.

After the Jade Cauldron Sect Disciples had pursued into the inner area, those Black Cloud Sect Disciples conducting the secret techniques abruptly changed their seals, turning around to point a finger at the main force of the Jade Cauldron Sect. Suddenly, a myriad of Yin Sha Qi burst forth, and the Yin Sha Puppets, which were being refined, simultaneously leapt into the air, enveloping all of the Jade Cauldron Sect Disciples.

The Yin Sha Puppets, resembling human skeletons wrought from silver, exuded a chilly and eerie presence, entirely unlike the aura of martial artists.

"Damn it, we've been played."

"Everyone, don't panic, follow me and fight our way out!"

Although Huang Liang felt immense fear inside at the sight of those powerful and sinister Yin Sha Puppets, he still managed to appear unperturbed as he issued commands to the surrounding Jade Cauldron Sect Disciples.

The Jade Cauldron Sect Disciples, filled with fear upon hearing these words, still steeled themselves and charged at the Yin Sha Puppets.

Most of the Jade Cauldron Sect Disciples were actually unaware of what Yin Sha Puppets were, only sensing something unusual about the aura emanating from the puppets.

But Huang Liang knew exactly what Yin Sha Puppets were—they were unfeeling combat machines that obeyed the commands of their refiners without question, stronger in battle than ordinary martial artists. Moreover, they possessed neither fear nor dread of death, and their bodies carried deadly poison.

There were a total of thirty Yin Sha Puppets before them, silver in color, albeit of the lowest grade, unlike the one that had injured Yang Yuemin.

Yet they were more than enough to deal with the Jade Cauldron Sect Disciples before them.

Seeing the Jade Cauldron Sect Disciples fiercely charging at the Yin Sha Puppets without any fear, a smile spread across Li Chu's face.

Shhla—

Suddenly, the Yin Sha Puppets were struck by the attacking Jade Cauldron Sect Disciples. But the palms of the puppets, sharp like blades, stretched out directly, instantly piercing through the bodies of the Jade Cauldron Sect Disciples.

As the Jade Cauldron Sect Disciples launched an assault on the Yin Sha Puppets, the hands of the puppets suddenly extended, piercing through the bodies of the Jade Cauldron Sect Disciples in an instant.

"You..."

The pupils of the Jade Cauldron Sect Disciples instantly filled with blood, staring at the Yin Sha Puppet before them, unknowing to their last breath that their adversary was such a formidable killing machine.

Shhla—

Shhla—

In an instant, the spectacle of the Yin Sha Puppets slaughtering Jade Cauldron Sect Disciples played out wildly; in just over ten breaths' time, over twenty Jade Cauldron Sect Disciples had died.

The tide of battle changed in a mere moment; a few breaths earlier, the Jade Cauldron Sect Disciples had been at an advantage chasing the Black Cloud Sect Disciples, and now they had become lost souls.

With these twenty or more Jade Cauldron Sect Disciples gone, their numbers were suddenly at a disadvantage.

"Damn Huang Liang, his reckless commands have killed so many people."

"Everyone, retreat quickly and form a defensive shield."

Bi Futian's face was filled with immense fury as he clenched his fists and glared at Huang Liang with eyes brimming with rage.

If it weren't for Huang Liang's haphazard commands, those unsuspecting Jade Cauldron Sect disciples would never have died.

Having witnessed the terror and might of the Yin Sha Puppets, even without Huang Liang's command, the Jade Cauldron Sect disciples felt fear and retreated frantically.

"Don't let our formation become disordered, we can't let Zhao Ye return to the inner circle, with the protection of those Yin Sha Puppets, killing him will become difficult."

"If he doesn't die, our chances of winning in the upcoming fight will be too low, let's form the array and execute the Meteor Sword!"

Lin Chen was also shocked by the power of those Yin Sha Puppets, which could instantly kill disciples of the Spirit Gathering Realm Ninth Layer with a single strike.

Although it was because those disciples were caught off guard, the strength of the Yin Sha Puppets was beyond question.

The hardness of those Yin Sha Puppets was comparable to a Mid-Grade Spirit Level magic treasure.

Whoosh whoosh—

Under Lin Chen's command, those Jade Cauldron Sect disciples who had practiced the Sword Rain Meteor Formation gathered their spiritual power into Lin Chen, then executed an immensely powerful killing move.

As the spiritual power converged, Lin Chen shouted loudly and raised his Flowing Light Sword high. A colossal sword shadow, over a hundred yards long, appeared above his sword light.

Then, with a downward swing from Lin Chen, the sword shadow turned into countless streaks of flowing light, like raindrops, slashing down at the Yin Sha Puppets.

Even though Yin Sha Puppets can't feel pain and can keep fighting as long as their main parts aren't completely destroyed, the extent of the sword rain was vast. Nearly a thousand streaks of light shot down, successively piercing through the Yin Sha Puppets, completely crippling the thirty of them.

"This must be the power of a killing formation, its force is formidable enough to rival the attack of someone in the Melding Earth Realm," Huang Liang watched the execution of Lin Chen and others' killing move with envy, thinking to himself.

Zhao Ye, watching Lin Chen and others perform the Sword Rain Meteor Formation, couldn't help but clench his fists. If it weren't for Lin Chen and the others' killing formation, they might have been annihilated by the Yin Sha Puppets by now.

Li Chu, seeing the Sword Rain Meteor Formation executed by Lin Chen destroying the Yin Sha Puppets that they had spent so much effort refining, was burning with rage. He wished he could dismember Lin Chen a thousand times over but was truly curious as to how Lin Chen had managed to master such a killing formation in just half a year.

One must know that mastering a killing formation is not something that can happen overnight. There was no way Lin Chen had the opportunity to encounter such things while he was in Desolate Sky City.

Could it be that Lin Chen's talent was so great that he had grasped a killing formation within half a year of joining the Jade Cauldron Sect?

The sword light Lin Chen slashed down destroyed the Yin Sha Puppets with merely a third of its numbers, and then with a shift of his sword's edge, Lin Chen fused the remaining light into a giant sword, which he swung toward Zhao Ye.

Seeing the giant sword behind him, Zhao Ye's face turned pale, and he quickly called out to Li Chu in alarm.

"Young Master Li, quickly use the Yin Sha Dark Puppet to save me."