Chapter 296 President of Wanxing Commerce Association

Boom—

Rumble—

After the tenth silver arrow feather exploded under the Gang Qi giant palm, the palm completely dissipated.

Sputter—

The Gang Qi giant palm was a secret technique used by Zhao Zhongchuan, and now that it was destroyed by Lin Chen's Second Soul Division, he suffered the backlash, immediately spewing fresh blood from his mouth.

Before Zhao Zhongchuan had time to feel anger, another silver arrow feather was already flying towards him, exploding in front of him just as his pupils widened with shock.

Boom—

Even though Zhao Zhongchuan was powerful and had an extraordinary physique, under the formidable power of the exploding silver arrow feather, he was blasted again, incurring fresh injuries.

Following that, an endless stream of arrow feathers continued to shoot down from the sky.

"Does this guy have an infinite number of arrow feathers on him?!" Zhao Zhongchuan thought in terrified shock, yet as this thought crossed his mind, another silver arrow feather exploded in front of him, inflicting massive damage.

At this moment, the only thought in Zhao Zhongchuan's heart was to immediately surrender and leave the martial arts arena, which might be the only way to save his life.

But he knew he could not do that, as it would turn both him and the Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family into a joke in everyone's mouth.

His father and his royal uncles would never let him live it down.

As the silver arrow feathers continued to fly towards Zhao Zhongchuan, some of the spectating crowd immediately covered their eyes, unable to bear witnessing the upcoming brutal scene.

On the high platform, Zhao Zhongtian also became restless.

As the silver arrow feathers kept exploding, Zhao Zhongchuan seemed unable to hold on much longer; his flesh and blood were almost indistinguishable due to the blasts.

"Your Majesty, what is the meaning of this? Did we not agree that the younger generation should resolve their own issues, and we old folks should not interfere?"

Xu Ma'an leapt up to intercept Zhao Zhongtian, while Yang Yuemin and others blocked the other powerhouses of the Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family. Some lower-Cultivation elders of the Royal Family also flew into the martial arts arena, planning to jointly attack Lin Chen and his Second Soul Division.

Lin Chen, who was in the midst of healing, had a thought, and the ten stone sculpture puppets swung their stone swords. Moving with incredible speed, the swords, imbued with the might of fire, struck down upon the elders of the Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family.

Instantly, flames erupted upon those elders' bodies. They let out agonizing screams, rolling on the ground wailing pitifully, until they turned to charred corpses and the fire finally ceased.

"This... this is a killing formation, a Fourth-grade Supreme Killing Array that uses Spiritual Power as a medium, and even peak Heaven-reaching Realm martial artists have been burned alive. This killing formation is too terrifying, it must have reached the level of a Fourth-grade Supreme Killing Array."

Among the Seven Sects, the Sect Leader of Wanyuan Sect, Jia Tiancheng, was the most proficient in the art of formations. At this moment, with one glance, he recognized the killing formation formed by the ten stone sculpture puppets around Lin Chen, and while he was incredibly astonished, he was also quite eager. If he could acquire Lin Chen's killing array, it would undoubtedly advance his mastery in the Way of Formation.

As the others around heard Jia Tiancheng's words, they were also immensely shocked, even more so than when they witnessed the elders of the Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family die tragically within the killing array.

Because of the Fourth-grade Supreme Killing Array, this could be compared with their Sect Protection Array.

Just what kind of dumb luck did Lin Chen stumble upon to obtain such a Killing Formation?

But no one considered the possibility that the Killing Formation might have been refined by Lin Chen himself.

Only Xu Ma'an and Yang Yuemin became shocked, their minds buzzing after hearing Jia Tiancheng's words.

They knew that Lin Chen had always been involved in creating talisman inscriptions and refining formations. If this Killing Formation was indeed refined by Lin Chen, then given time, their Jade Cauldron Sect would inevitably become the most powerful sect in the Great Flame Dynasty.

At this moment, Xu Ma'an had decided that he would do everything possible to ensure Lin Chen's safety.

"Get out of the way, my royal son cannot afford to lose, and that kid from your sect is too ruthless."

Zhao Zhongtian said angrily.

Upon hearing these words, Xu Ma'an's expression changed instantly; he could no longer bear it.

"Hmph, when Zhao Zhongchuan made his move against the disciples of my Jade Cauldron Sect, he did not show any mercy either."

"My disciple had clearly admitted defeat, yet Zhao Zhongchuan still wanted to strike to kill. It was His Majesty who said to let the younger generation resolve their own issues, and that we shouldn't interfere."

"Now that His Majesty's prince is in danger, you go back on your word and try to intervene. Do you really think you can bully the Jade Cauldron Sect and toss us around as you please?"

"Today, with me here, His Majesty will certainly not get his way. Just stay here calmly and wait for the results of the competition."

Xu Ma'an said indignantly, a glimmer of light flashing in his hand and a long sword appearing, ready to battle Zhao Zhongtian.

If Xu Ma'an had not witnessed Lin Chen's terrifying combat power, he might have hesitated about confronting the Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family. But now, having seen the hope for the Jade Cauldron Sect to achieve glory through Lin Chen, naturally, he would not hesitate any longer.

If Lin Chen survives, the future of the Jade Cauldron Sect is bound to be bright, and becoming the number one sect in the Great Flame Dynasty is just a matter of time.

Hearing this, Zhao Zhongtian's complexion shifted slightly. He was also uncertain whether he was a match for Xu Ma'an, who was rumored to have entered the sixth layer of the Reverting Void realm ten years ago. Now, another ten years had passed, and no one knew if he had made any further breakthroughs.

Zhao Zhongtian's cultivation was also at the sixth layer of the Reverting Void realm. If Xu Ma'an had made a breakthrough in these ten years, then he would not be able to stand up to Xu Ma'an. Engaging in battle and losing to him would be a tremendous blow to the Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family.

However, just as the two were at a tense standoff, a huge surge of spiritual power suddenly came from the sky. A figure stepped through the air and, with just one step, crossed over a dozen miles, instantly appearing above the Great Flame Dynasty and finally stopping beside Zhao Zhongtian.

"Royal brother!"

Seeing the newcomer, Zhao Zhongtian's face lit up with joy.

Hearing that the newcomer was Zhao Zhongtian's royal brother, Xu Ma'an and Yang Yuemin, as well as the others from the Six Sects, all had a drastic change in expression.

Because the newcomer was a familiar face, none other than the president of the Wanxing Commerce Association, Zhao Yuntian.

And the method Zhao Yuntian used to traverse space at that moment could only be performed by those above the seventh level of the Reverting Void realm.
