Chapter 297: Battle Against Zhao Zhongtian

"Leave this place to me!"

Zhao Yuntian spoke indifferently, and his gaze fell immediately upon Xu Ma'an, Yang Yuemin, and the others.

Whoosh—

Upon hearing Zhao Yuntian's words, Zhao Zhongtian's face revealed a hint of icy coldness, and he turned and flew towards Lin Chen in the martial arts arena.

"Shameless creature, daring to make a move against a junior."

Yang Yuemin saw Zhao Zhongtian heading towards Lin Chen to attack and immediately drew her long sword, soared into the air, wanting to catch up to Zhao Zhongtian and prevent him from striking Lin Chen.

After Yang Yuemin had cultivated the Blazing Fire Divine Decree, a Heavenly Level Superior Cultivation Technique, the spiritual power within her had undergone a qualitative leap. Compared to before, her cultivation had grown many times stronger, and the spiritual power inside her was by no means comparable to that of the past.

As Yang Yuemin swung her long sword, countless sword qi pierced through the air. Her powerful momentum seemed as if it could tear the fabric of space, and its might was something even an average Reverting Void realm martial artist could not withstand.

The elders of the Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family all changed their expressions when they saw this, unable to believe that aside from Xu Ma'an, someone within the Jade Cauldron Sect possessed such formidable strength.

Zhao Yuntian did not make a move but instead, his gaze landed on Xu Ma'an.

Xu Ma'an didn't take action either. He knew well that once he moved, Zhao Yuntian would surely do the same, making the situation even more troublesome.

He was somewhat confident in his fight with Zhao Zhongtian, but facing Zhao Yuntian, a strong presence at the seventh level of the Reverting Void realm or above, he was not certain.

Therefore, he decided to respond to action with inaction and watch for changes.

Boom—

From afar, the elders of the Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family, seeing the countless sword qi slashed by Yang Yuemin, soared up one after another, gathering a formidable strength, which formed into a massive palm and clashed with it.

The powerful attacks collided in mid-air, creating a thunderous roar. The elders of the Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family were repelled, but they managed to intercept Yang Yuemin nonetheless.

Among the Jade Cauldron Sect members, aside from Xu Ma'an and Yang Yuemin, all the Peak Masters who came to participate in the Soaring Dragon Conference, as well as Zhao Rushi, Li Xuanming, Hong Yanbing, Lu Feiyun, Li Hanyi, and others, now joined the great battle, clashing fiercely with the individuals of the Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family.

The intent of the Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family was now clear to everyone; clearly targeting the Jade Cauldron Sect, they aimed to extract the legacies Lin Chen obtained in the Descension Ruins from him.

Even though Lin Chen had not actively handed them over to the other members of the Jade Cauldron Sect, it was evident that Jade Bird Peak had benefited, and now the Jade Cauldron Sect naturally needed to present a united front.

Looking over at Lin Chen's side, Lin Chen's physical body was currently healing, the Primordial Transformation Art circulating continuously to repair the injuries to his body.

And Lin Chen's Second Soul Division, seeing Zhao Zhongtian charging towards him, had a change of expression and immediately stowed away the Blazing Fire Gold Bow he had in hand, then his fingers moved through a magic technique, causing the Divine Fire Army Descent Formation set up around to start operating.

Facing a powerhouse like Zhao Zhongtian, Lin Chen knew that even a top-tier Earth Grade magic treasure could not harm him with his current cultivation. Therefore, Lin Chen instantly put away the Golden Bow and used the Great Formation to deal with him.

"Hmph, I'd like to see just how remarkable your formation is. With your Third Layer of the Melding Earth Realm cultivation, no matter how strong, can you actually stop me?"

"Once I capture you, I will make sure you endure endless torture before dying a painful death,"

Zhao Zhongtian glared at Lin Chen with immense hatred as he spoke coldly.

What a joke, his son had been beaten to a pulp by Lin Chen's Second Soul Division and had passed out; naturally, he sought revenge for his son.

However, when he attempted to break Lin Chen's Great Formation, Lin Chen's hands in the Formation had already formed the Magic Technique, and immediately, Lin Chen pointed through the air at Zhao Zhongtian. The ten Stone Sculpture Puppets within the Formation burst into sky-high flames. Their entire bodies and the Stone Swords in their hands all turned crimson red and blazed with roaring flames.

Then, the ten Stone Sculpture Puppets leaped up and simultaneously slashed their swords at Zhao Zhongtian.

Ten paths of fiery Sword Qi within the formation converged to form an even more powerful beam of fiery Sword Qi, stretching a hundred zhang long.

"How is this possible!?"

Seeing the descending fiery Sword Qi, Zhao Zhongtian frowned and felt shocked. But at that moment, he had no time to think and could only muster up all his Spiritual Power to clash violently with the fiery Sword Qi.

Boom—

Rumble—

The sky turned blood-red, filled with flame, and the intense heat instantly drew all eyes to the two combatants, causing everyone to feel a profound shock.

Because Lin Chen's attack had neutralized Zhao Zhongtian's offensive.

Not only that, but it had also forced Zhao Zhongtian back a distance.

What did this mean? It meant that Lin Chen, within the Divine Fire Army Descent Formation, possessed battle strength at the level of the Reverting Void Realm.

Yang Yuemin and the others, watching from afar, finally let out a sigh of relief. They had been tied up by the Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family, very worried for Lin Chen, and unable to extricate themselves in the short term. However, it seemed now that their worries were unnecessary, as Lin Chen alone seemed to be handling Zhao Zhongtian.

"Goodness, an Earth Melding Realm martial artist leading the formation, able to contend with a powerful Reverting Void Realm fighter; what grade must this Killing Array be? It's probably not less than a Fifth Grade,"

"A Fifth Grade Killing Array, is it that exaggerated? Within the bounds of the Great Flame Dynasty, there has never been a Fifth Grade Killing Array, right?"

"Well, now there is one. Otherwise, how do you explain this youngster being able to battle Zhao Zhongtian with just the peak of the Melding Earth Realm?"

"I never expected the Jade Cauldron Sect to have such a trump card. The Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family thought they could take them down easily; seems like this time they've hit a steel plate."

"That's not necessarily the case. Don't forget that the Royal Family of the Great Flame Dynasty has been dormant for many years, avoiding any battles with us. Divine Sun City has exhausted countless resources to lay down a powerful Killing Array. It is said to be a Fourth-grade Supreme Killing Array. If this formation is activated, the Jade Cauldron Sect will undoubtedly lose,"

The other six sects of the Seven Sects were discussing fervently.

At this moment, Zhao Zhongtian's face was unsightly, being repelled by this junior Lin Chen, making him and the Great Flame Dynasty totally lose face.

If he didn't teach the Jade Cauldron Sect a lesson today, the Great Flame Dynasty would surely become the butt of jokes for everyone in the future.

Zhao Zhongtian roared in anger, about to call upon the royal family's elders to activate the Divine Sun Protection City Formation.
