Chapter 303: A Bunch of Good-for-nothings, Step Aside and Let the Elderly Handle This

"Junior Sister, these blood-colored iron chains are filled with a powerful Yin Sha Qi. Do not touch them directly," he instructed, "Channel your spiritual power into the Divine Fire Troop Killing Array. With your aid, I should naturally be able to pull these chains in."

Upon hearing this, Xu Lianyu and the others nodded in agreement and followed Lin Chen's instructions.

The reason for Xu Lianyu's thoughtless actions just now was that she had seen Lin Chen use that grey giant palm to pull and absorb the chains with such ease; she momentarily forgot about the danger they presented.

Witnessing Xu Lianyu's foolish look, Yang Yuemin couldn't help but wryly smile, thinking to herself that love makes one blind; Xu Lianyu was usually so clever, but around Lin Chen, she became so dull-witted.

Now, as Yang Yuemin and the others poured their spiritual power into the great formation as Lin Chen had directed, the grey giant palm immediately doubled in size and grew even more powerful, forcibly pulling the blood-colored chains that hung in the sky directly in front of Lin Chen.

Seeing this, Lin Chen wasted no words and reached out to grasp the chains, then began absorbing them.

Within Lin Chen's dantian, as the energy from the chain was absorbed, the Primordial Myriad Transformation Cauldron and Dragon Fang Dagger immediately began to greedily absorb its power, not leaving even a trace for Lin Chen.

Witnessing this scene, Lin Chen was inwardly speechless.

To him, these weren't two treasures he had acquired, but rather two robbers.

Moreover, after those blood-colored iron chains were refined, the Primordial Myriad Transformation Cauldron absorbed nearly ninety percent of them, showing no sign of reviving its wonders, remaining as if it were still asleep.

Lin Chen was astonished within; the Primordial Myriad Transformation Cauldron was incredibly powerful. After absorbing so much energy, it still failed to stir the slightest bit from its past state.

The Dragon Fang Dagger fared a little better, at least showing signs of revival; the aura on the dagger had grown considerably stronger, which made Lin Chen feel that not refining the energy of these chains was worthwhile after all.

At this moment, Zhao Yuntian, Zhao Zhongtian, and the others from the Six Sects, who had been straining against the blood-colored iron chains in the sky and the oppressive aura within the Black Cloud Bloody Array, suddenly felt that the Yin Sha Qi enveloping them had diminished.

The originally pain-stricken expressions of the crowd suddenly turned to joy. Immediately, everyone released their powerful energies to disperse the constraining aura, allowing their cultivation to gradually recover.

As the crowd broke free from the clutches of the Black Cloud Bloody Array's shadow, the tide of the battle quickly turned.

The Black Cloud Sect, which had been suppressing the various sects, started to be overwhelmed by the others.

At this time, the leader of Black Cloud Sect, Qiu Wenxi, was engaged in a fierce battle with the strong members of the other sects. He suddenly sensed something amiss, as the Black Cloud Sect's forces began to fall back in the midst of combat.

This development was extremely unfavorable for Black Cloud Sect.

Qiu Wenxi couldn't understand how, with the Black Cloud Bloody Array on their side, his people could be defeated by the Great Flame Dynasty.

With this thought, he immediately soared up, heading toward the exterior of the Black Cloud Bloody Array. In a short while, he arrived in front of several elders who were managing the Array.

"What's happened? Why is the Array's power weakening?" Qiu Wenxi asked as he looked at Wang Mingzhe and the others.

"Reporting to the sect leader, for reasons unknown, there's been a problem within the Array. After those blood-colored chains entered the Black Cloud Bloody Killing Formation, they became uncontrollable and lost their responsiveness," Wang Mingzhe replied solemnly.

"Such a thing has happened!?"

Qiu Wenxi was infuriated, his aura blazing with blood as he was agitated by the elders' words. The Black Cloud Sect had always had its way with everything and, having come to Divine Sun City with great effort, he couldn't believe such a situation had occurred.

Immediately, Qiu Wenxi released his Divine Soul, sending it into the Black Cloud Bloody Array. From their position, which was the heart of the Array, he could sense the location of the blood-colored iron chains through a special method.

Qiu Wenxi's Divine Soul swept across the area and soon spotted the location of the Jade Cauldron Sect people. There, he saw that in the vicinity of Lin Chen and the others, there was also a small Killing Formation, from which a gigantic grey palm extended, pulling the blood-colored chains into the Formation.

"Someone dares to covet the treasures of my Black Cloud Sect."

Fury rose in Qiu Wenxi as he saw Lin Chen's actions.

The strength of the Black Cloud Bloody Array hinged on the intensity of its Yin Sha Qi.

The Black Cloud Sect had poured its heart and soul into this Array for the past ten years, collecting Yin Sha Qi to ensure it exerted unparalleled power. They specially refined blood-colored iron chains for this purpose.

Now, seeing Lin Chen refine those chains was a huge shock to Qiu Wenxi's heart. Even the demon cultivators of their sect could only absorb small amounts of Yin Sha Qi at a time, lest they burst apart and die.

The amount of Yin Sha Qi in a single blood-colored iron chain would surely kill even a warrior of the Heaven-reaching Realm.

"Useless fools, out of my way! If you want to steal our sect's treasures, you'll have to see if you have the ability," Qiu Wenxi barked coldly. Upon seeing this, Wang Mingzhe and the other Black Cloud Sect elders immediately cleared a spot in the Array's eye for Qiu Wenxi to take over.

After Qiu Wenxi took control, he began to work his cultivation technique, intending to retrieve the iron chains.

Meanwhile, within the Formation, Lin Chen sensed that the power of the blood-colored iron chains suddenly intensified, knowing that a strong member of the Black Cloud Sect had taken action.
