Chapter 308 Dragon Vein Jade Seal

"Damn it, the Black Cloud Sect is targeting only our Royal Family."

"Friends, I beseech you to lend a hand to our Royal Family, and after we repel these demon cultivators of the Black Cloud Sect, the Great Flame Imperial Family will surely offer you great rewards."

At this moment, Zhao Zhongtian's face was extremely grim as he continued to contend with the blood-colored iron chains in the sky, but he discovered that the chains were aimed only at the people of the Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family. Even when the blood-colored iron chains passed by other sect disciples, they did not attack them at all.

Seeing this, Zhao Zhongtian immediately sought the help of people from other sects.

However, in such a dire situation, everyone was struggling to save themselves and had no time to care for others, let alone to aid the Great Flame Imperial Family.

Thus, the Great Flame Imperial Family found itself completely isolated and without support.

Zhao Zhongtian watched as the scions of the Great Flame Imperial Family were continuously struck down by the blood-colored iron chains in front of him, and his heart was immediately filled with immense regret.

If the Great Flame Imperial Family had not adopted a balancing strategy against the Seven Great Sects in earlier years, but instead had united the Seven Sects against the Black Cloud Sect, perhaps they could have annihilated the Black Cloud Sect and avoided the current situation.

However, there was no medicine for regret in this world, and Zhao Zhongtian looked with hatred at those from the Jade Cauldron Sect caught in the midst of the killing formation.

Zhao Zhongtian still believed they were blameless.

He attributed all the hardships he faced to the Jade Cauldron Sect.

After all, wasn't the Black Cloud Sect targeting exclusively their Great Flame Imperial Family because they knew of the discord between them and the Jade Cauldron Sect?

At this moment, watching people from the Great Flame Imperial Family die one by one before his eyes,

The others from the sects actually felt an indescribable satisfaction. Even though the Black Cloud Sect, as demon cultivators, was their enemy, the Great Flame Imperial Family had always been a smiling tiger—using their strength to counterbalance them all this time, which was another form of the Demonic Path in itself.

"Brother Xu, we were truly blinded by personal interest before, please lend us a hand, we really can't hold on much longer."

"If the Great Flame Imperial Family falls completely, the Black Cloud Sect's next target will surely be your Jade Cauldron Sect. Why not join forces now and eradicate the Black Cloud Sect in one fell swoop?"

Zhao Zhongtian knew the situation had escalated beyond his control and immediately cast aside his pride to plead with Xu Ma'an who was in the midst of the Divine Fire Troop Killing Array.

However, the Xu Ma'an within the array was no longer the same person as before.

If it were in the past, he might have feared the strength of the Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family and felt compelled to help.

But now, in his eyes, the future of the Jade Cauldron Sect hinged entirely upon Lin Chen alone.

As long as Lin Chen grew stronger, the Jade Cauldron Sect surely would not fall into obscurity.

Given the previous attitude of the Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family toward Lin Chen, they naturally would not help the Royal Family now, as that would mean standing against the Jade Cauldron Sect.

"How dare I presume such honor, Your Majesty is too esteemed for us to climb so high. As for dealing with the Black Cloud Sect, our Jade Cauldron Sect has its own methods, so we need not trouble Your Majesty with this matter."

"Since Your Majesty has the will to confront the Black Cloud Sect, our Jade Cauldron Sect will support Your Majesty. Your Majesty, keep fighting."

With a faint smile, Xu Ma'an said.

Zhao Zhongtian, upon hearing Xu Ma'an's words, turned an iron blue. He could never have imagined that the Seven Great Sects, which would have heeded their 'good advice' in the past, could now adopt such an attitude.

Immediately, Zhao Zhongtian hurriedly spoke again, pleading for help from the other sects, only this time he was much more humble in his approach.

However, none of the other sect members dared to speak out in support of the Great Flame Imperial Family at this moment.

They were all well aware that the reason they hadn't been attacked by the blood-colored iron chains while standing outside the Jade Cauldron Sect's killing array was precisely because the Black Cloud Sect was wary of the Jade Cauldron Sect, and the Great Flame Imperial Family had had conflicts with the Jade Cauldron Sect before.

If they were to express support for the Great Flame Imperial Family now, they feared the blood-colored iron chains above in the sky would not hesitate to attack them as well.

Even if the Jade Cauldron Sect were to give an order now, the members of the various major sects wouldn't hesitate to make a move and collectively annihilate the people of the Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family.

The so-called distinction between good and evil is not so absolute; in this world where the strong prey upon the weak, there are only eternal interests, no eternal enemies.

In the face of interests, good and evil can be reversed at any time.

Like now, can the Jade Cauldron Sect be called evil for neglecting to save the Great Flame Imperial Family?

"You, you're all a bunch of bastards, I want to see just how long you can remain arrogant."

"Once the Demon Cultivators of the Black Cloud Sect exterminate us, do you think they will spare you? Their wolfish ambitions are known to all; after wiping out our Royal Family, it'll be your turn."

Seeing that his pleas for help were in vain, Zhao Zhongtian immediately began to curse loudly.

Hearing this, everyone remained indifferent.

In their view, it was still unknown how the future would unfold. Even if it happened as Zhao Zhongtian had said, as long as they didn't aid the Great Flame Imperial Family now, the Jade Cauldron Sect would not become their enemy.

When the time came, by allying with the Jade Cauldron Sect and using its killing formation combined with the power of the various sects, they might be able to resist the Black Cloud Sect.

But at this moment, if they were to help the Great Flame Imperial Family, they would definitely be doomed immediately.

At this moment, the blood-colored iron chains in the sky continuously pierced through the disciples of the Great Flame Imperial Family, and their fresh blood and spiritual power greatly augmented the energy of the blood-colored chains.

Lin Chen, watching this scene from within the killing array, couldn't help but curl his lips.

The elders and officers of the Great Flame Imperial Family died one after another under the blood-colored iron chains, and in no time, most of the powerful had met a violent death.

Seeing the heavy death and injury among the disciples of the Great Flame Imperial Family, Zhao Zhongtian felt immense agony in his heart. He knew that if things continued to develop this way, the Great Flame Imperial Family would be completely eradicated. The Great Flame Imperial Family couldn't end in his hands.

With this thought, he gritted his teeth and took out a golden jade seal engraved with a golden dragon, within which lay an immense Power of the Dragon Vein.

The elders of the Great Flame Imperial Family were all shaken upon seeing this, aware of what Zhao Zhongtian was about to do.

"Your Majesty, you mustn't do this! Once the Power of the Dragon Vein is activated, our Great Flame Dynasty will likely have to endure days without the protection of the Dragon Vein for ten thousand years to come."

The elders showed their difficulty, each and every one of them advising Zhao Zhongtian against his course of action.

However, Zhao Zhongtian was in no mood to heed their advice. With the Great Flame Empire on the brink of nonexistence, what use was the protection of the Dragon Vein? He immediately bit his finger and a drop of Essence Blood fell upon the golden Jade Seal.
