

Primordial 312

Chapter 312 The Device is Complete

However, the Dragon Fang Dagger did not come willingly but was forced to appear under the coercion of the Primordial Myriad Transformation Cauldron. In fact, it had not truly acknowledged a master and thus could not be considered to be entirely under Lin Chen's control; Lin Chen had not yet found a way to completely manipulate it.

Despite this, as soon as Lin Chen's thoughts moved, the Dragon Fang Dagger actually came to his side, which couldn't help but bring a surge of joy to his heart.

Lin Chen gazed at the Dragon Fang Dagger floating before him and understood that with its help, inscribing Formation Runes on the Dragon Vein Jade Seal would be much safer.

Instantly, Lin Chen's Second Soul Division's thoughts moved, and he began to manipulate the Dragon Fang Dagger to inscribe Formation Runes on the brand-new Dragon Vein Jade Seal.

The Dragon Fang Dagger proved extraordinarily hard and easily inscribed fine Formation Runes on the Dragon Vein Jade Seal under the control of Lin Chen's Second Soul Division. In no time at all, Lin Chen's Second Soul Division had restored the Dragon Vein Jade Seal.

However, since the previous Dragon Vein Jade Seal had been severely damaged, Lin Chen was unable to completely restore all the original Formation Runes.

Some runes were re-inscribed by Lin Chen based on his own knowledge of formations; despite this, these newly inscribed runes surpassed the previous Formation Runes of the Dragon Vein Jade Seal in terms of exquisiteness.

After the last Formation Rune was completed, a new Dragon Vein Jade Seal treasure was fully refined.

"It is truly no ordinary feat to have repaired the Dragon Vein Jade Seal. Just holding it in my hand without any infusion of Spiritual Power, I can still feel the connection with the Dragon Vein beneath the earth."

"If I were to carry it with me all the time, wouldn't it double the effectiveness of my cultivation?"

With this thought, Lin Chen couldn't help but smile.

Immediately after, he infused a thread of his Spiritual Sense into the Dragon Vein Jade Seal. The previous Dragon Vein Jade Seal had been completely shattered, and the Divine Soul Imprint within it had dissipated as well.

Now that Lin Chen had reforged it today, all it took was the infusion of Divine Sense to become its new master.

Gaining control over the Dragon Vein Jade Seal meant becoming the new lord of Divine Sun City in the Great Flame Dynasty's Royal Family.

Filled with elation, Lin Chen looked at the Dragon Fang Dagger in his hand and thought, indeed, a blessing in disguise. Today, not only had he reforged the Dragon Vein Jade Seal, but he had also managed to make the Dragon Fang Dagger obey his mental commands. Should he fight someone, if the Dragon Fang Dagger could follow his intentions in battle just like this, it would truly be an unsurpassed Divine Artifact.

Being able to respond to a martial artist's thoughts is something only a magic treasure with an Artifact Spirit could possess, something that only Divine-grade Treasures have.

Swoosh—

However, just as Lin Chen thought he could command the Dragon Fang Dagger at will and be invincible in the future, suddenly, the Dragon Fang Dagger in his hand flew back into the Primordial Myriad Transformation Cauldron, sinking into the Blue Lotus Divine Flame once again.

"Damn it, why did it retreat back? Come out," Lin Chen called out upon seeing the Dragon Fang Dagger flying away, but no matter how he called, the Dragon Fang Dagger simply would not fly out of the Primordial Myriad Transformation Cauldron again.

Little did Lin Chen know that the Dragon Fang Dagger was currently very frustrated inwardly, even cursing at Lin Chen. After all, it was an Immortal Sacred Artifact, yet Lin Chen had used it to keep inscribing on a lump of smelly mud.

If it weren't for the tyranny of the Primordial Myriad Transformation Cauldron, it would have never submitted.

"Let it be. I cannot force it if my strength is not there."

Deep down, Lin Chen knew very well that both the Primordial Myriad Transformation Cauldron and the Dragon Fang Dagger were remarkable objects.

Although so far, the Primordial Myriad Transformation Cauldron had not disobeyed Lin Chen's wishes, Lin Chen had also never seen its Artifact Spirit.

Nevertheless, the Primordial Myriad Transformation Cauldron seemed to favor Lin Chen.

But the Dragon Fang Dagger was different. From the moment Lin Chen obtained it until now, he had only used its power once during a difficult moment; at all other times, the Dragon Fang Dagger had lain dormant within the Primordial Myriad Transformation Cauldron.

A magic artifact of such caliber must possess Spiritual Wisdom and an Artifact Spirit; the fact that it did not wish to meet him clearly showed that it did not see Lin Chen as strong enough to be acknowledged as its master.

Perhaps only when Lin Chen truly became powerful would the Dragon Fang Dagger recognize him as its master.

After having refined the Dragon Vein Jade Seal, Lin Chen's Second Soul Division did not cease its movements.

Because even though the magic artifact was complete, in order to mobilize the Power of the Dragon Vein, he would need a formidable energy source.

He must let the Dragon Vein Jade Seal possess great energy, and infusing Spirit Stones into it was currently the easiest way to do so.

With this in mind, Lin Chen could no longer worry about the cost; with a grand wave, countless Spirit Stones flew towards the Primordial Myriad Transformation Cauldron like a downpour.

The number of Spirit Stones was a staggering one hundred thousand Top-Quality Spirit Stones.

"Refine these Spirit Stones for me and inject them into the Dragon Vein Jade Seal."

"Do not absorb these Spirit Stones; I am injecting them into the Dragon Vein Jade Seal as a life-saving last resort. If you want to devour energy, there will be plenty of opportunities in the future."

Lin Chen didn't care whether the Primordial Myriad Transformation Cauldron understood his intentions or not, and after speaking, he threw the Dragon Vein Jade Seal into the Primordial Myriad Transformation Cauldron.

After all of this was done, under Lin Chen's watchful eyes, he indeed saw a green, faint fire rise from within the Primordial Myriad Transformation Cauldron. The fire fiercely consumed those Spirit Stones and soon injected a surge of vast energy into the Dragon Vein Jade Seal.

Buzz buzz—

While the Blue Lotus Divine Flame was scorching those Spirit Stones, it was somewhat reluctant, wanting to fiercely burn Lin Chen with its flames.

However, after a humming sound from the Primordial Myriad Transformation Cauldron, the Blue Lotus Divine Flame immediately behaved, diligently helping Lin Chen refine those Spirit Stones into a vast energy, which was injected into the Dragon Vein Jade Seal.

"What a hot-tempered fellow; it seems that taming it won't be easy. I must make thorough preparations for the future," Lin Chen remarked as he looked at the green, faint Blue Lotus Divine Flame.

At this moment, the energy of the one hundred thousand Top-Quality Spirit Stones was completely infused into the Dragon Vein Jade Seal. Lin Chen bade it farewell and left.
