

Primordial 319

Chapter 319: Escape from Pursuit

"Haha, Miss Yu truly is the pride of the heavens from the Divine Flame Sect, we hid so deep, yet you still managed to find us."

As the voice carried over, the distant mist immediately transformed into seven streaks of light. Jiang Qibai led six black-clad assassins as they leapt forward, surrounding Yu Weilian tightly, their faces all bore sinister smiles.

Confronting these seven individuals, Yu Weilian couldn't help but furrow her brow, her heart was actually somewhat in a panic.

Among these seven people, she only recognized Jiang Qibai, but regarding the identities of the newcomers, Yu Weilian couldn't be clearer—they were assassins from the Moon Shadow Pavilion.

As for their objective, Yu Weilian could also make an educated guess.

"Jiang Qibai, what is the meaning of this?"

Yu Weilian's gaze was icy as she looked over at Jiang Qibai, if she wasn't incapable of beating Jiang Qibai, she would've already made her move to kill him.

Because every time this guy looked at her, it was truly too nauseating.

At this moment, Jiang Qibai grinned, his eyes scanning up and down Yu Weilian's body.

"Miss Yu, you are aware of some of our Moon Shadow Pavilion's rules. You should have guessed our plans with the Black Cloud Sect and even witnessed our move against the Great Flame Dynasty. Before this matter comes to a definitive conclusion, I'm afraid you'll be inconvenienced."

Jiang Qibai spoke indifferently.

"Hmph, how the Moon Shadow Pavilion conducts its affairs is none of my concern, but don't block my path; get lost!"

Even when faced with seven formidable opponents like Jiang Qibai, Yu Weilian's momentum did not diminish at all, as she immediately let out an angry shout.

Among these seven individuals, aside from the most powerful Jiang Qibai, the strength of the other six was not weak. If it really came to a fight, Yu Weilian would certainly not be a match.

"I advise you, Miss Yu, it's better to be obedient, otherwise you're going to suffer."

As Jiang Qibai spoke, he took out a black dagger from nowhere, extending his tongue to lick the blade, a sight which utterly disgusted Yu Weilian.

Whoosh—

Seeing this, Yu Weilian's figure flashed by, brushing past Jiang Qibai and the others.

"Don't let her get away, chase her!"

Jiang Qibai, seeing that Yu Weilian was attempting to flee amidst their encirclement, immediately revealed a cold smile at the corner of his mouth and with the other six, quickly gave chase.

Under the pursuit of the seven, Yu Weilian began to struggle, continuously fending off everyone's attacks.

In less than half an hour, she had already sustained several wounds that were oozing fresh blood.

"Miss Yu, as long as you're obedient, we won't make things difficult for you. If you continue to be obstinate, don't blame me for being heartless."

Jiang Qibai's face showed a trace of a wicked smile, and Yu Weilian understood his dirty thoughts.

She naturally did not wish to fall into the hands of Jiang Qibai, for the consequences would be unimaginable. She would rather choose death than let that scenario happen.

"Hmph, Jiang Qibai, wait for me, I'll settle this score with you slowly in the future."

Yu Weilian looked at Jiang Qibai with an icy gaze, her eyes brimming with murderous intent. If looks could kill, Jiang Qibai would have died countless times over.

"Heh, what fortune I have, to have Miss Yu care about me so much."

"But do you really think that you can escape from our grasp?"

Jiang Qibai's eyes were full of disdain, feeling that Yu Weilian had no chance to escape from their hands.

At this moment, Jiang Qibai's mind was already fantasizing about the things that would ensue if Yu Weilian fell into his hands, the mere thought of it thrilled him immensely.

Everyone from the Moon Shadow Pavilion and the Divine Flame Sect knew that Jiang Qibai had long been smitten with Yu Weilian, having pursued her publicly. However, since the news of her betrothal to "that family" spread, Jiang Qibai no longer dared to pursue her openly. After all, compared to "that family," the strength of the Moon Shadow Pavilion seemed much less formidable, let alone a mere Helmsman like Jiang Qibai.

Now, however, it seemed that Jiang Qibai saw an opportunity. Even if he couldn't truly possess Yu Weilian, having her just once would be a great satisfaction for him.

After all, Yu Weilian was privy to their plans against the Great Flame Imperial Family. If this were to be discovered by the Divine Flame Alliance, the consequences would be dire. Therefore, they absolutely could not allow Yu Weilian to return alive to the Divine Flame Sect.

At this point, with Yu Weilian severely injured and encircled by them, how could she possibly escape from their hands?

However, in the next instant, Yu Weilian took out a Talisman Inscription and slapped it onto herself.

Whoosh—

Along with a flicker of light, Yu Weilian's entire body vanished from the spot.

"What's going on here!? How could that wench escape!"

Jiang Qibai looked at the empty ground before him, his mind going blank, confusion setting in.

"It's a spatial transfer Talisman Inscription, she must have transported to somewhere nearby."

One of the Moon Shadow Pavilion assassins, who clearly had seen the world, spoke up immediately.

Hearing this, everyone came to their senses.

"Search! Split up and search quickly, we absolutely cannot let her return to the Divine Flame Sect, we must find her, dead or alive."

Jiang Qibai barked out anxiously. He and the others turned into seven streaks of light, starting to search the nearby area.

In their minds, a space-transfer Talisman Inscription could only transport someone over a few kilometers, but what they didn't know was that the Talisman Inscription Yu Weilian had deployed was the Qiankun Escape Talisman, and at this moment, she had already moved a hundred miles away.

"I owe it to Lin Chen's Talisman that I could escape from the hands of that disgusting guy today."

"This Qiankun Escape Talisman really is a good thing. It's just a pity that the guy only gave me one. If I had a few more, that would have been even better."

Having teleported a hundred miles away, Yu Weilian was now gasping for air, hurriedly she took out a few elixirs and swallowed them. She didn't dare to stay in one spot for long and quickly continued on her way.

She chose to walk, after what had just happened. She didn't dare to fly anymore, fearing that if the Moon Shadow Pavilion's people spotted her, that would spell big trouble.