

The Principessa Never Regrets Novel

Chapter 4 I laughed out loud. I lifted my chin and called out. "Mrs. Rossi!" Camilla's face drained of color. She scared she was caught. Mrs. Rossi entered and bowed low. I glanced at Lorenzo and smirked. "Tell him who the true Rosetti heir is." Mrs. Rossi answered without thinking, "It's you, Miss Bella-" Camilla screamed and cut her off. She dropped to her knees before me, tears streaming. "We grew up together! Why do you have to be so cruel?" "Is it my fault Lorenzo loves me?" "I'm begging you!" Mrs. Rossi's jaw tightened. She hesitated. Then she chose.

She slammed me into the marble floor. "You're ungrateful! You make the heir beg!" I stared at her, stunned. Camilla was mad. Was Mrs. Rossi mad too? Did she forget how precise my shot was? Pain seared my knees. The pain reminded me none of this was an illusion. Camilla exhaled in relief. Lorenzo helped her stand up. Lorenzo looked down at me with disgust. "Bella, don't pretend being a Rosetti makes you special." "Camilla is the real heir. She paid for everything you own." "You should be thanking her." Rage burned in my veins.

Just because I kept a low profile at school, and Camilla stole my birthright? I tried to rise, but Mrs. Rossi pulled out a syringe. She stabbed it into my skin. My body went limp. Lorenzo knelt beside me. "Camilla's kind-hearted. Just apologize." He leaned in, whispering like he was doing me a favor. "I got the Rosetti Group internship. Camilla arranged it." "If you behave, I'll keep you as my mistress after we marry." Chapter 4 3.57% "I'll give you everything except the official title." I laughed, cold and furious. This was the man I loved for four years? I remembered when we first dated.

He held me and promised, "Bella, after graduation I'll work hard and give you the whole world!" Now he threw me away for a fake heir. And he was too dumb to know who he'd betrayed. I used my last strength and slapped him across the face. "Go to hell." Lorenzo's face turned black with rage. He already acted like he owned the Rosetti family. He turned to Mrs. Rossi. "Mrs. Rossi." "Camilla is kind, but you will not confuse servant and master." "If this girl doesn't learn her place, she will keep harming Miss Camilla." Camilla pretended to hesitate. "It's not necessary-" Lorenzo patted her hand.

"The family will be yours soon. You're too soft. I'm teaching you to rule." I watched them play role games triumphantly and felt sick. "Keep acting. You'll believe your own lies. Camilla, you know exactly who you are." Camilla's soft act shattered. She looked at me with pure venom. "Mrs. Rossi, throw her into the snake pit. She can't come out unless she apologize to me." Lorenzo flinched, but he said nothing. Mrs. Rossi dragged me away. I realized most servants were gone. She'd cleared the house. Camilla smiled at Lorenzo. "Wait in the living room.

I'll handle the disobedient servant." The snake pit was Father's personal prison for traitors. Vicious vipers were here, even pythons large enough to devour a human. Camilla stepped close and patted my cheek, eyes cold and calculating. "Look, Bella. I run the Rosetti family now." "If I kill you here, Mr. Rosetti will make me his daughter. We're like family." Chapter 4 3.57% "Then I'll truly be the Rosetti heir." I glared at her, shaking with rage. "Camilla, how dare you? Father isn't a fool. You and your mother just took advantage-" Camilla slapped me hard, splitting my lip.

"I can do whatever I want. You just fell by accident. No one will find the needle." "I'm sick of your charity." "We're the same. You just have a powerful father. I won't accept it!" She struck me again and again, wild and brutal. She wanted me dead. When her hand ached, she shoved me toward the pit's edge. "Die, Bella Rosetti." Right as she pushed me, I almost heard Marco De Luca's voice. "What are you doing?" Next second, Camilla screamed.
