

Pure Girl 761

Episode 761

Whether it was a bombing of a Japanese airport, or whether it was temporarily delaying the return of Yuaotian to China, at most it means intercepting one day.

It still seems that the time expected by Zeng Kairui cannot be reached.

but...

Leiou smiled slightly and slowly turned back: "After finding his flight, everyone's attack power was concentrated on Luo Yaoyao. If this is the case..." Sharp Mou Feng turned around: "Yu Ao

The sky will not go back so quickly!!"

at noon the next day.

The mighty convoy set off from Aotian's residence. Yaoyao ate deliciously with lollipops, looking at the surrounding beauty from time to time: "Aotian, Aotian, are we going to go out to play?"

Big eyes blinked.

Yuaotian smiled softly and stroked the top of her head gently: "Yes. Let's go out to play."

"Where to play?"

"Go to a... fun place." When he said this, he looked subconsciously at Chiba, who was sitting in the co-pilot position.

Chiba looked at the rearview mirror, looked at everything around him quietly, and shook his head gently.

Looking at the distance, you will arrive at the airport in half an hour at most. Isn't Leo planning to move?

Yu Aotian thought, narrowing his eyes coldly: "Slow down the speed."

"Yes. Mr. Yu."

All the cars are slowly slowing down, but seeing that they have arrived at the airport, everything is still calm and no difference can be seen.

"Oops!" Yu Aotian's face suddenly became extremely gloomy.

"Mr. Yu?" Chiba looked back suspiciously.

"It is estimated that Leo wants to start at the airport!" You know, the airport has a large passenger flow, a large number of people, and a lot of security police.

If Leo uses a terrorist attack, he can act arbitrarily; but he is proudly the chairman of the Chinese State Council, so it is impossible to use the people of the Yulong Society arbitrarily!

"I believe the Japanese government will protect you closely?"

Yu Aotian also believed that the Japanese government did not dare to have any slack, but now the main question is... "What about her?" He was worried about Yaoyao's safety!

"Forget it, if you find that Leo did not show up in person, you will directly use Plan B!"

"Yes. Mr. Yu!"

The moment the car arrived at the gate of the airport, the Japanese police resources came forward to escort them.

The door opened, and Yuaotian led Yaoyao slowly off the head car.

When I saw so many policemen standing on both sides of the road, Yaoyao spit out the lollipop nervously and pulled Yu Aotian's hand: "Aotian, have you made a mistake?"

"Ok?"

didn't wait for Miyako to fully react.

The director of the Japanese security department quickly stepped forward: "Hello, President Yu..."

"Hehe, Director Qingye, you..."

"Uncle, are you here to catch Aotian?" Yao Yao quickly interrupted Yu Aotian's words and stepped in front of him: "Uncle, Aotian is a good person, you can't catch him."

"Ah?" Director Qing Ye was completely fooled by Yaoyao.

The nearby Aotian smiled helplessly. The little thing of feeling is that these policemen arrested him?

"Yaoyao, they didn't come to catch me, they are our friends."

"Friend?" Yao Yao blinked his eyes wide and looked at the policemen in suits: "It's cool, cool, Yao Yao and the police are friends." Excited, clapping his hands.

"Mr. Yu, is this lady?" Qingye Superintendent pointed at Yaoyao curiously.

Yu Aotian smiled slightly and pulled her into her arms: "My girlfriend."

"Ah?" The secretary was stunned for a few seconds. Probably the psychological activity of these seconds must be, how could Yuaotian find a fool to be a girlfriend?

"Oh, that's right. Okay. The time for the plane to take off is almost here. Please come in."

"Ok."

Under the escort of Director Qingye and all the police, Yuaotian and Yaoyao entered the boarding gate.

and the people of Chiba Shinshou and Yulongshe are secretly monitoring everything.

"Hello, Mr. Yu, I'm a ground worker for this flight. I'm happy to serve you." Several men dressed in flight attendants greeted Miyao at the boarding gate.

He glanced up and down at the men, and the pair of bottomless eyes finally fell on the military shoes they were wearing.

Since they are ground crews, but they wear professional military shoes, must they be??

As soon as the idea of ?? waiting for Aotian fell, one of the ground crew's hands had reached into his clothes...

Yu Aotian held Yaoyao quickly and quickly.

Only listen...

'boom!

boom!

"Several gunshots came.

The hall was suddenly filled with screams.

"Quick! Protect the Royal Director!!!" The commander of Kiyono ordered all the policemen to be armed.

"Aotian! Aotian! I am afraid..." Yaoyao's trembling body hugged his waist, and tears had filled her eyes.

"Baby, don't be afraid, I'm here." Yu Aotian held her trembling little body tightly, took out the Bluetooth headset and hung it on her ears: "Zhenshou. Have you seen Leo's shadow?"

"No.

However, the number of the other party seems to be large. And there should be many lurking among the people."

"OK. I know."

'boom!!!

☒As soon as Yu Aotian's words fell, a huge explosion came.

Japanese police had to use tear gas and smoke bombs.

Seeing a peaceful scene, turned into a smoky battlefield.

Many passengers were frightened and fled, and the scene was not to be confused.

"Ah! It's terrible! It's terrible!!!" At this moment, Yaoyao shook away from Yuaotian and ran away in fright.

"Yaoyao! Come back!!!" You know, there are tear gas and smoke bombs. Once Yaoyao runs away, it is not easy for Yuaotian to find her in the chaotic crowd.

"Damn it!" His eyes were choked with tears, rubbing his eyes constantly patrolling Yao Yao's figure.

In desperation, he had to pull out the phone: "Zhenshou. Yaoyao and I were separated. You will take someone to wait for me at the airport gate 10 minutes later."

"Roger that."

"President Yu! President Yu, I finally found you." While Ryutian kept searching for Yaoyao, Japanese police officers were also looking for Ryutian. If he had an accident in Japan, that day

The relationship between Fang and China is even more unclear.

"Hurry up with me to a safe place."

Gradually, the pungent smell of gas disappeared, and the hazy clouds also dissipated.

Director Kiyoshi looked at him up and down: "Are you injured?"

Yu Ao had a dark face, and looked coldly at the chief secretary of the field, "My girlfriend is gone!"
