

Quick T 2551

Chapter 2551: God! Mary Sue world (End)

“What nonsense is this!” Luo Xiao looked at her and said, “You’re even introducing someone to your father.”

“If you miss this good girl, don’t blame me for not reminding you!” Luo Qing Chen said with a faint smile, “Moreover, you’re this old and she’s a young and beautiful girl!”

“Old?” Luo Xiao’s handsome face became serious and he looked at her with that serious look, “Coming to age at forty, don’t you know? Don’t you know about the forty year old man and the flower? Don’t! You! Know!”

He had emphasized the last three words to show the anger in his heart.

“But you’re forty five! Miss Yan Man is only thirty two.....” Luo Qing Chen said with a pure look, “It’s an entire generation!”

“You, you, you.....” Luo Xiao put down his chopsticks and looked at her, “Do you think that your dad isn’t attractive!”

“Pretty much! When you’re older, you can only find someone older. Moreover, you’re so busy, who would like you!”

Luo Qing Chen felt that she used this inciting technique just right, but she didn’t know if her father would be fooled.

But he had been immediately fooled!

He patted his chest and said, “Dad will let you see what the charm of a middle aged man is!”

“Good, good! I’ll just wait to see romance spread in the Luo Group!”

Luo Qing Chen didn’t see what happened after, but she knew that Luo Xiao acted out an ‘overbearing president falling in love with me’ at the company and forcefully took Yan Man who already loved him.

Although she didn’t see it, she saw the ending.

There was a familiar Porsche that was waiting at the entrance of the Luo Group. Ye Si Yao was waiting for Luo Xiao to get off work, but she saw Luo Xiao and Yan Man together.

Her car wasn’t parked far away as she watched everything happen.

She knew that this infatuated dad had seen it, but he was finally unwilling to give up his self esteem to walk over to the Porsche.

Luo Qing Chen knew whether it was right or wrong for her to separate them as their child, but she knew that for her, this decision definitely wasn’t wrong.

Some people will find it hard to come back after missing something. Not to mention that Luo Xiao had worked hard all those years and still hadn't won Ye Si Yao's heart, which meant that their future together wouldn't have been long.

Chapter 2552: Side story: I'm willing to protect all your dreams (1)

Don't ask why I love you, don't ask what is good about you, I love you because there isn't another you in this world. ——Gong Yu Bai.

I am direct and decisive, I am cold and black bellied.

The things I cared about could never be changed by anyone, not a single person.

The Gusi Kingdom was the richest country in the world because 90% of the stones in our country were diamonds.

My father was a person who was busy, but deeply loved my father. After marrying into the Gusi Kingdom, my mother missed her homeland very much, so I learned Chinese since I was young. My Chinese was actually better than my English.

With this kind of status, although there were disadvantages, the advantages still weighed them out.

There wasn't a lack of people who wanted to kill me. Some had grudges and some didn't.

Those people without grudges just wanted me to die, but how could I give them what they wanted?

Since I was young, other than eating and sleeping, I had to learn the skills to survive.

Movement skills, firearms, martial arts, etc.....

These weren't natural and it took me a long time to develop these skills.

My father told me that I could leave Gusi when I learned everything. No one had seen me and I gave myself another identity.

Gong Yu Bai, that was my identity.

When I first came to China, I lived at the hotel for three months. That familiar dream kept bothering me and made me decide on something shocking.

To become an actor and act out the dreams in my heart.

That "Apocalypse 2150" was the only throb in my heart. I wanted to know if that dream was my past life and I wanted to know who that girl was.

Did I.....love her very much?

Is it because I loved her that.....no one in this fleeting world could catch my eyes?

This doubt lingered in my heart for a long time, becoming a large stone that I couldn't put down.

Until I met a strange girl on the plane whose pen fell by my foot.

When I met her eyes, the dream that haunted me since I was young filled my mind.

At that moment, my heart started beating fast, uncontrollably so.

There was an accident on the plane and I watched her calmly attracting everyone's attention.

I admit that I am dazzling, but I felt that she was even more dazzling than me.

But what really made my heart tremble wasn't this, but rather at the Santiago villa.

She said my dream, like she had experienced it. It was that kind of real.

I knew that she was the one I was searching for in this life. Perhaps it wasn't love at first sight, but I was sure that I only liked her and didn't love her, so I would definitely let go in the end.

Perhaps I was that kind of person. I was calm on the surface, but I had some wild ideas deep down.

After coming back, I investigated everything about her. Other than knowing that she was a slightly popular actress, I also learned that she had a fiance named Jin Yi Xuan.

When I learned this, there was a depressed feeling that filled my heart which lingered for a long time without dissipating.

But it was a good thing that she broke this engagement. Although the world didn't know, it was easy for me to learn of this.

I gave her three popular scripts to choose from and I wanted her to pick the sci fi or the disaster film.

But she had to choose the youth film!

Actually, I was already thinking that perhaps the male lead role needed to be reconsidered.

Chapter 2553: Side story: I'm willing to protect all your dreams (2)

That was why I felt that I had the potential to be black bellied. Ye Shi Liang was considered the most suited for playing the role of Li Si Han.

But.....that didn't mean that he was qualified to play a couple with her.

After all, I didn't agree.

Then again, Li Yuan used to be a butler for our house before he was a director. Although it was for another villa, he always respected me and kept calling me young master, young master.

After I talked to Li Yuan, she was the absolute female lead and there was no reason to overturn this.

I didn't know what it started, but I started treating her matters as my matters.

I even started paying attention to the people who didn't like her.....

Li Yuan going to Star Group to choose supporting roles for "Time" was also my suggestion.

I knew that there were many people who she didn't like and there were many people who didn't like her.

It was good chance to let everyone know that the person that I, Gong Yu Bai like could never be bullied.

They fought over the supporting role and she was the absolute protagonist.

It was at that time that I decided that I would play the male lead of “Time”, Li Si Han.

After all, since it was my girl, how could I let others film with her?

As expected, everything went according to the script that I wrote.

Everyone’s look of disbelief and Jin Yi Xuan’s jealous look.

Not to mention anything else, it felt very refreshing.

Actually, I wasn’t a kind person so when I knew that she hated Gu Meng, I played some tricks on him.

It could even be said that I wanted him to die.

Perhaps this was black bellied, but bad things should be done by me alone.

Even if thunder fell down, it should strike me and not her.

If there was something that made me serious, it was when I knew that the crew of “Youth” had changed our broadcast time. I knew that I had to do something.

This wasn’t something that I could let them turn around. The entertainment industry was a very complicated place, it could make you famous overnight and could ruin your reputation in an instant.

I didn’t wrong them, but they had to take responsibility for their actions.

Daring to interfere with my Gong Yu Bai matters, it never ended well.

I bought all the stations and used a high price to do so! Although it spent quite a bit of money, it was all done before their press conference.

I declared bankruptcy on Lychee TV that took bribes and the son of their chairman Chen Fang approached me several times.

When he knelt on the ground and said that he would kill himself, I told him: Die then!

Then he walked away with an ashen face.

There were some people that one could tell from a single look that they were greedy and afraid of death. Those people wouldn’t die at ninety nine if they could live to be a hundred.

Their faces showed that they were afraid of death!

The days with her, from meeting to falling in love, every bit of progress made my heart throb.

What finally confirmed my heart was a rainy night. The heavy rain seemed like it cleansed my heart and made every cell in my body tremble.

It was the first time I felt fear in my life and it was true fear!

Even on our fiftieth anniversary, when we mentioned what happened then, I could feel my heart suddenly start pounding.

My heart wasn't good as I became older and I almost had a heart attack.

But it reminded me of the scene and the feelings of back then. I could clearly remember it, I couldn't forget that feeling.

Chapter 2554: Side story: I'm willing to protect all your dreams (3)

I remember when she got off the plane and called me.

I had been on the phone with my father, dealing with a tricky international contract.

The people responsible for this international trade from the various countries were also connected on the screen and when she called, it was my turn to talk.

I saw that the weather was bad, so I picked up since I was worried.

But as soon as I answered, my heart sank to the rock bottom.

I heard the rough man's voice on the other end and I knew that she was in danger.

I suddenly felt like my life was over. What international conference, what international contract, nothing was important.

I turned off the international call and moved all the forces in A City to accurately pinpoint her location.

The other side had already hung up. When I sat in the car, my eyes turned red and there was an indescribable fear in my heart.

I was afraid that this heavy rain was a sign that I would lose her, I was afraid that I couldn't save her.

I thought about many things along the way. I never told her in the years that we were married, but I can say them here.

I had already prepared for the worst. Perhaps it might have sounded unbelievable or a bit like a fairy tale.

But 'sacrifice' was a very serious and solemn thing for me.

A world without her didn't have any meaning. I didn't want to wait for another person because without her, there was no need to wait.

When I arrived at the alley entrance, I saw a group of men with bruised faces. I was surprised, but my heart was much more assured.

But that didn't mean that my anger was gone. The ones that wanted to bully her shouldn't live in this world.

I put a silencer on my pistol and planned on dealing with these people.

They begged on the ground, but it couldn't draw any bit of pity from me.

Until she stood in front of me and had me let them go.

At that moment, I could feel the tears welling up in my eyes, I could feel my fingers trembling.

She stood there with a pure and unharmed face, with her eyes as clear as the first time I saw her.

I was even a bit angry. I was so worried and afraid, but she stood there completely fine.

But I felt that she was cute and couldn't reproach her at all.

I asked her to come over in a commanding tone and then used all my strength to hug her.

I still didn't know how she escaped this danger, I just knew that from that day forth, I had sent someone to follow her twenty four hours of the day to make sure that she was safe.

Many years later, when we watched a Taekwondo exhibition.

There was an interaction between the champion and the audience with a bear doll being presented as a gift.

I saw her go on stage and curl her lips in the spotlight before knocking out the champion in ten moves.

I was stunned seeing this, but I gave an understanding smile.

It turned out that she really was the hero who saved me in the apocalypse in her past life!

I don't know if I'll meet her in my next life, but she was the hero that saved my life in this life, saving me with a redemption of love.

Maybe no one understood or could understand, but I liked her, loved her, more than even myself.

In my opinion, I loved her even more than the me in the dream!

The falling leaves are the never ending words of a season, you are the one that I can't love enough and I will guard your dreams through the years.

[Ding, congratulations on bringing a soul fragment into the Lead God Space. 39/100]

Chapter 2555: Loving the prince, but he doesn't know (1)

d the two fought before never seeing each other again.

Gu Meng thought that she would come see him again, but when Ye Si Yao saw Luo Xiao walking out of the company with another woman, she regretted it.....

She felt that she still had a chance as long as she had a clean break with Gu Meng.

After all, this man had been her 'spare tire' and they had a daughter together.

But some love would be gone once it was missed. Luo Xiao rejected Ye Si Yao and married Yan Man.

A forty year old man and a flower. Luo Xiao was very handsome at the wedding and Luo Qing Chen was happy because her father had found true love.

As for Gu Fan Fan.

It was said that she married a man who was ten years older than her who had a daughter with an ex-wife, so she had become the daughter's step mother.

As for how she was doing, Luo Qing Chen didn't care.

But Jin Yi Xuan's life wasn't good. He kept thinking of his past childhood sweetheart and was never able to get married.

It was because he couldn't get past the barrier in his heart and he felt that he gave up the person he loved the most.

There was nothing sad about this world.

A hundred years later, she died without a single regret.

The dim chaotic sound rang out.

Remembering everything that happened in the past world, she felt a sweetness in her heart that didn't fade for a long time.

Chapter 2556: Loving the prince, but he doesn't know (2)

When receiving the memories, Luo Qing Chen was very nervous. Even her fingers were slightly trembling.

The saying went: Happiness came late, but it will never be missing.

But even now, she didn't know when her and Du Jiu Sheng's happiness would come.

On the path of rebirth, monarch of nine lives.

She didn't know why this phrase sounded so terrifying to her.

His and her story this time was in the ancient era. The imperial court was divided into the north and south factions and the division of power was very serious.

The previous host was the daughter of a prefecture governor, a member of the northern faction. She had an engagement with the crown prince since she was young. She would marry the crown prince when she grew up and become the crown princess that everyone was envious of.

This wedding was set by the current empress because the prefecture governor had saved her life once.

It was a pity that the crown prince didn't care.

The crown prince was stubborn by nature, so the emperor had sent him to the famous Three Emotions Mountain to cultivate.

He had met his true love there, his senior sister Leng Qing.

He called her senior sister and she called him by his nickname.

Yue Leng Qing was the most powerful woman at the Three Emotions Mountain other than the masters.

She always wore cold white clothes and held her Autumn Frost Sword as she taught the crown prince swordsmanship in the heavy snow.

The always rambunctious crown prince was never late to her class.

It wasn't because he loved swordsmanship, but because he loved this woman with extraordinary swordsmanship.

Just like a glass of water in the morning, Yue Leng Qing was like a sugar cube that sweetened his life.

It was a pity that while some men loved, the women didn't reciprocate.

Yue Leng Qing had lost both her parents when she was young and she had a deep hatred of blood on her. She wanted to take revenge and didn't have time for love.

Because when the master who saved her, Yuan Mo asked her what name she wanted.

She said, "I want to be called Leng Qing."

Yue Leng Qing, that was the name she gave herself.

The love of this world came from 'addiction', so the more one couldn't get something, the more they wanted it.

Like the crown prince Du Qi Chao.

Like the previous host Luo Qing Chen.

She had liked the crown prince since she was young and when she wasn't even ten years old, she knew about all the makeup on Peaceful Ink City.

She liked putting on fine makeup whenever she went to find Du Qi Chao at the crown prince's eastern palace.

It was a pity that the crown prince wouldn't even greet her.

Unless the daughter's family asked, only then would he invite her to the palace.

The previous host was simple in nature and she believed that Du Qi Chao would be her future husband, so she never thought that he would fall in love with someone else.

And this woman was five years older than him.....

In the twentieth year of the dynasty.

The previous host had turned sixteen and she was looking forward to when Du Qi Chao would come to marry her.

He brought Yue Leng Qing from the Three Emotions Mountain to Peaceful Ink City, bringing her to the eastern palace.

He told the outside world that his senior sister Leng Qing with her powerful martial arts skills was just a bodyguard, but everyone in the interior knew that this was the new love of the crown prince!

It was because of these rumours that the previous host finally noticed Yue Leng Qing.

She had never done anything wrong in her life, the only thing that she did wrong got her whole family slaughtered.

But when you think carefully, it was a large mistake. It was because of a few disrespectful words to Yue Leng Qing in the eastern palace that created the tragedy in her life.

In the memories, it was a snowy afternoon.

Yue Leng Qing was in her sword dance and because she was too focused, the sword dance lifted some snow that accidentally fell onto the previous host's head.

"Who? Didn't you see that someone is here?"

Chapter 2557: Loving the prince, but he doesn't know (3)

It was because this was heard by the crown prince Du Qi Chao. Before Yue Leng Qing could react, he was already standing in front of her, reprimanding the previous host, "Are you qualified to say this to this prince's senior sister?"

The previous host's tears fell from being reprimanded by Du Qi Chao.

The rumours weren't wrong. The one that Du Qi Chao loved was no one other than his senior sister from Three Emotions Mountain.

In the ice and snow, with the cold wind blowing, it blew out the broken jade bell at her waist.

It was the present that Du Qi Chao had given her on her fifth birthday.

The only present.....

Yue Leng Qing had never said a thing, as if she was the treasure of the heavens and someone would always protect her.

But her eyes kept looking at the broken jade bell the previous host had.

The previous host left the eastern palace while crying. She didn't eat or drink after going home, she kept thinking about what she had done wrong.

She wanted to work hard, she wanted to find a chance to stand by Du Qi Chao's side.

It was as pity that some things couldn't be worked hard on.

In Du Qi Chao's eyes, Yue Leng Qing was like an autumn pool in the night, the most beautiful scene under a sea of stars.

The previous host was just sand on the ground, she would disappear as dust in the world with a single gust of wind.

There were some love that was unrelated to identity.

Some people didn't care about integrity and conscience when it came to their love.

That night, Yue Leng Qing went to find Du Qi Chao for the first time with a bottle of wine in hand.

The moon was fine and the peach blossoms were in bloom.

She said that when her family was destroyed when she was only ten years old, she still remembered some things clearly.

The bell she saw at the woman's waist today, she was certain that she had seen it thirteen years ago.

She suspected that the Yue Family was destroyed by the Luo Family.

Yue Leng Qing couldn't see the look on Du Qi Chao's eyes. There was shock, panic, and a bit of determination.

The senior sister who had been indifferent to him came looking for him today, that was definitely a chance for him.

But.....

He had some impressions of what happened twelve years ago.

After reading through the documents from that year, Du Qi Chao learned that he hadn't given the broken jade bell to Luo Qing Chen yet.

The one who wore it was still.....him.

He vaguely remembered that the north and south factions were fighting fiercely back then and a lot of people in the world were involved.

Yue Leng Qing's parents were one of them. The two sides disputing led to casualties and the Yue Family was a victim of the north faction.

They secretly worked with the current empress, but they were killed by their own master.

In order to let the crown prince grow, the empress had arranged for the crown prince to come alone. Yue Leng Qing who had been hidden during that time had seen this.

Her mouth was covered by the housekeeper and her eyes filled with blood.

She was very ill after that day and didn't remember many things.

The only impression was that broken jade bell.....

The housekeeper was taken hostage along with her and they were saved by a daoist from Three Emotions Mountain, Yuan Mo.

After going to the mountain, the housekeeper fell ill and told her not to take revenge before dying.

She desperately asked who the enemy was, but the housekeeper never told her.

After the housekeeper died, she went from Yue Lan to Yue Leng Qing.

Master Yuan Mo wanted her to put down her vengeance, but she thought that if there was no vengeance, there was no meaning in her life.

Vengeance made her learn swordsmanship more and become stronger!

Chapter 2558: Loving the prince, but he doesn't know (4)

Di Qi Chao was very panicked after learning that Yue Leng Qing was Yue Lan. It turned out that the enemy she had searched all those years for was the royal family.

It was his mother.....

He definitely couldn't let Yue Leng Qing know about this. He could only plan and push the bomb of the broken jade bell to the Luo Family.

He didn't want to marry the previous host. He could use this matter to take down the prefecture governor and also obtain the love of Yue Leng Qing at the same time.

There was no reason not to do this thing that was killing two birds with one stone.

He gave himself a very good reason, but it was just his selfish heart.

Because he couldn't let Yue Leng Qing know that the one who killed her family was his mother.

He remembered that day that had few stars in the sky. He went to find Yue Leng Qing with a bottle of wine in hand and he told her that he had some clues about the broken jade bell.

Yue Leng Qing was very anxious. This was her first time revealing a different expression.

Di Qi Chao was pleasantly surprised as he asked, "If I take revenge for you, are you willing to be with me?"

After a while, she said with a nod, "Alright."

"Really?"

"Yes, but you must eliminate them all."

Only she had survived from the Yue Family, how could thirty four lives be exchanged just for a single life?

"I promise you."

This was Di Qi Chao's promise to her, a cruel and dark promise.

From that day forth, Di Qi Chao plotted step by step. It was impossible to use the grievances of ten years ago to take down the prefecture governor.

He had to use some absolute crimes, fake crimes.

Since master Luo and the empress were in the northern faction together and his daughter was engaged to the crown prince.

Naturally he wasn't guarded against Di Qi Chao, he never thought that he would plot to kill him.

When Luo Feng reacted, it was already too late to recover.

After half a year of correspondence with the enemy army, all kinds of evidence showed up.

Without any precautions, Luo Feng was helpless.

After all, no matter how smart a person was, they couldn't guard against careful planning.

In the end, the Luo Family was sentenced to beheading for treason.

The empress still remembered how Luo Feng saved her life, so entered the prison the day before the execution. She used the life of one of her maids to exchange for the previous host's life.

The next day at noon, the lives of the sixty six members of the Luo Family were taken.

The one who did it was the crown prince, Du Qi Chao.

That day, rain fell in Peaceful Ink City. The rain fell for three days and night, but the execution stage was covered in a river of blood.

The previous host was brought into the palace by the empress as a maid.

But the story.....wasn't over yet.

Seven months later, the crown prince took a princess, marrying his senior sister Yue Leng Qing.

Luo Qing Chen never believed that Du Qi Chao would be this cruel to him, so she went to the eastern palace alone when the empress wasn't there.

Standing behind the screen, she overheard a conversation between Du Qi Chao and Yue Leng Qing.

"Now that your vengeance has been taken, you don't need to hold any hatred in your heart. You can peacefully stand by my side, I will protect you."

"But I don't want this kind of revenge." Yue Leng Qing gave a deep sigh, "It's depraved."

"Isn't it the same? They deserved to die, they deserved to die thirteen years ago."

"Ai, I married you as your crown princess, but I wanted them to die because they killed my family and not for a false crime of selling out their country."

She knew what Du Qi Chao had done over the past six months. Even if she didn't know everything, she still knew some things.

Perhaps it was because she was from the Jianghu, so using these morally unethical methods made her unsettled.

Chapter 2559: Loving the prince, but he doesn't know (5)

The previous host standing behind the screen felt like she had been struck by lightning. The Luo Family had been killed, so naturally her heart was filled with hatred.

But contacting enemies had been like this since ancient times. Even if her heart had hatred, she couldn't take revenge.

But now.....she knew that it really wasn't like that.

The man she loved the most had destroyed her family because he wanted another woman.

What a dark act this was, it went against all morality.

She charged in and picked up a sword from the side to stage at Du Qi Chao.

But when it was about to reach his throat, she turned her sword and aimed it at Yue Leng Qing.

The previous host didn't know martial arts and even if Yue Leng Qing was unprepared, she dodged it at the last second.

The sword only stabbed her shoulder. The previous host wasn't that lucky.....

When Du Qi Chao came back to his senses, he grabbed the sword from the previous host.

And cut her throat in one slash.

With blood splurting out, she slowly fell with tears filling those moving eyes.

Love was like this. The deeper you fell, the harder it was to leave.

Anything would just confuse you and it would be enough to destroy you.

Being soft hearted was a disease and being deeply in love was fatal.

The previous host died like that. At the moment of her death, Du Qi Chao quickly turned to block Yue Leng Qing and covered her eyes as he softly said, "Don't look."

This was the previous host's story, cold, sad, and painful.

The memories ended there.

Du Jiu Sheng had a very low existence in the previous host's memories.

He was the son of concubine Rou of the cold palace. She was the daughter of the royal historian and a part of the southern faction.

She had won the love of the emperor, but the empress belonged to the northern faction.

The north and south dispute along with the jealousy of the harem girls, concubine Rou finally died in a sea of blood.

Leaving only a single son, Du Jiu Sheng.

The Cold North Palace, the cold palace that Xia Rou lived in, it was even more depressing after she died.

Other than his zither, his sword, and his wine, there was only a eunuch, Ya Nu who stayed with him.

It was a eunuch who couldn't speak and had bad feet. After being disdained for many years, he was transferred to the cold palace by the head eunuch.

But to Ya Nu, this was a blessing.

Although even the food in the cold palace wasn't good, it was a happy place.

Du Jiu Sheng was very good to him and invited him to share the good dishes and wine.

He was born handsome and often played the zither in the courtyard, so the maids and little mistresses would throw him desserts or silver.

Although this was the cold palace, he didn't have to worry about food or clothes acting as a 'showman'.

But in his ice cold eyes, there was a determination that normal people didn't have.

This was the memory that the previous host didn't have, it was put in her mind by the system.

Special world, special world, special world.

She repeated this three times in her heart. She constantly reminded herself that other than her martial arts, she didn't have any abilities normal people didn't have.

No system, no powers.....

The most terrifying thing was that she didn't come to this world when the Luo Family was at its peak, but rather.....

Right after her family was destroyed and she was brought to the empress as a maid.

"Follow closely. You have a special status, you can't make it public." The maid Yu'er walking in front of her carefully reminded her.

"Un." Luo Qing Chen gave a nod before quickly following her.

This identity, this time, really was too difficult for her.

Right now, based on this identity, neither she nor Du Jiu Sheng could save anyone.

Chapter 2560: Loving the prince, but he doesn't know (6)

Peace Palace.

The palace that the empress lived in was one that was magnificent and luxurious.

Luo Qing Chen slightly knitted her brows as she lowered her head and went in.

"Empress, this servant has brought the person here." Yu'er gave a bow before gesturing behind her with her right hand.

Luo Qing Chen immediately understood and quickly gave a bow, "Greetings to the empress."

"Is it Qing'er?" The empress behind the screen slowly came out with a bit of sadness in her eyes.

She came forward and took her hand as she said with a deep sigh, "This one has wronged you, wronged sir Luo!"

When it came to the Luo Family being beheaded, how could she not know that it was her son's doing?

He was obsessed with that woman he brought back from Three Emotions Mountain and he did something so unscrupulous to marry her.

When she found out that her son was intent on framing Luo Feng, it was already too late.

Was it a trivial matter to contact another country? The emperor was enraged and gave the order to investigate this matter.

If it turned out that it was all planned by her son, then the crown prince wouldn't be able to keep his position even if he crossed seven dynasties.

In this situation, even if she knew that the crown prince had intentions, she couldn't say anything.

The Luo Family's sixty six lives would be a tool for the crown prince to get the love of his sweetheart.

“Everything in life is impermanent. The empress saving my life is already Qing Chen’s blessing.” Luo Qing Chen lowered her head as her lashes moved slightly.

Her voice was very cold, different from the shyness of the past.

The empress could hear this, but she had just experienced such a large matter, so it was normal that her personality changed.

“You can rest up tonight and you can stay in the Peace Palace with me in the future.” The empress softly patted her hand, “There are many bad things in life, but this one promises sir Luo to take care of you. If you have anything you need, you can tell this one.”

“Empress.” Luo Qing Chen kneeled down as her clear eyes dimmed. She looked up to say, “Such a big thing has happened to the Luo Family and my heart is like a mirror. This might be a bit hypocritical, but I have a request. I hope that the empress will accept this.”

The empress looked at her with a bit of mist in her eyes.

Whether it was the Luo Family or her, she had been wronged. Thinking of the shy young miss of before, she was now.....

“Speak.” The empress reached out her right hand to help her up, “If this one can do it, I’ll promise you.”

“Thank you, empress.” Luo Qing Chen said, “If I leave the palace now, I won’t live long. Although the Luo Family doesn’t have many enemies, there also isn’t a lack of them. If I stay in the Peace Palace, it will remind me of my family and my heart won’t be at peace.”

Luo Qing Chen paved the way for all premises as she looked up at the empress to say, “Why doesn’t the empress send me to the Cold North Palace as a maid! I just want to spend the rest of my life in a peaceful palace.”

“The Cold North Palace.....” The empress knitted her brows, “That is a cold palace and it’s very remote, do you really want to go there?”

Seeing her dim eyes, the empress knew that this girl really was heartbroken.

She thought about it. If she stayed in the Peace Palace, she would meet the crown prince. Although she saved her life and the crown prince knew.

It was better to be out of sight.

“Alright!” After a while, she said with a deep sigh, “Your monthly salary will come from the Peace Palace and you can find this one if you ever need anything.”

“Thank you, empress.”

The empress probably thought that she wanted to get away from the world, but it fact.....

She just missed a certain someone.....

Du Jiu Sheng, I’m back.
