Chapter 341: Cold destiny master's cherry blossom spirit (Part 45)

Half a year ago, he had watched the Destiny Master above tens of thousands jump into the abyss for her while heavily injured.

He stood on the vines for a long time. When Yan Ruo Yao left, he didn't have the courage to jump in.

Perhaps that was the difference between him and Mo Bai Ci.

He didn't have couldn't do this, he couldn't disregard life and death for love.....

He spent half a year in the Unbounded Land. If he wasn't a Spirit Spell Master, being able to live on the essence of the sun and moon, he would have already died from starvation.

It was a pity that the essence of the sun and moon wasn't enough to allow him to use his spells in the Unbounded Land.

Time passed and this lock up lasted for half a year.

In the end he was able to leave this place because during the war of the Word Tide Bay, the gate was accidentally opened.

He had heard about the war after coming out and knew that they were all still alive.

The thing he wanted to do the most in his heart was seeing her.

Just once was fine.....

"It seems like you've spent quite a bit of time in the Unbounded Land." Luo Qing Chen looked at Li Jin Feng with slightly cold eyes and said, "Actually if you fell into the bottomless abyss with us, perhaps you would have been able to leave without waiting that long."

He didn't care about her. In a moment of life and death, every person had the right to be selfish.

"Ah——" He suddenly understood and shook his head with a bitter smile as he said, "So it's like this, no wonder."

No wonder they escaped the Unbounded Land.

No wonder they joined together to fight the Demon Monarch.

No wonder they were called a heavenly couple by everyone.....

"Qing Chen....." Li Jin Feng took two steps forward and looked at her as he said, "Do you remember the first time we watched the snow together?"

Luo Qing Chen slightly knit her brows, it seemed like it was the second year since the previous host came to the Void Residence.

Due to the weather of the Void Residence, never having any snow, she said that she wanted to see snow. Li Jin Feng put down everything and took her to the mortal world to admire the snow that only belonged to the two of them.

“So?” Her eyes were indifferent, like the memories of the past couldn’t leave a good mark in her mind. Perhaps it was that the previous host’s experience was too tragic, all that hatred surpassed the initial love.

“I’m filled with regret.” He bit her lip, using all his courage to say these four words.

He finally wanted to face his heart.

Unknowingly during the hundred years, he had already deeply fallen in love with her.

Only when Yan Ruo Yao appeared, he desperately had him believe that the seeds of the last life could be changed into fruits in this life.

He was too attached to the person from his last life and missed the one he loved in this life.

It was him who let her down.....

“Li Jin Feng, you have to know how funny it is for you to say the four words ‘I’m filled with regret’.” Her eyes narrowed and there was a faint mist that appeared in her eyes. Perhaps it was emotion that came from the previous host’s heart.

She raised her right hand and opened the barrier around the little mushroom. The pink cherry blossom surrounded its body and it was brought into her embrace.

“Qing Chen.....I.....”

“There is nothing to regret.” She cut him off before saying with a deep breath, “Li Jin Feng, I’m no longer the past Luo Qing Chen.”

“I know.....” He wanted to understand something, but his throat was choked and he couldn’t say anything.

“Let me finish first.” She looked up at him and said, “I don’t know whether that girl is willing to forgive you or not, but if it was me, I wouldn’t. You don’t need to regret anything because she will never come back.”

Luo Qing Chen didn’t know if Li Jin Feng would understand, but it didn’t matter if he did or not.

None of this mattered to her, she just wanted to leave this place.

This is because in her mind, there was only the figure of that white clothed youth.

Chapter 342: Cold destiny master’s cherry blossom spirit (Part 46)

At the same time, at the foot of Snow Mountain.

Mo Bai Ci had his hand crossed as he looked at the snow capped mountains. His heart couldn’t calm down at all.

He admitted that he was afraid.

Afraid that the companionship and deep emotions of a hundred years would make her turn back.

If it was like this, what should he do?

He believed her, but he was afraid.

This mortal like contradiction had never appeared in his life before.

Suddenly he felt a bit of regret, why didn't he go up the mountain with her.

Could it be because the other side was Li Jin Feng that this kind of mortal emotion appeared in his heart?

It was unknown if it was because of his depressed feeling or if it was normal for it to snow at the foot of the mountain.

For a while, the surrounding temperatures kept dropping.

Not long after, the sky was covered in snow.

"Achoo——" The person not far away standing on the Starlight Sword and holding the little mushroom gave a strong sneeze.

She shivered for a moment and her heart was filled with confusion.

What was this, why was the foot of the mountain colder than the peak!

He heard this and suddenly turned to see the girl in the snow, as his heart instantly filled with excitement.

As well as.....a bit of nervousness.

"Why is it so cold!" Luo Qing Chen waved her hand at Mo Bai Ci and tightly held the little mushroom for warmth.

"Aiya, this little mushroom also feels cold!"

Mo Bai Ci's lips curled slightly and quickly headed in Luo Qing Chen's direction.

He didn't give her any time to react as he gently pulled her in, letting her fall into his embrace.

"Dong——" Luo Qing Chen was stunned, as she dropped the little mushroom on the ground and it rolled several times.

"What.....What is it?" She could feel the intense beating of his heart, as his hands tightly held her.

It was like she would disappear at any moment, so he didn't want to let go for even a second.

"I was afraid——" His cool voice rang in her ears, trembling a bit as he said, "You wouldn't come back....."

"Mo Bai Ci....." When she heard this, her eyes turned red.

This is because she never thought that this cold and proud Destiny Master would say something like this.

Actually she didn't know that he was afraid of losing things.

As a Destiny Master that could calculate the future, how helpless was he when it came to the most important person in his life that he couldn't calculate the future of.

He could only tell himself to believe her, believing that the millions of years in the future could replace the hundred years.

"So our Destiny Master can also be afraid of the future!" She pursed her lips into a sweet smile as tears fell from her eyes.

"If you always stay by my side, I will never fear anything." He said each word seriously, being able to hear the small bit of ridicule in her voice.

He just said what he wanted to say.

It was like a confession and a promise.

In short this cold and proud Destiny Master that didn't like to talk about love, when he spoke about love, he was so warm that it warmed her heart.

"I think that in this life, I will always stay by your side." She closed her eyes and softly said in his ear, "Perhaps you don't believe me, but I never liked Li Jin Feng before."

Or it could be said that the girl that deeply loved Li Jin Feng wasn't her from the beginning.

After that, he hugged her even tighter.

Just a few simple words swept away all the doubts in his heart.

In this world, only she could do this.

Chapter 343: Cold destiny master's cherry blossom spirit (End)

Those that normally don't love, know how to love and fear it.

Some people are good for you, you know as soon as you see it.

And some people.....

Perhaps even after they die, you will never know all the things that they've done for you.

The days that came after, Mo Bai Ci followed what he said and never let her be hurt even a little bit.

The calm as water days, not only did they not feel bored, rather they treasured them.

On a certain day a hundred years later, the little mushroom went to the mortal world to see some real mushrooms.

Luo Qing Chen couldn't convince it, so she went with Mo Bai Ci and brought it to wander the mortal world for a day.

“Aren’t real mushrooms just like you?” In the center of the market, Luo Qing Chen said this to the little mushroom with a smile while holding it.

There was a black cloak tightly wrapped around the little mushroom, only revealing two large eyes that kept looking around.

It made many people stop and look at them.

“Look quickly, what is that.....”

“It seems to be a dog!”

“How can a dog’s eyes be that big.....”

“It can’t be a demon, right!”

.....

Luo Qing Chen revealed an awkward smile. She covered the little mushroom’s big eyes and quickly dragged Mo Bai Ci to a place with less people.

When they took two steps, they heard the sounds around them.

“Ah, ah, the crown prince is coming!”

“That person actually dares block the crown prince’s horse!”

“They’re simply tired of living!”

Luo Qing Chen heard this and turned around before her eyes turned cold.

There was a young girl holding a little kitten blocking the horse, looking quite similar to her.

That girl was wearing a pink robe and her eyes were a bit cold, as she looked at the golden sedan in front of her.

The curtain was pulled back and a familiar face appeared from behind it.

Li Jin Feng.

A light blue sparkle appeared on Mo Bai Ci’s finger and he said after a long time, “He’s passing his disaster.”

“Disaster?” Luo Qing Chen asked in a confused voice, “That pink robed girl?”

“He probably asked the Star Monarch before going down to the mortal world to cross this disaster, when he met this love disaster, the appearance of the girl was changed by him.” Mo Bai Ci softly took her hand, as he looked at the pink robed girl and spoke in a slow voice.

“What is your name?”

“Citizen Su Nai.”

“Are you willing to come back to the palace with this prince?”

“.....No.”

.....

Luo Qing Chen heard this and helplessly shook her head. She said with a sigh, “He is always attached to his past life, believing that the past could be exchanged for a beautiful time in this life. But people will change after changing, the beautiful past should stay in the past!”

After all, cherishing the present is what he should do.

“Let’s go back!” She turned around and revealed a faint smile to him, as her heart was filled with satisfaction.

The little mushroom shook its head as it grabbed a bunch of mushrooms from a stall to stuff in its pocket, looking very happy.

Actually, it just wanted to come to the mortal world and play.

After all, it loved its big sister cherry blossom and big brother white clothes the most.

Many years later, there were rumours that spread.

The Void Residence’s Destiny Master and the Thousand Year Old Cherry Blossom Spirit were living in the Full Spirit County. They didn’t care about the matters of the world at all.

When passing by a certain mountain, one could hear coquettish laughter and smell a faint cherry blossom scent.

Thousands of years later, Mo Bai Ci calculated his death time, but he never thought that the young girl would leave first.

“Don’t feel sad.....” She pursed her lips into a faint smile.

“I’m not sad.” Mo Bai Ci shook his head as he hugged her and said, “I’m just a bit afraid.....”

Afraid that they would never meet again, afraid that this world will be frozen forever.

“I will come find you.” She closed her eyes as her white fingers tightly held his hand.

Pink cherry blossom petals slowly rained down from the sky, looking like a beautiful illusion, being especially pretty.

“Alright, I’ll wait for you.” He closed his eyes and the blue light surrounded them.

The two turned into a plume of azure mist and disappeared to the end of the sky.

Chapter 344: Su Qing Xie’s side story

I don’t just like one person, but if it’s not you, I’d rather be alone. -Su Qing Xie.

As the fourth highness of the Blood Demon Hall, in father’s eyes, I was the most outstanding.

The one who stood by me was the girl who could control dreams, Meng Ling.

Meng Ling loved green, so she always wore a water green robe and shook her bell in front of me.

I didn't know what kind of feeling I had for her, but I knew that I didn't dislike it. It was more like love.

Until—

The first time I met the pink robed girl in the Hot Spring Inn. Her eyes were clear and she was just a weak little demon, but she didn't want to see any injustice.

I never believed in love at first sight, but my heart skipping a beat made me feel a bit excited.

Her spells weren't that strong, but she was quite good at dodging.

My heart couldn't help filling with interest after a few moves. This was the first time this kind of person could make me feel interested.

But when I was getting excited, Mo Bai Ci appeared.

I knew that I wasn't a match for him and this was the Full Spirit County, so there was no need to fight him head on.

Although my heart was dissatisfied, I still chose to leave.

Before leaving, I said to her that we would meet again.

I didn't know if she understood or not, but this was a promise for me.

In this life, this was the only promise I ever made.

Later I received news from Yan Ruo Yao that Mo Bai Ci was going to the Dead Soul Sea Pond to look for the Starlight Sword.

I was overjoyed, the place that the Destiny Master calculated would naturally have the Starlight Sword.

This was simply the heavens helping me because I never thought that the ancient divine weapon would fall in a place that cut the powers of righteous daoists in half.

Un, my territory.

But I never thought that she would also come.

She was wearing a light scarf and a moon white robe as she stood by Mo Bai Ci's side.

Without knowing my, my heart was very uncomfortable, but there was still a smile on my face.

Actually I just wanted to say a few more words to her.

It was unknown which death seeking warrior actually came forward to attack me with eyes filled with jealousy.

As the important me, I just gave him a slight look to know that he also liked Luo Qing Chen.

An unknown anger filled my head. In that Dead Soul Sea Pond, my spiritual energy completely suppressed that righteous side warrior and heavily injured him.

But I still couldn't beat Mo Bai Ci.

What level had this number one strongest person of the Void Residence reached, actually being able to beat me here.

No one would understand how unwilling I was to accept this.

I never thought that Yan Ruo Yao would use this chance to open the barrier of the Unbounded Land. That was a place I couldn't enter.

I only had one thought, nothing better happen to her.

It was already half a year later when we met again, my father planned on washing the Heaven Falling Continent in blood after breaking his seal.

As his son, I had to fight with him.

But I was afraid, afraid to meet her again on this battlefield.

As expected, what you fear will eventually come.

When that light pink colour appeared among the flames and thunder, my heart began to beat intensely.

I didn't even think as I went out for father, wanting to make her leave.

But I never thought that she would trap me in order to protect me before closing her eyes to chant that terrifying ancient sacrificial spell.

At that moment, it felt like my world was collapsing.

I didn't know why she protected me.

But I knew that I couldn't protect her.....

Until Mo Bai Ci appeared, until he used his divine body to kill father, until he softly took her into his embrace.....

Until they disappeared in front of me, leaving forever.

The future me never saw her again, but sometimes in the afternoon, I would have a very beautiful dream.

Dreaming of our first meeting.

Dreaming that the white clothed youth never appeared.

Dreaming that she loved me.....

Chapter 345: Mo Bai Ci's side story (Part 1)

Even if everything disappears, even if my body disappears, I will treat you the same, forever and ever. - Mo Bai Ci.

I never felt any emotions in this life because I could calculate the future that confused everyone.

Divining disasters, I was never afraid.

I never loved anyone, never experiencing disasters. Not knowing what being moved was, not knowing what forever love was.

But Word Tide Bay from that year had shattered the peace of my world.

I suddenly had a sense of frustration that I've never felt before because I actually couldn't protect the person that I wanted to protect.

So what if I was the only Destiny Master? I actually couldn't calculate the destiny of my love disaster!

After the battle, I shut myself in for a hundred years.

I was thinking for a hundred years, what kind of thing could I make so that the person I cared about was never hurt even a tiny bit.

Finally I used a hundred years to make the Moon Cherry Blossom Robe.

But thinking about it, what value did it have since my love disaster was already over? These clothes didn't have any value in existing at all.

But I never thought that destiny would let me meet her again the day I came out of closed doors.

She seemed different compared to before, only having cultivated for a hundred years. Her eyes were clear, but also immature.

I was suddenly stunned, as joy spread through every part of my heart.

That was because—

I couldn't calculate her destiny.

But I could see a different feeling from how she looked at me.

I didn't know what it was, but I was very clear that I liked how she looked at me very much.

After returning to the Void Residence, I immediately used the most secret sacrifice spell to summon the Stellar God.

Because I had to know what happened to her, the ancient sacrificial spell was a very evil spell.

It had a heaven defying effect, so it had to have some kind of backlash.

As expected, it was like I expected.

Her power had been sealed and she hadn't passed her heavenly disaster yet.

I used three hundred years of cultivation to exchange for her heavenly disaster from the Stellar God.

It was actually three bolts of heavenly thunder from the Red Lotus Orb.....

I know that she couldn't dodge it.

When she was the Thousand Year Old Cherry Blossom Spirit of the Full Spirit County, she didn't have a way to make the Demon Monarch surrender when fighting him,

Finally she had no choice but to use the ancient sacrificial spell to perish with him.

And now, she was just a little cherry blossom demon with a hundred years of cultivation. These three bolts of heavenly thunder would make her soul scatter.

The thing of the past was happening again, I definitely couldn't let her be injured at all.

Definitely not.....

I planned for everything, waiting for the Star Monarch to have me go to the Dead Soul Sea Pond to find the Starlight Sword.

I wanted two people, Blood Demon Hall's Yan Ruo Yao and Li Jin Feng who could at least protect her when I wasn't there.

Yan Ruo Yao was the most important person of this heavenly disaster because I knew the Red Lotus Orb was in her hands.

Taking someone else's heavenly disaster was something that went against the heavens, so I had to use the most cruel methods to let me take the heavenly disaster for her.

Then there was only one place in this world where I could be injured.

The Unbounded Land.

I had calculated everything.

As long as the three bolts of heavenly thunder from the Red Lotus Orb fell onto me, she would never have to face another disaster in her life.

I had this kind of conviction as I didn't care about life and death, only seeking what I wanted.

Even if my primordial spirit scattered, I wouldn't regret it in the slightest.

I really should thank the heavens because they really weren't bad to me.

Everything went as I wanted, the only thing I didn't know was where the exit of the Unbounded Land was.

But whether it was a mountain of blades, a sea of flames, or a bottomless abyss, I was willing to stay with her.

It was all good as long as she was willing.....

Chapter 346: Mo Bai Ci's side story (Part 2)

After falling into the bottomless Abyss, I thought that I had died, but actually I hadn't.

I found a secret realm, so I closed up to heal my wounds every day, not daring to slack for even a moment.

Because I knew that she was waiting for me.

She had to be waiting for me.....

When I saw her again, it was in a sea of flames and thunder.

The entire Heaven Falling Continent looked like the end of the world, but she stood in the flames. She had her hands together, as she chanted the spell that I never wanted to hear again.

At that moment, my mind went completely blank. I didn't even think as I tightly trapped her, placing a barrier around her.

This scene was like going back in time, making me think of the scene from a hundred years ago that I never wanted to see again, where she perished together with the Demon Monarch.

How could I let her cast that spell again?

I used my quickest speed to take care of the Demon Monarch before tightly taking her in my embrace, never willing to let go.

I looked into her clear as water eyes filled with tears and my heart was filled with sadness.....

Indeed, it was my fault.

I shouldn't have left her alone. I apologized to her, but I found.....

She began crying even harder.

I thought that I really didn't know how to get along with the person I loved, but I really didn't want to see her cry.

It was like seeing her cry completely made my heart flustered.

Of course, I didn't like her seeing other men either.

Like.....

Li Jin Feng.

When the little mushroom was suddenly kidnapped, I divined a bit and found it was him.

I knew that he wouldn't hurt her, but I was still afraid.

Because I wasn't certain how much weight that hundred years of being with him had in her heart.

After all, I had been together with her for much less than a hundred years.....

Li Jin Feng was using this kind of method to find her, he definitely hadn't forgotten her.

I was afraid that she would leave my side.....

Every second passed like a year standing at the foot of the mountain, but when she came back alone holding the little mushroom, I went wild with joy.

I thought that even if Li Jin Feng wanted to steal from me, I definitely wouldn't let go.

Because I worked so hard to find her again and worked so hard to stand by her side, how could I be willing to miss someone this important!

In that instant, she softly said something by my ears.

Those words felt better than sweet words and calmed my heart.

She said that she had never loved Li Jin Feng.

She said that the person who loved him no longer existed.

I hugged her, tightly holding her. In that instant, I was completely determined.

She would always only belong to me.

There was no one that could ever take her from my side.

A certain year in the future, I saw Li Jin Feng on a trip to the mortal world. I calculated his disaster, but I never thought that he would turn his love disaster into her image.

Actually, seeing that image that was formed, a trace of discomfort filled my heart.

It was like even if it was the same image, I wasn't willing to share with anyone.

But when I tightly held her hand, all the frustration in my heart scattered.

Li Jin Feng and I were both dedicated people.....

But the approach we used were different——

His dedication to his past life surpassed love and hatred. As he kept persevering, he even forgot what his heart really was.

As for me.....

The thing I loved was Luo Qing Chen, the person I loved was Luo Qing Chen, my obsession was also Luo Qing Chen.

A single thought messed up by cherry blossoms. A single look, who did destiny meet.

If we could meet in another life, even if it met being lost for a hundred years or a thousand years, I was still willing.

Chapter 347: Little theater side story

System: What does Glazed Tile like the most?

Glazed Tile: Love climax reversal!

System:Glazed Glass who loves reversing love, aren't you afraid of being beaten?

Glazed Tile: Don't hit Glazed Tile.....Reversing unwanted love is normal!

System:

[Please ignore the above words without any nutritional value, next let's enter the feeding little fairies dog food ten question interview! Now let's let our sir Bai Ci give everyone some opening words!]

"....."

["Alright, sir Bai Ci is rather cold, this system forgot! Then let's start! The first question: As the only Destiny Master of the Heaven Falling Continent, what is the thing you regret the most?"]

"Letting her take the chance to read the ancient sacrificial spell a hundred years ago."

["Ah? You also know this spell?"]

"No, but I know other spells....."

["Oh."] The system responded in an indifferent voice.

["Second question: Can you briefly comment on Yan Ruo Yao?"]

"Stepping stone for the three bolts of heavenly disaster."

["Pu, this system really submits to you!"]

"....."

["Third question: Who is the person you hate most in this world?"]

"None."

["Why?"] Sir Bai Ci actually didn't hate anything, this was simply unbelievable!

"Because the person they loved loved me, it should be them who hate me."

["This sounds quite reasonable!"]

"Yes!"

["Fourth question: If you could go back in time, when would you want to meet her?"]

"Past world because I felt that this life was too short, I wasn't willing to let her go."

["Alright, this system doesn't want to eat this dog food!"]

"Alright."

["Fifth question: Were you afraid in the Unbounded Land?"] Even the system was very afraid of that place.

“No. I was thinking about when Yan Ruo Yao would use the Red Lotus Orb. The moment she used it, my heart was filled with incomparable excitement and I almost shouted out, but it was a pity that I didn’t have the strength.”

[“This system bows in admiration to sir Bai Ci’s mind!”]

[“Sixth question: At the spirit spell conference, were you worried about her?”]

“No. I was by her side, she wouldn’t be hurt. If Yan Ruo Yao had hurt her, I would have ignored everyone and joined the battle!”

[“Ah! So handsome, it’s a pity the system didn’t get to see!”]

[“Seventh question: Do you think the little mushroom is cute?”]

“As for this light bulb that stayed with us for so many years, it was a good thing Shao Qing also came. Otherwise, you should have expected a bowl of mushroom soup to appear on the dinner table one day.”

[.....] The system trembled, it was a bit scary.

[“Eighth question: When did you feel that you really fell in love with her?”]

“Wu——”

After a long time, only then did Mo Bai Ci answer.

“It should be the day of the Ice Soul Jade matter! I found that there was an unknown throb in the depths of my heart. I wouldn’t allow anyone to wrong her, bully her, and I didn’t want Li Jin Feng to approach her.”

[“Ninth question: What do you fear the most in this world?”]

“She didn’t love me.”

[.....] Finishing this bowl of dog food!

[“Tenth question: Say something you want her to hear! It can be considered the final confession of the cold Destiny Master!”]

“I’m willing to accompany you from our youth to our old age. If you leave first, I will accompany you on the path of reincarnation.”

[.....Alright, this really is like Mo Bai Ci!]

[Ding, congratulations on bringing a soul fragment into the Lead God Space. 7/100]

Chapter 348: Mister’s childhood lover (Part 1)

When she opened her eyes, she was back in the Chaos Space

There was still Mo Bai Ci’s voice ringing in her ears, the cold voice that warmed her for all those years.

[Does the host want to see what happened in the world after you died? Yes/No.]

“Alright, show me.”

There was no reason, she just suddenly missed him a bit.....

Thinking of the youth that took three bolts of heavenly thunder for her, what would he do after she left?

The bronze mirror was surrounded in white smoke before the screen gradually cleared up.

The white clothed youth tightly held her in his embrace, as faint tears appeared in the corner of his eyes.

He looked down and said something unknown in her ears.

After saying this, he was covered in a light blue glow that became stronger and stronger.

Finally——

He turned into azure smoke and disappeared.

This scene lasted for less than thirty seconds, which meant that——

After she died, Mo Bai Ci only allowed himself to live for thirty seconds before following her.

What kind of obsession could make this kind of Mo Bai Ci.....

“Close it.” Luo Qing Chen took a deep breath as her sparkling eyes misted over.

In the end, she had left him behind.....

Her mood suddenly fell and she wanted to buy something!

“System, I didn’t spend any exchange points this time, I want to buy things!”

[Host, please speak!] The host with exchange points was willful!

“I need two teddy bears! Give me a small garden, one filled with flowers! I also want a large bathtub to take baths in! Two soft sofas and a bookshelf!”

[Ding, eight hundred exchange points have been deducted. Does the host need anything else?]

Just this for now!

After that, the Chaos Space suddenly warmed up, just like a cozy little room.

“I’m prepared.”

Parting for a better reunion and I don’t want you to wait too long.....

No matter which one of you I meet.....

[Importing memories, please review!]

Chapter 349: Mister’s childhood lover (Part 2)

This was a story of childhood lovers, having loved each other for a long time, or even having a deep love that made them forget themselves.

The previous host and the male lead had been neighbours since birth, they were definitely a pair of childhood lovers!

Whether it was eating or sleeping, they loved playing together since they were young.

These kinds of innocent days lasted until sixth grade.

There was a change with these ‘childhood lovers’ as the previous host moved.

Although they were still in the same city, this small change in schools meant it was completely different.

For their three years of middle school, they didn’t have any contact at all.

Until they met again at S City’s focused high school again.

Ye Zhi Jin was no longer the starry eyed doll from their youth, rather he had grown into an elegant and handsome youth.

On the day of their freshmen ceremony, he became the focus of the entire school.

There was also another person that everyone paid attention to, the supporting male lead, Gu Qing Nuo.

It’s said that these two held the love of over 80% of the girls in their middle school, they were definitely school hunk level characters.

Of course they had two people who were said to be a perfect coupling to them: Cheng Qian Zi and Qiao Meng Tian.

The previous host never thought that she would be in the same class as these two popular people and she would have them in the same row right behind her.

Those days made the previous host someone who was envied by many female students.

The previous host thought that her childhood friend Ye Zhi Jin would talk to her first, but she never thought that the person who patted her shoulder first was Gu Qing Nuo.

She didn't even forget it on the day she died. When she turned around, light shined in from the window onto Gu Qing Nuo's face, how beautiful that looked.

If it was said to be love at first sight, it couldn't even compare.

The beginning was beautiful, but the ending was very tragic.

In the memory of the previous host, Ye Zhi Jin was always someone who had been silent.

He wasn't cold and proud, but he wasn't open either.

Only on a certain day when she died ten years later, she learned before death that there had been someone who had been silently guarding her.

Not asking for an ending or a future, never giving up and always maintaining his silence.

But ten years ago, the previous host's love had been given to someone else.

A youth called Gu Qing Nuo.

She never thought that this youth would take the initiative to confess to her.

In a single night, she became a popular topic.

The previous host's personality was rather shy and she didn't like standing on a pedestal, becoming the center of everyone's criticisms.

The supporting female lead Cheng Qian Zi was Gu Qing Nuo's childhood friend and had loved him since they were young, so naturally she couldn't accept that Gu Qing Nuo liked someone else.

She used all her methods to destroy the previous host's university exam ticket and changed the previous host's form.

It was all so that the previous host couldn't go to the same university as Gu Qing Nuo.

In the end, Cheng Qian Zi succeeded, succeeded in everything.

When they were separated, Gu Qing Nuo still came to find the previous host once a month. Then it became three months, half a year, and then a year.....

Long distance relationships made people lost and unable to find a direction.

Separation was the best way to break love.

But Gu Qing Nuo made the biggest mistake.

Putting a foot in both boats.....

This went on for ten years since their first day of university.

Only on the day Gu Qing Nuo and Cheng Qian Zi got married did the previous host learn everything.

She had saved up money to give to Gu Qing Nuo and he had used all that money to give gifts to Cheng Qian Zi to make her happy.

The reason why Gu Qing Nuo always only spared her a few glances wasn't because he was busy, rather because he had someone else to be with.

The only reason he didn't break up was because he wasn't willing to give up the money she gave him each month.....

So the one who sent her a birthday card and flowers each day on her birthday was not Gu Qing Nuo.

It was someone who had silently guarded by her side, the boy she had met first.

In the end, the previous host was accidentally hit by the display at their wedding ceremony and couldn't be saved.

As she died, she kept thinking about one thing.

If there was a parallel version of this world, would their ending have been different?

Then, bring on a parallel version!

Chapter 350: Mister's childhood lover (Part 3)

When she opened her eyes, she was holding the admission slip for Dream One High School. She was wearing a blue and white uniform with hair that ran to her shoulder, looking very clean.

There was a rich tree fragrance in the air and taking a deep breath, she could feel that it was spring.

School life was always clean and beautiful, everything was filled with beginnings, permeated with the smell of innocent love.

"Qing Chen, congratulations on us spending three more years together." Bei Xiao Shi came up from behind her, patting her on the shoulder as she revealed a bright smile.

Luo Qing Chen quickly searched her mind for this girl.

She was the previous host's best friend with a big personality, but was a rather cute girl.

"Un." She pursed her lips into a smile as she said, "I just wonder if we can be in the same class!"

According to the memories of the previous host, Bei Xiao Shi wasn't in the same class as her!

But——

Didn't the system often say it? The world had already changed from the moment the host appeared, so everything is possible in the future.

[If you want Bei Xiao Shi to be in the same class, it requires 500 exchange points.]

??? Extortion!

[The host can choose, will you exchange or not!]

Exchange!

She already wasn't the Luo Qing Chen who couldn't even exchange for a mace, alright?

Luo Qing Chen did this because she was thinking about the previous host's past high school life.

Her table had always been empty, she was especially alone.....

Without knowing why, although the consciousness was hers, she wanted this body to feel the warmth of a friend.

Standing at the gates of Dream One High School and looking at the class list, Luo Qing Chen's lips curled into a faint smile.

Everything was starting over again!

This spring like plane was just officially beginning!

As a first year high school student, the first experience would naturally be the welcoming ceremony.

The freshmen representative was Gu Qing Nuo with his refreshing smile that was like the sun.

He stood on the stage reading his speech, becoming the center of attention for everyone.

With his white clothes under the sun, he looked incredibly handsome.

This was Gu Qing Nuo, the first person that everyone paid attention to. The recognized school hunk of Dream One High School.

That's right, there was another school hunk.

That was mister childhood friend who grew up in the same pair of pants as the previous host, Ye Zhi Jin.

His edge was very different from Gu Qing Nuo, he was a very silent boy.

At the night of the orientation, he played a City Night on the stage and became known as the same as Gu Qing Nuo, one of the school hunks of Dream One High School.

Luo Qing Chen never forgot that night. Ye Zhi Jin's slender fingers kept dancing on the piano keys, as the beautiful 'ding dong ding dong' sounds hit her ears.

His face had the rebellious look of a youth and his deep eyes were like ink that wouldn't dissolve, looking that good.

"Ah, ah, ah, Ye Zhi Jin is so handsome!"

"He really is like a prince, ze, ze! I really envy his future princess....."

"Damn, you wouldn't be talking about me, right!"

"Please look at yourself in some sunglasses, alright? Could it be that you don't know he already has quite a good coupling for him in middle school? What was she called.....Qiao Meng Tian, right! It was Qiao Meng Tian!"

"Is that true!"

“It is! I’ve heard that the two school hunks didn’t get put in the same class as their coupling. Aiya, we of the seventh class might have a chance!”

“Yay!”

.....

Luo Qing Chen heard the gossip around her and her lips curled slightly.

Bei Xiao Shi excitedly tapped her shoulder and said, “Our classmate Luo Qing Chen seems quite calm!”

“Our classmate Bei Xiao Shi also doesn’t seem excited!”

“You know that I’m not a fan girl, I’m not interested in handsome guys!” She shoved potato chips into her mouth while saying, “I’m only interested in eating.”
