

R. Paradise 29

Chapter 29

In the reincarnation paradise, Su Xiao spent most of his time in the [trial field] and the exclusive space.

He did not summon the image of koshiro, but chose the actual combat mode and exercised his combat skills.

Although there were several 'failures' during the period, Su Xiao still gained a lot.

The three-day period ended, and Su Xiao received the reminder of the reincarnation paradise.

[The hunter is about to return to the real world, please, remember the reincarnation paradise regulations.]

[don't reveal anything about in the reincarnation paradise in the real world, and if this warning was ignored, reincarnation paradise would execute the hunter.]

[The hunter cannot use the ability gained from the reincarnation paradise, except for personal attributes and passive skills.]

[Most of the equipment or items obtained in the reincarnation paradise cannot be taken out in the real world, it will be locked, and restored after returning to the reincarnation.]

[Transmission begins, location: the real world.]

The familiar sense of transmission appeared, when Su Xiao regained consciousness, he was already lying in a cold cabinet.

The temperature inside the cabinet was very low, and it somewhat narrow. Su Xiao's face turned black. There was only one possibility to where he was.

One foot hit the door of the cabinet. With his current strength, he directly deformed the door and flew outward.

Su Xiao's foot not only flew the cabinet door but also made him fly together with it.

The cabinet he stayed was like a long metal drawer.

"Danlan."

The cabinet fell to the ground and made a loud noise in the quiet room.

Su Xiao looked at the room he stayed. The white light shined the room seemed cold, and his guess was correct. This was the morgue and the place where the bodies were stored.

He was shot in the past, and the body was deposited here. He entered the reincarnation paradise after they assumed he was dead. The reincarnation paradise locked his vitality. So he was not actually dead.

The loud noise came from the morgue attracted other people's attention.

In the hospital duty room, a nurse in the internship period was shocked by this loud noise.

The nurse wore a white coat heard the voice came from the morgue in the lower layer, but her colleague on duty with her went out to buy the night snack. There was only her who stayed on the first floor of the hospital in the midnight, other people already went home, and she did not dare to go out.

“No~, it won't be a ghost, don't think about it, the teacher had said that there was no ghost or god in the world, no, no, wooo~.”

The nurse named Yi Ruo was a nurse who had been an intern for two months.

The slender figure and the white cheeks made Yi Ruo look a little delicate, but the delicate face made people want to protect her, after wearing a nurse's uniform, she had a different kind of charm.

“Don.”

Another loud noise came from the morgue. Yi Ruo screamed, and the pink hot water cup in her hand fell to the ground and broke.

This loud noise was when Su Xiao violently broke the door of the morgue.

He walked in the narrow corridor, and the rooms on both sides were marked with various departments. The pungent smell of disinfectant water made Su Xiao judge that this was a hospital which was in the city he stayed in.

Su Xiao had been here once, so he had some impressions of this small public hospital.

He was not in a hurry to leave here, the sword that his family passed need to be found first.

Everything can be lost, but the sword can't.

Su Xiao was looking for the staff in the hospital. He did not have any clues about the sword.

Soon, Su Xiao came to the front of a duty room, the lights inside were lit up, and a beautiful nurse was staring at him.

Su Xiao pushed the door into the duty room. Before he spoke, the nurse sitting in the chair turned her eyes up, then fainted and slipped from the chair to the ground.

Su Xiao looked at the nurse who fell to the ground, stepped forward and smashed the person's philtrum.

The nurse woke up, but after seeing Su Xiao, her eyes were full of fear, and she subconsciously wanted to scream.

Su Xiao immediately caught the nose and mouth of the nurse, after the palm of his hand touched the cheek of the little nurse, and the soft feeling came.

“No sound or I will kill you.”

Soon after Su Xiao just left the world, he had a very murderous aura around him.

The nurse nodded quickly and looked at Su Xiao with tears. She looked very pitiful.

“Which police station sent me here?”

The previous reaction of the little nurse made Su Xiao guesses that the person may have seen him, that's why she acted like that now.

“Oh, oh~,”

The nurse pointed at Su Xiao's hand and indicated that she could not speak, Su Xiao loosened his grip.

“Hoo, hoo ~.”She first breathed heavily.

“You, aren't you dead? It doesn't matter to me, don't come close to me.” The nurse talked while her body trembled, her body was soft, and the tears swirled in her eyes.

Su Xiao was still looking at the nurse coldly.

“Answer my question.”

Su Xiao's cold voice made the little nurse shake.

“Yes, it is the branch of Dongcheng who sent you here.”

After receiving a clear answer, Su Xiao immediately got up and left, rushed to the Dongcheng branch, he was born in this second-tier city, of course, he knew where the Dongchen branch is.

He stopped a taxi on the street at midnight, Su Xiao went straight to the Dongcheng branch.

Ten minutes later, Su Xiao arrived at the front of the Dongcheng branch.

He will not enter the Dongcheng branch from the main entrance. Now he was supposed to be a criminal with a murder case on him.

Su Xiao's sneaked into the evidence room of Dongcheng Branch after a half hour.

The more he looked through the evidence room, the uglier his face was. His sword was not here.

Su Xiao had begun to get impatient. The longer time he spent, the lower the opportunity of him finding his sword. He went straight out of the evidence room, and he started to look for the police in the police station.

It sounded crazy, but as his current strength, he didn't care about the police here.

Soon, a young policeman sitting at his desk and on duty was stared at by Su Xiao.

Su Xiao gradually approached the policeman from behind. After being close, he suddenly violently pulled the policeman's neck with his left arm and the left hand with his right hand, forming a guillotine in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu.

This trick could be described as extremely fierce, it will completely block the brain blood supply, if the power is enough, it will only take two to three seconds to make people faint, less than ten seconds can die.

The young police did not even have a chance to shout out, and the body was directly softened.

Su Xiao started taking out a young policeman and left the police station from the original road. The police station at midnight, he could easily go in and out.

In the dark alleys, the young policemen gradually woke up.

“If you don’t want to die, honestly answer my question.”

“Who are you, I am...”

The young policeman hadn’t finished talking yet, Su Xiao has punched his chest.

The painful mourning came, and the young policeman sat down on the ground.

“Where is my sword?”

The young policeman looked at Su Xiao with a puzzled, and his face was full of pain. Su Xiao’s punch gave the young policeman a felt like being hit by a train.

“What sword, who are you?”

“Su Xiao.”

Su Xiao stood in the dark alley and said the real name without any disguise.

When the matter reached the present level, there was no need to cover it. He could be sure that tomorrow he will be ‘upgraded with pleasure’ as a wanted criminal.

“It’s you, your sword was taken away by the people in the police department.”

The tone of the young policeman was flat, and there was no abnormality.

“Lie.”

Su Xiao grabbed a hand of the young policeman, kaba, kaba, after a burst of crisp sounds, a scream like a pig’s being slaughtered emerged from the alley.

“This time the five fingers, the next time is your neck. After you die, I will go to other police officers and ask, there is more than one policeman in the police station.

Think about your family. Is this kind of persistence really worth it? After you die, your beautiful wife will be played by a strange man, others will sleep with your wife, and hit your child...”

The young policeman’s face was distorted, his eyes seemed to be full of anger, and it seemed that he was married.

“Your sword was taken away by our director, and it doesn’t matter to me.”

“Good, take me to your director!”
