

R. Paradise 551

Chapter 551: Kai

Inside the cave.

Apart from Bobowang and Hidan exchanging glances, the cave was deathly silent.

After the two teasing men exchanged glances, they had already started to play with the rock and scissors. Whoever lost would have to slap themselves.

From Hidan's angry eyes, it could be seen that this group of people had already slapped him several times.

Bobowang had a proud look on his face. God knew how its dog claws made such a gesture of scissors. Perhaps Hidan also could not figure it out, so he made two consecutive rolls.

The corner of Ghost Shark's mouth was twitching violently. This man and dog attracted Deidara. It seemed that he also wanted to join them. It was indeed too boring to stand there foolishly.

Heavenly Dao had already kicked Hidan three times. Hidan pretended not to see it and played happily with Bobowang. Xiao Nan had a helpless expression.

Kakuzu glanced at Hidan and turned his head. He seemed to feel that it was a little embarrassing to team up with this teammate who had a dog played. The meaning in his green eyes was clearly expressed in a modern language: Hidan, you are too embarrassing. Leave the group.

"Did you cheat?"

Hidan finally couldn't help but open his mouth after being slapped several times. Bobowang gave him a look of contempt.

"Shut up."

Heavenly Dao opened his mouth, and Hidan shut up resentfully.

Su Xiao felt that the style of the painting seemed to be a bit wrong. The reason was that Bobowang joined in.

With this man and dog who played the treasure, the cave was not too boring. Heavenly Dao did not say anything more.

After two days and two nights like this, on the third day, everyone in the cave began to feel sore in the waist and back. Su Xiao was already sitting on the giant finger. Anyway, he was buying soy sauce. The ring on his hand was the key.

Tossing a hamburger to Deidara, Su Xiao took out a barbecue stick to satisfy his hunger.

"I'll go and eat something too."

Ghost shark said. The words under his feet dimmed a little.

"Wait."

Zetsu suddenly spoke. In these three days, Zetsu rarely spoke.

"What?"

Heavenly Dao opened his eyes and subconsciously glanced at Bobowang. Bobowang had already fallen asleep and was drooling. 45 points of charm attribute was not a decoration. It would be driven out of the cave if not for Bobowang's unique charm, even with Su Xiao's relationship.

"Enemies are chasing the State of Chuan."

The State of Chuan that Zetsu spoke of was the State of River, but its name was different. Three hundred years ago, the State of River was called the State of River.

"Quantity."

Heavenly Dao was not surprised. He had sealed a tail in the State of River and was ready to face the pursuit of the Sand Village.

The Country of River was between the Country of Fire and Wind. Above was the Country of Rain, and below was the vast ocean.

Sealing One Tail can not go to the Rain Country to seal it. That is the nest, and the Fire Country can not. That is the territory of Konoha, and the Wind Country is even more impossible. They are too arrogant, so they can only choose the Land of the River.

"One, two..."

Zetsu closed his eyes and felt for a while, then said:

"There are four people in total. If the information is correct, this is a special team. The leader is called Mike Kai, Konoha Ninja."

"Who is he?"

It was obvious that Heavenly Dao had never heard of this person. Since the enemy was from Konoha, he naturally looked at Itachi.

"Konoha's superior Ninja is good at physical skills and is very strong. It's best not to underestimate him."

"Hey, it's that precious beast."

Ghost Shark opened his mouth. He had fought with Kai before.

No one spoke again. This was waiting for the Heavenly Dao's order.

"Using that technique, although it is still in the experimental stage, the effect is already good."

Heavenly Dao meant that he would not use his main body and a special method to meet the enemy.

"I'll go."

Hidan said. He was full of anger.

"Let me go. I have a personal grudge with that guy."

Ghost Shark said.

[That spell consumes a lot of Chakra. Ghost Mermaid is more suitable. Even so, it will consume 30 Chakra. ]

"..."

The Ghost Shark of the Heavenly Dao went to meet the enemy, and the cave quieted down.

But in less than ten minutes, Zetsu opened his eyes again.

"Another batch came. They are still from Konoha."

Zetsu looked at Deidara.

"Where did you catch the tail, Konoha?"

"The Sand Village, how can the tail go to Konoha?"

Deidara was also a bit speechless. Who would have thought that the one they caught in the Sand Village was all Konoha Ninjas?

"This is very normal. The Sand Village sent many people to chase after them, and in the end, they suffered heavy casualties."

It seemed like Scorpion had killed a lot of Sand Ninjas, or else he wouldn't have said that.

"Deidara, Byakuya, the sound of catching the Bijū was too great, especially Deidara. Before retreating, you threw a bomb in the Sand Village."

Heavenly Dao seemed to be a little dissatisfied with the continuous pursuit of enemies.

"This time, Jinchūriki is a little strong."

Deidara looked a little displeased.

"That's why I told you initially that your ability is not suitable for sneak attacks. If not for White Night protecting you when clearing the sentry posts, you would have revealed it."

Scorpion seemed to be somewhat dissatisfied with Deidara's action of throwing a bomb before he left.

--Ha ---Speaking of which, Brother Scorpion's mechanism is quite exaggerated.

Deidara was not a soft persimmon. He immediately mocked back when he heard Scorpion's mocking tone just now.

"What did you say."

"Huh?"

Scorpion and Deidara looked at each other.

"Don't have internal strife!"

Heavenly Dao shouted. This was only Dawn's daily life, and everyone else had the same expression.

"Who's going this time?"

Heavenly Dao said as he looked around.

"I'll go."

Hidan said. He was going to kill time and relieve his depression.

A pair of blood-red eyes looked at Hidan. Hidan was a little confused.

"This time, it will still be the Konoha Ninja. I'll go."

Itachi opened his mouth, but Hidan snorted and did not speak again.

"Then it's decided."

Heavenly Dao was sent to block Konoha's second team of pursuers.

"Itachi, your team is diligent."

Su Xiao opened his mouth. The Weasel team took the task of blocking the two groups of pursuers. It was normal for the ghost shark to go, but it would be believed if Itachi attacked without the cat or ghost. Itachi's body was getting worse and worse, and his eyes would not be easily used.

"It's just my duty. I know the Konoha Ninja better."

As he spoke, Itachi formed a seal with his hands, and his consciousness entered a temporary body.

Su Xiao smiled and did not speak anymore. Itachi's body might not be able to hold on anymore, so he did not hide his purpose anymore.

Itachi and Ghost Shark went to meet the enemy, and the cave was quiet again.

An hour later, Ghost Shark was the first to regain consciousness.

"Defeated?"

Ghost shark -- defeat was a matter of course, using that kind of body to fight. It was already good to use 50 of the original body's strength.

"Lost, if it is the original body..."

The ghost shark -- seemed to be a little unhappy. After all, he lost twice to the same person, although he just wanted to delay time this time.

Su Xiao looked at Ghost shark -- that gaze meant that if the original body was against Kai, you might have died.

If Mike Kai opened the eight doors, he would be out of line with the strong people of this period. Kicking Payne away was not an exaggeration, although he would die later.

There was no doubt that Mike Kai was very strong. Su Xiao did not want to fight with the guy who would burst anytime. Not to mention the other party opened the eight doors. It was unknown whether he could survive after opening the seven doors. However, considering that Su Xiao was very good at restraining the close combat like Kai, even if Kai kicked Su Xiao to death, he would not feel good. It was inevitable that he would break his arms and legs.

Mike Kai was the real strong person in the world of ninja. Others were strong by blood or family secret arts, but Kai was different. He had no blood, no secret arts, and even did not know ninjutsu. However, he began to practice hard when he was a teenager and did not stop until today.

In the early stage, Kai did not receive much attention until he almost kicked out the big ending after opening the eight doors.

Chapter 552: Goodbye, Mate

The pursuers closed in, and the seal continued.

On the morning of the fourth day, after three days of seals, the seal entered the final stage.

"The enemy is here, very close."

Zetsu sensed that the enemy had already entered five kilometers.

"How do we deal with those annoying flies?"

Ghost shark seemed to want to get close, and his body was not far from the Kingdom of River.

"Don't worry about it. We still have a layer of insurance. If that layer of insurance fails, Byakuya, Deidara, Scorpion, you three block it."

Su Xiao and the other two were in the cave; the others were all virtual shadows.

"Sure."

The seal continued, and it was different from what he expected. In the final stage, the Gedo Statue became active, and the speed of the seal increased a lot.

When the last strand of red chakra floated out from Gaara's body, the Gedo Statue closed its mouth, and Gaara, floating in the air, fell to the ground.

With a plop, Gaara fell to the ground, and the armor of sand on his body was completely broken and stripped off. The aura of life disappeared from Gaara's body.

The fifth-generation Wind Shadow, Gaara, died after the Bijū was stripped.

"It's over."

Heavenly Dao breathed a sigh of relief in his heart. This time, the seal was a bit dangerous, and the pursuing troops of Konoha's Sand were already outside the cave.

"Damn it. My shoulders are sore."

"I'm so tired. I have to repeat it a few times. It's a headache."

The members of the Akatsuki organization looked relaxed. The seal was completed.

"Thank you, everyone."

Boom!

Just as Heavenly Dao spoke, a muffled sound came from the rock wall at the entrance of the cave.

"We have already entered like this. What is surprising is that there is a Jinchūriki in the pursuing force... Nine-Tailed?"

Tiandao looked at Su Xiao and the other two.

"I will leave the rest to you three. As for that, Jinchūriki... If there is a chance, capture him. If there is no chance, retreat. It is a little early to capture Nine-Tailed."

The phantom of Heavenly Dao disappeared. He said this purely to give face to Itachi, and the phantom of the other members also disappeared.

Bang.

The Outer Dao Demonic Statue turned into white smoke and disappeared.

"Hey, hey, you are too disloyal. The pursuers are already outside the door."

Deidara yawned. He hadn't rested much for the past three days.

"There's nothing we can do about it. Our main body is here."

Scorpion's tone was a little strange. It was hard to tell what exactly was wrong.

Boom, boom!

A loud noise came, and the people outside the cave tried to break the boulder at the cave's entrance by force.

The three people inside the cave did not change their expressions. This cave had the protection of the 'five sealing barriers'. The five sealing barriers were the same seals set up in five positions. Unless the five seals were broken simultaneously, they were connected. It was impossible to break one by force.

This was the seal set up by the long door, and these five barriers had another mystery, which could help Su Xiao and others hold the four enemies outside the cave.

At this time, Kakashi and others stood outside the cave. There were eight people in the team.

[Team: Kai, Neji, Tenten, Li. ]

[Team: Kakashi, Naruto, Haruno Sakura. ]

[Sand Ninja Team: Chiyo. ]

[It's funny that even though the Sand Village's Jinchuriki(Wind Shadow) is caught, Konoha has more ninjas than the Sand Village. ]

Outside the cave.

"That's what happened. If you want to break the five barriers, you need five people to destroy the five barriers at the same time, Neji."

Kakashi signaled Neji to observe with his eyes.

Neji made a series of hand seals.

"White-eyes."

The blood vessels on Neji's temples bulged, and his vision changed.

"Found it."

Neji said several positions. Kakashi hesitated for a moment and looked at Kai. Team Kai had just four people, and he could break the seal with his cooperation.

"Got it."

Team Kai started to move.

...

Inside the cave,

Su Xiao and the other two could vaguely hear the conversation outside.

"If you want to come in, come in quickly."

Although Deidara had not recovered from his injury, he was not afraid.

"Coming."

Boom!

Smoke and dust rose, gravel flew, and a pink-haired female ninja rushed into the cave with a fist posture, wearing black gloves on her hands.

"Not a bad way to appear, huh."

Deidara and Scorpion stood on the side of Gaara's body. Su Xiao sat on a big stone not far away, and Bobowang squatted beside his feet.

Four figures rushed into the cave. They were Kakashi, Chiyo, Naruto, and Xiao Ying.

As for Team Kai, they had already been held back by the seal set up by Nagato and could not participate in the battle for a short time.

The situation is looking at the cave after discovering Gaara's corpse. Kakashi's expression was not very good.

"I'm late."

Naruto stood rooted to the ground. He also saw Gaara's corpse.

An ominous aura spread, and Naruto's teeth began to turn sharp. His two pupils turned from sky blue to blood red.

"You bastards!"

Seeing Gaara's corpse, Naruto lost control of his emotions. There were already traces of him turning into a beast.

"Oh? It looks like it's this guy."

Deidara sat on Gaara's corpse. He looked at Naruto, who was not far away.

"Bastard, you get down for me."

Gaara's death had provoked Naruto. Now that someone was sitting on Gaara's corpse, it was easy to understand why Naruto was so angry.

Naruto and Gaara were both Jinchuriki and had a tragic childhood. Under the mutual understanding, it was natural for them to become close friends.

"It can't be wrong. This guy is Nine-tailed Jinchuriki. Like what Itachi said, the first person to come in and shout was Nine-tailed Jinchuriki. What a fitting description."

Scorpion did not speak. He just calmly looked at Chiyo. That was his biological grandmother.

Pa!

Deidara patted Gaara's face and looked at Naruto from the corner of his eyes.

"Give it back to me, you bastard."

Naruto stepped on the ground and rushed at Deidara at full speed.

"Deidara, don't anger Jinchuriki. It's hard to deal with the aftermath of the explosion."

Su Xiao got up and pulled out the dragon flash on his waist.

"Naruto, calm down. This is a trap!"

Kakashi stood in front of Naruto and stared at Su Xiao.

"The enemy wants you to get closer, just like that guy."

"Huh?"

Naruto was stunned, and the blood-red in his pupils receded a little.

"Deidara, you should cut off Jinchuriki's head directly, then Nine-tailed Jinchuriki will rush over."

Su Xiao felt a little pity. If Naruto dared to come forward just now, even if Kakashi was nearby, Naruto would leave some 'parts' even if he did not die.

"Deidara."

Scorpion, who had been silent all this time, spoke.

"Huh?"

"Leave that guy to me." Scorpion looked at Gaara under Deidara's butt and said, "Nine-tailed Jinchuriki seems to want this body very much."

"It seems to be the case."

Deidara looked at Naruto, a smile on his face.

"Brother Scorpion."

Scorpion looked at Deidara doubtfully.

"Although you might be very angry if I say this, leave the Nine-tailed Jinchuriki to me."

"Don't get carried away! You and Byakuya have already caught one. Byakuya, what do you say?"

"Don't look at me. The two of you can do whatever you want."

Su Xiao temporarily would not pay attention to Kyuubi because it was too dangerous. There were so many easy to catch. Why did he have to go against the strongest?

After a few words with Scorpion, the team was in an internal conflict. Deidara took Gaara's body and rushed out of the cave with a clay bird. Kakashi and Naruto immediately chased after him.

This time, only four people and a dog were left in the cave, namely Su Xiao, Scorpion, Chiyo, and Xiao Ying.

"Byakuya, I will deal with this."

Scorpion said.

"You don't need me to help you kill this?"

Su Xiao pointed his sword at Xiao Ying. He was the nemesis of physical skills ninjas like Xiao Ying.

"Thank you, but no need."

Scorpion meant to stay alone.

"Then forget it, Scorpion... Farewell."

Su Xiao walked out of the cave.

"Goodbye, you are much more reliable than Deidara. You are a good partner."

Chapter 553: Trade and Eye

Hearing Scorpion's words, Su Xiao only paused for a moment and continued to move forward.

When the three people had just arrived in the desert, Su Xiao and Deidara noticed that Scorpion was a bit wrong, and when Scorpion saw Chiyo, the feeling was even stronger.

Su Xiao was sure that Scorpion would die in this cave, although Chiyo and Xiao Ying were far from being Scorpion's opponents.

To be exact, Scorpion had died long ago, and the current Scorpion only survived with its consciousness.

In the few days of living with the scorpion, Su Xiao found that the scorpion did not need sleep, did not need to drink water and replenish food, only occasionally adding a special liquid in the 'core'.

The scorpion did not feel pain, had no senses, and even lost some feelings. In his opinion, the body was just a puppet that could be made at any time.

Su Xiao walked slowly out of the cave. He did not choose to stay and fight for the scorpion, although they were teammates.

Everyone had different choices. The scorpion might be tired, and rashly interfering with other people's choices was an extremely selfish and arrogant performance.

"Stop!"

Xiao Ying blocked Su Xiao's way. It seemed that she was not ready to let Su Xiao leave easily.

"Xiao Ying."

Chiyo pulled Xiao Ying, indicating that she should not stop Su Xiao from leaving. A scorpion was difficult enough to deal with.

"This time... Consider yourselves lucky."

Su Xiao walked out of the cave, and not long after, there was the sound of battle coming from the cave behind.

At this time, Team Kai was held back by the seal of Nagato, Kakashi, and Naruto went to chase after Deidara, Xiao Ying, and Chiyo were fighting with Scorpion, which meant that Su Xiao had no enemies.

After stretching, Su Xiao was not ready to help Deidara. The meaning of the Heavenly Dao was very obvious. He did not need to catch Kyuubi for the time being. He did not need to join in the fun.

Taking Bobowang into a forest, Su Xiao looked around.

"How is it going?"

Su Xiao seemed to be talking to the air, but it was not the case.

A plant that looked like pig cage grass was born from a tree trunk, and the black and white Zetsu was in the pig cage grass.

"I have found it. Where is the reward that was mentioned in advance?"

Black Zetsu spoke. The other half of White Zetsu's eyes were closed, and he seemed to have fallen into a dormant state.

Su Xiao took out a test tube in his arms. There was a misty liquid inside the test tube. It seemed to be blood, but this blood kept transforming between the liquid and the gaseous state.

This was the blood of Shukaku. Su Xiao had collected it before.

Su Xiao threw the test tube to Black Zetsu. Black Zetsu took it and checked it. After confirming that there was no mistake, he nodded.

"Although I don't know how you did it, I can give you the information. The kind of people you asked me to find has 397 people. Three of them meet your requirements. One is in the country of fire, one is in the Mist Village, and one is in the Sand Village."

The pig cage grass that Black Zetsu was in slowly shrank back into the trunk.

"By the way, don't say that I have been here. We are secretly cooperating."

Black Zetsu left this sentence and disappeared.

"Mist Village, Sand Village..."

Su Xiao looked at this color. He had been to both places. The person he was looking for would not be there. Otherwise, the hunting function would have been activated long ago.

"Then only the Fire Country is left. Hey, where is the specific location?"

"The border of the country of fire, near the bridge of heaven and earth."

Black Zetsu left this sentence and disappeared completely.

"The bridge of heaven and earth? This guy is very good at choosing places. He should be eyeing Orochimaru's lab."

If Su Xiao did not guess wrong, shortly, Uchiha Sasuke would 'destroy' Orochimaru, and then Orochimaru's lab would be opened.

The person Su Xiao was looking for was the 1000 1st offender. Because the Naruto world was too big, Su Xiao could only rely on the power of the plot characters.

Now that there were clues, Su Xiao was ready to rush to the vicinity.

The system of the Akatsuki organization was very loose. When there was no mission, it would not restrict members' freedom. This could be seen in the two undead running around the world.

Su Xiao and Bobowang were not in a hurry and hurried to travel. There was more than a month before the time limit of the main mission, and there was enough time.

A clay bird quickly passed through the sky. Su Xiao looked up. Wasn't that Deidara?

"This guy is leisurely, huh."

Deidara looked at Su Xiao below and did not say anything. Without thinking, he knew that Deidara was deliberately passing by.

Deidara controlled the clay bird to fly far away. A moment later, two figures emerged from the forest. They were Naruto and Kakashi, who already had traces of animalization.

Naruto's only thought was to snatch Gaara's corpse from Deidara while Kakashi protected Naruto.

Naruto was Jinchuriki, after all, and coupled with the conversation between Deidara and Scorpion, Kakashi became alert.

Pa! Pa!

Wood chips flew everywhere, and after Naruto crushed a tree trunk, he charged toward Deidara like a cannonball.

Kakashi looked at Su Xiao below. Looking at the route, it did not seem like he would fight with Su Xiao.

"Deidara, this guy."

Su Xiao held the sheath of the dragon flash, and the dragon flash was instantly unsheathed.

Zheng.

The sword light flew out, cut off a large branch and flew to Kakashi. Kakashi's rushing figure stopped, and he dodged the sword light sideways in midair.

The sword light disappeared in the sky, Naruto chased Deidara far away, and Kakashi's face was ugly.

Su Xiao waved a blade flower and looked at Kakashi, who was not far away, with a smile.

"Let you go like this, and then I won't have to wear these clothes in the future."

It was nothing if Su Xiao did not go to help Deidara and Scorpion, but it was hard to let the enemy pass by in front of him. It had to be known that Zetsu was still monitoring.

Black Zetsu might not let the wind leak, but it was not necessarily the case with the broken mouth of Zetsu.

Kakashi had no idea how to fight with Su Xiao at all. He had a secret mission, which was to protect Naruto.

Stepping on the ground, Kakashi was ready to chase Naruto, but he stopped just a few steps forward, and the three-hook jade-blood eyes were tightened to the extreme.

A sharp thread not easy to detect appeared in front of the tip of Kakashi's nose. If he continued to rush forward, his head would be cut off.

At this time, Kakashi could no longer feel Naruto's breath, and Naruto had already run away.

"Oh no."

Kakashi's face was even uglier, and he looked at Su Xiao coldly.

Kakashi showed concern for his subordinates in the original work, but now he was facing an enemy, and Su Xiao was his enemy.

"It seems that I can't get rid of you."

Kakashi faced Su Xiao.

"This eye of yours is good."

Su Xiao was unsure if directly seizing the blood eye could bring them into the reincarnation paradise, but there was the value of trying. Even if he could not bring into the reincarnation paradise, someone in the Akatsuki organization must be willing to pay a great price to get this eye.

"Shadow Clone Technique."

Bang, bang, the smoke rose, and Kakashi became three people, three of the same Kakashi.

Su Xiao carefully perceived the three Kakashi, and he did not notice which was the original body, and the three Kakashi had Chakra flowing in their bodies.

The three Kakashi rushed to Su Xiao simultaneously, and one of them, Kakashi, shouted.

"Thousand birds."

Zizi Zizi ---

The lightning wrapped one of Kakashi's hands, and the sound seemed to be thousands of birds chirping.

According to common sense, Kakashi, who used a Thousand Birds, should be the real body, but was it that simple? Would Kakashi expose himself so easily?

"Earth Escape - Heart Beheading Technique."

Two hands reached out from the ground under Su Xiao's feet, trying to grab Su Xiao's feet.

Chapter 554: 3 Seconds

Both of his hands grabbed Su Xiao's feet and dragged him down.

Dragon flash rotated in Su Xiao's hand, changed from holding a knife to holding a knife with a backhand, and stabbed into the soil under his feet.

Bang.

White smoke rose, and Su Xiao stabbed a shadow clone in the soil.

At this time, three Kakashi had already rushed to Su Xiao.

"Chidori."

The palm wrapped in thunder and lightning stabbed at Su Xiao's chest. He even felt the pain of thunder and lightning brushing across his cheek.

"Ring broken."

Clang!

A round saber light spread out. Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! The three surrounding Kakashi turned into white smoke. These were all shadow clones.

The rings spread out, and the thick trees were cut off one by one. The cut was as smooth as a mirror.

Bang! Bang!

The trees fell one by one, startling the birds in the forest.

Zi, zi, zi ---

An ear-piercing scream came from above, and Su Xiao's pupils contracted.

Kakashi's body was as above, and he had already used Zetsu's skill -- Thunder Cut. This improved version of the A-level ninjutsu - Thousand Birds. It was an S-level ninjutsu.

Kakashi's hand's blue and white electric arc rushed, and the somewhat glaring palm stabbed at the top of Su Xiao's head.

Crack!

Kakashi's palm stopped at a dozen centimeters above Su Xiao's head, and a light blue energy shield blocked the top of Su Xiao's head.

This energy shield was octagonal, with a diameter of about one meter. Su Xiao consumed 150 mana values.

Zizi Zizi ---

The Thunder Cut is intended to penetrate the energy shield. All the destructive power was concentrated on one point. The light blue lines on the surface of the energy shield became deeper. This was to spread the destructive power to the entire energy shield.

Crack.

Fine cracks appeared on the energy shield. If this continued, Kakashi could break the shield in ten seconds.

Su Xiao looked up at Kakashi, and a smile appeared. The energy shield was surprisingly useful.

Just when Kakashi exerted strength between his fingers and was ready to support the energy shield with his hand to retreat, his hand was empty, and Su Xiao had withdrawn the energy shield.

Kakashi's body lost balance in the air, and a long sword stabbed at Kakashi's neck.

Puchi.

Blood splashed, Su Xiao's sword pierced the lower part of Kakashi's shoulder, but it failed to pierce the throat.

The sword failed to succeed. Su Xiao changed from holding the sword with one hand to holding the sword with both hands. The dragon flash-cut into Kakashi's body and cut to the heart at a dissatisfied speed. He was ready to stab Kakashi with the 'shadow thorn', but the shadow thorn needed time to prepare.

The green steel shadow energy poured into Kakashi's body, and Kakashi almost fainted at this moment. The pain in his body was unforgettable.

With a cry, Kakashi spat out a large mouthful of blood. He was about to face Zetsu, but if Kakashi were so easy to kill, he would not have the name of copying the ninja.

"Thunder shield - thunder pass."

A lightning chain appeared in Kakashi's hand, and the chain wrapped around Su Xiao.

A sense of crisis appeared. Su Xiao stopped cutting Kakashi's body and kicked Kakashi in the abdomen.

Bang.

Kakashi, who was in mid-air, was kicked away. At the same time, Su Xiao stepped on the ground and jumped up, and the lightning chain crossed under his feet.

Puchi.

It was just a slight touch, and a deep wound appeared on Su Xiao's calf. If he were entangled by the lightning chain just now, he would die.

Kakashi rolled far away on the ground before stopping and standing up with some effort.

"Cough cough."

After coughing out a mouthful of blood, Kakashi was a little dizzy.

"This is... poison?"

After listening to Kakashi's words, Su Xiao was a little confused. He looked at the blade of dragon flash. There was indeed a purple mark on the blade.

This was the poison of the scorpion. Su Xiao did not deliberately poison it, and maybe it was accidentally wiped when he moved with the scorpion before. It had to be said that Kakashi's luck was not very good.

Su Xiao threw the blood on the flying knife. He wiped the poison on it. It was not his fighting style to poison the knife.

At least with his current sword skills, he would not poison the knife.

Although the scorpion poisoned Kakashi, it was only a slight amount. Other than some dizziness, there were no other symptoms, and this dizziness was gradually weakening.

Kakashi stood in the same place and gasped. He knew that he had made a mistake. He was too impatient to chase Naruto. He took the initiative to get close to the enemy and wanted to kill him in one blow.

Kakashi thought quickly: From the beginning of the battle, he only used a kind of steel wire and knife. The previous shield did not have any traces of seals. It was a type of blood limit. Moreover, from the intelligence given by Jiraya, he learned that the enemy had super long-range attack ability, but the mid-range attack was very few.

Kakashi began to analyze Su Xiao's intelligence. The strongest thing for ninjas was not Ninjutsu but combat intelligence. In just a few seconds, Kakashi deduced Su Xiao's strengths and weaknesses and thought of several ways to deal with Su Xiao.

Since the enemy is good at close combat, that move must be feasible!

Kakashi made a seal with both hands, and two more shadow clones appeared with a bang. Kakashi's original body stood in the same place, and Cara suddenly consumed a lot.

"Huh?"

Su Xiao's eyes slightly widened. He felt that Kakashi's chakra suddenly consumed a lot, and the blood wheel eye became different.

Looking at it carefully, Kakashi's blood eye was no longer the three tomoe but the windmill like Tunan.

"Mangekyo Sharingan."

Su Xiao was secretly vigilant, Kakashi's Mangekyo was not easy to deal with, and if he were not careful, he would be killed instantly.

The battle continued.

Kakashi's two shadow clones quickly rushed to Su Xiao and rushed to the front and back of Su Xiao. The two shadow clones almost simultaneously flew out a thousand birds.

The two palms of thunder and lightning rushed to Su Xiao. The muscles of Su Xiao's right arm slightly bulged, and the two shadow clones burst into white smoke simultaneously.

White smoke filled the air.

"It's coming."

Su Xiao guessed that Kakashi wanted to use the white smoke after the shadow disappeared to attack him.

Just as Su Xiao was ready to move, the sharp sound of thunder came.

Zi ---

Thunder rushed out from the white smoke. Su Xiao's pupils contracted. He could confirm that there was no one inside the white smoke. Not far away, Kakashi's chakra was very stable, and there was no casting trace.

With a hiss, thunder and lightning attached to Su Xiao, and a sense of numbness came.

There was something wrong with the two shadow clones! Su Xiao immediately thought of this.

The fact was that these two shadow clones were very special. They created a movement for Kakashi. The thunder shield shadow clone used the thunder chakra to create a shadow clone. It had more thunder attribute changes than the ordinary shadow clone. When the shadow clone is broken, it could turn into thunder and lightning to attack the enemy and cause a paralysis effect.

The calculations and battles of Su Xiao and Kakashi this time and time again were dazzling. This was the joy of fighting, killing the enemy with intelligence and force.

"Divine power!"

Not far away, Kakashi roared, and the Mangekyo Sharingan opened wide.

The space in front of Su Xiao twisted into a spiral, and there was a black centre point in the twist aimed at his heart.

Su Xiao was already in the paralysis of thunder and lightning, and at this time, he was pulled by the distorted space and could not move at all.

This was the first time Kakashi used Kamui in actual combat, so the activation speed was very slow. He first needed to form a node and connect to an unknown space. Finally, the cutting force of space would appear. This process took a total of three seconds.

In the first second, the numbness of Su Xiao's body receded a little.

In the second, there was a stabbing pain in his chest.

In the third second, the space began to spiral and distort. The clothes on his chest showed signs of damage.

Chapter 555: The Scary 1 Foot

In this life and death situation, Su Xiao did not choose to use the secondary invincible shield. It took time to use the shield, and Kakashi's power involved space cutting. Whether it could defend or not was unknown.

A layer of light blue shield appeared in front of Su Xiao. This shield was three meters high, two meters wide, and the whole was crystal clear, like a piece of art. This was the energy shield he made with 300 mana values.

Su Xiao's body retreated, using the elbow to hit the energy shield.

Crack!

The space shattered the energy shield, but before that, Su Xiao clenched his left fist, and the broken line wrapped around the tree trunk above him contracted.

With a shua sound, Su Xiao's body was pulled up and floated in the air.

The power gradually dissipated, and the broken energy shield on the ground drifted away. Blood seeped out from Su Xiao's chest. There was a spiral-shaped scar on his chest, and the wounds affected half of his chest.

In the air, Su Xiao clenched the long sword in his hand and slashed out in the direction of Kakashi. Clang.

The blade light flew out and cut the air. Kakashi, who had just used divine power, was panting. He rushed to the side and barely escaped the blade light.

The blade light plowed through the ground and disappeared after leaving a deep cut on the ground. Putting away the boundary line, Su Xiao landed smoothly.

Su Xiao stepped on the ground as soon as he landed and rushed to Kakashi. Kakashi took a deep breath and was ready to retreat. His chakra could be used once again.

Just as Kakashi was about to retreat, a change occurred. A white snake broke out of the ground and wrapped around Kakashi's foot.

"Earth - rock layer."

Crack, a layer of black rocks, climbed on Kakashi's leg, and the white snake climbed up.

Su Xiao, who was rushing forward, detonated the alchemy bomb.

"Explode!"

Boom.

The fire swallowed Kakashi. Su Xiao blocked in front of him with his left hand and rushed in regardless of the high temperature of the fire.

Just as he rushed into the flame, the sound of wind breaking came. It was Kakashi who was holding Kunai.

Kunai stabbed toward Su Xiao's face, and an energy shield of about a dozen centimeters appeared. Ding.

Kunai hit the energy shield, but the energy shield did not move, and Kakashi's palm was a little numb.

Su Xiao's long sword also stabbed forward. It was obvious that Kakashi did not have the ability of the energy shield.

Puff, the long sword pierced his chest. Kakashi knew that he was finished. He was dead.

"Shadow thorn."

Puff, puff, more than a dozen thorns came out of Kakashi's body. Kakashi's eyes widened, but he slightly turned sideways at the most critical moment. Only a light blue thorn cut his heart artery.

The green steel shadow energy poured into Kakashi's body, and Kakashi's consciousness began to blur.

Su Xiao used a knife to lift Kakashi, and his hand wrapped in a red arm reached out to Kakashi's cheek.

"Ah!!"

The scream came, and an eyeball appeared in Su Xiao's hand.

Pulling out Kakashi's body, the shadow thorn was left in Kakashi's body, and Su Xiao slashed at Kakashi's throat.

"Night, Phoenix!"

An extremely angry roar came, and there was also a horrible whistling sound. Su Xiao immediately created a shield with three layers of the strength of 300 points of mana values on the side and activated the invincible shield simultaneously.

Boom!

The fire rushed to the sky, Su Xiao was directly kicked far away by the unknown enemy, and Su Xiao almost fainted in the air.

Seeing that the third layer had been kicked out of the energy shield, Su Xiao was a little scared, but the last layer of the energy shield was only slightly broken. Thinking of the strength of the people who came, the defense of the energy shield was very powerful.

The fire retreated, and a man in green clothes, with blue steam all over his body, stood in front of Kakashi.

Su Xiao stopped after hitting a large piece of soil with a bang.

"Bah."

Spitting out a mouthful of blood saliva, Su Xiao felt like all the bones in his body were falling apart. He looked at the person who had come. The man in front of Kakashi was called Kai, who had opened seven doors!

At this time, Kai was covered in sweat.

His chest was fluctuating, and it seemed he had consumed much physical strength before.

That was the truth. When Kai fought with the Ghost Sharks, he opened the door. After that, he fought with the enemies simulated by the enchantment, and his physical strength greatly decreased.

Behind Kai, Kakashi's left eye was tightly closed, and blood flowed out of his eye sockets. There was a large wound on his neck.

"Kakashi, are you alright?"

"I'm fine... for now... I won't die. Be careful when fighting the enemy in close combat."

"Yes."

Kai Ping breathed and looked at Su Xiao with burning eyes.

Su Xiao looked at Kakashi and felt he could not kill him today.

"You are lucky."

With a thought from Su Xiao, hundreds of small white frogs drilled out of the ground.

Boom, boom, boom!

The explosion resounded in the valley, and Kai could only stand in front of the seriously injured Kakashi.

Su Xiao rode on Bobowang, who had come to support him. Although Bobowang usually did not participate in the battle, he would find opportunities to retreat.

"Woof."

Bobowang broke into a run, and Kai did not choose to chase because Kakashi's injury would die if he did not deal with it.

Ten minutes later, Su Xiao rushed out of the woods, and there was a roar in the forest behind him.

A black energy ball flew into the sky and exploded. When he saw this thing, Su Xiao guessed what it was. This was a tail beast cannon, and it should be Deidara who provoked Naruto.

Su Xiao did not care about Deidara. That guy killed himself and provoked Kyubi. If Naruto exploded the Kyubi, even Nagato might not be his opponent.

It was not good to stay here for long. Su Xiao planned to leave for the time being.

Just as he was about to rush out of the forest, a figure covered in blood rushed out from a bush.

"Brother Byakuya, it's great to see you, well."

Deidara was in a sorry state at this time, with one hand and one back missing.

Su Xiao grabbed Deidara's collar without saying anything, and Bobowang broke into a run.

"Wait, my hands and feet are still in the forest, as long as I can find Kakuzu to help me stitch up."

"Let's talk about it later, and there is a guy stronger than the tailed beasts in the forest."

"Huh?"

Deidara was a little surprised.

"Otherwise, why do you think I left first?"

Su Xiao no longer explained to Deidara. He almost killed Kakashi. This provoked Kai. It was not strange that the other party opened the door of death and kicked him.

One kick from Seven Gates - Night Phoenix almost broke three layers of energy shield. As for Ye Kai, that move was not on the same level as Seven Gates. Su Xiao could be sure that the Lesser Invincible Shield Zetsu could not withstand that kick. He would be killed in an instant.

Su Xiao and Deidara rushed out of the forest. After wiping away the traces along the way, they repaired in a village in the Kingdom of River.

The possibility of Konoha's Ninja chasing them was not high. That night, Deidara returned to the forest alone with the clay bird. He should be looking for broken hands and broken feet.

Su Xiao was lying in a house with bandages wrapped around his chest. He did not want to move now. Kai's foot was too strong, and he almost killed him.

Just as Su Xiao was sleepy, the hint of the reincarnation paradise appeared.

Su Xiao smiled. Although catching a fight with a tail was dangerous, the reward was extremely generous.

A glass bottle from the storage space was filled with a pale yellow solution. There was a blood eye floating in the solution. This was taken from Kakashi. This eye had not been certified by the reincarnation paradise.

"Obito, what are you going to pay for this eye?"

If it were before, Su Xiao would not make a deal with Obito because his strength was not enough, which was courting death, but it was different after Qing Gang Yin was upgraded to Lv.20. The energy shield could be called a divine skill, and his strength was greatly improved.

Su Xiao was curious now that Su Xiao had the qualifications to trade with Obito. What price was Obito willing to pay for this eye? One should know that a blood eye and two were completely different concepts.

Su Xiao had a vague feeling that the biggest gain of a single tail capture battle was this blood eye, in addition to improving Qing Gang Yin.

Chapter 556: Snake

In the territory of the Fire Country, a few Ninjas were rushing through a forest.

This kind of forest was very common in the Fire Country, and more than two-thirds of the Fire Country was covered in vegetation.

"Xiao Ying, is Kakashi's situation stable?"

The team stopped in the forest to rest for a moment, a total of seven people, and these seven people were the two special Ninja teams Konoha sent to support the Sand Village.

At this time, Kai and Xiao Li carried a simple stretcher with Kakashi tied to it.

Although Kai saved Kakashi in Su Xiao's hands, Kakashi's injuries were too serious. The two stab wounds on his chest were enough to kill him. The excessive consumption of chakra was the most serious of those energy thorns.

Although it had been a few hours, the shadow thorns still had not dissipated. The blue steel shadow energy and the blade light produced the shadow thorns. The blue steel shadow energy could not hold on for so long, but the blade light could.

It was impossible to take out the shadow thorn in Kakashi's body. The shadow thorn was like a flower blooming from Kakashi's body. The center point of more than a dozen energy thorns was in Kakashi's chest. Unless Kakashi was cut open, it was impossible to take it out.

At this time, Kakashi had already fallen into a semi-conscious state, and a large amount of blood loss caused his face to be pale.

"Xiao Ying, Teacher Kakashi..."

Naruto had an ashamed expression on his face. Kakashi would not have done this if he had been too reckless.

"Sakura, Sakura!"

Naruto called out to Sakura a few times before returning to her senses. If one looked carefully, one would notice that Sakura's complexion was not very good. However, as a medical ninja, she had to be calm.

"Hmm?"

"How is Teacher Kakashi?"

"He's alright..."

Sakura did not continue. Kakashi was likely to die. Those energy thorns were too difficult to take out. Not only could they not be taken out, but they would also release strange energy when they dissipated, constantly devouring the remaining chakra in Kakashi's body.

This was a small amount of green steel shadow energy. Not only did it destroy the chakra in Kakashi's body, but it also greatly hindered Sakura's healing ninjutsu.

"Let's return to Konoha as soon as possible. Maybe the master has a way. I can only guarantee that teacher Kakashi won't die from excessive bleeding on the road."

Xiao Ying's words made Naruto and Kai's faces a bit ugly.

"Damn it, who injured Teacher Kakashi to such an extent?"

Naruto gritted his teeth.

"A ninja who used a ninja blade. His name is Byakuya. Other information is unknown."

Just as Kai opened his mouth, Kakashi let out a dry cough. The green light on Sakura's hand flashed to treat Kakashi.

"From now on, Teacher Kakashi... might not be able to continue being a ninja."

Xiao Ying said this heavy news. Naruto was stunned as if he had been struck by lightning. He remembered a face in his mind. It was a man holding a long sword, sitting on a boulder and smoking.

The team continued to travel. If Kakashi died on the road, then Su Xiao would be rich. Kakashi was a very important character in the plot.

...

In a small village in the Kingdom of River.

Su Xiao sat in front of a small river with hot sweat all over his body. He had just done daily exercise, and he mainly practiced the sword.

Deidara had left long ago and went to find Kakuzu with broken hands and feet.

Su Xiao sat in front of the small river and looked at the rushing river and the swimming fish upstream in front of him. He was considering whether to find the violators or trade the blood eye with Obito first.

After weighing the pros and cons, Su Xiao decided to find the violators first.

He had a hunting mission that had not been completed before. Although the mission was not punished, it did not mean there was no price. The reincarnation paradise forcibly recruited him.

That experience made him remember it deeply. He could not directly participate in the battle. He could only act as the judge on the edge of the battlefield. Looking at the infighting of those idiots contractors, that kind of feeling was extremely deceptive.

If he did not finally enter the deep sea with the world coordinates, he would stay in the world of parasitic beasts forever.

Su Xiao did not want to experience this kind of situation a second time, so the hunting mission must be completed.

Bobo.

Su Xiao shouted. He did not know where Bobowang went to play. A few minutes later, Bobowang, with grass on his head, returned with a frightening wildcat in his mouth.

"Why are you holding it in your mouth?"

Hearing Su Xiao's words, Bobowang put down the frightened wild cat. His eyes seemed to say: Master, it looks down on me.

Su Xiao understood what Bobowang meant.

"It's fine. It can't look at me."

Cats are magical animals. No matter if you are poor or rich, it looks down on you...

Bobowang was a little depressed. After hesitating, he still did not bite the wild cat to death. Besides looking down on other creatures, this wild cat was pretty good-looking.

"Let's go. Do you still want to be a Japanese cat?"

Bobowang raised his nose, which meant that Bobo was not interested in it.

Su Xiao rode Bobowang straight to the border of the country of fire, leaving the frightened wild cat.

After Su Xiao left, the wild cat curled up into a ball, licked its claws, and the ignorance of the beast in its eyes disappeared, revealing the light of wisdom.

"Oh? Is this contractor who joined Akatsuki? His breath is so horrible that he almost found me. Before, it was strange. How could a strange species like husky exist in the Naruto world?"

The wild cat lay lazily on the grass, its tail repeatedly raised, looking like lazy cancer.

"Forget it. It has nothing to do with me. Since you haven't found me, pretend you have never seen me before. I can't afford to offend such a ferocious guy."

The body of the wild cat gradually became bigger, and in an instant, it became a plump beauty with golden hair and beast ears.

"Hey, you made me drool. I hate dogs."

While speaking, the cat girl jumped into the river. The cat girl was a worker. She was not weak but did not like to fight. Her biggest hobby was to become a cat and wander around in the derivative world.

...

Night, the border of the country of fire, near a large wooden bridge.

Su Xiao yawned. He had been squatting near the bridge for three days. He did not even see a ghost, let alone the traces of the violators. He suspected that what Black Zetsu provided was false information. After all, that guy had no integrity.

"If it is false information, I will kill that old bastard."

Su Xiao held a red apple in his hand and bit it. The juice exploded in his mouth.

The night wind blew the low trees nearby and rustled. The forest at night was not quiet.

Si Si ---

A strange sound came. Su Xiao stopped chewing and listened to the sound nearby.

A snake crawled out of the forest not far away. Su Xiao picked up the apple and took a big bite.

"If you have the guts, come out. If you don't have the guts, get out."

Hearing Su Xiao's words, Bobowang, who was lying near him, raised his head and stared at the forest not far away.

Pa, pa, pa, pa.

A crisp clapping sound rang out as a figure emerged from the forest. This person wore round-rimmed glasses, and his gray hair was tied up.

"It's no wonder Lord White Night could detect my aura."

Medicine Master Dudou walked out of the forest with a faint smile, his low attitude.

"What's the matter?"

The pocket that appeared to represent the big snake pill was nearby.

"Didn't Lord Byakuya come to see me in place of Lord Scorpion? Although the time was a few days earlier."

"No."

Dou was a little surprised. Su Xiao was in the same team as Scorpion, so it was normal to have this kind of misunderstanding.

Chapter 557: Turn Your Face Faster Than Turning the Book

"I don't know why Mr. Byakuya came here..."

Su Xiao raised his hand to interrupt Dou.

"Put away your disgusting fake smile when you talk to me, or I will kill you."

Zi ---

The sound of the metal wire retracting came. Su Xiao got up and pulled out the sword.

Dragon flash slowly came out of the body. The bright blade was extremely dazzling at night.

Cold sweat appeared on his forehead. He saw that Su Xiao was not joking. He was indeed ready to kill him.

"Sorry, Byakuya, Orochimaru sama is here..."

Clang!

A saber light with a diameter of about two meters slashed out, and the speed of the saber light was extremely fast. In an instant, it cut in front of the pocket.

"Latent Shadow Snake Hands."

A dense number of snakes rushed out from the jungle to block in front of the body. The saber light cut off many poisonous snakes and cut through the side of the body, cutting off a boulder.

Rumble.

The huge rock fell to the ground, and cold sweat fell from the corner of his forehead.

Dou was not strong then and was not even Kakashi's opponent. Only after obtaining the blood of the Great Serpent Pill and the power of the inheritance serpent immortal could he truly become strong.

"Mr. Byakuya, are you going to kill my subordinate in front of me?"

A man with a pale face and long black hair on his shoulder came out of the forest.

However, it was useless. If Su Xiao used his full strength, he could beat him to death even if he could not kill Orochimaru.

The soul of Orochimaru, sealed by the 3rd, could not use most of the ninjutsu. He could only fight with the psychic skill with the soft body, and some of the ninjutsu that needed to be made could not be used.

Using the soft body skill to fight meant he had to get close to Su Xiao. Although Orochimaru's survival was very strong, getting close to Su Xiao was generally not good. For example, Jiraya, Gaara, and Kakashi.

If Su Xiao were to fight against Jiraya alone, even if he had an energy shield, he would lose, but if he fought Orochimaru alone, the result would be that he had a high chance of winning.

Hesitating for a moment, Su Xiao felt he could not kill Orochimaru. The battle would be meaningless. He returned the Dragon Slash to its sheath.

Taking a bite of the apple, Su Xiao chewed it.

"What's the matter?"

Su Xiao's personality, faster than flipping through books, obviously shocked Orochimaru. Orochimaru was stunned for a moment, and a smile appeared.

"I heard that Mr. Byakuya got a blood eye. I'm very interested in that blood eye."

"Oh? The news is very well-informed."

"You flatter me."

Orochimaru's ability to gather information was unquestionable. He knew that Su Xiao had taken Kakashi's blood eye in just a few days.

"This eye already has a buyer, and that buyer is willing to pay any price."

Although trading with Orochimaru was a good choice, Obito was richer. That guy had inherited Madara's inheritance, which was incomparable to Orochimaru.

Being rejected by Su Xiao, Orochimaru's eyes narrowed as if he was ready to rob.

"I advise you to give up the idea now. Although I can't kill you, I can kill you more than a dozen times."

Su Xiao continued to eat the apple, looking relaxed.

"Hehe, since Mr. Byakuya is not willing to trade, forget it, but... Mr. Byakuya is waiting here, and he waited for three days."

"Yes."

Su Xiao nodded. After throwing away the fruit core in his hand, he took out an apple from his arms. The taste of this pure and natural apple in the Naruto world was quite good.

"This is my territory. If you want to find someone, you might as well tell me."

It seemed that Orochimaru was still thinking about the blood eye. Kakashi's blood eye was different from other blood eyes. Orochimaru might have noticed this long ago.

Moreover, Orochimaru was almost crazy about Yubo's blood after being killed by Itachi.

"It doesn't matter if I tell you. I want to find that person who is about thirty years old. He has scars on his face and eyes..."

"One of his eyes is blind."

Su Xiao had not finished speaking,

Orochimaru said the other characteristics of the violator.

"To be exact, that eye was not blind but transplanted with a special organ, right, Mr. Byakuya."

Su Xiao stood up and threw away the half-eaten apple in his hand.

"It seems that the person is in your hands,"

"Yes, I caught it five days ago, and for this, I paid the lives of dozens of subordinates."

The offender that Su Xiao had been looking for was actually in Orochimaru's hands, which was very normal. The offender might have been eyeing Orochimaru's lab, waiting for Orochimaru to die. But this was Orochimaru's territory, and before Uchiha Sasuke killed Orochimaru, the offender was caught by Orochimaru.

"Can we trade now, Mr. Byakuya?"

Orochimaru felt he was sure to win, but he did not notice that Su Xiao's eyes were a bit wrong.

"Of course... we can trade."

As Su Xiao spoke, the soil under his feet exploded.

Boom!

The power of the explosion was not strong. Dudou only staggered from the explosion. As he was about to jump away, several white snakes formed from alchemy bombs came out from under his feet and quickly wrapped around Dudou's legs. A white snake wrapped around Dudou's neck in less than a second.

"You have seen Deidara's explosive clay. This thing is similar to the explosive clay."

He had just prepared to stop, but he would be blown to pieces if these snakes exploded.

Orochimaru's face was gloomy. The sack was very important to him. The third generation sealed the soul of his arm, and now it was all maintained by the pocket medicine.

"The method of trade is very fair. Use that person to exchange for the life of your subordinates. You have been monitoring me for three days. Do you think I am blind?"

Orochimaru had bad intentions because he had been monitoring the area for three days. Su Xiao did not want to cause trouble at first. After all, Orochimaru was the local snake.

But who would have thought that these two guys would be greedy? And after learning that Su Xiao had the blood eye, they showed up and wanted to trade with him.

Su Xiao did not believe the deal that Orochimaru talked about. Dou was a double-faced spy, and Orochimaru was a traitor of Konoha's traitor.

It was true that Orochimaru pursued science, but this guy could do anything for eternal life. He did not know that he used thousands or tens of thousands of people's lives to experiment. Was this kind of person trustworthy?

Su Xiao thought he was a villain, not a credible guy. Orochimaru was similar to him, so he did not believe in Orochimaru. The reason was so simple.

"It seems that Mr. Byakuya misunderstood, that person can be handed over to you, but I will decide the location of the transaction..."

Before Orochimaru finished speaking, Su Xiao pulled the line, and one ear in his pocket was cut off. His face twitched in pain. He gritted his teeth and dared not move. The line had firmly entangled him.

"Next time is the hand."

The smile on Orochimaru's face disappeared, and a kunai appeared in his hand. He threw the kunai at the heart of the pocket.

Puchi.

The kunai stabbed into the pocket and forced itself to dodge the vital position.

"Although this is a very important subordinate of mine, Mr. Byakuya, you must know that I still have many of these subordinates."

Orochimaru's ruthlessness could be seen.

"Oh? Then kill him."

Su Xiao tightened the boundary line and prepared to cut the pocket into dozens of pieces.

"Wait."

Orochimaru opened his mouth and stared at Su Xiao with a burning gaze.

"That person can be handed over to you, but you must take out the equal thing."

Su Xiao nodded. This was the true attitude of the deal. Orochimaru had always wanted to cheat.

"How about the blood of tailed beasts?"

"The blood of tail-beasts? The tail-beasts can have blood so easily."

Chapter 558: The Most Unlucky Illegal in History

Orochimaru should have studied the information about tailed beasts, and he knew that tailed beasts were energy bodies, and there was no blood at all.

"Because everyone thinks that there is no, it is precious."

Su Xiao took out a test tube. He had a total of two bottles of tailed-beast blood. He traded one bottle with Black Zetsu, and now only one bottle is left.

The temptation of bi-beast blood to Orochimaru, a scientist, was like a strong man who had been abstinent for a few years, seeing a beautiful Zetsu.

"I want to verify whether it is true or false."

Before Orochimaru finished speaking, Su Xiao had already thrown the blood of tailed beasts at Orochimaru.

"With your experience, it is not difficult to identify this thing. The other members of Akatsuki said that you want to obtain eternal life? You can investigate tail-beasts' origin and how many years they have lived. If you can transform your soul into the nature of tail-beasts, you can exist independently or live in other people's bodies."

After listening to Su Xiao's words, Orochimaru looked thoughtful, and there was no expression of ecstasy on his face. This scientist had cognition and dedication and heard that Su Xiao was just an idea.

"Not a bad idea. The person can be handed over to you and release my subordinates."

"Yes."

This was undoubtedly the best choice to find the violator and not become enemies with the Great Serpent Pill.

"The person is in my laboratory, and the situation is a little special, so it is not convenient to bring him out."

Su Xiao frowned. He did not want to enter Orochimaru's lab, but Orochimaru did not look like he was lying. Thinking of the other party's style and the uniqueness of the offender, the offender, might have become a test subject.

"Is that guy sound?"

"Barely."

Orochimaru laughed dryly. He thought that the offender was Su Xiao's friend or acquaintance.

"Is that so..."

Su Xiao pondered for a moment. If he became hostile with Orochimaru after arriving at Orochimaru's lab, he had the confidence to break out of the encirclement with his sword skills and energy shield.

After mastering the ring, Su Xiao was no longer afraid of human sea tactics. As for Orochimaru himself, Orochimaru, who could not use ninjutsu, was not terrible, but his survival was extremely strong.

The broken line was wrapped around his neck, and Su Xiao was ready to take the hostage to Orochimaru's lab.

"Orochimaru sama, my ears!"

Orochimaru turned to look at the ear on the ground. A snake sprang out of the forest and swallowed the ear in one gulp, heaving a sigh of relief.

The three of them went straight to the nearby laboratory. Orochimaru had many of these laboratories, and this place could only be considered a branch.

After going around the forest for a few rounds, an underground cave appeared. Orochimaru liked to build the laboratory underground.

Walking into the underground cave, a cold and humid feeling appeared. Su Xiao did not like this environment, but Orochimaru liked it very much. Orochimaru was already very close to Orochimaru.

There were torches on both sides of the underground laboratory. There were cells on both sides. There was a small mouth on the prison door, and behind it was a pair of numb cheeks. They stood at the prison door every day and looked outside, instinctively eager to leave here.

"How is it? My work is not bad, right?"

These were all Orochimaru's experimental subjects.

"Forgive me for being direct. It's just a group of cannon fodder."

Orochimaru laughed. He usually heard too much flattery.

"Yes, a group of cannon fodder, but this is a necessary process of collecting information. Are you interested in joining my research?"

Orochimaru did not find out how strong Su Xiao was in scientific research but cared about Su Xiao's identity and his strength.

"Join your research? Do you have anything to do with potions?"

Hearing Su Xiao's question, Orochimaru was a little puzzled. He just thought highly of Su Xiao's identity as a member of Akatsuki. This identity was very convenient.

"Potion? Some things."

Orochimaru did not think Su Xiao, a melee player, was good at potion knowledge. He casually dealt with it and prepared to use it later with Su Xiao.

That's right,

It is to use each other. If the strength of both sides is not equal, it is to use it unilaterally if the other party uses each other.

"This is my work."

Su Xiao took out a bottle of special alchemy secret medicine. He did not know whether Orochimaru was involved in pharmaceuticals. If any were involved, he might pay some price to improve pharmaceuticals.

Orochimaru took the potion and did not care at first. He just pulled the bottle open and smelled it. The faint sweet smell made him frown.

Su Xiao saw Orochimaru's disdain. He took the potion in Orochimaru's hand and fell a little on the wound on his ear.

"Ah!"

Dou Dou screamed. The potion could be used outside, but it was not very painful.

The wound on his ear stopped bleeding, and more than ten seconds later, blood scabs began to form.

"This..."

Orochimaru did not expect the effect of the Alchemy Potion to be so strong. He began to be interested in the Alchemy Secret Potion.

Although the Akame Ga Kill world could not be compared to the strength of the Naruto world, the alchemy of the Akame Ga Kill world was incomparable to the Naruto world, which was the result of hundreds of thousands of generations.

Dou Dou's face was twitching. The feeling of being used as a test subject by two ruthless people was not good. His psychological shadow should be very large.

Dou Dou took a deep breath and forcibly pulled off the blood scab on his ear. It hurt so much that he grimaced. If this wound healed, then his ears could not be reconnected.

"I will study this potion."

Orochimaru began to be interested in the potion.

"Do you think it is possible?"

Su Xiao put away the secret alchemy medicine. He and Orochimaru did not even have a cooperative relationship. If the other party did not pay anything to get the secret alchemy medicine, it would be a fool's dream. The cost of a bottle of special alchemy secret medicine was 5000 paradise coins.

Orochimaru licked his lips. He knew that he had to take out the technology to exchange.

"We should still complete the previous deal."

At this time, the three of them had already arrived at the deepest part of the laboratory, and in front of them was Orochimaru's room for daily experiments.

"Let me go, Orochimaru. I'll kill you sooner or later. If you have the guts, let's have a duel!"

Orochimaru, *****."

The angry cursing came, and without thinking, this was the offender.

"Looks like he's very energetic."

"En."

Orochimaru had a bad temper, and the offender was cursing very badly.

Walking into the laboratory, a strong man about two meters tall was bound to an experiment table. The strong man's chest was cut open, the internal organs were visible, and his legs had been cut off.

Hearing that someone walked into the laboratory, the strong man's breathing began to be rapid.

"Serpent..."

The violator was about to speak, but Su Xiao had already walked to him.

"Who are you?"

Although he was bound to the operating table, he was fearless.

"No, this aura is... a hunter!"

The eyes of the violator widened, and it seemed that he could not accept the fact.

As soon as the voice of the violator fell, a barrier appeared around the two people, and the reincarnation paradise blocked the words of the two people so as not to be heard by the plot characters.

"Sure enough, the violators are special in some aspects and can detect my identity."

The violators could not hear Su Xiao's words, and Su Xiao could not hear the other party's words.

He pulled out the dragon flash on his waist, and the sword light flashed, and the head of the violators who could not resist was cut off.

Su Xiao thought he would have a hard fight before, but he did not expect this guy to be so unlucky that Orochimaru caught him as a trade item.

When the violator died, his body gradually broke down, which was the usual practice of the reincarnation paradise to the violators.

In an instant, the body of the violator disappeared, and a chip fell on the experimental platform, with a faint golden light on it.

Chapter 559: Surrying Incense Phosphorus

The chip fell on the metal experiment table and made a crisp sound. This chip was not big, completely black, and its surface was full of golden granules.

Su Xiao picked up the chip. Although the chip was not big, the weight was not light.

Quality: Light Gold

Type: Part

[Effect: Able to modify any detection type equipment, thus increasing the quality of the equipment. Upgrading the quality has nothing to do with the quality of the equipment. ]

[Rating: 299]

[Description: After learning an enemy's strength, the battle will be twice as effective. ]

[Price: Unable to be sold, unable to be traded. After death, it will drop. ]

[Warning: Carrying this accessory through the void will be hunted down by the mechanical apostle. ]

...

The chip in Su Xiao and look at's hands, from the introduction, it could be seen that this chip was only half of the accessory. As for the other accessory, there was no clue at all.

If he could find another accessory to synthesize, the synthetic items' level would be amazing.

Su Xiao was very self-aware in this aspect. First, this violator did not know where he got this chip. The other party was dead. If he wanted to get another accessory, it was undoubtedly fishing for the moon at the bottom of the sea.

Secondly, if he carried this chip to travel through the void, he might be hunted. The strength of the chase was unknown. In short, it was not a good thing. It was better to use it as soon as possible.

At this time, Orochimaru and Dou were nearby. It was not wise to use this chip immediately.

"Mr. Byakuya, is this your enemy?"

Orochimaru's low and hoarse voice came.

"It's similar."

Su Xiao retracted the boundary line, recovered his freedom, and subconsciously retreated, intending to stay away from Su Xiao, the dangerous person.

"Then, our first transaction is completed. Next, let's talk about that potion. I am very interested in that thing."

The two sides barely completed the first transaction happily, but unfortunately, the two sides still did not trust each other.

"Yes, exchange with similar knowledge."

Su Xiao's arm naturally drooped, intentionally or unintentionally, close to the hilt of the dragon flash.

Bang.

The iron door of the laboratory slammed shut, and Orochimaru licked his lips.

"Similar technology? Sorry, I don't have this technology."

As soon as Orochimaru finished speaking, several three-meter-tall test tubes in the room cracked open, and several naked men with facial expressions walked out of the test tubes.

"Mr. Byakuya, how about we re-draw the contents of the deal?"

"Re-draw?"

Su Xiao put away the chip in his hand, and Orochimaru, the poisonous snake, finally showed its fangs.

"How about exchanging the potion and blood in Mr. Byakuya's hand for your life?"

Orochimaru laughed sinisterly, and his pocket had already disappeared.

As soon as his voice fell, the laboratory door opened, and a man and a woman walked into the room. The man had white hair, and his shark-like fangs were particularly conspicuous. The woman had long red hair, and she was naked.

It was Orochimaru's subordinates, Shui Yue and Xiang Lin.

"Ah, it's tiring. It seems that we have to fight again. The opponent is still a member of Akatsuki."

Shui Yue looked listless as if she had just woken up. Xiang Lin stood at the door and did not move. She looked at Su Xiao with a strange gaze, and her pupils trembled.

Xianglin stared at Su Xiao and whispered to Orochimaru: "Orochimaru sama, this guy..."

"Huh?"

Orochimaru looked a little unhappy.

"I don't know how many people this guy has killed. His breath has turned red. This kind of breath is simply an executioner."

Su Xiao just stood there. The breath inadvertently released made Xiang Lin hair stand up.

"It's normal. Ordinary people are not qualified to join the Akatsuki."

"But..."

Orochimaru signaled Xianglin to retreat. He just needed to monitor the energy flow in Su Xiao's body.

"Have you considered it? Mr. Byakuya."

Orochimaru was sure that he would win. He exposed the location of the laboratory.

It was for the opportunity now, a chance to trap Su Xiao.

"Orochimaru, the members of the Akatsuki usually act together. Aren't you curious where my partner went?"

"Ha."

Orochimaru sneered.

"Your partner has died in the hands of the little devil and the old woman. As for Deidara, he will find Kakuzu to sew up his broken limbs."

Orochimaru's intelligence system really could not be underestimated.

"Then, don't you feel strange about this three-man team?"

"A three-man team."

Orochimaru's face was solemn, and he suddenly thought of something.

"Could it be that you..."

"That's right. To be exact, I'm not Scorpion and Deidara's partner at all. I'm the third person in all the teams."

"White Night, this is leaking information from the organization."

A man's voice came from the corridor behind Xiang Lin. Xiang Lin's pupils constricted to the extreme. She did not sense anyone coming at all.

"Yu Zhibo!"

Orochimaru's face was extremely cold, and he turned to look at the people in the corridor.

A skunk wearing a red cloud and black trench coat slowly walked over, followed by a Ghost Shark.

"Xiang Lin!"

Orochimaru looked at Xianglin, and only then did he discover that Xianglin's Chakra was very unstable and characteristic of his illusion.

Itachi's illusion was one of the best in the Naruto world, and before the enemy noticed it, it had already fallen into his illusion.

"Just as I expected, this snake took the bait. The effect of using the blood eye as bait is pretty good."

Ghost shark, carrying a ninja knife and shark muscles, laughed a few times, and those dead fish eyes of look at were present.

The situation on the field changed from ten to one to ten to three.

Su Xiao was not a member of the scorpion team at all. The identity that Nagato arranged for him was to assist in capturing the tailed beasts. In other words, whichever team caught the tail-beasts, he would temporarily join that team.

Orochimaru's face was as heavy as water. After a moment, he laughed.

"A good plan, but unfortunately, this is useless to me."

Orochimaru's body suddenly fell to the ground, and Itachi's blood eye met Orochimaru's eyes.

With a splash, Orochimaru fell to the ground, his pale skin cracked, and a female Ninja's face appeared. This was not Orochimaru at all.

With a splash, Water Moon turned into a pool of fresh water, quickly seeping into the cracks on the ground, and in an instant, Orochimaru and Water Moon disappeared.

"This, this, this."

Xianglin took a few steps back. She was a Wisdom + Healing Ninja, so she did not have such a strong escape method.

"Ah, as expected, this snake escaped, skunk."

Ghost shark did not seem surprised by Orochimaru's escape, and the skunk looked as usual.

"Then I'll pretend I didn't see it."

Su Xiao took out an apple and took a bite. Itachi had just let him go. Otherwise, he would be able to keep Orochimaru. As for why he let Orochimaru go, he didn't need to think to know. To help Uchiha Sasuke grow up.

Dragon flash slowly came out of the body. Su Xiao's figure disappeared in an instant. Of course, when he appeared again, the blade bee was already stained with blood. He killed the experimental subjects of Orochimaru. These experimental subjects stood in the same place after Orochimaru left.

"There is still one left."

Su Xiao squatted in front of Xianglin, took a big bite of the apple, and chewed it carefully.

Xianglin sat on the ground, she did not dare to resist at all, and she was not stupid enough to resist because the three people in front of her were monster-level. Resisting would only kill faster.

"Since they are Orochimaru's subordinates, then kill them."

Ghost Mermaid stepped forward, and Xiang Lin trembled.

"Wait."

Itachi walked forward.

"She still has used."

Chapter 560: Gold Medal

In Orochimaru's lab, Su Xiao and the other two looked at Xianglin, who was shivering in the corner.

Su Xiao proposed to kill him, and the ghost shark's proposal was also to kill him. Itachi proposed not to kill Xianglin for the time being, and Xianglin still had some uses.

"Our next task needs a perceptive Ninja."

Although Itachi said so, Su Xiao felt that he had another purpose.

"This is Orochimaru's subordinate. Is there no problem?"

Ghost Shark seemed to be a little worried that Xianglin would expose the team's whereabouts.

"I won't..."

Xianglin was just about to speak but found three pairs of cold eyes looking at her. She quickly shut up and tried to show a harmless smile. Her expression was stiff.

Itachi made a hand seal with one hand, and his eyes became dull. The illusion of skunk should have hit him.

"How many tails are you going to catch this time?"

Su Xiao was very interested in catching tailed beasts.

"Four tails, only the general direction. It takes time to find a specific location. This woman's perception is not weak and helpful for the following tasks."

"Is that so?"

Ghost shark was a little tempted. After all, it was not easy to find tailed beasts worldwide.

"I am only responsible for capturing tailed beasts. This woman is free to deal with."

Now Su Xiao joined the skunk team temporarily. He did not want to have any conflict with a skunk. Moreover, this could speed up his completion of the main task. The sooner skunk and Sasukemet, the sooner Nagato would attack Konoha.

"Well, that's decided. As for the control method, use the illusion. Although it will affect the woman's perception, there is no way."

It seems that Itachi is not ready to remove the illusion.

"I have other ways to control this woman. Itachi first releases the illusion."

Su Xiao took out a small piece of alchemy bomb. Itachi did not say anything, just released the illusion.

Xiang Lin's pupils returned to the light. She did not hear what Su Xiao and others said before.

"I will give you a chance to live."

Su Xiao looked at Xiang Lin with a smile as if a wolf was looking at a sheep.

"You, what do you want?"

Xianglin shrank back, but she was already leaning against the wall.

"Eat it."

Su Xiao handed over the alchemy bomb. Xianglin immediately sensed that this thing was very dangerous and kept shaking her head.

"Then we can only take coercive measures."

Su Xiao pressed Xianglin to the ground and opened Xianglin's mouth with his hand.

"Help..."

A minute later, Xianglin continued to vomit with a look of despair.

"This is no problem. If you dare to do anything, bang."

Su Xiao made an explosive gesture, and Xiang Lin nodded.

"I can help you, but you must let me go later. You can use the illusion to clear my memory during this period."

Xiang Lin was particularly sensible, and she was not completely loyal to Orochimaru.

"Smart woman."

Ghost shark was not too surprised by this situation. It was very common to use other ninjas to complete the task. At least the skunk team was like this. The perfect illusion of a skunk could easily control others. If Xiang Lin were not a subordinate of Orochimaru, Ghostshark would not suggest killing him.

"When will it start?"

Su Xiao asked when to catch the Bijū.

"Four days later, I have some personal matters to deal with."

Weasel with ghost shark and phosphorus walked out of the laboratory.

"In four days, they will meet at the border of the country of fire."

Itachi took people and left, leaving only Su Xiao in the laboratory.

"Is this a hush fee?"

Su Xiao looked around the scene in the laboratory, these precious materials and items, and the skunk did not touch these things.

Orochimaru was scared away, the skunk and ghost shark also left, and Su Xiao began to search.

Ten minutes later, the broken test tubes and scrolls were scattered on the ground as the wind swept the laboratory.

There were several items in front of Su Xiao. These were test materials, two of which were not high quality,

But the value was not low.

One was about the development of the Chakra.

Looking at the information, the other one was about the research data about the first Hokage 'Pillar cells.'

These two materials were somewhat difficult to understand. Fortunately, Su Xiao's alchemy level was not low. He could understand the meaning of the above formulas. He was ready to study these materials.

After putting away the information, Su Xiao quickly left Orochimaru's lab. At this time, he noticed a hint from the reincarnation paradise that he had not checked.

[Type: Rare]

[Description: Can exchange items in the honor store. The specific information can be checked in the honor store after returning to the reincarnation paradise. The honor store is located in the deluxe room of the hunter. ]

...

He put away the golden honor medal. This thing was temporarily useless.

Su Xiao left Orochimaru's lab. At this time, it was already early in the morning. The sun was hanging on the horizon, and everything was full of vitality.

After completing the hunting mission, the big stone in Su Xiao's heart was put down. The violators of this big world were very hard to find. If Zetsu did not give him a general location, he did not know when he would find them.

Now only the main mission was not completed. After completing the main mission, he would leave the Naruto world.

But before that, Su Xiao still had something to do.

According to the map of the country of fire, Su Xiao found a town nearby. This town had hundreds of thousands of people, which was already a large town in the Naruto world.

...

A carriage sped past the paved road, rolling up a large amount of dust, and the civilians on the street screamed and cursed.

Su Xiao held a string of meatballs in his hand, and Bobowang followed him, eating as they walked. The hawkers on the street were not as loud as Zetsu, and the whole town was full of vitality.

"As expected of the town where the famous Fire Country is located. It is very prosperous."

Su Xiao looked at the towering city wall at the edge of the town. This thing was very rare in the Naruto world.

Arriving at the central street, the stalls and hawkers on the street disappeared. This place was more prosperous. There were restaurants, hot springs, and hotels on both sides of the street.

Walking into a hotel, a well-dressed attendant greeted him.

"Sir, please come in."

This hotel already had a modern trend, the decoration was shining, and the development of technology in the Naruto world was very strange. Of course, this was related to the ninjas and the war.

After the war stopped, the technology level of the Naruto world greatly increased, a scene in a dozen years.

According to the waiter's guidance, Su Xiao opened a room and walked into the room. The room was bright and clean.

Su Xiao sat on a big soft bed. He was waiting for someone here, and the person would arrive in two days.

Taking it out from the storage space, he was ready to use it. There was a risk of carrying this thing when traveling through space. He was different from the violators, and the abilities of those guys were strange.

After taking it out, Su Xiao hesitated momentarily and took out a mechanical eye.
