Chapter 43: PEOPLE ARE CALLING ME IGNORANT

After finishing tending to Nina's wound, Chef Leon was no longer in the kitchen. Chef Leon's assistant gazed at Nina's stubborn appearance and shook her head.

"Young miss, whether you learn or not and finish this lesson is not up to you. Also, Chef Leon will get paid in full. Do you know how much your brother spent hiring an important chef? Chefs such as Chef Leon?

To let you know, it is fifty million dollars for an ignorant person like you for ten days." The assistant was so mad and walked out, leaving Nina alone in the kitchen.

Nina took off her cap and apron and went back to her room. 'So what if I can't cook? Who said I want to cook?! And who are they fucking fooling and calling ignorant?! Who would pay fifty million dollars just for a stupid cooking lesson!'

Nina held her phone and dialed.

"Hello."

"Brother!" Nina called out.

"I told you not to call me when it is unimportant." Four Eyes replied in a flat voice.

"I know, I know. I want to tell you that people are calling me ignorant! They told me you had paid fifty million dollars for that chef to teach me. And that chef walked out on me." Nina said, whining.

"As expected of you, you are not useful at anything but to waste and make trouble." Her brother reprimanded her.

"Brother, how can you say that?!" Nina desputed.

"What do you think?!" Four Eyes annoyly replied.

"You are saying you paid that chef three hundred million dollars?!" Nina blurted out in disbelief.

Four Eyes didn't answer Nina but hung up the phone. She heard a beep tone and could only stare at her phone. Nina couldn't believe her brother had paid so much for that chef.

All Nina could think about was, 'he could have just given me that money, and I can learn cooking in many ways!' Nina felt utterly miserable thinking of losing the fifty million dollars as if it was supposed to be hers.

Though Four Eyes didn't know about this, he knew it must be Ling Li's arrangement. He couldn't believe Ling Li spent so much for her family.

When it was time for lunch, a servant called to ask Nina to join her parents in eating at the dining area; during their meal, "Young Miss, the art instructor, has arrived. After you finish your lunch, you may proceed to the pavilion for your art lesson," Butler James informed her.

"Who said I want to do art lessons?" Nina scolded the Butler. She still couldn't get over fifty million dollars. She feels bitter every time she remembers it. 'How could my brother afford to pay someone that much but not give us that amount.'

Mr. and Mrs. Xu were extremely shocked when they heard their daughter's scolding.

"I am free, can I take the art lesson instead? I have wanted to learn how to paint since I was young. I envy all those rich ladies who are good at paintings." Mrs. Xu said softly.

"Me too, me too." Mr. Xu said, even raising his hand.

"Certainly, you both can take art lessons." Butler James answered happily. "Take your time eating, Sir and Madam. No rush." Butler James said while helping the couple eat by serving them more food.

For the rest of the week, Nina has locked herself in her room and only comes out during meals. The old couple is thrilled and pleased with their everyday activities; they feel they have become fit and healthy while living in the castle.

Everything that is happening in the castle is relayed and updated to Mushu.

"That brat!" Mushu spat out. Just thinking of Nina gives him a headache.

Meanwhile, Four Eyes, Fatty, and Chatty are having their foreign language tutorial. When their tutor is over, each of them has a person in charge who constantly talks with them, who is even more fierce than their tutor, which makes them very desperate.

For Four Eyes, it is Ling Li. For Fatty, it is El Padre and Mushu, so he doesn't know if he wants to laugh or cry.

For Chatty, Pharsa would always hit him when he made mistakes, and he would always shout.

"We are not married yet, and you already made me a battered husband." Chatty's remarks would always make everyone laugh.

Four Eyes could only work hard and learn harder. Otherwise, Ling Li wouldn't let him touch her. Four Eyes wants to go crazy. During the first days of tutorials, Ling Li didn't even let him sleep beside her.

Four Eyes went nuts and did not waste any time studying and memorizing. Four Eyes even asked for advanced lessons from their teachers, to the point Four Eyes put on earphones the whole day even inside the bathroom.

Only on the fourth day, when Four Eyes could speak and compose several sentences and respond to the simple questions Ling Li asked, she allowed him to sleep beside her.

That night was a sleepless night for Ling Li. Four Eyes was like a hungry hyena.

After they all finished dinner, everyone was still chatting in the dining hall. Four Eyes tucked his twins to bed, returned to the dining hall, and told the group that he needed to discuss something important with Ling Li fluently in French about his family.

Everyone understood since they knew Four Eyes' family's current situation in the castle. Ling Li was also smiling ear to ear when she heard him in French, so she stood up and followed him eagerly.

However, when Ling Li walked into their room, Four Eyes yanked her up in his arms, carried her bridal style to their bathroom directly to the shower, and stripped them of their clothes.

With the shower pouring on them, Four Eye captured Ling Li's lips with his arms in her body, subduing her at the corner. His strong hands, lips, and tongue started to caress her whole body restlessly as he missed her so much.

Four Eyes' hand went back to Ling Li's bosom, kneaded them, and pinched each tip, making Ling Li moan, arching her back, and move her entire body towards Four Eyes.

Chapter 44: LING LI WAS PUNISHED

WARNING MATURE CONTENT

Four Eye's cock plays at Ling Li's entrance. He leaves her lips and starts kissing her ears and neck. Ling Li flinches. Four Eyes feels it. He chuckles but feels warm in his heart.

Knowing this was Ling Li's weakness, Four Eyes captured both of her breasts again. He continued to knead on the other and pinch on its tip occasionally and suck each one of them.

"Mmmmmmmmm." Ling Li moans.

Four Eyes knew Ling Li was now ready for him. He went down, kissing her stomach and down to her entrance.

Ling Li couldn't help but cry out loud. "Ahhhhhhh." She grabbed Four Eyes' hair, not knowing where to put her hands. Ling Li's legs felt jelly while Four Eyes continued to lick inside her, faster and harder... Ling Li could only moan louder...

"Ahhhhhhh.... I'm coming! Ahhhhhh... Mmmmmmmmm..."

Four Eyes proceeded back to kissing Ling Li's bosom again after washing his face. Four Eyes kissed Ling Li's neck while caressing her body until he captured her lips again, his tongue dancing inside her mouth until she was ready again; he asked,

"May I?"

Ling Li looked at Four Eyes with her arms wrapped around him and nodded.

At this time, Four Eyes lifted one of Ling Li's legs; he bound it around his waist, wrapped one of his arms around her waist, and kissed her passionately before thrusting inside her. It was a deep, rough, and fast thrusting.

Four Eyes wants to punish his little wife for not letting him sleep with her for three days. Even his kisses are more fierce than earlier.

'Is this man punishing me?' Ling Li's eyes widened when she realized the man had shifted and become rough.

However, Four Eyes knows his ways. Before Ling Li could push him away, he would hit her G-spot, making her powerless instantly, and he would go back to punishing her afterward. Ling Li is so mad she has bitten four Eyes many times on his shoulder.

Almost after an hour in the shower, Four Eyes was afraid Ling Li would catch a cold, so he decided they had to return to the room.

Four Eyes took some liquid soap, applied it all over them, and just let it slide on their bodies. Four Eyes started to kiss Ling Li intensely, thrust in her G-spot, and was ready to come with her.

"Let's come together." Four Eyes whispered.

"Ahhhhhhh Mmmmmmmm...Chu Yan..." It was the first time Ling Li had whispered his name so sweetly.

Four Eyes' heart felt so warm when he heard it. "Repeat my name." He whispered.

"Mmmmmmmm... Chu Yan..."

His name sounded so sweet on her lips.

"Uggghhhhhh..." Four Eyes grunted and went wild. "Let's come together, dear."

They both orgasmed with pleasure and were panting. Four Eyes helped Ling Li clean up her body and himself and carried her back to their room.

Four Eyes laid Ling Li's naked body on the bed. Ling Li thought they would be sleeping. She never thought that Four Eyes would be devouring himself again with her V.

During this time, Four Eyes is using both his tongue and his thumb, which sent Ling Li into a frenzy in no time that made Four Eyes chuckle. Four Eyes went back up and captured both her bosoms with his hands as he kissed her while his cock teased her entrance.

"Ahhhhhhh! Chu Yan!" Ling Li wailed.

Ling Li grabbed his hair and bit his shoulder. Four Eyes only smirked and continued his punishment. Four Eyes teased her, even licking her ears, making her berserk; Ling Li was losing patience. Four Eye just kept his cock rubbing at her entrance but wouldn't do anything else.

Four Eyes didn't expect when Ling Li overturned him, and now She is on top of him.

"You!" Four Eyes sounded to her, caught off guard, "You want to be on top?"

"Why not?" She replied smugly.

Four Eyes rolled her over again, pinning her down hard.

"No way! You can no longer wait, huh?" Four Eyes said with a sardonic grin on his face.

Four Eyes kissed Ling Li wildly, even rougher than earlier.

"Don't ever try to be on top again!" Four Eyes whispered in a husky voice.

Four Eyes kissed Ling Li as if he had gone mad. He is angry with his tongue pushing and grinding with hers as if asking her to respond, but he never gets any.

Four Eyes' hands both held Ling Li's hands on top of her head. This time, he didn't bother asking the question as usual. While kissing her wildly, Four Eyes thrust himself into Ling Li forcefully, deep, strong, and hard, which made Ling Li's body tremble and curve up. Both Ling Li's legs clasped around Four Eyes tightly as she moaned.

Tonight, Four Eyes was worse than a hungry hyena. Not only was Four Eyes mad that Ling Li did not let him sleep with her for three nights, but she also wanted to be on top of him.

'I'm a man, for heaven's sake!' Four Eyes thought angrily. He only let go of Ling Li when it was already dawn, and Ling Li was beyond exhausted.

Ling Li woke up at half past ten the following day, and Pharsa was waiting outside their bedroom door.

"Madam, now I know what it's like when you don't let your husband sleep with you for three nights," Pharsa exclaimed in front of Ling Li with a big, sheepish smile as Ling Li walked out of the room.

"What are you spouting about?!" Ling Li retorted, as her body felt like it had a truck run over it; she wouldn't be surprised if her waist would break any time.

"Master Chu Yan reminded us not to disturb you this morning because you are tired. And look at those marks on your neck." Pharsa pointed at Ling Li's neck, grinning from ear to ear.

"What marks?!" Ling Li went back, running into her room to check in the mirror. After looking at herself, she saw all the kiss marks that Four Eyes had left on her body. She went mad!

"Four Eyes!" Ling Li yelled at the top of her lungs in front of the mirror. She had to change from her usual kimono to a closed-neck shirt.

Who wants to be punished the way Four Eyes punished Ling Li?

Chapter 45: GETTING BACK ON TRACK

"Where are the children?" Ling Li asked Pharsa when she came out of the room again.

"They have their lessons," Pharsa replied.

"Do they need these lessons? They are still very young!" Four Eyes just came out of the children's room and said in a profoundly desperate voice.

"Yes, they do. The younger they start, the better." Ling Li responded firmly.

"Maybe the alphabet and the numbers are fine, but they are memorizing the multiplication table at three months old." Four Eyes retorted with his brows almost knitted together. Despair for his children was evident in his voice.

"Because in mathematics, the multiplication table is the only constant. It will never change. If you memorize it, you can do everything in mathematics." Ling Li explained. "After mastering it, the rest will just easily follow through."

Four Eye purses his lips and walks out from them without a word.

'What?! Dang! Is he mad again?' Ling Li's face flushed when she remembered what happened last night and how Four Eyes punished her.

Pharsa notices Ling Li's face blushing. "Madam, you can't get over him, can you?" Pharsa teased Ling Li. Pharsa can always dare to joke around Ling since they grew up together, and she knew her temperament well.

"Pharsa! Do you want to die?!" Ling Li jokingly reprimanded her with her hands on her waist.

"I dare not! Who would take care of the twins if I die?" Pharsa replied gingerly.

"Peh!" Ling Li rolled her eyes at Pharsa. And the two laughed their hearts out together.

"Madam, have some food first. You haven't had anything. You will feed the twins after they finish their lessons." Pharsa reminded her, and Ling Li obediently followed.

After being seated and served food, Ling Li called for El Padre and Mushu, who arrived shortly.

"El Padre, you have cared for my family and me for over a year. I can't thank you enough." Ling Li said.

"What?" El Padre blurted. "If you thank me, you don't take me as a family anymore." He said it in a very dramatic way.

"You know my heart, El Padre." Ling Li said sincerely.

"And you know mine as well, so there is no need for words and formality between us. You would do the same for me so that I would do the same for you, right?" El Padre asked.

"You betcha!" Ling Li agreed immediately.

"So tell me what's on your little mind." El Padre questioned.

"You know me so well, El Padre." Ling Li said with a laugh.

El Padre chuckled. "I'm the worm in your stomach! Ha ha ha! You called us here. I already know you have something, so tell us."

"Now that you know, since I've fully recovered after therapy and fitness exercise, I'd like to get back on track," Ling Li announced.

"I don't have any problem with that. I support your decision. Where do you like to go from here so I can prepare your route? Remember, you have your children with you now." El Padre kindly reminded Ling Li.

"Yes, I considered everything because I also want to bring Rockie with us." Ling Li informed El Padre.

"You're taking Rockie with you?" El Padre was dumbfounded.

"I won't be at ease if I leave him behind. And he will wake up." Ling Li stated.

"Will he wake up? That is good! Now I understand. So where do you plan to go?" El Padre asked again; he was delighted to know that Rockie has a chance to wake up in the future..

"One of our biggest camps is in Russia, and so is my office. So I plan to settle there for a while." Ling Li declared.

Ling Li and her family's enormous businesses require them to have a lot of security, not only for the family members they also provide securities for their high-ranking company officials. Besides, their business itself needed well-trained security to ensure its safety.

With such an extensive requirement for trained security, Ling Li built these camps instead of hiring a third party to train them.

"That's good. Our old pal can also take care of you while you are there. When do you plan to leave?" El Padre asked.

"Tomorrow night." Ling Li answered decisively.

"Alright, let Mushu and I arrange everything." El Padre and Mushu left, while Ling Li and Pharsa were left behind.

"Madam, What is your plan?" Pharsa curiously asked.

"What do you mean, what's my plan? Should we stay here with El Padre forever?" Ling Li asked her in return.

"Madam, I know you have something in mind besides just going to Russia. You can't fool me." Pharsa insisted.

"You!" Ling Li glared at Pharsa.

Pharsa only glared back at her with hands on her waist.

"Peh! As I said, one of our biggest offices is in Russia, and so are our camps. Why don't you start focusing on accepting that Chatty will be your husband." Ling Li told her with a grin on her face.

Pharsa could only seal her lips tight.

"When that time comes, you can't protect Chatty at all times, and being who you are, he will always be a target of our enemy. Am I correct?" Ling Li knew that Pharsa realized what she meant.

"We need to let these men train as soon as possible, or else it would be too late if their identities get out and known by our rivals. They will be targeted again. We can't be too complacent.

Go and prepare what the twins need for the trip. No need to bring everything. Pack lightly." Ling Li instructed as she waved her hand, dismissing Pharsa as she finished her food and made several important calls.

El Padre disagreed with Ling Li's decision to leave without him directly sending her to Russia.

The following night, they left in three batches.

El Capitan first went with Rockie in an air ambulance with Fatty. Pharsa and Chatty followed them. Lastly, Ling Li and Four Eyes, the twins, were escorted by Mushu and El Padre. Their flight would take almost nine hours from their location.

They arrived before sunrise, and it was unsurprising that the President was waiting for them. It was winter, and so the weather was freezing.

They could already hear a loud voice when they disembarked and exited the VIP area.
