Chapter 51: CAN I TRUST YOU ENOUGH

After reading each email, Ling Li went ahead and signed the necessary paperwork. Later, Ling Li went back to Mushu's waiting area after making sure her twins were okay while they napped.

"Let's go to the office." It's been a year since Ling Li has not visited any of her offices.

Ling Li is visiting one of her main offices unannounced. Ling Li is even dressed casually, wrapped in a wool coat paired with flat boots, without any makeup on her face.

After Mushu parked their car in the underground parking lot, he and Ling Li went together in the exclusive elevator for the CEO.

At the moment that Ling Li was getting ready to push the door of her office open, her trained and sharp ears picked up voices coming from within the office despite the fact that the office was soundproof. In response to Mushu's advance toward opening the door, Ling Li takes a step back.

Once the door was pushed open, what came to their sight was Ling Li's personal assistant lying naked under one of the senior directors, who was way too old for her, doing dirty deeds in the CEO's office. How shameless they could be.

Mushu instantly went to action by taking giant strides, pulling the man up as if he weighed like a feather, and throwing the man out of the glass window. The window, which was a thick tempered glass, was smashed and broken into small pieces by the man's body as he was thrown out of the window and literally out of the building's sixty-ninth floor.

The people on the ground floor were caught off guard, particularly the security, when they saw the alarming naked body dropped dead in front of the building.

Mushu called his subordinates while grabbing Ling Li's naked assistant's hair and throwing her out of the CEO's office.

The reaction of the other secretaries outside Ling Li's office was divided into several fractions: some were criticizing, some were delighted, some just didn't mind, and others were also dumbfounded to see one of their colleagues thrown out of Mushu naked from the CEO's office.

"I told you she would get caught in no time."

"Good for her. She's been too proud just being a mistress and bossing us around."

Others just shook their heads and looked down after seeing her fully naked, feeling embarrassed for the assistant.

While the people never gossiped and knew nothing about the shameless deeds of the assistant were shocked by the incident.

Mushu's subordinates arrived immediately, "Get rid of the old man's body on the ground as soon as possible. And this woman wants to earn money, so make sure she earns us a lot of money." Mushu instructed sternly as he ushered Ling Li to the conference room.

The conference room was filled with thirty people in less than thirty minutes. All the board of directors and senior managers were either still sweating or catching their breath as they arrived. They could not even look up to catch a glimpse of Ling Li's face seated on the main seat with Mushu standing by her side.

Ling Li, who is seated on the main seat, is nonchalantly tapping her fingers on the table, she was looking around, observing everyone's movements. When Ling Li stops tapping her fingers, a deafening silence shrouds the room, and all the people can't help but feel the temperature in the room has completely dropped.

"How many are you in here?" Ling Li casually asked.

Everyone panicked as they looked around and counted each other.

"Thirty."

"Thirty." Each one said after the other.

"No one seems to be taking the attendance and the notes? There should be thirty-two of you, am I right?" Ling Li calmly raised a question again.

"Mr. Petrov is on leave." One of the directors nervously responded.

"Yes, while the other is.. is..." One of the directors stammeringly replied but couldn't seem to know how to finish his sentence.

"While the other one was sent to hell." Mushu finished the sentence for him.

Everyone went silent, with sweat building all over their body despite the strong freezing aura in the room.

"All thirty of you in front of me. Can I trust you enough?" Ling Li asks nonchalantly while rocking her chair.

"Yes, Madam Chairman!"

"Of course!"

"Definitely!"

Ling Li heard these responses from the group of directors and senior managers, one after the other, inside the room.

"Really?! Thirty of you claim to be trustworthy, yet not even one contacted me to inform me that someone is using my office for their filthy personal deeds?" Ling Li asked with disdain while tapping her finger on the table once again as she grimly darted at everyone in the room with gritted teeth.

Only the tapping of Ling Li's fingers on the table could be heard, with each tap causing all the people present to tremble in fear.

After the long silence, "Mushu, fire all these managers and reduce the directors' shares by three quarters. Let's go." Ling Li coldly snorted as she instructed Mushu before she strode out of the conference room.

Mushu immediately took action, put on his earphones and gave instructions per Ling Li's order as he followed Ling Li out of the conference room.

The people left inside the conference room were stunned and still could not comprehend what had just happened.

It took a while before a young director blurted, which made everyone come back to their senses, "How will I tell my parents about this? They will surely kick me out of the house!" He truly wants to cry.

The other directors each have different anxieties on their mind, 'damned! I have two mistresses, and the other one is pregnant!'

'My wife is definitely going to beat the hell out of me now that I'm fired from work!' Anyone who was fired from the Li group of companies is equivalent to being blacklisted. 'I might not as well go home before I find a new job. Or better yet, I should go abroad.'

Each director's mind was racing about how to spring out of their troubles.

After Ling Li and Mushu left, the conference room was a mess, and each of their phones started ringing one after the other from either the company's Human Resources or the Legal Department.

All the directors and senior managers truly don't know how they ended up in this predicament and don't know if they want to laugh or cry.

Chapter 52: THE TRAINING

Meanwhile, Pharsa is training the three masters: Four Eyes, Fatty, and Chatty. Wherever they went, Goldie would follow them around, and he would shout, yell, and comment over the three of them.

Pharsa had ordered the three trainees to run for a mile when they finished, "Curly! Good! Good! Good!" Goldie jumped over Four Eyes. Goldie referred to Four Eyes as Curly since he indeed has wavy hair. "My queen will like you. You finished in seven minutes on the first run! Good! Good!" Goldie exclaimed excitedly.

"Fat, fat, fat! I Like you! I like you!" Goldie yelled happily to Fatty, "You finished six minutes forty-five seconds! Not bad! Not bad! You are fat but still fast! You will improve! My princess will like you!" Goldie then moved to Chatty.

"You! You're crappy! Useless! You finished in nine minutes! You are useless! Go home! You will waste my princess' time!" Goldie spat out.

Although Pharsa was amused, she still stopped Goldie. "Goldie, don't say that! He is a newbie, and this is his first day of training! Come here." Goldie went back beside Pharsa obediently.

"You have cooled down. Now give me your best push-up in two minutes." Pharsa said. "Time starts now."

While they were doing push-ups, Goldie got himself a stick.

"Elbows all the way up!" Goldie pokes Chatty's elbow with his stick.

"Fat, Fat, Fat! Don't sag your butt!" Goldie yelled as he slightly whacked Fatty's butt.

"I like curly. I think my queen should see him! He is good!" Goldie remarked as he waved his stick like a wand in front of Pharsa. "What do you think of my princess?"

"Goldie is right."

"Crappy, you are really useless!" Goldie yelled at Chatty when he saw him struggling to push himself up. "Fat is bigger than you, yet he can carry his body better than you! Useless! Useless!"

"Time's up!" Pharsa announced.

"Why do you keep calling me useless? Just look at yourself!" Chatty yelled back angrily at Goldie.

"Because you're crappy and useless!" Goldie retorted, swaying his body left and right in his usual mannerisms. "Even my princess would agree."

"Stop calling her your princess! Who do you think you are?!" Chatty reprimanded Goldie.

"She is my princess! Of course, I'm her prince!" Goldie smugly said.

"No! She's my fiance! I can only be her prince!" Chatty yelled back.

Pharsa could only shake her head, watching the two argue like children. But she let it be and wanted to see the outcome since they had finished the training anyway. Pharsa chuckled as she witnessed Chatty's childishness.

"No way! You're such a useless crap; my princess will never like you! Someone like you isn't worthy of my princess!" Goldie responded to Chatty with full sarcasm.

Chatty was so furious that he ran toward Goldie and aimed to give him a massive punch in the face. However, Chatty was slammed down on the ground before he could strike and saw stars dizzily. Chatty shook his head and look at Pharsa as he slowly stood up.

"My princess doesn't hit crappy men. It will only dirty her hands." Goldie informed him, still swaying his body coolly.

Chatty seemed confused. 'Then who hit me?'.

Chatty glanced at Four Eyes and Fatty with a questioning look, and both men pointed at Goldie.

Fatty is also very surprised when he sees Goldie's swift move when Chatty is about to hit him; nevertheless, Four Eyes already knows about Goldie and can only watch him with amusement.

Chatty is stupefied, knowing Goldie is a skilled fighter. Chatty could only turn and went back to his position with gritted teeth.

"How many push-ups did they do?" Pharsa asked.

"Curly 35, Great, great, great! Fat 28! Not bad! Good, good, good! Crappy yucks! 15! Useless! Useless!" Goldie announced.

"Why do you ask that retard? He doesn't even have a note or timer in his hand!" Chatty beseeched angrily.

"That is Goldie's skill. His timer is his pulse. And whatever he sees, he doesn't forget." Pharsa explained. "His mind works faster than ours. They have what we call photographic memory, like Madam."

"You mean Madam Li has the same talent?" Fatty inquired.

"Yes, and far more extraordinary," Pharsa replied flatly.

"I thought Mushu was already awesome. I guess Madam must be much more awesome." Fatty said in amazement.

Pharsa laughed at Fatty's remark. "Indeed."

Four Eyes couldn't help but frown. 'My little wife is full of surprises.' He wasn't aware that Ling Li had this rare gift.

Pharsa received a message on her phone. After reading it, she frowned and returned her phone to her pocket.

"From today onwards, you will be on a strict diet. In three months, you should be able to run a mile in less than seven minutes. Give me at least 34 push-ups in two minutes, 120 sit-ups in a minute, and eight pull-ups with fifteen repetitions in a minute.

That is your goal. And we will train every day, slowly but surely." Pharsa strictly announced.

Just by listening to Pharsa's announcement, Fatty and Chatty want to faint. But Four Eyes, who would usually go to fitness back home and have been practicing karate, didn't seem to mind. However, he has to put extra effort into hitting the goal Pharsa has set.

"This is all for today. We need to head home now." Pharsa declared.

While on their way home, "Madam is not in a good mood, so please be careful."

Pharsa warned everyone.

Since Fatty and Chatty knew Four Eyes doesn't speak much and would not ask about what could have happened, they did it for him.

"What happened to Madam Li?" Fatty asked Pharsa courteously.

Pharsas' face dimmed in anger, and she told them about what had occurred in Ling Li's office earlier.

"How dare they dirty Madam's office! Good for these maniacs to end up dead!" Chatty's mouth spat out, and he just couldn't control himself.

"That's true! No one even informed Madam about it. Where were their loyalties?! Good for them! They all deserve it!" Fatty let out.

Four Eyes could only grit his teeth in anger.

Four Eyes almost jumped out of the car when they arrived at the and looked for Ling Li. He found her in the nursery feeding the twins.

Chapter 53: I WANT MORE

WARNING MATURE CONTENT

Four Eyes dismissed all the nannies in the room.

"Are you alright?" Four Eyes asked worriedly as he kissed Ling Li's forehead while caressing her head. "I heard what happened."

"I'm fine. Don't worry about it. I'll move to the top floor." Ling Li responded to Four Eyes with assurance.

"Okay." Four Eyes looked at his children whom Ling Li was feeding. "They are growing so fast."

"I know."

"Let me shower first."

"Sure, go ahead."

Four Eyes kissed Ling Li again before leaving the room.

When Four Eyes left, Pharsa came in.

"Madam, how could you be so lenient with that personal assistant of yours? You should let the whole office see her naked body so no one dares to follow in her footsteps." Pharsa angrily expressed her opinion.

"I have also thought about it, but I just let Mushu handle the matter as he prefers. I did not interfere with his arrangement." Ling Li explained.

"Damn that, Mushu. Since when did he become soft?!" Pharsa cursed him.

The twins had fallen asleep after they were full. Ling Li gently passed one of the girls to Pharsa, and they placed each one of them in their cribs and left the nursery.

Later that night, Four Eyes played with Ling Li's hair as they lay in bed that night.

Ling Li expected that this afternoon's training would have exhausted her husband.

"Are you not tired?" Ling Li asked.

Four Eyes just squinted his eyes and continued leisurely playing with Ling Li's hair.

'Dang! Where does this man obtain his energy?!' Ling Li thought.

"The children are arriving tomorrow. We should sleep early." Ling Li said.

"No. You should look radiant tomorrow." Four Eyes whispered in her ears as he started kissing Ling Li passionately.

Today's run and push-ups at the camp were nothing that Four Eyes couldn't do. After showering, he felt his body awaken, and he felt good.

"Chu Yan..." Ling Li moans. "How can you do this to me!" She cried.

"Um..."

Ling Li's moans are music to Four Eyes ears.

Four Eyes had not even thrust inside her. Yet, Ling Li was already gripping the sheets as she arched her body towards Four Eyes, feeling the electric sensation all over her body.

After Ling Li's first cum, Four Eyes put a pillow under her buttocks. Four Eyes positioned himself kneeling on top of Ling Li as he gathered her in his arms and whispered in her ears,

"Dear, may I?"

Ling Li nodded in silence.

Four Eyes thrust inside Ling Li, and he could not stop himself from vigorously moving.

"Uggghhhhhhh...Dear!" As Four Eyes pushed himself deep inside Ling Li, he couldn't help calling her.

Ling Li could only tightly wrap her arms around Four Eyes' neck and would bite him hard every time he teased her.

The pillow under Ling Li's bum let Four Eyes penetrate deep inside her, which made them both ecstatic.

Tonight, it was not only Ling Li who was moaning out loud but also Four Eyes,

"Uggghhhhhhhh.... Uggghhhhhhhh... have some more dear...."

Four Eyes' every thrust was so deep that it would make Ling Li's toes curl and her whole back curve, pushing her hip towards Four Eyes. Four Eyes' hand cupped Ling Li's breasts and kneaded them while pinching each nipple once in a while that would make her jerk; while he was kissing her other breast and sucking it, Ling Li could feel her midsection tightening.

"Harder...please..." Ling Li softly whispered.

"Mmmmmmmm...Chu Yan..." Ling Li could feel a shiver slowly building up on my spine, coming down stronger.

"I'm coming..."

Four Eyes came up to face Ling Li and smiled at her. "Come for me, dear." He whispered.

Four Eyes began to make his thrust harder and even more profound and faster.

"Ahhhhhhh.... ahhhhhhh I'm coming... Mmmmmmmm.." Ling Li cried.

"Uggghhhhhhhh... Dear, you are so beautiful...." Four Eyes loves how Ling Li looks and smells when she orgasms. It is very intoxicating for him.

"Uggghhhhhhhh...Dear, let me come too...Uggghhhhhhhh...." as Four Eyes catches his breath and panting...

"But I want more..." Four Eyes whispered and gave Ling Li butterfly kisses on her lips, cheeks, and neck.. which would tickle Ling Li and give her goosebumps as Four Eyes moved to thrust inside her again.

Ling Li could no longer remember how she went to bed. When she closed her eyes, she remembered Four Eyes was still so energetic.

Early the next day, Ling Li's alarm went off. "Chu Yan! Wake up! The Children are about to arrive!" Ling Li said as she got out of bed to wash and change. Four Eyes followed as well.

Ling Li went down and excitedly waited in the living room. After about fifteen minutes, Ren, Lily, and Shun arrived with Mushu and Pharsa.

"Mom!" Lily shouted and hugged her mother.

"Lily! Ren!" Lily exclaimed in excitement as soon as she saw them entering the house.

"Shun! Come in." Ling Li invited the shy and silent Shun Chang, Ren's long-time boyfriend and fiancé.

"How was your trip? you must be all exhausted!" Ling Li said as she stroked the hair of her two daughters.

The two ladies became silent this time as their eyes were focused on the man coming down the stairs.

"Chu Yan, meet the children. This is Ren. She is the eldest. And this is Lily. She's the youngest. Also, this is Shun. He is Ren's long-time boyfriend. Children, this is Chu Yan."

Chu Yan gave them a bow while the children gave him a big smile and a wave.

"Mom? He is...?" Ren wants to say something but doesn't know how to say it. But Ling Li knows her daughter well. Ren uses a different language so that Chu Yan won't understand it.

"Yes, he is younger than me but not as young as you. Though he looks really young, he is much older than you." Ling Li ensured her daughter.

"He practically looks like Shun and me!" Ren replied, couldn't hide the surprise on her face.

"I know. Ha ha ha... Your stepdad is more than ten years older than you." Ling Li reassured her.

"Really? How did you meet? Does he know?" Ren asked, worried.

"No, he doesn't know, and we already checked. He is good. Don't worry." Ling Li Patted Ren's shoulder reassuringly and kissed her forehead.

Chapter 54: REN AND LILY

"Mom, does he talk?" Lily asked curiously, pointing to Four Eyes.

"Of course! Why?" Ling Li finds the question funny but remembers Four Eyes is indeed a man of few words.

"I tried to talk with him, but he only used his head to answer me," Lily told her.

"Ha ha ha ha, Mushu, Pharsa!" Ling Li called them in.

"Yes, Madam."

"Lily has a question." Ling Li told them, giggling.

Pharsa looks at Lily.

"Does he talk?" Lily pointed to Four Eyes.

Mushu and Pharsa chuckled as well.

"Oh, your stepfather is a man of few words. You are lucky to hear him say yes or no." Mushu explained.

"But I'm sure he talks a lot with your mother in private," Pharsa added teasingly.

"Do you want to be punished?" Four Eyes whispered to Ling Li as he gritted his teeth.

"Pharsa asked the nannies to bring down the twins. I'm sure they are up by now." Ling Li abruptly changed the topic after hearing what Four Eyes whispered in her ears, which gave her goosebumps

"Yes! We want to see our little sisters!" Ren let out happily.

"Young Miss, when will you start your own family?" Mushu asked Ren. Mushu has always been very close to the children and considered family, so they can always communicate freely with them.

Ren and Shun looked at each other and then at Ling Li as if they wanted to say something but couldn't.

It didn't escape Mushu and Ling Li's eyes.

The awkward situation was broken by Pharsa's announcement.

"The twins are here!"

"Let me carry one!" Lily yelled excitedly as she got up.

"I want one too!" Ren followed her.

Each of the sisters took one of the twins, happily swaying and giggling. The twins are both wide awake and are also excitedly kicking their feet.

"Mom, they are so cute.!" Ren said it sweetly. But just as she finished the sentence, she heard, 'poooooot... poooooot.....!' And Ren felt the slight vibration on her hand and smelled something terribly wrong.

"O.. ow. Poop Alert! Poop Alert!" Pharsa confirmed in a funny tone.

"Brat!" Ren said. "I just said you're cute, and you poop on me!" Ren said as she tickled her baby sister, who was still happily kicking her legs as if nothing had happened and she didn't care.

"Is this how you welcome your big sister?" Ren playfully looked at her younger sister and kissed her. However, she couldn't help but cringed her nose as she smelled the poop again.

The Nanny came forward to take the baby to change nappies.

"No, no, no, I will come with you. Show me how to do it. I want to do it." Ren said to the Nanny.

But the Nanny didn't move and looked at Ling Li instead for consent. Ling Li laughed, she nodded and said, "These are my children." She informed the nannies.

The Nanny politely bowed to Ren, "This way, Young Miss."

Ren followed the Nanny to the nursery with her little sister in her hands.

"Mom, am I holding Kim Kim or Chin Chin?" Lily curiously asked.

"Hon, look if it's Chin or Kim." Ling Li asked Four Eyes to check instead, but without even getting up, Four Eyes could easily recognize who it was.

"It's Kim Kim." Four Eyes calmly replied.

"How can you tell?' Ling Li asked curiously.

"Hair."

"What's the difference with their hair?" Ling Li asked again.

"Fuller."

"Mom! How can you be slacking and not knowing your children better than stepdad!" Lily scolded her Mom.

"He is really close to them. I was still in a coma when they were born." Ling Li reasoned.

"Mom, you have recovered for over two months! It's more than enough to know them! You're a brilliant and skilled person! I know you!" Lily snarled. "I will let my big sister scold you better!"

"You!"

"Whaaaaaaaat!!!! How could you little brat pop so much!!!" They could hear Ren shouting from the nursery, and they all laughed.

"Shun, how long has it been since we saw each other?" Ling Li chatted to Shun this time.

"Yes, Auntie, it's been a long time," Shun replied timidly.

"Have you planned your future with Ren?"

"Auntie, I honestly came to talk with you this time. I thought about it well and would like to go through the training you offered." Shun said directly.

"Does Ren know?" Ling Li inquired.

"I told her about it. Ren is very reluctant because she is scared of the training. However, I know this is the only way I could protect her and our future children. She needs to understand and accept reality." Shun expressed his concern.

"That is very true. When do you plan to start training?" Ling Li asked.

"I am ready to start anytime. But I would like to ask a favor from you, Auntie." Shun asked politely.

"What is it? Tell me."

"Auntie, my only request is, while I'm on training, could you please keep Ren safe for me? Ren has been very dependent on me. She might break down with her sudden loss of sight of my appearance beside her, and Ren tends to overthink things. Please calm her down for me. This is all I will ask you while I'm training." Shun said sincerely.

"Shun, you are very thoughtful and very kind, and I appreciate your concern for Ren. Ren is my daughter. I will do everything you asked." Ling Li affirmed Shun; she could only admire Shun for his love for Ren.

Just as Ling Li was assuring Shun, Ren re-entered the living room with her little sister in her arms.

"Big sister! Mom is slacking with our little sisters! You have to scold her! She could not even tell who Chin Chin was or Kim Kim!" Lily spoke out with a grin while sticking her tongue out to her Mom.

"Mom, how could you!" Ren scolded her Mom.

Ling Li only rolled her eyes at her two daughters and pouted her lips.

"Stepdad is great! He could tell just by looking at them! The one you are holding is Chin Chin. I'm holding Kim Kim!" Lily announced cheerfully.

"Hi, Chin Chin! You brat, you poop a lot!" Ren said happily while Chin Chin happily kicked and cooed in her arms. "Stepdad sounds so old. Let's call him Paps!"

"Paps it is! Ha ha ha!" Lily said happily.

Chapter 55: PHARSA'S OTHER HALF

Ren sat beside Shun with Chin Chin in her arms.

"Shun, Chu Yan just started training. You can start training with him." Ling Li informed Shun casually.

"Auntie, that would be great if I could train with Uncle," Shun replied pleasingly.

"You have agreed to train?" Ren asked Shun in surprise.

"Yes, I have talked with your Mom. We have talked about it, right? It is time, after my training, we can get married. Okay?" Shun comforts Ren.

"Shun, you have to be very careful! You have to take care of yourself! You have to come back to me! You have to stay alive! You have to come back in one piece!" Ren started weeping and talked nonstop.

Shun cupped Ren's face and wiped her tears. Even Shun felt helpless seeing Ren like this. His heart felt a knot inside. Shun had tears in his eyes. He always had a soft spot when it came to Ren.

Ling Li and Four Eyes could not believe the two youngsters.

'What a drama queen my daughter is. Does she think her boyfriend is going to war? Will I kill her boyfriend, for heaven's sake! Will I even allow my daughter to be a widower before she marries?' Ling Li could only shake her head and chuckle.

Pharsa, who is a family, started to cry after seeing how emotional the two were.

Chin Chin, who was in Ren's arms, might have felt the tension in Ren's body and started crying loudly.

"You scared our little sister," Lily whispered.

"I'm sorry, little Chin Chin...Big sister felt sad. Ooooh. Okay, no more crying. Yes... Good girl. Your Brother-in-law is leaving for a while. Maybe you can go back with me and accompany me while he is away." Ren cried as she tried to calm Chin Chin.

"Eh! They are still breastfeeding!" Ling Li interrupted Ren's trail of thoughts of taking away her baby; her husband would never allow it.

This time, sounds from the stairs caught everyone's attention. Fatty and Chatty were coming down, but Chatty was in extreme pain from training and could hardly walk. He held the rail like a snake and made funny sounds with every move he made.

"Mom, who are they?" Ren inquired.

"They are Chu Yan's friends. And that man is Pharsas' other half?" Ling Li made this clear which made Pharsa's face distorted.

"Pharsas' other half? Really? But what happened to them?" Ling Li asked and couldn't help but wonder.

"They are training with Master Chu Yan. It has been three days." Mushu gave an answer.

"How come only he is injured?" Ren inquired out of curiosity.

"Because he's the only one stupid!" Pharsa annoyedly answered back.

"Who is stupid?" Chatty asked in pain as he descended the stairs.

Fatty caught sight of Lily and blushed. Lily, too, noticed Fatty and looked back down at Kim Kim, but her ears were all red.

The movement between the two didn't escape the eyes of Ling Li and Four Eyes.

"Who even reacted to the question is stupid! Who else looks stupid in this room but you!" Pharsa scolded Chatty.

"So you are Pharsas' other half?" Ren asked Chatty.

"Yes"

"No."

Everyone "...."

Chatty and Pharsa answer at the same time.

Everyone looked at them happily. They've always been like Tom and Jerry since they met. They always fight and argue.

"Uncle, I have grown up with Pharsa. The way I see it now, there is a bigger chance for a camel to pass through a needle hole than for Pharsa to like you. So, you must work harder to let her like you." Ren told Chatty as a matter of fact.

Chatty '!!!!'

Chatty was stupefied.

"Breakfast is ready." The Butler announced.

"Good! I'm looking forward to your breakfast, Mom!" Lily said.

The Nanny took the twins for their breakfast as well.

"I asked the chef to cook all your favorite dishes and snacks. You all have your own chefs at home. You can ask them to prepare them for you." Ling Li said as she led everyone to the dining hall.

"They just can't cook it the way your chef does!" Lily said with a pouty lip.

Fatty saw Lily's pouty lips and found her so cute that his whole face flushed.

"Shun, sit next to Chu Yan." Ling Li said.

"Thank you, Auntie."

"All the dishes are Ren and Lily's favorites, so several of them may not be familiar to everyone," Ling Li announced.

"This beef is very delicious," Fatty uttered.

"You like it?"

"It's savory," Fatty replied while taking another bite.

"This is Lily's favorite." Ling Li informed him.

"Oh! It's indeed delicious." Fatty's face again became flustered; Lily blushed as well.

That afternoon, Shun joined the three gentlemen to train with Pharsa. Though Ren was anxious, she was calmer when she learned that Pharsa was personally facilitating the training.

Ling Li took her two daughters shopping. While shopping, Mushu got a message from Shi Shi.

"Nina is trying to escape." Mushu forwarded the message to Ling Li.

"Let her escape and follow her closely. Let us see what she will do." Ling Li nonchalantly replied.

Mushu instructed his subordinates as Ling Li ordered.

Therefore, Nina was able to escape and directly went to the city center of Shi Shi. Nina looked for a place to pawn the jewelry she had taken from her room. When Nina found a pawn shop, she showed one of the bracelets she brought.

The man behind the counter checked the bracelet. Without Nina's knowledge, all the Li family's jewelry has an emblem that is exclusive to the family. Thus, all jewelers and pawn shops knew about it, and they were fully aware that whoever got their hands on it and didn't report it to the Li family would get into serious trouble.

The pawn shop owner dialed a number and informed them that a woman was in their shop to pawn a particular piece of jewelry with the family emblem. He sent them a picture of the bracelet and waited for their instruction. It soon reached Ling Li, and she advised the shop to release one million.

Ling Li was fully aware it was Nina. She wanted to know what will be Nina's next movement after pawning the jewelry, with one million in her hand.
