

RESTRICTED SUPERSTAR

Chapter 10: Overcoming a Strong Enemy

After becoming a C-level amateur player, Gao Xiaodong felt that it was time to challenge the strong players of the senior high school team.

The next day, he got up habitually and went for a run. After the run, he waited for the system to distribute a nutritious meal, but he heard the system say: The body has been remodeled, and players can eat outside food. Please don't overeat and continue to lose weight. , so as not to affect the upgrade.

Nima! Can it still affect the upgrade? ! Too bad!

Originally, Gao Xiaodong thought that his body transformation was over, and he went to have a big meal after the game in the afternoon, but now it seems that he can only have a snack.

Recently, Gao Xiaodong has a close relationship with the teammates of the team, and obviously spends more time in class than on the Internet. After a little breakfast, Gao Xiaodong came to the school, saw Sun Haitao and said, Captain, I think we should compete with our school's class 38, otherwise they won't be convinced.

Hearing Gao Xiaodong call Class Three and Class Eight into Class Three and Eight, the boys on the team all burst into laughter.

Gao Xiaodong spoke loudly, the girls in front heard it too, Li Xiu said to Zhao Xiyuan: This fat man insulted our girls, I'll scold him.

Zhao Xiyuan said: Rough and rude, ignorant, why are you talking to him?

Li Xiu blinked her eyes and said, Xiyuan, have you noticed that this fat man has changed a lot now.

Zhao Xiyuan didn't raise her head, and said, I didn't pay attention, I paid attention to what he was doing.

It seems to have become a bit human, not like a pile of fat, and the eyes are not too small, um, Xiyuan, did he lose weight for you?

Nonsense, what does it have to do with me, hurry up and study, the college entrance examination is less than three months away.

In fact, Zhao Xiyuan has seen it a long time ago. Ever since her classmates said that Gao Xiaodong had a crush on her and wanted to chase her, she couldn't help but pay attention to Gao Xiaodong. I have no such experience at all, and I don't know how to deal with this kind of thing. Fortunately, these are just worries, and it didn't happen in reality. Gao Xiaodong only cares about playing football, and hasn't spoken to her since that invitation. Feeling faintly disappointed, young girls' minds are always so sensitive and complicated.

the last row of the classroom

Yu Lei followed Gao Xiaodong's words and said: For the past month, Class Three and Class Eight have come to provoke me every day. If we don't show them how serious they are, they don't know that my mother-in-law is my mother.

Zhu Daqiang said: First class 3 or class 8?

Sun Haitao said: Of course I will play Class 8 first.

Gao Xiaodong laughed and said, Captain is wise, first squeeze the soft persimmons, and then gnaw the hard bones.

Sun Haitao smiled and said, Okay, fat man, go tell Zhao Lei, the captain of Class 8, that we will have a duel with them this afternoon.

Fuck, let me be the bad guys.

You were the one who started this matter. If you don't act as a bad person, whoever will be. Wu Lei said.

What do you mean you are a bad person? You are a bad person. Zhong Hao pushed Gao Xiaodong from behind, Hurry up.

Gao Xiaodong stumbled down to the door of Class 8 on the first floor, and said to Zhao Lei, You have finally had the opportunity to challenge us. See you at the stadium this afternoon for extracurricular activities.

Zhao Lei said angrily: What do you mean we challenge you, you challenged us first, okay?

Gao Xiaodong shrugged, It's the same anyway, see you in the afternoon.

Seeing Gao Xiaodong shaking his head and leaving in high spirits, the players and students in Class 8 were all furious, gearing up, preparing to torment Class 13 of liberal arts in the afternoon.

Science class 8 has 4 school team players, and is the veritable second child of Lucheng No. 3 Middle School. After winning 18 games in a row, the 13th class of liberal arts is now in the top three. The confrontation between their two teams has aroused the love of the whole school. Attention football students.

During extracurricular activities in the afternoon, before the competition started, hundreds of students came to the sidelines to watch the excitement.

All the members of class 3 of science also came. They hoped to see through the strength of class 13 through this game, so as not to suffer in the future.

Before, many people came to the games of Class 13 purely to watch Gao Xiaodong's jokes, but as Gao Xiaodong's weight loss took effect, he became more and more like a normal person, and scored goals in almost every game. Most of them turned into watching Gao Xiaodong's goal.

After being promoted to the C-level amateur player, Gao Xiaodong has become the main force of Class 13. He is still the starting center forward in this game, but now he is no longer standing, but wandering around the frontcourt.

A strong fat man is terrifying, and a strong fat man with three years of playing skills is even more terrifying, especially when facing high school students who have not fully developed.

Just five minutes into the game, Zhong Hao dribbled in the middle and split the side. Zhang Shanhu from the side made a cross.

The defense of Class 8 is the best in the school. It has two main guards of the school team, one of which is the captain Zhao Lei. Both guards stood up and prepared to head the ball to clear the siege, but Gao Xiaodong rushed over like a bulldozer and directly sent them Squeezed aside, Zhao Lei was almost knocked down.

Gao Xiaodong took off and jumped almost as high as a matchbox!

A flick of the header!

The ball went straight to the right of the goal.

The goalkeeper of class 8 was unable to make a save, and the ball went straight to the bottom of the net.

1:0

Class 13 took the lead easily.

Everyone knows that Gao Xiaodong is very good after losing weight, but even his teammates in class 13 don't know that he has become so good. An unfounded opportunity forced him to score a goal.

The students on the sidelines applauded and praised.

Gao Xiaodong is really amazing! Only practiced for a month.

If Fatty practiced football from a young age, he should be able to enter the professional team.

This talent, just now.

The people in class 8 couldn't believe their eyes, they were all dumbfounded, and they could put an apple in their mouths wide open.

The two central defenders were complaining to each other, Why don't you block him?

Can I stop it? He is at least sixty catties heavier than me.

Next time, foul first, or you won't be able to stop it.

Okay, you commit the crime first, and I will follow.

While the members of Class 8 over there complained to each other, the members of Class 13 cheered and rushed towards Gao Xiaodong, pushing him down on the turf.

The fat man is awesome!

Beautiful shot!

Fatty is amazing.

Everyone patted Gao Xiaodong, feeling extremely happy and relaxed.

The game continued, and the score was behind. Class 8, who was not good at attacking, had to attack, and Class 13 stayed behind to fight back.

The defense of class 13 is not strong, but the offense of class 8 is not good either. The two sides fought for 20 minutes, and no one scored again.

At the end of the first half, Sun Haitao made a long pass from the backcourt, Gao Xiaodong stopped the ball with his chest, and turned around forcibly under Zhao Lei's close pressing.

If he was able to turn around before he became a C-level amateur player, he might have lost the ball, but now Gao Xiaodong easily protects the ball and turns around, even knocking Zhao Lei, who was closely guarding him, staggering.

Zhao Lei's defensive skills are fine, but the physical gap is too big.

The defense of Class 8 was really good. Zhao Lei defended close to him, and another defender was still behind to help defend. Seeing that Gao Xiaodong broke through the defense of his teammates, another central defender decisively put in a shovel, trying to foul at the front of the penalty area and stop Gao Xiaodong from advancing.

The defenders of class 8 thought that Gao Xiaodong was fat and his movements were slow, so they adopted the tackling tactic, but they didn't expect that Gao Xiaodong's skills and body had improved even more than before. Just dial the ball out of the way and break through from him.

The goalkeeper of Class 8 attacked quickly, pounced on the ball at Gao Xiaodong's feet.

Everyone on the sidelines exclaimed, Gao Xiaodong be careful!

Gao Xiaodong might still panic when faced with a fierce goalkeeper before, but now that he has played more than 20 amateur games and has C-level football skills, Gao Xiaodong is already very experienced in handling single-handed balls. A push sent the ball from the keeper's armpit into the net.

2:0

Gao Xiaodong scored twice, expanding the score for Class 13.

The strength of Class 8 has always been stronger than that of Class 13. The two sides played a game before, and Class 13 lost 0:2. This time, Class 13 scored two in the first half, which made the students in Class 13 very excited. They clapped desperately, and their hands were numb.

After the half-time break, Class 8 was eager to equalize the score, and stormed at the beginning.

Class 13 came to the bottom with two goals, played confidently and positively, did not give Class 8 many chances to shoot, Class 8's attack power was mediocre, and did not grasp the few opportunities. After ten minutes in the second half, the players of Class 8 had no With physical strength, he can attack, but he can't return to defense.

Sun Haitao, the captain of Class 13, saw the weakness of his opponents, and said to Wu Lei and Zhong Hao, They've run out of energy, you should attack them.

Five minutes later, Song Xiaobo made a steal and passed the ball to Sun Haitao. Sun Haitao split the side. Wu Lei quickly went to the bottom. The defenders and midfielders of class 8 had no strength to return to the defense. Wu Lei passed the ball in without any defense. restricted area.

After Gao Xiaodong lost weight, his speed was not much worse than that of ordinary people. He quickly advanced, squeezed between the two central defenders, and poked his toe in the penalty area, and the ball rolled into the net from the goalkeeper's feet.

Gao Xiaodong performed a hat-trick.

This was Gao Xiaodong's second hat-trick. He raised his hands high, looked up at the sky, and remained motionless.

Damn! Pretending to be aggressive!

This forced outfit is fresh and refined!

The teammates laughed and cursed and ran over to congratulate.

They don't know, Gao Xiaodong is really not pretending, he is asking the system if there is any reward.

The system replied: No! Unless the record is broken.

Gao Xiaodong said: We have won 19 games in a row, and I have scored goals in 9 games in a row. Haven't we broken the record yet?

The system said: The school's amateur game winning streak is 35 games, and the scoring record is 9 games.

We all know that Gao Xiaodong's head is sweating.
