

RESTRICTED SUPERSTAR

Chapter 14 Hope Star Project

There are opponents on the field and classmates off the field. After the game, the players from Class 3 and Class 13 rushed to the municipal hospital to visit Yu Lei.

Yu Lei was in the emergency room, and everyone stood at the door and waited.

Ten minutes later, teacher Zhou Mingde came out and told the students that Yu Lei's brow bone was kicked, his jaw was dislocated, two of his front teeth were loose, and he had a slight concussion, but it was not life-threatening. Let them not worry and go back to school. go.

The other students knew that it was useless to stay here, so they returned to school one after another. Class monitors Zhao Xiyuan and Li Xiu, Li Heng and Liu Guangfei from class 3, and a few classmates from the team from class 13 who had a good relationship with Yu Lei did not leave.

Originally, Sun Haitao said that this was a game after school and had nothing to do with the class, so Zhao Xiyuan was asked to go back, but Zhao Xiyuan said that she was the monitor of the class and her classmates were injured, so she had to stay.

Soon after Yu Lei's parents arrived, Sun Haitao and Zhao Xiyuan explained the situation to Yu Lei's parents, and Li Heng also apologized to Yu Lei's parents, saying that he would pay for the medical expenses.

Although Yu Lei's parents feel sorry for their children, they are very reasonable, saying that Li Heng and the team cannot be blamed for this matter. In such a fierce football game, injuries are inevitable, and then let the students go home.

Zhao Xiyuan, Liu Guangfei, Gao Xiaodong and others also knew that staying here would not be of much help and would affect the normal work of the hospital, so they bid farewell to Yu Lei's parents and left.

Outside the hospital, Zhao Xiyuan said: It's not appropriate for Yu Lei to pay for the treatment himself. I'll go back and ask my classmates to donate.

Zhao Xiyuan usually gives people the feeling of superiority. Everyone regards her as a goddess, but there is no sense of intimacy. Sun Haitao, Gao Xiaodong and others were surprised and moved by Zhao Xiyuan's love today.

Liu Guangfei said: Li Heng is also responsible. His responsibility is the responsibility of Class 3. Tomorrow I will also call on our class to donate. We cannot let Yu Lei pay for it himself.

Zhao Xiyuan said: Okay, it's settled like this. Let's meet again after donating money tomorrow.

Liu Guangfei said, Okay, goddess.

After agreeing on the medical expenses, everyone went home.

Gao Xiaodong was also very sad when his deskmate was injured, but this sadness was largely offset by the excitement and joy of receiving system rewards.

Hurrying back to his rented house and closing the door, Gao Xiaodong immediately clicked on the Road to Superstar system to find the system information.

The player broke the scoring record of Lucheng No. 3 High School and was rewarded with a red envelope.

Gao Xiaodong clicked to open the red envelope.

A coquettish red jersey and shorts appeared in Gao Xiaodong's hands out of thin air, and at the same time a line of Chinese characters appeared in Gao Xiaodong's mind: D-level super jersey, with automatic color changing, automatic deformation, and automatic water absorption functions.

Hold the grass! So awesome!

Holding the jersey, Gao Xiaodong couldn't put it down, the tentacles were as smooth and delicate as silk, yet soft and warm as cotton cloth, these black technologies are so awesome, if... Gao Xiaodong immediately gave up the idea of selling it to make money.

Throwing away the tight looking jersey and putting on the super jersey, it was as slippery as silk and as warm as cotton. Gao Xiaodong felt very comfortable and asked, What material is this made of?

Supertrino.

Dizzy, I don't understand. What is a hypertrino?

The system is silent.

Where are these items hidden? Gao Xiaodong was really curious and couldn't help asking.

In the system store.

Gao Xiaodong looked at the empty interface, there was nothing but his personal information and system messages, so he couldn't help asking: Where is the system store? Why can't I see it?

The system said: Your level is not enough, you can only unlock it at the professional level.

Why, it's not fair, it's so unfair! Isn't the store just selling things? Why are there professional and amateur ones? Amateur money shouldn't be used as money.

The system fell silent again.

Gao Xiaodong suddenly thought of a question,

System, our team is wearing a Manchester United jersey, which is different from the one you gave me. Can you give me a Manchester United jersey?

This jersey has auto-morphing capabilities and can be anything you want it to be.

Damn it! It's so awesome! I'll try it. Gao Xiaodong said silently, Turn into a Manchester United jersey.

Gao Xiaodong stared at the jersey when he said it, but he saw nothing, and the jersey became a Manchester United jersey, even with the team logo.

Damn! It's amazing, and then turned into an Argentina jersey!

After Gao Xiaodong finished speaking, the jersey changed into the blue jersey of Argentina again.

Awesome... The black technology is too powerful...

Gao Xiaodong changed the jersey back and forth, excited like a child, and didn't wash it until he got tired of playing and went to bed.

A high school amateur game was played so fiercely, the stadium was stained with blood, and the players were sent to the hospital. This made the school leaders of Lucheng No. 3 Middle School very angry. On the same day, Principal Zhang lashed out at the students who played football at the school affairs meeting. He is a layman in foreign wars and an expert in civil wars. As the best high school in the city, it is directly affiliated with the middle school. He has not won a city football championship in three years, so he is ashamed to play football.

The teaching office of No. 3 Middle School issued a notice the next day, senior one and senior two are only allowed to play football in physical education class, and senior three are not allowed to play football from now on. If there is any violation, the first time will be demerited, and the second time the parents will be called. Expelled for the third time.

The school issued a ban, and the college entrance examination is only two months away. Under the coercion of the class teacher, the teams of all classes in the third year of senior high school have been disbanded one after another. learning.

For Gao Xiaodong, this is a very depressing thing. He doesn't expect results at all, he only hopes to be able to quickly upgrade in football and take high-level exams. Now the system tasks have not been completed, but there is no game to play.

One day after going to the gymnasium to practice, Wang Dong sent his students away, stopped Gao Xiaodong, and said, Xiaodong, I want to tell you something.

What's the matter, coach. Recently, Wang Dong helped Gao Xiaodong train every day. Gao Xiaodong was very grateful and respected Wang Dong.

It's like this. This year, the Chinese Football Association and Adidas have formulated a Hope Star football reserve talent training plan. Adidas sponsors young players in the 90-94 age group to play in Europe. Now they are conducting auditions across the country. There are four teams in the country. There are four competition areas in each competition area, and our Lu province is a big football province. Every city football association is required to send teams to participate. Entering the finals, I just hope not to be too embarrassing in the provincial trials...

Gao Xiaodong held his head and said: Coach, I'm a little dizzy, you can just talk about the topic.

You kid. Wang Dong slapped Gao Xiaodong on the head, Our city's youth team is actually the strongest in the last three years, but it lacks a strong center forward. I want you to join the city team. How do you feel about the first tryout, I know you are facing the college entrance examination now, time is tight...

This is water for those who are thirsty, and pillows for those who are sleepy. Gao Xiaodong said happily: Coach, don't talk nonsense. My grades can't be improved even if a god is a teacher now. The time is not tight at all. When are you talking about the competition? , as long as you think I can do it, I can participate at any time.

Wang Dong was very happy, and said, That's good. I'll get your registration with the Football Association today. I'll meet with my teammates tomorrow. I'm going to participate in the competition this weekend.

Gao Xiaodong was about to agree, when suddenly a cold voice from the system came in his mind: Don't register, just participate as a high school student.

Gao Xiaodong didn't know why, but he knew that the system was amazing, so he said, Coach, I don't want to register with the Football Association, and I still have to take the college entrance examination. I don't want to spend my whole life doing sports.

Wang Dong pondered for a while, and said: Okay, there is no problem, anyway, this is an audition, anyone can participate.

Gao Xiaodong said: That's good.

Wang Dongdao: Okay, go back and rest, remember to come to the gymnasium tomorrow.

Okay, goodbye Coach Wang. Gao Xiaodong solved the problem of not being able to play the game, and happily bid farewell to Wang Dong and left the gymnasium.
