

RESTRICTED SUPERSTAR

Chapter 3 D-Level Amateur Skills

With five minutes left before the end of the game, Wu Lei, the midfielder of Class 13, finally realized that Gao Xiaodong came to play a game for the first time with his devotion to football, and he should let Gao Xiaodong touch the ball. So he gave Gao Xiaodong a pass at a distance of about three meters.

When Wu Lei passed the ball, Gao Xiaodong was thinking wildly, because the ball was flying around Gao Xiaodong like a bird, but he couldn't touch it at once, Gao Xiaodong was very annoyed, he was planning to get the reward of the superstar system, Be sure to go all over the place.

Gao Xiaodong was distracted and didn't see the ball passed by Wu Lei. The ball just hit his foot and bounced out. Unfortunately, it bounced to the opponent's foot.

Seeing the ball bouncing in front of the members of Class 14, Wu Lei cursed angrily: You damn fat man, you don't even know how to open your mouth when the meal is served to you.

After class 14 accidentally got the ball, they immediately launched a counterattack, but their level was too poor, and the ball was cut off by the defender of class 13 before it passed the midfield.

The ball reached Zhong Hao's feet this time. As a teammate, Zhong Hao felt that he should also pass the ball to Gao Xiaodong, and said: Wu Lei, your pass is too powerful, let me do it.

Zhong Hao took the ball and stopped in front of Gao Xiaodong, and said with a smile, Come on, fat man, take a shot.

loved ones! Gao Xiaodong's heart trembled with excitement, he recalled the scenes on TV, the movement of kicking a ball in elementary school, and kicked it.

Gao Xiaodong forgot that the current him and the primary school boy were two people, he missed the ball and fell on his back on the artificial turf.

Hahaha

Hold the grass! I was knocked down by the ball! Fatty is awesome!

This guy will definitely become a comedian if he plays a sketch.

Not only the members of Class 13, but also the members of Class 14 and the students on the sidelines burst into laughter.

Gao Xiaodong turned over, turned into a lying state, and then slowly got up. This slow-motion motion like a giant panda made his teammates and opponents laugh so hard that they couldn't even kick the ball.

Having been fat for many years, Gao Xiaodong's skin has become as thick as a city wall, and he said to Zhong Hao with a smirk, I'm careless, next time I will definitely kick it right.

Next time? Haha, there's no next time. I'll pass the ball to you again. No one will say that I hurt you on purpose. Zhong Hao smiled and shook his head like a fan.

Wu Lei said: The game is over now, you should wait until the end, Fatty, you must come.

Song Dabo said: Frustration can't beat a real man, fat man, you must come.

Gao Xiaodong waved his fist and said: It must, don't worry, I will impress you tomorrow.

That's right, if you come to the game, I'll watch it even if you're blind.

Wu Lei's words caused another burst of laughter.

Soon, the game ended with laughter. Class 13 defeated Class 14 3:1. Gao Xiaodong played 25 minutes, passively touched the ball once, was passed N times, and ran 300 meters, becoming the court Most notable players.

Fatty, okay, I ran several hundred meters.

Zhu Daqiang touched Gao Xiaodong's chest muscles.

Sun Haitao said: Fatty, based on your performance today, you will be a member of our team from now on.

Gao Xiaodong said out of breath, Why, there is an exam.

Yu Lei said: You are right, don't mistake the village chief as a cadre, but today you passed the test of the organization.

Gao Xiaodong rubbed his belly and said, We won the game, shouldn't we have a meal to celebrate?

Although he really wanted to see what the system's rewards were, but now Gao Xiaodong was really hungry, and if he didn't add some nutrition, he felt that he would faint from hunger immediately.

Zhong Hao said: Fatty's suggestion is good, if you treat guests, we will give you face.

Gao Xiaodong spread his hands and said, I don't have any money, I borrowed money from Yu Lei to buy the jersey in the morning.

Sun Haitao pondered for a while and said, Go,

Let's celebrate, AA system, go if you want to go, and go home if you don't want to.

There are a few young people who don't like to be lively. Under the leadership of Sun Haitao, all members of the team went to the Red Rose Hotel outside the No. 3 Middle School for dinner.

This was Gao Xiaodong's first time eating with members of the 13th class football team, and it was also the first time he felt how terrible it is for a seventeen or eighteen-year-old boy to eat.

It will never take more than five seconds for each dish to be eaten. Even the most troublesome peanuts will be scooped up by them in an instant with a spoon.

Gao Xiaodong felt the trouble of the fat man again, he was only half full when all the dishes were served, so he had no choice but to gnaw on the steamed bun desperately.

After dinner, Gao Xiaodong didn't go to evening self-study. Since he was in the second year of high school, he didn't know what evening self-study was. He bid farewell to his classmates and went back to his rented house.

After closing the door, Gao Xiaodong immediately asked the system: What is my reward?

The player has completed the system tasks and obtained the basic skills of D-level amateur football.

Following the cold electronically synthesized voice, a line of Chinese characters appeared in Gao Xiaodong's mind.

Hahaha! Gao Xiaodong yelled Receive the reward with great excitement, and then he felt a lot of messy football skills and tactical awareness entered his mind like enlightenment, including the skills and awareness of forwards, defenders, and others. With a goalkeeper, Gao Xiaodong directly possessed a large amount of football skills and playing experience.

It's a big grass! It's amazing! It's black technology. If I become a football coach, I won't immediately become a world famous coach.

You think too much, the rewards can only be used by players bound to the Road to Superstar system.

Gao Xiaodong was masturbating, and the cold voice of the system came from his mind, directly breaking Gao Xiaodong's dream.

System, what is the basic level of D-level amateur football skills?

The lowest level in amateur football is equivalent to an amateur player who has played an amateur game for a year.

Ah! So good! System, how can I get professional football skills.

Complete the tasks specified by the system to upgrade.

Where is the mission? I want to upgrade.

System task: Play ten official amateur games; can be upgraded to a C-level amateur player, reward: C-level amateur football basic skills.

A line of Chinese characters appeared in Gao Xiaodong's mind.

Ah! That's great.

Before Gao Xiaodong finished speaking, another line of Chinese characters flashed in his mind, The player's health is too poor to reach the level of a D-level amateur player, and he cannot complete the upgrade task. The system will assist the player to complete the body transformation.

Reform? How to reform?

Gao Xiaodong was taken aback, he had already seen the horror of black technology, and was worried that he would transform himself beyond recognition, so that even his parents would not be able to recognize him.

The system did not answer.

Boring, Fei Jue.

It was the first time in Gao Xiaodong's life that he had been exercising for such a long time. He felt like his whole body was falling apart, and could turn into a pile of fat at any time. He took off his clothes, lay down on the bed, and immediately fell asleep.
