

RESTRICTED SUPERSTAR

Chapter 9 Rapid Progress

Fatty! You're so exhausted after running two steps! You get the ball in one step! Wu Lei roared angrily when he saw that his wonderful pass was wasted.

Nimma! If you can run, I still need you to command! As long as I can score goals, I want you to break!

Gao Xiaodong lazily stood on the edge of the restricted area, motionless.

At this moment, the match between Class 13, Class 3 and Class 12, Senior 12 has entered the second half, Class 13 is leading 5-0, Gao Xiaodong scored a goal with a header, and with a goal, Gao Xiaodong's voice became louder and his arrogance became even stronger. Arrogant.

Captain Sun Haitao said: Wu Lei, don't let him run away. If he runs again, he won't have the strength to score goals.

Gao Xiaodong said with a smile: Look, the captain is still considerate.

Wu Lei gave Gao Xiaodong a bad mouthful: You fat man who flirts with you.

While speaking, Song Dabo, the midfielder of Class 13, had already grabbed the ball and handed it over to Zhong Hao. Zhong Hao dribbled the ball straight in and reached the front of the penalty area of Class 12, Senior One.

Zhong Hao's technique is very good, the opponent quickly came to block, Zhong Hao picked the ball to the penalty area, and shouted: Fatty, the ball is coming! Perform an upside-down golden hook!

Such a short-range pass was very accurate, and the ball fell to Gao Xiaodong's head. The guard of class 12 thought about making a clearance. Gao Xiaodong's body was huge, with one arm, and the bean sprouts guard in the first year of high school couldn't even touch the edge. .

Gao Xiaodong's chest stopped the ball, and he was going to shoot again, but his belly was too big, the ball didn't land on his feet, and rolled from his belly to one meter in front of him.

If the D-level basic skills are not obtained, the goalkeeper will get the ball, but now Gao Xiaodong has the consciousness of shooting. He subconsciously fell to the ground and shoveled. It's time for the ball.

The goalkeeper of Class 12 had already attacked to catch the ball, Gao Xiaodong touched it, and the ball just rolled from the goalkeeper's hand into the net.

Goal! Fatty scored again!

Nimma! It's unreasonable! Is it possible to score while lying down?

The fat man has really improved, the reaction to this ball is very fast.

Twice scored!

The members of class 13 were excited and surprised, but they were all happy for Gao Xiaodong, and they all came to congratulate with a big smile.

Gao Xiaodong only played three games, but his comedian has attracted many people to watch. Seeing Gao Xiaodong scored another goal, the high school students applauded vigorously, shouting: Fatty come on, Fatty performed a hat-trick .

After the score became 6:0, Class 13 completely relaxed. Everyone tried to do all kinds of coordination and extraordinary moves that they saw on TV. The chase came up and tackled from behind, but whether it was teammates or opponents, including the audience, they could feel that Gao Xiaodong had made great progress and could play football, but he was too fat to use his skills to the fullest.

In the last minute of the game, Gao Xiaodong caught the ball at the front of the penalty area and volleyed vigorously to break through the gate of Class 12 of Senior One for the third time, performing his first hat-trick in his life.

This shot confirmed everyone's guess, Gao Xiaodong really knows how to play football, people who can't play football can't exert such force at all, and it's impossible for them to move so well.

This is Gao Xiaodong's third time playing football. His technique has improved so fast, he doesn't look like a beginner at all. Is this a genius, or has he played football before? However, judging from the first game, it turned out that Gao Xiaodong must have never played football. The students in Class 13 knew that Gao Xiaodong liked to play football games.

In the final match against Class 12 of Senior One, Class Thirty-three won an overwhelming victory. They swept their opponents 7-0 and created the best result since the team was established. After Gao Xiaodong scored in the last game, Another hat-trick was staged this time. If Gao Xiaodong wasn't too short and too slow to jump up, he would definitely become a nuclear weapon in class 13's set-pieces and crosses.

Immediately after the game, Gao Xiaodong asked the system if there was any reward for his first hat-trick.

The system said that there is no reward for hat-tricks, only for hat-tricks that create records, there are no rewards for ordinary hat-tricks. This made Gao Xiaodong very depressed, he thought he would be rewarded for performing a hat-trick.

After that, Class 13 would choose the weakest team to play each time and avoid the strong teams. After one month, they played 18 games and won 18 consecutive victories.

Although the wretched practices of Class 13 are not ashamed by Class 3 and Class 8 of the third year, they have never achieved this 18-game winning streak. For this, they can only keep coming to challenge, hoping to break Class 13 as soon as possible winning streak.

In this month, even more miraculous than Class 13's miraculous winning streak is Gao Xiaodong's weight loss speed. After a month, Gao Xiaodong lost 15 kg, from 110 kg to 95 kg. Although he is still very fat, his face shape He is already close to a normal person, his stomach is smaller, his speed is faster, his strength is stronger, and he has become a real fat man on the court.

But the most amazing thing is Gao Xiaodong's football skills. In just one month, Gao Xiaodong's football skills are not inferior to those of his teammates who have played football for many years in the class. This makes the other teammates of class 13 dumbfounded. It can only be said that the fat man does have a strong football talent, but it is buried by laziness and fatness.

After playing 10 games, Gao Xiaodong was not able to be promoted to a C-level amateur player, because his body is not yet the standard of a D-level player.

After playing 18 games, Gao Xiaodong finally heard the cold synthesized voice of the system, The body transformation is complete, the player has completed the C-level game tasks, and the body has reached the standard of an amateur player. Now he has been upgraded to a C-level amateur player and obtained a C-level amateur player. football skills.

Next task: 20 official amateur matches, reward: B-level amateur football basic skills

At this moment, the electronically synthesized sound seemed to be full of warmth, and Gao Xiaodong asked almost with tears in his eyes: System, what is the level of an amateur C-level player?

Equivalent to the level of ordinary people playing football for three years.

Halo, it's so low!

Players are too greedy. They can reach the level of ordinary people playing football for three years in one month. This is a very fast speed.

I have played 18 games in the system, can't I be promoted after 10 games? What about the 8 extra games? You can't embezzle the games I played so hard. Gao Xiaodong stared.

The 8 more games played will be included in the next task.

Ah! You are so kind, System, I love you. Gao Xiaodong's face changed quickly, and he smiled immediately upon hearing this.

The system is speechless.

Okay, is there a red envelope reward for advancing?

Only by breaking records or winning championships.

Can't you relax a bit?

Seeing that the system stopped talking again, Gao Xiaodong sighed, knowing that he would have a chance to obtain some black technology products only if he kept scoring goals and winning.
