

Real Daughter 16

Chapter 16: Starting To Retaliate

Shi Dai was furious. She did not expect to be bullied by a country bumpkin. This was the first time she had encountered such humiliation.

Lin Yin was dead meat!

However, before she could vent her emotions, Lin Yin said, By the way, don't you despise adopted daughters? Then you can despise her.

Lin Yin looked into Su Fei's eyes and smiled faintly. Su Fei took a step back in shock. This woman wasn't going to expose her, was she?

However, just as Su Fei was thinking of a solution, she realized that Lin Yin had stopped advancing and was about to turn around and leave.

Shi Dai shouted at Lin Yin, You despicable and shameless adopted daughter! Just wait to die!

Die? Lin Yin turned around and glanced at her. The coldness in her eyes glinted and Shi Dai instantly fell silent.

Would someone who had died once still be afraid of death?

Watching her leave, Shi Dai and Ji Yun were exasperated. This detestable Lin Yin! The kind and cute Su Fei was no match for her!

Although Lin Yin was previously in the slums, she was extremely capable and was a contracted reporter for a media company.

In order to improve her life, Lin Yin worked hard all the way and used two years to grow an account with millions of fans-The Fight for Justice. Although she had never shown her face, with her incisive s about the news and bright literary style, people resonated with her every time she spoke.

In her previous life, she had been bullied so much that she had not even thought of the most powerful weapon she had.

In this life, she was going to use everything she had to retaliate!

Lin Yin picked up her phone and posted the video of Shi Dai shouting at the waiter online with the caption: The eldest daughter of the Shi Corporation said that the waiter in the restaurant is low-class and he doesnt even have the right to talk to her.

The video was accompanied by words and instantly received tens of millions of views. All the major media outlets reposted and posted.

[The Shi Corporation? The one where the Second Young Master of the Corporation has six girlfriends at the same time?]

[No way. I just forgot about the gossip about them, and now there's a new one?]

[Tsk tsk, I knew it. None of them are good. Isn't this a slap in the face for us ordinary people? If I go shopping at a shop owned by this family again, I'll be a dog. This post is proof!]

Unsurprisingly, Lin Yin did not spend a single cent to make this incident trend.

This matter had blown up too much. Shi Dai was grounded by her father and couldn't go out. In a hurry, she spent money to find the entire video of Lin Yin splashing red wine at her and posted it online. She tried to use this video to control the direction of public opinion and turn the tables.

But things were not as simple as she had imagined. She had thought that she would gain the public's sympathy, but she did not expect that the s section would get even more out of control.

[Which heroine ripped the eldest daughter of the Shi Family apart? Tsk tsk, what a waste of that glass of red wine!]

[Unfortunately, it's not boiling water!]

[If it were me, I would slap her too! I'd give her a few slaps!]

[Do you still have such videos? I want to see her kneel down and beg for mercy! Scolding a waiter is equivalent to scolding everyone in the service industry. Such a person is too hateful!]

[We still have to report to the relevant authorities and see if there's a problem with her family's finances]

Looking at the public opinion online, President Shi was anxious. He had worked hard for most of his life to build his family business, but he had never encountered such a crisis.

The first time he saw that news, he scoffed. He often said such things himself and it did not necessarily have such influence.

He had thought that this was an insignificant matter, but he did not expect it to cause such a huge commotion!

President Shi was at his wits end and could only place his hopes on the Su Family. He prepared a few gifts and rushed to the Su Family overnight.

In the hall, after understanding the other party's intentions, Su Zhen called his two daughters out. Before he could speak, Su Fei, who knew that things were not going well, cried, We were just going to the mall. We didn't expect Sister Lin Yin to be there too. They quarreled after a few exchanges.

The complete video was released by the eldest daughter of the Shi family herself. When she said that, I didn't even look up. Lin Yin tried her best to make her voice sound aggrieved. Besides, I didn't know who was the one that confronted me back then.

Lin Yin's words rendered Su Fei speechless. They had watched the video many times, and it was true.

As for the person who filmed the video, it was obviously not Lin Yin. She was completely in the frame.

Lin Yin looked at Su Fei's stiff expression from the corner of her eyes and smiled to herself. She didn't expect that sometimes, such a lame method of pretending to be aggrieved was quite useful.

Chapter 17: Agreeing to Clarify

Although President Shi did not think that his daughter was in the wrong, he knew that in the eyes of the public, Lin Yin was the victim. Now that the matter had blown up, there was no point in removing the video. The only way was to get the person involved to clarify things. Only then could the Shi Corporation recover its losses.

At the thought of this, President Shi rubbed his hands and said to Lin Yin with a red face, "I came here today to ask you for help with something. I hope you can release a clarification statement to say that you were just rehearsing a short school drama at that time. It was all a misunderstanding, okay?"

Ridiculous. Now he wanted her to clarify things?

Lin Yin still remembered that he had replied disdainfully in the s, "They're just children fooling around, I'm baffled!"

Lin Yin lowered her head and thought for a moment before agreeing. "Then how should I make a statement?"

Seeing the little girl in front of him, President Shi felt that the problem had been resolved and he relaxed a lot.

He leaned against the sofa and said casually, as if he was instructing his subordinates, "You can attend the press conference with my daughter, Shi Dai, and just explain this matter clearly."

On the other hand, Shi Dai was furious about the press conference that was about to start.

She had just experienced cyberbullying and had too many grievances in her heart. Now, in order to stop affecting her family and their business, she had to swallow her pride and shake hands with that bumpkin Lin Yin from the slums under the spotlight of the various media outlets.

Mrs. Shi advised gently, “Baby, look at the big picture. You can’t just let yourself be. Solve the problem first.”

“I don’t want to attend this press conference with that fake daughter!” Shi Dai was furious. She had been splashed with red wine and the video had spread everywhere. She had even been casually insulted and trampled on.

The s section was filled with curses. They dug out all the dirt on everyone in their family and scolded them.

What was worse was that she was the one who released this video.

God! Who would be as stupid as her?!

“Fake daughter? Who are you talking about?” Mrs. Shi asked in confusion.

“Who else could it be? It’s that Lin Yin. The Su Family gave her a lot and she still wants to step on Feifei’s head. She’s not worthy of being the adopted daughter of the Su Family!”

Shi Dai was furious. She was unhappy at the mention of this.

“Hmph, can a pheasant become a phoenix? Everyone in the Su Family has been deceived by her. I don’t know why they would adopt such a daughter...” The more Shi Dai thought about her best friend, Su Fei, the angrier she became.

“Alright, let’s not care about other people’s family matters. And that Su Fei, you’ve been used by her every time and you’re still clueless!” Madam Shi had always disliked this daughter of the Su family. Ever since Shi Dai met Su Fei, her temper had become much worse.

“Mom, you don’t know how pitiful Feifei is. When she sees Lin Yin, she’s like a mouse that saw a cat.” Shi Dai refused to let go, trying to convince her mother to condemn Lin Yin with her.

How could an adopted daughter ride on a biological daughter’s head the moment she arrived? Something was wrong. A question mark was buried in Mrs. Shi’s heart. She had to investigate this matter.

The venue of the press conference was crowded. All the media outlets had reserved seats in advance. Someone had already sent a voice message and video to clarify the rumors online to pave the way for today’s press conference. It was said that they were rehearsing for a school play that had been captured by someone with ulterior motives and posted online to defame the Shi Corporation.

They had already sent a lawyer’s letter to legally protect their rights and punish the rumormongers with the law.

This time, the people involved came to clarify and resolve the misunderstanding. Actually, Lin Yin and the daughter of the Shi Corporation, Shi Dai, were very good friends.

Lin Yin had also read most of it online. In order to resolve this crisis, the Shi Corporation put in a lot of effort.

They might have investigated that account too. Lin Yin sneered. Previously, she had exposed an underground transaction of the corporation and was almost discovered. In order to protect her, the account was tied to a news reporter that moved overseas.

The account was still Lin Yin’s, but it could not be traced back to her.

President Shi had arranged for Lin Yin and Shi Dai to go to the venue of the press conference in advance and wait in a studio. It was also a good opportunity for them to rehearse their lines in advance to avoid mistakes.

When Shi Dai saw Lin Yin, she was smug. This b*tch was so arrogant that day, but today, didn't she still have to lower herself and apologize and listen to her father's arrangements to explain to the public that it was just a misunderstanding?

She had to seize the opportunity to teach Lin Yin a lesson and let her experience what it was like to be embarrassed online!

At the thought of this, Shi Dai raised her chin and smiled disdainfully.

Lin Yin didn't need to look to know what she was thinking. However, this didn't matter. She could just do whatever she wanted!

Chapter 18: Accident

"Miss Shi, Miss Lin, I'm Assistant Li, who's in charge of you. Take a look at today's speech first. You're not allowed to bring it on stage later. Memorize it."

Assistant Li, who was present, noticed the subtle awkwardness in the air and quickly tried to ease it.

Lin Yin took the script and looked at the sincere words written. Most of them were words of apology.

As for Shi Dai's, it was all about how aggrieved she felt, how the cyberbullying these few days had caused her great mental and physical trouble, and how her depression had worsened because of the cyberbullying and she even had the thought of committing suicide.

Lin Yin even wanted to ask if Su Fei was the one who wrote Shi Dai's speech.

Lin Yin cleared her throat and read it out loud. "I'm sorry for encroaching on public resources. I want to apologize for what happened online a few days ago. I'm good friends with Shi Dai from the Shi Corporation. We're very close. We were rehearsing a short school play that day..."

At this point, Lin Yin frowned and asked in confusion, "It's so lengthy, do I have to memorize all of it?"

"You don't know how to memorize it?" Shi Dai took the opportunity to mock her. "If you don't know how to memorize it, scram back to your slum. I don't want to be seen with a lowly person like you..."

All the media outlets present gasped. Someone had turned on the loudspeaker in the backstage studio. Although they had yet to enter, the reporters present could hear their words clearly.

Before the press conference started, they heard Miss Shi's latest words. Lin Yin was undoubtedly the one who was forced to compromise.

This press conference was also planned by the Shi Corporation. Time was money. Several reporters released the recording at the scene.

For a moment, public opinion began to lean towards Lin Yin again. This time, the criticism of the Shi Corporation on the Internet was overwhelming. Shi Dai's words were exactly the same as the last time, making her unable to retaliate.

This time, Lin Yin's words and actions in the studio were not offensive at all. Even if they wanted to blame someone, she could not be blamed.

The scene was in chaos. Someone called Assistant Li urgently to inform him. Assistant Li hurriedly turned off the loudspeaker, but it was too late. The press conference had to stop immediately.

President Shi was so angry that his mind was blank and his blood surged. He strode into the studio and slapped Shi Dai's face. "I told you to stop talking. Why didn't you listen?!"

Shi Dai covered her face as tears streamed down her face. She couldn't believe that her father would hit her.

"Dad, why did you hit me? Can't I even prepare for the press conference? It's all this Lin Yin's fault! Hit her!"

It happened so suddenly that Shi Dai still did not know why her father suddenly hit her.

President Shi was furious. He looked at Lin Yin, who was sitting in the corner with a script in her hand. It was obvious that she had been reading it seriously just now. When Lin Yin saw Shi Dai being hit, confusion appeared on her face.

An assistant in a black shirt jogged in and whispered something in President Shi's ear. President Shi's expression became even heavier.

After hearing this, his face darkened. He waved at the flustered and stunned Assistant Li.

When Assistant Li came in to prepare, he accidentally pressed the button for the loudspeaker. Just now, they had checked the surveillance cameras. This was just an accident, not someone's scheme.

Now that things had come to this, the press conference could not be held anymore. Many reporters were satisfied and left the venue. Some reporters who did not record the conversation just now continued to squat at the scene, wanting to interview Lin Yin or Shi Dai directly.

President Shi looked at the situation slightly. He did not know what his daughter would do next. It was better to hurry home to be safe. Thinking of this, he asked the bodyguards to send her back.

After being hit, Shi Dai was even more indignant. She couldn't believe that Lin Yin had taken advantage of her again.

Lin Yin also wanted to leave early. When she left, she ran in front of Shi Dai.

Shi Dai, who could be fooled by Su Fei, naturally did not think too much. She saw that Lin Yin was in a hurry to leave and wanted to teach her a lesson.

There were layers of reporters surrounding the back door. Lin Yin glanced at them from the corner of her eye. Shi Dai had already followed her.

Very good, now's the time!

Lin Yin knew what Shi Dai would do next, so she would cooperate with her.

As Lin Yin had expected, the next second, Shi Dai reached out and pushed Lin Yin. Lin Yin happened to be at the last step and lost her balance and fell. There were cries of surprise from the surroundings, and the reporters finally took the opportunity to take photos.

Fortunately, there were many people in front. Lin Yin was held by someone and did not fall very hard.

Was today over? It was really tiring to pretend to be innocent and naive. She did not know how Su Fei did it, but Lin Yin sighed in her heart.

The Su Fei mimicking show today officially ended.

Chapter 19: Release the Shocking News

The Shi Corporation was stronger than the Su Family, so Lin Yin could not gain any advantage if she went head first against them.

In her previous life, she had fought with Shi Dai countless times. Lin Yin knew Su Fei as well as she knew her. Even if the press conference went smoothly, Shi Dai would not be able to help but push her.

Today was indeed an accident, so much so that Lin Yin's plan couldn't be implemented.

Lin Yin had fallen on purpose. This way, she could be the perfect victim.

It was just that the entire process was too aggrieving. She could not argue with them and made this war not so satisfying to win.

Lin Yin lay on the white hospital bed and looked at the ceiling, thinking that she would probably be discharged tomorrow.

What a joke. In her previous life, even if she had a high fever and felt uncomfortable all over, no one cared even when she fainted from the pain.

But now, after a small bump, Lin Yin was sent to the best hospital and checked into the VIP ward.

Su Zhen couldn't afford to offend the Shi Corporation, so he still had to put on an act to show that his daughter was seriously injured. He hoped that they wouldn't pursue the matter.

After that scene at the press conference, President Shi was furious. He looked at the background of Lin Yin that Mrs. Shi had found out yesterday and slammed the table.

"Release the shocking news. This time, who still dares to keep an eye on the Shi Corporation?!"

Lin Yin was still asleep. Before she woke up, she heard a commotion outside. Without asking, she knew why they were here.

Before she went to bed last night, Lin Yin saw the shocking news online.

It was hard not to see the first trending search.

"The Su Family Organization's Chairman, Su Zhen's biological daughter, Lin Yin, Returns to the Su Family."

"The Temptation to Go Home [1. An extremely popular TV series in China]-The Fight of the Su Family Organization's Biological Daughter Returning Home"

"Modern Raccoon for a Princess: Real Princess, Fake Princess"

“A twist in roles, I Am a Wizard? Harry Potter in the Slums

When Lin Yin saw this title, she couldn’t help but laugh. There were even people who used memes.

In order to divert attention, the Shi Corporation spent a lot of money. They actually made the online marketing accounts spread the news of Lin Yin like a team. The Internet was very harmonious. It seemed like the distribution of the blame was quite uniform.

All kinds of reports appeared one after another, and the s section was even livelier.

Lin Yin took a few cursory glances. It was mainly about the previous news. Although there were mixed reviews, there were no ugly words.

[No wonder she dared to tear apart the daughter of the Shi Corporation. So she is also a daughter of a rich family.]

[What a strange story! When will my biological parents pick me up? I suspect that I’m also the daughter of a billionaire... I’m envious, jealous, and hateful!]

[Changing a raccoon for a prince. That Su Fei is a green tea b*tch [2. Internet slang in Chinese for a girl who seems innocent and pure like green tea but is actually calculating and manipulative.] Pfft! I’ve disliked her for a long time. She’s always pretending to be weak. Does she think she’s Lin Daiyu [3. Lin Daiyu is one of the principal characters of Cao Xueqin’s classic 18th-century Chinese novel Dream of the Red Chamber. She is portrayed as a well-educated, intelligent, witty, and beautiful young woman of physical frailness who is somewhat prone to occasional melancholy.]? I’m disgusted just by looking at her. Hurry up, who’s going to dig up the dirt on Su Fei? Hurry up and return Lin Yin’s parents to her! Don’t fight for Lin Yin’s assets!]

[I saw Su Fei’s social media account a few days ago and she was complaining secretly. I didn’t understand it then, but now it seems like she’s secretly scolding Lin Yin.]

[Really? Really? I’ll go take a look...]

The VIP ward was VIP for a reason. It was unknown how many big shots had stayed there. After a while, Lin Yin was discharged from the back door. Chu Yun picked Lin Yin up with a livid expression.

As soon as the news came out, Su Fei made a fuss at home and smashed things. In the end, she held her chest and lay on the ground motionless.

The servants hurriedly carried her to the bed. It was not convenient for them to send her to the hospital. Afraid that there would be too many reporters, they could only hurriedly call the family doctor over. Seeing that Su Fei was fine, Chu Yun came to pick Lin Yin up from the hospital.

“Look at what you’ve caused!” Chu Yun scolded her when she saw her. “Now that the news is all over the place and the spearhead is pointed at our family, see how you can clean up the mess!”

Chu Yun’s heart ached when she thought of Su Fei lying in bed with a frown on her face and being unconscious for a long time. “Ever since you came to our house, our family hasn’t stopped having troubles! I shouldn’t have you as my daughter!”

“If you don’t want me, send me back,” Lin Yin said coldly.

She would still have freedom if she was sent back. Anyway, the only thing waiting for her here was that perverted old tycoon!

“You! You bastard!” Chu Yun was furious. This detestable Lin Yin had caused such huge trouble and actually dared to talk back to her like this. Chu Yun was so angry that she couldn’t help but tremble.

“Bastard? Who’s the bastard?” Lin Yin looked into Chu Yun’s eyes, her gaze sharp and cold. “If you don’t treat me as your daughter, don’t pretend to care.”

Chu Yun looked at her uncontrollable daughter and was exasperated.

She really hoped that the gentle, sensible, generous, and well-mannered Su Fei would be her biological daughter, and Lin Yin would be sent as far away as possible.

Chapter 20: Real and Fake Daughter

When they returned to the Su Family's luxurious villa, it was exceptionally quiet inside today. The servants all stayed at their posts silently, not daring to make a sound.

An old lady who was wiping the stair railing probably loved gossip, she had finished her work long ago, but she still wanted to listen to Miss Su's movements upstairs and wiped the railing until it was shiny.

After a while, the servants started to whisper, "Miss Lin Yin is back."

Lin Yin walked straight home after getting out of the car, leaving Chu Yun far behind.

She did not ask for Chu Yun's love, so she naturally did not care too much about her.

Family love? She did not want to pretend at all.

Su Zhen saw Lin Yin and Chu Yun enter through the floor-to-ceiling windows. He clapped his hands and the servants received the order to retreat. They closed the door, leaving the three of them alone in the huge living room.

"You're back?" There was no emotion in Su Zhen's voice. Then, his voice deepened. "Lin Yin, do you know your mistake?"

Lin Yin couldn't believe her ears. Honest to God, what did she do wrong? Anyone with a discerning eye could tell that she had already cooperated greatly. What did she do wrong?

Lin Yin answered truthfully, "I don't know."

Su Zhen's veins bulged. He knew that Lin Yin was unruly, but he did not expect her to be so calm after causing trouble.

From the looks of it, Chu Yun must have been furious with Lin Yin just now.

Of course, Su Fei was pretending to be sick. When she heard Lin Yin return and her father scolding her outside, she immediately pretended to be weak and got up. She stood at the end of the railings and leaned down. She said to Su Zhen downstairs, "Dad, don't blame Sister. Sister doesn't know anything. Even if she's wrong, she didn't mean it..."

Her voice was very soft and it was trembling. Chu Yun's heart ached. He could not rush over, so he scolded the servant beside Su Fei, "Hurry up and support her!"

She was really a fake socialite and a real b*tch. Su Fei's words sounded like she was trying to excuse Lin Yin, but she helped Lin Yin admit her crime mistake without a trace.

Hmph! Lin Yin despised her and didn't even look up at Su Fei's performance.

Look, why was the difference between her two daughters so big? Chu Yun was furious again.

"You still want to provoke the Shi Family after what you've done? Can we afford to provoke the Shi Family?"

Lin Yin smiled. "Provoked? I don't know her. Wasn't it Sister Su Fei who provoked her?"

Su Fei's face turned red. "Shi Dai and I are good sisters," she said aggrievedly. "We've never argued. I don't know why you could make such a fuss after meeting her once..."

How unrepentant! After hearing Su Fei's words, Chu Yun raised her hand to slap Lin Yin. Unexpectedly, Lin Yin grabbed her wrist tightly and shook her hand away. Chu Yun was almost brought down by the inertia.

"You want to hit me without knowing the truth? Did you bring me back to hit me?" Lin Yin glared at Chu Yun. Her biological mother was worse than a stranger.

These words brought the topic back to her background. Chu Yun and Su Zhen were stunned.

“You ignored me for 18 years, you remembered to bring me home, but you didn’t even explain yourself. When you brought me home, you beat and scolded me. Even if I was accused, you immediately attacked me. Are you really my parents?” Lin Yin thought that she no longer had feelings for them, but at this moment, she still exploded uncontrollably.

“Don’t you guys have any explanation for what happened back then?” Lin Yin glanced at Su Fei coldly. Su Fei couldn’t be bothered to pretend to be weak. She was dumbfounded.

Was this detestable Lin Yin finally here to snatch her parents’ love? Was she going to snatch all the Su Family’s assets next?

Then what was Su Fei? What was she in this family? Would there still be a place for her here?

“What do we have to explain to you?” Su Zhen did not expect that the seemingly uncompetitive Lin Yin would actually have the ambition to fight. It was already good enough that they took her in and provided for her!

“Real daughter, fake daughter. Who is real and who is fake?” Lin Yin looked at Su Zhen steadily. “Everyone on the Internet says that I’m real, but this eldest daughter of the Su Family is spreading rumors that I’m the adopted daughter.”

Lin Yin’s words rendered them speechless. The hall was instantly silent.

“Oh, I almost forgot. You guys said that I provoked Shi Dai. She rushed up to scold me when she heard that I was an adopted daughter.” Lin Yin walked to the sofa and sat down comfortably. “I didn’t do anything wrong. Can I sit down now? As a patient who has just been discharged, I can’t stand for long.”

Su Zhen looked at Chu Yun. They felt guilty about this, but they had raised Su Fei for many years and were used to it. They were also unwilling to admit that they had a daughter who grew up in the slums.
