

Real Daughter 511

Chapter 511: Status

Old Madam Huo turned around and looked at her grandson. Then, she smiled and said, "He's a little different. He's taller and more masculine than before. But it's no wonder. Six years ago, he was only 17 years old and still a child. Now that he's 23 years old and a big child, he's naturally different."

Mu Xiao nodded and smiled. "That's true! I was afraid that I recognized the wrong person just now. If this person wasn't Second Young Master Huo, I would have called you over in such a hurry and caused so much trouble. If the real Second Young Master Huo found out, he would probably blame me. You're indeed related by blood. Old Madam can tell that he's your biological grandson the moment you arrived."

The old lady was in a good mood after hearing Mu Xiao's words. She held Huo Ge's hand and smiled. "That's right. Blood ties are such a strange thing. One can tell at a glance if they're our children."

Mu Xiao immediately nodded in agreement. Then, he smiled and said in a joking tone, "Old Madam, you're right. It's just that it's difficult for outsiders like us to recognize him. Why don't you teach me how to recognize Second Young Master Huo? I'm afraid that if I see him again and I don't recognize him, I'll be so embarrassed!"

Lin Yin lay on Mu Ran's shoulder and looked at Huo Ge. She wanted to see if Mu Xiao could find out if this Huo Ge in front of her was really Huo Ge.

Mu Ran knew that Lin Yin wanted to see it, so he turned his head to the side to broaden Lin Yin's vision. He wanted to dote on his own sister.

Huo Ge looked at Mu Xiao coldly where Old Madam Huo could not see. Then, he smiled disdainfully, his posture extremely arrogant.

Old Madam Huo did not mind Mu Xiao's joke. She was even very willing to reply, "That's simple."

As Old Madam Huo spoke, she held Huo Ge's hand and showed his palm to everyone. She said with pity, "This is the scar left on Xiao Ge's palm when he cut an apple for me when I was sick. Our Xiao Ge is a good child who dotes on Grandma."

Mu Heng and Mu Xiao looked at each other. Although they still suspected Huo Ge's identity, they knew very well that they would not get the answer they wanted from Old Madam Huo.

However, if even Old Madam Huo confirmed Huo Ge's identity, then Huo Ge's identity would most likely be confirmed.

Because Old Madam Huo was the only one in the Huo Family who knew Huo Ge the best.

Huo Ge's mother, Zhao Ning, was Old Madam Huo's daughter-in-law. Zhao Ning and Huo Huai had been engaged since they were young and could be considered childhood sweethearts.

Unfortunately, Huo Huai fell in love with other girls when he grew up and even had a child first.

However, under such circumstances, Huo Huai still married Zhao Ning, who knew nothing.

When Zhao Ning was about to give birth, the girl came to beg Zhao Ning. Only then did Zhao Ning find out about this, so she was so angry that she gave birth prematurely. This matter caused an uproar in the capital at that time, and the Huo Family lost all their face.

Although Zhao Ning gave birth to Huo Ge safely, her body and mind were too exhausted. After giving birth, she did not recuperate well and cried every day. In the end, she died of depression. At that time, Huo Ge was only three years old.

Two years later, Old Master Huo passed away. After Huo Huai took over the Huo Family, he brought the mother and son into the Huo Family. The mother and son were Lin Rong and Huo Bing.

It was also from then on that Huo Ge basically studied abroad and rarely returned to the Huo Family.

However, although Lin Rong had brought her son into the Huo Family, with Old Master Huo's last wish, Lin Rong could only stay by Huo Huai's side as a woman without status for the rest of her life.

Even if Huo Huai had the intention to hand over the Huo Family's business to Huo Bing, it was still very difficult today. Because Old Madam Huo still held a lot of the Huo Family's shares, Huo Huai did not dare to act rashly.

Huo Ge's expression was not good. He just looked at Mu Xiao coldly and said, "Second Young Master Mu provoked my grandmother for no reason. This is not good."

Old Madam Huo tugged at Hugo indifferently and said, "It's fine. Grandma doesn't care. Grandma can't wait to tell everyone how well you treat me."

Lin Yin pouted. It seemed like there was no hope of exposing Huo Ge today.

Now, the only other way might be to do a paternity test. This was probably a little difficult.

Mu Heng went forward and said politely, "We might have to go to the police station for what happened today. My mother and sister also have to go to the police station to record their statements.."

Chapter 512: Rose

Old Madam Huo was stunned and asked in surprise, "Sister?"

Her gaze turned to Lin Yin, who was on Mu Ran's back, and she asked in disbelief, "Mu Heng, could the sister you're talking about be her?"

Mu Heng looked at Lin Yin uncertainly because he did not know if Lin Yin was willing to admit that she was a member of the Mu family in front of others.

On the other hand, Mu Ran said proudly, "Yes, my sister, my biological sister, Lin Yin! We found her!"

Mu Heng looked up at Lin Yin's reaction. Seeing that Lin Yin only frowned slightly and did not say anything, he secretly heaved a sigh of relief. Fortunately, Mu Ran was around.

Old Madam Huo was a little surprised. She did not expect that she could still be found after she had been missing for 18 years. This was really amazing.

"Then it seems like Mrs. Mu's illness will recover soon. Congratulations!" Old Madam Huo said sincerely.

Then, she sized up Lin Yin's face a few times. It had to be said that all the children from the Mu Family were really good-looking, especially this little daughter they had just found. She looked good no matter how one looked at her.

The group was delayed at the police station for a while. Then, the police who had sent the human traffickers to the hospital returned with the situation of the human traffickers.

Those human traffickers all showed signs of poisoning, and all of them fell into an abnormal mental state.

This way, there was no way to continue investigating. It was only directed at Lin Yin. A few people had been kidnapped, and the police had also asked them to investigate.

Mu Heng's gaze turned to Huo Ge, who had finished his statement. He smiled and said, "Second Young Master Huo is someone who does big things."

He looked up into Mu Heng's probing eyes and said casually, "I'll take it that you're praising me."

"If Second Young Master likes to hear praise, I can hire someone to praise you and let you enjoy it. But for the rest, Second Young Master better stop having thoughts that you shouldn't have. Otherwise, I can't guarantee that Second Young Master Huo can be safe in the capital." Mu Heng's words were filled with warning.

Huo Ge naturally knew what Mu Heng was talking about. He looked in Lin Yin's direction and was caught by her.

Lin Yin shot a cold ice blade over, making Hoge shiver. He retracted his gaze and said to Mu Heng, "The thorny roses are even more beautiful and seductive. No matter how many protective fences and thorns there are, they can't stop the gazes and desires of people who love the flowers. So, how can I not have thoughts?"

Huo Gets words were arrogant and fearless.

In Huo Ge's opinion, the Mu brothers must be on Lin Yin's side.

Therefore, no matter what Lin Yin said, the Mu brothers would choose to believe her.

Since Lin Yin already knew his identity, he naturally could not hide it from the Mu brothers. In that case, he would not hide it anymore.

He did not believe that the Mu family could do anything to him!

Mu Heng's gaze instantly turned dark. If not for the fact that there were so many people around, he would have rushed forward to beat this bastard who dared to covet his sister to death.

After Old Madam Huo understood the situation, she saw the tense atmosphere between the Mu brothers and her grandson the moment she returned. She immediately went forward and asked curiously, "What's wrong? Did you two have a conflict?"

A smile returned to Mu Heng's face as he said, "Grandma, it's nothing. I'm just talking to Second Young Master Huo about roses. Some flowers are protected by others. I advise Second Young Master Huo not to steal roses from others. Otherwise, he'll be beaten up."

Old Madam Huo frowned and asked her grandson in confusion, "Xiao Ge, we don't want other people's roses. If you like roses, Grandma will buy them for you. Grandma will buy you a large courtyard of roses of all kinds."

"That's right, Second Young Master Huo. The roses that belong to you are obedient ones. Otherwise, not to mention the fences and thorns protecting roses on the outer wall, even the roses themselves will stab you and make you cry in pain," Mu Xiao said with a smile.

There was still a faint smile on Huo Ge's lips. He thanked them like a young master of an aristocratic family. "Thank you for your kindness. I appreciate it!"

Old Madam Huo looked at the three of them suspiciously. Why did she feel that this rose was not a real rose? How could a rose be described as obedient?

Lin Yin also looked at these people curiously and asked Mu Ran softly, "What are they talking about?"

Mu Ran also shook her head. "I couldn't hear clearly. I only heard something about roses. I don't know what they were muttering about.."

Chapter 513: Home

After cooperating with them to finish recording their statements, the group had no choice but to go back. All the human traffickers were already delirious and there was no evidence to investigate.

There were no surveillance cameras in the slums, so this matter basically ended here.

Before Old Madam Huo got into the car, she said to Mu Xiao, "It's all thanks to you this time that our Xiao Ge can be saved. I'll hold a thank-you banquet another day. You have to come, understand?"

How could the juniors refuse an elder's invitation? Hence, Mu Heng and the others could only accept it.

After sending Old Madam Huo and Huo Ge off, the Mu family was in a dilemma about where Lin Yin was going.

Mu Ran carried Lin Yin on her back and asked nervously, "Yinyin, where are we going now?"

Mu Heng and Mu Xiao also looked at Lin Yin nervously, while Ye Wen looked at Lin Yin in a daze. However, she still held Lin Yin tightly, afraid that her daughter would disappear again.

Lin Yin looked at the Mu brothers' eager gazes and Ye Wen, who had been holding her hand. She sighed slightly and said, "I'll go back with you guys first."

Mu Heng suppressed the excitement in his heart and immediately picked up his phone to call Mu Cheng, who had been guarding the house. "Dad, get the helper at home to prepare delicious food. Yinyin will come home for dinner tonight. Make..."

Mu Heng wanted to say that he wanted to make something Lin Yin liked to eat, but he couldn't bring himself to say it. He didn't know what Lin Yin liked to eat.

Mu Ran added nimbly, "Prepare more sweet and spicy food. Yinyin likes to eat these flavors, like sweet and sour osmanthus fish."

Lin Yin was not surprised that Mu Ran knew her taste. Mu Ran might seem carefree, but as long as he wanted to pay attention, he could remember any details.

Besides, among the three Mu brothers, Mu Ran was the only one who made more frequent appointments with her.

On the other end of the line, Mu Cheng was also very happy. He shouted, "Aunt Song, make some sweet and spicy dishes tonight. My daughter is back for dinner today!"

Mu Cheng's voice was so loud that he did not realize that his voice was trembling from excitement.

Mu Ran happily carried Lin Yin to their car. In order for the family to be in the same car, Mu Heng asked the chauffeur to take the other car and he drove personally.

Mu Ran quickly occupied one side of Lin Yin, and Ye Wen occupied the other side of Lin Yin. Mu Xiao, who was a bit late, could only sit in the front passenger seat hatefully.

Mu Heng was overjoyed. The car was filled with his family. Other than Mu Cheng, everyone he cared about was here.

It seemed like she had to drive an extended version of the car next time so that the family could travel together.

Ever since Mu Heng called to say that Lin Yin was coming back for dinner, Mu Cheng would go to the door to see if she was back. After a while, he would go into the kitchen to see if the ingredients were fresh and how the food was cooking. He was extremely busy.

But this was the happiest moment for Mu Cheng in the past ten years.

His wife would definitely be happy that his daughter was willing to go home. He was also happy. Moreover, perhaps the crazy illness that had troubled his wife for more than ten years could be relieved.

Therefore, this was also the time when Mu Cheng felt that life was the most hopeful.

When the car carrying Mu Cheng's world stopped in the courtyard in front of the villa, Mu Cheng felt that his life was suddenly much more complete. He walked towards the car with anticipation.

The first to get out was his steady eldest son, the second to get out was his outstanding second son, the third to get out was his firecracker-tempered third son, the fourth to get out was his beloved wife, and the fifth to get out was his daughter, who had been missing for more than ten years and had finally returned.

Mu Cheng smiled and his tears turned red. He immediately went up to help Ye Wen.

Unfortunately, Ye Wen only had eyes for Lin Yin at this moment. She pushed away the irksome Mu Cheng in front of her and walked towards Lin Yin, who was already on Mu Ran's back, without any reluctance.

Mu Cheng touched his nose awkwardly, then smiled and followed behind his wife and child.

It was fine if they were elsewhere just now, but at this moment, Lin Yin felt a little uncomfortable. She felt that being carried by Mu Ran like this and having a few people beside her made her feel extremely unnatural.

On the other hand, the Mu family beside her did not feel that something was wrong at all. They even happily supported Lin Yin into the home that they shared..

Chapter 514: Gift

As soon as they entered the house, Mu Ran gently placed Lin Yin on the bench at the door to change her shoes. Mu Xiao quickly took the slippers from the nanny and placed them at Lin Yin's feet.

Lin Yin felt flattered. The eyes of this family were all on her. No matter how thick-skinned Lin Yin was, she felt uneasy.

Lin Yin quickly put on the slippers and sat in the living room with the Mu family, who had also changed into slippers.

Mu Cheng looked at the dirty Ye Wen and advised patiently, "Ah Wen, I'll bring you to wash up, okay?"

As Mu Cheng spoke, she wanted to pull Ye Wen away from Lin Yin.

Ye Wen immediately looked at Mu Cheng unhappily and shouted fiercely, "Go away!"

Mu Cheng sighed helplessly.

Lin Yin asked, "Where's the bathroom? I'll bring her there."

Lin Yin couldn't call her mother, so she could only use her name as a substitute.

Ye Wen immediately beamed with joy. She looked completely different from when she faced Mu Cheng just now.

Mu Cheng nodded and said, "I'll bring you there. Dinner isn't ready yet. You guys wash up first and rest for a while. Dinner will be ready soon."

Mu Cheng did not bring Lin Yin to the master bedroom directly. Instead, she brought Lin Yin to a room.

The moment she pushed open the door, Lin Yin was stunned by the dazzling array of toys, dolls, jewelry, and colorful clothes in front of her.

Most importantly, this was not just a room. It was hollow and had three floors.

Mu Cheng smiled and said, "This villa wasn't so big originally, but after your mother bought too many things, this place expanded."

Ye Wen happily pulled Lin Yin to one of the clothes racks and happily picked up a dress to gesture at Lin Yin.

However, no matter how she gestured, the clothes did not seem to fit Lin Yin, who was in front of her. This puzzled Ye Wen.

Mu Cheng gently pulled Ye Wen's hand and said softly, "Ah Wen, our daughter has grown up. This is what she wore when she was a year old. She can't wear it anymore."

Ye Wen looked at Mu Cheng in confusion. Then, she looked at the clothes in her hand and muttered, "She's grown up? How did she grow up? She hadn't worn it. How did she grow up?"

Mu Cheng turned his face away uncomfortably. As parents, they had missed eighteen years of their daughter's life. This was really difficult for them to accept.

Ye Wen put down the clothes in her hand as if she understood. She took out another rattle drum and spun it happily in front of Lin Yin before handing it to her.

Mu Cheng, who was at the side, said, "This is a gift your mother chose for your first birthday. There's one for every year. This is the 18th year."

Lin Yin's gaze followed Ye Wen to the right and she saw a shelf with the words '2-year-old' written on it. On it were all kinds of clothes, shoes, toys, jewelry, and even photo books.

At this moment, Lin Yin realized that everything was categorized and arranged according to age.

For example, there were all kinds of shoes at the bottom, followed by clothes. Above them were all kinds of jewelry that matched the age, toys, school bags, textbooks, and small stationery. There were even special drawers for socks and underwear.

Mu Cheng smiled and said, “Your mother said that you’re two years old and need to learn something, so she bought a lot of picture books and wanted to read them to you every day. She said that her daughter will definitely be very outstanding in the future. So your two-year-old gift is a collection of fairy tales.”

“When you were three years old, you started to walk, so your mother picked out a small three-wheeled motorcycle for you. She said that you would definitely like it.”

“When you were four years old, you might have started to dress up, so your birthday was a pair of crystal shoes. But I was afraid that you would be unique and like to dance with swords and weapons, so I even gave you a foal. Now, the foal is already a grandmother. I’ll bring you to see it another day.”

“When you were five years old, there was a huge earthquake that year. We donated to the area of disaster in your name. We hoped that someone kind would treat you well.”

“When you were six years old, it was time for you to prepare for school. Your mother prepared a lot of small school bags and stationery for you. She thought that you might like to draw, so on that birthday, we custom-made a set of drawing tools for you. Whether you like Chinese paintings, impression paintings, or realistic paintings, these can satisfy your painting needs.”

“You were seven years old and probably started attending elementary school.

so we built many elementary schools for you as a birthday gift. We thought that perhaps you might also be able to attend the elementary school we sponsored..”

Chapter 515: Heartache

“When you’re 17 years old. You can go out with Mom to various banquets and balls. We custom-made a gown for you and matching jewelry. We imagined your mother bringing you out.”

“This year, you’re 18 years old. We still missed your birthday. However, I’ve prepared a gift for you. The coming-of-age gift is a sports car. You’re an adult. In the future, the world will be vast and you can wander freely. Dad and Mom hope that you have the courage to advance.”

As Mu Cheng spoke, she pulled down a curtain beside her. There was a black sports car inside.

Lin Yin didn’t recognize the brand of this sports car, nor could she see what it was because her vision had unknowingly become blurry.

Lin Yin’s eyes were red and sour.

Ye Wen held Lin Yin’s hand with a worried expression. Her heart ached so much that she wanted to wipe the tears from the corners of Lin Yin’s eyes. However, when she saw her slightly dirty hand, she retracted it and could only comfort her nervously, “Tian Tian, stop crying. Mommy is here. Don’t cry anymore!”

Lin Yin wanted to smile, but when she smiled, she couldn’t hold back her tears at all. They rolled down her cheeks.

The grievances she had suffered all these years seemed to have broken at this moment. She could not endure it anymore.

When she was young, she thought that she had been abandoned and that she was an unwanted child.

After she came to the slums, she lived a life of love for a few years. Although she was like an unregistered person with no status and no schooling, she was still happy to have a mother. Even if her adoptive mother was crazy, she was still happy.

Unfortunately, God quickly took her crazy adoptive mother away.

Just like that, she raised herself until she was almost 18 years old. Finally, someone came to look for her and said that her biological parents had come to look for her.

At that time, Lin Yin had gone over with hope, but in her previous life, she had died tragically. It was not until this life that she realized that Su Zhen and Chu Yun were not her biological parents.

After knowing this, Lin Yin tried her best to suppress her curiosity and not let herself think about her biological parents.

However, Mu Xiao knew her identity. During this period of time, she had changed her mind repeatedly.

When she came into contact with warmth, she wanted to acknowledge her family. When she was afraid of being hurt, she resisted it.

Now, she saw the dreary life of the Mu family after losing their daughter.

After losing her daughter, Ye Wen's mental state and how she could not forget her daughter.

After seeing that she had lost her sister, Mu Ran was hurt by her family.

She did not expect that she was not the only one suffering. It turned out that her biological parents and brothers were all living in pain.

As soon as Mu Ran entered, she saw Lin Yin crying silently. He immediately went forward and asked with heartache, "What's wrong with our Xiao Yinyin?"

Why are you crying? Come, tell me. I'll comfort you."

As Mu Ran gently wiped Lin Yin's tears with her hand, she said to her father,

"Dad, why did you make Yinyin cry for no reason? We can take it slow."

Mu Cheng also regretted it a little. He was just anxious. He just wanted Lin Yin to go home early and did not consider the child's psychological endurance.

Mu Ran grabbed Lin Yin's hand and said, "Let's go, Yinyin. I'll bring you to your bedroom."

Ye Wen grabbed Mu Ran's hand and said unhappily, "My Tian Tian!"

Mu Ran smiled helplessly at her mother and said, "Mom, I know. Yes, she's your Tian Tian, but you have to wash up first. Otherwise, Tian Tian will laugh at you when she sees her dirty mother."

Ye Wen looked at Lin Yin nervously, her eyes revealing a hint of struggle and conflict. In the end, she said stubbornly, "I'll shower with Tian Tian. I'll shower Tian Tian! You're a boy and she's a girl. You can't shower her!"

Lin Yin, who was still crying, smiled through her tears when she heard Ye Wen's words.

Mu Ran, who was at the side, was speechless. He sighed and said helplessly, "Mom, what are you thinking!"

Mu Cheng was caught between laughter and tears as she said, "In your mother's eyes, she probably thinks that Yinyin is still one month old."

Ye Wen turned to look at Mu Cheng unhappily and corrected her seriously,

"You're spouting nonsense! Yinyin is three years old this year!"

Although Mu Cheng did not know what was going on with Ye Wen or how Ye Wen calculated Lin Yin's age, he could not help but laugh when he saw Ye Wen's serious expression..

Chapter 516: Pink and Blue

Ye Wen immediately glared at Mu Cheng fiercely. Mu Cheng quickly stopped smiling and said with a begging expression, "Yes, yes, yes. Our Yinyin is three years old this year."

It was naturally impossible for Lin Yin to let Ye Wen bathe her. She persuaded Ye Wen to finally enter the bathroom.

Then, Mu Ran heaved a sigh of relief and said, "Let's go, Yinyin. I'll bring you to your bedroom."

Lin Yin repeated in surprise, "My own room?"

Mu Ran replied naturally, "Yes, your own room. You were looking at your closet just now. Your bedroom is behind the closet."

Then, Mu Ran looked at Lin Yin's slightly red eyes and said with heartache, "Look at how red our Yinyin's eyes are. My heart is aching. You're not allowed to cry next time! If you want to cry, call me. I'll cry for you. I have a beautiful cry. I'll make you enjoy a different emotional outburst."

Lin Yin burst out laughing.

She missed her, her parents, and her brother who doted on her. At this moment, Lin Yin suddenly realized that she was really not abandoned. She had thought too much.

However, if Lin Yin didn't say it, she was afraid that all the hard-won kinship would disappear again.

Mu Ran pulled Lin Yin to the room full of gifts just now. After passing through the room, Mu Ran pushed open a door.

The moment the door opened, Lin Yin was surprised.

"Why is this half pink and half blue?" Lin Yin asked in confusion.

Mu Ran smiled and said, "Our Dad said that Mom has never liked pink since she was young, so he didn't think that girls would definitely like pink. He thought that maybe you were as naughty as Mom and liked blue. So he divided your room into two. One side is pink and the other is blue."

Lin Yin was caught between laughter and tears as she looked at the scene in front of her. "So half of the bed is pink and the other half is blue. Even the blanket is half pink and half blue."

Mu Ran couldn't help but laugh. "It's more than that!" He went forward and lifted the blanket. He smiled and said, "Pillows, one pink, one blue, and the blanket is half blue and half pink. They're all custom-made."

Lin Yin's originally sad emotions instantly disintegrated at this moment.

She didn't expect her parents to be so serious and funny. She just smiled and Lin Yin felt all kinds of sadness from such decorations.

Their daughter had been lost since young and they didn't even know her preferences. They could only guess her preferences in such ways, how heartbroken must they be?

"In order to ensure fairness in pink and blue, there's a bathroom on both sides. The pink side is filled with all kinds of Barbie themes and princess themes. On the right is the Marine Forest series. But now that you're back, you can change what you like according to your preferences," Mu Ran continued to introduce to Lin Yin.

In the end, when he turned around, he saw Lin Yin looking unhappy.

"What's wrong? Did you think of something unhappy again?" Mu Ran squatted down slightly, his gaze level with Lin Yin's as he asked gently.

"I'm thinking that the person who tore our family apart is really detestable," Lin Yin said hatefully.

If she had not been lost, they would have been a very happy family, right?

At the thought that that detestable fellow was very likely Chu Yun and the person behind her, the hatred in Lin Yin's heart deepened.

Before today, she had always thought that there was no deep hatred between her and Chu Yun.

From the looks of it, there was clearly a feud between her and Chu Yun. It was because of Chu Yun that their family had suffered so much all these years.

Especially in her previous life, she did not know her true identity until she died. Even until she died, she did not know that she still had a family or how much effort her family had put in to find her.

She wondered what happened to the Mu family after she died in her previous life.

Thinking that Chu Yun was now in Huo Ge's hands, Lin Yin's eyes darkened slightly. She had to get to the bottom of this.

Why did Chu Yun want to switch children? Why did Chu Yun still bring her back to the Su Family after knowing her true identity?

Mu Ran waved his hand in front of the obviously stunned Lin Yin. "What are you thinking about?"

Lin Yin retracted her thoughts. "I'm thinking about what I should wear.."

Chapter 517: Happy

Mu Ran touched the shelf outside the door with the eighteen-year-old label and said, "The clothes there should suit you. There are sizes S to XXXL for every single piece of clothing. Our father said that you might have become a fat girl, so we have to prepare large-sized clothes for you."

Lin Yin smiled and shook her head. This was the first time she had seen such a bold way of buying clothes.

“Alright, take your time. I’ll go out first.” Mu Ran smiled at Lin Yin and left her room after Lin Yin nodded.

Lin Yin walked around the room that the Mu family had decorated for her and walked to the area that said 18-year-old.

Looking at the various clothes and shoes that had been prepared for her, Lin

Yin’s face subconsciously dyed with a sense of happiness that she did not notice.

When Lin Yin finished washing up and opened the bedroom door, she saw Ye Wen standing at the door eagerly.

As soon as she saw Lin Yin come out, Ye Wen’s eyes lit up. She smiled brightly and said, “Tian Tian! Let’s have dinner!”

As she spoke, Ye Wen pulled Lin Yin’s hand and walked out to the cafeteria.

At this moment, the three Mu brothers were already seated. Ye Wen immediately pulled Lin Yin to a seat. “Tian Tian, your seat is here.”

After placing Lin Yin in her seat, Ye Wen sat beside Lin Yin happily.

Mu Ran immediately stood up from the seat that originally belonged to him and ran over to sit beside Lin Yin.

In the past, Mu Ran was unwilling to approach Lin Yin’s seat because that seat belonged to a sister who never appeared, and on the side of that seat sat Ye Wen, who was about to go crazy at any moment.

Therefore, other than Ye Wen, the seat beside Lin Yin was empty.

But it was different now.

As soon as Mu Ran sat down, he attracted the hostile gazes of the few men beside him.

Mu Ran raised his head proudly and said proudly, "It's useless to glare at me. I came first!"

After Mu Xiao and Mu Heng secretly scolded Mu Ran for being a thief, they did not fight with Mu Ran for that position.

Mu Ran knew Lin Yin's taste very well and tried to give Lin Yin what she liked to eat.

Even though Ye Wen was still a little confused, when she saw this scene, she imitated Mu Ran and picked up whatever Mu Ran picked up. The two of them filled Lin Yin's bowl.

Lin Yin was caught between laughter and tears. "Stop picking food. I really can't finish it. You guys eat too. Don't worry about me."

As she spoke, Lin Yin followed suit. She picked up the chopsticks and picked up a piece of meat for Ye Wen and Mu Ran.

Ye Wen and Mu Ran were overjoyed. As soon as Lin Yin looked up, she saw the other three people looking at her eagerly. This scene inexplicably amused Lin Yin.

However, Lin Yin was still fair. She stood up and picked up a piece for the other three. For a moment, the atmosphere at the table became even more harmonious.

Mu Ran looked at the scene in front of him and ate happily. Suddenly, there was another piece of fish in his bowl.

When Mu Ran's gaze turned to Lin Yin, he was surprised to find that Ye Wen was the one who placed the fish in his bowl.

Mu Ran looked at Ye Wen in a daze, while Ye Wen said gently, "Xiao Ran likes to eat fishtails."

Mu Ran's heart seemed to be gently knocked by something. It did not hurt, but it was sore and swollen.

He quickly lowered his head and looked at the fishtail in the bowl. Then, he picked up the fish with his chopsticks and placed it in his mouth.

Unexpectedly, the skills of the helper who cooked became better and more delicious than before.

As Mu Ran ate, he endured the soreness in his cheeks. The more he ate, the happier he smiled.

The desire that had been hidden in his heart slowly came true.

The family ate happily, and the night gradually darkened.

Huo Ge, who had also returned home, was not as lucky as Lin Yin.

Of all the so-called relatives at the table, only Old Madam Huo welcomed him back sincerely.

Huo Huai's expression was as indifferent as if Huo Ge wasn't the son he hadn't seen in so many years. He said emotionlessly, "How long do you plan to stay at home this time?"

Before Huo Ge could speak, Old Madam Huo said with a dark expression, "Xiao Ge won't be going overseas this time. He'll stay at home."

As soon as Old Madam Huo said that, the expressions of the people at the dining table changed.

Lin Rong looked at Old Madam Huo uneasily, then quickly lowered her head.

She was afraid that when Old Madam Huo wanted to leave Huo Ge in the Huo Family it meant that she wanted to chase Huo Bing out of the Huo Corporation..

Chapter 518: Cheap Life

Huo Huai said in a low voice, "Huo Ge has been staying overseas all these years. There's nothing for him to do when he comes back. Why don't he train at a foreign branch? He'll be in charge of the branch's business in the future. It just so happens that he's familiar with the local situation."

Old Madam Huo snorted and said coldly to Huo Huai, "I was wondering why you opened an overseas branch company out of the blue. So that's what it's for. Today, I'll also express my stance here. I firmly disagree with Xiao Ge going overseas."

Huo Bing glanced at his Grandma unhappily and chewed the rice in his mouth indignantly.

In Huo Bing's opinion, his parents were originally in love, but Grandma was not satisfied with his mother and insisted that his father marry another woman to inherit the family business.

And his grandfather, who had long died, was even more ridiculous. He actually left a will, asking his father to never let his mother enter the family, which caused his current identity to be awkward.

Therefore, Huo Bing did not like his Grandma at all. He even hated her because this Grandma of his had once wanted to beat him to death.

Huo Huai said unhappily, “Mom, Huo Ge is my son. Can you not interfere with my arrangements for my son?”

Old Madam Huo also said impolitely, “You’re still my son. Why did you interfere with my arrangements for my son back then? If you hadn’t insisted back then, Zhao Ning wouldn’t have died! ”

At this point, Old Madam Huo’s dissatisfied gaze drifted fiercely to Lin Rong, who looked away in fear and moved towards Huo Huai.

Old Madam Huo gritted her teeth in anger when she saw Lin Rong pretending to be weak.

Back then, if this b*tch hadn’t deliberately provoked Zhao Ning when she was about to give birth, Zhao Ning wouldn’t have given birth prematurely and wouldn’t have been seriously depressed after giving birth. In the end, she died, causing her beloved grandson to be stranded in another country at a young age.

If she had not taken back a portion of the Huo Family’s power in recent years and Hugo had grown up, she would not have been at ease letting him come back.

Huo Huai was rendered speechless by Old Madam Huo’s rebuke. Lin Rong said guiltily, “Old Madam, it’s all my fault. I didn’t want my child to have no father. But I really didn’t do it on purpose. I just wanted Sister Zhao Ning to agree to let Xiao Bing into the family. I didn’t expect such a thing to happen. It’s all my fault. It has nothing to do with Ah Huai.”

“You have no right to speak here!” Old Madam Huo shouted angrily. “Just because I’ve shown you some respect and let you stay at the Huo Family doesn’t mean you can say whatever you want in my home! ”

“Mom!” Huo Huai was starting to get a little angry at his mother for being disrespectful to Lin Rong. “No matter what, Ah Rong is my wife. Even if you don’t want to admit it, it’s the truth. Can’t you treat Ah Rong better on my account? All these years, Ah Rong has been serving you respectfully and treating you like her biological mother. Don’t you care at all?”

Old Madam Huo smiled disdainfully. "Serve? There are so many servants in the Huo Family. Do I need her to serve me? Biological mother, Huo Huai? Are you insulting me? I can't possibly bring up such a disrespectful, home-wrecking thing!"

"Mom! Why are you going overboard? Ah Rong and I are in love. I've already told you that when Ah Rong was with me, she didn't know that I was engaged at all. This matter is my fault. It has nothing to do with Ah Rong!" Huo Huai said.

He looked at Lin Rong, whose eyes were already red. He reached out and gently held Lin Rong's hand, comforting her silently.

The more Old Madam Huo looked at Lin Rong, the more disdainful she became. She mocked, "Is that so? Don't you know? In the entire capital, who doesn't know about the engagement between the eldest young master of the Huo family and Miss Zhao? Even if she came from the countryside and doesn't know, what about after that? She still doesn't know after I personally told her? If she doesn't know, why would the suicide happen?!"

Lin Rong said anxiously, "This matter is my fault. Don't quarrel because of me anymore. It's all my fault for loving Ah Huai too much. When Old Madam came to tell me, I wanted to leave, but I really couldn't let go of Ah Huai. I've been alone and helpless all my life. If even Ah Huai is gone, I won't have anything to look forward to. That's why I couldn't figure it out for a moment.. I'm sorry, I'm really sorry!"

Chapter 519: Hypocrisy

Huo Huai's face was already ashen. "Mom! If you want to find someone to blame for Zhao Ning's death, just blame me. I like Ah Rong. I insisted on being with her. I couldn't stand living without her. I'll bear all the blame!"

Huo Ge, who had been silent all this time, snorted mockingly. "She's already dead. How can you bear it? Compensate with your life? My mother's life can't be compensated with a cheap life."

Huo Bing was dissatisfied with Huo Ge's words. "Huo Ge, who are you calling cheap?! Watch your mouth!"

"Of course it's the person that's in a hurry to answer." Huo Ge looked nonchalant.

Huo Bing stood up angrily and pointed at Huo Ge, shouting, "Watch your mouth! Don't go overboard!"

"How dare you!" Old Madam Huo shouted, scaring Huo Bing.

Huo Bing was quite afraid of Old Madam Huo. After being suddenly shouted at by Old Madam Huo, he felt that the scar on his back that had been there for several years was about to hurt again.

Moreover, whether he could successfully be accepted into the Huo Family in the future and whether his mother could stay in the Huo Family depended mostly on this old lady.

Even many shareholders and executives in the Corporation were afraid of this old lady.

Lin Rong quickly pulled Huo Bing back and said apologetically to Huo Ge, "Xiao Ge, your brother was anxious just now, so he raised his voice. Don't be angry."

Huo Ge ignored Lin Rong and slowly picked up a piece of pork rib and placed it in Old Madam Huo's bowl. He smiled and said, "Grandma, eat quickly. The food won't taste good when it's cold. There's no need to affect your appetite for such an unsightly thing."

When Huo Bing heard this, he was so angry that he was about to explode. Lin Rong held onto Huo Bing tightly, not letting him be rash.

However, Lin Rong also understood that she could not continue sitting at the dining table to eat. She said gently, "Old Madam, I'm almost done eating, so I'll leave first."

Old Madam Huo didn't say anything and just picked up some food for Huo Ge. She smiled and said, "Come, good grandson, eat this. It was your favorite in the past. I specially got someone to prepare it for you."

Lin Rong did not have any resentment towards the old lady. She pulled her hand away from Huo Huai's and turned to leave.

Seeing this, Huo Bing's face was filled with indignation. Even so, he still said respectfully, "Grandma, I'm done eating. I'll leave first."

Even Huo Bing could not make Old Madam Huo look up. She did not care about this mother and son at all.

After Huo Bing left the table angrily, Huo Huai also stood up and wanted to leave the table with a dissatisfied expression.

However, before Huo Huai could say anything, Old Madam Huo shouted, "Sit down!"

Huo Huai froze on the spot. In the end, under Old Madam Huo's cold gaze, he sat down again.

Only then was Old Madam Huo satisfied. She said calmly, "Your son is back. As his father, if you can't even spare time to have a meal with him, I might have to consider if you're too busy with work? Should I reduce your workload?"

This was Old Madam Huo's threat. Huo Huai had no choice but to grab his chopsticks and eat with Huo Ge.

After Huo Huai inherited his father's shares back then, he thought that the Huo Family was under his control, so he resolutely brought Lin Rong back to the Huo Family.

Unexpectedly, he first encountered the obstruction of his father's will, preventing him and Lin Rong from becoming legally married for the rest of their lives.

As a result, he was so angry that he was dissatisfied with his son. Later on, he even sent the five-year-old Huo Ge overseas. He didn't want to see him.

In the end, ever since then, his mother had started to go against him.

Originally, the shares that Huo Huai had inherited were the same as Old Madam Huo's. However, he did not know how Old Madam Huo had developed over the years. She actually had shares that were much higher than his. Even the elders of the Huo Family were on Old Madam Huo's side.

Therefore, Huo Huai had not been able to break free from the old lady's restraints all these years and his life in the Huo Family was restricted.

Hog looked at his father, who was eating reluctantly beside him. He was not sad, but there was more mockery and ridicule.

In his opinion, if Huo Huai really loved Lin Rong back then, he would have had to break off the engagement and not come back to marry Zhao Ning to inherit the family business while still being with Lin Rong.

So what if he was married? He even slept with Zhao Ning, who didn't know anything, and even made her pregnant.. What kind of love was this? Wasn't he still a dog of a man who couldn't control his lower body?

Chapter 520: Class Transition

Although Huo Ge felt like a jerk, he wasn't that unreasonable. For example, he was at least single.

He did not deny that his actions were despicable and lowly sometimes because he would force himself on whoever he liked. To him, those women were just tools to satisfy his desires.

Who would have feelings for tools?

In this world, it was really laughable to talk about hypocritical feelings.

This was especially so for his nominal father. While he made promises to his lover outside, he was busy getting married and having children to inherit the family business. It was extremely laughable.

Huo Huai sat at the side and ate the food that he thought was very humiliating.

Lin Rong, on the other hand, was waiting for her husband in the bedroom. She hoped that Huo Huai could resist Old Madam Huo's dominance for her.

However, this time, she was disappointed as usual.

She did not see her husband, but her unhappy son.

Lin Rong adjusted her emotions and said, "Alright, Xiao Bing, don't be unhappy. It'll be fine in the future."

Lin Rong still had hope for the future. Even if she didn't, she wouldn't say anything disheartening in front of her son.

She hated Old Madam Huo for being cruel to them, but she recognized reality, so she endured it.

"Mom! Grandma is too much! She was clearly the one who caused this situation. If she hadn't stopped you and Dad back then, that bastard Huo Ge wouldn't have sneaked into our house now," Huo Bing said indignantly.

Lin Rong quickly covered Huo Bing's mouth and said with disapproval, "Don't talk nonsense. This is the Huo Family. There are people everywhere."

Huo Bing naturally knew this, but he just felt uncomfortable. He just felt that he was also Grandma's grandson. Why did Grandma have to treat him so differently?

Therefore, he only complained a little. He only dared to hide all his hatred in his heart.

Lin Rong held her son's hand and said calmly, "Xiao Bing, although your Grandma doesn't like you, you're still a child of the Huo Family. You have a share in this huge Huo Family's family business. Your mother isn't greedy. As long as we can coax your father and get him to give you the assets under his name, it's enough for you to spend your entire life."

"Mom, you know that I want the entire Huo Family," Huo Bing said softly.

In Huo Bing's opinion, his parents were the golden couple and Zhao Ning was the third party. Therefore, he had always felt that the Huo Family should belong to him.

Lin Rong looked at her son with disapproval and said, "Old Madam isn't that easy to deal with. I just hope that you can get your father's share. Mom has tried her best to give birth to you in the Huo Family and has already done everything I can to help you rise in class. I don't want you to have a conflict with Old Madam and lose everything in the end. Do you understand?"

Lin Rong came from a lowly background and her parents were both useless villagers, so she had known since she was young that she had to be realistic and use all her strength to cling to the highest point she could reach.

Fortunately, although her family was poor, she was good-looking. Therefore, after she met Huo Huai, she tried her best to form all kinds of connections with him and finally hooked up with him.

Yes, she had long known that Huo Huai was engaged to a daughter of a well-matched family, but she still made a move because this opportunity was too rare for her.

With her status, in the future, she might not have the chance to meet a man with a family background like Huo Huai who was not smart enough.

She did not want to marry into an ordinary family. She would have to worry about the livelihood of her descendants for the rest of her life. She wanted to jump through the dragon gate in one go and let her descendants immediately jump levels to upper-class society.

Therefore, when Huo Huai was hot-headed and said that he wanted to cut ties with the Huo Family, she was the one who gently persuaded Huo Huai, giving him a dignified excuse to go home and inherit the family business.

As for Zhao Ning's death, she was also very regretful, but she had never wanted Zhao Ning to die.

She thought that the Zhao Family was a rich family and Zhao Ning was their daughter. She would definitely not be able to tolerate Huo Huai's actions. When the time came, Huo Huai and Zhao Ning would definitely get a divorce.

As long as the two of them divorced, Huo Huai's reputation in the capital would not be good. Naturally, no girl from a good family would marry into the Huo Family.

That way, she and Huo Huai would have a chance..
