

Real Daughter 671

Chapter 671 Siblings

Gong Yue looked at Gong Han, who was protected by Gong Ze, with displeasure. Gong Han was clearly only worthy of an ignorant and incompetent libertine like Yue Chi.

In the end, she did not expect Gong Han to be so lucky as to be engaged to Yue Han.

Just thinking about it made Gong Yue feel indignant.

This way, if she wanted to suppress Gong Han in the future, she would have to marry someone stronger than Yue Han.

For example, Mu Heng, Lu Ming, and Wei Yang, but this was too difficult. Was she going to drug someone and sleep with them like Gong Han?

Gong Luo had originally planned to punish Gong Han properly, but now that Yue Han had appeared, he could not say anything else. At the same time, he was afraid that Gong Han would enter the Yue Family and specially destroy the Gong Family.

Although he could use Gong Ze to warn Gong Han when the time came, they had just arranged a marriage with the Yue Family. It was better not to make things too awkward.

Gong Luo glanced at Gong Yi. After meeting Gong Yi's gaze, he smiled at Gong Ze and said, "Gong Ze, don't talk nonsense. Everyone is joking. Your sister is the eldest daughter of our Gong Family. If anyone dares to bully her, our Gong Family will be the first to disagree."

Gong Yue gritted her teeth in anger when she did not receive Gong Han's apology.

Yue Han's words came from Gong Ze's cell phone. "That's good. Gong Ze, help me keep an eye on your sister. If there's anything, look for me directly. Do you understand?"

Gong Ze also hated Yue Han because of what had happened today, but since Yue Han had stepped forward to protect Gong Han, Gong Ze naturally showed him respect. He smiled and said, "I understand, future brother-in-law!"

After Gong Ze hung up, he pulled Gong Han back to Gong Han's room with red eyes. The moment he closed the door, Gong Ze looked at Gong Han guiltily and said, "Sister, I'm sorry. I'm useless. That's why you're suffering at home."

Gong Han shook her head and said with a gratified expression, "I'm not aggrieved. I'm very glad that you believe in me. At least I have some expectations for this family. Thank you for believing in me. Otherwise, I really wouldn't know what to do."

Gong Ze knew the bitterness in Gong Han's heart. She was not sad about being slandered, but when she was slandered, even her closest people did not believe her. She must be very helpless and sad to stand there alone and be criticized.

Gong Ze hugged Gong Han gently and said, "Sister, I'll grow up quickly. When I'm strong, I'll protect you well."

Gong Han patted Gong Ze's head and smiled. "What are you thinking about? When you're capable, I'll be very powerful too. You don't have to protect me. You have to protect yourself. When I get married, you'll be the only one left in this family. You can't be bullied by them."

Gong Ze knew that Gong Han was comforting him and worried about him. This made him feel even more guilty and regretful.

After feeling guilty for so long, he realized his sister's predicament in the Gong Family. He regretted the time he had wasted, causing him to not have enough strength to resist Gong Luo and the others.

He was from the rich Gong Family, but his ability to protect his family was inferior to Lin Yin, who had come from the slums. He indeed felt terrible.

Gong Han looked at her brother's sad expression and smiled. "Why are you so bitter? Since I can't choose my marriage, marrying Yue Han is no different from marrying Yue Chi. Even if it's not Yue Han, it'll be an unknown person in the future."

"Speaking of which, Yue Han is much better than Yue Chi, right? Didn't you all say that Yue Han is a decent guy? I'm benefitting. Besides, if I'm with him, at least the Gong Family will think highly of me. This way, Dad, Mom, and you will have a better life in the future."

But neither Yue Han nor Yue Chi are the people you like, right? Gong Ze wanted to say such words, but he couldn't bring himself to say them.

So what if he was indignant? Sister was right. If it were not Yue Han, it would be someone else in the future. In short, sister wouldn't be able to coincidentally meet someone she loved.

Gong Ze looked at Gong Han angrily and said, "Sister, you still have the time to think about Mom and Dad. You shouldn't have cared about us. Mom and Dad didn't help you, and I can't help you. We deserve it if we don't live well."

Gong Han looked at the childish Gong Ze and smiled until her eyes curved. She looked very much like Yang Si, which made Gong Ze feel upset.

His mother had tolerated his father's mistress for most of her life and had also been a lowly servant at home for half her life. Now, it was unknown whether his sister, who looked so much like his mother, was going to repeat his mother's life.

Chapter 672 Bean Buns

In the past, he had scoffed at the idea of women placing their lives on men. But now, he actually prayed in his heart that Yue Han must be a good person and not like Yue Chi or his father.

The siblings chatted for a while before Gong Ze returned to his room. He picked up his phone and sent Lin Yin a message.

Lin Yin, who was lying on the hospital bed, did not know what had happened to Gong Ze or why he would send a message that he wanted to learn from her.

Besides, what was there to learn from her?

Lin Yin guessed that something had happened to Gong Ze.

However, Lin Yin did not ask in detail. After all, this was Gong Ze's own business. She had her own things to do.

Lin Yin put away her cell phone and called Sun Biao in. "Help me investigate the Wei family. I want to know everything, no matter how big or small. Especially anything related to Wei Ji."

After gesturing at the security officer at the door of the ward to keep quiet, Lin Yin gently pushed the door open and entered, sitting beside Wei Ji's bed.

Wei Ji was fed medicine and fell into a coma. Fortunately, his life was not in danger. Otherwise, Lin Yin would probably catch Wei Wei and knock him out for a few days and nights.

She looked at Wei Ji's eyebrows. The grown-up Wei Ji was really different from when he was young. The only similarity was that he looked cute and adorable.

Therefore, when she did not know Wei Ji's identity back then, she asked if Wei Ji had been lost when he was young. When she picked Wei Ji up, Wei Ji said that he had been lost.

However, Wei Ji said no. She then dismissed the idea that Wei Ji was the little boy she had picked up when she was five years old and secretly raised for five years.

When she picked up Wei Ji, Wei Ji had never said his name. At that time, she had given Wei Ji a name. He was called Bean Bao. When they first met, Wei Ji had almost been beaten to death because he had snatched a Bean Bao.

At that time, she had watched helplessly as Bean Bao was beaten up by a group of people. She did not help or call for help. She was only five years old and could not help, nor could she defeat that group of boys who looked like they were in their teens.

Besides, she was used to such things in the slums, so she could not sympathize.

She thought that Bean Bao was dead, but Bean Bao was tough and did not die.

At that time, the little Bean Bao's face was dirty, covered in dust and filth, but the eyes that looked up at Lin Yin were watery, like those of a cute puppy. Like those furry little animals that Lin Yin had always wanted to raise but never dared to.

Seeing Lin Yin looking at him in a daze, little Bean Bao thought that the girl in front of him wanted to eat the bean bun in his hand. He trembled and handed it to Lin Yin, handing her the half of the bean bun that was already covered in dust.

Lin Yin did not expect that this little boy would give it to her so easily after he was almost beaten to death for this bean bun.

Later, Lin Yin asked why, but Bean Bao didn't say.

Seeing that Bean Bao had given the bean bun to her, Lin Yin brought Wei Ji to a dilapidated and uninhabited house.

She did not choose to bring Bean Bao to her adoptive mother's house because her adoptive mother's family was not rich and she was usually crazy.

It also wasn't easy for her to find a home and mother that could protect her. She did not want to share it with others. She was afraid that such a cute boy would snatch away the peaceful life she had painstakingly obtained.

She did not tell Bean Bao her real name. At that time, she was still young and stubbornly believed that once her adoptive mother saw Bean Bao, she would definitely adopt Bean Bao. Therefore, she did not want Bean Bao to find her home through her name, so she kept asking Bean Bao to call her sister.

She had hidden Bean Bao for three years. She would share what she had learned in school, what her adoptive mother had given her and what she ate. She would also earn some money to buy food for Bean Bao, but she would not share her adoptive mother's love for her.

It was not until her adoptive mother died that she brought Bean Bao, who always called her sister sweetly behind her, back to that equally dilapidated home. The two eight-year-old children relied on each other until two years later, Bean Bao was targeted by human traffickers.

She didn't want anything to happen to Bean Bao. He was lost and different from her, so there was hope for Bean Bao to return to his parents.

Therefore, she risked her life and almost died under the knife of the human trafficker to save Wei Ji back from the human trafficker.

Chapter 673: Are You Very Fierce?

It was also at that time that her back was slashed by a human trafficker. She curled up on the ground and could not move.

In order to trick the human trafficker, she lay on the ground and pretended to be dead, preparing to counterattack the human trafficker who ran towards her.

Unexpectedly, after that fool, Bean Bao, shouted "Sister", he directly bumped into the human trafficker. The human trafficker's head was bleeding from the collision. He himself hit a big rock beside him and fainted, his body and head covered in blood.

Seeing that the human trafficker was about to approach Bean Bao, Lin Yin had the thought of killing as many as she could. If she died, the murderer would die with her. She grabbed the knife that had fallen from the human trafficker and stabbed it straight at the human trafficker's abdomen.

Fortunately, Bean Bao's family rushed over after and chased the human traffickers away. They even brought the two of them to the hospital. Otherwise, if no one came that day, the two of them would probably have died in the slums or been taken away by the human traffickers.

Lin Yin was originally suspicious of the so-called family of Bean Bao because she did not see his parents appear.

And those people clearly did not want to tell her too much, as if they were hiding Bean Bao's true identity from her.

It was just that she had secretly seen those people taking good care of Bean Bao who had a high fever. They used the best things for Bean Bao.

Therefore, Lin Yin convinced herself that Bean Bao's family was already here and they looked very rich. She should be at ease. Instead of starving in the slums, she might as well let Bean Bao go home. At least he would be able to eat and clothe himself and not have to worry about being captured by human traffickers.

Rich people definitely did not want outsiders to know that they had lost their children. After all, their child had lived in the slums for five years. It would not be good if word got out.

Lin Yin stayed in the hospital for two days. Thanks to Bean Bao, she was taken good care of. When she could move, Lin Yin quietly left.

She did not want to face the scene of parting. It was good to leave quietly.

As her thoughts returned, Lin Yin looked at Wei Ji in front of her. She really did not expect that Bean Bao did not seem to be doing well either after returning to the Wei family.

At that time, before she left, she had asked the doctor carefully if there would be any sequelae. The doctor said that there would not be.

Then why was Wei Ji's leg crippled?

At the thought that the little brat she had scrimped and fed for five years had been beaten until his leg was crippled, Lin Yin's gaze turned sinister.

Wei Ji woke up faintly and bumped into Lin Yin's dark and fierce eyes. He retreated warily.

Such a big action woke Lin Yin up. Lin Yin looked at Wei Ji's frightened expression and immediately put away her ruthless emotions. She smiled and said, "What are you afraid of? Are you afraid of me?"

Only then did Wei Ji see that it was Lin Yin. He nodded in fear and said, "You looked a little scary just now."

Wei Ji wanted to reach out to take it, but he realized that he didn't have much strength. He looked at Lin Yin in confusion, his aggrieved eyes watery. "What's wrong with me? Why don't I have any strength?"

Lin Yin looked at Wei Ji's watery eyes and sighed to herself. She sat beside Wei Ji with the water and brought the cup to Wei Ji's mouth. She said gently, "You were drugged and schemed against by Wei Wei. Drink it like this." Wei Ji looked at Lin Yin in surprise. His gaze looked blank and silly.

"Why are you looking at me? Drink!" Lin Yin frowned and asked in amusement.

Wei Ji hurriedly took a few sips and said embarrassedly, "You seem to be a little different today. Usually, you'll be impatient and might even be angry at me and say why are you being bullied again, you always don't learn."

"Am I... very fierce?" Lin Yin retracted her cup and asked awkwardly.

Wei Ji shook his head like a rattledrum and explained anxiously, “No, it’s not fierce. It’s just the kind of seriousness like you’re expecting better from me.”

Seeing Lin Yin frown, Wei Ji became even more anxious. “No, just that I quite like you treating me like this.”

Lin Yin looked at Wei Ji’s anxious expression and smiled. “Alright, I didn’t say anything about you. Why are you so anxious?”

Lin Yin turned around to put away the glass of water. Wei Ji immediately saw the bruise on the other side of Lin Yin’s face. He used all his strength to support himself up against the wall and stood barefoot on the ground.. He held Lin Yin’s hand with a pained expression and asked, “What happened to your face? Who did it?”

Chapter 674: I’ll Watch Over You

Wei Ji stood stubbornly and did not let go of Lin Yin. “How can such a large bruise be a misunderstanding? Is it the Wei Family? It’s impossible for me to appear in the hospital for no reason. In the past, when I was bullied by them, I would only appear alone in my cold room and not in the hospital. You were the one who brought me out of Wei Wei’s hands, right? The wound on your face was caused by Wei Wei, right?”

Wei Ji’s sparkling eyes were red, making Lin Yin feel a little sorry. She quickly said, “Alright, alright, I didn’t do anything. This is really a misunderstanding. Wei Wei secretly threw you into Wei Yang’s territory. When I went to look for you, I hit Wei Yang’s men. Wei Yang’s bodyguards thought that I was here to cause trouble, so they attacked me.”

In the past, when she didn’t recognize Wei Ji as Bean Bao, Lin Yin must have despised him when she saw him crying like this. But now, looking at him like this, Lin Yin was left with helplessness.

Perhaps people really had a filter when it came to judging people. Once she knew that Wei Ji was the little Bean Bao she had raised for five years, her heart would soften easily.

Lin Yin sighed inwardly. Forget it. After all, she was the one who raised him. So what if her heart softened?

Lin Yin's other hand gently covered Wei Ji's hand that was holding her arm. She said patiently, "I'm really fine. Don't cry like this, okay?"

Wei Ji's anger dissipated a little after being coaxed by Lin Yin. He looked at Lin

Yin in surprise, then nodded in confusion. "Okay!"

Lin Yin pulled her hand out of Wei Ji's grip in satisfaction. "Stay here. I'll get someone to bring you something to eat."

With that, Lin Yin turned around and left the ward.

As for Wei Ji, he looked at the door in confusion. He didn't know what had happened when he was unconscious. Why did it feel like Lin Yin had changed?

What exactly happened?

Lin Yin got someone to prepare some light food for Wei Ji. As she watched Wei Ji eat slowly, she tilted her head in thought.

Lin Yin, who had not been looking at Wei Ji previously, suddenly changed one day. She stared at Wei Ji, making him blush in embarrassment.

"Did I get it on my face? Is it dirty?" Wei Ji touched his face and asked.

“No.” Lin Yin shook her head.

“Then, did I do something else amazing?” Wei Ji was not confident that Lin Yin would suddenly fall in love with him and not be able to get enough of him.

Only then did Lin Yin realize that she might have been thinking too much and had forgotten to retract her gaze from Wei Ji.

Lin Yin retracted her gaze and sat up straight. “I was too engrossed in thinking.

It’s fine. Continue eating.”

“Can your leg still be treated?” Lin Yin suddenly asked.

Wei Ji paused for a moment before saying, “I don’t know either. I’ve never seen a doctor.”

The expression on Lin Yin’s face froze. Just as she was about to speak, Sun Biao hurriedly knocked on the door and entered. He looked at Lin Yin worriedly and said, “Boss, why did you walk out on your own? Your ribs were broken and the surgery was just completed. The doctor said that he wants you to lie in bed and rest more.”

Sun Biao did not expect that his troublesome boss would disregard her body and leave just because he had gone out to deal with something.

He sized Wei Ji up a few times and wondered if Lin Yin really liked Wei Ji.

So she would rather offend the Wei Family to save Wei Ji and break two ribs to save him?

Wei Ji was only a little good-looking. He was not as good-looking as Mu Ran or as handsome as Lu Ming.

However, when he saw Lin Yin's calm and happy expression just now, Sun Biao only sighed in his heart. Although beauty was a hindrance, as long as his boss was happy, it was fine.

It was just that she could not ignore her health.

"Two broken ribs?" Wei Ji asked in disbelief. "Was it also done by Wei Yang's bodyguard?"

Sun Biao said sarcastically, "That's right. It's that bodyguard of your Wei Family. He clearly went to save the Wei Family, but he was injured by them."

Lin Yin clicked her tongue at Sun Biao. "I know my own body. I'll rest well. Go out first."

Wei Ji got up from the bed. He wanted to pull Lin Yin to his bed to rest, but he was afraid of hurting her again, so he stood by the bed uneasily and worriedly. He maintained the posture of lifting the blanket and said, "Lin Yin, rest on my bed."

"I'll be back in a while. There's no need," Lin Yin said helplessly..

Chapter 675: Worry

Wei Ji stood barefoot and looked at Lin Yin stubbornly. His big eyes were gentle and pleading. Lin Yin had no choice but to obediently get into bed.

Sun Biao's eyes widened slightly. This worked too? It seemed like Wei Ji had unknowingly controlled his boss. This matter was not good.

Especially since Lin Yin had asked him to investigate everything about Wei Ji for the past few years. She was obviously interested.

Otherwise, why would she suddenly be interested after being classmates for so long?

Wei Ji gently tucked Lin Yin in and sat obediently at the side. He looked at Lin Yin and said, "Rest well. I'll guard you."

Lin Yin couldn't help but laugh. "It's not that serious. You don't have to guard me."

"I have to." Wei Ji was like a puppy that was loyally guarding its master.

Lin Yin couldn't persuade Wei Ji, so she could only let him sit at the side and guard. Fortunately, Wei Ji wasn't seriously injured, so it shouldn't be a big problem.

As the night deepened, Lin Yin slowly eliminated the thoughts in her mind and closed her eyes to sleep. Wei Ji lay at the side, his gaze on Lin Yin's face, his eyes filled with confusion.

He still could not understand what had happened in the past two to three days.

There clearly didn't seem to be anything special, but why had Lin Yin's attitude towards him changed? Could it be that Lin Yin had a hobby of helping others? If she saved someone, they would be under her protection, so her temper would be better?

The Mu couple, who had come out to look for Lin Yin in the middle of the night, looked at the scene in the room through the glass in the ward. The two of them were a little worried.

“Do you think Yinyin really has deep feelings for Wei Ji? Look at Yinyin’s aura when she brought people to look for Wei Ji. She’s going to fight the Wei Family to the death,” Ye Wen said worriedly.

Mu Cheng also sighed and said, “Even if it’s not deep love, based on how Yinyin treats Wei Ji now, she already places Wei Ji in a very important position. After what happened today, I think the Wei Family is already thinking about the relationship between Lin Yin and Wei Ji.”

“Back then, Dong Cheng brought most of the Dong Family’s assets and worked hard with Wei Ming to build the Wei Corporation. There must still be Dong Cheng’s people inside. If those people know Yinyin’s identity and her relationship with Wei Ji, they might force Wei Ji to take over,” Ye Wen said worriedly.

“Let’s not think too much about it first. Ah Heng said that Wei Ji doesn’t know Lin Yin’s identity yet. At least we can be sure that Wei Ji isn’t plotting anything now,” Mu Cheng persuaded.

Back then, those people from the Wei Family’s first branch did not have a good ending. This was enough to show how ruthless Wei Ming and Wei Ming’s two women were to the first branch.

Now that Ning Sheng clearly knew Lin Yin’s identity, it meant that the second branch of the Wei Family already knew that Lin Yin was standing beside Wei Ji.

If Lin Yin showed any signs of wanting to help Wei Ji fight for power, the second branch of the Wei Family might point their knives at Lin Yin.

At the thought of this, Ye Wen’s eyes turned sharp. “If they dare to mess around, I won’t be soft-hearted. I have to find a time to teach the Wei Family’s second branch a lesson. Even if Ning Sheng is my good friend, I won’t allow them to harm my Yinyin.”

Mu Cheng’s eyes were also dyed with a stern look. She whispered, “If the Wei Family really dares to attack Yinyin, we can only secretly help those people push Wei Ji up for Yinyin’s safety.”

Ye Wen did not expect Mu Cheng to think of this. However, she did not say anything and tacitly agreed with her husband’s decision.

However, Wei Ji's foundation was too weak. Coupled with the fact that he was alone, the difference between him and the other two branches was too great.

Also, her good friend Ning Sheng was not someone to be trifled with. If their interests really went against each other, Ning Sheng would really be heartless. Therefore, they had to be prepared for the two branches of the Wei Family to face the attack.

Otherwise, it would show that Wei Ji had no intention of fighting for the family assets. That would be good for everyone.

Ye Wen's face was filled with worry. She could not understand why Lin Yin was so close to Wei Ji.

Lin Yin and Wei Ji stayed in the hospital for a few days, and Wei Wei was inexplicably targeted.

Previously, Wei Yang's hospital had been investigated and reorganized by the Health Bureau. Wei Wei had even sneered at him for a long time. He had never expected that before he could get a good laugh, he would be the next to be investigated..

Chapter 676: Analysis

Wei Wei had mainly taken over the family's pharmacy. In the end, many problems with the medicinal herbs appeared inexplicably.

Wei Hong and Yuan Yao knew very well that Wei Wei must have offended someone. Yuan Yao immediately thought of Lin Yin from a few days ago, so she asked her husband to ask her mother-in-law about Lin Yin's true identity. Yuan Yao did not think that Lin Yin had the guts to provoke the Wei Family with just the Shisheng Corporation.

However, Ning Sheng had clearly mentioned the Mu family that day, so Lin Yin must be related to the Mu family.

After Wei Hong heard his wife's analysis, he also felt that something was amiss. He instructed Yuan Yao to keep an eye on Wei Wei and not let him cause trouble again before going straight to Wang Xu.

Wang Xu watched as Wei Hong entered. She put down the porcelain teacup in her hand and elegantly poured a cup of tea for Wei Hong.

As soon as Wei Hong sat down, he couldn't help but ask anxiously, "Mom, who is that Lin Yin?"

At this moment, Ning Sheng, who was taking tea leaves from the side room, walked out and happened to hear Wei Hong's question. Hence, she said to Wang Xu, "Mom, why don't we tell the truth? Now that our second and third branches are fighting fiercely, we can't let Second Brother and the others accidentally offend someone."

When Wei Hong heard Ning Sheng's words, he frowned slightly and said unhappily, "Sister-in-law, what do you mean?"

Wang Xu stopped Wei Hong softly. "Your sister-in-law is telling the truth.

What kind of attitude is this?"

He and his brother were clearly his mother's children, but because Wang Xu was more satisfied with her daughter-in-law, Ning Sheng, she was also more satisfied with his brother. She even leaned all her resources towards Wei Yang, who was her brother's child, when the Wei Family was choosing an heir.

In the past, before Ning Sheng married into the Wei family, his mother clearly doted on him the most.

Wang Xu knew that Wei Hong was dissatisfied. She sighed and said, "A while ago, the Lin Yin that Ah Wei offended was the daughter of the Mu family who had been missing for 18 years. Your stupid wife and son used Lin Yin and Wei Ji's relationship to deal with Wei Yang, causing Wei Yang to injure Lin Yin. To this day, Lin Yin is still lying in the hospital."

Wei Hong looked at Wang Xu with widened eyes and asked in disbelief, "Didn't you say that she's already dead? How can she still be found?"

As Ning Sheng replaced the tea leaves for Wang Xu, she said gently, "We can't be on guard. The Mu family has a lot of objections to Wei Wei because of Lin Yin. They're already giving the Wei family face by not getting someone to cripple Wei Wei. If we don't let them vent their anger now, this matter will never be over."

Wei Hong was dissatisfied with Ning Sheng's interruption. He glanced at Ning Sheng and said, "Sister-in-law, it's not your son who was attacked by the Mu family. Of course you would say such sarcastic words."

Wang Xu was angered by her youngest son's insensibility. "Do you think only Ah Wei will suffer from the Mu family's retaliation? Ah Yang was earlier than Ah Wei. Several hospitals under his name are still under investigation. Ah Yang's bodyguard went to apologize and broke two ribs. If it weren't for your sister-in-law, Ah Yang would have broken his ribs."

Wei Hong did not expect such things to happen and was instantly furious. "Isn't this Mu Family too arrogant? Is our dignified Wei Family afraid of the Mu Family?"

Ning Sheng smiled secretly in disdain. Then, he still put on a harmonious expression and said, "If our Wei Family only has our lineage, we naturally don't have to be afraid. However, the Wei Family isn't just our lineage. This is equivalent to the Wei Family being divided into two. Once we have a conflict with the Mu Family, the enemy of our enemy is our friend. Do you think those people from the third branch will choose to join forces with the Mu Family?" Wei Hong frowned and gradually calmed down.

Then, he looked up at Wang Xu and said, "Mom, you just said that Ah Wei used Lin Yin and Wei Ji to deal with Ah Yang? What's going on?"

Wang Xu snorted. "Looks like your stupid wife doesn't dare to tell you about this."

Ning Sheng told him everything that happened that day. Wei Hong was angry and embarrassed.

He was not angry that Wei Wei actually dared to deal with Wei Yang, but that his son was actually dirty.

His brother was smarter than him to begin with, but in the end, he married a powerful wife. He had always been indignant.

In the end, he did not expect that the two children his brother had given birth to were also smarter than his two children. Wei Yang had been good in his studies since he was young and had a calm and polite personality. He had also done well in the Corporation..

Chapter 677: Roping In

On the other hand, his son, Wei Wei, was not smart. He was at the bottom of the class in his studies and had already gone to the Corporation for an internship, but he often did things inappropriately and liked to go out to fool around. His reputation in the capital was not good either. He was furious, but there was nothing he could do.

Her brother's daughter, Wei Ying, had also graduated from Capital University. She heard that she had recently helped his mother clean up the third branch's Wei Chi. Even the third branch had been neglected by his father recently.

As for his daughter, she was still chasing after celebrities on the university campus with all kinds of banners. She shouted I love you at those boy idols every day.

At the thought of this, Wei Hong became even angrier. He still wanted to fight for the position of the Wei Family's heir for Wei Wei. How was he going to fight with such attitude?

Wei Hong looked helpless. Then, as if he had thought of something, he looked up at Ning Sheng and said, "You just said that Lin Yin and Wei Ji are close? Lin Yin is also a member of the Mu family. Will the Mu family help Wei Ji behind the scenes?"

Wang Xu took a sip and said, "That depends on what the Mu family thinks and how deep Lin Yin's feelings for Wei Ji are."

"Ye Wen is very protective of her children. Lin Yin is her favorite now. If Lin Yin really asks Ye Wen to help Wei Ji, Ye Wen and her husband can really do it," Ning Sheng said.

Wei Hong panicked when he heard that and said, "Then what should we do? If Mu Cheng and his wife help Wei Ji from behind, won't the Mu Family be the opponent we have to face?"

Ning Sheng nodded and said, "Yes, that's right, but the matter isn't settled yet. We're just guessing. Besides, doesn't the Mu Family still have Old Master Mu and Old Madam Mu? These two won't blindly do something they're not confident of for Lin Yin. With these two holding back Mu Cheng and his wife, things shouldn't be so troublesome."

"In the end, it's still Lin Yin. Wouldn't it be fine as long as we pull Lin Yin into our camp? At that time, not to mention nothing troublesome, even the third branch won't be enough for us." With that, Wei Hong looked up and drank a small cup of tea.

Wang Xu sneered. "How? Are you going to use your son to rope him in?" Wei Hong rubbed his nose in embarrassment and did not say anything.

Not to mention that Wei Wei had offended Lin Yin now, even if he did not offend Lin Yin, his son's messy reputation would not be able to rope Lin Yin in.

Wei Hong looked at Ning Sheng and said reluctantly but sincerely, "Ah Yang is not bad. Let him interact with Lin Yin more. I don't believe that a normal and healthy person can't compare to that cripple, Wei Ji. Unless Lin Yin is a freak with some kind of disability fetish."

"You finally know how to use Ah Yang now? Go back and educate your stupid wife and son. Don't always not differentiate between friend and foe. You can only see those small benefits. You have no foresight,"

Wang Xu said angrily. Being scolded in front of Ning Sheng, Wei Hong felt embarrassed and stood up to leave.

Wang Xu looked at Ning Sheng seriously and said, "I think what Ah Hong said just now makes sense. See if you can get Wei Yang to try to get in touch with Lin Yin. She's a young lady. I don't believe that she really likes that cripple. Moreover, young people nowadays have very open views on love. They might like you this moment and completely ignore you in the next moment.

Ning Sheng sighed and said, "It's not that I haven't thought about it. Now that we're in such a situation, Ah Yang's marriage partner will definitely find a girl that's beneficial for us to successfully take over the Wei Family in the future. Among the eight families in the capital, there are two suitable ones in the Wen Family. It just so happens that the Wen Family is in-laws with the third branch. The Gong Family has Gong Han. She's at the right age, but she's not favored. Even if she's married, she won't be of much help."

Ning Sheng gently cleaned the cup that Wei Hong had just drunk from as she continued, "The girls in the Hou Family are not easy to control and are not suitable. The girls from the other families are all young. That Yue Ning, that Lu Yue, and Lu Yan are all young. Even this Lin Yin is young. I don't know how long we'll have to wait until she can get married. I think Dad's health is already a little dejected. We can't wait."

Wang Xu knew that what Ning Sheng said was the truth, but she was still a little indignant.

According to strength, the Lu Family, the Mu Family, and the Wei Family were ranked in the top three of the eight aristocratic families in the capital. Although everyone said that the three families were evenly matched and were tied for first place, the Wei Family could not compare to old families like the Lu Family and the Mu Family.

In addition, the Wei Family was not just of the same bloodline, so neither the Lu Family nor the Mu Family might fancy a complicated family like the Wei Family..

Chapter 678: Get the Scissors

Therefore, if she could rely on Ning Sheng and Ye Wen's relationship to make Wei Yang and Lin Yin a good thing, Wei Yang would definitely inherit the Wei family.

Ning Sheng knew what Wang Xu meant. Not to mention Wang Xu, even she wanted to kidnap Lin Yin back to be her daughter-in-law. This way, her son would be stable in the Wei family.

However, with Ye Wen's bad temper, she really did not dare to say anything about letting Lin Yin and Wei Yang try to interact, especially this time. Wei Yang had even injured Lin Yin. Now that Ye Wen did not deal with Wei Yang, she was already taking special care of her.

However, Ning Sheng did not finish her sentence. She only replied, "Mom, I'll think about what to do about this. Don't worry."

Wang Xu looked at Ning Sheng with satisfaction. "Fortunately, you're smart. If both of you were as short-sighted as Yuan Yao, my lifespan would probably be short."

Ning Sheng said sweetly, "Mom, what are you talking about? You're going to live a long life."

The two of them looked at each other and smiled. Then, they continued to drink tea quietly.

After Yuan Yao found out about Lin Yin's identity from Wei Hong, she was so shocked that she was a little dumbfounded. "How is she a child of the Mu Family?"

Wei Hong glanced at Yuan Yao from the corner of his eyes and said unhappily, "You've been maintaining some useless social interactions with those wives of small families all day. What do you know?"

Yuan Yao said with an aggrieved expression, "Can you blame me? Which rich lady in the capital is willing to interact with me? Don't they all despise us for being nameless in the Wei Family? Ning Sheng is just lucky. Her son was designated as the heir of the Wei Family and she had a little relationship with those rich ladies when she was young. Otherwise, she would be worse than me. Now that Ye Wen is awake again, she's even more smug. Her former good sister is Mrs. Mil."

As she spoke, Yuan Yao felt indignant.

Now, Ning Sheng was more at ease than her because Ning Sheng had grown up in the capital when she was young. She had a little young friendship with those rich madams and former daughters of rich families.

But she was just a foreigner who had married into the Wei Family. How could she compare to her?

Ever since Wei Yang was chosen as the heir, no one had interacted with her, so she could only interact with those who were inferior to her.

“What’s there to be proud of? Wei Yang hit Lin Yin. Ye Wen probably won’t be able to get over this,” Wei Hong said angrily. Then, he instructed Yuan Yao, “The Mu Family will suffer from the revenge this time. Let’s see when the Mu

Family’s anger subsides. We’ll visit them to ease the relationship. And Wei

Wei...”

Halfway through his sentence, Wei Hong paused and looked at Yuan Yao with distrust before continuing, “Forget it, I’ll talk to Wei Wei myself. Call that rascal Wei Wei over.”

Yuan Yao muttered a few times in dissatisfaction, but she still obediently called Wei Wei over.

Wei Wei had been taught a lesson by Lin Yin that day. He had been looking for an opportunity to take revenge on Lin Yin for the past few days, but unfortunately, Lin Yin had been in the hospital for the past few days and he could not find an opportunity at all.

Now that he heard his father tell him not to provoke Lin Yin, he was instantly dissatisfied.

“Dad! That brat Lin Yin broke my hand several times. I can’t take this lying down. I’ve never been humiliated like this in my life. She’s still a little girl!” Wei Wei vented his dissatisfaction at his father loudly.

“If you hadn’t used Wei Ji to scheme against Lin Yin first, why would she deal with you?” Wei Hong shouted. “You usually don’t do anything and only cause trouble for the family. If you hadn’t provoked Lin Yin this time, we wouldn’t have provoked the Mu family. You’re the root of trouble!”

“How would I know that the Mu Family and Lin Yin have such a good relationship? Besides, I just want Grandpa to be disappointed in Wei Yang. Aren’t I doing this for you, Dad? Why can Wei Yang inherit the Wei Family while we can’t? I’m not bad either,” Wei Wei said indignantly.

Wei Hong usually doted on his son, Wei Wei, but when he heard Wei Wei’s words that lacked self-awareness, he was so angry that he rolled his eyes. “Not bad? You’re so bad that you might as well be reborn.”

Wei Wei pouted and secretly rolled his eyes. “I was born by you guys. Dad, if you’re so stern, you might as well stuff me back into my mother’s stomach and remake me!”

“What did you say!” Wei Hong was so angry at his son’s shamelessness that he felt like he was burning in a fire..

Chapter 679: Not Calling Me Sister

Wei Hong was even angrier when he saw Wei Wei’s glasses and the wretched mustache he had grown at a young age.

“Bring the scissors!” Wei Hong shouted angrily outside.

Wei Wei immediately realized what his father was going to do. He turned around and was about to run, but he could not stop his father.

When Yuan Yao heard Wei Hong’s furious voice, she entered in fear and wanted to persuade him. However, when she saw that Wei Hong was going to cut Wei Wei’s beard, she silently walked away.

She had been enduring that wretched beard for a long time. A good young man looked like an old lecher in his forties. She felt uncomfortable just looking at him.

Wei Wei's sorrowful voice of losing his love resounded in the sky above the Wei Family and lingered for a long time, startling the sparrows resting on the nearby trees.

The birds that passed by under the sunlight pulled Lin Yin back to her senses. She held her cell phone tightly. It was filled with some things that had happened when Wei Ji returned to the Wei family. It made her heart ache.

Eight years ago, she had tried her best to keep Wei Ji alive so that he could return to his parents' side. She had wanted this world to have one less unlucky child like her. Unexpectedly, this child did not have a good life.

Back then, Wei Ji had been missing for five years and had even returned to the Wei Family. It was very secretive. Other than the Wei Family, very few people knew about this.

The Wei family probably did not want to publicize this matter, lest outsiders criticize them, especially Wei Ming. He definitely did not want anyone to know that he had let his biological grandson wander outside for five years.

Wei Ming loved his image, and the side he showed to outsiders was righteous, elegant, and kind. Therefore, he treated Wei Ji and Wei Xuan quite well.

Usually, there was no shortage of small gifts and money for the two siblings.

It was just that Wei Ming was old and focused on his career, so he could not pay attention to the Wei siblings at all times. Therefore, the Wei siblings could not keep everything they had.

No wonder Wei Ji, who came from the Wei Family, was so poor that he had to exchange his watch for food.

This was especially true for Wei Wei and Wei Chi. They snatched his money and bullied them. Wei Ji's leg was Wei Wei and Wei Chi's entertainment.

They tricked Wei Xuan out and sent her to the kidnappers, causing Wei Ji's leg to be broken when he was saving her. Later on, he did not receive treatment in time and fell.

After Wei Ming found out about this, he only made Wei Wei and Wei Chi kneel for a few days. This made Lin Yin's gaze suddenly turn fierce.

These were all some information that could be found on the surface. What about the bullies hidden in the Wei Family's deep residence that could not be found? There would be more, right?

"Lin Yin?" Wei Ji walked up to Lin Yin and shouted.

Lin Yin blinked and retracted her gaze from the window. She quickly adjusted her emotions and turned around with a smile. "What's wrong?"

Wei Ji shook his head and did not answer. Instead, he suddenly asked, "Can I call you Yinyin? I keep feeling that it's too unfamiliar to call you by your name."

When Wei Ji asked this, Lin Yin could see the nervousness in Wei Ji's eyes. She wanted to tease him and teased, "Then why don't you call me Sister?"

Wei Ji seemed surprised. Then, he lowered his head and said reluctantly, "I don't want to call you Sister."

Lin Yin did not expect Wei Ji to resist in time this time. She teased, "When Su

Su teased you previously, you didn't resist so quickly. Why? Double standards?"

Lin Yin was just joking. She didn't expect Wei Ji to look up at Lin Yin seriously and say, "Yes, it's different. You're different."

Seeing that Wei Ji's eyes were about to turn red again, Lin Yin put away her playful thoughts and smiled. "Forget it. Call me whatever you want. It's just a form of address."

Wei Ji's eyebrows instantly relaxed and he shouted happily, "Yinyin!" Lin Yin smiled speechlessly. It was just a name. Was he that happy?

Then, Lin Yin said, "My injuries are almost healed and I'm preparing to go back. You've been with me in the hospital for so long. Shall I send you home? It just so happens that it's a school holiday during this period of time. You can stay at home for a while to accompany your sister. I'll go see your sister too. Her sweets were very delicious last time. I'll ask for a few more."

Wei Ji was a little stunned, then his expression darkened. Lin Yin grabbed Wei

Ji's arm and said, "Don't be afraid. I'll go back with you."

"I just don't want you to see more of my bad side." Wei Ji's words revealed his inferiority..

Chapter 680: Dog

"I have a lot of bad sides too. I was born in the slums, fought and caused trouble. I'm surly and my actions are vulgar. I'm not even afraid of others knowing that I'm being kept. What are you afraid of? It doesn't matter what others think," Lin Yin said patiently.

Wei Ji asked carefully, "Yinyin, did you grow up alone in the slums?"

Lin Yin looked at Wei Ji's eager expression and did not tell the truth. Instead, she said, "How is that possible? Of course I'm not alone. How can a child survive in a place like the slums? I still have an adoptive mother, an adoptive mother who loves me very much. It was only when she left this world that I lived alone."

At that time, Wei Ji denied getting lost and never mentioned the slums. Perhaps he was unwilling to admit that he had been in the slums for those five years, so Lin Yin chose not to say anything.

This was good. They were both fine. It was better than anything else. There was no need to say it out loud, nor was there a need for the two of them to recall the days of poverty and hiding.

Wei Ji lowered his head in disappointment and muttered, "There are also survivors."

"What are you talking about?" Lin Yin didn't understand what Wei Ji was saying.

Wei Ji shook his head repeatedly and said, "I didn't say anything. I just think you're right. How can a child live well alone in the slums?"

Lin Yin pursed her lips and nodded in agreement. "Yes, yes."

The atmosphere between the two of them became a little silent. Lin Yin let go of Wei Ji's arm and pretended to be relaxed. "Let's go. I'll send you back."

"Aren't you going to wait for Uncle Mu and Aunt Ye?" Wei Ji asked curiously.

In the past few days, Mu Cheng and Ye Wen had been following Lin Yin around and asking about her every day. Wei Ji couldn't pretend not to see them. In his opinion, Mu Cheng and his wife would definitely come to pick Lin Yin up.

Lin Yin said frankly, "I told them not to come over today. I want to send you to the Wei family."

In the past few days, other than Mu Cheng and Ye Wen, there were also the three Mu brothers who often came over. However, every time they came, Mu Cheng and Ye Wen would go out. Lin Yin didn't know where Mu Cheng and Ye Wen went, but she just found it strange.

Sometimes, when she was in Wei Ti's ward and the three Mu brothers came. Ye

Wen would call Lin Yin back.

Lin Yin didn't think too much about it. She just picked up a big bag at the side and said as she dragged it, "This is a gift for your sister. I didn't know what your sister likes, so I bought more."

Wei Ji looked at the big bag in Lin Yin's hand and smiled. "If you go to see her, she'll be very happy even if you don't bring anything. She likes beautiful people and things. She says they're little fairies."

"That won't do. I still have to. This is the first time I'm going to your house to see her. I have to be polite," Lin Yin said as she dragged herself towards the door. "I even specially went around asking what children liked and found a lot."

Lin Yin really felt like she was going to her friend's house to see a little kid. She was filled with inexplicable anticipation and joy.

Wei Ji didn't know why Lin Yin was so happy. When school had just started, Lin Yin had rejected his sister's gift with a cold gaze, but now, Lin Yin had changed.

Seeing that Wei Ji was still standing there, Lin Yin said with a puzzled expression, "Why are you still standing there? Let's go!"

Wei Ji immediately went forward to help Lin Yin carry the bag of unknown gifts and followed Lin Yin's car to the Wei family.

The guard looked at the unfamiliar car and sized up Lin Yin a few times in confusion. Then, when he saw that Wei Ji was sitting in the front passenger seat, the guard sneered and said, "Fifth Young Master? Why did you come back in a car today? You called for a ride online, right? Fifth Young Master, you know that cars of unknown origin can't enter. So, Fifth Young Master, please get out of the car and walk in yourself."

Lin Yin frowned at Wei Ji and asked, "Your family has such a rule? Is it for everyone, or for you?"

Before Wei Ji could speak, the guard was immediately dissatisfied. "You're a driver. Why are you meddling? Do you know where this is? The Wei Family! The Wei Family of the eight families in the capital! Is that a place you lowly people can enter casually?"

Lin Yin turned to look at the proud and arrogant guard and asked with a faint smile, "May I know your name?"

Seeing that Lin Yin's tone was gentle, the guard thought that Lin Yin was shocked by what he had just said. He said arrogantly, "My surname is Liu.."
