

Real Daughter 781

Chapter 781: Don 't Squeeze

Mu Heng was interested. "A signal capturer?"

Mu Heng had some shares in Lin Yin's company, but he did not have actual control, so he did not know about this.

Lin Yin nodded. "It's still in the testing stage and we only dare to capture the signal from the periphery, so we decrypted it for a few days before getting the results today."

"Then according to what you said, doesn't that mean that many people won't have any secrets? Yinyin, you probably know everything about the Yue Family's phone calls or Internet connections during this period of time?" Mu Xiao asked curiously.

Lin Yin shook her head. "At the moment, we can only capture some phone signals. The capturing ability is also limited and needs to be operated manually, so it's not that simple. If the person with the capturing device is discovered, the information will be gone."

"Yinyin, this is too dangerous. If you can't stand Yue Chi, I'll help you deal with him and pull your people back. Also, stop researching that signal capture device quickly. This thing is not safe and it's easy to attract enemies," Mu Heng said worriedly.

Although the Mu Family was stronger than the Yue Family, Yue Han was ruthless. If he knew what Lin Yin had done, he might play some tricks again.

For example, this time, he tried to kill her using someone else's hands.

If Lin Yin hadn't held back in advance, they wouldn't have been able to find evidence of Yue Han's actions.

Most importantly, even if Lin Yin used such evidence, it wouldn't do.

Although the signal capture device that Lin Yin had was not perfect yet, as long as people knew that Lin Yin had such a thing, it would cause chaos. Lin Yin's Shisheng Corporation would also be criticized.

After all, everyone was afraid that their privacy would be probed, especially the people above. Which one of them did not have secrets?

Lin Yin nodded and said, "I'll stop this research. However, I still want to deal with Yue Chi's matter myself. I like to do it myself."

Mu Heng frowned and said disapprovingly, "Yue Han dotes on his younger brother very much. If you want to deal with Yue Chi, you'll inevitably go against Yue Han. I'm worried about you."

Lin Yin smiled and said, "Brother, it's fine. I have many people protecting me. Besides, I'm very strong."

Mu Xiao pinched Lin Yin's face. "Yes, yes, yes. You're very strong. Look at yourself now. Your ribs haven't healed completely and you've sprained your leg. You can't even move. You still have the cheek to say that you're very strong." "Isn't this an accident? It won't happen again," Lin Yin muttered.

"Huh? You want it to happen again?" Mu Heng's tone was filled with worry.

Lin Yin immediately shook her head and said with a smile, "No, no. There won't be a next time. I promise!"

Mu Ran walked out of the room with sleepy eyes and saw that Mu Xiao was actually squeezing Yinyin's little face. He immediately went forward unhappily and pulled Mu Xiao away. He said loudly, "Mu Xiao, where are you squeezing her face? Is Yinyin's delicate face something you can pinch?"

'What? You're the only one who can pinch her, but I can't? Mu Ran, don't be too biased!' Mu Xiao did not indulge Mu Ran and retorted loudly.

Mu Heng looked at his two younger brothers who were fooling around and shook his head in amusement. Then, he said to Lin Yin, "You can deal with Yue Chi yourself, but if you need anything, you have to tell me. I'm afraid something will happen to you. Yue Chi isn't a smart person, but he's lawless and dares to do anything. Yue Han knows the situation a little, but he dotes on his younger brother, Yue Chi, so you have to be careful."

Lin Yin nodded. "I understand, Brother!"

Lin Yin expressed that she wanted to deal with Yue Chi herself, but it did not stop Mu Heng from making things difficult for Yue Han. Yue Han was so busy with both the engagement and the company that he was dizzy.

Lin Yin took ten days off. After resting at home for a while, she packed some things and returned to the dormitory, preparing to return to the team the next day to continue military training.

As soon as she was done packing, Sun Biao sent a message: Boss, Chu Yun can hear now. Do you want to come over and take a look?

Lin Yin immediately called a car and went to the hospital where Chu Yun was.

Looking at Chu Yun sitting on the bed in a daze, Lin Yin smiled and said, "Chu Yun, long time no see."

Hearing Lin Yin's voice, Chu Yun looked a little flustered. During this period of time, she had not been able to see, hear, speak, or write. Other than smelling the disinfectant and guessing that she was in the hospital. She did not know anything else..

Chapter 782: Interrogation

In the darkness and fear, she didn't know how long it had been. It wasn't easy for her to hear voices, but she didn't expect to find out that she was in Lin Yin's hands.

"Ah ah ah." Chu Yun kept retreating as she let out a string of meaningless words.

"Chu Yun, you'd better be quiet. Otherwise, be careful of Su Fei's life," Lin Yin warned.

Su Fei was not in Lin Yin's hands, but it did not stop her from using Su Fei to scare Chu Yun.

As expected, when Chu Yun heard Su Fei's name, she became much quieter. She leaned in Lin Yin's direction, as if she wanted to hear Lin Yin continue speaking.

"Chu Yun, is the person behind you Zhou Li? You can just nod and answer my question," Lin Yin asked directly.

Chu Yun did not say anything and just sat quietly on the bed.

"Chu Yun, you can choose not to respond, but if you don't want your daughter to end up like you. Then you'd better answer my question honestly," Lin Yin warned.

Chu Yun waved her hands at Lin Yin, wanting to ask her about Su Fei. She wondered if her daughter was doing well and if she had been bullied after disappearing for so long.

"You want to know about Su Fei?" Lin Yin asked.

Chu Yun nodded, but Lin Yin only smiled and said, "I didn't get the information I wanted, so I won't tell you about Su Fei's situation. Chu Yun, I advise you to adapt to the situation. I'm guessing that the person behind you is ruthless, right? They'd kill to silence you"

In Lin Yin's opinion, Chu Yun's silence was tacit agreement. She smiled and said, "Chu Yun, if I spread the word and say that you, Chu Yun, told Su Fei all your secrets, I wonder if the people behind you will attack Su Fei." Chu Yun was shocked and waved her hands in the direction of Lin Yin's voice.

"Chu Yun, the person I want to deal with isn't you, but the person behind you. Do you really want to use your daughter's life to protect the person behind you? If you say it, you and Su Fei might be able to survive. If you don't say it, I think you and your daughter might be reunited in hell," Lin Yin said coldly.

Chu Yun lowered her head and thought. Lin Yin also sat patiently at the side, quietly waiting for Chu Yun to think it through.

After a while, Chu Yun nodded.

Only then did Lin Yin ask, "I'll ask you next. If it's right, nod. If it's wrong, shake your head. If you're not sure, wave your hand. Do you understand?"

Chu Yun nodded.

"Was Zhou Li the one who instructed you and that nanny to steal the Mu family's child back then?" Lin Yin asked.

Chu Yun nodded.

"Did you want me to die in the Su Family from the beginning?" Lin Yin asked.

Chu Yun paused for a moment before nodding.

Lin Yin sneered and continued, "Does Zhou Li want to deal with the Mu family because of love or because he was chased out of the country?"

Chu Yun shook her head. This answer was what Lin Yin and her parents had guessed.

"Is Zhou Li plotting something bigger, such as avenging the Zhou Family and the Fu Family back then?" Lin Yin asked as she stared at Chu Yun.

This time, Chu Yun waved her hand directly, so Chu Yun did not know Zhou Li's true motive?

"Is Zhou Li in Country D? The rebel gang?" Lin Yin continued to ask.

Chu Yun nodded. She only found out about this later.

"Huo Ge, or rather, Zhou Hai, is he Zhou Li's child?" Lin Yin asked.

The words Huo Ge had said in front of her flashed across Chu Yun's mind. Then, she nodded.

Lin Yin frowned. "Is the original child of the Huo Family dead?"

Chu Yun waved her hand to indicate that she didn't know. Lin Yin was a little disappointed. Then, she asked curiously, "Su Fei is Zhou Li's child, right?"

Chu Yun was stumped by this question. She did not know if she should answer truthfully or give a fake answer.

She was afraid that Lin Yin would find out that Su Fei was really Zhou Li's child. If she used Su Fei as a bargaining chip to threaten Zhou Li, wouldn't it be very dangerous? Moreover, she was even more afraid that Zhou Li wouldn't believe her at all and her daughter would become a sacrifice in the battle between the two sides.

Seeing Chu Yun's troubled expression, Lin Yin smiled and said, "Looks like the answer is yes. I didn't expect to be able to guess it just by guessing."

Seeing Chu Yun's regretful expression, Lin Yin laughed coldly and continued to ask, "Is there someone controlling Zhou Li from behind?" Chu Yun nodded honestly.

Lin Yin asked, "Is that person also in Country D?"

Chu Yun waved her hand to indicate that she did not know.

Chu Yun nodded.

Lin Yin asked, "That person is from our country?"

Chu Yun nodded..

Chapter 783: Not Bad

Lin Yin asked, "Does that person have a grudge against the Mu family?" Chu Yun was a little confused and waved her hand in confusion.

Lin Yin frowned and asked tentatively, "Does that person hate the people from the eight aristocratic families?"

Chu Yun thought for a moment, nodded, and shook her head. In the end, she waved her hand.

"So, you mean you don't know either?" Lin Yin asked.

Chu Yun nodded.

Lin Yin said, "Then that person wants to establish himself in the capital. I mean, he wants to step on the eight aristocratic families and become a new aristocratic family?"

Chu Yun hesitated for a moment before nodding.

Lin Yin said, "Other than the Huo Family, did that person arrange for other children to be swapped to other aristocratic families?"

Chu Yun calmed her panic and hurriedly shook her head. She could not let anyone know that her daughter had also been swapped into one of the eight aristocratic families. Otherwise, both her daughters might be in danger.

After asking Chu Yun, Lin Yin confirmed something.

Someone was setting up a trap to deal with the eight aristocratic families in the Capital. Zhou Li was just a hired thug on the surface, and Chu Yun was at the bottom of the hierarchy. What he knew was even more limited.

Zhou Li might have a grudge against the Mu Family, but the person who really instructed Zhou Li to take her away and kill her might be the person behind Zhou Li.

It was like taking the real child of the Huo Family away and killing him, then stuffing a fake one into the family to fight for the Huo Family's assets.

So, did that person stuff someone into their Mu family?

Mu Ning suddenly flashed across Lin Yin's mind. She had disappeared, but Mu Ning had appeared. Could Mu Ning be a spy planted by that person in the Mu family?

Other than the Huo Family, would the other eight aristocratic families also have such a change?

Lin Yin got the information she wanted to know and stood up to walk out.

When Chu Yun heard the commotion, she immediately woke up, wanting Lin Yin to tell her about Su Fei. She was really worried about her daughter.

Lin Yin turned to look at Chu Yun and smiled faintly. "I'm sorry, I lied to you just now. Su Fei isn't in my hands. She's with her half-brother."

Chu Yun thought about this relationship in her mind and realized that Su Fei was with Huo Ge. She immediately panicked. She waved her hand and shouted hoarsely, wanting an explanation from Lin Yin.

Unfortunately, Lin Yin had already left.

After returning to the dormitory, Lin Yin informed Mu Cheng and his wife about the news she had received from Chu Yun and asked them to pay attention to the situation of the eight aristocratic families, especially the suspicious people in each family.

If they wanted to break through a family or group, internal disintegration was indeed a good method.

When Su Su and Feng Yu returned, they were very happy to see Lin Yin.

Su Su looked at Lin Yin with sparkling eyes and asked carefully, "Yinyin, has Brother Ran been in a good mood recently?"

It had been ten days, but Mu Ran had no intention of appearing in the entertainment industry again. These fans were already so stressed that they were going to go bald.

Without Mu Ran, fans like them were like children without a home and they had nowhere to rely on. They wandered around the Internet. Lin Yin thought for a moment and said, "He's alright."

He could only be considered to be alright.

Mu Ran had been brought to the company by Mu Heng to work these few days.

He had nothing to live for. He had been caught sleeping at his work desk by Mu Heng several times and his salary had been deducted.

Therefore, Mu Ran would send Lin Yin a message every day to complain that Mu Heng was a capitalist.

Su Su sighed. "Yinyin, is your brother really not planning to come back? The past few days have been like years for us fans. Are you really not going to persuade Brother Ran?"

In the end, Lin Yin could only express that she was helpless.

The next morning, Lin Yin returned to the military training team.

Xiluo returned to the school with Lin Yin. Her ten days of detention had ended.

As the mastermind who guided public opinion and gathered people to bully Lin Yin, Xiluo received a withdrawal notice from the school as soon as she arrived. This was almost a devastating blow to Xiluo.

Xiluo walked towards the field. She wanted to ask Lin Yin's family why they were so ruthless to her.

In the end, before she could reach the field, she was attacked by others on the way. All kinds of smelly vegetables, leaves, and rotten eggs were thrown at her.

"Sisters, this person used several accounts to gather people to hit Brother Ran's sister. We can't let such a wicked person off!"

“It’s been ten days. Brother Ran has been out of the industry for ten days.. Do you know how we fans have spent the past ten days? You selfish extreme fan!”

Chapter 784: Fired

“Dirty-eyed dog, why are you still in school? It’s our shame to be in the same school as someone like you!”

Xiluo silently endured these people’s humiliation and mockery, her eyes filled with hatred for Lin Yin’s family.

However, when a rotten egg hit Xiluo’s forehead and the yolk that flowed down blurred her vision, Xiluo could no longer hold it in.

She shouted at the fans hysterically, “What right do you have to criticize me? If you’re really so noble, why were you standing at the side and watching when I bullied Lin Yin? Didn’t you want me to stand up for you cowards? Admit it! Your thoughts are as dirty as mine. You want to possess him, control him, and make him live under our control for the rest of his life! Isn’t that right?”

Hahaha, you’re the same as me!”

Seeing that Xiluo was crazy, those people cursed and left.

Xiluo wiped the dirty marks on her body and walked straight to the field, ignoring the various sized-ups of the passers-by.

Seeing Lin Yin surrounded by her classmates, Xiluo hated her even more.

Lin Yin and the others also saw Xiluo walking over from not far away.

“Xiluo was released? Time passed so quickly? Ten days have passed?” “What’s on her? Did someone hit her?”

“Why is she here? Is she here to cause trouble for Lin Yin again?”

“No way? She still dares to come here and be arrogant now? Brother Ran’s fans here can drown her with their spit.”

Xi Luo ignored the discussion beside him and walked up to Lin Yin. He looked at her coldly and questioned, “Lin Yin, are you and your family going to force me to death before you’re satisfied?”

Lin Yin frowned at the disheveled Xiluo. “Xiluo, everything you’re suffering now is your own fault. It has nothing to do with me and my family. You brought this upon yourself. We didn’t force you.”

“You brought this upon yourself. Lin Yin, don’t talk nonsense here. I hit you and I was punished and detained for ten days. But your Mu Family used your power to cause the school to expel me and not give me any way out, right?” Xiluo’s eyes were filled with anger.

She had worked hard to get into Capital University. It was the most important title for her life in the future. Without this title, her life in the future would be bleak.

Lin Yin said coldly, “Xiluo, the school will punish you for your actions. That’s the school’s decision. It has nothing to do with me and my family. Don’t talk nonsense here.”

“Then why aren’t the other students expelled, but I’m the only one who’s expelled? Isn’t it because you think I looked for you, so you used your family’s power to deal with me? I’ve finally seen it. It turns out that there’s really such a thing as bullying others. It turns out that you can really ruin someone’s future with power,” Xiluo complained.

Lin Yin's eyes were sharp as she said loudly, "You're the only one who was expelled because you're the mastermind. You used your identity as the leader of the fan group to incite everyone to fight and bully others. Naturally, you're the only one who was expelled. Is there a problem?"

Xiluo smiled coldly, then her laughter gradually became crazy. "Hahaha, you're rich and powerful. There's no problem with what you said. What else can I say?"

Yes! I'm the one with the problem. I shouldn't be infatuated with Mu Ran, that hypocritical and unfaithful man."

"He used his beauty and gentleness to trick us fans into spending money for him and seduced us. In the end, he treated us like this. He's a b*tch! You're also a b*tch! Your family is all b*tches!"

Hearing Xiluo scold her family, Lin Yin's eyes were already filled with anger. However, Xiluo was a little abnormal now, so Lin Yin did not rashly get into a conflict with her.

Otherwise, if anything happened to Xiluo later, she would not be the only one implicated. Mu Ran would also be implicated.

However, Lin Yin was calm, but Mu Ran's fans beside her were not.

Su Su took the lead and rushed in front of Xiluo. She shouted rudely, "Xiluo, watch your mouth! Brother Ran is gentle to every one of our fans because Brother Ran is gentlemanly and considerate and polite. You flatter yourself and treat these manners as love. In the end, you slandered us because you couldn't get it. You're shameless!"

The fans beside her also stood up for Mu Ran, accusing Xiluo of being delusional and unreasonable..

Chapter 785: Contempt

Xiluo stared at Lin Yin with red eyes and said evilly, "Lin Yin, if I don't have it easy, I won't let your family have it easy either!"

"Why are you making a ruckus?" Hou Ning saw the disheveled Xiluo the moment she arrived and said coldly, "This is the place where the freshmen undergo military training. All unrelated personnel, leave immediately."

Although Hou Ning didn't like Lin Yin and felt that she was very pretentious, she disliked Xiluo even more.

The matter of Xiluo had spread like wildfire during this period of time. They found out that Xiluo was secretly running more than ten accounts with various following sizes, to chase after celebrities. She even deliberately hurt others to chase after celebrities.

She despised such a brainless fan who had lost her mind for a man.

Xiluo turned around and looked at Hou Ning, the fierce gaze she had used to look at Lin Yin still in her eyes.

Hou Ning only smiled coldly and faced Xiluo fearlessly.

Seeing that she would not be able to gain anything today, Xiluo left dejectedly with the mess all over her.

Hou Ning gathered the team and said firmly, "Some students took ten days off and they did not receive systematic training for much of the contents of military training. I hope that these students can make up for it themselves and not drag other students down during the military training performance later."

As soon as Hou Ning finished speaking, the students in the class looked in Lin Yin's direction. Lin Yin was the only one in the class who had taken ten days off.

Lin Yin was also a little puzzled. Hou Ning had not targeted her like this at first, but now, she seemed to be very hostile. Could it be because of Lu Ming?

Due to the fact that Hou Ning was the instructor, Lin Yin didn't say anything. It was just that someone unimportant said some things about her. It didn't matter.

Seeing that Lin Yin did not take it to heart at all, Hou Ning only smiled coldly and began the official military training.

She had thought that Lin Yin had just recovered and would drag down the entire class's training. She was still waiting to scold Lin Yin openly.

She did not expect Lin Yin to be so capable. After the morning of physical training, she did not fall behind at all. Instead, she was more capable than some students who had trained for ten more days. She did not look weak at all like she had sprained her ankle ten days ago.

Seeing this, Hou Ning despised Lin Yin even more. She was clearly so fit, but when Lu Ming was around that day, she suddenly sprained her ankle. She must be pretending.

After disbanding, Su Su gossiped and asked Lin Yin, "Yinyin, did you provoke Instructor Hou? Why do I feel that she's targeting you?"

Lin Yin frowned. She naturally didn't know what was going on. She was fine before, but she suddenly became like this.

Lin Yin shook her head and said, "I don't know either. Perhaps it's because I've been on leave for so long. She's afraid that she'll embarrass her during the military training performance."

Feng Yu said, "Instructor Hou is overthinking. Even if you take ten days off, you're still better than us. Look at you. Weren't you in the top few in the class just now? When the ten-kilometer run comes, the instructor will know how powerful you are."

“I remember Instructor Hou saying that there seems to be an actual combat drill for this military training exercise. During this period of time, we trained in the disassembly and assembly of guns, as well as various obstacles, soaking in waterholes, and shooting.”

“Yinyin, you don’t know what we’ve experienced in the past ten days when you weren’t around. I’ve been arranged to go for a mortar attack. It scared me to death. You’ll know after experiencing it in the afternoon. There’s physical fitness training in the morning and all kinds of messy training in the afternoon.” As Mu Ran’s fan, Su Su now loved Lin Yin and spoke more sincerely.

Lin Yin was slightly shocked. Military training was so tough?

Feng Yu said, “It didn’t seem to be like this before. I don’t know why it’s so serious this time. Yinyin, you don’t know, but those male students in the class have long been tempted. They said that they want to have fun when the time comes. I guess this is the first time in their lives that they can experience such a hot-blooded moment.”

Su Su stole a glance at her surroundings and whispered, “I heard that it was because this year there’s an impressive figure that’s our instructor and fought for it.”

“How do you know everything? You didn’t tell me before. Oh! Is it because Yinyin is your Brother Ran’s sister that you’re biased?” Feng Yu pouted unhappily.

Su Su looked aggrieved. ‘You didn’t ask me before. I thought you knew.’”

Lin Yin nodded thoughtfully. “No wonder Instructor Hou is afraid that I’ll be a burden. I really don’t have a chance to come into contact with this. It seems like I have to study hard..”

Chapter 786: Shooting Lesson

The afternoon sun shone through the windows of the shooting classroom and onto the classroom floor, reflecting bright spots of light.

The students in the class focused on aiming at the target and tried to adjust the muzzle to find the best angle to shoot.

Lin Yin stood at the firing line, her hand holding the gun tightly, her deep eyes fixed on the target in front of her.

Her index finger pulled the trigger again, and there was a vibration from her palm. The next second, the bullet deviated from the target.

Even though Lin Yin felt that she was already aiming seriously, her shooting was not ideal.

In the past, when she threw stones, she had never missed so badly. Lin Yin couldn't help but feel a little depressed.

Hou Ning walked to Lin Yin's side with a cold gaze. Looking at the results of Lin Yin's shooting, she said calmly, "Lin Yin, there's still a lot of room for improvement in your shooting skills. A great deal!"

Lin Yin could hear the mockery in Hou Ning's tone, but she did not refute. She said frankly, "Instructor, you're right. I wonder if you have any guidance for a student like me? After all, I took ten days off. I only started shooting after asking my classmates. Instructor, you haven't taught me."

Lin Yin looked straight into Hou Ning's sharp but mocking eyes without any anger or frustration.

Hou Ning smiled. She didn't expect Lin Yin to be so calm. She silently gave her a secret shot.

"That's true. I didn't teach you." Hou Ning wasn't angry at Lin Yin. She just sneered and nodded. "I can teach you, but shooting is about talent. Even if some people learn, they might not be able to hit accurately."

With that, Hou Ning didn't even put on her protective gear. She took the gun from Lin Yin's hand and smiled at her. "Watch carefully."

Hou Ning retracted her gaze from Lin Yin. The moment she turned to face the target, her body straightened and her expression turned serious.

Lin Yin had to admit that Hou Ning was like a natural warrior. She stood tall and was solemn. As she stood there, her entire body shone, making it impossible for one to look away.

The classmates beside her also stopped and watched Hou Ning shoot.

Hou Ning stood at one end of the range, her eyes focused and determined. The gun in her hand seemed to be an extension of her. The gun shone with a cold silver light that could not be ignored. As soon as she raised the gun, it was as if she had raised an invitation to challenge. It made people hold their breaths and wait for the gunshot.

Lin Yin, who was standing beside Hou Ning, could clearly feel that Hou Ning's breathing was starting to slow and deepen.

The moment Hou Ning pulled the trigger, the entire world seemed to have stopped. The next second, a sharp gunshot cut through the silence and was shocking. The bullet flew out of the muzzle and cut through the air. Its trajectory was like a silver snake that quickly hit the bullseye. The target shook violently under the impact of the force.

Lin Yin's eyes lit up slightly. She wanted to learn how to shoot. She yearned for the sense of security of having everything in her hands and the feeling of strength from shooting.

Hou Ning lowered her gun and turned to smile at the students. Her eyes were filled with confidence and pride, as if she was saying that this was her home ground.

The students looked at her and applauded thunderously. Lin Yin also applauded sincerely.

Hou Ning looked into Lin Yin's eyes in surprise. There was a clear light in her eyes without any other bad expression, as if she was really admiring her. Perhaps because Lin Yin's gaze was too sincere, Hou Ning's expression softened.

She began to teach Lin Yin how to hold the gun correctly, how to aim accurately, and how to shoot forcefully.

She explained every move and step clearly, not caring that she was still looking down on Lin Yin just now.

In her opinion, teaching was her responsibility, so she would do her best to teach. However, how much Lin Yin could absorb depended on Lin Yin. If Lin Yin couldn't learn it, she would laugh at her.

She would even laugh at Lu Ming, he was a sharp shooter but he liked a delicate girl who could not shoot no matter how hard she tried. How embarrassing would it be to tell others.

Besides, Lu Ming had once said that he wanted a woman who could fight alongside him.

In Hou Ning's opinion, this was also why Lu Ming did not reject Grandpa Lu's matchmaking back then. It was because she, Hou Ning, was also quite capable and worthy of Lu Ming.

She would let Lu Ming know that a delicate girl like Lin Yin was not suitable for him and would even drag him down.

At this moment, Lin Yin, who was already immersed in shooting, had no idea what Hou Ning was thinking. All her thoughts were that if she learned a new skill, she might be able to use it in the future..

Chapter 787: Teaching Shooting

Lin Yin slowly recalled what Hou Ning had just said. Then, she looked at the target opposite her firmly and pulled the trigger.

The gun in her hand vibrated. Lin Yin stared at the target and finally sighed. It was crooked.

Lin Yin fired a few more shots, but her accuracy was not high. Hou Ning smiled at the side and turned around in disdain.

Lin Yin ignored Hou Ning's disdain. Even though her hit rate was not high, Lin Yin still happily fired one shot after another. With every shot she improved, and her hit rate was slowly increasing.

The subsequent military training made Lin Yin even more excited. She had never thought that military training would be so interesting.

In the past, in her eyes, military training was just standing in a military posture to train physical fitness. Now, it seemed that she was narrow-minded.

Even after class, Lin Yin stayed in the shooting room with the excuse that she wasn't familiar with these classes just to practice more.

This was because Lin Yin knew that guns were prohibited in the country. After military training, even the shooting room might have to be demolished.

Therefore, Lin Yin did not stop practicing even until her palm went numb.

Lu Ming watched from the shadows for as long as Lin Yin practiced. In the end, he couldn't help but come out of the shadows and say, "Don't shake your hands, or it will affect your accuracy. This is still indoors. In actual combat, you'll be affected by wind speed and the airflow. Your accuracy will be even worse."

Lin Yin knew Lu Ming from the voice, but she didn't turn around. She just said calmly, "What are you doing here, Uncle? Are you here to practice shooting

Lu Ming could hear Lin Yin's sarcasm. He did not answer and only said softly,

"If you want to learn, I can teach you."

“There’s no need to trouble you, Uncle. Instructor Hou has already taught me. If there’s anything I don’t know, I’ll naturally ask the instructor for advice. You don’t have to worry,” Lin Yin rejected with an indifferent expression.

Lu Ming did not say anything. He just took out the gun beside him and nimbly loaded it with practice bullets.

He rested his fingertips lightly on the handle of the gun, his gaze like a torch. His focus and determination coalesced into a special atmosphere in the air.

He was like a bow that was ready to be fired at any time. He was full of tension and was prepared to shoot his arrow.

Lin Yin was attracted by this aura. Facing something she was interested in, Lin Yin still didn’t want to act on impulse.

She stared fixedly at Lu Ming’s posture and various details, committing them to memory.

The moment Lu Ming fired, Lin Yin’s mind followed the bullet and quickly fixed on the target.

It hit the bullseye!

Lu Ming fired a few more shots and they hit.

Lin Yin also picked up her gun and took a deep breath like Lu Ming.

Before Lin Yin could prepare, Lu Ming approached her. While Lin Yin was caught off guard, Lu Ming hugged her from behind. His fingers held her hand gently and helped her stabilize the gun in her hand. He said softly, “Put your hand down and be steady.”

The distance between them was very close. Lin Yin could almost feel Lu Ming's breath brush against her face.

The heat coming from her back made Lin Yin's heart heat up. This unfamiliar feeling that made Lin Yin's heart burn slowly spread to Lin Yin's face. Her eyelashes trembled slightly and she immediately wanted to retract her hand that Lu Ming had grabbed. However, before she could retract it, Lu Ming grabbed her tightly.

"Yinyin, focus. I'm teaching you," Lu Ming said softly.

Perhaps it was because she liked shooting, or perhaps it was because Lu Ming's tone was gentle, Lin Yin slowly relaxed her nervousness.

Lu Ming's lips curled up slightly. They were so close that he could smell the faint scent of flowers in her hair. He guided her hand gently and aimed at the bull's-eye. The muzzle of the gun trembled slightly, as if they had some kind of tacit understanding.

"YOU just need to relax. yinyin, make the gun a part of you." His deep voice echoed in her ears, and his breath made her heart race instantly.

Lin Yin tried her best to do as he said, to slow her heart and make the gun a part of her.

Lin Yin's hand began to slowly stabilize, and the bullseye became clearer and clearer. Then, at this moment, she pulled the trigger. The sound of the gunshot echoed in the shooting range. Lin Yin's shot was extremely accurate.

The bullet hit the bullseye. At this moment, Lin Yin's eyes were filled with surprise and pride. She turned around and looked at Lu Ming with joy and surprise.

Lu Ming looked at her with admiration and encouragement in his eyes. He smiled at her, and the warm and ambiguous atmosphere reached its peak.

"You did well, Yinyin." Lu Ming's voice was filled with gentleness and pride..

Chapter 788 It's None of Your Business

Lin Yin looked at Lu Ming's smile and the smile on her face froze for a moment. She felt that something was wrong!

Before Lin Yin could react, Lu Ming gently held Lin Yin's hand and turned her towards the target. He held Lin Yin's hand and fired a few more shots.

When she saw that every shot hit the bullseye, joy filled Lin Yin's heart, chasing away the strange feeling in her heart.

They fired more than ten shots in a row. The joy of hitting every single shot was indescribable.

Lin Yin put down her gun and turned around to thank Lu Ming. However, when she turned around and saw Lu Ming's doting and gentle smile, Lin Yin's happiness stopped.

She finally remembered what was wrong. She was still in a cold war with Lu Ming. Who allowed Lu Ming to be so close to her?

Lu Ming saw Lin Yin's smile suddenly freeze when she faced him. He knew that Lin Yin had realized that he was taking advantage of her.

But in the beginning, he really didn't have any selfish motives. He just wanted to teach Lin Yin step by step.

However, after smelling the faint and familiar fragrance coming from Lin Yin's body, he admitted that he missed her a little. He missed her so much that his heart ached.

"Uncle, you shouldn't continue teaching others so closely in the future. It'll more or less seem a little ambiguous. As an elder, your actions are inappropriate," Lin Yin said with a smile.

Lu Ming felt his heart skip a beat from Lin Yin's words.

"Thank you for your reminder. Your uncle will take care of it in the future," Lu Ming said through gritted teeth.

When she heard Lu Ming really call himself Uncle, Lin Yin was even angrier. She turned around and fired a few shots at the target. Every shot felt murderous to Lu Ming.

Although not all the shots had hit the bullseye, she had improved a lot from the beginning. This improvement made Lin Yin feel much better.

However, she felt inexplicably uncomfortable, causing Lin Yin to disassemble the gun in frustration.

Lu Ming was a little surprised to see Lin Yin quickly and nimbly disassemble the gun parts.

Lin Yin had taken ten days off during this period of time. She had just returned today and he had been watching from afar. He had never seen Hou Ning teach Lin Yin about the structure of guns and the dismantling of guns.

However, Lin Yin disassembled it so neatly that it didn't look like it was her first time holding a gun. However, when Lin Yin was shooting just now, including when he held Lin Yin's hand and guided her to shoot, it was obvious that Lin Yin didn't know how to shoot.

"Yinyin, your dismantling skills are quite good?" Lu Ming asked softly.

"It's none of your business!" Lin Yin dismantled all the parts angrily and placed them in the drawer below before turning to leave.

Lu Ming shook his head. Lin Yin's bad temper seemed to be getting worse and worse. She was not like this in the past.

In the past, no matter how angry she was, she would just ignore him. |n|(o|v|e)|l|n.|e|x'|t|

Lu Ming sighed helplessly and reassembled the gun that Lin Yin had dismantled in anger. He put it away and locked it.

However, Lu Ming still took it to heart that Lin Yin did not know how to shoot but was proficient at disassembling guns.

Not to mention Lu Ming, even Hou Ning, who had been watching the two of them interact, was surprised.

She knew very well that she had never taught Lin Yin the gun structure class, but Lin Yin actually knew it.

She even suspected that Lin Yin knew how to shoot, but she was deliberately pretending not to.

Lin Yin might know that Lu Ming was nearby, so she deliberately showed weakness so that Lu Ming could teach her and have a chance to get close to Lu Ming.

It had to be said that Lin Yin was simply a smart person. She was so scheming.

Hou Ning left the shooting room with a cold gaze.

For the next few days of training, Lin Music was among them. No matter how much Hou Ning gave Lin Yin a hard time, Lin Yin still trained tirelessly and even treated Hou Ning as a free teacher.

Hou Ning was a high-ranking officer in the army. She was to enjoy the benefits of having such a talented person by her side. If she did not make use of Hou Ning, she would be letting down this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

Hou Ning was unhappy with Lin Yin. She felt that Lin Yin was studying so seriously now because she wanted to know more about Lu Ming's hobbies and increase the pool of their common interests.

However, as an instructor, she couldn't be selfish in the face of the students' consultation and humble guidance, which made Lin Yin learn a lot.

Coupled with Lin Yin's hard work, Lin Yin had really improved a lot during this period of time.

Chapter 789: 10 Kilometers

The three-week military training ended and they began the intense military training.

The moonlight was like water, silently shining on the sleeping ground.

At three in the morning, sharp whistles sounded three times in the sky above the quiet freshman dormitory, breaking the silence. The lights in every building lit up almost instantly.

Su Su cursed as she quickly packed her equipment.

Lin Yin quickly washed up and stuffed all the things she had been given the day before into her bag.

Feng Yu urged her anxiously, "Su Su, hurry up. If you're late, what's waiting for us won't just be a ten-kilometer run. We'll have to add a few kilometers."

"I understand. I'll be right there!" Su Su said hurriedly. Then, she ran behind Lin Yin and Feng Yu towards the gathering place.

When they arrived at the gathering team, Su Su secretly heaved a sigh of relief.

Hou Ning looked at Lin Yin and the other two expressionlessly and only shouted for them to gather.

After the large team gathered and heard the principal say some heroic words, the group advanced towards their destination today, Jiu Xi Mountain.

That was the place where they were going today.

Clad in camouflage uniforms and sneakers, the students began to walk the long 10km in the dawn darkness with vigor and curiosity.

The entire 10 kilometers took more than three hours. When they arrived at the foot of Jiu Xi Mountain, many students were exhausted.

Hou Ning walked to Lin Yin's side and sized her up. She had to admit that Lin Yin did have enough endurance and stamina. After walking down the whole stretch, other than being a little out of breath, she was not half-dead like the others.

If it weren't for Lin Yin's character, if it weren't for the fact that Lin Yin was always thinking about how to seduce men, Hou Ning would have thought that she was going to persuade Lin Yin to become a soldier.

Lin Yin knew that Hou Ning was looking at her, but she had exhausted a lot of her stamina now, so she did not look up at Hou Ning and just sat down to rest.

Everyone rested for a while. The coaches let them do their own activities. The content of today's training was very simple. They went through the knowledge points for the past few days and gave everyone a day to rest.

When it was almost night time, the instructors distributed the supplies to enter the mountain.

"For this demonstration, you'll be split into groups according to your profession. Each group has to save the hostages that belong to you from the instructors. The hostages saved by each group are different. As long as you don't save the hostages in your mission, as long as you're in school this year, you have to suffer the punishment of running ten rounds around the field every morning," Hou Ning said loudly with a loudspeaker.

As soon as Hou Ning finished speaking, the students below wailed, "Instructor, how can we defeat trained instructors like you?"

"That's right. Instructor, if you want us to run for an entire year, just say it." "I didn't expect the first challenge of the school to be so difficult!"

Hou Ning smiled and said, "Students, if you save someone, you'll get an additional 10 school credits. Think about the weight of these 10 school credits before you cry."

As expected, the eyes of the students below lit up. That was 10 credits.

For many semester-long courses, if one passed the exam, they would only get two credits.

Therefore, the students below instantly ignited enthusiasm.

However, Hou Ning started to pour cold water on them again. "Students, you have to pay attention. This is because these kidnappers are special. They're not the kind of kidnappers who are passively waiting for you to attack. They will also take the initiative to attack you. Once you're hit by paint bullets, you can only be eliminated."

The student was not happy for long before he became dejected.

Each class had an instructor, but their entire class had at least 20 people. If they really fought together, they did not believe that they could not defeat an instructor.

Seeing that the students' enthusiasm had been ignited, Hou Ning smiled and said, "As a group, everyone has to work hard. If anyone fumbles the ball today, everyone will lose a year of sleeping in."

When Hou Ning said this, her gaze vaguely landed on Lin Yin, making Lin Yin feel puzzled..

Chapter 790: Military Training Exercise

Lin Yin even had a bad feeling. Could it be that Hou Ning was going to target her?

It couldn't be?

She had been so close to Hou Ning recently!

Lin Yin sighed and shook her head. If that was really the case, she could only try her best.

Although Lin Yin had the habit of waking up early to run in the morning, if she was punished to run in the morning because she lost, it would be different.

After Hou Ning finished speaking, every student received some supplies, guns, and other weapons. Then, everyone was blindfolded. Everyone put their hands on the shoulders of the person in front of them and slowly walked into the dense forest.

At some point, the team stopped and there was no more movement.

"Instructor?" A student shouted tentatively. "We're not moving. Are we here?"

No one answered, so the students slowly pulled down their blindfolds. In the end, the instructor was really gone.

They were currently in a dense forest, and there was a dark and mysterious aura around them.

The moonlight shone through the dense leaves and onto the muddy ground, forming a faint light spot.

“D*mn, did the instructor really leave us here?”

“So, what should we do now? Find the hostages? But where are they?”

“Crazy, crazy. We’re just undergoing military training. Those who don’t know might think that we’re in the army!”

“Let’s search separately. Everyone, keep in touch. You have to hold the walkie-talkie well. Otherwise, it’s very easy to be finished if you can’t find each other in the wilderness,” someone suggested.

They all nodded.

Just as everyone was divided into groups, a roar came from the sky. Everyone looked up and saw groups of people climbing down from the helicopter.

Those people were dressed differently from the students’ military training uniforms and had guns on their backs.

“D*mn, are they playing such a big game? I even suspect that this isn’t a demonstration at all, but that someone has really been kidnapped.”

“Stop talking. Let’s quickly split up and hide. If we group up like this, we’ll be killed directly.”

As soon as that person finished speaking, everyone immediately dispersed according to the teams that had just been divided and hid in various bushes.

There were 12 people in Lin Yin’s team. Everyone was carefully hiding at the side and observing the situation above.

Just as everyone thought that they would be safe after those people came down, Lin Yin suddenly frowned and gestured. She whispered, “Everyone, don’t move first. Something seems to be wrong.”

When everyone heard Lin Yin's voice, they immediately did not dare to move.

A boy from the other group looked at Lin Yin and smiled disdainfully. "She's indeed a girl. She's already so careful before she even started. On such an occasion, we have to be bolder. We can't scare ourselves."

That boy was the one who had provoked Hou Ning on the first day of military training. Many boys beside him echoed that boy.

"Shut up!" Lin Yin shouted softly and continued to listen to the commotion in the air.

She heard a familiar voice. Although it was very mixed, Lin Yin could tell that it was the sound made by the first generation of the bee surveillance cameras. It was really similar.

At that time, the bee was a simulated drone, so such a sound was most likely the sound of a drone, and it was a lot of drones.

Seeing that Lin Yin actually dared to scold him, the boy was immediately dissatisfied. "How dare you tell me to shut up, you short-sighted woman. This era has indeed turned the world upside down for women. A woman dares to be an instructor, and a girl dares to give orders in front of me. You overestimate yourself."

Lin Yin couldn't be bothered with the boy's words and said, "There's something abnormal in the air. There might be something like a drone, and there are many of them. Therefore, we have to quickly find a place to hide."

The boy sneered. "Lin Yin, it's just a drone. What are you afraid of? If the drones dare to come, I'll shoot them all down."

Lin Yin didn't look at the boy. Instead, she said to her team members, "I'm going somewhere else to hide. Do you want to hide with me? Some idiots are so eye-catching when they stand up. If there's an attack later, we'll suffer too." Lin Yin didn't say it explicitly, but everyone knew who that idiot was referring to.

The boy immediately walked up to Lin Yin indignantly and scolded her from above, “Lin Yin, who the f*ck are you calling an idiot?”

As the boy spoke, he actually wanted to step on Lin Yin. In the next second, Lin Yin quickly reached out and knocked the boy to the ground..
