

Chapter 102

She sighed as she thought about it.

Aside from attempting to take away Olivia's identity and possessions, Lindsay, their biological daughter, was far less troublesome in other respects

"You need to handle this matter quickly and discreetly," she continued saying to Oliver and Edmund. "If anyone in our circle were to find out about this, it would be a disgrace to our family."

Both of them nodded. "We understand."

Feeling exhausted, Grace stood up and went to her room to rest.

Oliver and Edmund immediately took out their phones and began making calls. One arranged to remove the trending search, while the other enlisted influencers to spread news about other celebrities to divert attention.

After making the calls, both felt drained and somewhat regretted letting Alex and Olivia join this variety show. Since they started, it had been one mess after another for them to clean up.

This incident had nothing to do with Lindsay; they both blamed Alex for being too careless.

However, things didn't go as they hoped.

Just as their video and trending topics were taken down, new videos and renamed topics quickly surfaced and trended again. Even the major scandal involving another celebrity couldn't completely divert the attention.

The videos of Alex and Olivia being intimate sparked heated online discussions about whether they were really biological siblings.

In the yard, after Olivia finished speaking, the assistant director, along with the cameraman, went to the other guests' rooms to interview them.

Everyone's responses were brief, making Olivia's lengthy speech seem overly deliberate.

After interviewing each guest, the crew turned off the live broadcast and left the yard.

Seeing the broadcast end, Oliver couldn't hold back and called Alex, giving him a harsh scolding.

Alex, feeling confused and wronged, didn't understand why he was being blamed. Olivia, feeling anxious, sought him out for comfort.

They usually comforted Olivia this way, and she liked being soothed by them. How was he supposed to know the production team would sneak up on them?

It infuriated him that his second brother was blaming everything on him.

After a heated argument on the phone, the call ended on a sour note.

Oliver watched the online public opinion spiral out of control, feeling equally frustrated.

His plan for Alex and Olivia to join this variety show was to solidify Olivia's image as the "angel" and make her a breakout star.

He had meticulously arranged resources for her, aiming for her to reach the ranks of top actresses by next year.

Who could have predicted things would go so wrong?

Not only did Olivia fail to become famous, but she was also overshadowed by Lindsay, damaging her reputation significantly.

He was at a loss for how to resolve the situation.

Sitting in the study, he pondered late into the night before suddenly coming up with an idea.

Then he called Alex.

Restless and wide awake, Alex grabbed the phone when it rang. "Why did you call this late, Oliver?"

Oliver didn't waste any time with him. "I need to discuss something with Justin. Give him the phone."

Alex was puzzled. Why would his second brother want to talk to Justin in the middle of the night? But he didn't ask further, calling out to Justin.

Justin had already been awakened by the phone's ringing. "What's going on?"

Alex handed him the phone. "My second brother needs to talk to you."

Unaware of the earlier incident where Alex and Olivia's intimacy was broadcast live, Justin was confused but took the phone. "Calling me this late, what do you need?"

Oliver quickly explained the situation and how it had escalated online.

"There's only one way to divert everyone's attention now," Oliver said.

Justin frowned, asking, "What way?"

He guessed that Oliver's plan likely involved him, considering he had called so late.

Sure enough, Oliver soon said, "We need to reveal your relationship with Lindsay."
