

Chapter 104

Most people held an attitude of admiration, respect, and fondness for her. They expressed sympathy for her experiences and were increasingly curious about what had happened between Lindsay and the Harper family.

Why was there such a rift with her biological brothers?

Was it true that Lindsay had left the Harper family?

Many speculated whether Olivia had driven Lindsay away.

The video of Alex and Olivia hugging from that evening resurfaced, leading many to suspect Olivia's involvement. Since they weren't biological siblings, their intimate actions in the video stirred more speculation.

Fans of Lindsay quickly scoured the live stream replay, capturing numerous clips.

From these videos, it was evident that Olivia often flaunted her close sibling bond with Alex in front of Lindsay. It seemed like an intentional jab at her biological sister.

Additionally, people discovered the real reason behind Olivia cutting her hand earlier that day. It was seen as an attempt to prevent Lindsay from exposing their true relationship.

As sympathy for Lindsay grew, so did the backlash against Olivia.

Seeing the trending topics, the influencer's posts, and the flood of comments and conspiracy theories, Oliver's face turned grim. He hadn't yet prepared a public relations response, and now this new scandal had erupted.

There was no time to wait. He immediately called Alex again and asked him to pass the phone to Justin.

Justin, still awake, answered, "I haven't made up my mind yet."

Oliver quickly recounted the latest online developments.

"We can't wait any longer. If this continues, Via will be blamed and constantly criticized."

Justin hadn't anticipated the paparazzi uncovering this so quickly.

Before the Harper brothers and Olivia entered the entertainment industry, the Harper family took great care to block any information about their prestigious background and relationships from being leaked. The brothers also consciously avoided revealing their connections, so the paparazzi never managed to uncover the truth.

If it hadn't been for the recent outing of Alex and Olivia being exposed, they wouldn't have voluntarily revealed their sibling relationship.

The entertainment company run by Edmund was just a subsidiary of Harper Group, backed by the substantial capital of the Harper family.

Obtaining the Harper family's paternity test results was no easy feat.

Oliver couldn't help but think of Lindsay.

Hearing no response from the other end, Oliver anxiously asked, "

Have you made up your mind? You want to help Via, don't you? Exposing your relationship with Lindsay won't have a significant impact on you.

"You're an acclaimed actor who doesn't rely on social media popularity, and besides, you have the backing of the Ford family."

The Ford family, like the Harper family, was a prestigious and powerful household. Justin's powerful background meant that few in the industry dared to target him.

Hearing Oliver's continuous remarks, Justin finally snapped out of his thoughts. "And what about Lindsay?" he asked, pressing his lips together. "Have you considered the impact on her if our relationship is exposed?"

Oliver was taken aback, clearly having not thought about this before.

After a moment of hesitation, he said, "Lindsay has always been strong. She has endured so much since she was young; she can handle it."

"But Via was raised pampered by the Harper family. She's sensitive and easily hurt. When the variety show airs and she sees all the online comments, I fear she won't be able to bear it. Besides, this whole situation was stirred up by Lindsay."

"If she hadn't deliberately shown her hostility towards Alex on the variety show and made those pointed comments during the day, people wouldn't have been so curious."

"And it was those so-called mystic fans of hers who gave the paparazzi the lead to dig deeper. So, since it started with her, let it end with her."

He paused, then added, "I will compensate Lindsay. After all, she is my biological sister."
